FOREWORD

The Alamance County Historical Association is happy to announce that due to the fine spirit of cooperation of Mrs. Paul Kinney, wife of the late Rev. Paul Kinney, who had been given the family genealogical records prepared by the late David Isaiah Offman of families in Alamance County has now prepared copies of the Albright family records and they are available at a reasonable price for all who may desire these family records.

We are also pleased that we can announce that due to the cooperation of The Genealogical Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in Salt Lake City, Utah we have been able to provide microfilm copies of the Offman Family Records for the Elon College Library, May Memorial Library, University of North Carolina Library, Duke University Library, Lenoir-Rhyne College Library and the Department of Archives and History in Raleigh. Anyone wishing to read these family records may do so by visiting either of the libraries mentioned above.

The Alamance County Historical Association is preparing 100 copies of the Albright Family Records but only a limited number are being bound since we are hopeful that members of the Albright family and descendants will wish to provide photographs of individuals, homes and other interesting family records that might be included in future copies of the Albright Family Records. It will be necessary for the person providing photographs to be used also provide definite identification for the materials sent to the Alamance County Historical Association. All photographs used may be returned if the one providing them requests that this be done.

It is important that family records be kept as accurate as possible and we are hopeful that there are many members of the Albright family that will help us in providing additional information for their family records.

We also wish to commend Mr. D. J. Walker, Jr., Alamance County Manager and the Board of County Commissioners for their financial aid which has helped make possible providing these copies of Alamance County family records.

PART I

THE ALBRIGHT FAMILY

The Albright is an extensive one in America. Tradition says they are descendents of the Royal House of Hapsburg from which House all the rulers of Austria have come since 1276. Miss Stockard in the History of Alamance, and Mr. A. G. Albright, of Hoxie, Arkm, give a part of the genealogy of the Hapsburgs, but neither can prove clearly their descent. We are perfectly willing to grat the claim without proof. What we are interested in is the genealogy of Hendrick Albright who came from some place in Germany with his wife and five sons. He settled in the state of New York near the present site of the city of Albany. Tradition says he was wealthy. He married Anna Folsom. Below we give a part of his family.
