rec 7br. 17. 61

The charge of Rich'd Parker exhibited against mr John Cogan is referred to the sixth day of the next Quarter Co'rt.

page 291. Abstract. Mr. Jno. Holmwood to pay Curtis Laud, Constable of Weynoke, 200 lb tobo for ret of fugitive servt.

page 291. Willm Bird upon his submission and recantacon is released from his imprisonment paying the fees thereof page 291. Whereas Christopher Batty hath most irrev'ently spoken to the high dishonour of his sacred Ma'tie but is noted to be sometimes troubled w'ith frenzie or crazinesse of mind and braine The Co'rt therefore inclining to clemency rather than rigor and in respect of the mercy influent from his Majesties happie Coronacon, doth Censure and adjudge onely that the said Batty rest in the sherriffs custody untill he have entered into recognizeance w'ith good bayle for his good abearing hereafter and pay all the costs

Note: When visiting friends who are in insane asylums, I am invariably told that the sane are all inside, the demented out. I've never taken this as a personal compliment.

When, however, Charles II ( that adroit and wicked gentleman ) is referred to as sacred, I wonder who is wrong: the Commissioners of Charles City County, the Church of England or myself. Can it be that Christopher was inaptly named ? B.F.

page 291. Abstract. Thomas Warren exempted from services and taxes except parish dues "by reason of his inability occasioned by long sicknesse and lamenesse".

page 291. The Compl't of Moris Rose against Wm Averet is referred to be ex'aided by a Jury page 291. Whereas Samuel Smith about a month since heard Christopher Batty speake irrev'ont words against his Sacred Matie and but very lately revealed the same, by w'ich his long concealem't he hath not only neglected and infringed the duty and allegiance he owe'th to his Ma'tie, but also manifested his malicious intent to the sd Batty. The Co'rt doth therefore comitt the person of the sd Smith into the sherriffs custody untill he enter into recognizance w'ith good security for his future good abearing page 291. Whereas Wm Av'et ( Averet ) hath furiously and violently assaulted and maymed Moris Rose whereby his Ma'ts peace is infringed and a subject disabled The Co'rt doth therefore ord'r and adjudge that the sd Av'ett pay the fine and penalty of two thousand pounds of good tobbo and caske to his Ma'ts use for the breach of the law and peace, and rest in the sherriffs custody untill he enter into Recognizance w'ith good security for his future good abearing

Verdict vidzt

Whereas it doth plainly appe' unto us by the appereance of Moris Rose that he hath lost his teeth therefore we do find for the plt 3000 lb of tobbo

The Co'rt giveth Judgem't upon this verdict for the sd 3000 lb tobbo and all Costs of suite to be paid by the defendt, als exec.

To the Hono'ble Govn'or and the worp'll Co'rt of Cha: Citty Com
Wm Averett in all humility presenteth

That being a poore indigent young man haveing no ~~ther~~- other subsistence but by his hard labo'r he is censured and fined beyond all possibility of paym't, and hath requested and obtained of Morris Rose a remission of the damages given ag'st him by Judgem't on the verdict of a Jury, and doth most humbly prostrate him selfe at the feet of his M'ats and yo'r Hon'ors clemency in relacon to his offence against his Ma'ts peace and lawes by him so rashly broken, wch he humbly recanteth and repenteth

And doth therefore in all humility implore yo'r Hon'rs favorable remission and release of the fine imposed on him to his sd Ma'ts use

And he shall ever pray &c

Case

In Anno 1637 Chainey Boyce deceased did pattent in his owne name 1550 Acres of Land lyeing in the wood at a place called the old Towne.

In Anno 1643 (sic) which was 15 yeares after Chainey Boyce dyed without seating the sd Land his title thereby being utterly lost, But the Rights reverted into the hands and estate of Joyce his late wife and Executrix as onely a personall estate. Att which time the Co'rt in care of the estate of Tho: Boyce the onely sonne of Chainey Boyce did order the sd executrix to pay him an Annuall Maintenance and to deliv'r him a very considerable estate at the age of 21 yeares and to pay all the deacodents debts and then to bee totally discharged all w'ch shce punctually preformed

In Anno 1644 The Executrix Intormarried with Capt Rich: Tye who six yeares after finding the sd rights w'ch were then a Chattell and parcell of the estate by his wife did repattent the said Land in his owne Rights and in his owne name seated it and injoyed it seaven yeares and left it by will to his owne children and dyed.

Query Whether the land Lost by Chainey Boyce, was not also lost from his sonne, and whether the Executrix haveing pd his sonne his utmost due ordered to him by the Co'rt and taken acquittance upon record, The sd Rights did not belong to her and consequently whether the sd Tho: Boyce or the Orhands of Capt Tye have a right to inheritt the said Land

The Land being totally deserted for want of seating long before the decease of Mr Cheiney Boyce as above expressed

Note:

In this list, after recovery from amazement at the way Archie had his name spelled, note that certain persons appear twice. Now whether my honored ancestor of the Council made some little errors, happily in his own favor, and winked at by Mr. Secretary, or whether these people came twice, and then again, as they often did, we do not know. We must assume the latter. Perhaps they were sailors. These lists, carefully enough prepared in their time and place, would not stand the glare of modern search lights. But they are all we have. Descent from ffransoy and Conax may account for many a witty remark that delighted the Virginians in later generations.

page 407. Abstract. Capt Edd Hill having only partly finished the tan houses for this County, promises to finish them "w'ith pitts and howseing convenient and w'ith a tanner shoemaker and currier" by the end of June next. Henrico County to join in expense.

Note: These old records carry many a suggestive text. A sea captain who came here about this time was horrified ( a horrified sea captain-consider that ! ) at the barbarians who swarmed over his vessel, unshaven and clad only in canvas drawers, but was relieved to find them friendly traders - our ancestors. I was horrified ( consider that ! ) to find Jews, clad in much less, swarming Miami Beach, and was relieved to find the ancestors of future America but peaceful old clothes and delicatessen dealers of Bleecker St.

Now the baronet's grandson would have us wear shoes. God did'ent, but we must. So we become civilized. B.F.

Colonial Dames are requested to skip the above note. Unless they are from the north of Mason & Dixon's Line it would not interest them.

Note: Robert Rowse certainly deserved his pay. But unless human nature has changed remarkably these last two or three hundred years, and these records do not show that it has, the four gent who went up and down the countryside prying into everybody's business should have been made to pay for their curiosity, disguised under the idea of public weal, rather than the victims. Note: One cannot but wonder what actually goes on in the inmost hearts of those persons who resant and humbly submit. I had a beloved friend who during his life managed, or rather mismanaged, to get himself arrested at various times. Then I would be hauled out of bed and spend half the night raising bail or sitting up in the jailor's office awaiting an unprofitable dawn. When fined or released with stringent admonition and much good advice, he took it all in good grace and resented nothing. It was I who damned the Judge ( Oh no ! - not out loud. ) and spent the next day in ire and indignation. Perhaps it was that my friend, like Dr. Cogan and Mr ffarloe settled their affairs on earth, while I have much to explain on the Great Day. B.F.
