THE BRANT GENEALOGY

Rev. Alvin Alonzo Cober, D. D.

PREFACE

The question, "Where did we come from?" is frequently on the lips of many, who, in Somerset county, Pennsylvania bear the name of Brant. It is in answer to this inquiry that the writer of this volume has undertaken to discover and trace the Brant lineage and to make a record of his findings. This undertaking has been carried on with great difficulty because of the unreliability of tradition, the incompleteness and inadequacy of the records kept, the lack of time at the disposal of the writer to assemble the data available, and the lack of interest on the part of many who were solicited for information.

The writer has visited cemeteries and copied obituaries from tombstones. He has called in many homes in Westmoreland and Somerset counties where he had access to Bible records, and carried on extensive and persistent correspondence with many who are related to the Brant family. For much of the earlier history he is indebted to the descendants who live in Ligonier, Pa., and vicinity, and to the records of deeds and wills at the Westmoreland county courthouse.

Notwithstanding the author's attempt to be accurate in the publication of these records the reader will, no doubt, find errors here and there. In some cases the writer had to guess at the spelling of names. Family records of two or three generations were so interwoven as to make accurate analysis and classification practically impossible. Sometimes two dates were given for the same person by different individuals. By comparison with the dates of persons next to them the most plausible one was selected. To write back for more accurate information when a delay of a year or more had already occurred was too hazardous to insure the completion of the work attempted, in the writer's life time.

The difficulty of this work has been heightened because no attempt on so broad a scale to assemble the facts has ever been undertaken. There has, therefore, been no nucleus to which the writer could go for a beginning. The pity is that no effort was made years ago when the facts were more easily accessible. The writer wishes also to express his regret that a more complete record cannot be made especially of the Westmoreland county lines. Because of the character and achievements of that fine people they deserve fuller recognition than the author has had time to work out.

The very nature of the material, the purpose and form of presentation, reveals the fact that no attempt is made at literary form. It is a mere assemblage of names, places, dates and other bits of information and tabulated in chronological order so that any one desirous of doing so may trace his or her line back to the original ancestor.

The Historical Society of Pennsylvania with headquarters at Harrisburg has no record of the Brant relationship. It is the writer's purpose to place a copy of this work there. That the report to the Society may be as accurate as possible he would be glad to have any errors reported to him so that corrections may be made before the copy is sent in.

In this account the Brants of Westmoreland county have been included only so far as is necessary to make intelligible the descent of the Brants of Somerset county from them. It was originally intended to include all the descendants of Westmoreland county; but the writer living so far away and not being able to enlist sufficient interest to obtain the data, the original intention was abandoned. It is to be hoped that later the work may be completed. To delay much longer, however, will make the task increasingly difficult, if not impossible.

The numbers which the reader will find in the records have been placed there to afford a cross-reference. Anyone desiring to do so may trace his or her line of descent back to the original ancestor John Brandt. Take, for example, Edna Brant who bears the number 1124. You will discover that she was the first child born to the "FAMILY OF WESLEY A. BRANT AND AMANDA (ENOS) BRANT." This family you will observe bears the number 1091. Turn back to the number 1091 and you will find there the biography of Wesley A. Brant. By counting you will find that Wesley A. Brant was the seventh son of the "FAMILY OF HENRY HARRY BRANT AND CATHARINE (WEIGHLEY) BRANT." This family bears the number 1031. If you will look up the number 1031 you will find there the biography of Henry Harry Brant. By counting again you will find that he was the sixth child of the "FAMILY OF HENRY BRANT AND SALLIE (SCHROCK) BRANT." Turn to the number 725 which this family bears and you will find the biography of Henry Brant. He was the fifth child of the "FAMILY OF CONRAD BRANT AND BARBARA (GRAEFT) BRANT." By finding the number 4 which this family bears you find the biography of Conrad Brant. By again counting you will find that he was the third child of John Brandt our original ancestor. Edna Brant was the great, great, great granddaughter of the original John Brandt.

In the accomplishment of this work the author is indebted to many whose names cannot be mentioned. For initial work in Westmoreland county Peter B. Brant and Miss Effie B. Dunlap, M. D., have given valuable service. In Somerset county Mr. Merle Wiant Brant, Prof. Alvaro B. Cober, Mrs. Minnie M. Schaff, Mrs. J. R. Barron and Dr. E. C. Saylor have been interested helpers. Among those who have gone to other parts, Mr. Stephen F. Brant of McKeesport, Pa., and Mr. Jabez A. Brant of Minneapolis, Minnesota have given material assistance.

INTRODUCTION

In compiling these family records, the author, Rev. Alvin A. Cober, D. D., has made a valuable contribution to the descendants of the Brant families who will ever cherish his memory as one of their most prominent relatives. Because of his cheerful disposition, his keen sense of loyalty and devotion to all his relatives, his superior scholarship and his successful career as a minister, cousin Alvin, as most of us prefer to address him, is loved and respected not only by his immediate relatives but by all who know him. He is therefore recognized by the entire Brant relationship as the kinsman whom they would select to edit the records of their families.

Most of us have little knowledge of the family records of our relatives now living and still less of our early ancestors. Were it not for the untiring efforts of the author in accumulating the information contained in this volume many of the Brant descendants now living would perhaps join the ranks of those who have gone before without any knowledge of their ancestry except that which is known about their parents and grandparents.

The old Greek adage, "Know Thyself," still has value, but when we have knowledge of our ancestors as well as of ourselves we are better qualified to perform our duties toward ourselves and our families. One does not live for self alone. Every life touches and shapes to a certain extent the lives of others. A knowledge of the truth of the habits, customs, and conduct of our ancestors should prove of inestimable value to us. If we know our inherited tendencies we may profit by training to stimulate those that are good and fortify against those that are evil.

One practical service which these records may render is pointing out relationships which should be avoided in intermarriage. It is now generally admitted that relatives as close as first cousins should not marry. Perhaps even marriage of second cousins should be avoided for the best development of the human family.

It is recommended that this brief history of the Brant families be carefully preserved and that we follow the practice of our parents in having the family records carefully recorded in the family Bible. They should be kept up to date. As the years go on these records will increase in value and in interest to all those who have a desire for knowledge concerning their ancestors.

Record of the John Brandt Family

1. John and Ann Maria Brandt of whose lives and the lives of their descendants the following pages contain a brief chronological account, were born in Amsterdam, Holland in the year 1731. The date of their emigration from Holland is not known. The first that we know of them we find them living on a fertile farm on the western base of the Laurel Ridge, about a mile or two south of Ligonier, Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania. The farm of 300 acres on which he lived came to him by warrant May 14, 1773. This record may be found in the Pennsylvania Archives, Third Series, Vol. 26, page 393.

Bible records state that the family was living in Donegal township. That the reader may not be confused by this reference or similar references hereafter it should be said that Donegal township was later divided into three townships so that the Brandt family's residence fell into the newly formed township named Ligonier.

From this family sprang a very large relationship which gave very perceptible coloring to the community life. To this day there is a schoolhouse known as "The Brant Schoolhouse" and a burying ground known as "The Brant Cemetery." The burying ground is not much used now and shows evidences of neglect. Several generations of Brants and Wellers from whom the Brants of Somerset county are descended are buried there.

At the time when the Brandt family settled in Westmoreland county the country was still quite new and heavily timbered. A few Indians still lingered here and there causing anxiety to the settlers. Tradition has it that one day while Mr. Brandt was about the home he spied an Indian in his bakeoven. In those early days before stoves were invented and when houses contained fireplaces instead, ovens were constructed outside of the houses. Such an oven consisted of a solid base of stone about eight or ten feet square and about two feet high. On this base a hollow, half sphere of bricks or other material was built. At one side an iron door about fifteen inches square was placed making an opening into the oven. Into that door the Indian crawled concealing himself until such a time as he might conveniently carry out his purpose. Before that time came, however, Mr. Brandt spied the Indian. Frightened by his presence in such an unexpected place he suspected that there might be trouble and felt it his duty to make the first move. Being without a weapon of defence Mr. Brandt seized a rail that lay near at hand and with that clumsy instrument he began to punish the intruder. This he kept up until he had killed the Indian. Thus the hands of our forefathers were stained with human blood. No doubt he justified himself as acting in self defence for the preservation of his family and himself. In those days of constant irritation between the Whites and the Indians, the Indian was not thought of as much more than an animal so that the slaying of an Indian was not regarded as the crime it would be considered in the sober perspective of history.

After finding his home in the New World Mr. Brandt settled for life. Judging from the traditions that have reached us and from the character of his descendants he must have lived an honorable and influential life in spite of the unfortunate episode with the Indian. The name was everywhere respected. Coming from Holland where the Dutch Reformed church is the prevailing church he no doubt was a member of that church. When he came to America it was not difficult for him and his descendants to affiliate with the German Reformed church as it was then called and to which most of the Brants earlier belonged.

After a long and useful life this early family came to a peaceful end. Mr. Brandt died July 11, 1802 at the age of 81 years and his wife died December 25, 1804 aged 83 years. They were both buried in "The Brant Cemetery" south of Ligonier. Before his death he made a will in which each child received 20 pounds (money) except John to whom he deeded the farm and who was to care for his mother. To her was willed 12 bushels of wheat, the same amount of rye and 200 pounds of "good" pork. John, Jr., was to care for her in his own house and if she was not satisfied he was to build her a small house near by in which she might live to her satisfaction. She was to be cared for out of the proceeds of the farm. For more detail the reader is referred to the records at the Court House of Greensburg, Pa., where the will and deed are recorded.

FAMILY OF JOHN BRANDT AND ANN MARIA ()
BRANDT. Emigrants from Holland. (See No. 1). Among the children the "d" was dropped out of the name and spelled B-r-a-n-t.

2. BRANT, JOHN, JR., born Oct. 19, 1752 and died Nov. 20, 1844 at the extreme age of 92 years, 1 month and 1 day. He married Eve Elizabeth Heil who was born May 12, 1762 and died April 18, 1846, aged 83 years, 11 months and 1 day. They were buried near his parents in "The Brant Cemetery" where marble slabs in good condition with obituaries clearly discernible, mark their resting place. At the grave of Mr. Brant there is a military marker numbered 604 indicating that he was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. He was in his early twenties when the war broke out. Having bought his father's farm he lived on it and cultivated it. It was a beautiful and valuable piece of ground. The children born to this couple were Abraham, Jacob, Henry, Eve, Adam and John III.

3. BRANT, BARBARA. In her father's will her name stands as Barbara Harganett. This probably was the name of her husband. The writer knows nothing of her family.

4. BRANT, CONRAD, born Sept. 14, 1763 and died July 22, 1845 aged 81 years, 9 months and 8 days. He married Barbara Graeft who was born Nov. 11, 1767 and died Oct. 1, 1865 at the age of 97 years, 10 months and 20 days. Sometime during their life they moved to Somerset county where they lived in Brothersvalley township on a farm. Their children were Peter, John, Elizabeth, Joseph and Henry. There may have been other members of the family. The writer was well acquainted with John and Henry who lived on farms about 2 and one-half miles west of Berlin near and on the Mud Pike. The family was affiliated with the German Reformed church at Berlin to which services they often walked. They were buried in the Reformed Cemetery at Berlin and their graves are marked by marble slabs with inscriptions in legible condition. It is said that he was born in Holland. Whether all of the John Brandt family were born in Holland is not known.

5. BRANT, ABRAHAM. All the information the writer has of this son is the fact that he was an heir of John Brant, Sr. and received his 20 pounds (English money) with the rest of the heirs.

6. BRANT, HENRY. He died before his father. He was married and his daughter Mary who married a Mr. Benford received an inheritance from her grandfather.

7. BRANT, MARGARET was the last one named in her father's will. Nothing else is known of her.

FAMILY OF JOHN BRANT, JR., AND EVE ELIZABETH
(HEIL) BRANT. Son of John Brandt. (See No. 2).

8. BRANT, ABRAHAM. Date of birth not known. He died March 18, 1860. Married Susan Boucher who was born March 19, 1815 and died April 14, 1894, aged 79 years and 25 days. Their descendants were Elizabeth, Mary, Sarah, Josiah, Rebecca, David, Susan, Cyrus, Isaac and Abraham. They lived on a farm in the vicinity of Ligonier.

9. BRANT, JACOB, born April 9, 1794 and died Oct. 7, 1862 at the age of 68 years, 5 months and 28 days. He was born in what was formerly known as Donegal township, Westmoreland county. He married Elizabeth Weller of the neighborhood in which he was born. Miss Weller was born Oct. 10, 1796 and died Aug. 16, 1854 at the age of 57 years, 10 months and 7 days. The descendants of this couple were John, Frederick, George, Caroline, Franklin, Polly, Rebecca, Catharine and Eliza, the writer's mother. John, Frederick and George were born in Donegal (now Ligonier) township. After the birth of George the family moved to Brothersvalley township, Somerset county, Pa., and the rest of the family were born in that township. Mr. Brant bought a farm about two miles a little south of west from Berlin. On this farm he lived until he died. Both Mr. and Mrs. Brant were buried in the Reformed Cemetery in Berlin. They were loyal members of the German Reformed church of Berlin and in this church they all had their children christened. While he worked hard on his farm during the week, on Sunday he put on a silk hat and went to church. After locating in Brothersvalley township he made yearly visits to his former home in Westmoreland county, travelling on horseback. As he grew older his visits became less frequent.

Frederick Weller, the father of Mrs. Brant was born in Mechanicstown, Frederick county, Maryland, July 5, 1761. Tradition has it that Mr. Weller was a descendant of one of three brothers who emigrated from Holland. One of the brothers went to New York and all trace of him has been lost. The other two settled in Maryland and Frederick is a descendant of one of these. When the Revolutionary War broke out he entered into military service on the side of the Colonists. The record of his service is found in the Pennsylvania Archives, Fifth Series, Vol. VII, page 495. He served in Captain Elliott's Company, Fifth Battallion, Lancaster County Militia, 1782. He married Barbara Shaffer who was born May 29, 1765 and died April 22, 1831, aged 65 years, 10 months and 23 days. The brick house in which he lived in Ligonier township about four miles south of Ligonier is still standing and in good condition. Mr. and Mrs. Weller are buried in "The Brant Cemetery" and their graves are marked by slabs of native stone with the obituaries well preserved. On Mr. Weller's stone it is said that he was born in Frederick Co., Maryland.

The Jacob Brant family was a very interesting and in some ways an outstanding family. There was a social spirit and a hospitality in the home which made it attractive to their friends. In addition to the social spirit there was a vein of wit and humor in the family that made their fellowship especially desirable.

10. BRANT, HENRY was born Feb. 22, 1806 and died Aug. 22, 1883 at the age of 77 years, and 6 months. He was married; but to whom the writer does not know. Five children are reported: Elizabeth, Rose, Catharine, Sarah and Joseph. He was buried in the Brant Cemetery.

11. BRANT, EVE. No information. The name is all that has come down to us.

12. BRANT, ADAM, born May 11, 1802. He married Elizabeth Fry who was born June 19, 1803 and lived in Ligonier township. The names of his children were, Michael, William, David, John, Seymour, Eve, Sallie, Esther, Mary, Mattie, Catharine and Rose.

13. BRANT, JOHN. He was twice married. The children to his first wife were Joseph, Henry, one omitted, Frank, Armstrong, John, Mary and Sarah. The children to his second wife were George, Abraham, Polly, Elizabeth, an omission, and Susan. The relationship of this man with the families immediately preceding is not very clearly established. Some say there is no connection. Others say there is. No family shows a closer resemblance to the Somerset county lines in physiognomy, temperament, mannerism and habits of life than this one. Having lived in Somerset county it is quite possible that with Conrad and Jacob Brant he too went to Somerset county even though his later residence was in Westmoreland county.

FAMILY OF ABRAHAM BRANT AND SUSAN(BOUCHER)
BRANT. Son of John Brant, Jr. (See No. 8).

14. BRANT, ELIZABETH was born June 14, 1838 and died Oct. 12, 1912 at the age of 74 years, 4 months and 28 days. She was married to J. C. McConaughy. To this union 12 children were born as follows: Hattie, Robert, Mary E., Francis, Susan, Ella, Eliza J., Hibbard, Alice, Sarah, Dick V., and Joseph. It is through Susan who married Thomas J. Dunlap that Effie B. Dunlap, M. D. is descended. Miss Dunlap has a sister by the name of Estella, married to R. J. Graham, a dentist who practices his profession in Ligonier, Pa. Effie remains single and practices medicine in Ligonier, where she is held in high esteem.

15. BRANT, MARY was born July 26, 1840. She married Harvey McConaughy a brother of J. C. McConaughy. They were the parents of two children, Clinton and Belle.

Ligonier) township, Westmoreland county. He grew up near Berlin in Somerset county. He learned the carpenter trade and besides carpentering he engaged in farming. He was married five times and had children with the first three wives. He was brought up in the Reformed faith, but later in life united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. In his earlier life he lived in Berlin and vicinity. Later he moved to Foreston, Illinois where he engaged in farming. He was buried in Foreston.

55. BRANT, FREDERICK, born Dec. 1, 1819 and died March 28, 1906 at the age of 86 years, 3 months and 28 days. He was born in Donegal (now Ligonier) township, Westmoreland county and buried in the Cober graveyard about two miles west of Berlin near the Mud Pike. He married Phoebe Schrock who was born Nov. 9, 1821 and died March 15, 1898. At her death she was 76 years, 4 months and 6 days old. Mrs. Brant was the daughter of Henry Schrock and Susan (Coleman) Schrock. To this union 11 children were born, namely, Austin, Jeremiah, Anne, Lucinda, Elizabeth, Susan, Israel, James, Sarah, Amanda and Eliza.

He owned and lived on his father's farm. He was a hard worker and saved some money. Of the uncles on my mother's side I knew "Uncle Fred" best. He was a man of keen wit and delicate humor. Because of this capacity he was always a welcome visitor in our home. In my younger life he used to tease me. Even when the shadows of old age began to fall upon him he remained very companionable. After I left home he nearly always came to see me when I returned for a visit. I shall never forget some of the times we spent together as we strolled over the fields and he related to me some of his experiences. He was a good man and I loved him dearly. I can see him yet sitting on a Sunday afternoon on the long bench on his front porch with the large family Bible on his knees, reading for his spiritual edification. Though schooled in the Reformed church he later united with the Dunkard people. His children all or nearly all followed him into the Dunkard faith.

He was a fine hunter and loved the sport. He shot many squirrels. He always hunted with a rifle. Every Fall he went to "The Ridge" for deer. Every season he came back with a fine specimen and then to our home with a nice mess of venison.

56. BRANT, GEORGE, born Feb. 14, 1822 in Donegal township, Westmoreland county. He died Aug. 19, 1913 at the exceptional age of 91 years, 6 months and 5 days. He was buried in the cemetery of Centerville in Somerset county. He married Sarah Dull who was born March 28, 1825 and died Sept. 18, 1883. To this union were born five children as follows. Ellen Albina, Benjamin Franklin, Mary Elizabeth, Catharine and Wesley John. Mr. Brant was a stone mason and a shoemaker. He was a man of fine conscience and bore the reputation of making very good shoes.

Deviating from the Reformed faith he went into the Lutheran church where he lived a very loyal and faithful Christian life. He took life seriously and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was thrice married; but had children only with his first wife. The descendants of his family more than those of any of his brothers and sisters went into professional life.

57. BRANT, JOSIAH, born in Brothersvalley township, the first of the family to be born outside of Westmoreland county. The date of his birth was August 1, 1824. He died Oct. 25, 1894 at the age of 70 years, 3 months and 24 days. He was buried in the cemetery of the Zion Reformed Church. He married Rosie Ann Long in the year 1854. After seven months Mrs. Brant died. In 1860 he married Louise Ann Hersch. She died June 18, 1907 and was buried by the side of her husband in St. Paul's (Zion's) cemetery. To this marriage 13 children were born. Until 1930 all of them were living. Their names were, Henry Lincoln, Ida Rebecca, Jabez Wilson, Elbina Susan, Rosy Anne, Cora Alice, Irwin Wesley, Joseph Alvin, Dillie Verbina, Obadiah Burton, Daisie May, George Sesna and Essie Marella. Mr. Brant owned a farm about three miles west of Berlin on the Mud Pike. He was a hard worker, lived economically and provided well for his family. His farm was a model of neatness. He remained in the faith of his father being a very zealous supporter of the Reformed Church. He was a very highly respected citizen.

58. BRANT, CAROLINE was born June 15, 1827. Died young.

59. BRANT, FRANKLIN, born Nov. 1, 1829 in Brothersvalley township. He died Feb. 10, 1859 and was buried at Berlin, Pa. He married Margaret Schissler and had two daughters. His second marriage was to Eve Foust a sister of William Foust, in the year 1858. She died a year later leaving a daughter named Samantha.

60. BRANT, POLLY was born November 14, 1832. Died May 9, 1871. She married Solomon Coleman, his second marriage. Mr. Coleman was born Sept. 13, 1832 and died March 5, 1908, and had two children from his first wife. To the later union there were five children, namely, Washington, Silas, Franklin, Elizabeth and

Emma. They lived on a farm near Pine Hill. Mrs. Coleman was buried in the cemetery at Pine Hill, Pa.

61. BRANT, REBECCA, born March 19, 1835. She married William Foust and was known to us as "Aunt Beckie." She was the mother of eight children as follows, Catharine, Mary, Simon, Sophia, Elizabeth, Sadie, Ida and Harrison. Mr. Foust was a successful farmer and cattle raiser. He had a farm of about 300 acres about four miles west of Berlin. He was an ardent Republican and served several times as school director and road supervisor. They were members of the Disciple church.

62. BRANT, CATHARINE, born June 30, 1837. Died 1917. Married Peter Gumbert who was born Feb. 24, 1837 and died June 1, 1911. He and his wife were buried in the cemetery at Pine Hill, Pa.
