SKETCH OF THE AUTHOR

ORLO GARDNER BRIGGS, youngest son of John Parmley and Eunice Briggs, was born in the city of Fort Atkinson, Wisconsin, on the 27th day of July, 1861. When he was four years of age, his mother died and he went to live with his grandmother, Selinda Briggs, and his uncle, Daniel Wesley Briggs, at Fort Atkinson. In 1871 the family removed to Rock county, Wisconsin, where they resided on a farm until 1877, when they went to northern Iowa. After two years, the subject of his sketch left the pleasant home he had lived in for about fifteen years, and came back to Wisconsin, and commenced life for himself. In August, 1881, he went into the office of the Brodhead Independent, at Brodhead, Wisconsin, and learned the printer's trade, which he has since followed.

In 1884 he became acquainted with Miss Lucy A. Chase, of Tomah, Wis., a typo in that city, and on April 15, 1886, married her at Wilton, Wis., the home of her mother.

He worked at Viroqua as well as many other points in the state owning offices in Bruce, Cameron, Cashton, and Albany, Wisconsin, at different times remaining in Albany for about seventeen years when he forced to retire on account of failing health. He and his wife then moved to Milwaukee to make their home with their daughter, Edith and her husband. He died December 10, 1930 with heart trouble and was buried at Viroqua, Wisconsin where his daughter Pira was buried in 1895.

The copy for this book was completed a few days before his death and is being published by his wife, as his daughter Edith promised she would help if he was not spared to complete it.

It was his wish that his work might be carried on at some future time by some member of the family so the record may be kept complete of the Briggs family.

A copy of this genealogy is to be placed in the State Historical Library at Madison, Wisconsin.
