This book is intended primarily to be a genealogical record of the descendants of Charles Angel Sr., pioneer of Frederick (now Carroll) County, Maryland, and secondarily to record other facts found during the search for genealogical data. Originally it was intended to include more complete biographical sketches; however, time did not permit doing this. The writer regrets that the genealogy of several branches of the family must be left incomplete because of lack of time and the expense involved in continued search of records.

The writer's original effort was made during 1926 and 1927, when he made several visits to various parts of Maryland, searched court and other records, and interviewed several of the older members of the family, most of whom have passed away in the meantime. That effort resulted in the compilation of a fairly complete chart of the older members of the family then living in Maryland and their ancestors for several generations. At this time a tie-in was made with certain county records, which established the fact that these people are descendants of Charles Angel Sr., who died in 1810. These facts, however, did not establish the connection between the Maryland families and the descendants of Israel Angel Sr., Harrison County, Ohio, pioneer, the primary object of the search.

The above mentioned interviews resulted in the assembly of data on the several fragments of the Maryland family, and in each instance some data was included that tied in to one or more of the other fragments; in some instances to and including brothers and sisters of great-grandparents. These data, when finally set up in chart form, showed the great-grandparents to be the same as the descendants of Charles Angel Sr., as recorded in his will; except that no one could account for his son John.

The success of the effort up to this point was due to the cooperation of the people interviewed in Maryland and subsequent correspondence with them. They were most cordial in receiving the writer and it is regretted that many of them are no longer with us.

Work on the Ohio branch of the family had been in process half heartedly for several years before the Maryland trips. Since that effort resulted in a failure insofar as tracing the ancestry of Israel Sr. was concerned, no more work was done until 1943. From 1943 to 1945 the writer had access to the Genealogical Section of the Library of Congress, the United States Census Records, the United States Archives, and the Library of the Daughters of the American Revolution, all in Washington, District of Columbia. Many hours were spent searching these records, with the result that it was definitely established that the Ohio branch of the family also was descendant from Charles Sr. of Frederick (now Carroll) County, Maryland. After a year of sparetime search work in Washington, the writer added data to the chart of the Maryland branch and compiled a chart of the Ohio branches. The writer's mother, Mary Angel Gruber, then eighty years of age, supplied most of the data on the Israel Angel Sr. family, which was supplemented to some extent with data from census records, and other facts obtained through correspondence. In addition to supplying facts handed down for generations, she gave the writer a note-book of Israel Angel Sr. in which he and his family had recorded the dates of birth of his entire family, and other pertinent facts. A search of Harrison County, Ohio, records by several interested people resulted in the discovery of data which established the parentage of Israel Sr. A rough chart of his family was submitted to the writer's mother in June 1944, when she added a great amount of detail from memory. Later checking proved the vast majority of the facts supplied by her to be correct.

The records of the John Angel Jr. family of Logan County, Ohio, were put together from fragments found in the census records supplemented by data supplied by Otto L. Angel and other members of that branch of the family, who were located through the kindness of Gerald S. Karr of the Bellefontaine, Ohio, Chamber of Commerce. Israel Sr. and John Jr. were brothers, a fact that we knew, and when we established the fact that their father was John Sr., we had our connection with the Maryland branch of the family and our connection with Charles Sr., pioneer of Maryland.

Much information on the younger generations and considerable detail on the main chart still were missing at this stage. For the work on compiling the required facts, the writer is greatly indebted to his cousin Emma Schaad Kinsey, who worked incessantly over a period of more than two years, interviewing members of the Ohio branch of the family and corresponding with those living at a distance. Without her cooperation much of the detail on the younger generations would not have been made available. Many others also have contributed information.

Considerable time-consuming work on correcting the manuscript was done by the writer's sisters, Eunice A. Gruber and Alverna Gruber Baer, and a complete review of the final draft was made by the writer's uncle, William H. Angel. Their work has helped to make this a much better book and permitted them to add genealogical data that otherwise would not have been included. Their painstaking and time-consuming efforts are greatly appreciated by the writer. Acknowledgment of assistance given by others is made under a separate heading and in some instances in the text.

The records included in this volume are incomplete and no doubt errors will be found; however, all available leads were followed, by correspondence or otherwise, and what appeared to be the most authentic information, was used. A few items of information came in too late for inclusion or revision of tabulation. It will be greatly appreciated if errors and omissions are reported to the writer, who will attempt to keep a record of them. Should circumstances permit a revised and more complete edition at some future date, this information will be made available. This work has been done voluntarily and the writer assumes no responsibility for errors and omissions; however, he hopes there are few of either

INTRODUCTION

ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF CO-OPERATION

The writer wishes to acknowledge, with thanks, the assistance given him by many of the members of the family. Their interest and co-operation in searching records and collecting data has resulted in a more complete and valuable record than otherwise would have been possible. In many instances, at appropriate places in the text, mention has been made of such co-operation; however, the writer wishes to include here, so far as it has come to his knowledge, a complete list of the names of those who have helped in this work.

No doubt there are instances where several people worked together in compiling data, which were forwarded by one of the group; consequently, the other names are not known. To those who helped in this manner, the writer wishes to express his thanks. Their efforts helped in this work and they may feel assured that their contributions are appreciated. Every effort was made to make this list complete and if any names have been omitted you are assured it was not intentional.

ROLL OF SUBSCRIBERS

Without the interest and financial support of those whose names appear below, this book would have remained in manuscript form. Although the author would have access to the information it contains, few others would know where to find most of the facts it contains, and some data required to establish our ancestry to the period prior to the Revolutionary War soon would be lost.

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

In order to use this book with satisfaction it is necessary to know certain facts about the person whose record you are investigating. Just to look for the record of John Angel would result in your finding about twenty different records. Also, it is necessary that you understand the system used in compiling this record, if it is to be used efficiently.

Before attempting to look up the record of John Angel, you should have some facts whereby you can identify him; such as the approximate year of his birth, names of his parents, grandparents, brothers and sisters, wife, children, place of residence, occupation, etc. The year of birth may suffice but some of the other facts may be necessary for positive identification.

In Part I are listed only descendants of the male members of the Angel and Angell families. Each male member listed in Part I is identified by a code of two parts, such as 3-2; which means "3" third generation, "2" family number two, and is that of Israel Angel Sr. The use of Sr., Jr., III, etc., has been found necessary in this record for the purpose of identification, because of the number of repetitions of several of the names from Charles Sr. down to the present generation. In tabulating family data, the code for the head of the family becomes the "family tabulation number". In looking for the records of Israel Angel you find the family tabulation number in the index, then under the fourth generation look for the tabulation 3-2. Although 3-2 is a third generation number, it is that of a parent of the fourth generation and head of that family. Israel also is listed in the third generation with his father, John Sr., 2-1.

The generations tabulated herein will be found to be at intervals of between twenty and twenty-five years, and with this in mind it will be easy to determine approximately the generation in which the name you wish to investigate is listed. Take for example, John Angel Sr., born 1833, has a son John Wesley, etc. The supposed date of birth of Charles Sr. (our first generation) is 1740 and that of our example is 1833, an interval of 93 years; or about four generations; consequently we may assume that his code commences with 4-. Now refer to the index and list all John Angels whose codes commence with 4-, then examine each family tabulation having the same number as the codes taken from the index and see if one of them can meet the requirements of the John for whom you are searching. If you do not find your man listed under the fourth generation repeat the operation by checking in the fifth and third generations. Should this result in failure, either you do not have authentic data or the person of your search is not listed. Do not depend upon just a few morsels of information when commencing your search; because some items you have may be incorrect or there may be an error in the book. See Note under Table of Family Tabulation Numbers, at the end of Suggestions for Using Part II.

The family tabulations in the book serve a three-fold purpose. First, they show the code, name, spouse and date of birth of the "Angel" parent of the family and such other facts as are available at this time. Second; they show the code, name, spouse, and date of birth of each child of the Angel parent, or such of these data as are available. Third: they show, preceding the parent's record, the ancestry of the Angel (or Angel descendant) parent of the family. Data on ancestry or descendants of female members of the family, or on the ancestry of the spouse of male members, may be found under the biography, when such facts have been found. A little study may be required on the part of the reader, in order to use this book with satisfaction. Have patience. The writer and some of his co-workers had an abundance of it.

In Part II are shown the families of the female descendants of Israel Angel Sr. 3-2, Hiram Angel 4-6, and others. Time does not permit including other such related families; also the continuation of this practice soon becomes so involved that it is no longer practical. The code used in Part II, comprises a number indicating the generation, (as in Part I) and a family number prefixed by a letter; A being used for the descendants of Israel Sr., B for the descendants of Hiram, and C and D for two other groups. Two indices have been prepared; one for the name Angel (and Angell) and another for all other names. The former contains only names found in Part I, but the latter includes the entire book. Where the name Angel appears in Part II the name is listed in the general index unless it also appears in Part I and is indexed there.

In both Parts I and II, the ancestry record, such as "Rosetta 5-B1—Hiram 4-6—Israel Sr. 3-2—John Sr. 2-1—Charles Sr. 1-1", should be read as follows: Rosetta 5-B1 daughter of Hiram 4-6 son of Israel Sr. 3-2 son of John Sr. 2-1 son of Charles Sr. 1-1.

In Part I the name Angel does not appear in the ancestry record because it already appears in the family tabulation below, and it does not change. In Part II it is shown only when there is a change. The family name last preceding governs until another change is shown.

ABBREVIATIONS USED

- cr. Indicates that the information is from, or derived from, United States census records.
- es. Indicates an estimation of date or time.
- (?) Indicates a doubt as to accuracy.
- (Sr.) Indicates that the next generation shows a son of the same name.
- m. Is for married. Either date of or to whom.
- b. Is for born.
- d. Is for died.
- Dash in ancestry record should be read "son of" or "daughter of". This should not be confused with the hyphen in the code, as 3-2.
- " " Quotation marks indicate the name by which a person generally was called in instances where the first name was not so used.
- () Names in parentheses are nicknames generally used.
- () Dates of birth, etc. in parentheses pertain to the name immediately preceding.

SUGGESTIONS FOR USING PART II

The recording of data on the descendants of the daughters of a family becomes complicated and confusing regardless of how it is done, if continued through several generations; because new family names are added with the marriage of each daughter, in each generation. For this reason the descendants listed in Part II have been treated in a manner similar to that used in Part I. Each generation is identified by a code, and is listed in chronological order regardless of the family name. For convenience in referring to Part II the numbering of pages therein commence with ~~404~~ 40.

In the text of Part II the descendants of each daughter of the Angel parent have been listed to the last generation, before the lineage of another daughter has been commenced. This method permits treating each group as one family, regardless of the marriages of several daughters and the entering of new family names. This is done to prevent a scramble of names and to make it possible to show the ancestry for each family tabulation.

From the above information and a casual study of the text, it will be seen why no general effort was made to follow through on the feminine side of the family. Furthermore, time does not permit making the necessary search to include all these families.

The descendants of the daughters of Israel Angel Sr., 3-2 have been included for the reason that originally it was intended to include only this family; however, fortunate "finds" permitted compiling a more extensive record. The descendants of the daughters of Hiram Angel, 4-6, have been included because the data on this branch of the family was readily available and most of the work on this project was done by members of this family.

An effort has been made to include data to show the ancestry of each person who assisted in the search for data. In instances of married daughters, whose names do not appear in Part II, the record of their children generally have been included in the biographical sketch of her father. This also applies, to a limited extent, in other instances if data were available.

In order to permit easy access to the records in Part II it is suggested that the following procedure be used:

First: Turn to the general index, find the name you want, and note the family tabulation number opposite the name. For example, Ira E. Wolfe, code 6-A146. From the first part of the code, "6-", we know that we have the sixth generation, and from the second part, "A146", that the name will be found in the tabulation of family A146. Or 6-A146.

Second: Look in the Table of Family Tabulation Numbers below, under the heading for the sixth generation and find the entry which covers the range including the code for the family name you want. For the example above it is 6-A141 to 6-A155. READ NOTE BELOW THE TABLE.

Third: Look in the left hand column of the table and see which section of Part II contains the family tabulation number. For Ira E. Wolfe this is section A4.

Fourth: Turn to the section and generation indicated by the procedure above and look for the name wanted. In this way you need search only a few pages at the most and you will find the record in either the family tabulation or the biographical sketch.

In some instances a name also may appear under the tabulation for the preceding or next generation of this family. For the code of the former look in the ancestry record above the family tabulation you have just examined, and for the code of the latter see the number on the left of the name of the person (or name of spouse) you found in the family tabulation.

PART I

Descendants of the Sons
of
Charles Angel, Sr., 1-1

Part I of this book is dedicated to:

MARY ANGEL GRUBER,

My mother, who despite her age of over eighty years, supplied the basic facts used in my search for data pertaining to the descendants of Israel Angel Sr. and the establishment of the relationship between the Maryland and Ohio branches of the Angel family.

And to the daughters of Charles Angel Sr. and the daughters of his descendants, of whom many have been instrumental in collecting and forwarding data for this book.

FIRST GENERATION

0-0 { -----ANGEL m.----- —b.----- —d.-----

Who the parents of Charles Angel Sr. were is a mystery, which the writer probably will not solve; because considerable research will be necessary. That the family is German is proved beyond doubt in the biographical sketch on the following page, but the origin of Charles and his parents is not known. Charles could have been born in America or Europe and likewise his parents. The name Angel is found frequently in Maryland records a hundred years before the birth of Charles, and it is possible that some of these people are his forefathers.

Immigration records show that Carl Philip Angel, age 20, entered the United States through the port of Philadelphia on September 2, 1734, from the Palatinas, on the ship Loyal Judith. This man could be the father of Charles Sr. Another fact should not be overlooked in making a further search; namely that the father of Charles or an earlier generation may have entered this country under the name Engell, a possibility that the writer has not had time to investigate.

Records in Baltimore and Annapolis may contain the information needed to identify the earlier generations; however, the records of Philadelphia and other ports of entry likewise could have the information. Definitely, we are not descendant from the famous New England Angell family, whose genealogy was so ably written by Avery Angell.

Charles Angel Sr., pioneer of Frederick County, Maryland, was born about 1740 and died in 1810. A study of the census records would indicate that his date of birth is between 1750 and 1755; however, these records are not available for periods prior to 1790, hence this estimate is based on incomplete data. His church activities in 1768 would indicate an earlier birth, probably between 1740 and 1745, or even earlier. His will was recorded on January 7, 1811 in Will Record Book No. 1, page 149, Frederick County, from which the names of his children and names of spouses of his daughters were obtained. The will also mentions Julia's son Michael Angel.

He lived in Myers Election District, No. 3, and was an active member of the Dutch Reformed Church of Silver Run, Maryland, where in 1768 he was one of a committee appointed to purchase land for the purpose of erecting a church for that congregation. Also, a history of St. Mary's Reformed Church by S. C. Hoover mentions Charles. Records of Frederick County show that he voted in Fredericktown between November 9 and 12, 1796, where he was registered as a Democrat-Republican. During the period from September 4, 1770 to September 16, 1774, he served as executor of the estate of John Gingling.

* In Charles' will this name is Flickner, but in the record of accounts in the office of the Registrar of Wills it is Flickinger.

Frederick County Deed Record W. R. No. 8 page 39 for April 18, 1788, records a transaction between Charles of the first part, and Jacob, Michael, and Charles Jr. of the other part, pertaining to a part of three tracts of land called Owens Choice, Friars Delight, and Ohio. The records show that from time to time Charles owned many tracts of land, the deed record index of the above named county from 1762 to 1802 listing 34 transactions in his name. Part of the record looks like an Angel land boom. His will indicates that at the time of his death he owned several tracts of real estate.

Below is a list of the names of several tracts Charles once owned.

Four lots in Winchester (now Westminster) 1771

One lot in New London

Date not known

Angel's Rest (resurvey of Owens Choice), 50 A. Patent May 24, 1773.

(The Maryland Land Office advised that this tract is on Saw Mill Branch, a tributary to Pipe Creek).

Ground Oak Thicket, 39½ A.

Patent Dec. 28, 1796

Laurel Bank, 10 A.

Patent Dec. 28, 1796.

Angel's Last Shift (resurvey of Stock's land) 87¼ A. May 24, 1786.

(The Land Office advised that this tract is in Carroll County, then Frederick County, between Taneytown and Uniontown).

Ground Oak Remnant, 62 A.

Patent Dec. 28, 1796.

Apparently Charles was a man of considerable wealth and of good standing in the community. Whether or not he brought his money to America, inherited it, or made it in this country is not known. From the information included here it is evident that he lived in Frederick County at least 48 years. A study of the census records for Charles and his sons indicate that at least the sons most probably are natives of Maryland. It should be borne in mind that Carroll County was a part of Frederick County prior to 1836.

From whence Charles came, the writer has been unable to determine; however, some clues exist, but lack of time prevents further search at present. Several members of the Maryland branch of the family stated that they were of the opinion that the family is of German origin, which the writer doubted for some time. In 1946 the writer made an examination of the original of Charles' will, filed in the Frederick County courthouse. His signature, plainly written, was Carl Engell, in what appears to be a modification of the German script. In several of the deed records his name appears in a similar manner, the signature probably having been copied by the recorder. From this information it is believed to be safe to assume that Charles or his ancestors came from Germany.

A search of county records made in 1927 was followed by interviews with several of the members of the Maryland branch of the family, who knew of their ancestry back to Jacob, Michael Sr., and Charles Jr., and in most instances their reports overlapped, thereby tying together the several smaller groups. This information, when compared to the descendants of Charles Sr. as shown in his will, coincided with the names shown there, except, that John was not mentioned by anyone. No one could account for him, and until the writer searched the census records it was not known that he had migrated to Ohio and was the father of Israel Sr., the writer's great-grandfather. Further facts about John Sr. will be found under the family tabulations 2-1, John Sr. and 3-2, Israel Sr.

Magruder's Maryland Colonial Abstract, Volume II, page 17, shows that Charles Angel served as executor of the will of John Gingling of Frederick County, Maryland, from September 4, 1770 to September 16, 1774. Also Scharf's History of Western Maryland, Volume II, includes the name of Charles Angel among the pioneers of Myers District No. 3, which includes the towns of Union Mills, Myersville, Silver Run, and Piney Creek Station. He states that the early settlers were almost entirely Germans from York and Lancaster Counties, Pennsylvania, or directly from the Palitanata.

John Sr. probably was born in Frederick County, Maryland, about 1762. The census records of 1790 for this county show that he had four children of whom at least two were under 16 years of age. In 1800 there were five boys under 10 years of age and three girls under 26 years old. Of these children we know that Charles, Israel, John Jr., Nancy, and Sarah went to Ohio with their family, and Andrew remained in Maryland. A study of the census records leads to the conclusion that John Sr. was born between 1760 and 1765, or about 1762. Statement of Mary Angel Gruber, in the Appendix, makes reference to George.

From a further study of the census records of Frederick County, Maryland, Harrison and Logan Counties, Ohio; and other records mentioned in the biography of John Jr. (3-3), it has been determined definitely that John Sr., 2-1, is the father of Israel Sr. (3-2), John Jr. (3-3), et. al. and that he migrated from Frederick County, Maryland, to Harrison County, Ohio, between 1800 and 1816. This is not more definite because the Frederick County census records of 1800 do not show the names in full; therefore we do not know whether J. Angel is John or Jacob; also the Ohio census records prior to 1820 are missing.

Harrison County Records of Deeds, Volume A, page 380, show that John Sr. acquired 100 acres of land from Leonard Kimmel on May 22, 1816, and by a deed recorded in Volume C page 431. John Sr. and his wife Margaret sold the same tract to John Jr. for $1,000; the land being located about two miles west of Germano. John and Margaret also conveyed to Israel, on November 21, 1822, as recorded in Volume C, page 183, a tract of land containing 160 acres, one mile northeast of Scio and two miles west of New Rumley, the deed having been witnessed by Catherine Angel (John Jr.'s wife) and Sarah Shafer, daughter of John Sr. General Land Office files in the Archives Building at Washington show that John Angel of Harrison County, Ohio, on the 14th day of July, 1817, purchased the southeast quarter of section 26, township 13 in the 5th range of the Steubenville District, for $320, and he was granted a patent on May 5, 1821.

War Department, Old Records Branch of the Adjutant General's Office, Archives Building, show that John Angle served in the Captain Hatch Dent's Company, 2nd Maryland Regiment foot troops, for three years. His name appears on rolls dated January 5, 1778, February 4, 1778, and March 18, 1778. Although the spelling is different, this may be John 2-1, as the writer's estimate of his year of birth could easily be off ten years. This of course has not been proved.

Nancy Angel married Jacob Riggie in Harrison County, Ohio, on September 25, 1821. No further information was found on this family.

Sarah Angel married Philip Shaffer (spelling found two ways in records) in Harrison County, Ohio, on December 2, 1819 and had two children, Solomon Schaffer and Peggy Schaffer; however, Philip died, probably in 1824, and his estate was appraised on August 23, 1824. On March 23, 1825 Sarah married Moses Markley, a widower with two children, Joseph Markley and Elizabeth Markley. This family lived near Harlam Springs, Carroll (then Harrison) County, Ohio. About 1835 they moved to an 80 acre farm about 2½ miles from Greysville, Monroe County, Ohio. Moses was born January 4, 1800, in Salisbury, Somerset County, Pennsylvania, and died January 26, 1872, at Greysville, where both he and Sarah are buried. The names of the children of Sarah and Moses are listed below:

KATHERINE —b. 1826.

NANCY —b. 1829 — Mary Emily.

DAVID —b.-----, Moses, Martha, Sarah, Simon.

JACOB —b. 1836 — Sarah, Margaret, Lucinda, Mathias, William, Emma, Susan, Orville, Lovina, Jacob.

AARON —b. 1838 — John, Thomas, Aaron, Frank.

MATHIAS —b. 1840 — Ira, Mack, Alex, Annie, L. D., Frank, August, Joseph.

Moses was a descendant of John Markley (1732-1810) of Brothers Valley Township, Somerset County, Pennsylvania, and was the father of six children; Joseph, Peter, Jacob, Mathias, Susannah, and Katherine.

Joseph, son of John, laid out the town of Salisbury, Pennsylvania, and in 1814 moved to a 640 acre farm now occupied by the city of Ashland, Ohio. He had twelve sons, including Moses, and two daughters. Moses left Ashland County and settled near Germano, Harrison County, Ohio, where he married ----- Everhart and had two children. After the death of his first wife he married the widow Sarah Angel Schaffer.

The above facts about Sarah and Moses, and the ancestry of Moses, were obtained from a genealogical record of the descendants of John Markley of West Salisbury, Pennsylvania, dated 1922, by Joseph M. Markley of Canton, Ohio. Joseph, a great, great grandson of John, most graciously loaned the writer a copy of this excellent book, furnished other facts, and did considerable record searching pertaining to the Angel family. Thanks a lot, Joe. The ancestry record of Joseph is quite unique and is included below:

Comparatively little information has been found on the descendants of this branch of the family. Someone thought they went west or south; however, Jacob undoubtedly was born in Frederick County, Maryland, where Marriage Records No. 3 (male) from 1778 to 1865, record the marriage of Jacob to Juliana (spelling not the same as in later court record). The Deed Records of this county, Record Book-W R 8, page 39, indicate a transfer of land between Jacob, and Charles, Michael, and Charles Jr. for part of a tract of land called Ohio. The 1790 census records show that Jacob lived in Frederick County, and that his family comprised two male members sixteen years or more of age, and two females, ages not indicated.

Frederick County Administration of Accounts, Liber J R R No. 2, page 486, account of Ephriam Richmond administrator of the goods and chattels of Polly J. Angel, late of Frederick County, deceased, distributed sums of money received from Dawson V. Hammond, executor of the last will of Colonel Thomas Hammond, deceased, for the first liquidation made on November 22, 1876. This money was distributed as follows:

To Julianna Angel, mother of the intestate, one third.

Julia Rea, sister of the intestate, one third.

Sophronia Gorsuch, sister of the intestate, one third.

The above records establish two facts: First, that Polly was the daughter of Jacob Angel 2-2, husband of Julianna, and that he had two other daughters, Julia and Sophronia. Second, that Polly's grandfather was Colonel Thomas Hammond.

Deed Record 17, page 562, Allegany County, Maryland, show that Polly J. Angel at one time owned 160 acres of land westwardly from Fort Cumberland and on the National Pike. This may account for the Ohio family tradition relative to Cumberland being the former home of Israel's ancestors.

Michael Sr. probably was born in Frederick County, Maryland, about 1770, and died in 1820. J. Albert Angell related in 1927, that his grandfather, Joseph, youngest child of Michael Sr., and born about 1808, was twelve years old when Michael Sr. was severely stung by yellowjackets, which resulted in his death.

From the 1800 census records we find that at this time Michael's family resided in Frederick County, and there were three male members under 10 years of age, one between 10 and 16 years, one between 26 and 45 years, and two over 45 years of age; also two female members under 10 years of age, and one between 26 and 45 years of age. Assuming that Michael is the man between age 26 and 45, which corresponds with the senior female member, he probably was born about 1765 or 1770.

Michael was party to a deed recorded in Frederick County Deed Records, Book W R 8, page 39, dated April 1787, between Jacob Angel, and Charles, Michael, and Charles Jr., for part of a tract of land called Ohio.

He married Marie Myers, according to information from Lizzie Birely and M. Naomi Adams, great granddaughters of Michael. Miss Birely told the writer that the family is of the Lutheran faith and it is her understanding that they are of German parentage. This was confirmed by J. Albert Angell, who thought his great grandfather or earlier ancestor came from Germany. He also advised that in spelling the single and double "l" was used promiscuously.

Charles Jr. is believed to have been born in Frederick County, Maryland, about 1780, as estimated from the census records. The name of Charles' wife was given as Elgear Thomas but Frederick County marriage records show her name as Elenore. Census records of Frederick County do not include this man, unless he is the C. Angle shown in the 1810 record. This probably is Charles Jr., because, a study of the records of the Angle family, both before and after 1810, does not reveal any trace of them in this county. If the 1810 record is of Charles Jr., he had a family of two boys under 10 years of age, two daughters under 10 years of age, he was between 26 and 45 years old, and his wife was in the same age bracket.

FOURTH GENERATION

Andrew 3-1 — John Sr. 2-1 — Charles Sr. 1-1.

3-1	{	ANDREW ANGEL	—m. 1816 —b. es. cr. 1790 —d.-----

		4-1	----- m. ----- —b.----- —d.-----
		-----	-----
		-----	-----

Family tradition indicates that Andrew, a brother of Israel Sr. (3-2), John Jr. (3-3), et al., remained in Maryland when the family migrated to Ohio. Frederick County, Maryland, census records for 1820, 1830, and of Carroll County, Maryland, for 1840, show that he resided in Election District No. 7 (Westminster District) and that he had a family of three boys and four girls, that he was born about 1790, and that his wife was born within a few years of that time. Carroll County was formed from a part of Frederick County in 1836; therefore we presume that Andrew did not move during the years mentioned above.

Scharf's History of Western Maryland, Volume II, page 864, describes the boundary of Election District No. 3 as laid out in 1837, as being along the land of Andrew Angel, leaving said Angel in District No. 7. This land is about four miles north of Westminster and about one and a half mile east of the village of Mt. Pleasant. The same volume, on page 924, under burials in St. Benjamin's (Kreiger's) Union Lutheran and Reformed Church Cemetery, records the burial of Barbara Angel, daughter of John Schaefer, born March 10, 1786, died January 18, 1832. Barbara married Frederick Boyers in 1807 and they had three sons. In 1816 she married Andrew Angel, by whom she had six children.

Records relative to the will of Charles Angel Sr., Liber G M E 2, page 144, November 12, 1827, Frederick County, Maryland, show that Andrew was a bondsman.

Mary Angel Gruber (—Hiram 4-6 — Israel Sr. 3-2 — John Sr. 2-1 — Charles Sr. 1-1.) stated that she had been told by her father, that Israel had a brother Andrew who remained in Maryland when the family went west to Ohio. She thinks that Hiram never saw his uncle Andrew.

* The first night of the meteor shower of 1833.

The above dates of birth are from Israel's note-book, mentioned later; however, some do not agree with dates given by his descendants. The writer prefers to accept the dates of the note-book.

According to family tradition, Israel was born near Cumberland, Maryland; however, all records found during the writer's current and previous searches indicate that the family lived in Frederick (now Carroll) County, Maryland, from 1790 to 1800, and possibly until 1815 or 1816. Allegany County (including the City of Cumberland) was formed from a part of Washington County in 1789. Because Israel was born in 1795, and his father's name is recorded in both 1790 and 1800 census of Frederick County, there is little argument in favor of Cumberland, 95 miles farther west in the wilderness. Furthermore, search of records of Maryland, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia (then Virginia) in the vicinity of Cumberland reveals no trace of the family. The census records of Tuscarawas County, Ohio, for 1850 show that Israel was born in Maryland. A study of the above and other records mentioned heretofore indicate that he came to Harrison County, Ohio, with his parents between 1800 and 1816.

Family tradition further refers to a townsite on land that is supposed at one time to have belonged to Israel's father or earlier ancestor, with Cumberland again having been mentioned. This has been investigated with considerable care and there is no indication that this city could qualify. (The writer has had considerable experience in searching of land title and court records and personally made the search). Although Charles Sr., Israel's grandfather owned considerable land at various times, he operated in Frederick (now Carroll) County; however, among the many tracts of land he owned from time to time were four lots in the town of Winchester, now Westminster, and one in New London, which to some extent meet the requirement. All the other tracts once owned by Charles Sr. have not been investigated; therefore, it is possible that some other village or even one of the smaller cities, or a subdivision of one, may be located on one of the tracts formerly owned by him. Likewise this could apply to a tract of land formerly owned by Israel's father or more distant relative.

Polly J. Angel, daughter of Jacob Angel (2-2), a brother of Israel's father, at one time owned 160 acres of land on the National Pike westwardly from Fort Cumberland, Maryland. This is in Allegany County near the City of Cumberland and may be responsible for the Cumberland story. See family tabulation 2-2 for more details about Polly's case.

A small note-book, containing notes by Israel Sr. and members of his family that was handed down to his son Hiram and by him to Charles F., whose widow Ellen gave it to the writer's mother, has supplied considerable information. One entry is "I. Israel Angel was born on Sunday, March 29, 1795", indicating that the entry is in Israel's handwriting. The dates of birth of his children are recorded in different handwriting, and other than Israel's, probably that of the mothers of his children. He also recorded his marriage to Annie as being on February 1, 1818, and someone recorded the date of Israel's death as September 21, 1850.

The Harner family, including Israel's first wife, came to Harrison County, Ohio, from Fayette County, Pennsylvania, before Ohio was admitted to the union. Israel and Annie were married in Harrison County, Ohio, by John Wagner, J.P., on February 1, 1818, and had eight children, the youngest being John, who was born only a few years before his mother died.

Harrison County Deed Records Volume C, page 138, show that John Angel (Sr.) and his wife Margaret, conveyed to Israel on November 25, 1822, 160 acres in the southeast quarter of Section 26, Township 13, Range 5, of land directed to be sold at Steubenville. This tract is about 2 miles due west of New Rumley and is the birthplace of several, if not all, the children of Annie Harner Angel. Joseph and Hiram were born on McGuire's Creek near New Rumley, and it is the writer's opinion that this is the above described place.

Israel also acquired a tract of land in Section 31, Township 11, Range 4, containing 103 acres, from Henry Harner and Barbara his wife, by deed dated November 27, 1929, and recorded in Volume F, page 170. A deed of trust covering this land and recorded in Volume F, page 428, also mentions Susanna and Catherine Herner. He also owned land in Lee Township, Carroll County, at one time.

Henry and Barbara Herner (Harner) were the parents of Annie (Nancy), Catherine (Katy) not married, Sallie (m. Stinger), Susanna (m. Haggay), Mary (m. Lowmiller), Bill (drowned), Barbara (m. Adam Shawher December 22, 1816), Margaret (m. Adam Snyder April 24, 1823), Henry, and Joseph. Joseph was born in Fayette County, Pennsylvania, on May 11, 1800, came to Ohio when he was a small child, married Rebecca Salmon on March 12, 1835, and died in Jewett, Ohio, on January 15, 1900. Records show that Samuel Harner married Casandra Cox on November 1, 1821 and that Rachel Harner married John Tyler on December 2, 1819.

On April 5 (or 6), 1836, Israel married Mary M. (Mollie) Stonebrook in Carroll County, Ohio, and in 1837 moved his family to Tuscarawas County, Ohio. Here he acquired a farm in Jefferson Township, about a mile and a half from Philipburg, now Stonecreek, on the road past the brick works to Oldtown Valley and later known as the Adam Regula place. Here Israel and Mollie raised a family of six children, the first born being Susan, who died in childhood and was the first to be buried in the Philipsburg cemetery, and Maria later was buried nearby. Israel died on September 21, 1850 and is buried near Susan and near the southeasterly corner of the cemetery.

The census of 1850, for Tuscarawas County, shows that he was born in Maryland in 1795, that he owned real estate valued at $700. It is apparent that Israel did not acquire much wealth; however, he left to his children the will to work. Soon after Israel's death, Mollie returned to Harrison County.

John Jr. was born in Maryland, probably in Frederick (now Carroll) County, in 1797 and migrated to Harrison County, Ohio, with his parents between 1800 and 1816. He was born in the afternoon and when the moon was full. His will was probated August 20, 1875 in Will Record B page 514, Logan County, Ohio.

Jefferson County, Ohio, Vol. I, marriage records show that John Angel was married to Catherine Hendricks on April 17, 1822, by John Shorber, J.P. The 1830 census records of German Township, Harrison County, show John Angel with three children under 10 years of age; whereas the 1820 census for Green Township of this county record John Angel with three children between 16 and 26 years of age; therefore the latter record undoubtedly is of John Jr.'s father, and John Jr. is one of the children between 16 and 26 at home in 1820. (John Jr. was married two years later). The 1850 census for Harrison Township, Logan County, Ohio, show that John Jr. was born in Maryland, was 53 years of age and that his wife Harriet was born in Virginia and was 38 years old, indicating a second marriage. This is verified in Logan County Ohio, Marriage Record Book A, page 247, which shows that John Angel and Harriet Smith were married on June 27, 1844. Earl Smith gives the date as June 25, 1844. Marriage Record Book C contains the names of spouses of John's daughters as shown above. The years of birth above, where month and day are not indicated, were computed from U. S. Census records.

From information handed down by Hiram (4-6—Israel 3-2) his father Israel had a brother John, a small man, who came on horseback from Indiana to visit their home. Logan county is not far from the Indiana line. Also it was reported that John lived near Bellefontaine, Ohio, which is verified by the Logan County census records of 1840 and 1850. This then ties in John Sr., John Jr., and Israel as father and two sons. Furthermore, real estate transfers in Harrison County include a deed dated July 8, 1824, from John Angel Sr. and his wife Margaret, to John Angel Jr., recorded in Book C, page 431, it being the same land John Sr. acquired on May 22, 1816 from Leonard Kimmel. On June 18, 1833, John Jr. and Catherine executed two deeds in favor of James Anderson Jr. and James Anderson Sr. respectively. They were recorded in Deed Record Vol. F, pages 445 and 446, indicating that John Jr. moved to Logan County after June 1833.

From the above deed reference and 1840 census records of Logan County, it is evident that John Jr. moved from Harrison County between June 1833 and 1840; furthermore, at least three of his boys were born in the latter county and quite probably all of Catherine's children. This is verified below

The 1850 census show an appraised value of John's real estate as $6320, indicating that he owned a very good farm and was a prosperous man of considerable means. Here his entire family is listed, and the records indicate that Harriet was born in Virginia and all the children in Ohio; John Jr. was shown to be a farmer; John III, a carpenter. Both 1860 and 1870 census records include his name and that of Harriet; his real estate in 1860 was appraised at $15,000, and $8,000 in 1870.

Otto Angel, grandson of John Jr. 3-3, remembers the home of his grandfather and states that it was a very fine house built of quarried stone. He reported that in 1946 during a visit with his cousins, Nancy Angel Ketchele and Frances C. Angel Kallam, in Toledo, Ohio, he was shown some excellent photographs of John and his stone house.

Otto stated that his aunt Ella (Angel Smith) told him that some of his father's people at one time lived near Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. His mother, (Martha Conley Angel), told him that her brothers and sisters at one time lived in Pennsylvania near New York state, but she did not know about the Angel family. He also thinks that the Hendricks and Smiths (families of the wives of John Jr. 3-3) migrated from Virginia to Pennsylvania and from there to Ohio. He advised that John Jr. at one time sold out in Logan County, Ohio, and went to Iowa, but he soon returned to Logan County; also, that he lived in Indiana for a short time.

Eliza and William Millner had three children as follows: (1) Charles Millner, who married Nellie Rawson, had five children—Fay Millner, Roy Millner, Mabel Millner, Helen Millner, and Ora Millner; (2) James W. Millner, who married Lillian Anline had no children; (3) Arminagh Millner, who married James Coen, had four children—W. O. Coen, Harry Coen, Bertie Coen, and Maud Coen. Maud Coen married Ora Dow and has given considerable assistance to Otto Angel (5-55) in compiling data on the family of her great-grandfather, John Angel Jr. (3-3).

Mary Angel and Robert McCoid had two children: (1) Belle McCoid, who married Henry Arnold; and (2) Lena McCoid, who married Everet Wickersham.

Ellen Angel and Thomas A. Smith (a tailor of Bellefontaine, Ohio), were married Aug. 7, 1862, and had two children: David E. Smith, born Apr. 11, 1863; and Harriet Jane Smith born Feb. 4, 1867 (not married). David E. Smith married Elizabeth Burns on April 15, 1882, and had four children; Edna Smith, born June 6, 1883; Thomas "Earl" Smith, born July 16, 1888; Harry Smith, born July 16, 1890; and Helen Smith, born May 1, 1896.

Katherine Angel and William Hartzler were married May 14, 1865, and had a son, Harry Hartzler (deceased), whose family live in Chicago. Thomas Earl Smith stated in a letter, that there were two sons: Carl Hartzler and William Hartzler Jr., and a daughter now residing in Roseland, Illinois. Harry may be the first or middle name of either Carl or William, Jr. This name also has been given as Hartzell.

Thomas "Earl" Smith supplied a considerable amount of data on this family, and all the data on the family of Ellen Angel and Thomas Smith. He lives in Ellicottville, New York. Thanks, Earl.

NOTE: The writer is greatly indebted to Gerald Karr Smith, secretary of the Bellefontaine, Ohio, Chamber of Commerce, for assistance in getting started on the genealogy of this branch of the family. Thanks, Gerry.

Jefferson and Harrison County records, for this family and 3-2, were supplied by Mrs. J. Howard Dellinger, Chevy Chase, Maryland. She also made helpful suggestions to the author. Many thanks.

Charles probably was born in Maryland and migrated to Ohio with his family. There is little information available about Charles and Eve. They were married in Harrison County, Ohio, by John Wagner, J.P. The marriage record shows Eve's name as Muntz or, may be, Murtz.

Census records of Maryland and Ohio, for 1820, do not list Charles, but the record of Green Township, Harrison County, Ohio, for 1830, list Eve as head of the family, show her age to be between 20 and 30, that she had two girls under 5 years of age, one boy and two girls between ages 5 and 10. With two children under five years of age, in 1830, Charles must have died some time between 1827 and 1830. If Eve was between age 20 and 30 at this time, she was born between 1800 and 1810, probably about 1805.

Harrison County, Ohio, Court of Common Pleas records of November 12, 1835, show legal action by Eva Angel vs. Rachael Angel, John Angel, Mary Ann Angel, and Caroline Angel, relative to dower interests. These defendants undoubtedly are her children. Apparently Charles died without leaving a will; consequently, the estate had to be settled in court. Other records show that the estate was administered by Jacob Riggie, a brother-in-law of Charles, and John Angel, probably his father.

Harrison County deed records show three deeds for land sold by Charles and Eve. On one deed he signed his name Carl.

A statement in the appendix by Mary Angel Gruber, mentions that her sister Rosetta claimed that Hiram (4-6) spoke of an uncle George, whom he never had seen and supposedly went south, probably to Georgia. Census records of Frederick County, Maryland, for 1830 and 1840, list a George Angel, who may or may not be George 3-5. Available information is not of such a nature to permit identification.

Codes 3-6 to 3-10 are reserved for the descendants of Jacob 2-2. Little definite information has been found on the descendants of Jacob 2-2. Probably someone may at a later date take up the search and find the descendants of this son of Charles Sr. It is the writer's opinion that Jacob went south, probably into Virginia or father. This is based upon the reports of someone going south by Mary Angel Gruber and by some of the older generation of the Maryland branch of the family.

George Sr. was born in Maryland in 1792 or 1793, according to census records of 1850, 1860, and 1870, of Carroll (formerly Frederick County, Maryland, and at that time he lived in Election District No. 1 (Taneytown). The 1850 records also show that his wife, Catherine, was 48 years of age and born in Maryland, where their children were born. All ages were given in these records, which also show that George owned real estate appraised at $3400, and that the name Angel was spelled both with one "l" and with two.

Names of the members of this family, and of the brothers and sisters of George, including their husbands and wives, were included in information supplied by Margaret C. Adams (daughter of George) and her daughter M. Naomi Adams (—b. Oct. 8, 1883), who married Franklin J. W. Horich (—b. Apr. 8, 1880). Margaret and Naomi lived in Waynesboro, Pennsylvania, and later in Camp Mill, Pennsylvania, where Margaret died at the age of 95. Franklin held a prominent position with the Pennsylvania Department of Highways, in Harrisburg, for many years. He and Naomi were married August 22, 1931.

War Department Records Branch, Old Records Section, United States Archives, Washington, District of Columbia, show that John received a land grant for military service in the War of 1812. The application, dated April 17, 1871, states that he was 81 years of age, a resident of Harney, Maryland, served as a private in Captain Louis Weaver's Company of Maryland Militia in the war with Great Britain, was drafted on September 4, 1814, for thirty days, and was honorably discharged on September 20, 1814. His cousin John, 3-18, served in the same unit during the same period of time. According to the above military record, John was born in 1790; whereas from the 1850 census records we compute his date of birth as 1798. The latter is more likely to be correct for the reason that at the age 52 he would be less likely to make an error than at 81; however, it is possible that the census records are incorrect. All records found spell name with one "l".

Ann Eliza, born in 1834, was interviewed by the writer in 1927. She then was 93 years of age and related some facts about her family. She was a slender woman and unusually spry for her age. Her daughter, Mrs. Grant Boone, supplemented the information given by Eliza, and referred the writer to other members of the family for further information.

Samuel Washington Angel served in the Union Army during the Civil War and was killed in action a short time before the end of hostilities.

Susan Buffington had a sister Catherine married to George Garner, a sister Lizzie married to ----- Hendricks, and a brother David Buffington. After the death of Catherine and ----- Hendricks, Lizzie married George Garner. David Buffington married Susan Angel, 2-3. The United States census records of 1850 and 1860 for Carroll (formerly a part of Frederick) County, Maryland, include the ages of these people, thereby indicating the years of their births, show that all are natives of Maryland, and that John was a farmer. The genealogy of the Buffington family is in preparation by Jesse H. Garner, 625 Kalsey Ave., Cameron, Mo.

Lizzie Birely, daughter of Susan Louise Angel and Thomas Birely, has been exceedingly cooperative and supplied complete data on the descendants of her grandfather (John), the names of his brothers and sisters, and those of his father (Michael Sr.); also, she furnished much information that served as a check on other branches of the family and as a tie-in between these branches. Thanks, cousin Lizzie.

Hannah Angell married John Feeser (—b. Oct. 28, 1823, —d. May 26, 1902.) on January 20, 1846, (license dated Jan. 12) in Carroll County, Maryland. Hannah and John had a daughter, Martha Ellen Feeser (—b. Sep. 11, 1848, —d. Apr. 17, 1920), who married Jacob M. Birely (—b. June 9, 1844, —d. Apr. 20, 1914), on January 4, 1866.

Martha Ellen and Jacob had a daughter, Daisy Alice Birely (—b. Aug. 14, 1871, —d. Feb. 21, 1947), who married Robert A. Kemp (—b. Feb. 10, 1865, —d. Mar. 4, 1942,) on April 27, 1892.

Daisy Alice and Robert had a daughter, Martha Almira Kemp (—b. Aug. 5, 1897), who married William R. Slemmer (—b. June 4, 1891), on August 14, 1920.

Martha Almira and William had a son, William R. Slemmer Jr. (—b. May 19, 1921), who married Carol Kathleen Steppe (—b. Aug. 16, 1922.) on September 12, 1943. This couple has a son, William Raimond Slemmer III, born August 8, 1944. These excellent facts were supplied by Martha Kemp Slemmer.

M. Naomi Adams Horich advised that Michael Jr. is a brother of her grandfather (George Angel) and that he married Eliza Shriner. Lizzie Birely and J. Albert Angell also identified Michael Jr. Census records for 1830 show Michael as residing in Election District No. 6 (Manchester), Frederick County, Maryland, and having one daughter under 5 years of age, one son and one daughter between 5 and 10, and he and his wife between 20 and 30; which would indicate that he probably was born between 1800 and 1810. The 1840 census shows him living in District No. 10 (Taneytown), with two sons under 5 years of age, two daughters between 10 and 15, one son between 15 and 20, he between 40 and 50, and his wife between 30 and 40. From this it would appear that he was born about 1802.

Thomas, 4-46, is shown in the 1860 census with Ephriam 4-62 as being 22 years of age; therefore, it is assumed they are brothers.

- 3-14 ABRAHAM ANGEL (not married) —b.----- —d.-----

Little is known about Abraham, except that both Lizzie Birely and M. Naomi Adams said he served in the army, the latter that he was single. A study of the ages of other members of the family (Joseph, born in 1808 was the youngest) and the census records, which include his father in 1800, but do not show him in 1790, would indicate that Abraham was born between 1790 and 1805. It therefore is not probable that he served in the War of 1812.

U. S. Archives records of the Adjutant Generals Department include an Abraham Angel who enlisted July 20, 1814, at Milford, New Jersey in Captain Reynold's Company, 27th Infantry, and continues on the rolls to August 31, 1815, in Captain Bliss' Company, 6th Infantry, and shows that he was born in Sparta, New Jersey. Altho it is the writer's opinion that Abraham was born in Maryland, there is no proof, and the above could be Abraham 3-14.

Census records of 1830 for Frederick County, Maryland, show a Jacob Angle living in Election District No. 6, who probably is Jacob 3-15. This record shows a boy and a girl under 5 years of age, another girl 10 to 15, and Jacob as being between 20 and 30. The 1840 census for Carroll County, Maryland (Carroll formed from a part of Frederick County in 1836), District No. 1, show him as having one girl under 5 years old, one boy and two girls between 5 and 10, one boy between 10 and 15 and another between 15 and 20; Jacob as between 30 and 40, and his wife between 40 and 50. A study of the above data would indicate that he was born about 1802.

Mr. Francis B. Sappington Jr., great grandson of Jacob, has supplied data on this branch of the family including dates of birth and death, names of Jacob's wife and her parents. It will be noted that Jacob was born in 1804, and the estimate given in the paragraph above is 1802, which would indicate that the system of estimating used by the writer is reasonably correct.

Mary Cox Angell was the daughter of Leonard and Elizabeth Cox.

The census records of Carroll (formerly part of Frederick) County, Maryland, for 1850, 1860, and 1870 list the several members of this family, showing ages and indicating that all were born in that state; also that Joseph had been a laborer, shoemaker, and farmer, and owned real estate appraised at $900 in 1870.

J. Albert Angell of Taneytown supplied most of the family's names in 1927 and advised the writer that the spelling of the family name varied in different branches of the family, both the single and double "l" being in use.

He said Joseph was the youngest of Michael Sr.'s children and when twelve years of age Joseph lost his father as the result of being badly stung by yellow-jackets. He gave the names of Joseph's brothers and sisters as George, John, Jacob (went to W. Va.), Michael, Polly (Baumgartner), and Julia; also that Sallie Harner Angell's brothers and sisters were Samuel, David, James, Abraham, Eliza, Anna, and Hettie. He said someone of the family went west, which could refer to his uncle John, the father of the Ohio pioneers, Israel and John Jr. Mention of Joseph also was made by Lizzie Birely and M. Naomi Adamms.

U. S. Census records of 1850 and 1860 for Carroll (formerly part of Frederick) County, Maryland, include the names and ages of this family, indicating that they were born in Maryland, that John was a carpenter and farmer and had real estate appraised at $1000. The record of 1850 includes Catherine Frock, age 73 (born 1777), who probably is Elizabeth's mother.

War Department Records Branch, Old Records Section, United States Archives Building, Washington, District of Columbia, show that John received a land grant for military service in the War of 1812, against Great Britain. His application for a land grant filed April 6, 1871, shows that he was 81 years old, resided at Taneytown, Maryland, was a private in Captain Louis Weaver's Company of Maryland Militia, was drafted Sept. 4, 1814, for thirty days and was honorably discharged September 20, 1814. This record is identical with that of his cousin John, son of Michael, and in the past there was some confusion; because the two records have the appearance of a duplication. Careful scrutiny, however, reveals that the signatures are different.

The names of John's wife and children, his father, brothers and sisters, including husbands and wives, were supplied by James Angell 5-276, John's grandson, who stated that John and his family were born at Hilltown, now Mt. Pleasant, Maryland. Further facts were supplied by Charles L. Angell, 6-555.

Carroll County, Maryland, Scharf's History of Western Maryland, Volume II, page 841, show dates of birth and death of John and Elizabeth in the records of the German Reformed Church Cemetery of Taneytown, Maryland.

Mary Ellen Angell and Oliver Birley (born 1849, died 1918) had two children, Louis Birley and Lula Birley, both not married.

Susan C. Angell and Joseph Bussard lived at Frederick, Maryland, and had three children; Clarence Bussard, Mary Bussard and Raymond Bussard.

Fannie Key Angel and Charles Valentine lived for many years in the vicinity of Keymar, Maryland, where Charles was station agent and telegraph operator, and where Fannie died. They had no children. Fannie was born on the Francis Scott Key farm near Keysville, Maryland. Charles who survived Fannie, was born June 20, 1860 and died March 9, 1930. He was the only child of James Valentine, son of William Valentine and Polly Mehring (they had nine children), daughter of Frederick Mehring and Magdalene Garner (1780-1812). Magdalene was the daughter of Tobias Garner (1754-1793).

Joseph was born on McGuire's Creek near New Rumley, Harrison County, Ohio. The family gives his date of birth as March 5, 1824; whereas, his father's note-book gives March 15 (23 erased partially) 1825, and the cemetery record shows March 23, 1823. Israel's note-book is plainly written and would appear to be reliable and is in handwriting believed to be that of Joseph's mother. Elizabeth is buried in West Fair Street Cemetery, New Philadelphia, Ohio. Adam was born at Dover, Ohio, and Frank E. in Indiana.

In 1850 Joseph, Hiram, and Barbara were living with the family of Jacob Roser in Jefferson Township, Tuscarawas County, Ohio. Their mother died about 1835, and likely they were working for Mr. Roser, or boarding there and working elsewhere:

Hiram was born on a farm on McGuire's Creek near New Rumley in Harrison (now Carroll) County, Ohio. In 1837 his family moved to Tuscarawas County, Jefferson Township, near the village of Philipsburg, now Stonecreek, Ohio. Hiram, then a lad of eleven, accompanied his parents; however, his mother had died before he left his former home, and in 1850 the census records show that he with his brother Joseph and sister Barbara Ann were living with the family of Jacob Roser, an uncle by marriage.

On April 19, 1845, Hiram was confirmed by The Reverend D. Sparks, in the Philipsburg Evangelical Lutheran Church, built in 1840 on the hill one half mile north of Philipsburg, and remained a member of the congregation until his death. He married Caroline Hahn, daughter of Jacob Hahn and Elizabeth Ritter, an active member of the German Reformed Church.

Hiram and Caroline commenced housekeeping on the Toland farm on Oldtown Valley in Tuscarawas County, on a side road past the old Bill Angel (Aunt Cass Angel) farm on the Oldtown Valley Road about four or five miles from Stonecreek. They later lived on the John Meese farm on the same sideroad, but two farms nearer to the main road. Rosetta, their first child, was born at the former place, and Elizabeth, Nancy, and Mary at the latter.

About April 1860, Hiram bought the Hoffman or Ridgway farm, of 100 acres, about two and a half miles northwest of Stonecreek, where the other children were born and the family grew to manhood and womanhood. Here the children received their training and were educated in the one-room school standing adjacent to the farm, later known as the Angel School. Hiram was a hard worker, as were his children; consequently their farm was well kept and productive. He belonged to the Republican Party and was elected to serve as Justice of the Peace in 1876, in which capacity he served until 1881.

On February 5, 1889, Hiram moved to the village of Stonecreek to retire, and built a home on a lot acquired from Dan Wherley across the street from the English Lutheran and German Reformed Church, where both he and Caroline attended. Not contented with a garden, Hiram always kept a horse and made almost daily trips back to the home farm or to another near Ragersville, in which he owned a half interest, with the writer's father. He lived in Stonecreek until his death and Caroline remained there several years thereafter. When she became too feeble to live alone, she went to her daughter Elizabeth in New Philadelphia, where she died. Both Hiram and Caroline are buried in the Stonecreek Cemetery.

The writer, as a boy, spent many days with Hiram going back and forth from the farms and working with him, and profited greatly by this association. He was a man of fine character, a strict disciplinarian, but sympathetic when the occasion required. He once went to the county seat to transact business at the bank and the cashier counted out a number of bills and shoved them across the counter to Hiram, who counted them deliberately, then turned to the banker and said "Mr. ——— you made a mistake". The cashier replied "I don't make mistakes". Hiram said, "Yes I know—but you made one." The banker cursed and said, "I tell you I don't make mistakes", to which Hiram replied, "Yes, but you made one this time. You gave me a hundred dollars too much." (Cashier's reply censored).

Caroline was a tiny woman, extremely active, and was known by all her friends and many relatives as Aunt Caroline. She was a very sympathetic person and always gave a helping hand when neighbors were in difficulties. Her cooking was known throughout the county and her dinner table seldom was without extra plates. Both the German Reformed and the Evangelical Lutheran ministers were frequent Sunday guests, as were many friends and relatives. The writer had many a "drumstick" from her table. See tabulation 3-D1 of Part II, for her ancestry.

John was the youngest son of Israel and Annie, and probably was born on McGuire's Creek near New Rumley, Harrison County, Ohio, on a farm Israel acquired from his father on November 25, 1822. Israel sold a farm in this county on December 5, 1833, because of financial difficulties. It is not likely that Israel moved to Tuscarawas County before this time; consequently it is believed that John was born in Harrison County.

Roy Angel, grand-son of John, advised that "The old folks and John was born the night the stars fell." Israel's note-book records John's birth as being in 1833 and has an entry "December", which later was corrected to read "November", either 11 or 13, it being difficult to determine which is meant. The writer communicated with the staff of the United States Naval Observatory, Washington, D. C., and was told that the meteor shower of 1833 occurred from November 12 to 14. From this information it would appear that November 13 probably is the correct date of his birth.

John's early days were spent on a farm near the village of Philipsburg, Ohio (see Israel 3-2), where he learned to be a farmer and became proficient at blacksmithing. He worked at this trade for some time at Germano, near his birthplace, but the glow of the forge was too severe for his already weakened eyes; therefore, he discontinued working at his trade. Being a lover of horses, John trained himself as a veterinarian (horse doctor, in those days) and was frequently called by neighborhood farmers.

After their marriage, John and Isabelle migrated to Indiana where John again returned to farming. An amusing story is told about their trip west on the train. John owned a highly prized squirrel rifle, which he was carrying along as luggage. During the long trip he became restless, so entrusting the precious rifle to Isabelle, he walked back through the coaches to talk with some of the passengers but he remained away longer than his bride thought he had intended. Becoming somewhat alarmed, but remembering her promise to care for the rifle, she started back through the train, rifle in hand, and with anxiety in her countenance, when she was stopped by a trainman, who asked where she was going. Becoming irritated by the interference she replied sharply, "I'm looking for my husband". It required a bit of explaining on her part before she convinced the conductor that her intentions were peaceful. To many of the family Isabelle was known as "Aunt Eby".

John was an ardent Union man and living near the Kentucky-Indiana border, after the Civil War, he frequently became involved in serious discussions with the Kentuckians; consequently, he soon returned to Tuscarawas County.

Ohio, and bought a farm on Fry's Valley, now owned by his grandson. His low crowned black hat and chin whiskers proclaimed his affiliation with the Dunkard Church, and his verbosity on Election Day proved why it was desirable for him to return to Ohio from the Kentucky border in the early post-war days. Uncle John's black hat is one of the writer's lingering memories of his boyhood days. John was an impressive man of most excellent reputation and it was a pleasure to know him.

Donald B. Angel and his father supplied much data on this family. Thanks, D. B.

The census records of 1860 for Martin County, Indiana include John and Isabelle in Lost River Township, Halbert Bluffs Postoffice, and show that John was a farmer, had real estate appraised at $600 and had two children; that Mary E. was born in Ohio, and John Jr., age six months, was born in Indiana; date of census is August 20, 1860. His record was not found in this state in 1870, and it is reported that this family returned to Ohio about 1864. Other members of the Angel family lived in Indiana about the same time; including John's sister, Barbara Ann Heckler, and his brother Joseph.

John's daughter Ellen and Charles Shoop had three children: Edith Shoop (—b. 1886 and —m. Edward Steinbaugh), Beula Shoop (—b. Dec. 23, 1889, —m. Leroy Russel), and Harry H. Shoop (—b. Oct. 3, 1890, —m. Bernice Stonebrook).

Bertha married Edward Schwendiman. They had no children, and after his death she married Edward's brother Frank. Bertha and Frank Schwendiman had two children: Isabelle Schwendiman (—b. June 4, 1910, —m. Homer Haupt), and Fred Schwendiman (—b. Dec. 22, 1914 —m. Mary Bond). Just before releasing the manuscript for printing, the writer received a letter from Bertha, reporting the arrival of Wayne Martin Haupt the last of January, 1948.

Israel Jr. was the eldest son of Israel Sr. and his second wife, Mollie. He was born in Jefferson Township, Tuscarawas County, Ohio, about one mile from the village of Stonecreek (then Philipsburg), on the road then leading past the brick yard to Oldtown Valley. During his boyhood Israel Jr. moved to Jewett, Ohio, and later to Steubenville, Ohio, where he was a member of Zion Lutheran Church. Anna was the daughter of David Ryder and Elizabeth Holsapple.

Israel Jr. served in the Union Army during the Civil War as a private in Company G, 51st Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry, having enlisted at the age of eighteen at Canal Dover, Ohio, on September 19, 1861, for a period of three years. On December 31, 1863, he was mustered in by reason of re-enlistment as a Veteran Volunteer. He was again mustered in on January 11, 1864, in his former unit, at Shell Mound, Tennessee. The latter report shows that he was a farmer, had brown eyes, dark hair, dark complexion, and was five feet six inches tall. On September 30, 1864, he had a six-day pass to permit him to visit his brother (Henry) who was in the general hospital at Chattanooga, as a result of having his arm shot off by a cannon ball. On May 15, 1865, he was given a thirty-day furlough to visit his mother, who was sick and had no one to care for her. The request stated "He has always been a good and faithful soldier". The last record found is that for a furlough dated June 7, 1865. He probably served in all the battles in which his company took part, a total of seventeen. His army records are in the War Department Records Branch, Old Records Section, Archives Building, Washington, D. C. He was a member of Stanton Post, Grand Army of the Republic.

Florence Myrtle Angel married Thomas L. Ritson on November 22, 1894, and had two daughters, Ethel May Ritson and Florence Elizabeth Ritson. Ethel May Ritson was born November 11, 1895, married Vernon Miller of Mingo Junction, Ohio, and had two children; Betty Jane Miller who was born April 29, 1918, married David Gail McKee, and had two sons; and Dorothy May Miller who was born April 26, 1929, married 1st Lieutenant Louis A. Carey, a World War II officer, and had a son, Louis Allen Carey II. Florence Elizabeth Ritson was born May 25, 1898, and married James H. McNeal.

Elizabeth Jane Angel and James Gill had two daughters; and a son William Gill, who had a son in the Navy during World War II.

Clara Margaret Angel and Kimble Deems had a daughter, Ruth Margaret Deems, who was born August 15, 1911, and married Frank Schorenburg. They have a son Thomas Frank Schnorenburg, born March 29, 1937.

Anna Olive Angel married Adam Swavey, now deceased.

Henry was the youngest son of Israel Angel and Mollie Stonebrook and was born in Jefferson Township, Tuscarawas County, Ohio, about a mile east of the Village of Stonecreek, on the road past the brick works to Oldtown Valley.

Henry and Margaret Elizabeth lived in Germano, Harrison County, until about 1884, when they moved to Oldtown Valley and later to New Philadelphia, where both died and are buried.

Information secured from the War Department Records Branch, Old Records Section in the Archives Building, Washington, shows that Henry served in the Union Army during the Civil War. He enlisted at Port Washington, Ohio, Feb. 18, 1864, for three years, was a farmer, had hazel eyes, dark hair, light complexion, and was five feet six inches tall. A hospital card shows that he was single, age 20, native of Tuscarawas County, Ohio, a private in Company G, 51st Ohio infantry; that he was admitted to the hospital November 9, 1864, and had his right arm amputated because of a cannon ball wound received at Lovejoy Station, Georgia (in Israel's records it is given as the Battle of Jonesboro), on September 2, 1864. He was given a Disability Discharge June 30, 1865. He probably was in eight battles before receiving his wound.

Jesse is buried in East Avenue Cemetery, New Philadelphia, Ohio.

Margaret Elizabeth, Henry's wife, was a relative of the Lowmillers who married Henry's sisters, Catherine and Elizabeth, but was not of the same family. John (III) was born in Harrison County, Ohio. Otto 5-55, who supplied much of the data of the John 3-3 family, gave the date of John's birth as August 15, 1819 but the 1870 census records of Logan County, Ohio, indicate that he was born in 1826. John's father was not married until 1822; therefore, the census records appear to be correct. See John 3-3 for more data. If, however, John's father was married prior to his marriage to Catherine, 1819 may be correct. From a study of the census records it is believed that John (III) went to Logan County with his family about 1835.

Emma and Charles Wagner were married January 14, 1888 and had eleven children: Edna, Ira, Perry, Mary, Clifford, Herman, Alma, Harry, Inez, Bernice, and Phillip.

Maggie and Frank Funk had a daughter Myreta May Funk, now deceased. Frank died some time ago and Maggie lives in Toledo, Ohio.

Nancy Ellen and Philip Kechele (—b. Mar. 15, 1874) were married August 7, 1902. They have no children and live in Toledo, Ohio. Nancy has given considerable assistance to Otto Angel in securing data on their branch of the family. She has the family Bible of John III, from which the above dates were secured.

Prudence and Berton Dalee have a son Philip N. Dalee, and live in Elkhart, Indiana.

Frances Cleveland Angel was named by Frances Folsom Cleveland, wife of President Grover Cleveland, and has some interesting letters from the Cleveland family. When Frances was born, her father wrote to the President advising him that a young Democrat had arrived at his home, and asked that the President suggest a name for her. She was born in Logan County, Ohio, where her father operated a hotel. Frances and Luther E. Kallam (—b. Sep. 22, 1875) were married March 14, 1906, and live in Toledo, Ohio. She has cooperated with Otto Angel in securing data on this branch of the family.

Nelson and Harriet were married in Frederick County, Maryland.

Mary Rebecca and Francis Sappington had a son, Francis B. Sappington Jr., and a daughter, Mary A. Sappington. Francis Jr., who holds a responsible banking position in Frederick, Maryland, and his sister Mary, have supplied the information we have on this family and that on the family of Jacob, 3-15.

Nelson went to Virginia and probably raised his family there, where he served with the Southern Army during the Civil War. Harriet died when Mary Rebecca was a small child and she and Sarah Virginia were raised by Marie Swearer, a close friend of their mother. The census records of Frederick County, Maryland, for 1870 show Mary R., age 13, and Sarah, age 11, in the Fifth Ward in the City of Frederick, with Marie Swearer, that they were born in Virginia, and that they were attending school. These children saw their father only once after the death of their mother; consequently they know very little about their parents. Little is known about Jacob; however, his brother George lived in Baltimore at one time and Sarah lived with this family.

William was born on his father's farm (now the Howard Angel farm) about two and a half miles northwest of the village of Stonecreek, Ohio, (then Philipsburg), where he spent his boyhood days, learned to be a farmer and became a great lover of nature. He received his grade school education in the one room country school adjacent to his father's farm. Not being content with the prospects of a farmer's life, he decided upon a career in the educational field and entered Scio College, where he attended for about a year, and from which he transferred to Ohio Normal University, Ada, Ohio, in 1893. He graduated from Ohio Normal University in 1895, with the degree of Bachelor of Arts.

He taught in the public schools of Philipsburg, Mineral City and other Tuscarawas County, Ohio, schools. He served as Superintendent of Schools at Dennison, Ohio, for thirty-two years until he retired from the profession. Later he moved his family to Cleveland, Ohio, where he entered the real estate business, in which he continues to be active.

He was confirmed in the German Reformed Church at Philipsburg, Ohio, and has been an active member of the Methodist Church at Dennison, Ohio, and the Lakewood Methodist Church at Lakewood, Ohio. He was a leader in educational and church work in the communities where he resided.

The writer recalls many happy days with Uncle Will on small game hunting expeditions in the vicinity of Stonecreek, where, in those days, there was an abundance of rabbits, squirrels, and birds. There the writer learned much about the forest and nature, that, since has been most valuable to him.

Grace was a graduate of Ohio Normal University and taught the primary grades in the Philipsburg schools about 1892. (the same time William taught the advance grades) where the writer had the pleasure of being in her classes. She was the daughter of John L. Roll and Cornelia Fibley. She was born in Galion, Ohio, and later lived on lower Old Town Valley, Tuscarawas County, Ohio. Grace was known for her devout Christian faith and untiring effort in the work of her church, especially in the Methodist Church of Dennison and the Lakewood Methodist Church of Lakewood. William and Grace were married on Oldtown Valley by the Reverend John Toland.

Alice Dale was born in Uhrichsville, Ohio, graduated from Dennison, Ohio, High School, Ohio Wesleyan University, and the University of Boston. For a number of years she has held a very responsible position with the Curtis Publishing Company at Cleveland, Ohio.

Carl always went by the name of Charlie. He was born on his father's farm, two and a half miles northwest of Stonecreek, Ohio; received the usual farmer boy training and attended the country school adjacent to the home farm. He attended Ohio Normal University at Ada, Ohio, where he graduated from Business College, and engaged in other studies; and later went to Valparaiso University, Valparaiso, Indiana. For several years he worked in the country store of his brother-in-law, Daniel Gruber at Stonecreek, and later he taught school in that village and in the Laub School near by. Later he graduated from the Pittsburgh School of Embalming and established an undertaking business in Strasburg, Ohio, where he was very successful and spent the remainder of his life. He was a member of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, was active in Sunday School work, served on the board of education, and was a 32° Mason.

He died at his home in Strasburg and is buried in nearby Grand View Cemetery. He made many friends in the several localities where he lived and was highly regarded by his business associates and neighbors.

Ellen was born in the village of Stonecreek (then Philipsburg), where she and Charlie attended the same church and Sunday School for many years. She is the daughter of Adam Regula and Sofia Buehler. Adam was the son of Fred Regula, and Sofia was the daughter of John Buehler. Charlie and Ellen had no children, but many little folks of neighbors and relatives found a warm welcome in their home.

John Wesley, second child and oldest son of John Angel and Isabelle Mather was born in Martin County, Indiana, and at the age of five years moved with his parents to Tuscarawas County, Ohio, where they located on a seventy acre farm in Frys Valley. He received his education in the Clay Township schools, and during his youth became a member of the Moravian Church.

After his marriage to Rosa, they lived on a rented tract of land and John Wesley worked as a coal miner, and for nearby farmers for some time. About 1896 he purchased a fifty acre farm in Frys Valley and engaged in truck gardening, delivering his produce in New Philadelphia. John Wesley died of typhoid fever in 1903, but Rosa continued to live on their farm.

John Wesley is reputed to have been a crack shot with the old, long barreled patch rifle, and it is said that he could drive a tack repeatedly at twenty paces. His hobby was hunting and trapping, and no little portion of the family larder was the result of his skill with both gun and snare.

All the children of John Wesley and Rosa were born in Frys Valley.

Bessie B. and William Glazer had four children: Edith G. Glazer, who was born August 5, 1907, and died October 28, 1907; Ralph W. Glazer, who was born September 6, 1908, and married Leona Johnson; Ray E. Glazer, who was born March 12, 1912 and married Katherine Cosgrove; Earl L. Glazer, who was born August 30, 1916, and married Jane Horning, has a son William George Glazer, born Jan. 23, 1947. All four children were born in Port Washington, Ohio.

Clara and Harrison Williams had two children: Arthur R. Williams, who was born July 18, 1919, and died July 13, 1922; Herbert G. Williams, who was born February 7, 1913, at upper Sandusky, Ohio, and married Nellie Burdette. They had four children: Dale, born April 17, 1933, in Oldtown Valley, Nancy born August 11, 1934 in Oldtown Valley, Helen born July 15, 1940 in Buffalo, New York, and Darlene Marie born November 11, 1947.

Zeda and Howard Spring had three children: Gerald R. Spring born November 14, 1916 in Tuscarawas, Ohio, married Ruth Haver and had a daughter Priscilla born March 31, 1942, in New Philadelphia, Ohio; Veda E. Spring who was born November 10, 1918, in Oldtown Valley, married Donald Lahmer; Howard Spring Jr., who was born July 28, 1931 in Oldtown Valley, Tuscarawas County, Ohio.

The writer is indebted to Leroy and his son Donald for the information above and much data on the family of John, 4-8.

Otto was born in Ohio, and for many years worked for the New York Central Railway Company. Back in the days before railroads were required to return freight cars to their owners promptly after delivery, it was Otto's job to travel over the country, locate stray cars of his company, and require their prompt return. After railroad officials were required to return cars promptly or pay for their use, Otto traveled for his company on other important missions. In 1941 he was retired by the company and he lived in Lima, Ohio. During World War II he was called back frequently to go on special missions for his former employers, to make investigations and reports on work long forgotten by other employees.

Otto has done a great amount of work on the genealogy of his branch of the family, for which the writer wishes to express his thanks. Without Otto's help, and that of his friends whom he interested in this work, the information on the descendants of John Jr. 3-3 would be very limited.

Carrie was born on a farm near Hicksville, Ohio, and before her marriage to Otto, attended Ohio Northern University, Ada, Ohio.

Otto and Carrie attended the Angel Reunion at New Philadelphia, Ohio, in 1947 and made many warm friends among the members of the eastern Ohio branch of the family. Otto was the first of the John 3-3 descendants to visit any of the Israel 3-2 descendants since the pioneer days, when John rode on horseback from Indiana, or western Ohio, to visit his brother Israel near Stonecreek, Ohio.

Leroy, second child, and oldest son of John Wesley and Rosa, was born in Frys Valley, Tuscarwas County, Ohio, and was educated in the Clay Township schools. When Roy was sixteen years old his father died. This left the care of the farm to Roy and he continued the truck gardening business until he was twenty-three years of age.

Later he located in New Philadelphia, Ohio, where he was employed for several years as a packer by the Belmont Stamping and Enameling Company. During this time he and Mary were married, the ceremony being performed by the Reverend Strohmeir of Gnadenhuetten, Ohio, on December 11, 1909. In the spring of 1913 (the year of the big flood) Roy purchased the farm of his grandfather, John Angel, and moved his family to Frys Valley, where he now resides.

He is a member of the Frys Valley Moravian Church where he has been very active. He has served that congregation both as elder and trustee, and has been teacher of the Young Men's Bible Class for a number of years.

Donald was born in New Philadelphia and Donna in Frys Valley.

Charles is agent for the Western Maryland Railway Company at New Windsor, Maryland, and resides at Union Bridge. He has not strayed far from the original home of the Angel (Angell) family, living in the vicinity where Charles 1-1 was most active.

Charles has been most helpful in our present effort; and has taken up the work of supplying data where his late father left off in 1927. The information from Charles 2-4 down to the present generation is his work and it has been done in a most excellent manner.

Donald is the eldest child of Leroy A. Angel and Mary Snyder and was born in New Philadelphia, Ohio. In the spring of 1913 he moved to Frys Valley with his parents where he lived on a farm and attended the Gnaden-Clay Village Schools. Later he learned the mechanics trade and worked for a number of years on automobiles and farm machinery, but in recent years he has been a steel mill machinist. Early in life he followed the example of his father and grandfather, and became a member of the Moravian Church.

Donald has been very helpful in the search for facts about the family of his great-grandfather, John 4-8. He has cooperated with the writer over a period of several years, and the fact that the records of this branch are fairly complete is largely due to the numerous letters he wrote to and for the writer. He was instrumental in getting the assistance of his father in securing facts about the older generations.

PART II

Families of Female Descendants

PART II
OF THIS BOOK IS DEDICATED TO
MABEL BROWN GRUBER,

My wife, who has been most patient during the long period of time I have worked on searching records and preparing my manuscript, assisted me in checking script, and accompanied me on trips to search for data and records. And to the other women who came into our family to become the wives of our men and the mothers of our children. Many of them have given me most valuable assistance in this venture.

5-A17 George Snyder —m. Hannah Barnhouse —b. — —d. —

The above descendants are NOT LISTED IN ORDER OF DATES OF BIRTH.

Mary Magdalene was called Polly, many people not knowing her real name. She was born in Harrison County, Ohio, and all of her children were born near Germano of the same county. She and Adam are buried at Zion, Ohio. United States census records of the above county show that Adam was born in Maryland, that he was a farmer and in 1860 owned real estate in German Township, Harrison County, appraised at $5500. His year of birth was indicated as being 1801.

Previously Adam had been married to Catherine Adams, who was born in 1799, died August 23, 1838, and is buried at Zion, Ohio. Their children shown in the census records of 1850 for Harrison County, German Township are: Catherine (Katie Ann) born in 1825, Jeremiah born in 1832, and Mary Ann born in 1834. There may have been others whose records were not found. Katie never married, no marriage record was found of Jeremiah, and Mary Ann married Christ Best.

The children of Mary Ann and Christ are listed as follows:

Jason Best married Lizzie Singer. Francis Best married Clara Macelroy.
Charles Best married Mae — Malissa Best married Frank Frey.
Ella Best, Mary Ann and Christ are buried at Germano, Ohio.

George 5-A17 also may be a son of Catherine, although the data we have would indicate that he is not.

Catherine was born in Carroll County, Ohio, and she and John are buried at Zion in the same county. The United States census records of 1870, for Harrison County, Ohio, list the members of this family and show that John was a farmer, who owned real estate in Rumley Township appraised at $14,000.

The census records of 1850 for Rumley Township, show that John was a son of John Lowmiller, born in 1774 (found to be 1773), in Dafield (Dauphin) County, Pennsylvania; and that Mary was born in 1789, in the same county. This record also lists Manassah (male) age 35, Baalam age 25 and Catherine Angel age 25. John Sr. went to Ohio about 1808. Bashee is listed in the census records as a male member of the family and probably is intended for Rachee, nickname of William Horatio.

*Barbara Ann was born on McGuire's Creek near New Rumley, Harrison County, Ohio, on May 25, 1830, according to her father's note-book; but some of her descendants found records indicating the year as 1831. She and Daniel lived in Ohio, where Mary Catherine was born, then moved to Shoals, Indiana, where Margaret and Maria were born. It is thought by some that they at one time lived at Shelby, Indiana. Daniel served in the Union Army during the Civil War and died in the service, which he probably entered at Shoals, or some nearby town. After the death of Daniel, Barbara returned to her native state and lived in Stonecreek, next door to the writer's parents. The writer remembers Barbara Ann as a kind elderly lady, who always was a welcome visitor and had time for us youngsters. During her last visit to our place she admired a Calla Lily that Mother had on the flower bench. Barbara died suddenly during the following night, and two days later, with the lily she admired so much, she was buried in the Stonecreek Cemetery. Benjamin lived in New York State for many years and is buried in Rochester.

Kate, as Mary Catherine was called, and Andrew lived on the hill one-half mile north of the village of Stonecreek, Ohio, on a small farm, which along with a small country coal mine was their source of livelihood. The writer went to school with these youngsters in the two-story frame school house at the edge of the village and on the road leading north from near the Lutheran Church. These youngsters were a husky lot and all were natural musicians, playing a variety of stringed instruments. Kate and Andrew are buried in the Stonecreek Cemetery adjacent to the farm on which they lived and raised their family.

Eva supplied the information on her family and a considerable amount of the family of her grandmother, Barbara Ann Heckler. Eva was born in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, and for many years lived at New Philadelphia, Ohio. Roy was a sergeant in the Fourth U. S. Cavalry and served from 1905 to 1911. He and Eva belong to the Christian Church.

Clarence was born in Dennison, Ohio, lived in New Philadelphia, Ohio, and in 1913 moved with his family to Ft. Myers, Florida, where Clarence and his sister Veda attended high school. Later he took up work in the chemical field at the University of Florida, but this was interrupted by World War I and he entered the Officers Training Camp near the end of the war. Clarence was employed by a local citrus fruit packing company for many years until his health forced him to retire temporarily. He is now employed by the county, also is active in the Boy Scouts and is interested in tropical horticulture.

Mattie Lee, a native of Eastman, Georgia, was named for General Lee. Her mother, Jessie V. Harrison is of the same branch of the Harrison family as our two presidents of that name. She is active in the Girl Scouts, Parent-Teachers Association, the Methodist Church, and other useful work. Clarence and Mattie were married in Ft. Myers where their children were born. They now live in the old homestead, and both have been helpful in the writer's work.

Drif, son of Frank Lamons, was born in Georgia, but his family soon moved to North Carolina and then Lakeland, Florida, where he was educated. Later he went to Ft. Myers where for many years he was associated with the Palm City Ice Company. He now operates his own ice plant at Ft. Myers, where he has also been active in the Boy Scout movement. Both Veda and Drif are active in the Edgewood Methodist Church. They were married in this city.

*Elizabeth's family gives her date of birth as 1838; however, Israel's notebook records it as 1837, which is believed to be correct. Elizabeth was born in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, and Baalam in Rumley Township, Harrison County, Ohio. Both are buried at Zion, Harrison County. Mary Alvaretta, Burtis M., and Augusta Florence had no children.

Census records of 1850 for Rumley Township, Harrison County, Ohio, show that Baalam (Bill) was a son of John Lowmiller. Born in 1774 in Doffield (probably Dauphin) County, Pennsylvania, and Mary born in 1789 in the same county. This record also shows Manassah (male), age 35, John Jr. age 27, and Catherine Angel age 25.

Daniel, a rugged man of great strength, was raised on his father's farm near Ragersville, Ohio, where later he commenced his career as a farmer. He and Rosetta lived there for six years, during which time their children were born. Daniel then purchased a forty-acre tract about four miles from Ragersville, known as the Miller Place, where the family lived for three years. About 1889 he moved his family to the farm of his father-in-law, Hiram Angel, where he remained for about twelve years and where he educated his children. On April 8, 1902, the family moved to Coshocton County, Ohio, where Daniel had acquired a large farm, which he operated successfully during the remainder of his life. He was a member of the German Reformed Church at Stonecreek, Ohio, where he took an active part for many years.

Rosetta, like her mother, was a tiny woman with unlimited energy and always was busy. Whether in the house or in the fields, if help was needed she was in the midst of the activity. Her cooking always was the best. The writer had the pleasure of spending one winter on the farm with this family and attending the local country school, a most interesting and profitable experience. Rosetta, Amelia, and Daniel are buried in Grand View Cemetery, Strasburg, O.

Amelia taught school for several years prior to her marriage to Dave. They lived in Coshocton County, Ohio until Dave died, after which Amelia returned to live with her parents. They had no children.

Charles was born on his grandfather Gribble's farm near Ragersville, Ohio, and was educated at the Angel School, adjacent to the farm of his grandfather Angel, in Jefferson Township, Tuscarawas County, Ohio, where his parents lived for about twelve years. When he was a young man he accompanied his parents to their new home in Coshocton County, Ohio, where he assisted his father for twenty years. During this time Charles and Alma were married and their children were born. Later Charles acquired a farm near Beach City, Ohio, where he lived for many years, raised and educated his children. He had the experience of seeing farming improved from the era of the scythe and cradle to that of complete motorization, and today operates without a horse on the farm. Recently his son Carl took over the farm near Beach City and Charles acquired a smaller place near Strasburg, Ohio.

Alma was born near Stonecreek, Ohio, and belonged to the German Reformed Church of that village, where Charles also was a member. She is a sister of Mrs. Charles Angel, 5-38.

Simon, a man of large stature and a very successful farmer, acquired a large farm on lower Oldtown Valley about five miles south of New Philadelphia, Ohio in 1875; soon after he was married, where he spent most of his life. He was quite methodical in his work and had an excellent farm, which the writer had the pleasure of enjoying during one summer of his boyhood. Upon retiring he moved to New Philadelphia, where he and Elizabeth lived the remainder of their lives and are buried. Both were members of the country church near their farm and were regular attendants and always on time. Later they became members of the First Reformed Church of New Philadelphia, Ohio.

Elizabeth was a large woman with considerable energy and determination, and contributed much to the successful operation of the farm. Like the other women of the Angel family she knew well how to supply food for hungry farmers.

Simon was the son of Adam Limbach, who was born June 24, 1809, in Alsace, and Dorothea Scherer, who was born February 1816 at Hirschorn, Bavaria.

After his marriage to Susie he taught in the public schools of his native county for several years, during which time he and Susie lived in Stilwater, Ohio, where their first child, Mae, was born. Adam quit teaching and went into business in New Philadelphia, Ohio, where he remained for a short time. In 1912 he moved his family to Minerva, Ohio, where he stayed for about ten years. From here he went to Michigan and for many years operated a summer resort at Cedar Lake, then moved to Osconda, where he died. Susie was born on a farm near Rageraville, Ohio.

William Schaad was born near Marshallville, Wayne County, Ohio, where his family settled upon arrival in this country. After the death of his mother in 1862 and his father in 1872, he made his home with his brother, The Reverend Frederick Schaad at Ragersville, Ohio, and later lived with the family of Jonas Neff near Ragersville, where he attended school. In April 1877, he commenced a three-year apprenticeship with John P. Steitz, of Ragersville, to learn the harness making trade. Following this he worked at his trade in Cleveland, Ohio, and later for about a year he worked in Uhrichsville, Ohio. On January 24, 1883, he returned to Ragersville and purchased the stock of Mr. Steitz and a mill site, on which he erected a residence and place of business where he remained for thirty-nine years. On May 22, 1922 he retired and moved his family to New Philadelphia, Ohio, where he now resides.

In his younger days, William did a great deal of cabinet making and scroll saw work including wood inlay work. As a youngster the writer always admired Uncle Will's work and never lost an opportunity to peep into the shop for a look at any new work that was under way.

William was the son of John Melchoir Schaad and Elizabeth Surbeck. Elizabeth was born March 7, 1818, in Oberhallau, Schaffhausen, Switzerland, which also was the birthplace of her husband. Their children were Frederick, John Melchoir, John Conrad, Elizabeth, Anna Louisa, and William. All except William were born in the same place as their mother.

Nancy, a slight, kindly woman, was born on Oldtown Valley, Tuscarawas County, Ohio, and later moved with her parents to a farm about two and a half miles northwest of the Village of Stonecreek (then Philipsburg) where she learned the requirements of a good and useful housewife. Prior to her marriage she worked in New Philadelphia, Ohio, where she again resided after her husband retired. Although a rather frail woman, she lived to be seventy-eight years of age and was buried in the city where she last resided.

Alvin, the fourth child of Joseph Kinsey and Katherine Tasch, was born in Tuscarawas County, Ohio. When only about ten years of age he lost his father, the head of a large family; consequently he learned early in life how to make his own way in the world. For several years after the tragedy he lived on the farm with his uncle, Simon Limbach, on lower Oldtown Valley in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, and attended the nearby Fribley School. He was an energetic youngster and a good worker, which payed dividends for him later, when he went to work in a steel mill. In due course of time he became a roller, which work he followed for many years, working both in New Philadelphia and Canton, Ohio. In 1908 he married Emma Rosetta Schaad, whom he had known all his life, and the couple made their home in New Philadelphia.

Emma was born in Ragersville, Ohio, where she received her grade school education. She graduated from the Tuscarawas County Schools, Boxwell Course in 1900, and from Yocums Business College of New Philadelphia in 1905. She did stenographic work for Limbach and Gruber, Westhaver Construction Company, and The Tuscarawas County Telephone Company. She has considerable talent as an artist and has done a number of good pictures in both oil and water color.

Her untiring efforts have been responsible for the timely completion of much of the detail of that part of this record that pertains to the descendants of Israel Angel. Many of the dates and other details would be lacking, except for her persistent effort. She made innumerable telephone calls, inquiries, visits, wrote letters, followed up promises for information, and tried to speed up the preparation of data. The writer is very greatly indebted to her for her cooperation during the three years of final search for information.

Daniel was the son of Peter Gruber Jr. and Catherine Stegner, and the grandson of Peter Sr. and Barbara, all born in Prussia, except Catherine, who was a Bavarian. They were born in 1818, 1819, 1790, and 1790 respectively. They were farmers who migrated from Germany to America between 1835 and 1840, probably to Pennsylvania in the vicinity of Reading, and, about 1840, went to Ohio, where they settled permanently.

Daniel, the sixth of eight children, was born on a farm near the village of Bohn, Liberty Township, Washington County, Ohio, where he spent his childhood as a farmer boy and attended the local country school. When he reached his majority he decided to become a telegraph operator and arranged to serve an apprenticeship under Mr. Palmer, the station agent of the Cleveland and Marietta Railroad Company at Whipple, Ohio. Upon completion of his course of instruction he was assigned as station agent for the company at Philippsburg (now Stonecreek), Ohio, where he served as agent and telegraph operator for several years and conducted a grain business as a side line.

Upon resigning from his railroad position he went into partnership with Fred Lieser in a general store. After several years he acquired the entire ownership and operated the business alone. During the following years he expanded the business to include farm machinery, fertilizers, and many other items required by the local farmers, whose needs he fully understood because of his early training. He conducted this business for about fifteen years. During this time burglars entered his store twice, blowing the store safe upon their first call, regardless of the fact that it was not locked and contained no money. Before the second offense was committed a burglar alarm had been installed and this time the burglars were routed promptly.

During the first year Daniel was in Philippsburg he met Mary, and on March 22, 1882, they were married at her home northwest of the village by the Reverend K. H. Zink, of the German Reformed Church. Here both held membership for many years, and where their children were baptized and attended services.

Mary was born on the former John Meese farm on Oldtown Valley, about five miles east of Stonecreek, but spent her girlhood on a farm her father acquired about two and a half miles northwest of this village. Like her sisters, she learned early in life how to cook and perform household duties under the strict supervision of her mother, who insisted on the best. Mary is a charter member of the Ladies Auxiliary of Victory Post Number 48, American Legion, Cleveland, Ohio, where both her sons belonged at one time.

The four children of this family were born in the village of Stonecreek and attended the local two-room school, from which Walter and Alverna graduated in 1901. Eunice and Karl also attended this school but completed their public school work in New Philadelphia, Ohio, where Alverna and Eunice graduated from high school.

In August 1903, Daniel disposed of his store in Stonecreek and moved his family to New Philadelphia, where he engaged in insurance and other business activities for several years. In 1911 he became interested in real estate and other business in Cleveland, Ohio, and in July 1916 he moved his family to that city. Later he acquired a home at 1289 West 111th Street, where he lived until his death. He is buried in Grand View Cemetery, at Strasburg, Ohio.

Soon after Daniel died, Mary disposed of the Cleveland home and made her home with Alverna, and Eunice in Canton, Ohio.

Walter Sr. was born in the village of Philipsburg (now Stonecreek), Ohio, and was baptized and confirmed in the local German Reformed Church. He attended the local grade school, graduated from the Stonecreek high school in 1901 and the College of Engineering of Ohio Northern University in 1905. He has a degree of Civil Engineer and has practiced that profession since graduation. He worked for the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, The United States Indian Service, The United States Engineers, The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Water and Power Resources Board, The United States War Production Board during World War II, and the United States Bureau of Reclamation. During World War I he served as Captain in the Corps of Engineers of the United States Army, in the United States and France; and later in the Engineer Officers Reserve Corps, with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. He is an extension course graduate of the Army Command and General Staff School of Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

Mabel was born at Picketown, Pennsylvania, near Harrisburg and later lived in Palmyra. She and Walter were married in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, where they lived for nearly two years; then they moved to 440 South Third Street, Lemoyne, Pennsylvania, across the Susquehanna River from Harrisburg, where Walter Jr. was born. Later they lived in Harrisburg, New England; Catonsville, Maryland; York, Pennsylvania; and now they live two miles north of Dover, Pennsylvania. Walter Jr. attended school in Catonsville, Maryland; York, Pennsylvania; Manchester and Dover Townships, York County, Pennsylvania. All are members of the First Presbyterian Church in York. Walter Jr. was baptized October 9, 1932, by the Reverend H. W. Haring, Pastor of Memorial Presbyterian Church, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, where his parents were members at the time of his birth.

George Brown is a descendant from a Pennsylvania pioneer family, that settled in Lebanon (then Lancaster) County, about 2¼ miles east of Manada Gap, a water-gap through First Mountain. Their frontier residence was an outpost of Manada Fort and was known as Brown's Fort, where James Brown was killed and scalped by the Indians on August 6, 1756. A detailed report of this Fort, now partly demolished, may be found in Frontier Forts of Pennsylvania, Volume I. George married Mary Strauss April 27, 1884. The genealogy of this family is in progress. John Brown is of German descent and Margaret Snoddy is of English parentage.

Leonard was born in Norfolk, Virginia, and moved to Canton, Ohio, with his parents when he was twelve years of age. After completing his work in the local schools, he was employed for several years by the Dueber-Hampden Watch Company. He, however, had higher ambitions and in 1900 established a wholesale and retail stationery and office supply business in Canton, under the name of "Baers". After a few years he was joined by his brother Edwin, and they conducted the business about thirty-five years.

He served for some time as president of the Canton Retail Merchants Association, and was treasurer of the local and district areas of the Boy Scouts of America. He was very active in both of these organizations until failing health required his retirement a few years prior to his death. Leonard was a member of the local Masonic Blue Lodge, the Grotto, and the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite (32 degree Masons). He is buried in Westlawn Cemetery, Canton, Ohio, within sight of the McKinley Monument, and within a few feet of the monument grounds.

Alverna was born in the village of Stonecreek, Ohio, where she attended the public schools. In 1903 she moved with her parents to New Philadelphia, Ohio, where she continued her education and graduated from high school in 1906. She attended Ypsilanti College during the summer of 1910, Akron University in 1933 and 1934, and Kent State University, where she received her degree of Bachelor of Science in Education in 1936.

Alverna has been a very active worker in the First Presbyterian Church of Canton for many years. In civic affairs she has served as president of the Canton Womans' Club, Canton Sorosis, and the Canton Needlework Guild. In her profession she has served as president of the Canton Womens Teachers Club. She taught in the public school in Strasburg, Ohio, from 1906 to 1908, and later in the Canton elementary schools. In September 1937 she became a member of the John H. Lehman High School Faculty, teaching English and history.

Alverna was instrumental in getting the writer started on this geneological venture in 1926, and from time to time has contributed considerable data.

Fred, a rugged and powerful man, was born and raised on a farm in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, near Ragersville. He taught school for some time and sold life insurance as a side line, but finally decided to spend his life as a farmer. He and Amelia were married in 1893 and established their home in a log house on a farm they acquired in Perry Township, Tuscarawas County, several miles west of Tippecanoe. Here their children were born and grew to maturity, helped to develop the farm and construct a new house and barn.

Frederick is a grandson of Andress Anderegg and Magdalene Otth, both born in Meiringen, Switzerland, where Frederick's father, Peter, also was born. His mother, Magdalene Wyler, was born near Ragersville, Ohio. A book entitled "The Anderegg Family", written by Caroline Rausch Snyder of 222 Seventh Street, North Canton, Ohio, in May 1942, records the genealogy of this family.

Amelia was born in Tuscarawas County on her father's farm located two and a half miles northwest of Stonecreek village. Here she attended the nearby country school named for her family and grew to womanhood, learning the requirements of a farmer's wife. In February 1889 she moved to the village of Stonecreek with her parents, who were retiring from the farm. Here Amelia worked as a saleslady in the general store of her brother-in-law, Daniel Gruber, until her marriage.

The writer recalls visits to their home when he was a boy, once having ridden there on a bicycle. Uncle Fred was a good scout and any boy would enjoy being with him on an excursion into one of the nearby ravines to hunt geological specimens.

His mother, Anna, who died April 23, 1886 (age 66 years and two months), is buried at Stonecreek, Ohio. Joseph was a cheese maker by trade and worked at several of the Tuscarawas County farmers co-operative plants. In the prime of his life he was killed at a railroad crossing, in Baltic, Ohio, while driving home from town with a friend.

Katherine was the daughter of Janna (Jennie) Hahn (sister of Caroline Angel) and Peter Tasch, both born in Germany and came to America with the Hahn family about 1852. See Hiram Angel, 4-6, in Part I. Jennie wanted to migrate with the family but did not want to leave her boy friend; consequently her father, Jacob Hahn Sr., solved the problem by paying the passage for young Peter. Later Jennie and Peter were married and lived at Dresden, Ohio, where Katherine was born and where her mother died and was buried. Katherine then went to live with her aunt Caroline and was raised as a member of that family. Later, Peter Tasch went to Illinois and it is believed, married again. Katherine is buried in the Stonecreek Cemetery. Also see Code 3-D1.

There are Elizabeth C. and Elizabeth, half sisters, in this family.

The parents of these children lived in Weirbach by Fishbach Trier, Rhenish Prussia, Germany. Presumably they are buried in Germany and it is believed that the children were born there. The Ritter family is believed to have owned the Ritterburg Castle in Germany, according to information from Mary Angel Gruber, granddaughter of Elizabeth C. Ritter, 3-D1. . . . Ritter was married twice and there were children by both wives. It is not known which wife was the mother of the last two children listed.

John Adam Becker, 5-D76, of Independence, Missouri, wrote the following in a letter dated October 23, 1936:

"The post office address of the Ritters, Hahns, Yosts, and Millers was Weirbach by Fishbach, Rhenish Prussia, Germany. I visited the town in 1907 and met representatives of each of the families. I was there but two days and made no effort to trace the ancestry of anyone. I was primarily interested in visiting the old home of my mother."

This family came to Ohio about 1852, from Weirbach by Fishbach, Rhine Province, Germany, where Jacob Sr. was a blacksmith and operated a ten-acre farm. Jacob Jr. came to this country first in order to avoid military service; however, after being away from his family for some time he became homesick and requested that someone from his home join him in this country. Everyone had some excuse for not making the trip and when it appeared as though the request would not be granted, Caroline, a tiny eighteen year old sister said "I'll go." In 1850 she, Caroline Ritter (later Mrs. Peter Goettge), and a Jewish boy by the name of Hanibal, all from the same town, made the trip to see Jacob Jr. Their reports of this country were so good that two years later Jacob Sr. sold out in Germany and migrated to America.

Jacob Sr. settled on upper Oldtown Valley in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, about two miles east of the village of Philipsburg, now Stonecreek, on a tract of land later known as the John Goehler farm and now owned by Lewis Buehler. Elizabeth died about two years after they came to America, and is buried in the Stonecreek Cemetery. She had a fair complexion, light blue eyes, and an abundance of black hair. The 1860 census for Tuscarawas County show that Jacob Hahn, age 62, born in Germany, lived with the family of Hiram Angel, Jacob's son-in-law. Jacob is buried with his wife in the Stonecreek Cemetery. Elizabeth C. had a half sister also named Elizabeth, who married Johann Miller.

Most of the information on this family was supplied by Mary Angel Gruber, granddaughter of Elizabeth C. Ritter, and daughter of Caroline Hahn. See tabulation 4-6 of Part I.

APPENDIX

ANGEL FAMILY INFORMATION

Relative to my grandfather, Israel Angel, his parents, brothers and sisters as received from my father, Hiram Angel, son of Israel.

Father (Hiram) as a child recalled an uncle John, whom he thought lived in Indiana, and who used to come on horseback to visit Israel; also, there was an uncle Andrew, who likely remained in Maryland. John also was believed to have moved to near Bellefontaine, Ohio, at one time. Sister Rosetta used to say there was an uncle George who went to one of the southern states, some folks thought Georgia.

Israel is supposed to have been born in Maryland, near Cumberland. Father often said he understood that there now is a large city on the farm formerly owned by his forefathers, which we always thought as being in Maryland and probably his grandfather's.

He also told us that an uncle drowned in the Tuscarawas River opposite the south side of New Philadelphia. He was trying to fasten a bell to a cow, got tangled in the rope and was dragged into the river. I am not certain whether this uncle was from the Angel or Harner side of the family, but I am of the opinion he was from the Angel family.

Israel's first wife was Annie Harner, but always was called Nancy. Her family came to Ohio before it was a state.

In the Cleveland library I read about Israel Angel, Charles Angel, and Sarah Schaffer, who later married a Markley.

Relative to the children of Israel and their families.

Israel's first wife was Annie Harner, by whom there were the following children: Margaret, Mary Magdalene, Catherine, Joseph, Hiram, William, Barbara Ann, and John. The second wife was Mollie Stonebrook, whose children were Susan, Elizabeth, Mary, Israel, Henry, and Maria.

The wife of John was named Julian (from her tombstone) and was known as aunt Eby. Both John and Barbara Ann (Heckler) lived in Shelby, Indiana, during the Civil War. Margaret (Peggy) married Jacob Roser by whom she had the following children: William, Susan, Nancy, and Samuel. They married Esther Overholtz, William Brewer, ----- Graham, and Emma Maurer, respectively.

Mary Magdalene (called Polly) married Adam Snyder by whom she had the following children: John, Hiram (who became an oil prospector), Sam, Tillie (or Matilda), Marie, Joe, and Charles.

Catherine married John Lowmiller by whom she had the following children: Tillness, Meulenburg, Elias, Sanford, Nancy, Ratia, Abby, and Amos.

Barbara Ann married Daniel Heckler by whom she had the following children: Benjamin, Catherine (married Andrew Hawk), Margaret (married William Lenhart), Marie (married Bob Clutz), Danny (died young), and John (died young). This family lived in Shelby, Indiana, during the Civil War. Daniel served in the Union Army and died from drinking poisoned water.

Joe's wife was a Getzman, Henry married Margaret Lowmiller, Maria and Susan were not married and both are buried in the Stonecreek, Ohio, Cemetery. Susan having been the first to be buried there.

Israel also was buried in the Stonecreek Cemetery in the southeasterly section of the original portion, and his grave is marked with a flat stone of the type generally in use at that time. Adam Angel, son of Joseph, told me that Mr. Custer of New Philadelphia had a farm in Illinois and that we have cousins there.

Elizabeth married William Lowmiller, Mary's husband's name was Dinger. William married Catherine Meese, Joseph was older than Hiram, Israel Jr. and Henry served in the Civil War.

Israel's first wife, Annie Harner, had a brother Joseph and a sister Katie. Joseph was a very old man when he died.

Hiram and John at one time visited their birthplace on McGuire's Creek in Harrison County, Ohio, near New Rumley.

Hiram was confirmed Apr. 19, 1845, by Rev. Sparks, in the Lutheran Church on the hill at the cemetery north of Phillipsburg (now Stonecreek), Ohio. He married Caroline Hahn, who came to Tuscarawas County, Ohio, from Germany. Her family also came to this country and lived on the Gohler farm on Oldtown Valley; at the foot of the hill across from the Burrier farm, on the road leading from the southerly end of Stonecreek village to Oldtown Valley. Her mother lived only two years after coming to America. Her brother Jacob settled in Nebraska and lived to be over 90 years old. Most of his family later went to Washington state.

Israel left a small note-book in which are recorded the dates of birth of each of his children, his birth and marriage dates, and other information. This book at the death of my father, Hiram, was given to my brother Charles, and upon his death it was given to me by his widow, Ellen. I, in turn, gave it to my son Walter W. Gruber Sr., hoping it may be preserved for those who find it of interest.

Israel, in his later days, lived on what was known as the Adam Regula place on the road leading from Phillipsburg, past the brick works, to Oldtown Valley, it being the third farm past the railroad. Hiram probably was no longer at home when Israel lived there. Hiram, William, and Barbara Ann kept house together for some time before either of them was married. Where, is not known.

Relative to the Hiram Angel family.

Rosetta was born on Oldtown Valley on the Talan or Tolan farm, which is on a side road past the John Meese farm about four or five miles from the village of Stonecreek and off the Oldtown Valley road toward New Philadelphia. This side road is to the east of the main road past the Bill Angel (aunt Cass Angel) farm, the Meese place being the third farm from the main road and the Talan farm a short distance farther. Elizabeth, Nancy, and I were born on the Meese farm.

When I was six months old the family moved to the Hoffman, and later the Ridgeway farm, two and a half miles northwest of Phillipsburg, which father bought and where the family was raised. It now belongs to Howard Angel, grandson of my uncle William.

MEMO TO MY SUCCESSOR

I hoped that in the future some of our descendants will be interested in the genealogy of the Angel family and from time to time revise these records. If I may, I would like to say just a few words to those who may find time to take up the work where I leave off.

The way of the genealogist usually is not easy, in fact, it is tough even with good support from others in the family. You will write many letters and get few replies and still fewer helpers, information given in good faith may be in error and you will find that the bulk of the work must be done by yourself. If you are fortunate, as I have been, the burden will be lighter; but you will spend hours in searching and trying to fit together the blocks of the jig saw puzzle; because, you alone know just what to look for and where a morsel of information may fit.

The records here submitted have been worked out the hard way, and I trust that these few remarks may be of help to some one in the future. The first work to be done is to compile all available data into a chart or other suitable form. This may be in the form of charts of several branches of the family with no connecting links. Some may belong to another family, but you must search for the connecting data and bit by bit join the fragments together into a larger chart. Do not discard anything until the entire job is completed, likewise, during your search take all data that could possibly apply to your work. Go in with an open mind and do not jump at conclusions.

In order to get the information you need from other members of the family and their friends, several interviews may be necessary from time to time as the work progresses, and new facts bring up new questions. If you can get to Washington, the United States Census Records may contain much information for you. These records, however, are not made available until they are over fifty years old and, unless you know definitely where your party lived at the time the census records were compiled, you may spend considerable time searching. During the past few years the writer searched, page by page and line by line, more than one hundred census books, varying in volume from five hundred to twelve hundred pages each. Census records, commencing with the year 1850, list each member of a family and indicate his or her age and place of birth; however, prior to that time, only the name of the head of a family was recorded, followed by the number of male and female members within certain age brackets.

Other sources of information are records of wills, marriage licenses, deeds, court proceedings, etc.; also church records, tombstones, histories of towns, counties, states, and records in state or national archives. A very desirable procedure is to follow the work on the preliminary chart with the census records search, then other records and further interviews and correspondence. The analysis of data at frequent intervals saves much extra search work.

It is hoped that someone who has the time and means, some day will trace our forefathers back to Europe. As stated elsewhere, it appears that Charles Sr. 1-1 or his ancestors came from Germany.

Pennsylvania German Pioneers by Ralph Strausburger, 1934, on pages 335 to 338 in Lists 97A, 97B, and 97C, shows that one Carl Angel age 20 (also shown as Carl Philips and Carl Philip), was imported from the Palatinas in the ship Loyal Judith, with James Cowey as master, sailing from Rotterdam, and that Carl took the oath of qualification to the Government on September 2, 1734. This man may or may not be our Charles Sr. or his father; however, if either, he probably was the latter. Also Charles Sr. or his father may have entered this country under the name of Engell or Engel; even Engle is possible and all names should be born in mind in making a search.

NOTES ON THE INDEX

The numbers used in the index are the family tabulation codes, which may be compared to paragraph numbers. These codes, in Part II, carry a capital letter prefix to the part after the hyphen; consequently it can readily be determined whether your reference is to Part I or Part II. The number preceding the hyphen designates the generation; which may easily be located by rapidly turning the pages, or by the method outlined under Suggestion for Using Part II, in the introduction. The family number, the part of the code after the hyphen, may then be traced with ease, if you remember that they appear in numerical order under each generation. For name of spouse of a member of the Angel family, search the general index.

Information may be found in both the family tabulations of the parents and their children. For index entries such as Harner family 3-2, or Gribble family Section B1, it will be necessary to search an entire family tabulation or an entire section of several pages. An entry such as Fox, Charles etal. 7-B5, indicates that other members of the Fox family are mentioned in the paragraph.

It is recommended that you read carefully the page under the heading "Suggestions For Using Part II", in the Introduction, and that you use the Index to Family Tabulations immediately after it.
