INTRODUCTORY

This record contains the names of the living and the dead. It is the record of the present membership of the Jerusalem Salisbury Church, together with as complete a list of the dead buried at this church as it was possible to make.

The year 1741 marks the time when the first church was built. The Rev. John W. Straub was pastor at the time. Who his successor was does not appear, but in 1759 Rev. Daniel Schumacher became pastor, continuing in office until October 1763, and again from January, 1766 to December, 1768. Rev. Jacob Van Buskirk served from 1769 to 1793. He was succeeded by Rev. George Ellison who served but two years, until 1795. Returning from Montgomery county whither he had gone in 1793, Rev. Van Buskirk in 1796 again became pastor continuing until shortly before his death, August 5, 1800. The pulpit thereafter was successively filled as follows: Rev. Paul F. Kramer, 1800-1803; John G. Roeller, May, 1803 to January, 1804; John C. Dill, May to November, 1804; Conrad Jaeger, Ascension, 1805, to March, 1808; Heinrich Heine, 1808-1817; Heinrich G. Stecker, 1817-1819; Benjamin German, 1820-1849, 29 years; William German, 1850-1852; Jacob Vogelbach, 1852-1857; William Rath, 1857-1889, 32 years; Myron O. Rath, 1889 to the present.

There is no record of a regular pastor on the Reformed side in those early days. Rev. Michael Schlatter, who set sail from Holland for America as missionary in 1746, mentions in his journal, under date of June, 1747, the Salisbury Church, as one which he visited in that day, found vacant, connected it with two adjoining vacant congregations, in the hope that they would have the exclusive services of a regular pastor. From 1748-1771, Rev. John P. Leydich served as pastor. From 1771-1779, Rev. John B. Blitner; 1779-82 Conrad Steiner, Jr. In 1796 the record shows that Rev. John H. Hoppmaler, pastor in neighboring congregations administered communion in the spring. From 1802 to 1815 Rev. Jacob Dechant served until he was called to missionary work in Ohio. Rev. Daniel Zeller was pastor 42 years and was succeeded by Rev. A. J. G. DeSjbs in 1857, and after 19 years, Rev. T. N. Reber became his successor in 1876, continuing until 1892. In 1893 Rev. Charles E. Schaeffer was called, serving until 1898, in which year he was succeeded by Rev. P. A. DeLong, who after two years resigned. The present incumbent Rev. J. P. Bachman assumed the pastorate in 1901.

The present church was erected in 1819 at a cost of $4,908.73. In 1826 an organ costing $800.70 was put in. In 1896 this organ was replaced by the present large and fine instrument at a cost of $1950. In 1870 and in 1884 and again this year the church was renovated and improved. In 1884 the interior was remodeled, a steeple erected, and in the spring of 1885 a 1600 pound sweet toned bell hung. The cost of these improvements was $4,911.80. In 1899 the chapel was erected at a cost of $2300. The cost of renovating church and chapel this year will approximate $800.
