INTRODUCTION

The Binford Reunion of August '34 suggested we ought to bring the Binford Genealogy up to date, and asked the President to appoint a committee to advise with us about it. Upon my advice he appointed Calla Smith of Sioux City, Ia., John Chappell of Brown University of Salome Springs, Ark., and Ella McIlvaine of Carthage, Ind. The two former because they have done much work in this line, and the latter because she gathered much data for the original book. We have consulted and decided the most practical form of noting changes is to take up the families by their numbers in the book and give the ten years changes, without a new numbering or index. We have some new branches but we will join them to the tree by the number from which they originate. We will put it in a paper binding and thus save expense. Any who wish can have these bound together.

Calla Smith, a school teacher of Sioux City, Ia., has spent at least two of her summer vacations in Virginia looking up Peebles records, on which she is publishing a book. She found some dates in Quaker records and the Richmond Library, which I did not have.

Also, Mrs. Leon Anderson of Halifax, N. C., a descendant of Margaret Mosby Binford, a sister of John Alexander, grandfather of Lloyd T. Binford, whose family we presented to the Reunion last year, a professional typist, has found some items which we shall use.

MARY BRUNER.

SOME NOTES FROM WILLS and DEEDS

Will of James Binford (No. 10), dated 18th day of 9th Mo. 1781, Henrico Court House.

"I, James Binford, of the County and Parish of Henrico." Names his children, viz: Son, James; daughts. Martha and Nancy; sons, Benjamin and Thomas; daut., Sarah Mosby, and son, Samuel.

James Ladd, Wm. Binford and James Binford, Jr., Executors.

Will of Thomas Binford (No. 44), Gouchland Court House, dated June 1, 1838.

Calls for Betsy Claiborne, James J., Thomas, Robert J., Samuel H., William, Mary F. French and Albert G. All of them already given $2000 each.

Minor children, Walter Lee, George, John G. Wife, Magdalena S. Binford:

Will of Thomas Binford (No. 12) of Henrico Co., Va.

Mentions 1, Thomas, 2, John K., 3, Sherwood, who ma. Martha Parker, May 7, 1800, 4, Marian, who ma. Wm. Pemberton, Dec. 20, 1784, 5, Joseph, 6, William and, 7, Nancy Binford.

Will of John Binford (No. 27), says his wife, Martha, and dauts., Kiziah and Judith, are to have so much current money to make them equal to my daut. Elizabeth, who had that sum from her deceased mother's estate. Dated 1798. Executor, Brother James Binford.

This Judith is the wife of Benajah, whom I knew well in my childhood. He d. 1858. She d. 1871. They lived just across the branch from my grandfather. Their houses in calling distance. Aunt Judith's was the nearest house to our district school, which was called The Binford School, because at one time the teacher and all the pupils but two were Binfords. We had no well at the school, so at noon two of the pupils would go after a pail of water to Aunt Judith's. We always wanted to go, because she always had a smile, a kind word, and an apple or a cookey for us. It seems unbelievable now that I can just see the face of a woman, who was b. in 1792. Excuse a word here on heredity. My parents were always saying first cousins should never marry. I noticed that professors in medical college spoke slightly of cousin marriages. When we read Prescott's History of Peru, where he calls our attention to the fact that The Incas for 900 years kept the highest civilization then known on the western continent in their one family; brother propagating through sister even—always relatives, we took notice. Benajah and Judith were first cousins. Trace out their descendants and you will find a large and vigorous branch. Also Robert Binford and Mary Ann Jarrett were first cousins.

Deed.

Thomas Binford and Benjamin Crew on Nov. 21, 1790, deeded 370 a. of land in Greensville Co., Va., to James Binford. The same land is deeded by James and Hannah, his wife, of Northampton Co., N. C., on May 9, 1800, to Richard Crump, which confirms our statement that upon marriage James and Hannah left Charles City Co. to get more land in Greensville Co. Va. Then in 1800 went down into Northampton Co., N. C.

This history of the families of Robert and Thomas Binford is by Robert Hopson Binford, who gathered the data for their branch of the tree.

Robert Hopson Binford furnishes the following:

Born Feb. 12, 1913, at Fulton. Son of Pompey Rivers Binford, grandson of Robert Hopson Binford, whose father, Robert Binford, came from Virginia in 1827. I graduated from the University of Kentucky this last June, and still very much a bachelor.

I will now give you some of the history of the Binford family in Kentucky, as my grandfather gave to my father. Although some of it is nothing to be proud of, yet the elder Binfords seemed to be true gentlemen and aristocrats of those days.

SUPPLEMENT TO BINFORD FAMILY GENEALOGY

My great grandfather, Robert Binford, was a farmer and excellent card player, lived well, dressed well, and liked luxuries. He was said to have had the first glass windows in Western Kentucky in his house. He and Mr. James were candidates for the legislature from Hickman County in 1838. James' wife made some remarks about Binford being a gambler. Binford demanded that James apologize or fight a duel. James, without warning, drew a pistol and shot Binford, seriously wounding him, but Binford drew his pistol and shot James. He knocked him down and was beating him over the head with the pistol when James' brother rushed up, placed his pistol against Binford's breast, and killed him instantly. This started a general fight, and eleven men were dead when it was over, but neither of the James brothers were killed. When this news reached Virginia, Hopson Binford, Robert Binford's brother, rode horseback to Kentucky, killed his brother's slayer, and rode back to Virginia.

Robert Binford's widow was left with a small farm, a few slaves, and four small children. She was a Spartan, and took up the task, bringing her family to maturity. The children were grown, Gideon, Mary, and Robert were married and all getting on nicely when the Civil War began. Gideon, Pinkney, and Mary's husband, Joe Walgamott, joined the Southern army. Robert was left behind to care for the families of all. Northern troops laid waste the country. The men returned from the war and began life anew. All reared large families and provided well for them.

My grandfather, Robert Hopson Binford, was 6 feet 2 inches tall, and weighed 200 pounds. He was a farmer and livestock dealer, loved fine horses, and always kept several. A man of great dignity, noted for his kindness and generosity, his word was as good as his bond, and no one questioned his honor. In his later years he was religious, helped build a church in his community and was its main support for many years. As a young man he was much of a rounder, and very lucky at cards. He was always active in politics, though he never sought a political office.

Gideon Jarrett Binford was 5 feet 11 inches, 225 pounds, a successful farmer and politician. He served in the state legislature and as County Judge of Hickman County. He was a man of kind disposition, but quick to take offense and ferocious as a lion when aroused. He had many fights and never lost one. He was Captain of Company B, Seventh Kentucky Mounted Infantry, Confederate States of America. He was wounded at the Battle of Shiloh, but rejoined his company and served to the end of the war, part of the time under the great cavalry leader, N. B. Forrest.

Pinkney Binford was 6 feet, red hair, popular hail-fellow-well-met, a Chesterfield in manner and dress, a professional gambler, though with the speech and manner of a minister. He was a First Lieutenant, Third Kentucky Mounted Infantry, C. S. A.

Mary's husband, Joe Walgamott, of French extraction, was a soldier of fortune, served under three flags: with the British in India, French in Indo-China, and with the Confederacy. He was quiet, devoted to his family and business. Mary was a devoted mother and took over his business at his death, and ran it until her death.

Thomas Binford, who came from Virginia to Kentucky, was a very large man, more than six feet, and weighed 300 pounds, known as the handsomest man in Virginia, known for courtly manners, generosity, and happy-go-lucky disposition. He was a farmer, and he was also a good card player. He quit farming, and ran a hotel in Hickman, Kentucky, many years. He never refused a beggar, and would give away his last dollar. He was well dressed, affecting a stove pipe hat and Prince Albert coat. When a young man he went home with a school friend, fell in love with the friends sweetheart, won his permission to court her by a card game, and married her. He died in Hickman about 1874. The last generation or so in this branch of the family seems to have slightly degenerated. Whereas all the early Binfords were large, and good card players, the later ones are small. None of them are over five feet, eight or nine inches. I am five feet six inches, and probably the world's worst poker player.

Sincerely yours,

ROBERT HOPSON BINFORD.

NASHVILLE, TENN., JUDGE MALONE IS A BINFORD

I want to introduce to you Judge Malone of Nashville, Tenn.

Thomas H. Malone (No. 361), son of Eliza Frances Hardiman Binford and James Chappell Malone, wrote an autobiography for his children. I got hold of a hand-copied manuscript of it from his niece, Mrs. Jos. R. Binford, and copied it. He says he was born 1834 near Athens, Ala. He was raised on a large plantation of 1000 acres, was one of a large family of children with the best of negro slaves around them. His picture of slavery is very much brighter than that my father described of his childhood. The Forests of Secluseval—their plantation—were supplied with deer, fox and other game. His father was very fond of hunting and had fine dogs and horses. Tom was a lover of the chase and was a sure shot, so when he came home from the University of Va. collapsed from hard work, he recuperated in the chase. He took his Master's degree at the University of Va., in which they were very strict in their examinations, so that few students passed successfully. When he first entered he made friends with one of the Profs and his wife, who had just lost a son, so that he spent his Sabbaths with them the whole four years of his university course. In the early years of his course this Prof's wife introduced him into Charlottesville society and he was very popular among the young ladies. After finishing at the university he taught for a time. His father and his professor friend wanted him to be a minister but a Methodist Conference was held in Athens and his father had his house full of preachers. Tom attended the sessions and heard the men talking in the home and he saw they were full of jealous competition; he told his father he could not be a preacher, that was not his idea of Christianity. After this decision he turned his attention to law, went to Nashville, Tenn., to read law with a Mr. Houston. In his office he read and assisted for two years, then formed a partnership in which he worked until the war came on. When he saw war was coming he drilled a company of men and had them in good shape to volunteer their services as soon as Tennessee joined in the secession. His regiment went to Richmond and they joined in the heaviest of the fighting until they were captured and taken to Johnson's Island in Lake Erie, where he was a prisoner for 18 months. His record of his prison life shows his beautiful character. Each one of the prisoners did their own cooking. Tom was a fine biscuit maker, so he always did that, the chores were divided up. They had large grounds for exercising—many acres. A very high impassable fence closing them in. Tom improved his time, teaching his fellow officers—this was an officers' prison—French, German, military trades, etc. Through a book house in Sandusky, N. Y., he ordered books from a Boston book firm and he bought many books such as Les Miserables. When it was decided to exchange prisoners between the North and South, he and two of his southern officers were taken by the North to Baltimore and turned loose to find their way home. They were taken by southern friends' vessels to Charleston, S. C. From there across the southern part of the U. S. to Alabama, they had to walk; railroads and the country in general were laid waste by the war. The trip was exhausting. One of his men almost died with pneumonia. He had to stop and nurse him. Many were the soldiers, both of the North and the South, returning from prison. The picture of Tom getting home, finding father and mother dead, sisters taking refuge with friends—his brother was still in the war; was not taken prisoner. The house and fences have been torn down and used for fire wood. The desolation of the country was terrible. When Tom gets his sisters home and things in decent shape he goes back to Nashville to his law practice and does a big business until his 73rd year. He d. in 1906; did not complete his autobiography. He gives us a picture that we in the North never saw. Judge Malone was a strong character. He was a great card player as many other Binfords of the South have been, but he says never a penny went into his pocket from card playing or betting. His father had fine dogs for his chase and he tells of his uncle having fine game chickens.

Anna Branch Binford of the Presbyterian Com. of Publication of Richmond, Va., we first met in correspondence in 1907 and we tried to complete the chain connecting her with our one Binford family, but we lack a link. Her first known ancestors were (No. 9) John and Susanna Ellyson Binford, Quaker stock. Her grandfather, John James Binford, came from Charles City Co. He was left an orphan in childhood. He had an own brother and half brother but both died without heirs. So her grandfather's six sons and two daughters were the only relatives they knew. Her father, James H. Binford, was made Superintendent of the Richmond schools in 1870 and continued until his death in 1876. He did an outstanding piece of educational work for the state of Virginia and for the South by putting the schools in Class A standing. So we feel ourselves very much honored to claim Anna Branch though a link may be wanting. We feel sure somebody will find that link. Here is the will of John Binford (No. 9) found by Mrs. Leon Anderson in Charles City Co., Va., records Bk. 1, page 204. Dated Feb. 2, 1780, probated 1795: Eldest sons, Robert and Thomas, land in Hickhominy. Son, John Binford, land and plantation (home), also plantation called "Days", after death of wife. Daughters, Martha Binford and Mary Crew. Executor, Brother James Binford.

Sue Burrow. When a boy he came with his parents to the Binford Reunion on their first visit and were entertained in our home. Since which time he has graduated in Eastman College, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., has taken his lawyers' degree and is now Judge of the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court of Prince George Co. and lives in Petersburg. He says he finds many records about Binford's in the County and sent me a copy of a freedom proclamation of a certain slave by parties mentioned in Nos. 7, 8 and 17 of the Genealogy. From which one can easily see how a feeling would grow between those who upheld slavery and those who opposed it. In 1919 I visited these Binford's with the late lamented Professor of History of Haverford College, Rayner W. Kelsey and wife. They took us for a picnic dinner to the old Brandon Plantation on the James River. We met Mr. Bird, a relative of the Admiral, who owned it at that time. We had a most delightful visit. I want to tell you how old people were treated in that home in contrast to the Russian method of treating the aged. Mr. Binford's mother, Mrs. Binford's father and aunt of hers were all at home and very happy in that family.

FREES SLAVE

We, Thos. Chappell, John Chappell, Benjamin Chappell, Agnes Chappell of Prince George County, and Aquilla Binford of Dinwiddie County, Virginia, being fully persuaded that freedom is the natural right of all mankind and that it is our duty to do unto others as we would be done by, and having under our care one negro of the following name, Charles Rivers, aged twenty-two years. We do, therefore, emancipate and set free the said negro, and we do for ourselves, our heirs, executors, administrators relinquish all our rights, titles, interests, claims or pretension of claims whatsoever. Without any interruption from us or any person or persons claiming from under any of us either to his person or to any estate he may hereafter acquire, in witness we have hereunto set our hands and seals this 17th day of March in the year 1792.

HISTORY OF THE BINFORD REUNION

The following history of the Binford Reunion was written and read in 1932 by Wm. E. Elliott, son of Martha Jane Binford Elliott, who was the Secretary of all the reunions from 1892 to 1916. So he had access to her minutes. The Robert Binford family consisted of six sons and three daughters. So they had a good size audience with only the one family. They kept up their family reunions on alternate years until the general reunion was held every year. The author wants to say she does not take the credit of this early organization. It belongs to older members of the family. Her sister even criticized her in one of her minutes for want of interest. But her children were small and she was practicing medicine. When they put her on the program in 1904 to give the history of Mary Ladd, her grandmother, she wrote to Caroline Ladd of Nantuckett and Pasadena, Cal., and many others, and was fired with an interest in genealogy, which has never grown cold.

In 1908 the General Binford Reunion had the song which follows, sung to the tune "Auld Lang Syne".

The Robert Binford family organized their reunion in 1892 and held their meetings annually for thirteen years, or until 1904. Robert Binford had died in 1884 and Martha, the mother, in 1899.

In 1904 the Reunion voted to invite the James L. Binford family to join them in a reunion in 1905. They did so and it was held in Omer Binford's grove—the old James L. Binford homestead. The following was the program, which was very successfully carried out and ended by a resolution to invite the James Binford family to join us the next year:

The Executive Committee will compose the Committee on Introduction.

ARTHUR O. BINFORD, President.
MARTHA J. ELLIOTT, Secretary.

As in the James L. Binford family, each of the four sons and two daughters was given a history by one of their descendents. This Reunion was held at Walnut Ridge, the center of their settlement in Indiana in 1826, as they came from North Carolina. James Binford had died in 1824, leaving his dying request that they go to the new west to escape slavery, that he had the assurance God would bless them in it. This Reunion was very successful and ended by a motion to invite all Binfords "that can be known or mentioned" to the next reunion.

The first general Binford Reunion was held at Walnut Ridge August 25, 1908. The program was as follows:

THE SONG OF THE BINFORDS

Tune—"Auld Lang Syne"

Come all ye merry Binford clan
And let us gaily sing,
Until the woods and hills and vales
With cheerful music ring.
Come join us on this happy day
With hearts so fond and free,
Come let us drive dull care away
With cheerfulness and glee.

Across the rugged mountains bold,
The sturdy Binfords came,
And planted on the western plain,
A fair and honored name.
With noble purposes and true,
They carved their weary way,
Unto the better, higher life
That we enjoy today.

SUPPLEMENT TO BINFORD FAMILY GENEALOGY

'Mid storms and clouds, 'mid snow and rain,
In sunshine and in shade,
They struggled on from day to day,
And worked and sang and prayed,
Sometimes the sun with golden glow,
Lit up their smiling way,
Sometimes the heavy clouds hung low,
Across their dreary day.

But never for a moment did
They turn from duty's call
Nor falter in their onward march,
Nor faint, nor sink, nor fall,
The light of hope, the lamp of love,
Shone ever for their guide.
The soul of truth, like that above,
Was ever at their side.

Our fathers noble thoughts received
From sturdy William Penn,
For it was he who daily taught
Equality of men,
Nor could the prison bars nor stripes,
His manly soul break down,
But prince and pauper both he loved
From rags to golden crown.

His faith in man was true and grand,
His honor firm and bold,
To kings and lords and dukes and earls
His hopes did he unfold,
And though they scorned his gentle words
And scoted his noble plan,
We live today to know the great
Equality of man.

In all the world's enlightenments,
In all its forward move,
The Binfords well have played their part,
In charity and love.
Their hearts are light, their hopes are bright,
Their friendship firm and true,
And from each lip we hear the words:
"We gladly welcome you."

Then let the Binfords, one and all,
Renew their vows once more,

SUPPLEMENT TO BINFORD FAMILY GENEALOGY

Together we will firmly stand,
As in the days of yore,
With happy hearts and willing hands,
We here our treasures bring,
And to the world our sweetest song,
In one glad chorus sing.

(Chas. A. Robinson, Greenfield, Ind., August 15, 1908)

It was a great reunion. All the states bounding Indiana were represented—Michigan one, Ohio three, Kentucky three, and Illinois two. Besides there were two from Alabama, two from Iowa, one from Kansas, one from South Dakota, and two from North Dakota the crowd numbering almost 400. Dr. Amos Patterson of Iowa, 82 years old, who had made a trip to Palestine, gave us a talk which was fine. This he said of his mother, Angelina Binford Patterson: "Nothing ever caused her to lose her balance." When the Dr. died he left $50,000 to the American Bible Society. Thaddeus Binford of Marshalltown, Iowa, was at the reunion; he was a first cousin of Aquila, a son of Joseph and grandson of Peter. His mother was a Ladd; he was educated at Earlham and settled in Iowa to practice law. He made a business success and was one of the wealthiest Binfords. One of his daughters, Jessie, is today associated with Jane Addams at Hull House, Chicago.

The next reunion was held at Spring Lake Park August 30, 1910. Aquila Binford of Thorntown attended all these reunions as long as he lived. At this one he talked of the Peter Binford family and Arlington Binford charted the Chappell Binford family.

The third Binford Reunion was held at Walnut Ridge in 1912. David Binford charted his branch of the family. Dr. Nellie Binford, of Los Angeles, Cal., daughter of William Penn Binford, who spent five years in India and sailed around the world, was at this meeting. At this meeting a committee was appointed to look after the selling of the Binford Genealogy which is being gathered by Dr. Mary L. Bruner.

The fourth Reunion was held at Walnut Ridge in 1914. Dr. B. S. Binford, the president, being absent, the vice-president, Aquila Binford served. It rained most of the forenoon so the crowd was not so large, but it cleared in time to eat dinner off the tables out of doors. Josiah Binford and Margaret of Kansas were at this meeting.

The next reunion in 1916 was also at Walnut Ridge. John H. Binford of Virginia was present. The day was fine, 250 being present. Dr. B. S. Binford served as president and Martha J. Elliott as secretary. She served faithfully from 1892 to 1916. She was secretary to the Robert, the James L., the James and the General Binford Reunions. Paul Binford was elected president of the 1918 reunion and Mary Binford Bentley secretary. This reunion was held at Walnut Ridge, also the one in 1920, with Hazel Binford Eddington secretary.

The Binford Reunion was held in the years 1922 and 1923 with William H. Binford president and Lucille Chappell secretary. The next meeting was in 1925 and since then there has been a meeting each year but the writer has not had access to the minutes of the meetings held since the year 1916.

WILLIAM E. ELLIOTT.

SUPPLEMENT TO BINFORD FAMILY GENEALOGY

4. John Binford ma. Agnes Mosby, daut. of Edward, Sept. 12, 1719.

We find in the Watkins history of Henrico Co., Va., Henry, Sr., b. 1637, was a member of the Society of Friends and in 1684 was fined by the court for continuing in his Quakerisms. The fine was remitted. His daut. Elizabeth, 15 yrs. old, was sentenced to prison for refusing to take the oath but was finally excused by the court by reason of her tender years. Henrys' son Thomas in 1735 owned 400 acres of land in Henrico Co. on the Chickahominy Swamp adjoining land of Thomas Binford and Edward Mosby. This is the father of Agnes.

6. Peter Binford, d. Jan. 24, 1782, age 81 yrs. Rebecca d. same yr., age 70 yrs.
7. James, John, Thomas and Peter in 1781 gave cattle, corn, oats, furniture, bedding, etc., for supplying the army in the Revolutionary War. This gives most Binfords a right to the order of D.A.R.
8. Agnes Binford Chappell d. July 6, 1793. Benjamin d. Mar. 11, 1769.
9. Susanna Ellyson Binford d. Aug. 28, 1795.
10. Margaret Mosby, wife of James Binford, who was ma. 1745, and mother of John Mosby, b. 1746, must have been of a pioneer and well-to-do family. We have Agnes Mosby ma. 1719, and we have a property settled upon John Mosby, the eldest son for which his father was security. In all probability because he was a namesake. Because of this property his father leaves him out of his will. (See will of Jas. Binford.)

4. Beale Fletcher, a son.

Maria Beale was a wealthy, aristocratic, charitable lady. She almost owned the village of Arden, which is in the mountains of N. C. eight miles from Ashville. Pres. Wilson spent his honeymoon June 24, 1885, in one of her cottages and many persons of note have spent their summers there. Mr. and Mrs. Beale wrote and published a number of story books.

She had a large number of her old negro servants about her and made a great feast of Christmas, invited 200 guests, first gave the servants their presents, then each guest had a present, followed by a big turkey dinner for the whole. Mr. Beale acted the part of Santa Claus for 60 years.

Margaret Ella Taylor was a Mother Superior in a Catholic Convent in Baltimore and d. of T. B. Maria was a Catholic, but criticised some church action and was excommunicated. After which she and her husband joined a small Episcopal Church.

Henry N. Binford of Athens has always been a right hand man to steer you straight. Here is a quotation from his sister's, Ann Eliza Throne's, letter, written to Judge Malone when he was writing a Binford history. It was given me by Mrs. Eubank of Nashville; Ann Eliza had a scarf pin which belonged to her grandfather Abner. It had on it a family crest. She said our name is French Bienforte "very brave". I suppose our ancestors must have gone over to England with William the Conqueror. Our name was changed to English by first dropping the ending "te"—Bienford, then dropping the "e"—Binford. Some in England dropped the "i" instead of "e" and we had Benford. Good English is Binford. This is the first satisfactory explanation of that spelling I have seen.

Binfords of Disputanta, Va., were here in 1933, they said he had been unanimously elected Supt. of Schools. I wrote to congratulate him, that it looked as though he "would be able to live and die in Richmond." Many people have asked me who "Pat Binford" of radio fame is. I asked Jesse in 1934. This is his reply, "Pat is my son, and you can

SUPPLEMENT TO BINFORD FAMILY GENEALOGY

Dr. Horace J. Binford of Mexico, Me., was introduced to me in 1923 by Lindley M. Binford of Portland, Me., and we exchanged a number of letters. I was very anxious to include him in our record. The most familiar names in his family, James, John, Thomas, Charles, etc., look like Virginia Binfords; but he dates their being in this country so far back, that the connection will have to be made in England. Horace says his father told him when a child that four brothers came from England, a long while ago, and were the first Binfords in America. Two went west and two east to Maine. The Virginia Binfords have a tradition of three brothers; but that is amply proven by records of John, Thomas and Peter. Dr. Wm. Binford of Davenport, Ia., gives the tradition of four brothers; two went west, one east, and one to sea and was lost. This is also proven. Horace says he does not know whether his people came from Kent County, England, or not. You Binfords of the future have this question to settle. Probably the records of Kent County would show the connection. I have not yet found one to antedate our Joe of 1635, or our Anthony of Norfolk County, Va., 1665. Here is a joke on us Virginia Binfords. Dr. Wm. S., when in service at Ft. Riley in 1917, met an officer from Virginia who asked whether he was related to the Virginia Binfords. That he very much resembled that family. He also told him with apologies that there was an old family by the name of Tolliver in Virginia and the saying was "The Tollivers speak to the Binfords, but the Binfords speak only to God."

Horace's grandfather, Jeremiah's family were broken up by the death of their mother and scattered widely. His father, Cyrus, went to Chatham, N. H., and cleared a large farm, farming in summer and logging in winter. He lived on the farm as long as he was able to work, then lived a few years with his son Joseph at Intervale, N. H., where he died. Doctor's two brothers, Charles and Joseph, were farmers and millmen. Joseph visited the Binford's in the west many years ago and found them prosperous farmers. Doctor's father's sisters, Abigail and Rebecca, have a few descendants living in Maine and New Hampshire. Otherwise he is the only living Binford in that section of the country.

Dr. Wm. S. Binford of Davenport, Ia., we have met for the first since last reunion. Both he and his wife, Josephine, are 59 years old. The two doctor's families are the same. Horace's father, Cyrus, and William's grandfather, Jeremiah, were brothers. Yet they were far separated by miles and never had heard of each other. Both were looking for kinsmen. Dr. William's mother says she well remembers of hearing her mother-in-law talk of Joseph's visit to them and that Jeremiah and his family were prosperous farmers. But none of them know anything about Samuel, who went west with Jeremiah. This is the family.

BENFORD

My nephew, Oriel J. Binford, of Butler, Penn., has introduced to me S. T. Benford, City Clerk of Connellsville, Penn., James and J. A. Benford of Connellsville, and Robert N. Benford of Johnstown, Penn., who spell their name with an e. They hold an annual reunion in Somerset, Penn. Robert N. gives me this short history.

James Benford was born near Manchester, Eng., in 1718; came to U. S.; does not know where he first touched the continent, but he settled in Westmoreland County, Penn. His wife was named Mary, and they had 10 children. He served in the Revolutionary War under Washington. House is still standing in which they lived. His son, John, married Elizabeth and were Robert N.'s great-grandparents. They located in Somerset County, Penn., where they remained until 1828, when they moved to Goshen, Elkhart County, Ind., where they died about 1870. I told Robert N. we should watch their investigations into the history of the name with much interest and in the meanwhile would call them our "Benford cousins."
