THE LILLIBRIDGE FAMILY

THOMAS LILLIBRIDGE, the founder of the Lillibridge family in the United States, was born in England in 1662. The reference in East Greenwich, R. I. Land Evidence, v. 2, p. 190, to his oldest daughter "Elizabeth Easton, the wife of Richard Easton of Great Briton in ye County of Devon in ye parish of Chaldon" (i. e. Cheldon, near Chulmleigh, North Devon), offers a clue to the locality whence he emigrated; there is also a "Lillibridge Road" in Brompton, near London. His earliest known American record is as a signer of a petition, dated Newport, Sept. 26, 1699, to the Earl of Bellomont, then in Newport, R. I. to use his influence with "his Majesty" William III. for the establishment of a Church of England at Newport. (S. G. Arnold, History of R. I. vol. 1, p. 599.) This is the original Trinity church, in which Thomas Lillibridge was a warden 1709 and 1713, and where he owned pew 8 till 1719. He was admitted a freeman at Newport May 6, 1701, and was vestryman 1718, 1722-24 in St. Paul's "Narragansett" church, built in 1707, moved to Wickford, about 5 miles north of its original site in 1800; still occasionally in use, and said to be the oldest Episcopal church building north of the Potomac. He settled in old Westerly, 1715, the part originally called Shannock, and incorporated Aug. 22, 1728, as Charlestown, in the section north of the Pawcatuck river which was set off Aug. 18, 1747 as Richmond, R. I. where he died Aug. 29, 1724. "The whole of ye Inventory excepting the slaves (Ming and Ring) is £1160, 18s." He left by will, dated Aug. 24, 1724, to "my eldest son Thomas... one of my homested farms...to take which he likes best"; this contains the family burying ground of this son, just west of Richmond town hall, and is now known as the "Nelson K. Church place"; a second farm, adjoining, he gave to his son Robert, and it still remains in the Lillibridge family: further in Richmond "a tract of land I bought of Samuel Wilbour," also 100 acres of a tract deeded Nov. 26, 1711 by Thomas Stafford, and a pond in Shannock Purchase; in Newport two dwelling houses, "also a lott of land" bought of Benj. Bull July 10, 1713; also to his four youngest children "all my out lett and unsettled lands, saving only one hundred acres of land lying in the Narragansett Contry." This last, situated in East Greenwich, he had already deeded Feb. 16, 1716, to his daughter Elizabeth, as mentioned above. He bequeaths to his brother Edward a maintenance "if he shall come into this country"; and to "John, my brother's son" one riding mare. This John was apparently he who married Mary Joslin in South Kingstown March 29, 1730; admitted freeman, April, 1734; the "Tavern keeper," who bought of John Watson land adjoining Thomas Joslin, 1735; and had John (admitted freeman May, 1757); by a second wife, Amie, had Champlin, b. Sept. 15, 1739; Amie, who m. Clark Gardiner, Nov. 1, 1759; Dorcas, b. Aug. 27, 1747; and "Alice, of John Lillibridge, late deceased", who m. Chris. Morey April 6, 1772. It was probably the son John who m. Susannah Segar July 5, 1755, and had Eleanor, who m. Jeremiah Brown, Jr., Sept. 29, 1776. The Lillibridge name disappears with the second generation.

From the will of Henry Hobson (jr.) we learn that his sister Mary was the wife of Thomas Lillibridge in his earlier years in Newport. (Austin, Geneal. Dict. of R. I., "additions and corrections concluded"; article Hobson.) In an abstract from R. I. Colonial Land Evidence, v. 2, p. 352, "John Clarke of Newport for £100 conveys to Thomas Lillibridge, weaver, 18 acres of land...March 28, 1704"; and July 5, 1706, Thomas Lillibridge, baker, conveys the above land for £80 to Giles Slocum of Newport; the deed being signed by "Thomas Lillybridge" and by "Sarah Lillybridge" as his wife. His account book 1711-19 shows large sales of "Sea Bread." Sarah (Lewis) Lillibridge, the "wife" mentioned in the will died in Richmond Jan. 22, 1761, aged 85, but is said to be buried in Newport with her husband.
