ROBINSON'S VIRGINIA COUNTIES, CHART 9, PAGE 168

Publisher's Preface

Mrs. Knorr died in 1975, and after her death these books of marriage records were kept in print and sold by her late husband. Upon his death, they became the property of her grandson, Hal Wyche Greer, III, of Marietta, Georgia, who continued to sell them on a limited basis.

In mid-1981 I sought to find Mr. Greer to discuss with him the possibility of obtaining the exclusive publishing and sales rights to these 14 titles. In due time, Mr. Greer and I were able to negotiate a contract for my exclusive sales and publication rights to these books. It was agreed that Mr. Greer would have a final voice on the changing of the format of any of these titles when they needed to be reprinted. I suggested to Mr. Greer that when these various books sold out and a reprinting had to be done, that for the sake of cost, I would publish them in a 6" x 9" page size, but that the format and style would remain the same, and this was agreed upon.

The reader is cautioned to note that these new 6 x 9 pages are typed verbatim from Mrs. Knorr's original copy, and page by page, so that new indexing was not required. It was also decided that when a book went out of print, it would be retyped on an electric typewriter with a carbon ribbon for better legibility. As publisher, I felt it was important to call to the attention of the reader these changes and the reason for eventually bringing out all of these titles in a 6 x 9 book.

PREFACE

For the thirteenth time thousands of persons interested in genealogy and history are indebted to Catherine Lindsay Knorr for her compilations of marriage bonds and ministers' returns for various Virginia counties. Through her labors we now have the Marriages of Orange County 1747-1810.

The present volume is perhaps the most difficult Mrs. Knorr has undertaken to compile. There is no contemporary marriage register of Orange County, however there is in the Clerk's Office a XX Century arrangement of the marriages which was compiled some years ago from the marriage bonds, ministers' returns, a list of marriages in the back of Deed Book #17, and other records. It was discovered, however, that this arrangement was not trustworthy as there were many errors and omissions of every description. In preparing her present work, Mrs. Knorr is indebted to the Honorable Henry C. DeJarnette, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Orange County, for the courtesy extended by him in allowing her access to the original marriage bonds and ministers' returns each of which was carefully inspected and all information of genealogical import is given herein.

With patience and care these small pieces of paper, often broken in the folds and crumbling, were minutely examined. It was not unusual to find the orthography of the proper names a challenge and it was noted that the same name often appears variously spelt in the same document. Thus we may find the following names, for example spelled interchangeably: Acree and Acry; Ahart, Aheart, Ayheart and Ehart; Burras, Burrus, Burroughs and Burrows; Chissam, Chism, Chishalm; Fleak, Fleck and Fleek; Gaar, Gaer, Gear and Geer; Pain, Paine, Payn and Payne; Pettus, Pettis, Pettess and Pettys. The signatures of the bridegroom, securities, and witnesses on these marriage bonds and accompanying consents were oftentimes difficult to decipher. It was also noted that the marriage register in the Clerk's Office has been altered to suit the fancy of some searchers: for example the surname Camp has been altered to Champ and other unauthorized alterations attempted.

Mrs. Knorr discovered that the entire bundle of marriage bonds for 1787 was missing from the files and an intensive search failed to locate them. It was thus impossible to check the marriages for this year and they are given in this volume as they appear in the Marriage Register before mentioned as they were in their proper file in the Clerk's Office when it was compiled.

Orange County was formed from Spotsylvania County in 1734 and comprised a vast area on both sides of the Blue Ridge Mountains out of which has subsequently been formed more than three dozen counties in Virginia alone. It was named for William, Prince of Orange in Holland, who became King William III of England. Although King and Queen County had been named for King William and his Queen in 1691 shortly after they ascended the English throne and King William County had been named for him the year of his death (1702), it is said the Honorable Alexander Spotswood (1676-1740), who was Governor of Virginia 1710-1722, was instrumental in having the new county named Orange having a great fondness for King William III under whom he held a commission as an officer in the English Army. At the time of the formation of Orange County from Spotsylvania County (which has been named for Governor Spotswood upon its formation in 1721) he was the leading citizen of upper Spotsylvania County.

The first settlement of white men in the area now embraced in Orange County was the result of the enterprise of Governor Alexander Spotswood who brought over in 1714 a group of German artisans to work in the iron mines and furnace which he established on the Rappahannock River. These original settlers, a group of twelve families, who soon migrated to Fauquier County, were followed by other Germans in 1717 and 1719 who established themselves at Germanna in a bend of the Rapidan River near its junction with the Rappahannock River. This group moved into present day Madison County about 1726 while their benefactor was in England.

After 1720 the colonization of the region to later become Orange County was steady and the original German settlers were rapidly joined by settlers of English, Scotch and Irish extraction both from their native countries and by migration from tidewater Virginia. These people were joined by others from New Jersey, Pennsylvania and elsewhere and settlers in great numbers came over the mountains and down the Shenandoah Valley into Frederick County (which was formed from Orange County in 1743) and Augusta County (which was formed from Orange County in 1745).

After a sojourn in England (where he was married in 1724/5 to Anne Butler Brayne), Governor Spotswood returned to Virginia about 1730 and established himself at Germanna and engaged in the iron industry. Here Colonel William Byrd of "Westover" on the James River visited him in September 1732 at his "enchanted Castle" and has left us a most interesting account of his visit in his essay, A Progress to the Mines. Germanna was the home of Colonel Spotswood until his death in 1740. His last will and testament was handsomely restored and beautifully set in a protective panel in the Clerk's Office in 1938 by The Golden Horseshoe Chapter, National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution. These same ladies at the same time and in like manner also exhibited the last will and testament of James Madison (1751-1836), fourth President of the United States, who, though born at his maternal grandmother's in King George County, was raised from earliest infancy in Orange County it being the home of his parents Colonel and Mrs. James Madison. President Madison died and is buried at this handsome residence "Montpelier" about ten miles east of Orange Courthouse. Orange County was also the birthplace of the twelfth president of the United States, General Zachary Taylor (1784-1850), who was a cousin of James Madison, both being the great-grandchildren of James Taylor, Gentleman, (1675-1729), of King and Queen County, Virginia.

The first recordings of the new county of Orange are interesting and give us an insight into the procedure and those connected with it:

ORANGE COUNTY

Be it remembered that on the twenty first day of January in the year 1734.

A Commission of the Peace directed to Augustine Smith, Goodrich Lightfoot, John Taliaferro, Thomas Chew, Robert Slaughter, Abraham Field, Robert Green, James Barber, John Finlason, Richard Mauldin, Samuel Ball, Francis Slaughter, Zachary Taylor, John Lightfoot, James Pollard, Robert Eastham, Benjamin Cave, Charles Curtis, Joist Hite, Morgan Morgan, Benjamin Borden, John Smith, George Hobson and a dedimus for administering the oaths &c. to the said Justices being read the said John Finlason and Samuel Ball pursuant to the said dedimus administered the oaths appointed by Act of Parliament to be taken instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy the oath appointed to be taken by an Act of Parliament made the first year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the first, entitled an Act for the further security of his Majesties person and Government and the succession of the Crown in the heirs of the late Princess Sophia being Protestants and for extinguishing the hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales and his open and secret abettors, unto Augustine Smith and John Taliaferro who severally subscribed the test and then the said John Finalson and Samuel Ball administered the oaths of a Justice of the Peace of a Justice of the County Court in Chancery unto the said Augustine Smith and John Taliaferro and afterwards the said Augustine Smith and John Taliaferro pursuant to the said dedimus administered all and every of the said oaths unto Thomas Chew, Robert Slaughter, Abraham Field, Robert Green, James Barber, John Finlason, Samuel Ball, Francis Slaughter, John Lightfoot, James Pollard and Benjamin Cave who severally subscribed the test.

The record proceeds with the following appointments: Clerk of the Court, Henry Willis, Gentleman; Sheriff, Benjamin Cave, Gentleman; Under-Sheriff, William Henderson; Surveyor, James Wood, Gentleman; and King's Attorney, John Mercer, Gentleman. The surveyors of the highways in their several precincts were next named, viz: Jonas Jenkins, Alexander McQueen, John Landrum, John Read, Charles Dewit, Jr., Henry Field, George Wheatley, Edward Abbot, Christopher Zimmerman, Michael Clore, John Howard, James Barber, Robert Cave, John Garth, Thomas Jackson, Anthony Head, Alexander Waugh, Benjamin Porter, John Marks, Edward Haly, William Smith, James Coward, John Snow, Charles Stephens, and Edward Franklin.

I think that the manner in which the justices made arrangements with Colonel Alexander Spotswood is interesting, and I quote verbatim:

ORANGE COUNTY

In Compliance to an Order of Court dated the 21st day of January 1734, We the subscribers went to Colonel Spotswood to know upon what terms he would let his land for a Ferry at Germanna, and his Honor was pleased to say that he would let the plantation at the Ferry together with land sufficient for two hands to work for the term of seven years for six hundred and thirty pounds of tobacco per year but debars the keeping of a tipling house or hogs running at large at the Ferry plantation and further more sayeth not.

Robert Slaughter
Abraham Field
Robert Green

Ordered that the Honorable Colonel Spotswood's Letter in Relation to placing the Courthouse be recorded.

Whereas I have been desired to declare upon what terms I will admitt the Courthouse of Orange County to be built upon my land in case the Commissioners for placing the same should judge the most convenient situation thereof to be within the bounds of my Patent, And for as much as I am not only willing to satisfy such Commissioners that no obstruction in that point will arise on my part, but am also disposed to make those terms as easie to the County as can well be expected; I do therefore hereby declare that I consent to the building a Courthouse, prison, pillory and stocks, on any part of my lands not already leased or appropriated. And that I will convey in the form and manner which the Justices of the County can in reason require, such a quantity of land as may be sufficient for setting the said Buildings on, with a convenient court yard thereto, for the yearly acknowledgement of one pound of Tobacco, And more over that I will allow to be taken gratis off my land all the timber or stone which shall be wanted for erecting and repairing the said buildings.

Given under my hand at Germana the 6th day of January 1734/5.

A. Spotswood

As before mentioned Frederick County was formed from Orange County in 1743 and in 1745 Augusta was formed. In 1749 the land north of the Rapidan River was cut off to form Culpeper County which in turn was the parent of Madison in 1793 and Rappahannock County in 1833. In 1838 Orange County again yielded a portion of its territory to form Greene County.

While Mrs. Knorr makes reference to one marriage contract of 1747 it will be noted that the recorded marriages begin a few years later as those found in deed books and fee books begin 1757. The earliest marriage bonds begin in 1775 and as there may be those who consult this book who may not be familiar with the legal form of such document I wish to quote one verbatim:

Know all men by these presents that we William Strother and William Cave of Orange County are held and firmly bound unto our Sovereign Lord King George the Third by the Grace of God King of Great Brittain, France, & Ireland, Defender of the Faith &c. in the full sum of Fifty Pounds Current Money to be paid to the said Lord the King his heirs and successors to which payment well and truly to be made we bind ourselves our heirs executors and administrators jointly and severly firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated this 9th day of June 1775.

Whereas there is a marriage suddently intended to be solomnized between the above bound William Strother and Ann Kavenah, widow, the condition of the present obligation is such that if there is no lawful cause to obstruct the same then this obligation to be void else to remain in full force.

Sealed and Delivered in the present of Fra<sup>s</sup>. Taylor

William Strother (Seal)
William Cave (Seal)
