PREFACE

Washington County is beautiful. And prosperous. Once it was all of the Southwest corner of Virginia - and Kentucky. From their tall mountains one can see five states: Virginia, North Carolina, West Virginia, Tennessee and Kentucky. The waters divide, going to the Atlantic and the Mississippi. This section was the last Virginia springboard in the immense migrations to the South and West.

This Marriage Register is in the Court House in Abingdon. During the Civil War the Yankees simply played Hell in this aristocratic little town. There are still marks of violence on the stately old house in which we stayed in 1949. Evidence of joy in brute destruction of cultivated things. The people are mainly of Scotch origin. The County Clerk cannily hid the records in a cave. But he could not move them all, so the original marriage bonds were destroyed. The Register runs through from 1782 to the present date. In 1852 the records become very satisfactory, giving race, parents' names, the residence of both parties and further detail.

The Register from which this data was taken is a transcript. If there is an older one it was not brought out. This one is considered the official copy. The other records of the County appear to be complete to date and in good condition.

This volume will be followed by another made up of additional material, Marriages, Bible Records, Cemetery Inscriptions and notes.

If you have time please read my 'Complaints and Lamentations' further on. Not important but how I feel in regard to certain (or rather uncertain) matters.

Ministers

It is evident that the Faith of our forefathers was an element in the formation of American civilization. Therefore I've endeavored to identify the Denominations of the ministers appearing in the register. It has taken more time and patience than transcribing all of the marriages. The result of this effort has been mainly a failure. Up to 1825 there were Presbyterians, Methodists, Baptists, Lutherans and Quakers. No Episcopal Churches until a much later date. I'm told many Lutherans and Quakers in this section became Baptists. In other parts of Virginia they appear to have become Methodists. I will try and show the Denominations of more of these ministers in a later volume. If I continue to delay in regard to this detail this volume will never be released.

B. F.

Minister	Appears	Denomination
John Frost	1785	Baptist
Thomas Woolsey	1786	"
Charles Cummings	1790	Presbyterian
Jacob Link	1791	Lutheran (?)
(There may have been no such person. This possibly was the Rev. Jacob Zink. His name also appears as Linck, or Zinok (?) B.F.)
Edward Crawford	1795	Presbyterian
Simon Cookrell	1782	Baptist
Andrew Baker	1794	"
William Brundige	1798	"
William Wilson	1800	Presbyterian (?)
Stephen Bovell	1801	Presbyterian
Moses Foley	1808	Baptist
Charles Pennington	1810	"
James Harper	1811	Reformed Presbyterian

(Note: As a High Church Episcopalian I simply cannot imagine anybody attempting to reform a Presbyterian. B.F.)

George Eakin	1814	Methodist
Drury Senter	1822	Baptist (?)

(Note: The Senter family later on Hard-shelled Baptists. They seduced a young Methodist minister from his Faith, immersed him, soaking him thoroughly into their fold. The Rev. Drury Senter must have laid the foundations for this sort of thing. B.F.)

David Jessee	1820	Baptist
Alexander McEwan	1820	Presbyterian

(See next page)

The Rev. I. P. Martin, D.D., 2658 E. Fifth Ave., Knoxville, Tenn., has been kind enough to identify the following as early Methodist Ministers:

Minister	Appears	Denomination
Charles Hardy	1797	Methodist
Barnabas McHenry	1795	"
William Vermillion	1809	"
W. P. Kendrick	1823	"
William Patton	1825	"
John Tevis	1824	"
and
David Lockett	1790	This name appears in the Register as Daniel Lockett. There was a Methodist Minister in Washington County in 1790 named David Lockett. We presume this to be the same person. B.F.

It has not been possible (within my limitations) to identify the Denomination of the ministers to follow. There would, or should be Lutherans and possibly Quakers among them.

Minister	Appears
Nicholas Reagan (or Ragan)	1792.	We presume, by process of elimination that he must have been a Lutheran of the Saltville district. But we are not positive.
Ebenezer Brooks	1781
J. T. Moore	1800
James Hobbs	1802
James Foley (as Folley)	1810
Boys Williams	1810
John Jones, Jr.	1818
Jeriel Dodge	1819
David Young	1819
Zacharia Mitchell	1820
James Porter	1820
Henry H. Reynolds	1823
Nathaniel Holley	1824
Robert M. Shankland	1825
Andrew S. Morrison	1825
John Stranger, G.M.	1804

Complaints and Lamentations

My good friend Grady Garrett tells me to put this memo well forward ahead of the Register. This gentleman has an unholy and unwanted habit of accuracy. Even I have a respect for the truth, if it is not too expensive.

Anyhow:

In spite of the great amount of data of genealogical interest here, still there is no knowing what Witch or Devil ever possessed me to include this Register in Virginia Colonial Abstracts. It is not Colonial, the entries are not Abstracts. All that can be said of it is that this volume is a modern transcript of a modern transcript. Thus about 6000 opportunities for mistake. Perhaps I've taken advantage of all of my opportunities at one fell swoop in putting it out at all.

But of error there is no end. Some men have truth marked on their faces. Others have not, and there are gradations between. Books are like that.

All conscientious Virginia students know the mischief we have been led into in having too much faith in transcripts of the records of Accomac, Westmoreland and York Counties, which are offered as official records by the County Clerks who do not bother to know the difference. They are just near enough to the fact to lead you astray forever. God help us few in our search!

This Washington County, Virginia, Marriage Register, is another modern transcript placed in the Clerk's Office as an official record. It does not bear the mark of truth on the face of it. To repeat: it is just near enough to the fact to lead you astray forever.

Now one expects the peculiar and phonetic spelling of names in old records, particularly in a marriage register. Signatures on the bonds are often impossible. The ministers' reports uncertain. In the transcript of this register there is more evident error. There is a frequent interchange of the small 'e' and the small 'o'. There is no excuse for Monroe appearing as 'Manrae', Rae as 'Roe' and so on. Change the 'a' and the 'e', then reverse it, and what chance have you? The name Jacob Link - or Zink (?) - disturbs me. Now being 310 miles away, I'm not strong enough to go back and contradict the official records of Washington County - and prove it.

So this is offered, with many reservations, as the best to be had under the circumstances. But be well warned. Perhaps we have here a sea of floating error. Sink or swim as you please.

 (Note: Vulgarity is irresistible to certain types of mind. My own for instance. In variations of this name look where no gentleman should ever look, but many do. All respectable married women know what I mean. A divorce was recently granted a very nice woman on the basis that her husband was too sissy to avail himself of this free and delightful opportunity.
