- INTRODUCTION -

At the request of our mother, Mrs. Dorothy Crawford Kline and myself embarked upon a project to produce a little family record for the coming generations. In the attempt to gather a few facts, we found ourselves in a genealogical study that took on the flavor of American history and family records of the western movement in the growth of our nation.

Primarily the movement has been from Pennsylvania and Virginia to Kentucky and from there to the four corners of the earth. The loss of records as history unfolds has complicated the search for facts in tracing the families. Much of this loss of records has been due to wars, Indian raids on pioneer settlements, fires and floods.

During the Civil War along, Kentucky lost the records from 21 counties as a result of General John Hunt Morgan's and General Lyon's attempts to dislodge Yankee occupation of Kentucky soil. The following county court houses were destroyed—the ones prefixed by asterisks were destroyed by military operations, the remainder of the county court houses were destroyed by Southern sympathizers.

Bath Co., Owingsville
Breckinridge co., Hardenburg
Caldwell Co., Princeton
Christian Co., Hopkinsville
Clinton Co., Albany
Crittenden Co., Marion
Cumberland Co., Burkesville
Daviess Co., Owensboro
Graves Co., Mayfield
Harlan Co., Harlan
Jackson Co., Madisonville

LaRue Co., Hodgensville
Marion Co., Lebanon
Monroe Co., Thompkinsville
Montgomery Co., Mt. Sterling
* Ohio Co., Hartford
Powell Co., Stanton
Rowan Co., Morehead
Spencer Co., Taylorsville
* Taylor Co., Campbellville
* Triqq Co., Cadiz

In addition to the records of the counties listed above, Rockcastle County, Mt. Vernon, Kentucky, had all of its records destroyed by a fire in 1874. This and the family records and pioneering records that were destroyed in the French and Indian Wars and marauding Indian raids of settlers and settlements has increased the difficulty encountered in establishing some of the lines and some of the voids I have been unable to uncover. It is my desire that this scant coverage of our heritage will generate an interest in others to further the search when the information and geographical location are a factor.

Information for the documenting and proving eligibility for application of Daughters and Sons of the American Revolution has been made available for those who have the desire to become affiliated.

CRAWFORD, John Age- Not Given

Time of death- Sept. 11, 1861 Cause of death- Pneumonia

Place of birth- Rockacastle Co. Place of death- Pulaski Co.

Parents- Adams Crawford

Nancy & ware

In 1852 the state of Kentucky began to keep birth and death records, they continued to keep these records until 1862 when the cost of the Civil War made the cost prohibitive. The death record above was taken during this period and is maintained in Frankfort, Kentucky by the KENTUCKY HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

The federal census of ROCKCASTLE CO., KY. for the year of 1820 was taken from micro film cOpies that were located in THE KENTUCKY BUILDING on the campus of WESTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY, in Bowling Green, KENTUCKY.

JOHN CRAWFORD son of ADAMS CRAWFORD was

JOHN CRAWFORD son of ADAMS CRAWFORD was born in ROCKCASTLE Co, Kentucky in June of 1824. He married ELIZABETH CURD in 1848 at Somerset , Kentucky and lived there as the first drugist of Somerset and in the capacity of cmrcuit court clerk for the eleven years preceeding his early death of age 37 in 1861.

Captain John Curd served during the Revolutionary War as Commander of the Goochland County Virginia Militia, proof of this service can be found in Auditor's Department account book #111, Page 164, in the Virginia State Library of Richmond, Virginia. He came to Kentucky in about 1774 on a scouting expedition. Upon his return to Virginia, the revolution was underway. He remained in Virginia and served until the end of the war. He had been so impressed by the land in the vicinity of the Kentucky and Dix Rivers that he applied for and received a permit to operate a ferry accross the Kentucky River at the mouth of the Dix River in 1786, and the following year, 1787, he and some of his family settled in this area and remained there until his death. (Collins, History of Kentucky, Volume #1, page 542, and Volume #2, page 514, document the awarding of ferry permit accross the Kentucky River seven years before Kentucky received the status of Statehood.).

THE CURD* FAMILY

[1] EDWARD CURD, immigrant ancestor, probably ancestor of all those named Curd* in America, was in Henrico County, Va. as early as 1704, where on October 2nd of that year he "Purchased of John Woodson for 30£ currency, six hundred acres of land on the north side of the James River, adjoining land formerly James Blairs' and being part of a greater tract granted John Woodson, Jr., by patent dated 23 Oct. 1690" (Valentine Papers). The following year 1705, he was assessed and paid taxes on this six hundred acres (Henrico Quit Rent Rolls, 1705, Va. Historical Mag., Vol. 28, p. 210). Between 1716 and 1725 he received various land grants on the north side of James River in that part of Henrico County that was cut off in 1728 to form Goochland County. There was granted to him 31 Oct. 1716, 531 acres north side James River, west side north branch Beaver Dam Creek (Book, 10, p. 307), 2 Feb. 1724, 1,200 acres north side James River (Book 12, p. 130), 2 Feb. 1724, 341 acres north side James River on Beaver Dam Creek (Book 12, p. 131), 17 Aug. 1725, 400 acres on Beaver Dam Creek (Book 12, p. 238). In the next few years he deeded most of his Goochland County lands to his children. 6 June 1726, he deeds to his son John, for "love and affection," part of the 531 acre tract on Beaver Dam Creek (Henrico Court records), 7 Nov. 1726 he deeds to his daughter Mary McBride land lying on the north side of James River (Henrico Court records), 16 July 1733 he deeds 200 acres in Goochland County to each of his daughters, Mary Richardson and Elizabeth Williams (Goochland County Deeds), 20 Nov. 1733 he deeds 650 acres in Goochland County to his son Richard (Goochland County Deeds). In his will he gives 100 acres in Goochland County to his granddaughter, Jane McBride, and all of his remaining holdings in Goochland to his son Edward. All of his children, Edward excepted, eventually went to Goochland County to live. In the vestry book of the old St. John's Church at Richmond, we find the following records (Kith and Kin, p. 17,

Descendants of Hugh Brent and records at Alexandria, Va.): "At a vestry held at Curl's Neck Ch. for Henrico Parish ye 17th day June 1735. Present, Wm. Randolph, Esq., Richard Randolph, Bowler Cocke, James Powell Cocke, Gent. Vestrymen: Pursuant to the Directions of an Act of Assembly directing the dividing of Henrico Parish, the Freeholders and Householders present do unanimously elect Edward Curd, John Williamson, James Cocke, John Povall, and Robt. Moss, by which with the Vestrymen formerly of this Parish make up the number of twelve who take Oaths and Declarations as Vestrymen."* Oaths signed Edward Curd, first and others. 2 Sept. 1735, "Richard Randolph and Edward Curd, Gent. are appointed to view the Chappell and report what reparation and addition are thereunto wanting." 26 July 1743, "Beverly Randolph takes oath as vestryman in place of Edward Curd, deceased: as chosen 2nd Oct. 1742." Edward Curd died 1742. The Henrico County December Court 1742 appoints John Williamson, Thomas Watkins, Daniel Price and James Young to appraise estate of Edward Curd, deceased. Will dated 4 Feb. 1739/40, proved first Monday in Dec. 1742, names the following: wife Elizabeth Curd, son Edward Curd, son John Curd, son Richard Curd, Mary Mackbride and her son Edward Mackbride, daughter-in-law (step-daughter) Mary Punch, grandson John Curd, granddaughter Jane Mackbride, daughter Mary Richardson, daughter Elizabeth Williams. Names wife Elizabeth and son Edward Curd executors. Edward's will leaves the home plantation and dwelling in Henrico to wife Elizabeth during her life. "Son, Edward to have half of everything during Elizabeth's life, and at her death the whole of said Henrico estate." Son Edward is also given all lands "now possessed of" in Goochland County, excepting 100 acres which goes to granddaughter Jane Mackbride.

The name of Edward's first wife, the mother of his children, is not known; he m. (II) Elizabeth Branch, dau. of Thomas Branch and Elizabeth Archer, widow first of Robert Goode whom she m.

^{*}Richard Curd—headright of Mr. Henry Corbyn and Mr. Gerrard Fowke, 15 March 1658 . . . in Potomacke freshes between the two main branches, Extending towards Herne Island (Nugent, p. 388).

^{*}The Virginia Colonists were adherents of the church of England. The parish vestry consisted of twelve of the most prominent and substantial men of the Parish and divided with the court the responsibility for the public welfare of their respective communities.

& Some Allied Families

in 1710 and who d. 1718, widow second of Page Punch, who d. 1726-27. Elizabeth died 30 Nov. 1766. In the Goode Genealogy (Virginia Cousins) Elizabeth Branch is erroneously referred to as a Curd (William and Mary Quarterly, Vol. 25, pp. 66-67). In the Henrico County Record Books, 1767-1774, we find the following: page 138, 24 May 1749, John Curd and Elizabeth his wife acknowledge to have received of the executors of Edward Curd deceased "our full share of the estate of the said deceased," Richard Curd witness. Page 139, 20 May 1749, John Richardson and Mary his wife make similar acknowledgment, Richard Curd and Isham Richardson witnesses. Page 139, 24 May 1749, Richard Curd and Sarah his wife make similar acknowledgment, John Curd witness. Page 140, 3 June 1749, Samuel Allen and Elizabeth his wife make similar acknowledgment, John Curd witness. All of the above were recorded 5 June 1769.

Children (CURD):

- 1 Edward, married and had issue.
- + 2 II John, m. Elizabeth Price, dau. of Daniel Price. He d. in Goochland County, 1752 and his widow m. (II) Sept. 3, 1758, Richard Oglesby.
 - III Richard, m. Sarah Downer, dau. of John Downer. He d. in Goochland County, 1778.
 - IV Mary, m. John McBride. Settled in Goochland County.
 - v Mary, d. Charlotte County, Va., 1791; m. John Richardson.
 - vi Elizabeth, m. (1) Richard (?) Williams; m. (11) Samuel Allen.

That Edward Curd had two daughters each named Mary and both living at the time of his death is shown by his will.

[2] JOHN² CURD (Edward¹); d. Goochland County, Va., 1752; m. Elizabeth Price, dau. of Daniel Price, and his wife Mary, surname unknown, but perhaps Hughes. Division of his estate, 16 Jan. 1759 names wife Elizabeth and the following children. Elizabeth, John Curd's widow, m. (11) 3 Sept. 1758 Richard Oglesby.

[67] LUCY⁵ BRENT (James⁴, Hugh³, Hugh², Hugh¹), was born in Lancaster County, Va., circa 1734, and died in Mercer County, Ky. She married in Lancaster County, Va., 7 April 1758, John Curd (John², Edward¹), of Goochland County, Va., the match, in all probability, having been made by Capt. William Stamps who married her sister eight years earlier, as he is on the bond. John Curd was born circa 1726, in Henrico County, Va., and died before 1819, in Mercer County, Ky.

Lucy (Brent) Curd seems to have been worshipped by all of the Kentucky Curds, looked upon as a sort of Godmother, and for that reason the name Brent has been given not only to all of her direct descendants, but also to the Curds who carried no Brent blood.

The children of Lucy Brent and John Curd were born in Goochland County (formed from Henrico 1727), and were registered by the Rev. William Douglas in the register of St. James Northam Parish Church, of which John Curd was Vestryman; the name of Merryman B. Curd, being the only exception. He must have been born during the journey, or shortly after the arrival in Kentucky.

John Curd moved with his family to Kentucky 1780, settling on the south bank of the Kentucky River, at the mouth of Dix River, in what was first Lincoln County, but was later cut off to form Mercer County. Here he established a public ferry authorized by law, being one of eight so authorized in Kentucky by the Virginia Assembly. This ferry became the gateway to the settlement at Harrodsburg, and at the present writing, a ferry is still in operation at this point. The road from the ferry to Harrodsburg, and on to Lexington, was known as "Curd's Road," and was so called until the Harrodsburg turnpike was built. He took up large grants of land in Jefferson, Fayette and Lincoln Counties, the first three counties to be formed out of the County of Kentucky. All of his children and those of his brother Joseph (with one exception) eventually settled in Central Kentucky and are the ancestors of a large part of the Kentuckians bearing the name Curd. It is said that he was an intimate friend of both Daniel Boone and Governor Patrick Henry and that under the Governor's direction he served many important missions in the Kentucky section of Virginia. For this work he was granted 1650 acres of land in Kentucky by Gov. Patrick Henry, and 600, by the Virginia Legislature.

There were three John Curds living in Goochland County, Va. at the beginning of the Revolution and writers frequently confuse the three and their military service in the Revolution. The elder John son of John² Curd and his wife Elizabeth Price removed from Virginia to Kentucky during the progress of the Revolution. There does not seem to be any record of his having served in the Continental army prior to his removal to Kentucky where he was a member of the Lincoln County militia and saw service under at least three different captains. In company of Capt. John Martin under command of Col. Stephen Trigg, April 21 to May 23, 1781, 33 days. In company of Capt. Samuel Scott, under command of Col. Benjamin Logan, Feb. 22 to March 22, 1782, 29 days. In company of Capt. John Smith under command of Col. Benjamin Logan, Oct. 22 to Nov. 23, 1782, 33 days. (Pay rolls on file Va. state Library). The second John was son of Edward³ Curd and his wife Mary Morris. He was captain of militia 1778-1781 (Heitman, p. 181) and was Colonel of the Goochland militia following the Revolution. The third John was son of John³ Curd and his wife Lucy Brent. He enlisted as private in Continental Army 1776 and was appointed Major of the Goochland militia May 1780.

- [68] Maj. JOHN⁵ BRENT (James⁴, Hugh³, Hugh², Hugh¹), was born in Lancaster County, Va., cir. 1739; d. 1781, in Charlotte County, Va. M. circa 1760, Margaret Caldwell of Charlotte County. His widow afterwards married a Mr. Sublett. She was probably a daughter of David Caldwell (w. 1769). In 1776, Capt. John Brent is allowed a warrant for deficiency in his former account of waggonage on the Cherokee Expedition. He is of the 4th regiment. He was member of the Committee of Safety of Charlotte County, 1775-76, and member of House of Delegates 1780. After much litigation, his heirs are issued Land Warrant No. 9027 for 1333 1/3 acres, 21 Feb. 1843.

John Brent was granted 2,000 A., 5 June 1780, on Rolling Fork water course, in Kentucky. He was granted 100 A. by warrant No. 889 for three years service as a soldier in Virginia Line, 20 June 1783; 200 A. by warrant, in 1765, "during war soldier in Virginia Line," 15 Sept. 1783; 200 A. by warrant 4531 during war, soldier in Virginia Line, 3 Aug. 1791" (Jillson's "Old Kentucky Entrees and Deeds," p. 178).

He died in Trimble County, Ky. 2 Oct. 1841. He married in Fayette County, Ky., 12 April 1804, Polly Kay, born 11 April 1780, and died in Crawford County, Illinois, 20 March 1858. She was the daughter of John and Mary Kay of Fayette County, Ky. Merryman Curd's marriage is recorded in both Fayette and Jessamine Counties, Ky. Because he is not listed in the Douglas Register, I am giving the following references to prove that he was a son of John and Lucy Brent Curd.

John C. Underwood of Covington, Kentucky, seems to have searched thoroughly in the Archives in the Goochland County Court House and also extracts he had from the Douglass Register of the Parish embracing that (Goochland) and part of Louisa Counties. (1) He says, "The information I have was obtained from personal examination of the above sources and every thing I give you is authentic and has been verified by myself." The list of children of Thomas S. Curd and Kathleen Price Curd, which Mr. Underwood gives, includes all that Mr. Cook gave but adds several to the list, making either twelve or thirteen children, seven sons and five or six daughters.

4. JOHN's CURD (Thomas,2 Joseph)

b. 1726, in Goochland Co., Va. m. April (Aug.) 7, 1759 (1758) in Lancaster Co., Va. to Lucy Brent (see Brent Family in index) of Lawrenceburg, Va.(1) He died in Gerrard Co., Ky. They had five sons and four daughters:

I. John Brent Curd b. Nov. 23, 1760, christened Jan. 16, 1761. II. Elizabeth Curd b. Feb. 25, 1762, christened May 22, 1762.

III. Nannie Curd b. Mar. 5 (3), 1764, christened May 20, 1764.

IV. Katherine Curd b. Jan. 29 or 30, 1766, christened May 2, 1766.

V. Newton Curd b. Nov. 21 or 30, 1767, christened Dec. 13, 1767. On tomb stone on old family burying ground about 2 miles n. of Curdsville, Ky. date of his birth given as 1765.

VI. Mary Curd b. Sept. 10, 1769, christened Dec. 17, 1769. VII. James Price Curd b. Aug. 14, 1771, christened Aug. 18, 1771. He is called Price in Wm. & Mary College Quarterly, Vol. 15.

20 VIII. Daniel Boone Curd b. Oct. 14, 1773, christened Dec. 5, 1773. IX. Woodford Curd b. Dec. 15, 1775, christened Dec. 26, 1775.

From the Register of St. James Northam Parish, Goochland Co., Va., published in the Wm. & Mary College Quarterly, Vol. 15, to John Curd and Lucy Brent the following births are recorded:

> son, James b. June 24, 1759. dau. Elizabeth b. Feb. 25, 1762. dau. Nannie b. March 5, 1764. dau. Catherine Jan. 30, 1766. son, Newton b. Nov. 21, 1767. dat. Mary b. Sept. 10, 1769. son, Price b. Aug. 14, 1771. son, Daniel b. Oct. 14, 1773. son. Woodford b. Dec. 15, 1775.

This list seems to be almost like the one given above. The chief difference is that there is a James instead of a John. Evidently John's birth was not recorded. In all probability James died and then Price was called James Price.

From Virginia John Curd and his wife and probably all his children (at least Newton and Daniel were with their parents) emigrated to Kentucky in 1787, before it became a state. (2) With his father, John Curd was a prominent man in Virginia during the administration of Patrick Henry. As his emissary, John Curd executed many official missions, mainly in the back woods, and was sent by this governor many times to Kentucky on official business. The Virginia Legislature deeded him 1600 acres of land in Kentucky for services rendered. He was in Harrodsburg in the days of Daniel Boone. Charles P. Curd of St. Louis said, "I have in my possession a deed which shows that 600 acres of land in Kentucky was granted him for services by the Virginia Legislature". He was an intimate friend of both Daniel Boone and Patrick Henry. He was the old ferryman of Dix River, in fact, he is said to be the first Curd in Kentucky, coming in with Daniel Boone. He lived and died in Mercer County, Kentucky, near Harrodsburg, the first and oldest town in the state. He was in Kentucky when there were only 167 white men in the state.

J. S. Dickey of Bowling Green, Kentucky, said, (Aug. 21, 1913) "While in Somerset, Kentucky, where my uncle, Mr. Brent Curd, lived and where his widow still resides. I discovered an old inventory of appraisement of the surviving negroes left by John Curd, which document bears the date of December 29, 1819. It is signed by Newton Curd and Daniel Curd, attorneys in fact for John Curd, deceased."

For proof of the military services of Col. John Curd in the Revolutionary War see Pension Papers of Capt. George RoBards, an officer of the Revolutionary War from Virginia. In the first affidavit of Capt. George RoBards of July 9, 1832 he tells of his office as Captain. The second and supplementary affidavit of Aug. 17, 1832 he states the rank of Col. John Curd. For further information refer to Record of War Department, Commissioner of Bureau of Pensions Department of Interior, Washington, D. C.

Charles P. Curd of St. Louis, said, "I have an original deed conveying to John Curd 1650 acres of Land and signed by Patrick Henry, himself."

The following are some rather interesting references to John

"The first ferry established in the now state of Kentucky by act of the Virginia legislature, was in Oct., 1779, _____ (Only 8 other ferries were established by the state of Virginia up to 1792, when Kentucky became a state. These were, _____ in 1786, to John Curd, over the Kentucky River at the mouth of Dick's River, _____)". Collins, Richard H. History of Kentucky. Vol. 2, p. 514.

Alexander Curd of Danville, Kentucky, told Wm. B. Curd that two of the sons of John Curd—he thought William and John (names must have been confused because I do not find he had a son, William) settled in Lexington and for years ran the Curd House. A few years ago this article appeared in the Lexington Leader:

WARTIME CURRENCY

(Lexington Leader)

An interesting wartime relic was discovered a few days ago by the Security Trust Company among the effects of the late E. H. Alexander, in the form of currency issued by the Curd House in this city in 1862. The slip is about the size of the old-fashioned "shinplaster," and is a promise on the part of the hotel to pay the bearer 25 cents in "Confederated money" when presented in amounts of 5 dollars or more. The issue was made shortly after the Confederate occupation of Lexington, and was made necessary on account of the famine in small change in Lexington at that time. This paper money was issued in lieu of fractional currency in making change to the patrons of the house, and had a considerable circulation for some time in Lexington. It is supposed that other important business establishments issued similar currency at the same time, but there is no record of to what extent these little notes were issued. The note is countersigned by J. W. Cochran, a family connection of Mr. Alexander.

III JOHN CURD & LUCY BRENT

16. JOHN BRENT' CURD (John. Thomas. Joseph)

b. Nov. 23, 1760, m. his first cousin, a daughter of Capt. Edmund Curd. This John Curd lived and died in Warren or Logan County near and in Bowling Green, Ky. He is also said to have been in the Revolution. (2)

17. NEWTON4 CURD (John,3 Thomas,2 Joseph)

b. Nov. 30, 1767, d. 1822. Newton is buried about one mile s. of the Ky. River in Mercer Co., Ky., about two miles n. of Curdsville, Ky. Alexander Curd said in 1915 that he visited this grave and the stone was in good preservation. On it the date of birth is given as 1765, he says. Newton Curd was a surveyor. He settled in western Kentucky and was the founder of a little town called Curdsville on the Green River near its mouth. He married March 25, 1789, Annie Elizabeth Hatcher, b. 1761, d. 1831. In Vol. 8, Wm. & Mary College Quarterly this marriage is given as, "March 25, 1789 Newton Curd and Elizabeth Hatcher. Thomas Hatcher consents to his daughter's marriage, sec., Edmund Curd." They had six children:

11. Elizabeth H. Curd b. 1793, m. 1st Mr. West, 2nd B. L. Brad III. Sophia Weston Curd b. 1794. IV. Thomas Curd b. 1796, d. 1878, m. Patsy Cox. No issue. V. Lucy Brent Curd b. 1798, killed by lightning in 1813.

VI. William Curd b. 1800.

Benjamin S. Curd of Morley, Scott County, Missouri, in his little booklet printed in 1915 on the Curd Family says his great grandfather was Newton Curd. If so, Newton had a son, Edmund Curd. The descendants of the Edmund, supposed to have been a son of Newton, will be found with unidentified persons by the name of Curd, on pages 40-42.

See Perkins Family, page 58. The Kentucky State Historical Register, Vol. 20—No. 58, in a list of early marriages in Mercer Co., Ky., gives this marriage notice "Aug. 30, 1791 Curd, James and Mary Anne Perkins. Rice, the minister." Wm. B. Curd said "I think my grandfather, James Price Curd, is buried at Danville. I think my grandmother was a widow when she emigrated to Mo. with my father to Lewis Co., first and from there to Marion Co., settling near Palmyra. It was my understanding my grandfather died when my father, Benjamin Perkins Curd, was ten years old and that he killed a dog, tanned the hide and made the first pair of boots he had out of the tanned leather. My grandmother, I think, is buried near Palmyra on a farm that belonged to Benjamin Collins Johnson."

Alexander Curd of Danville, Ky., visited the Sparks graveyard which is about one mile north of the Kentucky River in Jessamine Co., Kentucky and he found the following information on grave stones. He said the stones were in good preservation.

Capt. William Chaplin Curd of Somerset, Ky., was Circuit Clerk of Pulaski County when the Civil War broke out, and, having espoused the cause of the South, assisted his cousin, Capt. M. B. Perkins, to raise a company in the counties of Pulaski and Wayne, of which he was First Lieutenant. Said company was Company C of the 6th Ky., Confederate Cavalry, Grigsby's regiment, under General John H. Morgan. Capt. Curd made a gallant soldier, was very popular with his comrades, was captured at Buffington, Ohio on that memorable raid, July, 1863, was confined in Camp Chase for a considerable time, and, when exchanged. returned to his command, where he remained until the close of the war. He was one of President Davis's body guard when captured at the close of the Civil War. Upon his return home he engaged in the practice of law, and was considered one of the best land lawyers in the state. He died in 1901 and was buried in Somerset, his native town.

HISTORY OF PULASKI COUNTY KENTUCKY

Alma Owens Tibbals

To Francis Marion Cox were born: Mary; Pamelia Catherine (Mrs. T. A. Hendricks); Joseph Porter; Bettie (Mrs. James Boling); Clay Hughes; Martha Frances (Mrs. L. C. Rice); Lula Neil; and James Zachary Cox. To Joseph Porter and Dora King Cox were born Ann Elizabeth Cox (Mrs. Richard Jenkins); and Josephine Cox (Mrs. Lloyd Crutchlow).

CRAWFORD, KEENE, GRAGG, GIBSON FAMILIES

John B. Curd was born near Glasgow, Barren County, in 1802. He was a merchant and hotel keeper most of his life, but at the time of his death, August, 1850, he was cashier of the Farmer's Bank. He was the son of Daniel and Fannie Trigg Curd. Daniel's parents were John and Lucy Brent Curd, who immigrated to Kentucky before it was a state and settled on the Kentucky River at the mouth of Dick's River.

John B. Curd married Helen M., the daughter of William and Elizabeth Perkins Chaplin of Warren County. Mrs. Curd lived to a great age and died at her home on North Main Street.

Their children were: Elizabeth, married John Crawford; Sallie, married Major A. T. Keene; Mattie, married John B. Gragg; and William C., married Belle O. Saunders.

The children of Elizabeth and John Crawford were: Brent, married —— Kendrick, lived in Wayne County; Mary Helen, married Henry Gibson, lived in Somerset; Elizabeth, married —— Whinnery, lived in New Jersey; Flora, unmarried; and Andrew J., married Katherine Stokes of Louisville.

William Chaplin Curd, son of John B. and Helen Chaplin Curd, was born August 3, 1836. He received a good common school education. He was deputy county and circuit court clerk in 1851-52 in Danville and later a member of a business firm in Louisville. Returning to Somerset, he served as deputy circuit court clerk until 1862, when he enlisted in the Confederate Army, Company C, Sixth Kentucky Regiment under command of Colonel Grigsby and Captain M. B. Perkins of General John Hunt Morgan's Command.

He served until the close of the Civil War, surrendering near Washington, Georgia, the day before the capture of President Jefferson Davis. He was one of the capture of President Davis and General John C. Breckingling from Charlotte, North Carolina, to Washington, Georgia.

At the close of the Civil War he returned to Somerset and read law with A. J. James and Colonel William Fox. He was admitted to the bar in 1867.

He served as county attorney and master commissioner for many years.

Mr. Curd married Belle O. Saunders, the daughter of G. W. and Jane Long Saunders, December 23, 1869.

DENTON

Dudley H. Denton came to Somerset from Garrard County, where he was born April 14, 1814. His wife was Nancy McKee, member of one of Garrard's pioneer families. He was elected county attorney for Pulaski three times and county judge of Pulaski in 1856. He organized a company in the Third Kentucky Federal Infantry of which he was captain.

His father was Henry Denton, son of John Denton, one of Daniel Boone's associates.

The children of Dudley H. Denton and Nancy McKee Denton were: Alec, married ——; Henry, married Sallie Elliot; James, married Anna Fox Goggin; Gertrude, unmarried; and Lincoln, married Emma Tate.

James was prominent politically in Pulaski for many years. He received his education in the common schools and the old Masonic College. He taught school at the age of sixteen, read law with his father, and was admitted to the bar in 1879. He was appointed a United States commissioner in 1885 and was elected to the legislature. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church where he served as teacher of the men's Bible class, superintendent of the Sunday school, deacon, and elder until his death, August, 1936.

ELLIOT

Samuel Elliot was born in 1745 on the eastern shore of Maryland and died in Kentucky, 1825. His father came to America from Ireland.

WILLIAM J. KENDRICK, SR.

June 13, 1889

Born in Washington County, Virginia, October 13, 1804, died in Wayne County, Kentucky, June 10, 1889. Such is the record upon the tablets of "Old Mortality", of the beginning and end of the earthly career of one of the most remarkable men who ever figured in the annals of our county.

About the year 1822, when about eighteen years of age, with but a limited education, no capital but his native talents and strong right arm, and no guarantee of success but his indomitable will, energy, and habits of industry, he came to this, then, newly settled part of Kentucky to seek his fortune.

The first business in which he was engaged was as a clerk in the store of Ambrose Bramlette in Clinton County, where he remained about two years, when he was recalled to Virginia by the death of his stepfather. He remained in Virginia for three years, taking care of his mother and other members of the family, and managing the farm. He came to Wayne County about the year 1828, and resided near Monticello from that time until his death, a period of more than three score years. The first business in which he engaged, after returning to Kentucky, was making rails on the present John E. Oatts and Brothers farm at 25 cents per hundred, and working on the farm eight months for $40, after which he carried on a blacksmith shop in which he for some time labored at the bellows and wielded the sledge. He was afterwards engaged as clerk in the store of his uncles William and Samule Summers, in Monticello, Kentucky.

He was twice married, first about 1836 to Miss Catherine Buster, daughter of General Joshua Buster, and second, about 1851 to Mrs. Abbie Rachael Coffey, widow of Cullom Coffey. He had six children by his first wise and five by his last.

Somewhere in the thirties, in partnership with Granville Cecil, he embarked in merchandising. The firm of Cecil and Kendrick did a large and prosperous business in merchandise and extended its operations to trading largely in cattle and other farm stock, which they marketed in Virginia and the cotton states at a large profit, up to the dissolution of the firm in 1847, when Cecil removed to Boyle County.

In the meantime, Mr. Kendrick had bought the Albert Epperson and Charles Mills farms which he united into one and farmed and raised stock on a large scale on his own account.

After the dissolution of the firm of Cecil and Kendrick he continued merchandising on his own account until the outbreak of the war. On the organization of the branch of the Commercial Bank of Kentucky at Monticello, he took stock in it to a considerable amount and was its president during its continuance in business. During the fifties and after the war in the sixties, and for some time in the seventies, he turned his attention to the investment of his means into land. He also made considerable investments in Government and County and City bonds. On the organization of the National Bank of Monticello, he took a large amount of stock in it and was its president from its organization to 1877 when it went into liquidation. During part of 1877 and 1878, he carried on a private bank, under the style of Kendrick, Sallee & Company. He was the founder of the Kendrick Institution and its largest stockholder, and president from its institution in 1866 to the time it was unfortunately burned in 1872. He was the largest stockholder and for many years the president of the Monticello and Burnside Turnpike Company, and subsequently its treasurer to time of his death. Besides an active participation in all these things, though far advanced in years, he personally superintended extensive farming operations on several large farms, even down to the smallest details.

Possessed of a powerful frame and vigorous constitution, unimpaired almost to the last, he seemed to go everywhere and to attend to everything on his extensive possessions that required attention. His capacity for business during at least fifty years of his life among us was truly wonderful. During that time he transacted more business, it is safe to say, than any other ten men that ever lived in the county during the same time. His sound judgment and sagacity in business was proverbial, and while connected with a vast amount of business affairs of his own, he was consulted by nearly all the citizens of the county on embarking in, or conducting enterprises of their own.

He was a man of the strictest integrity in all his dealings with his fellow men, and his long and honorable career found its just reward, not only in the accumulation of a considerable fortune, but in securing for himself the most implicit and abiding confidence and esteem of all who knew him.

No man who ever lived in the county dispensed charity more liberally or with less ostentation. Besides that, he was ever the helper of poor young men struggling for a start in life. In addition to lending a helping hand to hundreds who needed help in business; he furnished money to more than a score of young men to aid them in qualifying themselves for professions, never asking security and trusting to their honor and his judgment of their merits and prospects of successful repayment. He has often remarked with gratification that he was never deceived in any of them, or never lost anything in helping them, except perhaps a very trivial balance that one or two of them failed to pay, owing to misfortune, and for which he attached no blame.

Some years ago, he attached himself to the Christian Church, since which he has lived and died an exemplary and consistent member of that fold. His many good traits and deeds would fill a volume, but circumstances prevent a more extended notive at this time. "Taken all in all, we shall never see his like again." -- The Monticello Signal --.

Smith's History of Kentucky says, "To the County of Wayne belongs the honor of having been the first county in the state to adopt the entire system." And this was largely due to the efforts of Micajah Phillips, Secretary of the Commissioners, who has been called the "Father of the Common School System of Wayne" by Prof. Harry Young. The first county school superintendent was Robert McBeath, member of a family noted for their intellectual qualities.

Interest in education was of necessity abated during the Civil War, but in 1866 William Kendrick who had become prosperous and was interested in the education of his large family, erected a good building and Milton Elliot was brought to Monticello and made principal. This was known as Kendrick Academy and until the building burned in 1872, ranked with the best academies.

Messrs. Cecil and Kendrick had a prosperous mercantile business by 1830. Merchandise of all kinds was hauled by wagon from the Louisville wholesale houses. The Cecil of the firm was Granville Cecil who moved to Boyle County and amassed a fortune. The Kendrick was William, affectionately known as "Uncle Billy," who died in Wayne leaving a vast landed estate.

Page 175

In the 60's and 70's, Monticello was a village of 300 inhabitants. There were more families of distinction in proportion to population than any other town in the state. These families produced men of exceptional qualities. In addition to the numerous descendants of Joshua Jones, that fine old pioneer, the Cecil, Kendrick, Phillips, Saufley, Chrisman, Buster, Cullom, Van Winkle, Tuttle, Stone, Huffaker, Ingram, Cooper, and other families already named, produced some distinguished men. Here was no crude frontier life, but an urbanity surprising to outsiders.

Just after the Civil War, a branch of the Commercial Bank of Kentucky was organized at Monticello through the efforts of William Kendrick. It was superseded by the National Bank of Monticello with M. S. Wilhite cashier. This continued from 1872 to 1877. After this, Mr. Kendrick operated a private bank for a short time.

Dear Madam:

I must inform you that I have just arrived home from the old historic town of Greensburg and find your letter of November the 14th enclosing a check for two dollars for the "Hayden letter." I am sorry to part with such relics as old letters, yet as Mr. Hayden was your Grandfather I feel sure you will keep it in a safe place.

Some years ago, was in Mount Sterling and found an old letter written by Joshua Buster to Eld. Raccoon John Smith describing his visit to Danville in 1837 to hear Alexander Campbell preach, who was at that time making a preaching tour over Kentucky. He preached a sermon in Nicholasville at that period and went on to Danville where he was met by more than five thousand people who heard him preach on the subject of "Christian Union Upon the Bible Alone". Your Grandfather Buster rode on horseback from Monticello to Danville to hear Mr. Campbell and his letter to John Smith speaks of Mr. Campbell as one of the greatest preachers he ever heard.

I have no collections of relics at home. I never married, and travel very often in the interest of the Filson Club. Your Father, Granville Cecil, was born in Montgomery County, In Southwestern Virginia about the year 1807 or 8. Mr. Kendrick was a native of Washington County, Virginia and came to Wayne County about the year 1829. He was a very remarkable man and if his lot had been cast among such a money-getting people as the Yankees, he would have been a millionaire. I knew your father personally. I also knew Mr. Kendrick. I never could tell which was the smartest. Your father was quicker to jump to a conclusion than Kendrick, yet he seldom was wrong in his judgment.

Monticello, when I first visited the place in 1848, had as many remarkable lawyers in it as any town I ever visited. There were some extraordinary men in the little town. Littleton Beard, J. S. Chrisman, Ephraim L. Van Winkle, also John S., were all able men. But these men about the little town attracted my attention in those days more than all the lawyers in the place; Eld Wm. Simpson, Joshua Buster, and Dr. Jonathan Frisbie. I have often thought about these men. Frisbie was born in Connecticut, came to Wayne County in 1819, died 1860, but I have no time to say more. Present my regards to Judge Cantrill.

THE BRENT FAMILY LINEAGE

Genealogy of the Branch of the Brent Family Known as the "Lancaster Brents".

Hugh Brent, 1st. of Lancaster Co., Va. Certificate granted to him February 6, 1654, for 250 acres of land in said county for importation of himself and four other persons into the colony. Together with Eppy Bouison, he patented 400 acres on Fleet's Bay in that county, November 24, 1657. The following patents are also of record:

(1) To Hugh Brent, 200 acres, March 18, 1662, on Fleet's Bay, Lancaster Co. (2) To same, 100 acres, July 10, 1663, at mouth of Rappahannock River on Fleet's Bay. (3) To same and Toby Horton, 200 acres, September 8, 1662 in Lancaster Co., makes a deed with his wife, Katherine, to land in said county July 20, 1685. Will dated January 18, 1671, --probate of will granted to his son, Hugh Brent and daughters, Joanna, Elizabeth, and Martha Brent: and to Thos. Haynes and Fortunatu Sydnor power is given with regard to management of said children, (The maiden name of Katherine Brent is not known).

Hugh Brent, 2nd. of Lancaster Co., Va. There was a bond executed to this Hugh by his father February 12, 1704. He himself executed a deed to his daughter, Mary Brent, September 12, 1710. And the inventory of his estate is recorded Oct 25, 1713, he evidently having died intestate (?). After his death, his son Hugh, who is described as the "son and heir of Hugh Brent, deceased" executes a deed to Whilliam Brent, a second son of said Hugh Brent, deceased. This was June 8, 1719. The name of his wife does not appear. He was Justice of the Peace in 1706.

Hugh Brent, 3rd. of Lancaster Co., Va. Makes a deed to his children, William, Hugh, John, Katherine, and Elizabeth Brent on September 13. 1726. Name of wife and time of death is not known.

Hugh Brent, 4th. of Lancaster Co., Va. conveys land to his son, James Brent, and Catherine Brent, wife of said James, and their children November 8, 1739. His will dated October 26, 1748, probated May 11, 1750 is of record in Lancaster Co. In it he mentions sons, James and William, grandaughter, Mary, the daughter of deceased son William, son Hugh, Nicholas, Maurice, Richard, George, and Annie; wife Elizabeth. There was a division of the estate among the widow and children in August 1755. This Hugh was sheriff of Lancaster in 1743.

of Lancaster Co., Va. Will dated April 19th and probated May 11, 1750. (His Father's will above mentioned was dated before the death of James, but both were probated the same day. Both may have been killed at the same time.) On July 26, 1727, James took out a license to wed Catherine Newton. (This name has been written Martin, but from the family names Newton seems to be correct.) She died in 1760-61. Her will is dated September 6, 1760; probated February 20, 1761. In it she mentions her son, Hugh, Mr. Anthony Kirk and my daughter, "Sarah", his wife, Mr. Wm. Stamps, and my daughter, "Elenor", his wife, daughter Behsathland, Mr. Jno. Curd and my daughter, "Lucy", his wife; and sons, John, Willoughby, and Stockley (Stackley) Brent. Her friends, Baldwin Smith and Stockley Towhc, are named as executtors. (Note James Brent in his will did not mention his children by name, but did mention wife "Catherine and children").

Lucy Brent

of Lancaster Co., Va. Was licensed to marry John Curd, April 7, 1758.

Daniel Curd

Born October 14, 1774 in Albermale Co., Va. Removed with parents, John and Lucy Brent Curd, to Kentucky before it became a state. They settled on the Kentucky River at the mouth of Dick's River (now in Garrard Co.). He finally located in Barren Co., Ky. He was a surveyor. Married Fanny S. Trigg, who was born January 28, 1785. Their children were Haiden, Brent, Price, Daniel, Patty, Lucy, Eliza, and Mary.

Haiden	married	Edmunds.
Brent	11	Helen Chaplin Daughter Elizabeth married
Price	11	Letitia Mosby. John Crawford
Daniel	11	Maria Stark.
Patty	11	Schuyler Murrell.
Lucy	11	Woodford Martin.
Eliza	11	John Snoddy, Daughter Lucy Married Joseph Altsheler.
Mary	11	Frank Dickey.

Hugh Brent was from this county of Kent, in England, where part of the family was long settled. As far back as the reign of Edward IV, there was a Hugh Brent living there, who founded a belfry in the church at Charning, and whose arms were engraved in stone on the outside of the belfry with the badge of Edward. "From the time of Henry VI., the family Brent, being branched out of the ancient stock of Brent in Somersetshire (of which hourse Sir Robert de Brent was a baron of the Parliament in the time of Edward I), flourished as the prime name of this parish until Thomas Brent, the last make of the line, did remove to Willisborough, where he died issueless" (Weavers "Funeral Inscriptions").

The coat of arms to which we are entitled and which was used by the family of Kent is the same as the one carved in the stone belfry in the reign of the Fourth Edward, and was also used by the older branch of Somerset.

(Each step in the chain is verified by references to original deeds, wills, land patents, etc. These (except the patents which are at Richmond, Va.) are all on record at Lancaster C.H.)., in Lancaster Co., Va. and Glasgow, Barren Co., Kentucky.

Located a body of land on the waters of the Dix River, in what is now Garrard Co., Ky. On his return to Va., the Revolutionary War had broken out, in which he enlisted, and was Commissioned as Captain of his Co., by General Warren, on May 19th 1775. At the close of the war in 1785, he came back to Ky. brought some Slaves, and a lot of stock, erected some cabins and cleared some land, on the tract which he located on his first trip to Ky. He then returned to Va., leaving his Slaves in charge of Stephen Curd, a Nephew of his wife. The next spring he brought his family, consisting of Wife, and some eight or ten children, and some other Slaves, and settled on the place where he remained until his death which occured in November 1815.
- (10th) This the tenth Generation embraces all the Children of B. H. P. and Mary Curd Perkins, who were ten in Number, as follows. (1st) Sarah married Havilla Crump; (2nd) Mary Married Jas. P. Curd; (3rd) Elizabeth Married William Chaplin; (4th) Fannie married John Bowman; (5th) Nancy Married William Akin; (6th) Benjamin H., married Isabelle Caldwell; (7th) Edmund C. married Sarah Bowman; (8th) Stephen L. married Ann Collins; (9th) Nicholas, and (10th) Joseph, were neither ever married, at least, I have no account of either of them having ever married.

- (11th) Helen Chaplin, daughter of William Chaplin and Elizabeth Perkins married John Brent Curd, born 1802, in Glasgow, Kentucky, and died 1 Jan 1853 in Somerset, Kentucky.
- (12th) Elizabeth Curd, born 19 October 1831, Somerset, Kentucky, married on 30 May 1849 to John Crawford, born 1824 and died in 1861, in Somerset, Ky.
- (13th) John Brent Crawford, born 25 July 1852, died 22 December 1924, was married on 7 February 1878 to Julia Kendrick, born 22 March 1858, died 17 August 1942 at Monticello, Kentucky.
- (14th) John Whinery Crawford, born 3 February 1884, died 11 June 1957, married on 18 May 1916 to Mary Kathrine Dugan, born 15 May 1893 in Louisville, Kentucky, and died 3 June 1970 in Marrero, Louisiana, buried in Monticello, Ky.

Nicholas Perkins was the man who captured Aaron Burr, in 1807, upon the charges of having committed Treason., carried him in his gig to Richmond, Va. where he turned him over to the authorities. He was tried but acquitted of the charge.

Joseph Perkins was in the French and Indian War, was captured, confined at Fort Duquesne, would no doubt have been shot, but for a Masonic emblem which he wore. He then enlisted in the war of 1812, was Captain of Artillery, and in the Battle of New Orleans, his shot gave out, but he proceeded to break up his cooking utensils (pots & skillets) into slugs, and used them to good advantage. Some claim that it turned the tide of battle.

After the war of 1812, he came back to Kentucky, but only for a short stay, being of a rambling disposition, soon went West again, and probably located either in western Louisiana, or Texas, and I have no further account of him.

John, Robert, and Martin, soms of Aden of the 2nd generation, came to America in 1630 to 1633. John, the eldest, came in 1630, and settled near Boston, Mass. His brothers, Robert and Martin, came a year or two later and settled in Maryland, and their descendants are now scattered from Portland Maine to the Pacific Ocean. I have a pretty good genealogy of that branch of the family, obtained from David Page Perkins of Portland, Maine, and Nathaniel Perkins of Boston, Mass., but the relationship is so distant that I hardly think it worth mentioning in connection with our branch of the Family.

Benjamin Hughes Perkins, son of Stephen Perkins, born in Va., in 1730, and whose wife was Mary Curd, Daughter of Capt. Edmund Curd, first came to Kentucky in 1774, with a party of Surveyers, located a body of land on the waters of the Dix River, about one mile from its mouth, in what is now Garrard Co., Ky. On his return to Va., the Revolutionary War had broken out, in which he enlisted, and did not return to Kentucky until the close of that war.

In 1785, he came back to Kentucky by way of Cumberland Gap, and brought his slaves, some fifteen in number, also some stock, consisting of horses and cattle, and a young man by the name of Stephen Curd.

On his arrival in Kentucky, he proceeded to erect some cabins, and clear some land, on the place he located in 1774, after which he returned to Va., leaving his slaves and stock in the care of young Curd.

The next Spring, 1786, he brought his Family, consisting of Wife and ten children to Kentucky by way of the Ohio River, landing near where Maysville now is, then across the country to where he left his slaves the Fall before.

Pretty soon after coming to Kentucky, he erected a mill, also a distilery on Dix River, which were probably the first ever erected on Dix Rover, or in the County of Garrard.

His slaves consisted of two Families, Cato, whose wife was named Franky, and Sam, whose wife was named Sophy. Each family, besides the Parents, consisted of five or six children. The descendants of these Negroes are still living in and around Harrodsburg, and Danville, but the descendants of their Master have scattered to the four winds, never again to be assembled until the Judgement Day.

The Young Man, Stephen Curd, who came to Kentucky with Capt Perkins in 1775 married and settled just across Dix River in Mercer Co., raised quite a family, and established a small town, known as Curdsville. Quite a number of Curds still reside in that neighborhood.

The children of B.H. Perkins, were 10 in number, 5 girls and 5 sons, viz.

- (1) Mary, Married Jas. P. Curd Moved to Missouri. There lived and died.
- (2) Sarah Married Havilla Crump
- (3) Betsy married Wm Chaplin Lived and died in Somerset, Ky.
- (4) Fannie married John Bowman Lived and died in Mercer County, Ky.
- (5) B.H. Perkins married Isabelle Caldwell Lived and died in Danville, Ky.
- (6) E. C. Perkins married Sarah Bowman Lived and died in Garrard Co., Ky.
- (7) Stephen L. Perkins married Ann Collins Lived and died in Franklin Co., Ky.
- (8) Nicholas Perkins Never Married Lived in Frankfort, no account of death.
- (9) Joseph Perkins Never Married No account of death.
- (10) Nancy W. married Wm Akin Lived and died in Danville, Ky.

Benjamin Hughes Perkins, died in Nov 1815m and was buried in the garden at his home, where he had lived since he came to Kentucky in 1786.

Mary Curd Perkins, died in 1817 and is buried by the side of her husband.

Benjamin H. Perkins' Will, dated December 11, 1808, is recorded in 'Will Book D' on page 261, in Co. Clerk Office, Lancaster, Garrard Co., Ky. and although the Will is dated December 1808, the estate was not administered on until Dec., 1815, which is conclusive evidence that he did not die until just before that time.

The estate of his wife, Mary Curd Perkins, was administered on in December 1817, which is evidence that she outlined him about two years.

EDMUND CURD PERKINS, Son of Benjamin Hughes and Mary Curd Perkins, born in Rockbridge Co., Va., Aug 15, 1773, came to Kentucky with his parents in 1786, was then 13 years old, Married Sarah Bowman, a daughter of Jacob and Sarah Bowman, in Garrard Co., Ky. on December the 9th, 1802. Devoted his entire life to milling and distilling, would take his whisky either in Keel or Flat Boats, to St. Louis, Missouri, where he would dispose of it, and then walk back to Kentucky. Finally lost his life by drowning in Dix River, on March the 28th, 1830

His wife, Sarah Bowman Perkins, was born in South Carolina, Mar 17, 1774, Died in Garrard Co., Ky., Feb 25, 1844.

The children of Edmund & Sarah B. Perkins, were six in number, viz:

MILTON BOWMAN PERKINS, oldest son, born Nov 16, 1803. Married Mary A. Stigall, Apr 11, 1826, who lived but a short time. He then on Jan 8, 1829 married Ann Stigall, a cousin of his first wife, and by whom he had two children, viz., Barthena Jane, and Milton Brent Perkins.

Milton Bowman Perkins lost his life by drowning in Snake River Oregon in 1865. His wife Ann Stigall Perkins, lived all of her life in Somerset, Ky. Died and was buried there.

JOHN STEVEN PERKINS, second son, born July 21, 1805 married Louisa B. Bridgewell, November 31st., 1831. Spent his whole life steamboating on the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers and died in Louisville, Ky., Feb 11, 1836. His wife Louisa B. Perkins, died in Palmyra Mo., July 23, 1892. They had but one child, a daughter, Sarah Stevens Perkins, who married William Lee, and she is still living in Palmyra, Mo.

Orpah H. PERKINS, oldest daughter, born Oct 9, 1806, married Williamson Burnside, December 11, 1828, Died Oct 21, 1838. Her husband Williamson Burnside born Nov 22, 1802, died Jan 25, 1873.

They had only two children, vix., Isabelle Hughes Burnside, who married William Dunn, and Joseph Perkins Burnside, who never married.

JOSEPH DOWNING PERKINS, third son, born Apr 13, 1808, married Mary E. Thomas, January 31, 1831. Died May 24, 1872. His wife, Mary E. Perkins, born Jan 25, 1815, died Jun 24, 1890. Both died and are buried in Cottage Grove, Oregon. Their Children, Edmund Pengleton; John Bowman; Hardin Zazon; Sarah Ellen; William Burnside; Joseph Downing; and Pamela C.

PAMELA H. PERKINS, second daughter, born March 10, 1810, married Whitaker H. Campbell, Feb 14, 1828, died May 16, 1888. Her husband, Whitaker H. Campbell, was born July 7, 1805, and died December 29, 1889.

Their children were: Elizabeth, married Hyram Barkley; Orpah married Thomas Vanmeeter; Elias H. Married Ella Robinson; John L: never married; James W. married Sallie Robinson; Benjamin P. married Love Rowell; Hyram B. married Nannie D. Burnside; Louisa B. died in childhood.

HARDIN ZAZON PERKINS, the 4th son and youngest child, born Dec 10, 1811, married Harriet D. Thomas, April 16, 1839, Died Nov 24, 1884.

Harriet D. Perkins, born Feb 22, 1819, died Aug 29, 1883. Their children are: Benjamin Hughes; George Bowman; Mary Dunklin, and Pamela Campbell Perkins.

Hardin E. Perkins, lived all his life and died on a farm within two miles of where he was born, in Garrard Co., Ky.

OBITUARY JOHN CRAWFORD 1824 - 1861

DIED at his residence, near Somerset, Ky., on the 11th of September, 1861, John Crawford, aged about 37 years.

The subject of this notice had been threatened with pulmonary disease for the last eighteen months. He was, however, apparently in good health up to the middle of last month, when he was attacked by a fever, which soon prostrated him, and although his physicians and friends flattered themselves that a light attack of pneumonia was the cause of his sickness, which would soon pass away, he himself was conscious it would prove fatal to him. He suffered twenty-five days, and when the time of his departure to another world arrived, he met the dread change with calmness and repose.

A wife, five children, a father, a sister, and other relatives, will suffer most severely this afflicting dispensation. A large circle of warm and devoted friends will mingle tears with the family of the deceased.

At the time of his death, he was Clerk of the Circuit Court for the County of Pulaski, which place he had filled, by successive elections, since 1851. No officer was ever more true to his duty, or filled a place with more universal satisfaction to those for whom he acted. He was successful as a business man, and had laid the foundation for the competence for his family. But whatever may have been his success in business, the love and attachment of the large circle of friends and acquaintances which surrounded him was the chief characteristic of his career in life.

He was the pride of devoted parents, one of whom, his father, survives to mourn his loss. As a husband he was most affectionate, kind and devoted. As a father, he was all that a father should be or a child could wish. The love and affection that bound up his family circle can only be known and felt by those who witnessed it in his daily intercourse with them. He was a father to the fatherless, and the friend and protector of widows and orphans.

He was public-spirited in an eminent degree, and fulfilled his duties to society in all his relations. Having himself struggled through adversity in early life, he was ever ready to hold out a kind and helping hand to youthful merit.

True to his friendships, kind and affable in his demeanor, having an active, discriminating intellect, the whole man appeared to be intent on doing good. In the zenith of life, how untimely to be cut down! But wise are the inscrutable ways of Providence. The mournful winds or departing summer are rendered doubly sad by the death of such a friend, husband, son and father.

Barren County File #1

IN MEMORIAM OF DANIEL CURD

14 October 1773 - 18 April 1843

He was born October 14th, 1773, in Albemarle County, Va. His father, John Curd, emigrated to Kentucky before it was a state and settled on the Kentucky River at the mouth of Dick's River. In 1786, the legislature of Virginia, by an act of the General Assembly, granted to him a right or privilege of a Ferry Accross the Kentucky River at the mouth of Dick's River. (It was one of the 8 ferries established in Kentucky by Virginia before Kentucky was a state.) This allowed the grantee to charge three shillings for crossing a man from one side to the other, and the same for a horse. These were the emoluments allowed to the keeper, his heirs and assignees, so long as he or they should keep the ferry according to the directions of the Act.

John Curd, the father of Daniel, married Lucy Brent, in Virginia, before he moved to Kentucky. Young Daniel was a small boy when he, with his father's family, reached their new home on the banks of the Kentucky River. All was new to him. All the luxuries of life had been given up by his parents. They had a few slaves and horses and not much else, save strong wills, honest hearts and minds capable of meeting every trial and emergency and enduring the vicissitudes of a wilderness life.

He received but a limited education though as good as the country afforded and he saw much of practical surveying. He was quick and anxious to learn and was taught to depend upon his own exertions. His mother, as well as his father, was sensible and their example was followed, their advice received and acted upon without hesitation, consequently he grew up a self-reliant man.

When still a young man, he went to Bowling Green and entered into the office of Wm. Chapline, Clerk of the Warren Circuit and County Courts. He remained with Mr. Chapline until this county was established. He was present at its organization, was a candidate for Surveyor and was elected. He held the office, giving general satisfaction until his death on April 18, 1843.

While in Warren he was greatly encouraged and assisted in learning to survey by Joab Watson, Samuel B. Coker, ______ Tyson, and "Long Legged" Swanson, surveyors of much note in that day.

Soon after his election, he married Fanny S. Trigg, daughter of Haiden Trigg, Esq., one of the first Justices of the Peace of Barren County. She was born in Bedford County, Va. They were married by the Rev. John Howe.

He was a remarkable man in every respect. He possessed untiring industry, and was as brave as he was forgiving. He was liberal to a fault, he never deserted a friend, and the poor and hungry never once left his door without their wants having been relieved.

Being a surveyor of the county, he soon knew nearly all the vacant land, and had it in his power to appropriate the finest and best for himself. Instead of doing so, he would go to a friend and insist on his taking it up for his own use.

Upon being advised to take up the lands for his children, his answer was: "If they are of any account, they will have enough; if they are not, they will have too much." He knew not selfishness; he was perfectly self-disinterested. He was hospitable, kind, generous and honest in all things.

A few years before his death, he united himself with the Methodist Church, lived a quiet and good member and died in the faith.

Notwithstanding, he was born and lived on a farm nearly all his life, he was not a farmer. After his marriage, he always lived on and worked a farm. He had a trusted colored servant, Powell, who was his main manager. Some yet living, besides Mr. Curd's children, can bear witness to Powell's faithful character in all relations.

Mrs. Curd survived her husband many years, instilling in her children industrious and honest habits. They had nine children. The oldest, John Brent Curd, who married Helen Chaplin, was a merchant and after his marriage lived in Somerset, Kentucky until his death. He left several children.

Haiden Trigg Curd, who married Martha Edmonds, daughter of William Edmonds Esq. of Barren County, was a merchant of Glasgow; afterwards removed to Louisville, Kentucky, where he was with others for many years a wholesale drygoods merchant. Afterwards—a wholesale grocer until his death in 1859. He was respected and esteemed by all who knew him. His wife survived him a few years. They left a number of children.

Another son, Alanson Trigg Curd, died soon after he reached his manhood. He was a very promising young man and if life had spared him, he would no doubt have added much to the honor of his family, and to his profession of a merchant. He never married.

Another of his sons, Havilah Price Curd, is still living with us. He married Letitia L. Mosby, daughter of Thomas Mosby.

Another, Daniel B. Curd, is also living with us. He married Maria Stark, daughter of Theopulus Stark, of Barren County.

The last two named, better known as Price and Brud Curd, are merchants at Cave City. Their honest character as citizens and merchants cannot be enhanced by anything we can say.

His daughter (Daniel's), Patsey, married Schuyler H. Murrell. They are both dead -- they left children.

Lucy Curd married Woodford Martin. They are both dead. They left several children.

Eliza married John Snoddy. He is now dead.

Mary married Benjamin Franklin Dickey.

Captain John Curd received a military pay warrant on January 3, 1780, for his company of Goochland County Militia for guarding the barracks in Albemarle County, Virginia.

Auditor's Department. Account Book III, 1779-1780, p. 264.

"It was enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia, That all that tract of land situate, lying, and being on the waters of the Ohio and Green rivers, bounded as follows, to wit: Beginning at the mouth of Green river; thence running up the same twelve and a half miles when reduced to a straight line; thence running at right angles with the said reduced lines twelve and a half miles on each side the said river; thence running lines from the termination of the line extended on each side the said Green river, at right angles with the same, till the said lines intersect the Ohio, which said Ohio shall be the western boundary of the said tract—be, and the same is hereby granted the said Richard Henderson and Company, and their heirs, as tenants in common; subject to the payment of the same taxes as other lands in this commonwealth are, but under such limitation of time, as to the settling the said lands, as shall be hereafter directed by the General Assembly.

"But this grant shall, and it is hereby declared to, be in full compensation to the said Richard Henderson and Company and their heirs, for their charge and trouble, and for all advantage accruing therefrom to this commonwealth; and they are hereby excluded from any further claim to lands, on account of any settlement or improvements heretofore made by them, or any of them, on the lands so as aforesaid purchased from the Cherokee Indians."*

The First Ferry established in the now state of Kentucky by act of the Virginia legislature, was in Oct., 1779, "at the town of Boonesborough, in the county of Kentucky, across Kentucky river, to the land on the opposite shore—the price for a man three shillings [50 cents], and for a horse the same; the keeping of which ferry, and emoluments arising therefrom, are hereby given and granted to Richard Callaway, his heirs or assigns, so long as he or they shall well and faithfully keep the same according to the directions of this act." [Only 8 other ferries were established by the state of Virginia, up to 1792, when Kentucky became a state. These were, in 1785, across the Kentucky river, to James Hogan, at the mouth of Hickman's creek in now Jessamine co; to David Crews, at the mouth of Jack's creek in now Madison co; to Wm. Steele, at Stone Lick; and two over the Ohio river to John Campbell, one each to the mouths of Silver creek and Mill run; in 1786, to John Curd, over the Kentucky river at the mouth of Dick's river, and one to James Wilkinson, at Frankfort; and in 1791, to Joseph Martin, across Cumberland river.]

Boonesborough, "on the Kentucky river, in the county of Kentucky," was "established a town, for the reception of traders," by act of the Virginia legislature in Oct., 1779—in accordance with the petition of the inhabitants. Twenty acres had already been laid off into lots and streets, 50 more were directed to be so laid off, and the balance of 640 acres (570 more) were to be laid off for "a common." Lots were "to be conveyed to the persons first making application—subject to the condition of building within three years on each lot a dwelling-house at least 16 feet square, with a brick, stone, or dirt chimney." Richard Callaway, Chas. Minn Thruston, Levin Powell, Edmund Taylor, James Estre [mistake for Estill], Edward Bradley, John Kennedy, David Gist [mistake for Gass], Pemberton Rollins, and Daniel Boone, gentlemen, were appointed trustees, but refused to act; and by "an act to explain and amend," in 1787, Thos. Kennedy, Aaron Lewis, Robert Rodes, Green Clay, Archibald Woods, Benj. Bedford, John Sappington, Wm. Irvine, David Grews, and Higgsson Grubbs. gentlemen, were made the trustees

The following sketch of the Town Plat of Boonesborough is taken from a copy of the original, which copy was kindly loaned for this purpose by John Stevens, who now owns as a beautiful farm nearly all the 640 acres embraced in this plat. The original was probably worn out or destroyed more than 80 years ago—about which time this copy was taken. Mr. Stevens' residence is on Lot No. 51. Spring street is named after one of the three fine springs which caused the selection of the spot originally as a fort; the spring is on the river bank at the foot of the street—where there was, and still is, a ford in low water. The other two springs, one of them a sulphur spring, are near A on the Lick Commons. The Elm

The First Public Ferries established by special law, in Kentucky, were the following-all established by the legislature of Virginia:

1. At the town of Boonesborough, in the county of Kentucky, across Kentucky river, in Oct., 1779—the keeping of which and emoluments therefrom were granted to Col. Richard Callaway, his heirs or assigns, so long as they should well and faithfully keep the same.

2. In 1785, across the Kentucky river, at the mouth of Hickman's creek-

James Hogan's.

3. Across the same, at the mouth of Jack's creek—David Crews'—in 1785.

4. Across the same, at Stone Lick-from the land of Wm. Steele, in Favette county, to that of John Craig, in Lincoln county—in 1785.

5. Two ferries across the Ohio river, from the lands of Col. John Campbell, in Jefferson county—one to the mouth of Silver creek, and the other to the mouth of Mill run—in 1785.

6. In 1786, across the Kentucky river, from the lands of Gen. James Wilkinson, in the town of Frankfort.

7. In 1786, across the same, on the lands of John Curd, at the mouth of Dick's river; a town was established, called New-Market.

8. In 1791, across Cumberland river, from the land of Joseph Martin to that of Wm. Hord.

9. By the legislature of Kentucky, on Dec. 22, 1798, across the Kentucky river, at the rope-walks, one mile above Frankfort—from the lands of Elijah Craig, and called East Frankfort.

RIVER NAVIGATION.

The first act passed by the Kentucky legislature in reference to watercourses was that of Dec. 15, 1792, making a penalty of $2 for each 24 hours any obstruction was continued to the passage of fish or boats in any navigable stream-except said obstruction were a dam for the purpose of working a water grist-mill or other water-works of public utility, in conformity with the old law of Virginia.

By the second act, that of Dec. 19, 1793, commissioners were appointed to raise-by subscriptions of money, labor, or property-a fund for clearing and opening the navigation of the South fork of Licking, from its mouth (at Falmouth) to the junction of Hinkston, and Stoner, and also that of Stoner's fork, as high as the mouth of Strode's creek. On the latter stream, the mills or mill-dams then erected should not be removed or pulled down; but the owners thereof should, by Dec., 1801, build sufficient locks and slopes for the passage of all boats that may navigate the said forks. By two subsequent amended acts, the latest being Dec. 18, 1798, the first lottery in aid of river navigation was authorized.

By act of Dec. 12, 1794, the mills and fish-dams and other obstructions in main Licking river and Slate creek were ordered to be effectually removed by May 1, 1795—under £30 penalty. But this policy was reversed, Dec. 21, 1799, by an act permitting mill-dams across Main Licking, provided that below the mouth of Slate creek dams should not exceed two feet in height, and should have such locks and slopes as would secure the free passage of boats and fish. Another act, of same date, permitted dams not over seven feet high, for water grist-mills, on the South fork of Licking, but with like slopes and locks sufficient for the passage of fish and boats. Under the first of these, Maj. Geo. M. Bedinger built a dam, with lock and slope on Main Licking, near (just above) the Lower Blue Licks. But such were the evasions or violations of the law, as to an efficient slope in the dams on South Licking and Stoner, that an amended act of Dec. 16, 1802, required the slope (having reference to the bed of the stream, both above and below the dam) to be of the following dimensions:

"The level of the upper end of the slope shall be at least two feet lower than the
