Introduction

The family as an actual institution is defined as a social institution. In its narrower sense it consists of a man, his wife (or wives) and their children, with an outer circle of kindred of uncertain extent. In some cases the conception is wider so as to include former generations with some consideration of generations yet to come.

Genealogy is an account or tabulated statement of the ancestors and/or descendants of a particular person or family. The nations of the East, notably Arabs and Hebrews, carefully traced and preserved their genealogies. The same trait appears among the peoples of the Western world. This includes the several racial lines constituting the peoples of the British Isles and the countries of Europe. The feudal system and the growth of heraldry fostered genealogical study. Critical genealogical research started in England around 1500 A.D. or earlier. At stated intervals the College of Heralds began to make visitations of the various counties. These visitations which recorded all genealogies of which proof could be obtained were carefully preserved. Much of the same interest was followed among the peoples of the countries of the continent of Europe. Just what influence the several Crusades covering the period starting about 1000 A.D. and extending over almost four centuries had upon genealogical pursuits is difficult to evaluate. Among the European and English aristocracy and royalty, genealogy holds to this day a position of basic and indispensable importance.

With the rise of Protestantism a profound activity affecting genealogical compilations came into general usage. Parish records were established by the clergy covering the vital data on kinship, births, marriages, deaths. Letters were given showing the religious status as families and individuals began to migrate from city to city or country to country. The contribution made to genealogy through the centuries by church or parish records is inestimable. In the instance of my own endeavors in genealogy the parish records of the Ottenbach community in Zurich have proven to be the means by which information about my ancestral line was obtained.

With the rise of the National States political and military and fiscal objectives greatly increased the resort to what is today preserved in our own country in the form of Census and Vital Statistics at Federal and State levels. Even in employer-employee relations much data covering the past and present is compiled and used in the selection and placement and promotion of employed personnel.

As far as the present generation in the United States is concerned we are the product of over two hundred years in many instances of those ancestors who came out of Europe and sought to establish themselves under conditions of economic, social, religious, political freedom and opportunity. Especially during these early generations in the United States many neglected or considered of doubtful importance the continuance and safeguarding of genealogical information. A large part of this research is thus an undertaking for the purpose of giving authentic records covering my line of ancestry and genealogical facts relating thereto.

There are those who would treat genealogical records concerning their particular family with indifference if not contempt. Family solidarity has been under a series of serious stresses and strains over the past half century. These stresses are likely to continue and it is difficult to formulate what an age of global tension and unheard of destructive weapons will bring about. It could be that the time and effort and moneys given by the author of this book will be in good stead in the course of the years in the future.

The why of genealogical research may not have been established conclusively by me in these few paragraphs but what has been stated or implied gives something of my own thinking on the project submitted. What is set forth is a general treatise. The blood line has been adhered to as the determining factor of the range of investigation. Much information could have been added in the form of biographies of numerous persons included in the records.

The variations in the spelling of names deserved mention. In any genealogy allowance must be made for such variations, especially where there is involved the giving of the English equivalent of a name in another language, and particularly where the record covers the first few generations of non-English speaking people who have become citizens of another country which is predominantly English speaking, as was the case of many of the immigrants from the continent of Europe. Not only are proper names but also those of everyday language affected, in fact several variations in spelling of names and words may occur on one page or in one family. As to the variations in spelling of the name Baer the following insertion is given. Note some of the wills and deeds included in this publication.

The following item appeared in one of the metropolitan newspapers of New York City in the late 1930's.

36 Varieties of Baer Bagged by Security Board Phonetic File.

The Social Security Board, which has to keep track of 27,000,000 names, came out today with a filing system that can put the nation's best spellers to shame. The board setting up the wage records of the people who registered for old-age benefits, ran afoul of a flock of family names that sound alike but are spelled differently.

Baer, for instance, has thirty-six variations; Snyder has twenty-nine; Bailey, twenty-two; Lehman, eighteen, and Kelly, fourteen.

Wrestling with the Baers the harassed Federal workers discovered these varieties: Baar, Baare, Bær, Bæar, Baere, Baiar, Baier, Bair, Baire, Bayre, Bairr, Bare, Bæhr, Bahr, Bæhre, Bahar, Bæhoar, Bahor, Bayer, Bayeur, Bear, Beer, Beere, Beier, Beare, Bear, Beaire, Behr, Beir, Beirr, Bere, Beahr, Beaher, Beher, Beyar, and Beyer.

Statisticians then figured out a super-phonetic system which assembles at one point in a huge master file, all names that sound similar, but are spelled differently. If an employee cannot spell his name, the board says that makes no difference — get him to pronounce it and send what it sounds like to Washington.

Doubtless by now (1954) more variations have been listed. It leaves those who would make an issue of the spelling of the name Baer with little chance of final solution.

The spelling of names and the origin and meaning of names, especially the latter, can be examined through standard published information of this kind. Dictionaries and encyclopedias of names which deal with such matters should be consulted.

What was incorporated into this publication was supplied in many instances by reason of the interest and cooperation of many individuals through both public and private channels. A considerable amount of data was not included although it bears varying degrees of relation to the subject matter. Collateral material covering many Baer family lines in the form of court records, church and cemetery records, ship lists covering the period 1700 to 1800, land office records, correspondence, published and private genealogical material, has been assembled. Such material could be incorporated into further investigations especially where a broad approach to Baer family genealogy would be pursued. One of the problems involved in this undertaking was deciding how narrowly to confine the project. If the object would have been to trace out related families other than the blood line such more general material could have been used. There are many Baer, Bear, Bare, family lines of record, as those who will consult sources will discover. Even the first names of those of these different families are extensively duplicated in European and United States sources.

Many acquaintances and friendships brought about by this undertaking are treasured by the author. I hereby acknowledge my indebtedness and express my sincere appreciation to one and all. I trust that through the years the book will bring satisfaction and understanding to such as will use it.

Plan of the Book

The aim throughout the book was to confine the record to the blood line. At most only a few exceptions were made.

A modified family chart in the front of the book should be consulted in order to get a summary covering the first, second, and third generations of descendants. Next the table of contents should be examined so that the main groupings of the material may be understood. Part IV gives the genealogical record covering the first to fourth generations. The following parts of the book, Parts V to X, inclusive, give the genealogical record for each of the six children of Henry Baer and Barbara Good, four of the children apparently having died before reaching adulthood. The data is given in each instance following Part IV in direct sequence from the fourth generation descendant down to the latest generation in the record. Thus the children of Henry Baer and Anna Maria Miller, Elizabeth, Ephraim, George, Henry and Susanna, constitute the main divisions for that part of the record. Their descendants are arranged through each generation in direct sequence. This arrangement should facilitate identification of descent by reason of the grouping as given, in other words fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, in a few instances ninth generation descendants following consecutively for each fourth generation descendant.

The order in which the names appear places the direct descendant's name the farthest to the left of the line and the name of the husband or wife as the case may be is directly below but slightly to the right of the direct descendant's name. Thus Henry Baer, born 1755, is in a position farthest to the left of the page, his wife Anna Maria Miller is below his name but to the right in alignment. On the other hand the name of Elizabeth Baer is the farthest to the left and the name of her husband John Cunningham below her name but to the right in alignment.

The number at the upper right hand corner of a name indicates the generation which they are in relation to the immigrant ancestor.

Dates are given in terms of the year without the month or day of the month. Numerous inaccuracies occur even when the specific year of birth and death are given. The dates serve as a means of identification allowing for relative rather than absolute accuracy. Residence and/or place of burial serve to provide further data and have informational value.

The data pertaining to occupation or vocation and religious preference or affiliation throughout the records was on the whole compiled over a period from the middle nineteen twenties to the middle nineteen fifties. Verification particularly of and corrections if needed of the work done in the earlier years was not attempted in all instances and was in fact almost impossible. It will be the task of those examining the book material to use the data given as a point of departure, for such research as their interests may dictate.

The incomplete portions throughout the record are due to failure to get the additional information needed. I suggest that each person having a copy of the book supply the missing parts of the record by filling them in on the page where the omissions occur or use supplemental blank pages in the back part of the book. Fortunately in most instances the omissions pertain to the later generations.

PART IEUROPEAN BACKGROUND OF THE HENRY BAER AND BARBARA GOOD FAMILIES

This body of genealogical and historical data was made possible through combining the most authoritative information I could command and the untiring service of my correspondent genealogists of Switzerland. In order that genealogists of foreign countries could work intelligently, much information had to be submitted. It was the compiling of such data which made it necessary to use our Federal and State Government and County Court Records. Use was made of family Bibles, cemetery and church records, and genealogical studies by present and past students of family history.

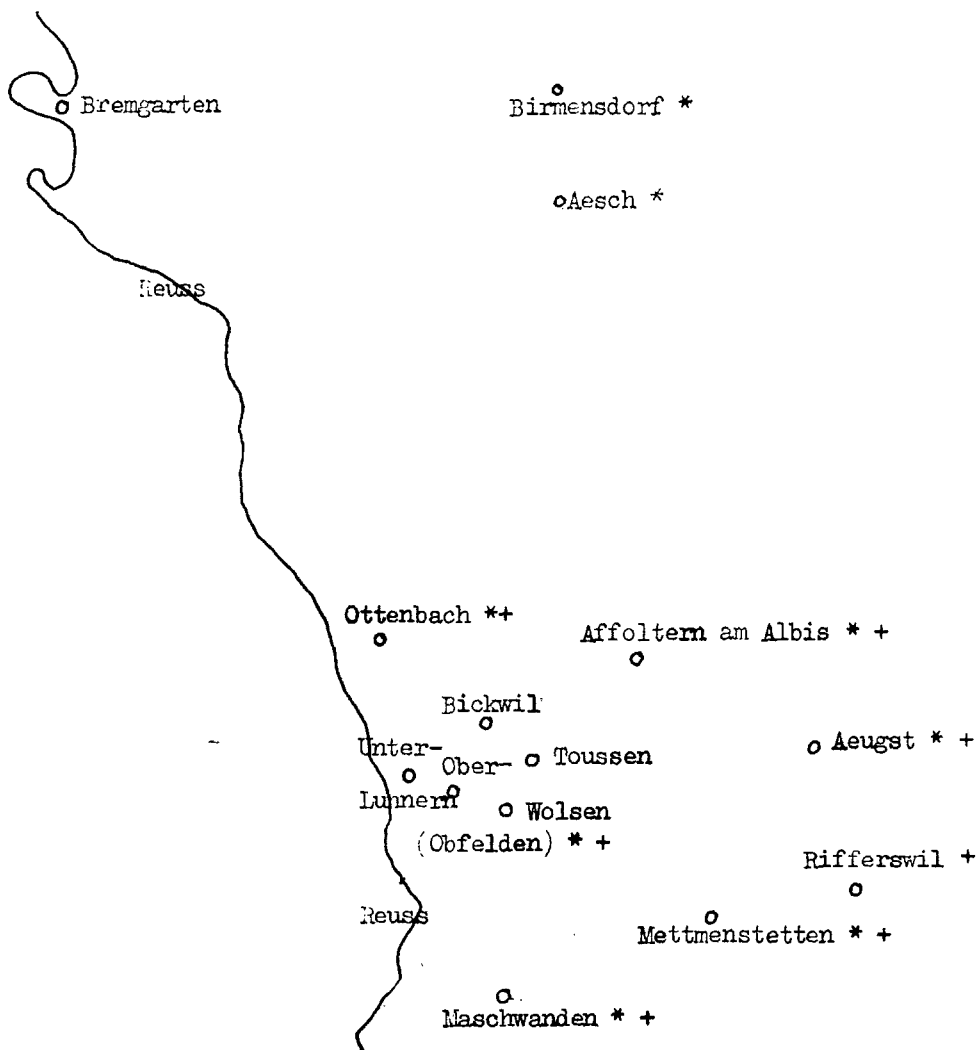

The geographical background of Henry Baer and Barbara Good centers in an area near Zurich, Switzerland in Canton Zurich. The communities mentioned include Birmendorf, Affolten am Albis, Unter Lunnern, Ober Lunnern, Ottenbach, Obfelden, Metmenstetten, Rifferswil, and Maschwanden. From the chart "Karte des Gebietes von Ottenbach" the above localities are readily recognizable. See page 2. The line on the left side of the chart is the Reuss River which rises at Lake Lucerne and flows almost due north. A branch of the river drains Lake Zug and it is closely paralleled in its northern course by the river draining Lake Zurich. The Reuss River empties into the Aar River close to the point where the Aar River empties into the Rhine River which is at a point almost due east of Basel, and northwest of the city of Zurich.

Outline Map showing Ottenbach and the Surrounding Communities, including the Reuss River—Canton Zurich.

The portion of the Reuss River Valley represented as "Des Gebeites von Ottenbach" is due west of the city of Zurich and the northern half of Lake Zurich. On the west it borders in part the Reuss River. The Canton Aargau adjoins the western limits of Canton Zurich. The area defined can also be designated as between $47^{\circ} 15'$ and $47^{\circ} 35'$ north latitude and between $8^{\circ} 15'$ and $8^{\circ} 50'$ degrees east longitude.

The population of Switzerland is composed of German, Italian, French and Romansch speaking peoples. At the time the Roman writers first mention the land now known as Switzerland, it was inhabited by Celtic tribes known as Rhaetians and Helvetians. In 58 B.C. Caesar began the conquest of the Helvetians and for the four centuries following Roman civilization was imposed on the native tribes. In the 4th and 5th centuries A.D. Germanic and Burgundian tribes pushed their way into Switzerland and from these two basic stocks the Swiss of today are largely derived. In the 6th century the German tribes were conquered by the Franks; in the 9th century Switzerland became a part of the German Empire. By the 12th century the House of Hapsburg acquired extensive possessions and had practically control of what is now German Switzerland. In 1291 the three forest cantons of Uri, Schwyz and Unterwalden bound themselves together in a defensive alliance which became known as the Perpetual League. This formed the nucleus of the Swiss Confederation. The League was joined in 1332 by the district of Luzerne, in 1351 by the free imperial city of Zurich, in 1352 by the Austrian districts of Zug and Glarus, and finally in 1353 by the free imperial city of Bern which in 1339 had broken the power of the neighboring Burgundian nobles. In 1415 the league (Swiss) made its first conquests -- the Habsburg dominions in the Aargau were henceforth ruled as subjects.

At various times during the centuries between 1400 and 1850, Civil Wars, wars with Austria, with Italy and with France occurred. In 1516 and 1521 close treaties of alliance were made with France. During the 16th and 17th centuries due to the French Alliance the Swiss were involved in numerous conflicts which drained it of its men who as mercenary troops took a large part in the wars of Louis XIV. Unrest among the Swiss in the early part of the 18th century lead up to the French invasion, the armies entered Switzerland, overturned the old Confederation and established the Helvetic Republic, a highly centralized state made up of twenty-three cantons. In 1802 the Helvetic Republic came to an end. Napoleon revived the thirteen old cantons adding to them six others. The old Diet was supplemented by a central government, held in turn (for one year) by each of the six great cantons.

With the fall of Napoleon, there came a strong movement on the part of some of the cantons to return to the cantonal form of government and the old league. A short period of Civil War followed, led in part by reason of seven Roman Catholic cantons who sought to form a separate league. When at last in May, 1847 the Liberals obtained a majority of cantonal votes in the Diet and carried an order dissolving the separate league or Sonderbund, a civil war of three weeks (November, 1847) which ended in a liberal victory paved the way for the Federal Constitution of 1848 by which Switzerland attained political unity.

The religious movement known as the Reformation and the events identified with its unfolding, begin with about 1520 A.D. Prior to this the Swiss peoples were identified in much the same way as other peoples of the bordering countries, especially Germany and France, in matters religious. Under the eloquent preaching of Zwingli the Reformation made rapid progress in Switzerland and led eventually to civil war; the five Catholic cantons Uri, Schwyz, Unterwalden, Lucerne, and Zug allying themselves against the forces of Protestantism. In the hostilities that ensued Zwingli was slain in 1531 and a truce was arranged whereby each canton was left free to determine its own religion. In 1536 some five years after Zwingli's death, John Calvin took up his residence at Geneva, which soon became the center of Protestantism in Europe.

From the brief review of Switzerland's history certain factors can be recognized. Permanent unity was not attained until about 1850. Previous to this time, Italian, Austrian, French and German conflicts arose. It is difficult to untangle the interactions bearing directly upon the question of ancestry of Henry Baer and Barbara Good. Since their signatures when required on official documents were distinctly German and German was predominant by all indications even among their descendants, in some cases, it is fair to assume that their identity is with German speaking peoples. It is possible, however, that the names (Bär) and (Gut) could be identified with other genealogical studies involving these family names. I know of no means of delimiting the name (Bär) for instance from numerous other peoples including English speaking, French, Austrian, Italian, Russian, Hungarian and other nationalities. It is simply the identity of the ancestors of Henry and Barbara Good which is reviewed. I think their ancestors in all likelihood migrated into Switzerland from areas outside. This may have ties going back as far as the 4th and 5th centuries A.D. or as recent as 1200 or 1300 A.D. Certainly the wars, the social and political unrest, and the religious upheavals of the 17th and 18th centuries are sufficient causes for the migration from Switzerland to Pennsylvania.

Concerning the "Bar" (Baer, Bear) family names, Swiss records and publications indicate the family name as "Ein wohl in der ganzen Schweiz ver breiteter familienname, der heute noch uberall anzutreffen ist. Zu nennen sind die Geschlechter in den Kanton Aargau, Basel, Thurgau und Zurich. (These are the four most northern Swiss cantons bordering on Germany).

In canton Aargau the name Heinrich Bar appears as early as 1459; Samuel Bar 1749. In canton Basel the name Hans Bar in 1486. As to canton Zurich, the family name is reported as "Ein uraltes schon in 14 yarhundred vorkemmendes Geschlecht". In "Affoltern und am linken Ufer des obern Zurichsees verbreitet".

The family name Gut (Good) is identified with the church (Reformed) membership at Ottenbach as early as 1412. "Bei den Gut handelt es sich um ein Geschlecht, das schon seit dem Jahre 1412 in Gebeit der Kirchengemeinde Ottenbach nachweisbar ist. Die erste bekannte urkundliche Erwahnung bezieht sich auf "Rudi Guttan von Lunneren" der dort 1412 Besitzer des Meierhofes war. In der von Ernst Gut verfassten Chronik der Familie Gut wird dieser Rudi Guttan als Stammvater aller Gut bezeichnet, die sich heute in den Gemeinden des Bezirkes Affoltern nachweisen lassen. Seit 1505 wurden die "Gutten" in den Urkunden „Gutt" und später "Gut" genannt. 1634 wurden in Gebiet der Kirchen gemeinde Ottenbach, zu der auch die Dorfer Unterlunnenen, Oberlunnenen, Wolsen und Tunsen gehörten 17 Familien Gut gezählt. In anderen Gemeinden des Kantons Zurich gab es damals keine Gut. Es ist deshalb gewiss, dass Barbara Gut und den Vater Hans Gut, wenn nicht aus Ottenbach selbst, so doch aus einem benachbarten Dorfe stammten."

Church (Reformed) at Ottenbach. Records of Baer and Good Families date from 1600 A.D. and earlier.

The name of Hans (John Good) appears among the John Taylor Penn. Mss Warrants and Surveys "John Good 200 acres June 17, 1719, Leacock and Adjacent Lands." This Johannes is mentioned in the Swiss "Chronik der Familien Gut" as having left Switzerland about 1720. It appears that some years intervened during which his family may have remained in Switzerland or the Palatinate. From Pennsylvania records it appears that he brought his family to Pennsylvania about 1734. Henry Baer and his brother John it will be indicated later came as single or unmarried young men. There is some question as to when Johannes Gut brought his family to Leacock Township. The above explanation is most plausible. The Henry Baer kinship and the Barbara Good kinship are well identified with the community and church at Ottenbach. Thus it is readily understood how when Henry Baer came to Pennsylvania with his brother John, they became in due course a part of the Hans Good household. "Das Henry or Heinrich Baer mit einer Barbara Gut verheiratet war spricht jedenfalls für die Möglichkeit ihren gemeinden. Heinrich kamm wo er Freunde und Verwandte aus der eigenen oder benach barten Kirchgemeinde antraf."

 Henry Baer-Maria Good family in enclosure.

From the church records covering the membership at Ottenbach now in the custody of the Staatsarchives Zurich the record concerning Henry Baer and his brother Hans (John), a photostatic copy of which is given, the following was obtained. See page 6.

Vater: Heinrich Bar	getauft Ottenbach	4 Oct. 1688
Mutter: Maria Gut	" "	25 Mar. 1683
Kinder: Heinrich in Pennsylvanien	" "	22 Dez. 1715

"Hans Heinrich blieb in der Schweiz zurück und heiratete in Zurich (Im Gross Münster) am 13 Januar 1752 Barbara Nagelin, die Tochter des Jacob Nageli aus Kilchberg am Zurichsee. (Sie wurde getauft am 20 Okt. 1716) Diese Familie blieb in der Schweiz, denn Hans Heinrich Bar starb in Ottenbach am 20 Juli 1798 in Alter von 81 Jahren."

I have no detailed information concerning Barbara of August 17, 1721 or Jacob of November 7, 1723. As can be seen in the church and genealogical record Heinrich Bar and Maria Gut Bar were living in Oberlunnern but their church was in Ottenbach nearby." Die Orte Oberlunnern, Unterlunnern, Wolsen, Toussen (früher Tunsen) und Bickwil gehörten bis zum Jahre 1848 zur Gemeinde Ottenbach, so dass all kirchenlich Handlungen für die Bewohner dieser Dörfer in der Kirche zu Ottenbach stattfanden. 1848 fand eine Trennung statt. Die genannten Dörfer bauten eine eigene Gemeinde. Ober- und Unterlunnern zählten 1910 82 Häuser, 133 Haushaltungen, und 508 Einwohner.

From the Ottenbach church records the kinship and ancestry of Henry (Heinrich) and John (Hans) Bar has been traced back two generations. Their great-grandfather being Hans Bar (Baer), grandfather Joss Bar (Baer), their father (Hans) Heinrich Bar (Baer). Hans Baer's parents were from Ottenbach Kanton Zurich. Hans married Klianna Hufschmid about 1640. Klianna was baptized September 1605 in Ottenbach. Her parents were Heinrich Hufschmid and Barbara Good (Gut). Their children were:

Hans Bar, born March 21, 1641 — married Elizabeth Bremer

Melchior Bar, baptized May 23, 1643 — married Anna Grob

Joss Bar, baptized August 8, 1647 — first wife, Margaret Grob, married in Ottenbach, October 11, 1674

Hans Jagli (Jacob) Bar, born August 11, 1650 — married Else Beerli
Of the Joss Bar family there is given the following:

Joss Bar, baptized August 8, 1647 — married first Margaret Grob as stated above. On February 23, 1657 he married in Ottenbach, Margaret Gut, daughter of Jagli Gut and Elizabeth Peter, from Oberunnern bei Ottenbach.

The children of the first marriage are:

Elizabeth Bar, baptized September 5, 1676

Hans Jakob Bar, baptized March 3, 1680

The children of the second marriage are:

Anna Bar, baptized February 24, 1687

Hans Heinrich Bar, baptized November 4, 1688 — married in Ottenbach January 19, 1712 to Marie Gut

Klianna Bar, baptized October 11, 1690

Of the (Hans) Heinrich Bar family there is given the following:

Hans Heinrich Bar, born November 4, 1688 — married (as given above) first Margaret Grob, later Margaret (also given as Maria) Gut, who was born March 21, 1683, baptized March 25, 1683. It seems Jagl Gut (Jakob Gut had a second marriage to Anna Hofstetter.

Cemetery adjoining the Church at Ottenbach.

The children of (Hans) Heinrich Bar and Maria Gut are: see page 7.

Hans Ulrich Bar, baptized in Ottenbach January 15, 1713 — married October 29, 1740 to Verena Frick

Anna Bar, born in Oberlunnenen September 20, 1714

Heinrich Bar, baptized December 22, 1715 — Nach Pennsylvanien

Hans Heinrich Bar, baptized March 20, 1717

Hans Bar, baptized November 20, 1717 — Nach Pennsylvanien

Barbara Bar, baptized August 17, 1721

Jacob Bar, baptized November 7, 1723

From the Ottenbach church records the following data has been compiled relating to the Barbara Gut (Good) ancestors. Her grandparents were Jagli (Jacob) Gut and the parents of her grandparents were Jakob Gut, who married on September 15th, 1640 Elizabeth Huber von Mettmenstetten. Jagli Gut, grandfather of Barbara, was baptized in Ottenbach on April 3, 1645. Jagli married Anna Hofstetter Ottenbach January 25, 1670. Anna Hofstetter was baptized in Ottenbach July 30, 1643. The children of Jagli Gut and Anna Hofstetter are:

Ulrich Gut, baptized in Ottenbach January 22, 1671

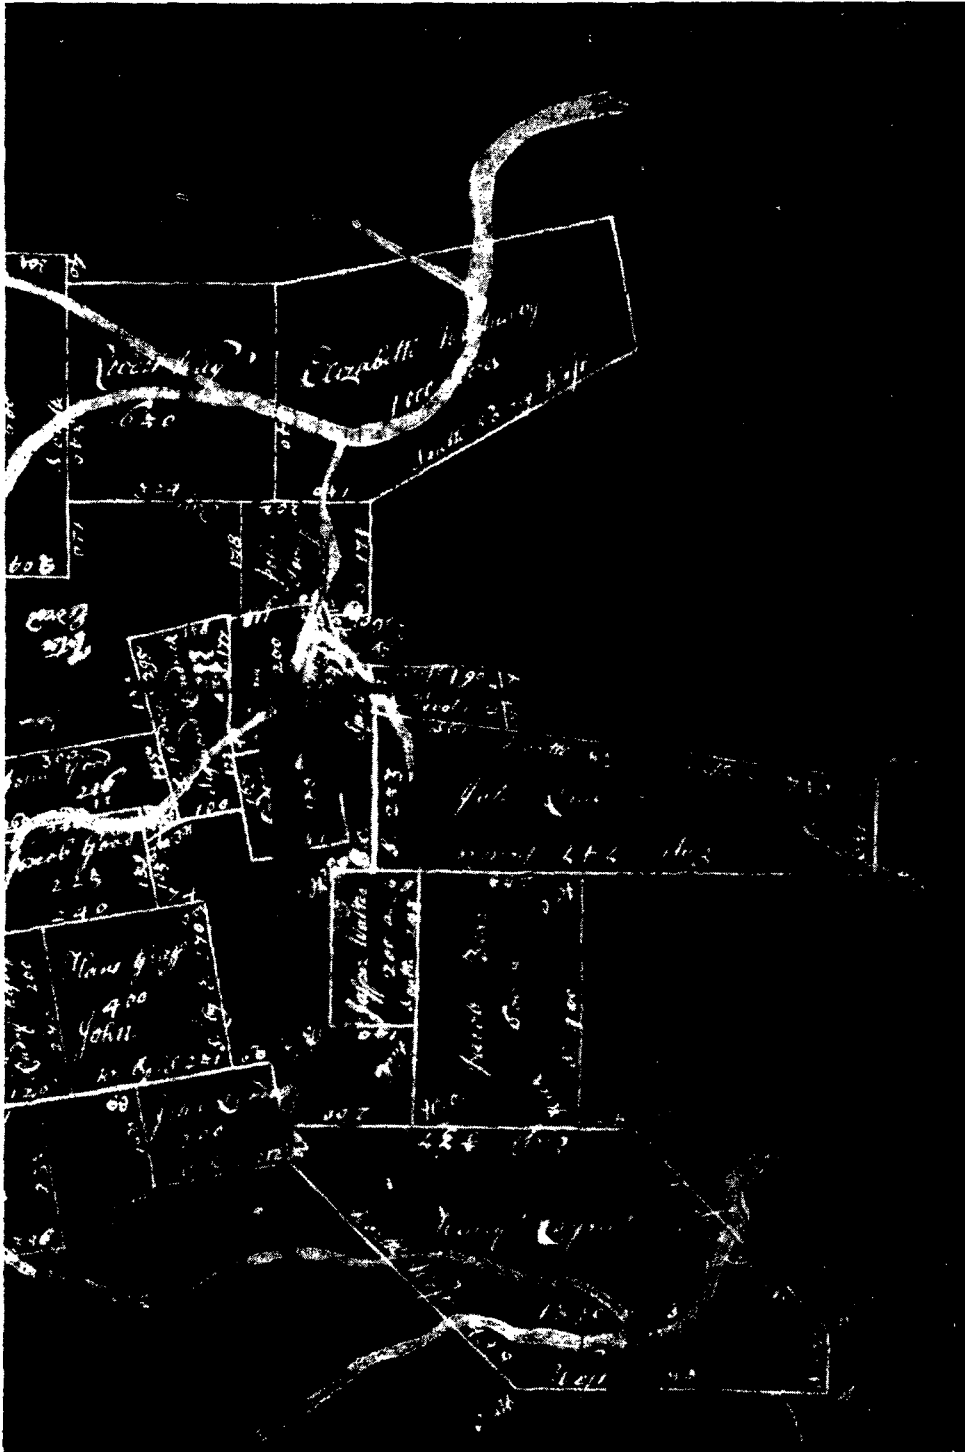

Hans Gut, baptized in Ottenbach January 1, 1673

Anna Gut, baptized in Ottenbach August 13, 1676

Veronika Gut, baptized in Ottenbach January 12, 1679

Barbara Gut, baptized in Ottenbach October 3, 1680

Marie Gut, baptized in Ottenbach March 21, 1683 — married Hans Heinrich Bar in Ottenbach January 19, 1712

PART IITHE TRANSITION FROM SWITZERLAND TO LEACOCK, PENNA.

The earliest record of Hans Good (Gut) in Leacock Township, Penna. (Hans, father of Barbara, wife of Henry Baer) is in the Taylor Papers — Surveys 1701-1740, Philadelphia Historical Society, Philadelphia, Penna. "John Taylor Account of Land in Chester County — Leacock and Adjoining Lands":

John (Hans) Good	200 acres	1719
Jacob Good	225 acres	1718

The chart showing early surveys in the Leacock area is given on page 10. The John and Jacob Good tracts are readily identified. They were in the vicinity of what is now Bareville. In a later showing of the surveys both tracts are indicated as belonging to John (Hans) Good. The 200 acre tract is later identified as having been transferred to Patrick Carrigan and the other tract to John Baer in December 1747.

I do hereby constitute and depute my beloved son-in-laws Abraham Bear and John Bear to be my only and sole executors of this my last will and testament.

The confirmation portion states (Signed, sealed, published, pronounced, and declared by the said Hans Good as his last will and testament in the presence of Andreas Bear and Emanuel Carpenter" Affirmation by Andreas Bear and Emanuel Carpenter March 6, 1750.

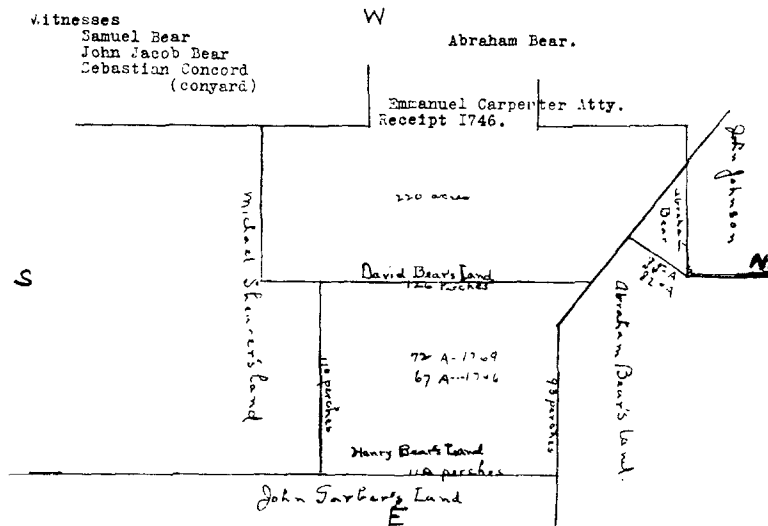

In respect to when Hans Good brought his family to Leacock Township, it seems some years intervened. It may have been as late at 1734, which date is given at the time he took up permanent residence. The Swiss records are not clear but imply that he spent some time in the Palatinate and brought his family from there to his new home in Leacock Township, Penna. John (Hans) Good is mentioned as the first constable of the newly formed Lancaster County (1729) which had formerly been a part of Chester County.

The children of Hans Good as given above were those only who lived at the time of the making of the will. There is no mention of his wife who possibly was deceased at the time. There also is mention of another daughter, Anna (possibly Susanna) wife of John Landes. For some reason her name is not included in the names among whom the real and personal portions of the estate were to be equally divided.

At least three of the daughters, Feronica, Anna and Barbara are readily identified with their husbands in connection with the "600 acre Jacob Bear Tract" which is indicated on the chart of surveys in Leacock and Adjoining Lands on page 10.

This tract of land was originally surveyed to Jacob Bear and listed among the surveys as "Jacob Bear 600 acres — June 1721." Jacob Bear, however, did not take out the Patent to the tract. His son Abraham took title to the land in 1742. There is good reason to assume that Jacob Bear died around 1740 although this is not conclusively established. That the claim to the tract was taken up by his son Abraham is shown by the patent entered at the land office at the State Capitol at Harrisburg, Penna. Patent Book A-10-page 386. Patent to Abraham Bear — Leacock Township. The recital includes — "By Warrant of June 10, 1741 we required our Surveyor General to accept and receive the survey made in the year 1721 on a tract of land situated in Leacock for the use and behoof of Abraham Bear - 441 acres. Under date of January 28, 1746, Abraham Bear of the Township of Leacock, County of Lancaster & Province of Pennsylvania, yeoman and Frena his wife of the one part and Henry Bear of the said County of Lancaster, Province aforesaid yeoman of the other part for and in consideration of £85 paid by Henry Baer (the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged) — sold two portions of the 441 acre tract to Henry Bear, the one tract being 82 acres, the other 67 acres.

Under date of January 28, 1746, Abraham Bear and wife Frena sold to David Bear a further portion of the tract of 441 acres consisting of 220 acres.

Due to gross errors in the original surveys a resurvey of these two portions of the larger tract and other conveyances including the original survey of 600 acres more or less was granted. The lengthy recitals with such details as were given are in Patent Book AA Volume 7, page 443 — Department of Internal Affairs of Pennsylvania, Harrisburg, Penna.

Abraham Bear in later years sold all his land in Leacock Township and moved to York County.* David Bear lived until his death in 1757 on the tract purchased as of January 28, 1746. His widow and children continued there, a son David took title but later the tract was sold to a descendant of Henry Bear, husband of Barbara Good.

The tracts conveyed to Henry Bear (Baer) January 28, 1746 continued as his property until his decease in 1771, after which they were conveyed to his two oldest sons.

The conveyance by Hans Good to John Bear in December 1747 (see previous page) is in all likelihood the John, husband of Catharine Good.

The other children of Hans Good, Jacob, Christina, and Peter, have not been given further checking but in all likelihood can be traced through documents and other sources of information.

The transition of Henry Baer and his brother John from Ottenbach, Canton Zurich, Switzerland to Leacock Township, Pennsylvania begins with the notation found on the church records at Ottenbach.

According to genealogical data given by Swiss correspondents and the photostatic copy showing the family of Hans Heinrich Bar and Maria Gut (see page 6) Henry and John Baer left Switzerland between 1739 and 1749. By reason of the regulations concerning immigrants other than subjects of the King of England a record has been preserved of many of the non-English immigrants who landed at Philadelphia and other designated ports of entry.

The regulations required that the ship's captain give a "True and complete list of males imported on their ship of the ages of sixteen years and upwards". A second requirement was that they take the "Oath of Allegiance" by which they pledged that they would be true and loyal to the King or Crown of England renouncing all loyalty and allegiance which they may have held to other rulers or governments of the countries from which they came. A third requirement was that they take the "Oath of Abjuration" which meant renouncing allegiance to or adherence to the "Pope at Rome". In all three regulations it was obligatory to take the signature of the immigrant. This means that insofar as these records have been preserved the immigrant's signature is given three times.

Henry Baer and his brother John Baer appear on the Captain's List #74 A; the signers of the Oath of Allegiance List #74B; and on the signers of the Oath of Abjuration List #74 C. Reproductions of these specific lists are in "Pennsylvania German Pioneers" Volume 2 page 278 — by Strassburger and Hinke, published in 1934.

The specific ship of interest was "The Ship Lydia — James Allan, Commander" which arrived and qualified at Philadelphia, December 11, 1739. There were several crossings of the Ship Lydia of which there is record. Subsequent dates of arrival at the port of Philadelphia are September 27, 1740; September 20, 1743; September 24, 1747; October 9, 1749. The ship usually sailed from Rotterdam, Holland, thence to Dover, England, thence to Philadelphia, Pa. The journey from the Upper Rhine to Rotterdam took from four to six weeks and included passing as many as twenty-six custom houses. Five to six weeks' time were required after reaching Holland. The second stage of the journey from Rotterdam to an English port and a layover in the English port for Customs and clearing took from one to two weeks. The third stage of the journey from a British Port to the Port of Philadelphia took from eight to twelve weeks, with the best of winds, seven weeks. When arriving at Philadelphia, the ship was visited by a health officer. If any on board ship had infectious diseases landing was held up until conditions allowed. The total time of a journey from the Upper Rhine to Philadelphia was approximately from the beginning of May to the end of October.

Those who came as indentured or redemptioners had to have responsible sponsors of them at hand upon arrival at the port so that proper satisfaction could be made with the Ship's Captain to pay for the cost of passage and also so adequate assurance could be given the colonial government authorities concerning the integrity and personal responsibility of the sponsors for those whom they took under their care and keeping. An indentured or redemptioned person was bound to give six or seven years of service to his sponsor before he could claim freedom from his master.

In more detail the Oath of Abjuration was aimed against Catholics and was one of the results of the great upheaval in England which led to the overthrow of the Catholic House of the Stuarts and the establishment of the Protestant princes of the House of Hanover as Kings of England in 1689.

In the light of what has been established in the section "Genealogical Background of Henry Baer and Barbara Good" indications are that Hans Good or close kin of Henry and John Baer served as sponsors for these two young men. It is significant that Henry after an interval of about seven years took title to the tract already indicated (see page 14) as part of the "600 acres Jacob" later Abraham Bear land. Doubtless by this time he and Barbara Good had been married. David, who married Ann Good took his tract of 220 or more acres under the same date of January 28, 1746. John Bear who married Catharine, apparently was married about the same year. It is likely that Abraham and Feronica preceded the other three in marriage by several years.

A very timely question is how were the four husbands of the four daughters of John (Hans) Good related. We can safely say that they were brothers-in-law. There is little ground to my knowledge by which closer kinship can be established. Abraham by reason of related evidence available was quite certainly a son of "600 acre Jacob" for whom the original survey in June 1721 was made. The identity of David I have not established. Unfortunately in the centuries since 1720 numerous records may have become lost or mislaid. There is also some doubt as to where John Bear who married Catharine Good finally had his residence. It is assumed that he remained on the tract conveyed by Hans Good in 1747.

The identity of the 600 acre tract referred to several times can be given as a rectangular section of land due north of the more western portion of the town of Leacock. Starting at the southeast corner of the tract, to the intersection of the Brownstown road and the Lancaster-New Holland highway or in terms of route numbers the intersection of Route #772 and Route #23, the line extends due north to the first intersection a distance of approximately one mile, then due west a distance of about three-fourths of a mile to the first road to the left, then due south to the first road intersecting a distance of about three-fourths of a mile, the intersecting road was called the Bushong Road years ago. At this intersection the line turns due east to the point of beginning. A rather recent check reported the total acreage as 615 acres. A sketch which was with the original deed given by Abraham Bear, wife Feronica to Henry Bear dated January 28, 1746 is given on page 14. From this can also be identified the tract deeded under the same date to David Bear, wife Anna Good.

According to Lancaster County Records, David Bear died about 1757. Of his children the following partial information is embodied in this review. A son David, wife Elizabeth Bear, at times given as Barbara Bear, daughter of John Bear, took title to the 220 acre tract and possessed it well into the first or second decade of the next century. A daughter given as Barbara Bear married John Roland and they are reported to have lived and died in Ohio. Another daughter, Mary Bear, married William Line, whose residence shifted to Mechanicsburg, Cumberland County, Pa. A son Jacob is thought to have died as a bachelor and likely stayed around Leacock. Another son, Isaac Bear, wife's name not given, located and lived until his decease at or near Hagerstown, Maryland. Another daughter, Anna Bear, married David Line, they stayed in the Leacock area and are buried at Heller's Reformed Church Cemetery. Since David 1757 is considered to be other than the Henry Bear-Barbara Good line of kinship, no further tracing of these descendants is undertaken.

The following information is given in respect to John Bear, wife Barbara Good as a partial account of the family. It is reasonably certain that John Bear's wife Catharine died a number of years before his death in 1812. The identity of John Bear's death in 1812 is based on the inscription upon his tombstone in the Bear family cemetery now chartered at Kurtz's Cemetery. This Cemetery is on part of the original 600 acre tract and north of the Bushong Road (previously mentioned — see page 27) about one-eighth of a mile from the highway and at a point about one-fourth of a mile west of where the Bushong Road intersects Route #23. His date of birth checks definitely with the date on a document of the church at Ottenbach containing also the date of Henry Bear wife Barbara Good record. John Bear's will first made in 1804, see Will Book Vol. 1-L, page 66, Lancaster County Court Records, was amended in 1806/7. In his will of 1804 he says, "My son Andrew has received full portion of his estate". In the will of 1806/7 his son Andrew is given as "now late deceased". The Orphans Court Records of Lancaster County list the children of Andrew Bear for whom guardians were provided as Elizabeth, Mary, John, Sarah, Jacob, Andrew, Catharine, Christina, and Susanna. No tracing of these or their descendants is attempted. The other children of John Bear 1812 as indicated in his will of 1804 besides Andrew, previously identified, are a daughter Elizabeth, married to John Longenecker, Barbara, married to David Bear, Catharine married to Andrew Rudy, Mary, married to Jacob Meyer, late deceased, and Feronica, married to Rudolph Sadtler. Executors of John Bear's estate are given as "my son-in-law David Bear and my trusty friend John Bear, son of Andrew Bear, both of Leacock Township." The son Andrew Bear's administrators are given as "John Bear, Mary Bear, David Bear, Administrators of Andrew Baer late of Leacock Township." Andrew Bear died September 29, 1805. John Bear died April 29, 1812.

In the previous pages I have reviewed in part the David Bear 1757 wife Anna Good family, also the John Bear wife Catharine Good family. Since the project in this genealogical research is intended to review the Henry Baer-Barbara Good blood line, no further discussion of other than Henry Baer and Barbara Good descendants is included. As is obvious from the mass of data compiled, this constitutes a major task in and of itself.

PART IIIHENRY BAER WIFE BARBARA GOOD AND THEIR DESCENDANTS

Concerning Henry Baer (Heinrich Bar) and his wife Barbara Good (Gut) the following sources and documents are available. The direct line of descendants is traceable through the Lancaster County Court records which contain the will of Henry Baer, who died in 1771 and the will of his wife, Barbara Good (Baer), who died in 1812. (See pages 23-26 for copies or reproductions). The family record is also given in the documentary copy of the family Bible, located after years of searching at the home of John Bear and Mary Bear Cox, his sister, at Marshallville, Ohio. The record was originally made from the Baer family Bible by Franey or Feronica Bear, wife of Martin Meyer or Myers.

Maria Bear born 16th day of February 1748.
 Barbara Bear born 26th day of December 1750.
 David Bear born 21st day of February 1753 (in scales)
 Henry Bear born 12th day of February 1755 (in fish)
 Susana Bear born 8th day of June 1757.
 Elizabeth Bear born 21st day of — 1759.
 Franey Bear born 20th day of April 1762.
 Magdalena Bear born 29th day of December 1764.
 Martin Bear born 20th day of June 1769.
 Salome Bear born 20th day of June 1771.

Burial place of Henry Baer and Barbara Good and several of their family. Known as Kurtz's Cemetery today. Located northwest of Leacock, Pa.
 See page 22 for details.

Verification of these dates is made through the various tombstones and other records as set forth in the genealogical series traced in subsequent sections of the research material, namely the descendants of David Bear and wife Barbara Bear, Henry Baer and wife Anna Maria Miller, Frany (Feronica) Bear and husband John Eby, Magdalena Bear and husband Michael Bard, Martin Bare and wife Margaret Bard, and Salome Bear and husband Benjamin Eby. As to Maria born 1748, Barbara born 1750, Susanna born 1757, Elizabeth born 1759, no mention is made of them in Barbara Good Baer's will of 1812 or in other records examined. It is assumed that they died before reaching adulthood.

Census records from 1790 and later give substantiating evidence also of heads of families and their residence. Regarding the dates in question, intervals of ten years leave much time for changes.

Church records likewise indicate that the Henry Baer-Barbara Good family were part of the congregation at Heller's Reformed Church, due south one mile from the west end of Leacock. This building served as the place of worship for both Reformed and Lutheran congregations. Due to the records at Ottenbach, Canton Zurich, Switzerland and the early records of Leacock and Lancaster Reformed Churches, it is proper to assume that the first generation in Pennsylvania were of the Reformed faith.* In the history of Heller's Reformed Church (which was founded in 1722) mention is made that both the Reformed and Lutheran congregations used the church building until 1838, at which time the Lutheran congregation built a church in Leacock. There is good evidence that many of the Baer families of my line of kinship became permanently associated with the Zion Lutheran Church at Leacock. At least this is the case for the children of Henry Baer and wife Anna Maria Miller, Magdalena Bear and husband

Michael Bard, and Martin Bare and wife Margaret Bard. (See baptismal record for children of John and Elizabeth Baer Cunningham, George Baer and wife Catharine Graybill and Ephraim Baer and wife Elizabeth Graybill on page 31). The marriage of Henry Baer and Anna Maria Miller is recorded at the First Reformed Church of Lancaster, Pa. (date Dec. 8, 1789).

Henry Baer, wife Barbara Good and several of their descendants including Henry Baer and wife Anna Maria Miller, David Bear and wife Barbara, John Cunningham and wife Elizabeth Baer, are buried in the family cemetery now Kurtz's Cemetery along the Bushong Road. See previous identification of cemetery on page 22.

The George Bear-Catharine Graybill families, the Ephraim Bear-Elizabeth Graybill families, as well as numerous of the George and Ephraim Bear descendants are buried at the Zion Lutheran Church Cemetery at Leacock, Pa.

A more detailed line of genealogy covering my own ancestors is given in the following pages.

THE FAMILY LINE OF HENRY BAER (1755-1836) WIFE ANNA MARIA MILLER

Henry Bear was born on February 12th, 1755 on the farm occupied by his parents, located on what is now the Brownstown Road leading north from Leacock to Brownstown. The farm is on the left hand side of the road being the second one after leaving Leacock and about one-eighth of a mile north from Leacock's through highway, the New Holland Pike. The present owner of the farm, Christian Byler, has the deed given by Abraham Bear to Henry Bear Jan. 28, 1746.

Farm adjoining the family cemetery where the Baer families are buried. This land was part of the 600 acre tract and was owned by Baer descendants until after 1910.

Due to the untimely death of Henry Bear's father in 1771 no settlement of the estate was undertaken until Henry and his brother David had reached the age of twenty-one. John Bear (wife Catharine Good) and Christian Moyer were named executors of the estate. The will designated that in the year 1776 the real estate should be appraised by duly appointed persons and the sons, David and Henry, should be given the right to take the property at the appraised price. Up to 1776 the estate was to remain in the hands of the mother. According to the Orphans Court record 1782-84, the real estate was appraised at £820.

It appears that David, the oldest brother, got the homestead tract of about 67 acres and his brother Henry the 82 acre tract which was some distance southwest from the homestead and is now on the south side of the Bushong Road and owned by Stephen Stolzfus. The deed was given to David by John Bear and Christian Moyer for his tract on August 20, 1783. See page 33. This tract the deed states was appraised at £410. As of the same date, a deed was given to Henry Bear for his tract, it having been appraised for a like amount even though there was some difference in acreage. According to my observation, this difference in price per acre was proper in the light of the poorer location and the poorer land. The Orphans Court record states that the sons, Henry and David, were to pay £40 yearly to be divided among all the children. Further land transactions in which Henry and his brother David were parties included part of the 220 acre tract, a 112 acre portion of which was held apparently by David Bear, son of Anna, widow of David Bear. The son David apparently sold this tract to Benjamin and Salome Eby who in turn sold it to John Heller, Jr., who in turn sold it to David and Henry Bear, tenants in common. David and Henry were subject to the extent of £250 and the yearly interest of £15 to Anna Bear, widow of David Bear deceased. In 1811 David transferred his interest in the 112 acres to Henry and in 1815 Henry paid off the full debt of £250 to the heirs of Anna Bear now deceased.

Henry Bear (1755) married Anna Maria Miller, daughter of George Miller who died on March 16, 1806. George, father of Anna Maria, on August 25, 1785 obtained a patent to 170 acres of land lately held by Henry Wolfskill and called "Greenfield", located in Earl Township and patented to Henry Wolfskill on June 6, 1753. George Miller also had property in Lancaster in Bethels Town (Hazel Street). The Orphans Court record at Lancaster (1806-1808) shows that George Miller died intestate leaving six children all of full age: George, John, Jacob, Mary married to Christian Folkman, Montgomery Township, Franklin County, Pa., Anna Maria married to Henry Bear and Eliabeth married to Henry Sheiby of Sheiby's now Bushongs Mill, west and north of Leacock. The parentage of Anna Maria Miller is more fully disclosed in Orphans Court Record Vol. 14, page 237, which states: "George Miller and Mary his wife of the Borough of Lancaster (one of the daughters of George Zeigler of Manor)".

John Bear and Christian Moyer Executors of the Last Will and Testament of Henry Bear Dec'd. to David Bear

For 72 acres and allowances August 20, 1783. Appraised for the sum of £410 in specie on certain yearly payments agreeable to the directions of the said last will as in and by said Henry Bear Dec'd Beginning at a black oak sapling in line of John Garber's land, thence extending south $2\frac{1}{2}$ degrees 110 perches to a stone, thence by the land of Michael Sherer south 88 degrees west $110\frac{1}{2}$ perches to a white oak sapling, thence by David Bare north 2 degrees west 126 perches to an apple tree, thence by land of Abraham Bear south $52\frac{1}{2}$ degrees east $23\frac{1}{2}$ perches to an apple tree, thence by same north 89 degrees east $93\frac{1}{2}$ perches to the place of beginning . . . containing 72 acres, being part of a tract of 549 acres granted to Abraham Bear by patent February 9 1769. Recorded in Book A Vol. 7 pages 443 February 14 1769.

This deed was to David Bear one of the sons of said Henry Bear Deceased.

The other tract described in the deed of Abraham Bear to Henry Bear April 3 1769 containing 85 acres was by similar deed to the one above given to David Bear, deeded to Henry Bear as of the same date.

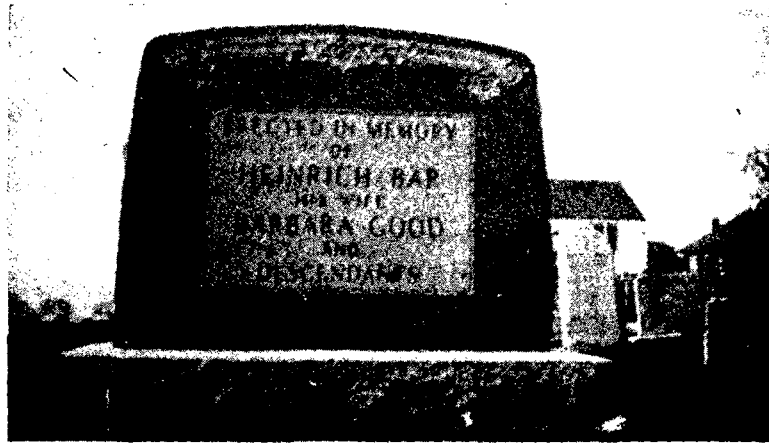

(David and Henry are the sons of Henry whose will is dated 1771.)

David Bear, brother of Henry Bear, apparently lived on the homestead tract of about 67 acres. He married Barbara Bear daughter of John Bear who died in 1812.

Martin Bare, brother of Henry, lived at Bareville and married Margaret Bard on December 2, 1793. His tract of land consisted of 60 acres purchased from John Meyer and John Bear. This Martin was the grandfather of Dr. Adam Bare of Bareville.

Magdalena Bear, sister of the above sons of Henry (1771), married Michael Bard. Michael being a son of George Philip Bard (who died in 1793) and his wife Margaret. They lived a short distance west of Leacock.

Frany Bear, sister of Magda'ena, married John Eby, son of Abraham Eby born 1758, who was a son of Jacob Eby, son of Theodorus Eby (1663-1734). They lived in the vicinity of Monterey, southeast of Leacock.

Memorial Stone in Zion Lutheran Church Cemetery, Leacock, Penna. Erected in 1952 in Memory of Henry Baer, his wife Barbara Good and their descendants.

Salome (Sarah) Bear, sister of Magdalena and Frany (Veronica) Bear married Benjamin Eby. Benjamin Eby was the son of Jacob (1728-1753) who was the son of Peter Eby (1690-1748) the son of Theodorus mentioned above and the immigrant ancestor of that family line. It is evident that this Benjamin was a blacksmith and farmer and lived on land close to that of his brothers-in-law Henry and David Bear.

Their first land deal was in 1793 when David Bear and wife Barbara sold him a few acres from their tract. This was reconveyed to David and wife on March 18, 1795. In 1797 Abraham Kurtz and wife Barbara conveyed to Benjamin Eby a tract of 108 acres and another of 15 acres. These two tracts Benjamin and wife Salome conveyed to John Heller, Jr. in 1800 for the neat sum of £2750 current money of Pa. in gold and silver coin. Benjamin Eby and wife Salome next appear in Montgomery Township, Franklin County where a deed is recorded April, 1802 for the purchase of 299 acres and 150 perches from John Elder. See Franklin County Records at Chambersburg, Pa. Several additional purchases were made of John Elder who owned land located in Fannett Township, Franklin County. One of the farms is in Path Valley and in 1924 was located five miles north of Dry Run and owned at that time by Johnson Campbell. Both Benjamin and his wife Salome are buried in this locality.

The opposite side of the Memorial Stone. On it are the names of the immigrant ancestor Henry Baer and his wife Barbara Good. Next in order their oldest son David Bear and his wife Barbara Bear, Henry Baer the second son of Henry Baer and Barbara Good and his wife Anna Maria Miller, and John Cunningham and his wife Elizabeth Baer, daughter of Henry and Anna Maria Baer. The memorial stone was erected due to the marked deterioration of the original grave stones in the Kurtz Cemetery. See page .

THE FAMILY LINE OF HENRY BAER (1799-1880) WIFE SUSANNA LANDIS

My direct line from this generation down to the present (1953) is Henry Baer, son of Henry and Anna Maria Miller Baer*. He was born Oct. 8, 1799 on the farm near Leacock held by his father during his lifetime. His early life was doubtless spent there. He married Susanna Landis, daughter of Benjamin and Elizabeth Kreider Landis. Susanna was born on what is called the Walter Landis Farm, along the Oregon Pike but south of Landis Valley. Susanna was born Nov. 20th, 1801 and apparently lived at this place at the time of their marriage. Instead of remaining in this locality, Henry and his bride began farming in Manor Township on a farm apparently owned by Susanna's father. It is known as the Amos Landis Farm today and is situated along the Long Lane at the point where the Pequea Car line crossed the Long Lane in the 1920's. Apparently Henry gave up his Lutheran affiliation during his residence at this place. There are no deeds indicating that Henry purchased this farm but rather farmed on the shares.

A short time before March 28, 1846 Henry and Susanna moved from the Amos Landis Farm to the farm situated on the Harrisburg Pike today owned by the Getz family. This farm was deeded to Henry Bear by John L. Miller and wife Barbara on March 28, 1846 as 138 acres. They continued at this location until April 1, 1869 at which time they sold the farm to Levi Getz. They then moved to what was called the Jacob Kauffman Farm a short distance west of the Getz Farm, at which place they remained the rest of their lives. Susanna Landis' line of descent is given in the following order: Jacob Landis the emigrant brought with him his son Jacob Jr. (or as one authority stated the son's name was Benjamin. This Jacob had a son, the Rev. Benjamin. Benjamin Jr., son of the Rev. Benjamin married Anna Snavely and located on the Jacob Snavely tract near Landis Valley. It was here that Susanna was born and grew to adulthood, on the farm owned by Benjamin Jr. and called the Walter Landis Farm.

Benjamin Baer, 1824-1875, son of Henry Baer and Susanna Landis, as well as the other children of Henry and Susanna Landis Baer must have been born and grew practically to adulthood on the Amos Landis Farm in Manor Township. It was soon after coming to the Getz Farm at the Harrisburg Pike that Benjamin became interested in Elizabeth Musser, daughter of Benjamin Musser (1790-1865) and Barbara Miller Musser (1790-1871). Benjamin Baer and Elizabeth Musser began their married life on the present Benjamin Baer Farm almost due north of Salunga, Pennsylvania and adjoining the property which was the home of the Musser family. On the Benjamin Baer Farm they continued during their life and sought to fulfill their aspirations and exemplify their ideals.

Elizabeth Musser's line of descent is Benjamin Musser (1790-1865) whose father was Dr. Benjamin Musser (1749-1820) of near Masonville, Manor Township, Lancaster County, Pa. today known as the Fry Farm. Dr. Benjamin was married to Barbara Engle (1748-1783) and after her death to Magdalena Bassler (1764-??) who was the mother of Benjamin (1790-1865). Dr. Benjamin won fame through his "White Linament". This farm was owned by the father of Dr. Benjamin, named Jacob, who died in 1756. The father of Jacob was John Musser (Mosser) of Swiss origin who came to America in 1727. He and a brother Jacob are said to have been killed by Indians between March 14, 1752 and April 25, 1752. A rifle used by John is placed in the Museum in Harrisburg, with the Indian collection. It is said to have been brought by him from Switzerland. John who was killed by the Indians bought the Musser Plantation, above referred to and in April 1744 deeded it to his son Jacob. See Recorder of Deeds Office, Lancaster. Hans Mosser to Jacob, entered March 1784. Jacob Musser's will was filed in Dec. 1756, in which he names his wife Mary and children John and Benjamin.

Benjamin Baer, son of Benjamin (1824-1875) was born December 19th 1857 on the Baer homestead north of Salunga where he grew to adulthood. He married Emma E. Nissley, daughter of John S. Nissley and Sarah N. Eby* and lived on the homestead during all but seven years of his life. In 1915 his oldest son Frank began farming on the homestead and Benjamin and his wife Emma purchased a home in Salunga where they resided until death. Benjamin died March 23, 1922, his wife, Emma, Jan. 24, 1939.

* Sarah N. Eby's line of descent is Levi Eby (1810-1860) and wife Anna Nissley, who lived on the Eby Farm at Bender's Mill in Rapho Township (south west from Salunga about one and one-half miles. The parents of Levi Eby were John Eby (1767-1845) and wife Mary Witwer and they lived in Elizabeth Township on the Hammer Creek due north of Lititz, Pa. close to the old Eby homestead. John Eby was the son of Christian Eby (1734-1807) and wife Catharine Bricker. Christian Eby located on the Eby homestead at Hammer Creek. The father of Christian was Theodorus Eby the emigrant already referred to in the discussion of John Eby and Benjamin Eby of the Henry Baer (1771) family.

 Christian Eby was born 1689 in Switzerland and died at Hammer Creek, Elizabeth Township, Lancaster County, Pa. in 1756. He married Elizabeth Mayer who died in 1787.

Emma E. Nissley's line of descent is John S. Nissley (1839-1914) whose parents were John Nissley Sr. (1800-1885) and wife Barbara Snyder (1806-1875) who lived on the Nissley homestead almost due northwest of Florin. John S. Nissley lived in Rapho Township on the former Eby Farm along the Chickies Creek and about a mile below Benders Mill.

The parents of John Nissley Sr. are Christian Nissley (1777-1831) and wife Maria Kraybill. The parents of Christian Nissley were Martin Nissley Jr. (1747-1799) and wife Barbara Reist. It was Martin Jr. who built the homestead north of Florin in 1774. The parents of Martin Jr. were Martin Nissley and wife Anna Snyder of Manheim Township and later to Mount Joy Township. Martin's father, Jacob Nissley and wife Mary Funk emigrated in 1717 from Switzerland and took up 150 acres of his father-in-law's land which is now within the city limits of Lancaster. Jacob the emigrant ancestor died in 1750.

I shall now trace the details concerning the brothers and sisters of my direct line of ancestors from Henry of 1755 to Benjamin of 1922. Henry of 1755 had the following children: Elizabeth, Ephriam, George, Susanna and Henry.

Elizabeth married John Cunningham who was born Sept. 1783 and died May 1827. He lived on a 13 acre tract between the New Holland Pike and the Bushong Road near Leacock. The deed was given in 1818 by George Greiner and wife Barbara to John Cunningham and is recorded in Deed Book 17, page 48 (1818).

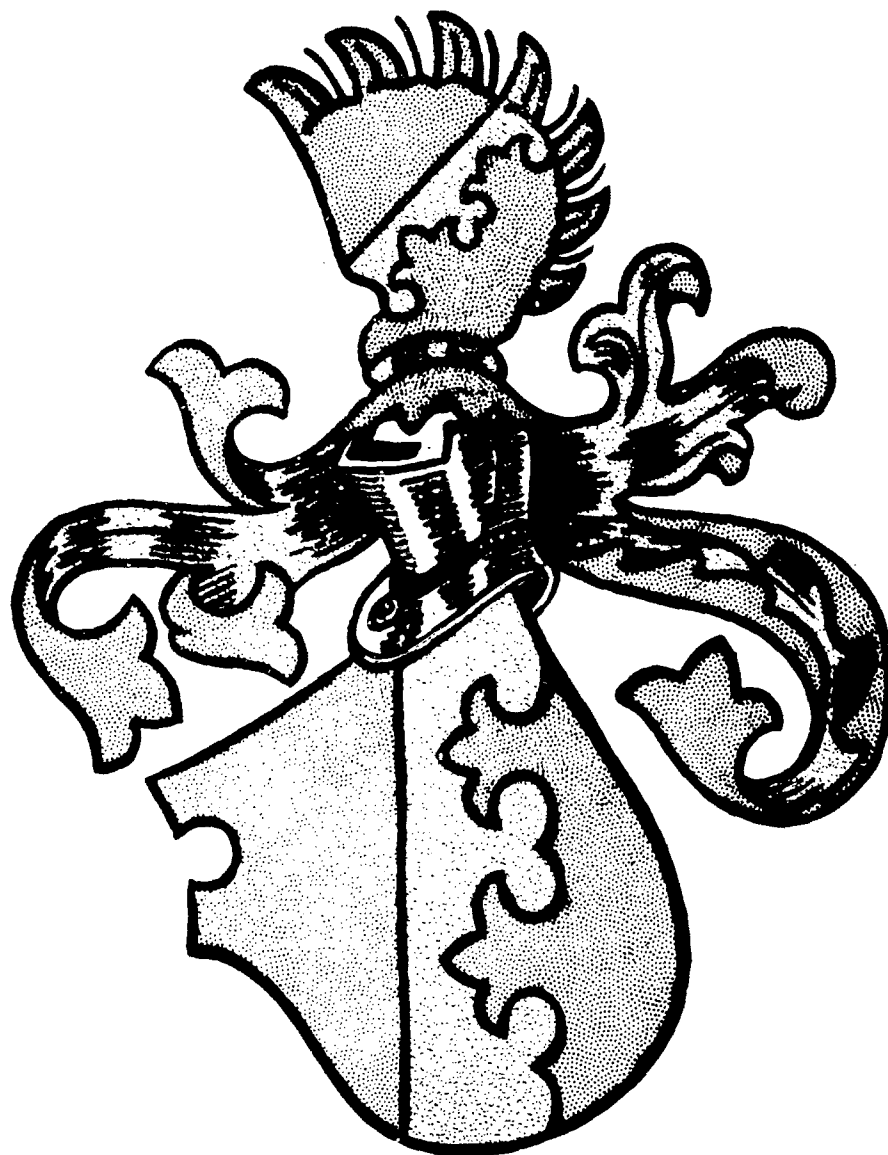

This tract became the home of the family and continued such at least up to the time of Elizabeth's death. Her husband died at an early age but her father Henry bought the tract for her from the Administrators of John Cunningham, deceased, and definitely deeded it to her in his will.

Some of the Cunningham children remained in Lancaster County but two, George and Henry, went on to Illinois and George pushed on from there to Puyallup, Washington.

George and Ephraim Bear continued in the vicinity of Leacock during their lifetime. George Bear had his residence along the Bushong Road and owned a farm in the same locality which was conveyed to him by his father. See will of Henry Bear, Book R, Vol. 1, page 290. This farm of 68 acres was conveyed in 1857 by George Bear and wife Catharine to one of their sons, Graybill Bear. See Deed Book M, Vol. 18D, page 12.

Ephraim Bear in the later period of his life seems to have given up his property along the Bushong Road and located on the Sheaffer farm along the New Holland Pike and some distance east of Bareville.

At this time I can find no adequate record of the daughter of Henry Baer and wife Anna Maria Miller whose name in her father's will is given as Susanna and a specific legacy given to Hannah, daughter of Susanna. It is certain that George Bear was duly authorized to serve as trustee for Hannah. The court records indicate that the estate of Henry Baer was settled by George Bear and Ephraim Bear, executors specified in the will. It appears that the settling of the estate was not completed until 1843. The George, Ephraim and Elizabeth Bear families are almost without exception identified with the Lutheran Church at Leacock, Pa. See baptismal records, page 31.

Landis

Third Generation Maternal Ancestor Susanna Landis

As to the family of Henry Bear and Susanna Landis, Elizabeth Baer with her husband Jacob Harnish lived in the vicinity of New Danville, Lancaster County, Pa. Maria Baer and her husband Jacob Kauffman lived on the farm directly above the Getz farms on the Harrisburg Pike. This farm is now owned by Daniel Stehman. This is the same place that her father lived during the last years of his life. Henry Baer and his wife Annie Hoffman lived on a farm in the vicinity of East Petersburg, Pa. about midway between the residence of his father and East Petersburg and now known as the Forney Farm. Henry had an accidental death caused by a runaway team of horses which he tried to stop. John L. Baer and his wife Elizabeth Greider lived on the farm which his father purchased in 1846, known now as the Getz Farm. After some years John Bear discontinued farming and lead a rather carefree life. Adam Baer and his wife Susan Herr began farming on the now designated John Brubaker farm about a mile north of the Getz Farm and on the north side of the highway.

He continued here several years and then joined other families who took up land north of Hagerstown, Maryland, around Paradise and Paramount. The descendants of Adam Baer and wife have continued largely in this locality.

The family of Benjamin Baer and wife Elizabeth Musser remained largely in the vicinity of Salunga, Pa. with one exception. Barbara Baer and her husband Abraham K. Landis began their married life on the Abraham Landis Farm about three miles east of Lancaster and between the Lincoln Highway and the old Philadelphia Pike, continuing there during their entire life. Susan Baer and her husband Henry R. Bender lived on a farm about two and a half miles north west of Salunga and about one-half mile north of the Harrisburg Pike. Elizabeth Baer and her husband Christian Stauffer lived in the village of Salunga after having farmed on the homestead a few years. Henry Baer and his wife Fanny Newcomer lived on a farm about one-fourth of a mile south of Salunga and along the highway leading to Moore's Mill. Benjamin Baer and his wife Emma Nissley lived on a farm about one-eighth of a mile north of Salunga between the Chickies Creek and the highway leading to Harrisburg.

PART VI

THE FAMILY LINE OF DAVID BEAR (1753-1818)
AND BARBARA BEAR (1755-1844)

David Bear took at the appraisement, the second tract of land purchased by his father from Abraham Bear in 1746. In the family record taken from the Martin Myer (Meyer)-Frany Bear Bible which was located at Marshallville, Ohio, the following children are given:

Susanna Bear born 15th day of February 1780 (in scorpion)
Barbara Bear born 31st day of March 1782 (in scorpion)
Catharine Bear born 8th day of September 1783
John Bear born 25th day of September 1784 (in fish)
Henry Bear born 20th day of January 1786 (in scales)
David Bear born 20th day of January 1785 (twins)
Maria Bear born 28th day of September 1789
Veronica Bear born 26th day of June 1792 (virgin)
Daniel Bear born 3rd day of August 1794 (scorpion)
Elizabeth Bear born 2nd day of November 1796

At the time of the death of the father of the above family in 1812 it appears that Barbara and John of the above family were not living, neither had they any heirs.

The will of David Bear is recorded in Will Book M, Vol. 1, page 257 Lancaster County, Pa. Court and was probated in 1819. The will of his widow, Barbara, is recorded in Will Book T, Vol. 1, page 419 and was probated in 1844.

The following children are named in the father's will: sons David, Henry, Daniel, and Susanna who married John Keply, Catharine who married Martin Heller, Mary who married Frederick Swope, Feronica who married Martin Myer and Elizabeth who married John Landis. The executors are named as "my son Henry and my neighbor John Hershey".

Susanna Bear and her husband John Kepley (Kepple) lived in Lancaster where Mr. Kepley was known as a tobacconist. Their son John later located in Harrisburg, Pa. where he continued in the line of business started by his father.

Catharine Bear and her husband Martin Heller were in Germany Township, Adams County, Pa. by 1808, at which time they purchased a tract of 80 acres from the heirs of John Menehey. Martin Heller's will is recorded in Will Book D, page 436 and is probated as of September 11, 1839, at Gettysburg, Pa. He is buried in Littlestown Lutheran Cemetery. His widow, Catharine Heller later returned to Leacock, Pa. Her will is recorded in Will Book D, Vol. 2, pages 382-83, Lancaster County Pa. Court as of 1880. She is buried in Kurtz's Cemetery, a short distance north of the Bushong Road and near the town of Leacock. Kurtz's Cemetery is the oldest burial place of the Henry Baer (1771) line of ancestry.

Veronica (Frany) Bear and her husband Martin Myer (Meyer) were in Menallen Township, Adams County, Pa. in 1814 and about this time purchased 60 acres of land from Robert Alexander and Mary his wife. They continued in this locality until after 1826. Their final residence was near Marshallville, Ohio. Martin Myer's will is recorded at Wooster, Ohio. The will states that he died on June 12, 1859 and his residence is given as Green Township, Wayne County, Ohio. Veronica (Frany) Myer whose will is also recorded at Wooster, states that she died on April 15, 1879. The executor was Daniel Winger of Orrville, Ohio. Among those sharing in this estate are Adam Bear, a nephew, of Marshallville and Emanuel Bear, a nephew, of Smithville, Ohio.

Henry Bear and Maria his wife lived on the farm north of Leacock until after 1826. Maria Bear was a daughter of John Bear, innkeeper, who died in 1817. Maria had a brother Adam, a sister Julianna married to Michael Johns, and a sister Lydia married to Henry Good, whose address in 1875 was Lebanon, Pa. In May 1828 Henry Bear, wagon-wright and Mary his wife sold the following tracts of land in Leacock Twp. to William Owens, merchant of Earl Township: one of 72 acres, another of 25 plus acres, another of 15 plus acres.

David Bear and Mary his wife lived in the vicinity of Leacock also until after 1826. About this time Henry and David Bear moved to the vicinity of Winding Hill, Cumberland County, Pa. See Carlisle Court records. (Henry Bear and David are buried in Winding Hill Reformed Mennonite Cemetery).

Maria Bear and her husband Frederick Swope lived in the town of Leacock throughout their lifetime. Frederick Swope was a merchant of good repute. At least three of their children located in Philadelphia, Pa. The others remained in the vicinity of Leacock. This family and their children were closely identified with the Lutheran Church at Leacock, Pa.

Daniel Bear and his wife Leah Stotler moved to Erie County, Pa. about 1826. Leah Stotler is represented as being a native of Pittsburg, Pa. The following is taken from the History of Erie County, Pa. published in 1884: "Daniel Baer purchased wild land in an early day in Erie County. He was a carpenter and built and owned the first grist mill on Baer Creek subsequently replaced by a larger and more substantial structure which he operated until his death. He was for many years Road Commissioner and School Director. He was also a prominent member of the Methodist Episcopal Church in which he was Stewart and Trustee for a long period."

Elizabeth Baer and her husband John Landis, wagon-wright by occupation, went to Erie County from Lancaster County in the early 1830's. He bought land south of Fairview Borough and farmed during the period of his life. In some instances Elizabeth Baer's name appears as Harriet. Her name was Harriet Elizabeth in its more complete form.

Elizabeth Landis died very young but John Landis was quite old at the time of his death. He was living and released property in April, 1876. (See Erie County Recorder of Deeds Office). The time of death and place of burial of John and Elizabeth Bear Landis is undetermined, as well as that of their son, Alpheus. Alpheus married Jane Weiden, who after Alpheus' death married George Fenningham.

The descendants of these several children of David Bear (1753-1818) and his wife Barbara Bear are given in the genealogical section — and may be traced according to families for the later generations.

PART VII

THE FAMILY LINE OF MARTIN BARE (1769-1838)

AND MARGARET BARD (1772-1853)

The family of Martin Bare and Margaret Bard according to available records consisted of one son, George Bare who married Mary Sheaffer. They lived on a farm in the Groffsdale area east of Bareville, Pa. George Bare moved his farm grain to Philadelphia by a team of horses and a heavy farm wagon. In the course of crossing a swollen stream on the way to Philadelphia, George drowned at the early age of twenty-nine years.

The widow and children remained in the Groffsdale area. Later a son, Adam Bare prepared for the medical profession and was a practicing physician in the vicinity of Bareville, Pa. Another son, Martin, went as far west as Pittsburg and later located at Cincinnati, Ohio. Here he attained a high position in business and industrial affairs. His estate according to court records was well over a half-million dollars. A Cincinnati paper supplied most of the following data: "Martin Bare moved to Cincinnati, Ohio and married Sarah Caldwell, whose mother was a member of the Parks family of Pittsburg, owners of the Diamond Steel Works. Martin Bare was a partner in Bare & Shinkle who financed extensive building in Cincinnati, including the New Port Bridge. He was a substantial real estate owner; a director of the Lafayette National Bank; had part interest in Bare, Shinkle and Howell, wholesale grocers; M. Bare and Company, manufacturers of cordage; Cincinnati Powder Company; and Hamilton Hoe Works at Hamilton, Ohio."

The Lancaster County court record pertaining to Martin Bear (Bare) Leacock Township, includes the following:

My beloved wife Margaret

Five grandchildren:

Anna Matilda married to Samuel Weidler, Martin of Cincinnati wife Sarah, Dr. Adam wife Eliza Anna or Ann, Margaret, Mary.

The First Reformed Church in Lancaster also registers the marriage of Martin Bear and Margaret Bard as of December, 1793.

Martin Bare's descendants include J. Frank Bloomer, husband of Ada Bare, lumber manufacturer and producer of Bloomer, Wisconsin. One son, Martin Bloomer of East Williston, Long Island, was successful in the lumber business and his brother, J. Ralph Bloomer, is distinguished in the New York City real estate business. J. Frank Bloomer's mother is mentioned as being a member of the "Reader Family" of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Adam Bare's descendants include a son, James Vogan Bare, whose son

Theodore W. Bare was a minister in the Methodist Church. Theodore's two sons, P. Wesley and Howard D. Bare are well known in the Philadelphia area. Members of the Johns family, Rife family and Weidler family are also well known and their descendants are considered successful in their several careers.

A more complete listing of the descendants of Martin and Margaret Bare is given in the genealogical section on page 164. They may be traced according to families down to the present decade.

PART VIIITHE FAMILY LINE OF JOHN EBY (1762-1812)
AND VERONICA (FRANY) BEAR (1762-1812)

The family of John Eby and Veronica Bear is as follows: John Eby who married Elizabeth Neff, Barbara Eby who married Emanuel Swope, Elizabeth Eby who married Jacob Stauffer, Mary Eby who married George Bair, Catharine Eby who married George Weidman, and Abraham Eby, husband of Elizabeth Musser.

These families lived and died in the area including Leacock, Monterey, and New Holland. John Eby and his wife, with several of their children, are buried in the Eby Cemetery near Monterey, due south of Leola on the Lancaster-New Holland Highway. Their descendants are traceable to Cumberland County, Pa.; southern California; Harper, Kansas; Sterling, Illinois; Detroit, Michigan and Philadelphia, Pa.

The descendants are listed in the genealogical section, page They may be traced according to families from the fourth generation directly to the present century.

THE JOHN EBY FAMILY LINE

Theodorus Eby was born in Canton Zurich, Switzerland on April 25, 1663. From 1704-1715 he lived in the Palatinate, and in the spring of 1715 he came to America and took up land south of the Conestoga Creek, three miles south of the town of Lancaster. Soon after this he moved twelve miles east and took up a large tract of land on the Mill Creek near the Welsh Mountains. He died in 1732.

His children include five sons and one daughter, all born in Canton Zurich, Switzerland. The children were Hans (John), Jacob, Peter, Christian, David, and Elizabeth. Jacob was born about 1688. The line stems from Jacob rather than John, who was unmarried and died intestate. Jacob Eby, brother of Peter Eby, had a son Abraham Eby (1735-1815). Abraham's wife Barbara (1739-1815) and Abraham are buried in the Eby Cemetery, near Monterey, Lancaster County, Pa. Abraham and wife Barbara had a son, John Eby born 1758 who married Veronica (Frany) Bear or Baer. Veronica was born in 1762. Both John and Veronica died in 1812 and both are buried in the Eby Cemetery near Monterey, Lancaster County, Pa. The year of death of Jacob Eby is not established but he did live until after 1734.

PART IX

THE FAMILY LINE OF MICHAEL BARD (1760-1831)
AND MAGDALENA BEAR (1764-1803)

The family of Michael Bard and Magdalena Bear is as follows: George Bard, Emanuel Bard who married Maria — —, Sophia Bard who married John Kreiner, Elizabeth Bard who married Daniel Line, Margaret Bard who married Abraham Rohrer, Mary or Polly Bard who married John Line, Susanna Bard who married Henry Wise, Catharine Bard who married David Henecks, and Rachel Bard who married John Rock.

Emanuel Bard and his wife Maria apparently lived on the Bard farm near Leacock. On this farm is also the Bard Cemetery, where the ancestors of the Bard family and numerous of the descendants, including most of the Emanuel and Maria Bard family, are buried.

Sophia Bard and her husband John Kreiner farmed what may originally have been part of the Bard tract. This land is now the Benjamin Stoltfus farm on which a small cemetery is discernible but neglected at this time. Some of the Kreiner (Greiner) children are buried here and in all probability the parents, John and Sophia.

Elizabeth Bard and her husband Daniel Line moved to a farm near Mechanicsburg, Cumberland County, Pa. They are buried at the Trindle Springs Lutheran Church, a short distance west of Mechanicsburg. Many of their descendants continue to live in Cumberland County, Pa.

Margaret Bard and her husband Abraham Rohrer moved from their home near Lancaster, Pa. to the vicinity of Hagerstown, Md. about 1812. After several land transactions in the Hagerstown area they decided to relocate, this time in the vicinity of Wadsworth, Ohio. In 1832 they purchased a tract in Medina County, Ohio. Here they remained until their death in 1878.

Elizabeth Bard and her husband Daniel Line located near Mechanicsburg, Cumberland County, Pa. This family and their descendants continued to live within this and adjoining counties. A number moved into the region around Shippensburg, Pa.

Mary Bard and her husband John Line also moved to Cumberland County, Pa. and located in the Mechanicsburg area. They were associated with the Trindle Springs Lutheran Church. Their descendants are far more scattered geographically, some having moved to states farther west.

Catharine Bard and her husband David Henecks are thought to have moved from Lancaster County into parts unknown at this time. If they followed the usual trail they went to counties southwest or west and then possibly into states beyond the western border of Pennsylvania.

Rachel Bard and her husband John Rock lived in or near Lancaster, Pa. John Rock is reported to have been a potter by trade. Some of their children moved to Sterling, Ill. Their descendants are in Philadelphia, Pa. and Venice, Cal.

The later generations are given in the genealogical section on page 192 and may be traced according to families by careful reading.

PART X

THE FAMILY LINE OF BENJAMIN EBY (1767-1850)

AND SALOME BEAR (1771-1842)

The family of Benjamin Eby and Salome Bear is as follows: Joel Eby who married Elizabeth Grush; Jacob Eby who married Susanna (Mary) Myers; Benjamin Eby who married Rachel Elder, second wife Rebecca Smith; Henry Eby who married Catharine Long, second wife Rachel Rhodes; John Eby who married Elizabeth Myers; George Eby who married Susanna Lutz; Susanna Eby whose husband was Adam Crouse; Sarah Eby whose husband was John Garver.

The members of the Benjamin Eby family are now widely scattered. Benjamin and Salome grew up in the Leacock-Lancaster County area. Benjamin was a blacksmith and farmer. About 1801 Benjamin and Salome sold their farm of over 110 acres of land in Leacock Township, Lancaster County, Pa. to John Heller, Jr. Their names soon appear in the Franklin County, Pa. court records. They bought several tracts of land in Fannett and Montgomery Townships. Benjamin and Salome Eby made their permanent home at what is known as the Johnson Campbell Farm, five miles north of Dry Run in Path Valley, Fannett Township, Franklin County, Pa.

Joel Eby and his wife moved from Pennsylvania to the vicinity of Lena, Illinois around 1847. He continued in this area until his death in 1861. Because his children were difficult to identify, we have practically lost trace of living descendants.

Jacob Eby, Sr. and wife Susanna Myers moved to Illinois and located in the vicinity of Lena about 1854. Their children remained in this area but later generations moved farther west into Kansas, Washington and California.

The Benjamin Eby family moved first to Mifflin Township, Richland County, Ohio. After the death of his first wife Benjamin moved to the vicinity of Rochester, Peoria County, Illinois, where he married Rebecca Smith. He engaged in the milling business and farming. Benjamin and his wife are buried in Glendale Cemetery, Rochester, Ill. His descendants are widely scattered in Illinois, Kansas, Nebraska, and Minnesota. (See Franklin Stanton Eby records).

Henry Eby and his wife Catharine Long lived in Huntingdon County, Pa. About 1854 Henry migrated to the Lena, Illinois area. He later moved on to Dallas Center, Iowa, where he and his wife Rachel are buried.

John Eby and his wife Elizabeth Myers lived in Sherman Valley, Perry County, Pa. Many of their descendants are located in the vicinity of Newport, Pa. Some later moved westward to Iowa and Illinois.

Susanna Eby and her husband Adam Crouse lived in Path Valley.

Franklin County, Pa. They and other members of their family are buried in the Old Dutch Cemetery near Dry Run.

George Eby and his wife Susanna Lutz moved on to Germany Valley, Shirley Township, Huntingdon County, Pa. and their family for the most part remained in this area. One daughter married Daniel M. Bare of Roaring Springs, Pa. Another married David Bowman who moved to Lena, Illinois.

Sarah Eby and husband John Garver lived and died in the Germany Valley-Huntingdon County area. Some of their children and descendants located near Mount Union, Pa. At least four of the daughters married and moved to Illinois, locating around Shannon, Lena, and Waddams Grove.

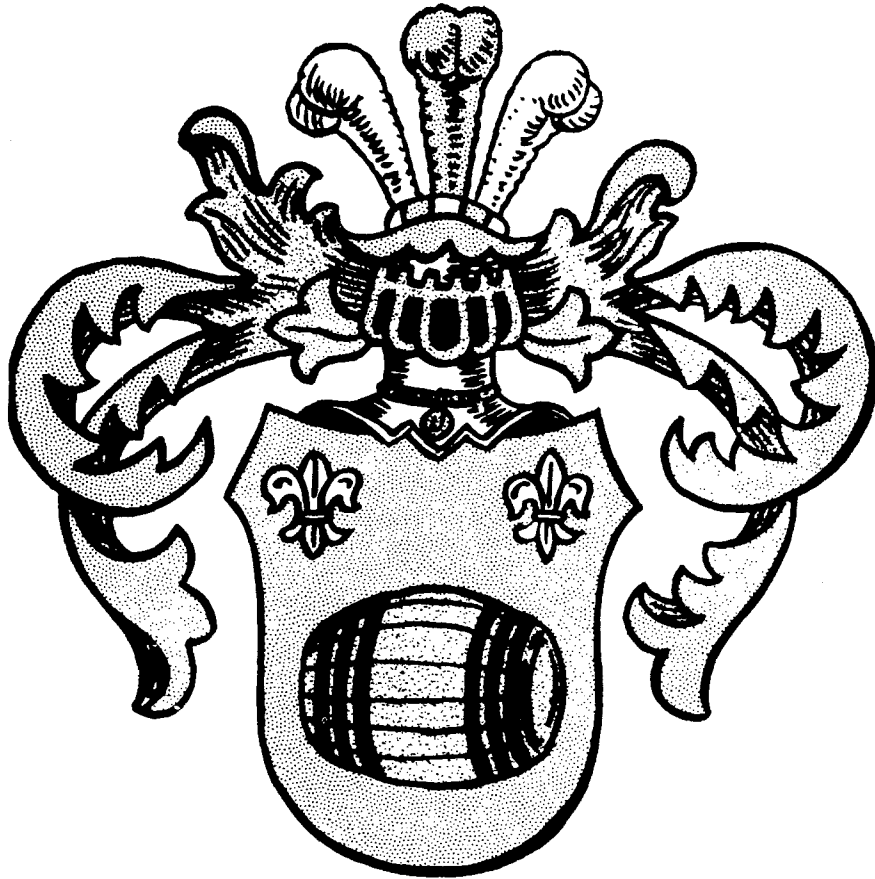

A more complete listing of the descendants of Benjamin Eby and Salome Bear is given in the genealogical section on page 220. In spite of occasional omissions they can in most instances be well traced to the present generation.

THE BENJAMIN EBY FAMILY LINE

Theodorus Eby was born in Canton Zurich, Switzerland on April 25, 1663. The grandfather of Theodorus was Dorsz Aebi, also of Switzerland. From 1704-1715 Theodorus lived in the Palatinate, and in the spring of 1715 he came to America and took up land along the Conestoga Creek, three miles south of the town of Lancaster. Soon after this he moved twelve miles east and took up a large tract of land on the Mill Creek near the Welsh Mountains. He died in 1732. The father of Theodorus Eby was Jacob Aebi.

Theodorus Eby's children include five sons and one daughter, all born in Canton Zurich, Switzerland. The children were Hans (John), Jacob, Peter, Christian, David and Elizabeth. Peter was born in 1690. All of Peter's children were born in Leacock Township, Lancaster County, Pa. Peter Eby had a son, Jacob, whose children were also born in Leacock Township, Lancaster County, Pa. near Zeltenreich Church. Jacob Eby had a son Benjamin who was born in 1767. Benjamin married Salome (Sarah) Bear or Baer. They had the following children: Joel, Susanna, Henry, Jacob, George, John, Benjamin and Sarah.

Peter Eby, father of Jacob, father of Benjamin, died in 1748. Jacob father of Benjamin (1767-1850) married Hannah Laterin (1735-1810). Jacob, born in 1728, died in 1794. Both Jacob and his wife Hannah are buried in Eby's Cemetery near Monterey, Lancaster County, Pa.
