Note. The above book was published in 1924 and as far as the compiler knew there was no Mayflower Ancestry connected with any of the families named therein, but when the Mayflower Index was published in 1932 it furnished information that Jeremiah Holmes (No. 18226) was the son of John Holmes (No. 18232) who was son of Joshua Holmes and his wife Fear Sturgis (No. 33438), daughter of Edward Sturgis, Jr., and his wife Temperance Gorham (No. 15363), daughter of John Gorham and his wife Desire Howland (No. 18978), daughter of John Howland (No. 19049) and his wife Elizabeth Tillie, who both came over in the Mayflower in 1620, as also did both of her parents.

The above information thereby eliminates the Lathrop and Clarke lines and the generation of Thomas Sturgis as given in the Crary-Dunham book on pages 14, 46, 66, and adds to that volume the families following this note, whose descendants are eligible to the Mayflower Society.

1. JOHN HOWLAND, a passenger on the Mayflower in 1620, came as a servant to John Carver, and in writing of those Pilgrims, thirty years after they landed, Governor Bradford stated: "John Howland, married the daughter of John Tillie, Elizabeth, and they are now both living and have ten children, now all living, and their eldest daughter hath 4 children. And their 2 daughter 1, all living; and other of their children marriageable. So 15 are come to them."

John Howland was born in England in 1592 and died in Plymouth, Mass., in 1672.

John Howland is one of the recognized historic founders of Plymouth Colony and was the Governor's Assistant, 1633-1635, and Deputy from Plymouth to the General Court, 1641, 1645-1656, 1658, 1659, 1661, 1663, 1666, 1667, 1670.

Issue: John, Desire, Hope, Elizabeth, Jabez, Joseph, Lydia, Hannah, Ruth, Isaac.

2. DESIRE HOWLAND, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Tillie) Howland, was born in Plymouth, Mass., in 1624 and married there in 1643, John Gorham. She died October 13, 1683 and he was buried in Swansea, February 5, 1676.

See Gorham.

1. JAMES GORHAM lived and died in England.

2. RALPH GORHAM, son of James Gorham, came to New England in 1633 and resided in Marshfield, Mass., where he died in 1643, aged 68 years. He was a joiner and made his own coffin several years before he died, in which he used to store his apples. The name of his wife is not known.

Issue: Ralph, John. (Perhaps others).

3. JOHN GORHAM, son of Ralph Gorham, was baptized January 28, 1621 in Benefield, Northamptonshire, England, and in 1643 married in Plymouth, Mass., Desire, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Tillie) Howland. She died in Barnstable, Mass., October 13, 1683.

John Gorham was a Constable in Marshfield, in 1648, and in 1652 removed to Yarmouth, from which place he was Deputy in 1653 to the General Court of Plymouth Colony. In 1673 he was a Lieutenant and during King Philip's War of 1675/6, Captain of the Second Company, Plymouth Colony Regiment, and took part in the Great Swamp Fight and was buried in Swansey, February 5, 1675/6.

Issue: Desire, Temperance, Elizabeth, James, John, Joseph, Jabez, Mercy, Lydia, Hannah, Shubael.

4. TEMPERANCE GORHAM, daughter of John and Desire (Howland) Gorham, was born in Marshfield, Mass., May 5, 1646, and married in 1663, Edward Sturgis, Jr., son of Edward and Elizabeth Sturgis of Yarmouth. He died December 8, 1678, and she married January 27, 1679/80, Thomas Baxter and died March 12, 1715. She had three sons and one daughter by Baxter.

1. EDWARD STURGIS was of Charlestown, Mass., in 1634, and resided there about two years, when he removed to Yarmouth, where in 1643, he is listed among those able to bear arms and was Deputy to the old Colony Court in 1664, 1666 and 1672, and for many years was one of the Selectmen of Yarmouth. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas and Anna Hinckley of Harrietsham, England. She came to New England in the spring of 1635 with her uncle Samuel Hinckley and his family and died February 14, 1691/2, and in the following April, at the age of 79 years, he married Mary, widow of Zachariah Rider of Yarmouth.

He died in Sandwich, but was buried in Yarmouth, his will being proven November 5, 1695. Some authorities believe that he was the son of John Sturgis and was baptized January 30, 1613/14 in Woodnesborough, Kent, England.

2. EDWARD STURGIS, son of Edward and Elizabeth (Hinckley) Sturgis, married in 1663, Temperance Gorham, and died December 8, 1678. She died March 12, 1715, leaving issue by her second husband, Thomas Baxter.

See Gorham.

Issue: Joseph, Samuel, James, Desire, Fear, Thankful.

3. FEAR STURGIS, daughter of Edward Sturgis, Jr. and his wife Temperance Gorham, was born May 22, 1681; married in Westerly, R. I., November 21, 1698, Joshua Holmes, and died June 22, 1753.

1. PETER CRARY descended from Scottish Royal Blood. Came to this country from Scotland about 1663 and was the pioneer Crary in America. He settled in what is now Groton, Ct., then New London, near the head of the Mystic River, about 1675. His church connections were with the old First Congregational Church in Stonington, Ct., near which he resided, and the baptisms of all his children are recorded there. He was a signer of the patent of New London, Oct. 14, 1704. Was among those who took land in the Quinnebang County, and in 1699 was one of the organizers of the town of Plainfield. He took an active part in the new township. His name and the names of his sons appear in the old town records of Plainfield as grantors of land in connection with land deals, deeds, transfers, etc. Later he returned to Groton, where he passed the remainder of his days and died the latter part of the year 1708. His will is recorded in New London.

The farm on which he settled in 1675 is called the Crary farm at the present time. About one half mile from the house is a small cemetery in which many of the family are buried. He married Dec. 31, 1677, Christobel Gallup, daughter of John and Hannah (Lake) Gallup, whose dates of birth and death have not been found.

2. PETER CRARY, son of Peter and Christobel (Gallup) Crary, was baptized in Stonington, Ct., April 30, 1682, and died after June 25, 1751 when he deeded land to his son Nathan.

He married in Groton, Ct., Jan. 11, 1709-10, Ann Culver whose ancestry has not been found. Only her marriage appears in the Groton Vital Records.

3. NATHAN CRARY, son of Peter and Ann (Culver) Crary, was born Oct. 7, 1717 and died at Groton, Ct., March 24, 1798. He married first, Nov. 2, 1742, Dorothy, daughter of William and Hannah (Gallup) Wheeler, born March 15, 1721, died May 5, 1787. He married second, Ruth Searles.

4. THOMAS CRARY, son of Nathan and Dorothy (Wheeler) Crary, was born in Stonington, Ct., Oct. 1, 1744. He married Jan. 9, 1772, Mehitabel, born March 25, 1755, daughter of Andrew and Mary (Gallup) Mason and resided on a farm at Stonington until about 1790 when he removed to Knox, Albany Co., N. Y., where he purchased a tract of land and where he died Nov. 3, 1834. She died May 21, 1832, and they were buried in High Point Cemetery, formerly the Whipple Cemetery in that town.

5. THOMAS CRARY, son of Thomas and Mehitabel (Mason) Crary, was born in Stonington, Ct., Jan. 11, 1775, and died Dec. 28, 1851 at Liberty, Sullivan Co., N. Y. He married Feb. 2, 1797 Mary (Polly) Holmes, born Oct. 8, 1778, died March 9, 1862. About the time of their marriage they emigrated first to Knox, N. Y., and from there to Chenango Forks, Chenango Co., N. Y. In 1800 owing to defective land titles in Chenango Co., they settled near Liberty in what was then the town of Lumberland in Ulster Co., now the town of Liberty in Sullivan Co. Here he leased and subsequently purchased the farm about two miles from Liberty upon which some members of the family have ever since resided and which is now occupied by his great-grandson, William R. Crary, son of George Crary.

After buying the land he built a house, cleared some of the land and set out an orchard, which grew to quite large proportions, he being very skilful in the art of grafting. He was the first supervisor of Liberty and also kept a small store, selling goods to his neighbors. He represented Sullivan County in the State Legislature during 1826 and was at one time chosen one of the Associate Judges of Sullivan County and after that time was given the title of "Judge Crary" by his townsmen.

After his death his wife resided on the farm with her son Calvert. Thomas Crary and his wife are buried in the cemetery at Liberty, N. Y.

6. CALVERT CRARY, son of Thomas and Mary (Holmes) Crary, was born at Chenango Forks, N. Y., Aug. 11, 1798, and died of pneumonia at Liberty, N. Y., June 1, 1878. He married at Liberty, N. Y., March 12, 1823, Eliza Hill born Dec. 1, 1803, died Oct. 25, 1897. When first married they resided in a small house near his father. In 1835 he built a new house about two thousand feet from his father's (using part of the old store), which is still standing, although with many additions. He was a prosperous farmer, dealing largely in horses, cattle and sheep.

In 1877 at a family reunion at the home of his daughter Mrs. J. N. Young, Parksville, N. Y., the average weight of Calvert Crary and his six sons was 200 pounds and the average height was 6 feet, 1 inch.

7. JERRY CRARY, sixth son of the eight children of Calvert Crary and Eliza Hill, was born at Liberty, N. Y., June 14, 1842. From the age of seventeen he taught school for three winters and in August, 1862, he enlisted in Company H, 143rd Regiment, New York Volunteers. He participated in the campaigns of the Regiment until May 15, 1864, when he was severely wounded in the leg at the battle of Resaca, Georgia. He was in the hospitals at Nashville, Tenn., Jeffersonville, Ind., and the Sisters of Charity Hospital in Buffalo, N. Y. Owing to complications it was two years before the wound healed. He received his discharge in June, 1865.

For a year and a half he worked in the tannery store of Allison and Crary, Allisonville, N. Y., as clerk and bookkeeper, and in March, 1867, went to Sheffield, Pa., where he was connected with the firm of Horton, Crary & Co., tanners, first as a clerk and bookkeeper, later a partner and finally the general manager. After the formation of the United States Leather Company, he served for ten years as a director of that Company, and President of its subsidiary, the Penn Tanning Company, which had acquired the tanneries in Sheffield as well as the rest of those in Warren, Forest, McKean and Potter counties.

He was a school director of Sheffield and its postmaster for twenty years and was active in church and public affairs.

He married Laura Antoinette Dunham, seventh of the eight children of Richard Dunham and Laura Allen, Sept. 13, 1870. She graduated from the Female Institute at Lewisburg, Pa., in 1867, after which she taught for a short time in Sheffield and at Lewisburg. They have three sons, Horace Allen, Miner Dunham, Clare J., of Warren, Pa., and one daughter, Marion A. (Mrs. R. V. Ingersoll) of Brooklyn, N. Y.

In 1902 they moved to Warren, Pa., where they have since resided. Both have been active in the First M. E. Church and in public and social work. Mrs. Crary is a member of the D. A. R. and other organizations, while Mr. Crary is a Knight Templar, member of the G. A. R. and has been active in various lines of business. Mr. Crary cast his first Presidential vote for Abraham Lincoln in 1864, and with one exception, when he was away from home, has voted for every Republican nominee for President since that time.

On Sept. 13, 1920, Mr. and Mrs. Crary celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary, which was the occasion for an extensive family reunion.

1. WILLIAM BALLARD'S name appears early in Newbury, Mass., but he spent his life in Andover, where his name appears on the earliest known list of householders. In 1638 he owned sixty acres of land there. In 1662 he, in a deposition declared that he was about 45 years of age, thus placing his birth about 1617, but in 1671, he testified that he was about 50 years of age. He married Grace, whose maiden name is not known, and he died in Andover, July 10, 1689, and she died there April 27, 1694. When the widow and the children made an agreement regarding the division of the property, it was stipulated that his wife should have a room in the dwelling house as long as she was his widow and their three sons, Joseph, William and John were to provide for her. In this agreement is mentioned the land and meadow which William gave William Blunt upon his marriage to his daughter.

2. ELIZABETH BALLARD, daughter of William and Grace Ballard married in Chelmsford, Mass., Nov. 11, 1668, William Blunt and died in Andover, July 11, 1689.

1. WILLIAM CHESEBROUGH, born in Boston, England, 1594, died June 9, 1667. Came with the Winthrops in 1630 to Boston, Mass. He was a man of more than ordinary ability and held positions of trust not only in the Massachusetts Colony but in the town of Rehoboth of the Plymouth Colony. He settled in Stonington, Ct., 1649, and was the first white man who made that town his permanent abiding place. His house stood on the west side of Wequetock Cove near the head of tidewater. He was elected Deputy to the General Court at Hartford in 1653, 1654, 1655, 1656.

He married in Boston, England, Dec. 6, 1620, Anna Stevenson, born in England, 1598.

2. NATHANIEL CHESEBROUGH, son of William and Anna (Stevenson) Chesebrough, was baptized in Boston, England, Jan. 28, 1630, and died in Stonington, Ct., Nov. 22, 1678. He married there in 1659 Hannah, daughter of Capt. George and Bridget (Thompson) Denison, born May 20, 1643. He served in King Philip's War of 1675-6. He was one of the first nine members of the Church in Stonington, and was one of the Selectmen of Stonington, 1675 and 1676.

3. MARGARET CHESEBROUGH, daughter of Nathaniel and Hannah (Denison) Chesebrough, was baptized in the First Church of Stonington, Ct., April 15, 1677, and married there July 18, 1696, Joseph Stanton, born Jan. 22, 1668.

1. THOMAS CLARKE, was born in England during 1599, and died in Plymouth, Mass., March 24, 1697, and is buried on the summit of Burying Hill in that place. He married first, Susanna, daughter of the widow Ring, about 1634. Widow Ring made her will Oct. 28, 1633, but does not state her daughter Susanna was then married as she so designates another daughter.

Susanna died before 1664 for during that year he married second, in Boston, Mrs. Alice Nichols, daughter of Richard Hallett.

The question whether Thomas Clarke of Plymouth, was the mate of the Mayflower in 1620 has been much discussed. Thacker, one of the early historians of Plymouth states that "it is a well-received tradition and conjectured that he returned to England in her and subsequently came over and settled in the town." His grandson who was 17 years of age when Thomas Clarke died, left the tradition to his children.

The first appearance of Thomas Clarke as a settler is in July, 1623, when he arrived at Plymouth in the Anne. In 1627 he was the only Thomas Clarke in town or Colony of Plymouth, and in 1640 he is included in the list of fifty-eight, "Purchasers or old comers" in Plymouth. In 1651 and 1655 he represented Plymouth at the General Court. Between 1655 and 1660 he removed to Boston where he lived in the vicinity of Scottow's Lane. In his latter days he seems to have resided most of the time with his daughter Susanna Lothrop.

He was a Deacon of the Plymouth Church at the time of his death in 1697.

In 1637 he headed the list of volunteers to act against the Pequot Indians. He was both Constable and Surveyor 1641-1647. In the collection of relics at Forefather's Hall (1869) is a china mug and a leather wallet bearing the name of Thomas Clarke.

2. SUSANNA CLARKE, daughter of Thomas and Susanna (Ring) Clarke, was born in Plymouth 1641, and married Dec. 1, 1658, Barnabas Lothrop of Barnstable, Mass. She died Sept. 28, 1697, aged 55 years or in her 55th year.

1. THOMAS COOKE, the elder, of Pebmershe, County Essex, England, yeoman, died in 1621. His will was proven on Nov. 26th of that year in which he mentions his daughter Elizabeth and her husband Edmund Read. He does not mention his wife so it is fair to assume that she pre-deceased him.

2. ELIZABETH COOKE, daughter of Thomas Cooke, married Edmund Read of Wickford, County Essex, Eng., who was at times styled Colonel.

1. JOHN DENYSON was living in Bishop's Stortford, Eng., in 1567, and was buried there Dec. 4, 1582. He married Agnes, whose maiden name has not been preserved.

2. WILLIAM DENISON, son of John and Agnes Denyson, was baptized in Bishop's Stortford, Eng., Feb. 3, 1571, and married there Nov. 7, 1603, Margaret (Chandler) Monck. Recalling his son Daniel from Cambridge, he brought all his family to New England with him in 1631, excepting his son John, who was a minister not far from their home at that time and who was Vicar of Standon, County Herts, 1660 to 1670. William Denison and his family settled at Roxbury, Mass., where his wife died in 1645, and he died Jan. 25, 1653. He was a Deputy from Roxbury in 1634, and a member of the militia there in 1636.

3. GEORGE DENISON, son of William and Margaret (Chandler-Monck) Denison, was baptized in Bishop's Stortford, Eng., Nov. 3, 1616, and came to New England with his father in 1631, and in about 1640 he married Bridget, daughter of John Thompson, born Sept. 11, 1622. She died in 1643. He returned to England that year and the following letter written by his brother Daniel, gives valuable information regarding his life: "My brother George buried his first wife in the year 1643, went to England and was a soldier there above a year; was at the Battle of York or Marston Moor, where he did good service, was afterwards taken prisoner, but got free and having married again he returned to New England the year before our mother died, and not long after removed himself to New London, near whereunto at Stonington where he died."

George Denison married second in England, Ann Borodell, who died Sept. 26, 1712, aged 97 years. He died Oct. 24, 1694, and they are buried in the Elm Grove Cemetery at Mystic, Ct. Admiral George Dewey descended from George Denison and his first wife.

The agreement made between George Denison and Ann Borodell pending their marriage was ratified and confirmed at Hartford, Ct., May 3, 1662 and may be seen in the First Book of Connecticut State Records in Hartford, page 274 and is as follows: "This witnesseth that I, George Denison, of Souther-town, in Conn., jurisdiction in New England, for and in consideration of a jointure due unto my now wife, Ann Borodell Denison, upon marriage and upon my former engagement, in consideration of the sum of three hundred pounds by me received of Mr. John Borodell, which he freely gave to my wife, his sister, and I have had the use and improvement of and for, and in consideration of conjugal and dearer affection moveing me, thereunto, etc."

George Denison was Captain of the New London County forces in King Philip's War of 1675-6, taking part in the great swamp fight. He served the next year in command of the forces raised by him as Provo-Marshall, who pursued the remnant of the Narragansett and Wampanaug Indians, and succeeded in defeating them and capturing the Indian Chief Canonchet.

He was assistant and also deputy from Stonington, 1654, 1656, 1671, 1674, 1675, 1678, 1682-1687, 1689, 1694. The town of New London granted Captain George Denison two hundred acres of land at Mystic in 1652 upon which he built his home in 1663 and which in 1899 was located a few feet west of the residence of Reuben Ford and here he and his wife Ann lived and died. With the exception of Major John Mason he was the most distinguished soldier of the Connecticut Colony.

4. HANNAH DENISON, daughter of Capt. George and Bridget (Thompson) Denison, was born May 20, 1643, and married Nathaniel Chesebrough who died Nov. 22, 1678, and she married second July 15, 1680, Capt. Joseph Saxton of Stonington.

See CHESEBROUGH

4. JOHN B. DENISON, son of Capt. George and Ann (Borodell) Denison, was born July 14, 1646 and died in 1698. He served in King Philip's War of 1675-6, in the Narragansett and other campaigns. He married Nov. 26, 1667, Phebe, daughter of Robert Lay of Saybrook, and she died in 1699.

5. DANIEL DENISON, son of John B. and Phebe (Lay) Denison, was born March 28, 1680 and married first, Jan. 1, 1703, Mary, daughter of Robert and Joanna (Gardner) Stanton, who died Sept. 2, 1724 in her 38th year. He married second, Oct. 27, 1726, Jane Cogswell of Long Island, and third, Nov. 17, 1737, Mrs. Abigail (Fish) Eldridge, who outlived him about 37 years, as she died June 17, 1784, aged 94 years, and he died Oct. 13, 1747. His children were all by his first wife.

6. DANIEL DENISON, son of Daniel and Mary (Stanton) Denison, was born March 22, 1720, and died in Stonington, May 9, 1776. He married Esther Wheeler on May 27, 1742. She was born Feb. 15, 1722 and died March 31, 1814. He served as a Revolutionary soldier (D. A. R. Book, Vol. 20, p. 165).

7. MARY DENISON, daughter of Daniel and Esther (Wheeler) Denison, was born Nov. 6, 1757, married Jan., 1778, Jeremiah Holmes, who died March 8, 1790-1. In 1797 she married second, Jedediah Lee and emigrated to Stanstead, Canada, where he died in Oct., 1824, and she on April 29, 1828, and is buried in that place.

John Gallup—1643—Hannah Lake

1. JOHN GALLUP came out of the North, A.D. 1465. He married Alice, daughter of William Temple of County Dorset, Eng.

2. JOHN GALLUP, son of John and Alice (Temple) Gallup, was of North Borwood and Temple, County Dorset, and died in 1533 in the 25th year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth. He married Joan Collins of Snailcroft, County Dorset.

3. THOMAS GALLUP, son of John and Joan (Collins) Gallup, was of North Borwood, and died April 8, 1610. He married Agneta, daughter of Humphrey Watkins of Holwell, County Dorset and their descendants still own and occupy the Manor of Strode.

4. JOHN GALLUP, son of Thomas and Agneta (Watkins) Gallup, was of Mosterne, County Dorset, Eng., and came to New England in 1630 in the ship Mary and John. He was born in 1590 and married Christobel whose maiden name is not known, who came over with their children in 1633. They located first at Dorchester but he was admitted to the First Church in Boston, Jan. 6, 1634, and his wife June 22, the same year. He was one of the earliest grantors of land in the northerly part of the town, where he had a wharf-right and house, the locality being known as Gallup's Point. He also owned Gallup Island where he had a farm, a meadow on Long Island, a sheep pasture on Nix Water and a house in Boston. He belonged to the English Army and served under Lord Thomas Fairfax in the Netherlands. He fought the first naval battle on the Atlantic Coast, July, 1636, capturing and destroying a large number of hostile Indians, who had murdered John Oldham, a trader who had gained the enmity of the Indians.

While John Gallup was fishing off Block Island he discovered a vessel drifting out to sea crowded with Indians who were unable to handle it. He with one man and two boys attacked and boarded the vessel driving the Indians before them, some into the hold and some overboard, till none were left but the dying and the dead. Oldham lay dead on the deck and his death precipitated the first war with the Pequots by the New England Colonies. He died in Boston, Jan. 11, 1650, and his wife died there Sept. 27, 1655.

5. JOHN GALLUP, son of John and Christobel Gallup, was born in England and it is supposed he was with his father in the above mentioned battle. In 1671 the General Court of Conn. gave him one hundred acres of land for his services in the Pequot War. He removed to New London about 1650, but in 1654 was residing on the east side of the Mystic River, now Stonington, where he had taken up the land granted him. He represented that town in the General Court in 1664 and 1667, and was also an Indian interpreter. When King Philip's War broke out in 1675, he as Captain was engaged in the swamp fight at Narragansett, Dec. 19, 1675, although he was over sixty years of age and was one of the Captains who fell in the memorable fight.

He married in Boston, Mass., in 1643, Hannah, daughter of John and Margaret (Read) Lake.

6. JOHN GALLUP, son of John and Hannah (Lake) Gallup, was born in 1646, and married in 1675, Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas and Martha (Lake) Harris, born Ipswich, Mass., Feb. 8, 1654. He represented Stonington, Ct., in the General Court in 1685, 1696, 1697, 1698. He served with his father in King Philip's War and was on friendly terms with the Indians, often acting as their interpreter. He owned land in Plainfield, Ct., but never resided there. He died in Stonington, April 14, 1735.

6. BENADAM GALLUP, son of John and Hannah (Lake) Gallup, was born in Stonington, Ct., 1655, and married Esther Prentice, born July 20, 1660. They were both members of the Congregational Church in Stonington, and both died in that place. He on Aug. 2, 1727, and she on May 18, 1751. He served in King Philip's War of 1675 and was Town Attorney of Stonington.

6. CHRISTOBEL GALLUP, daughter of John and Hannah (Lake) Gallup, married Dec. 31, 1677, Peter Crary of Groton, Ct.

See CRARY

7. SAMUEL GALLUP, son of John and Elizabeth (Harris) Gallup, was baptized at Stonington, Ct., Oct. 9, 1687. He married Mehitable Blount or Blunt, May 11, 1727. He owned land in Voluntown, and his name is found among those who signed the formal call to the first minister of that place. There seems to be no evidence that he removed there, as he is mentioned in his father's will as living with and caring for him. He and his wife united with the first church in Stonington, May 11, 1729. Their dates of death have not been found.

7. HANNAH GALLUP, daughter of Benadam and Esther (Prentice) Gallup, was born in Stonington, Ct., May 22, 1683, and died there Aug. 17, 1754 as the widow of William Wheeler, whom she married May 30, 1710.

See WHEELER

8. MARY GALLUP, daughter of Samuel and Mehitable (Blunt) Gallup, was born in Stonington, Ct., Jan. 28, 1737, and died May 13, 1797 as the wife of Andrew Mason, whom she married March 20, 1754.

1. THOMAS HARRIS with his wife and children were in Charlestown, Mass., in 1630. The next year he had charge of the Ferry between Boston and Winnisimet, now Chelsea. After his death, Elizabeth, his wife, maiden name not known married Deacon William Stetson of Charlestown, Mass., and they were admitted to the church there March 22, 1633, thus showing that Thomas did not live long after his arrival in New England. She died in Charlestown, Feb. 16, 1669-70, aged 93 years.

2. THOMAS HARRIS, son of Thomas and Elizabeth Harris, was of Ipswich, Mass., in 1636, and married there Nov. 15, 1647, Martha, daughter of John and Margaret (Read) Lake. She was a descendant on her father's side in the thirty-first generation from Charlemagne, as given in the Ancestors of Calvert Crary and his wife Eliza Hill, pp. 38-40, under her sister Hannah Lake.

Thomas Harris had a house-lot in Rowley, Mass., in 1644 and probably resided there for a short period, selling out in 1652 to Thomas and Richard Holmes and Richard Bailey. He was one of twenty soldiers sent against the Indians under Sergeant Howlet in 1643, and was a Tythingman at Ipswich in 1667, where his will was made July 16, 1687, and proven Sept. 14, 1687, wherein he bequeathed his wife Martha his home, etc., and made her sole executrix. The date of her death is not known, but she was living in 1695.

3. ELIZABETH HARRIS, daughter of Thomas and Martha (Lake) Harris, was born in Ipswich, Mass., Feb. 8, 1654-5, and married John, son of John and Hannah (Lake) Gallup, who died April 14, 1735.

1. EDMUND HOBART, was born in Hingham, County Norfolk, England, about 1574. In 1633 he, with wife and three children, sailed for New England and located in Charlestown, Mass., where in 1635 he was made Constable. Shortly after this he removed to Hingham, Mass., drawing a house-lot there in Sept., 1635. He represented the town in the General Court during 1639, 1640, 1641, 1642, and died there March 8, 1646. He married first, Margaret Dewey, who died in Hingham, before 1634, for on Oct. 10th of that year he married second, in Charlestown, the widow of Rev. John Lyford.

2. PETER HOBART, son of Edmund and Margaret (Dewey) Hobart, was baptized in Hingham, England, Oct. 13, 1604. He was educated at Magdalen College, Cambridge University where he received the degree of Bachelor in 1625 and of Master of Arts in 1629. In 1627 he was ordained a Minister of the Gospel, but he soon identified himself with the Puritans and decided to leave England for the new world, and in his diary

he states, "I, with my wife and four children, came safely to New England, June 8, 1635. Forever praised be the God of Heaven, my God and my King." On Aug. 30th of that year he united with the church at Charlestown, Mass., but in Sept. of that year he took up his residence in Hingham, Mass., where he died. A tablet erected to his memory standing near Central Ave., in the Hingham Cemetery reads: "In Memory of Rev. Peter Hobart who died January 20th, 1679 in the 75th year of his age and the 53rd of his Ministry, 9 years of which he spent in Hingham, Great Britain, & 44 in Hingham, Mass."

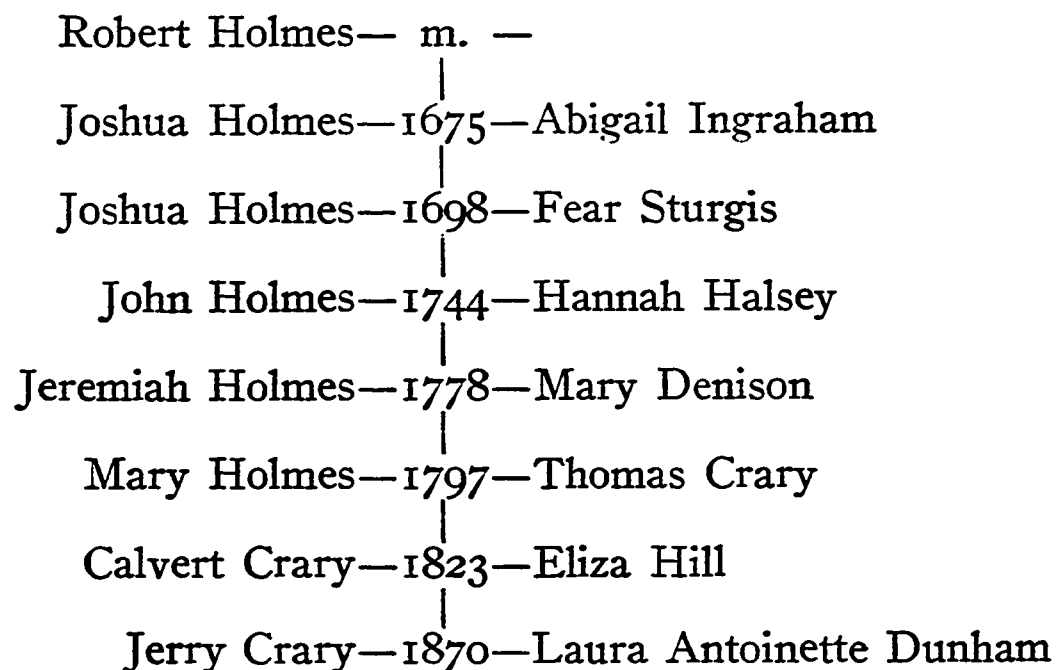

His wife died in Dec., 1645, and strange to say her name has not been preserved. He married second, July 3, 1646, Rebecca, daughter of Richard Ibrook, who died in Hingham, Sept. 9, 1692, aged 72 years.

3. REBECCA HOBART, daughter of Rev. Peter and Rebecca (Ibrook) Hobart, was born in Hingham, Mass., April 9, 1654, and married Oct. 10, 1679, as his second wife, Daniel Mason of Stonington, Ct.

HOLMES

1. ROBERT HOLMES was of Stonington Ct., in 1670, and served in King Philip's War from that place in 1675-6. That he was of the same family as Rev. Obadiah Holmes who made his will in Newport, R. I., in 1681, there can be little doubt, and it is proven that Obadiah's family was of Reddish, in the parish of Manchester, Lancashire, England. Little is found about Robert and the question arises, did he come to New England and return to England, dying there in 1697? Obadiah states that he had a brother Robert.

2. JOSHUA HOLMES, son of Robert Holmes was born before his father was registered in Stonington. He married June 15, 1675, in Stonington, Abigail Ingraham, the widow of Samuel Chesebrough and her ancestry has not been discovered. Shortly after his marriage they removed to Westerly, R. I., where he died April 14, 1694, and she married third, July 4, 1698, Capt. James Avery. He served in King Philip's War of 1675-6.

3. JOSHUA HOLMES, son of Joshua and Abigail (Ingraham) Holmes, was born in Westerly, R. I., Aug. 20, 1678, and died there Nov. 23, 1729. He married there Nov. 21, 1698, Fear Sturgis, who died June 22, 1753. He purchased large tracts of land in North Stonington, and the History of Stonington states he built his house there and died there but "Early Settlers of Westerly, R. I.," record his marriage, death and births of his children. The dividing lines in those early days may have differed from those of to-day.

4. JOHN HOLMES, son of Joshua and Fear (Sturgis) Holmes, is registered in the vitals of Westerly, R. I., as being born June 10, 1702. He married for his third wife, Oct. 31, 1744, Hannah Halsey of Southampton, L. I. They were buried in a family cemetery on his father's land but their stones and bodies have been removed to Elmgrove Cemetery in Mystic, Ct., and placed in the Holmes lot where six generations lie. The inscription on his stone reads: "The hungry never went away without being fed, nor the distressed without being relieved." In the vital records of Stonington he is called "Captain."

Diligent search for the parentage of Hannah Halsey has not met success but there is a possibility she may have been the daughter of Jeremiah Halsey who on Nov. 25, 1721 married Mary Conkling of Easthampton, L. I., for his first wife, as in his will he mentions a daughter Hannah and Hannah wife of John Gallup had a son Jeremiah, a name foreign to the Holmes family.

5. JEREMIAH HOLMES, son of Capt. John and Hannah (Halsey) Holmes, was born according to the Vital Records of Stonington, Ct., Nov. 19, 1751, and died March 18, 1790. He married in Jan., 1778, Mary, daughter of Daniel and Esther (Wheeler) Denison. He is buried in Elmgrove Cemetery at Mystic, Ct. She married second Jedediah Lee and is buried in Stanstead, Canada.

"Jeremiah Holms served in the Revolutionary War as Sergeant in Capt. Hewitt's Company, Col. Jonathan Latimer's Regiment, assigned to Gen. Poor's Continental Brigade in Arnold's Division, and fought in both the battles with the enemy Sept. 19 and Oct. 9, 1777. Upon their dismissal after the surrender of Burgoyne, General Gates spoke of them as "two excellent militia regiments from Connecticut." Sergeant Holms was paid from August 24, 1777 to November 7, 1777" (State of Conn. Military Dept. Adjutant General's Office, Hartford, Nov. 13, 1915).

6. MARY (POLLY) HOLMES, daughter of Jeremiah and Mary (Denison) Holmes, was born Oct. 8, 1778, and died March 9, 1862 as the widow of Thomas Crary, whom she married Feb. 2, 1797.

1. ROBERT LAY was born in England during the year of 1617, and was of Lynn, Mass., in 1638. He married in Saybrook, Ct., Dec., 1647, Sarah Fenner, widow of John Tully, who died in England in 1644-5, she coming to America with her son John and a young daughter in 1638, in company with her brothers Arthur and William Fenner. They resided in Old Saybrook, now the present town of Essex, on the north side of what is now the street on Essex Point, leading to the steamboat landing. Robert Lay was Deputy to the General Court in 1666 and 1678, and became a large land owner, being one of the patentees of Saybrook, where he died July 9, 1689.

2. PHEBE LAY, daughter of Robert and Sarah (Fenner) Lay, was born in Saybrook, Ct., Jan. 5, 1650, and died in Stonington, Ct., in 1699, as the widow of John B. Denison, whom she married Nov. 26, 1667.

1. THOMAS LORD sailed for New England in the ship Elizabeth and Ann from London, in 1635, aged 50 years, bringing with him wife Dorothy Bird, aged 46 years, and among other children, their daughter Anne, aged 14 years. He became one of the original proprietors of Hartford, Ct., and his homestead in 1639 was on what is now Wells St. on the bank of the Little River. He as Dr. Lord was given the first medical license in New England, at Hartford, June 30, 1652. The date of his death has not been found but his wife died Aug. 2, 1676, aged 87 years, and as she does not mention him in her will, he probably predeceased her.

2. ANNE LORD, daughter of Thomas and Dorothy Lord, was born in England, 1621, and in 1637 became the wife of Thomas Stanton, who died Dec. 2, 1677. She died about 1688.

1. JOHN LOTHROP, written in the old records, Lowthorpe, Lowthrop, and Lathrop, was living early in the sixteenth century in Cherry Burton, a parish four miles from Lowthorpe, in the East Riding of Yorkshire. In 1545 he appears on a Yorkshire subsidy roll. Whom he married is not known.

2. ROBERT LOTHROP, son of John Lothrop, succeeded to the estates of his father in Cherry Burton and made many additions to them. He died in 1558 as his will was proven Oct. 20th of that year. He married Ellen, maiden name not known, who survived him fourteen years.

3. THOMAS LOTHROP, son of Robert and Ellen Lothrop, married, first, widow Elizabeth Clark, who was buried in Etton, Eng., July 29, 1574. He married second, Mary, who was buried at Etton, Jan. 6, 1588, and he married third, Jane, who after his death, married a Coppendale. He removed to Etton, East Riding, Yorkshire, about 1576, and made his will there Oct. 5, 1606, which was proven the following January.

4. JOHN LOTHROP, son of Thomas and Mary Lothrop, was baptized at Etton, England, Dec. 20, 1584, and became the pioneer and founder of the Lothrop-Lathrop family in America. He was educated in Queen's College, Cambridge, where he matriculated in 1601, graduated B.A. in 1605 and M.A. in 1609. Authentic records next locate him in Egerton, 48 miles southeast of London, County Kent, as curate of the parish church there. To this living he was admitted about 1611 by the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul. It was probably his first and only parish charge as a minister of the English Church. When he could no longer approve of the ritual and government of the Church he renounced his orders in about 1623 and espoused the cause of the Independents and for eight years was the pastor of the First Independent Church in London, but he and his followers were arrested April 22, 1632, and in the old Clink prison, in Newgate they lingered for months, but in the spring of 1634 they were all released but their leader, the Rev. John Lothrop. During his imprisonment his wife sickened and died. The Bishop allowed him to visit her before her death and he then returned to prison, after which his many children repaired to the Bishop at Lambeth and secured his consent to the liberty of the father with the privilege of emigrating to New England, and in Governor Winthrop's Journal of Sept. 18, 1634, is the following: "The Griffin and another ship now arriving with about 200 passengers. Mr. Lathrop and Mr. Sims, two godly ministers coming in the same ship." The following minute in his own handwriting is still extant (1884) regarding his call and settlement at Scituate, Mass.: "Jann. 19. 1634, att my house, uppon wch day I was chosen Pastour and invested into office."

He married second before June 14, 1635, Anna, whose maiden name is not known but she was the mother of his children born in New England.

He died in Barnstable, Mass., Nov. 8, 1653 and his last church entry was made on June 15th of that year.

5. BARNABAS LOTHROP, son of Rev. John and Anna Lothrop, was baptized in Scituate, Mass., June 6, 1636, and died Oct. 26, 1715. He married first, Dec. 1, 1658, Susanna, daughter of Thomas and Susanna (Ring) Clarke of Plymouth. She died Sept. 28, 1697, aged 55 years. He married sceond, Abigail Dodson, widow, who died Dec. 21, 1715, aged 72 years. The inscriptions on the above three gravestones were in 1884 as distinct as when cut and the stones are in the old burying ground near the county jail in Barnstable. He became the first Judge of Probate in Barnstable and was Deputy from 1675 to 1682, and Judge of the Common Pleas in 1692, and appointed that year with Governor Hinckly, Governor Bradford and John Walley, to represent New Plymouth at Boston, under the new charter.

6. ABIGAIL LOTHROP, daughter of Barnabas and Susanna (Clarke) Lothrop, was born Dec. 18, 1660, and married in 1680 Thomas Sturgis, and resided in Yarmouth, Mass.

1. JOHN MASON was born in England about 1600, and died in Norwich, Ct., Jan. 30, 1672. He married in London, as his second wife, July, 1640, Anna Peck, who died shortly after he did. He was bred a soldier and served in the English army and after his election as a Lieutenant, served under Sir Thomas Fairfax in the Netherlands. In 1632 he emigrated to New England and located first at Dorchester, Mass., and was Lieutenant of the Mass Troops in 1633 and Captain in 1633. He later resided at Hingham from which place he was Deputy to the General Court of Mass. Bay, 1634-1635. During the latter year he removed to Windsor, Ct. As a resident of that State he was Magistrate and Assistant 1637-1659, 1669-1671. Commissioner of the United Colonies 1647, 1654-1657, 1661. A Patentee named in the Royal Charter of Charles II, 1663. Deputy Governor 1659-1669. Major General in command of the State forces in the Pequot War of 1637, when he and his famous ninety men immortalized themselves in overthrowing and destroying the prestige and power of the Pequots and their fort near the Mystic River on the Groton side, which event is commemorated by a boulder monument on Mystic Hill upon the pedestal of which is a life size statute of Major Mason drawing his sword.

In 1647 he removed with his family to Saybrook where he lived until 1660 when with other families he united for the settlement of Norwich.

2. DANIEL MASON, son of Capt. John and Anna (Peck) Mason, was born in Saybrook, Ct., April, 1652, and married first Margaret, daughter of Edward Denison of Roxbury, Mass., who died May 13, 1678. He married second, Oct. 10, 1679, Rebecca, daughter of Rev. Peter Hobart of Hingham, Mass., who died April 8, 1727. He died Jan. 28, 1737. He represented Stonington, Ct., in 1684.

3. NEHEMIAH MASON, son of Daniel and Rebecca (Hobart) Mason, was born Nov. 24, 1693 at Stonington, Ct., and died May 13, 1768. He married Jan. 9, 1722, Zerviah Stanton, who died Oct. 12, 1771.

4. ANDREW MASON, son of Nehemiah and Zerviah (Stanton) Mason, was born Feb. 28, 1730 at Stonington, Ct., and died there Feb. 16, 1812. He married March 20, 1754, Mary Gallup, who died May 13, 1797. They are buried in the Mason Cemetery at Stonington, Ct.

5. MEHITABLE MASON, daughter of Andrew and Mary (Gallup) Mason, was born in Stonington, Ct., March 25, 1755; married Jan. 9, 1772, Thomas Crary, and died as his wife at Knox, Albany Co., N. Y., May 21, 1832.

1. ROBERT PARKE was born in Preston, England, in 1580, and married there Martha, daughter of Capt. Robert and Elizabeth (Ansty) Chaplin of Bury St. Edmunds, County Suffolk, Eng. She probably died in England as no mention of her has been found in this country. He married second, at Wethersfield, Ct., about 1644, Alice, widow of John Thompson of Little Preston, Eng.

Robert Parke sailed for New England March 29, 1630, from Cowes, Isle of Wight, on the ship Arabella, and landed in Boston, Mass., June 17th of that year. He was freeman at Wethersfield, Ct., in 1640, and represented that place in the General Court in 1642, and was one of the Selectmen there in 1646-7.

In 1649 or 1650 he removed to New London, where in 1651 his barn was used as a Meeting House for the people of that place. He settled on the east side of the Mystic River in the present town of Stonington, Ct., and died there Feb. 4, 1664-5, aged 84 years. His grave is in the White Hall Cemetery at Mystic. Some records attach "Sir" to his name but continued research does not confirm its use and nothing in the records of New England higher than the term "Mr." has been found.

2. THOMAS PARKE, son of Robert and Martha (Chaplin) Parke, was born in England, and came across the water with his father in 1630. In Wethersfield, Ct., he married 1645-6 Dorothy Thompson, daughter of Alice Thompson, his father's second wife. About 1650 he removed to New London where he became a Deacon in the church there. After residing there about six years he took up his residence in Southertown (now Stonington) where he became one of the Selectmen. After residing there for a few years he took up his residence in the northern part of New London and in 1681 was Tax Collector in that place. He died July 30, 1709, and must have been an aged man. He served in King Philip's War, 1675-6.

3. MARTHA PARKE, daughter of Thomas and Dorothy (Thompson) Parke, was born Oct. 27, 1646, probably in Wethersfield, Ct., and died Feb. 14, 1717, as the widow of Isaac Wheeler, whom she married Jan. 10, 1667.

1. VALENTINE PRENTICE first appears in New England, on the records of the First Church in Roxbury, Mass., as follows: "Valentine Prentise came to this land, with his wife Alice, in the year 1631 and joined this church in the year 1632. He brought but one child to this land, his son John, and buried another at sea. He lived a godly life, and went through much affliction by bodily infirmity and died leaving a good safr (savor) of godlyness behind him. Allice, the wife of Valentine Prentise, after her husband's death, was married to John Watson of this church." Valentine Prentice died about 1633.

2. JOHN PRENTICE, son of Valentine and Alice Prentice, was born in England. He married Hester of whom nothing is known. He died in 1691. He was admitted to the Roxbury Church in 1665 and here most of his children were baptized. In 1652 he removed to New London and was granted a house-lot at the southeast corner of the Parade, where Bank St., now opens and a blacksmith shop was built for him. In about 1660 he purchased property on Robin Hood's Bay now Jordan Cove. Here he removed but in a few years he changed his vocation and entered upon a seafaring life after 1670. He was the third commander of the ship New London, built in 1666, employed in European trade and in 1678 the firm of Coit and Mould built him another ship, which bore the name John and Hester, in which he made several voyages.

On Oct. 30, 1667, he was chosen the Town's Attorney, and in 1668 he was Deputy to the Connecticut General Assembly. In 1685 the town of New London granted him two hundred acres of land "for the charges and disbursements of many years, particularly in sustaining a course of law with the town of Lyme concerning the west bounds."

Bradstreet's Journal of Jan. 6, 1679-80 states "Goodwife Prentice aged about 44 or 40, dyed. She was a pious woman and of a very sweet nature, an excellent neighbor."

Elizabeth, widow of Thomas Bowen of Rehoboth, Mass., whose second husband was Samuel Fuller of Plymouth, calls John Prentis of New London, blacksmith, "our brother-in-law" and gives him power of attorney April 11, 1663. This apparently gives a clue to the wife of John Prentice, but considerable research failed to make the connection.

3. ESTHER PRENTICE, daughter of John and Hester

Prentice, was born July 20, 1660, and died May 17, 1751, as the widow of Benadam Gallup of Stonington, Ct.

1. JOHN STANTON married Elizabeth Townsend.
2. THOMAS STANTON, son of John and Elizabeth (Townsend) Stanton, was of Wolverton, Warwickshire, England.
3. THOMAS STANTON, son of Thomas Stanton, was born in Eng. and was of Longbridge, County Warwick. He married Katherine, daughter of Walter and Alice (Morden) Washington.
4. THOMAS STANTON, son of Thomas and Katherine (Washington) Stanton, was born in Wolverton, England, and was in early manhood educated for a cadet, but not liking the profession of arms and taking a deep interest in the religious principles of the emigrating Puritans, left his native land in 1635 for the new world, and while in Boston, Mass., was recognized by Winthrop as a valuable man and was selected by the Boston authorities to accompany Fenwick and Peters as interpreter on a mission to Saybrook, Ct., to hold a conference with the Pequot Indians, after which he took up his residence in Hartford, locating there about 1637, and he became the Indian Interpreter to the General Court of Connecticut in all controversies between the whites and the Indians. It was while thus employed, in an interview with Ninigret, in the Narragansett country, that he became acquainted with the Pawcatuck Valley, and he became the first white man to join William Chesebrough in the new settlement there, and he asked the liberty to erect a trading house in that place in 1651, but he did not remove his family there until 1657.

After the articles of confederation between the New England Colonies had been established in 1643, he was selected as Interpreter General and in this capacity he acted especially between the ministers employed by the Commissioners of the United Colonies, acting as agents of the London Missionary Society, and the Indians to whom they preached. He also aided Rev.

Abraham Pierson in the translation of his catechism into the Indian tongue, certifying to the same in his official capacity.

After locating in Stonington, he became very prominent and was elected to almost every position in public trust in the new settlement. In 1658, when Pawcatuck was included in the town of Southertown, under the jurisdiction of Massachusetts, he was appointed Selectman and Magistrate. After Pawcatuck was set off to the Connecticut Colony in 1662, he was appointed Magistrate and Commissioner and re-appointed every year up to the time of his death. He was elected Deputy to the General Court of Connecticut in 1666 and every year thereafter up to 1675.

In 1670, Uncas, the Mohegan Sachem, went from Mohegan to Pawcatuck for Thomas Stanton to write his will, taking with him a train of his noblest warriors to witness the same, giving to the occasion all the pomp and pageantry of savage royalty.

In 1637 he married Anne, daughter of Thomas and Dorothy Lord, and he died Dec. 2, 1677, aged 68 years, and she survived him about eleven years, dying at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Noyes, in Stonington, Ct.

5. JOHN STANTON, son of Thomas and Anne (Lord) Stanton, was born in Hartford, Ct., 1641, and married in 1664 Hannah Thompson, daughter of Rev. William Thompson of Braintree, Mass. In 1654 he was selected by the Court of Commissioners to be educated for a teacher of the Gospel to the Indians but he ultimately left that study. He as Captain commanded one of the companies that was raised to participate in King Philip's War of 1675-6, and was present at the Narragansett Swamp Fight, Dec. 19, 1675.

His homestead farm in Stonington, which descended to him from his father, was on the east bank of the Mystic River. Up to 1900 it had not passed out of the possession of his descendants. He and his wife both died in 1713.

5. ROBERT STANTON, son of Thomas and Anne (Lord) Stanton, was born in 1653 and lived at Pawcatuck, Stonington, Ct., where he died Oct. 24, 1724. He married Nov. 12, 1677, Joanna, daughter of Thomas and Lucy (Smith) Gardner of Roxbury, Mass. He was a soldier in King Philip's War of 1675-6. In the last year of the war he, under Capt. George

Denison, and others, were pursuing the remnant of King Philip's Army, a portion of whom were under the command of Canonchet, the last of the Royal Narragansett Sachems, who were encamped on the banks of the Pawcatuck River, in Rhode Island, when Denison and his men attacked them suddenly. Most of them fled, leaving the Sachem alone, and as soon as he realized his plight he sought safety in flight and when he saw his pursuers gaining on him he threw off his blanket, then his silver-laced coat and belt of peage and ran with all possible speed, but as he crossed the river he fell and wet his gun and was soon overtaken by Robert Stanton, then not 25 years of age, but he would not recognize his authority nor reply to his questions, because of his youth, but when the officers in charge came up he still refused to answer or to sign a treaty of peace, and when he was told that he would be shot if he did not, he replied "he liked it well and should die before his heart had grown soft or he had said anything unworthy of himself," and so he was shot near Anguilla, in Stonington.

6. JOSEPH STANTON, son of John and Hannah (Tompson) Stanton, was born January 22, 1668, married July 18, 1696, Margaret Chesebrough, born about 1676-7. They lived in Stonington, Ct., on the Stanton homestead farm, which he inherited from his father. He died in 1751 intestate and his estate was divided among his living children.

6. MARY STANTON, daughter of Robert and Joanna (Gardner) Stanton, was born in Stonington, Ct., Feb. 3, 1687, and died there Sept. 2, 1724, as the wife of Deacon Daniel Denison, who died Oct. 13, 1747.

See DENISON

7. ZERVIAH STANTON, daughter of Joseph and Margaret (Chesebrough) Stanton, was born in Stonington, Ct., Sept. 24, 1704, and died Oct. 12, 1771, as the widow of Nehemiah Mason, born Nov. 24, 1693, died May 13, 1768, whom she married Jan. 9, 1722.

1. EDWARD STURGIS was of Charlestown, Mass., in 1634, and resided there about two years, removing to Yarmouth, Mass., where in 1643 he was listed as able to bear arms and was Deputy to the Old Colony Court in 1664, 1666 and 1672, and for many years one of the Selectmen of that place. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Thomas and Anna Hinckley of Harrietsham, England. She came to New England in the spring of 1635 with her uncle Samuel Hinckley and his family. She died Feb. 14, 1691-2, and in April of 1692, he married second, at 79 years of age, Mary, widow of Zachariah Rider of Yarmouth. He died in Sandwich, but was buried in Yarmouth, his will being proven Nov. 5, 1695. Some authorities believe that he was the Edward Sturgis (son of John), who was baptized in Woodnesborough, Kent, Eng., Jan. 30, 1613-14.

2. THOMAS STURGIS, son of Edward and Elizabeth (Hinckley) Sturgis, was born in Yarmouth, Mass., Dec., 1659, and died in Barnstable, Mass., June 30, 1708. He married in 1680 Abigail Lothrop, born Dec. 18, 1660. Thomas Sturgis was for nine years Deputy to the General Court at Plymouth.

3. FEAR STURGIS, daughter of Thomas and Abigail (Lothrop) Sturgis, was born May 22, 1681, and died June 22, 1753. She married in Nov., 1698, Joshua Holmes, born in 1678. Roger Faxton Sturgis in his book "Edward Sturgis of Yarmouth," p. 23, thought she was possibly the daughter of Edward Sturgis, who married Temperance Gorham, but as he states on the same page that said Temperance was born in 1672-3, that shows the impossibility of it. The Mayflower Magazine Vol. 3, p. 247, gives a daughter of Thomas and Abigail Sturges born in 1681, but not naming her and the Library of Cape Cod No. 82, p. 2, states that that daughter was Fear or Mercy, born May 22, 1681, and married Joshua Holmes, and the History of Stonington, Ct., and Austin's R. I. Families prove that her name was Fear.

CORRECTION.

Ancestors of Jerry Crary and his wife Laura Antoinette Dunham.

The Mayflower Index recently published furnishes the information that Jeremiah Holmes (no.18226) was the son of John Holmes (no.18232) son of Joshua Holmes and his wife Fear Sturgis, (no.33438) daughter of Edward Sturgis, Jr., and his wife Temperance Gorham (no.15363) daughter of John Gorham and his wife Desire Howland (no. 18978) daughter of John Howland (no.19049) etc.

The above information thereby eliminates the Lathrop and Clarke lines, and the generation of Thomas Sturgis, as given in the Crary-Dunham book.

1. WILLIAM TOMPSON, was born in Lancashire, Eng., 1598, and matriculated at Brasenose College, Oxford University, Jan. 28, 1619-20, and received the degree of B.A., Feb. 28, 1621-2. For some time he was curate at Winwick, Eng., but being persecuted for non-conformity he emigrated to New England in 1637 and preached for awhile at Kittery, Me., but on Nov. 19, 1639, he was ordained pastor of the church at Braintree, now Quincy, Mass., and died there Dec. 10, 1666.

One of the most important incidents of his life was in being chosen one of three men to go on a mission to Virginia in 1642, and they departed on Oct. 7th of that year via Narragansett, where they were to meet the vessel which was to transport them. They returned the following summer, their most important convert being Daniel Gookin. In Jan., 1643, during his absence, his wife Abigail, maiden name not known, had died and he found his family of small children scattered "but well disposed of among his Godly friends."

He married second in 1647, Anne Brigham, widow of Simon Crosbie of Cambridge, Mass., and by her he had one child born in 1648.

In 1648 he helped frame the platform of Church Discipline for the Congregational Church. The first draft ordered on Braintree for soldiers was Aug. 5, 1645, to fill a quota of two hundred men to go to Narragansett, and Rev. Thompson, pastor of the First Church of Braintree, was selected as Chaplain and was to sound the silver trumpet along with the army.

For several years before his death his happiness and usefulness were impaired by a fixed melancholy and his labors as a pastor ended in 1658. He and his second wife are buried in Quincy, Mass., and probably his first wife lies there also in an unmarked grave.

2. HANNAH TOMPSON, daughter of Rev. William and Abigail Thompson, married in 1664 John Stanton of Stonington, Ct., and died in 1713. Some records state she was the sister of Rev. William Thompson, but as he was born in 1598, and she married in 1664, the impossibility of it is clearly shown as we also know he had a daughter Hannah.

1. JOHN WASHINGTON, of Whitfield, County Lancaster, Eng.

2. ROBERT WASHINGTON, son of John was of Warton, County Lancaster, Eng., and married —, Westfield.

3. JOHN WASHINGTON, son of Robert and — (Westfield) Washington, was of Warton and married Margaret, daughter of Robert Kitson of Warton, and sister of Sir Thomas Kitson, Knight and Alderman of London.

4. LAWRENCE WASHINGTON, son of John and Margaret (Kitson) Washington, was of Northampton and Gray's Inn and Mayor of Northampton. He was grantee of the Manor of Sulgrave, March 10, 1539. He married for his second wife Anne (perhaps Amee), daughter of Robert Pargiter, and she died Oct. 7, 1564. He died Feb. 19, 1583. Her father was of Grytworth, County Northampton and made his will Feb. 4, 1557, proved Jan. 31, 1558, wherein he asks to be buried within the church of Grytworth, in St. Katherine's Isle. He made his son-in-law Lawrence Washington supervisor of his will. The Herald's Visitation of Northamptonshire in 1564, shows that Robert Pargiter was son of Richard and Anne (Coles) Pargiter, and that Anne Coles was the daughter of Richard Coles of Preston in the same county. Anne the wife of Robert Pargiter was daughter of John Knight of Carlton.

Lawrence Washington made his will Oct. 18, 1581, and in it requests that he be buried in the South Aisle of the Church "before my seat where I usually sit."

5. ROBERT WASHINGTON, son of Lawrence and Anne (Pargiter) Washington, was "40 years and over" in 1584. He made his will Feb. 7, 1619 and it was proved Jan. 3, 1620. In it he requested to be buried in the South Aisle of the Church "before my seat where I usually sit, under the same stone that my father lieth buried under." In 1564 his father and Walter Light, gentleman of Radway, had recorded a marriage settlement between himself and Elizabeth, daughter of Walter Light.

For twenty-six years Robert Washington, who had inherited the Manor House at Sulgrave, enjoyed the possession of it, but in 1610 with the consent of his eldest son Lawrence, he sold his estates. He was the last Washington owner who lived in Sulgrave Manor House.

Sulgrave Manor was purchased by a group of British friends of America and has been rehabilitated and embellished to make it permanently a significant place of pilgrimage for all who revere the name of Washington. It still bears the Washington arms.

The Sulgrave Institution in this country was organized to promote friendly relations among English speaking peoples and between them and other nations of the world, and to ensure the maintenance of Sulgrave Manor at Sulgrave, England, the home of George Washington's ancestors. The Institution has a large membership and from time to time issue Bulletins which give in interesting detail the progress of the work, besides notifying its members of some wonderful contributions from Americans who have made their home in England.

Walter Light of Radway, County Warwick, England, made his will March 16, 1596, and it was proved April 22, 1597. He desired burial in the chancel of the parish church near his wife and states that Lawrence Washington had, after the decease of his brother Walter Washington, procured administration of his goods and chattels and the law would have to determine the standing of two leases of the farm in Radway "wherein I now dwell," and makes his friend John Murden of Ratley, County Warwick, his legatee, until the law settles the question in dispute.

Walter Light was the son of Christopher Light of Horley, who married Elizabeth, daughter of Henry Warde of Pillerton, and Christopher was the son of Thomas and Agnes Light of Horley. This Thos. Light made his will Jan. 6, 1520, proved Jan. 30, 1520, and requested burial in the church of St. Awdrey in Horley and as nearly the whole Christian world was Roman Catholic at that time his will is filled with gifts to that church and wished a priest singing in the church for him for two years. He states that he bought in London a great marble stone to "lie upon me and my wife after our decease and therein to be graven I and my wife in brass with all our children."

Agnes his wife made her will Nov. 20, 1523, proved Dec. 15, 1523, but requested to be buried in the church of St. Lawrence Marston.

Christopher Light of Horley, the father of Walter, made his will March 28, 1546, proved Nov. 9, 1546, and mentions the deaths of his father and mother and wished to be buried near his father in Horley. Bequeaths his son Walter his house at Salton's Corner in Horley.

6. WALTER WASHINGTON, son of Robert and Elizabeth (Light) Washington, deceased before March, 1596, as per the will of Walter Light of Radway. He married Alice, daughter of John Morden of Morton Morell, Warwickshire, and his wife Katherine, daughter and co-heir of Richard Marston of Draughton, Northamptonshire. After the death of Walter, his widow married John Woodward and she of Stratford on Avon at the time, made her will Aug. 20, 1642, proved May 22, 1647, and desired to be buried near her second husband and mentions her grandchildren Thomas, Walter and Alice Stanton.

Walter Washington had a brother Lawrence as the will of Walter Light shows and from this Lawrence descended the first President of our United States as follows: Lawrence, Lawrence, John, Lawrence, Augustine, George born Feb. 22, 1732, died December 14, 1799.

7. KATHERINE WASHINGTON, daughter of Walter and Alice (Morden) Washington, married Thomas Stanton, son and heir of Thomas Stanton of Woolverton, Warwickshire.

1. THOMAS WHEELER, the ancestor of the Wheeler family in and around Stonington, Ct., appeared as a resident of Lynn, Mass., in 1635, when he was elected Constable there and later held other official positions. In 1642 he was admitted to the privileges of a Freeman of the Commonwealth and purchased large tracts of land, including a mill site, upon which he built and operated a saw and grist mill. During his residence in Lynn he married Mary, whose maiden name is not known. They were married in 1645 and prior to 1667 he disposed of his holdings in Lynn and removed to Stonington, Ct. He was made Freeman of Connecticut in 1669, and represented Stonington in the General Court in 1673. In 1674 he was one of the nine men who organized the First Congregational Church and his wife Mary was one of the partakers of the first communion service. They built their home in North Stonington, where Col. James F. Brown resided in 1900 and they lived and died there. His will was burned when the traitor Arnold burned the city of New London in 1781. He died March 6, 1686, aged 84 years, and he and his wife are buried in the old Whitehall burial place on the east bank of the Mystic River. He served in King Philip's War and was Captain of a Company of Horse in 1669.

2. ISAAC WHEELER, son of Thomas and Mary Wheeler, was born in Lynn, Mass., 1646, and was married in Stonington, Ct., by Thomas Stanton, Jan. 10, 1667, to Martha, daughter of Thomas and Dorothy (Thompson) Parke. He served in King Philip's War of 1675-6, and died June 5, 1712. She died Feb. 14, 1717 and they are buried in Whitehall cemetery.

3. WILLIAM WHEELER, son of Isaac and Martha (Parke) Wheeler, was born Sept. 9, 1681, and married May 30, 1710, Hannah Gallup, born May 22, 1683, died Aug. 17, 1754. He died Aug. 11, 1747.

4. DOROTHY WHEELER, daughter of William and Hannah (Gallup) Wheeler, was born March 15, 1721, died May 5, 1787, as the wife of Nathan Crary, whom she married Nov. 2, 1742.

1. WILLIAM HILL of Exeter, England, married there Oct. 28, 1619, Sarah, daughter of Ignatius and Elizabeth (Baskerville) Jourdain and came to New England in the ship William and Frances, June. 5, 1632, settling in Dorchester, Mass., where he was made Freeman of the Massachusetts Colony, Nov. 5, 1633, and one of the Selectmen in 1636. He soon removed to Windsor, Ct., where in 1639 he was appointed by the General Court to examine arms and ammunition of the towns of the Colony. He was also appointed auditor of the public accounts and elected Deputy to the General Court in 1639, 1640, 1641 and 1644.

Soon after, he removed to Fairfield, Ct., and was chosen Assistant of the General Court and appointed collector of customs. His will dated Sept. 9, 1649, was proved at Fairfield, May 15, 1650, mentions his children, Sarah, William, Joseph, Ignatius, James and Elizabeth. Sarah, his widow, married second, Edmund Greenleaf and died in Boston, 1671. She was baptized in St. Mary's Arches, Exeter, Eng., March 4, 1598-9.

Ignatius Jourdain was admitted to Wadham College, Oxford, in 1635 and succeeded Adam Harsnet as Vicar of Cranham, Essex, Sept. 2, 1639, his uncle Baskerville, patron. He made his will March 1, 1635, and it was proved, Oct. 16, 1640 at Exeter. In it he mentions his wife Elizabeth and "the children of my son William Hill, not of age." To the poor of Lyme "where I was born and to the poor of Gernezey where I was new born" he bequeaths a stated sum.

Elizabeth the widow of Ignatius Jourdain made her will Je. 20, 1645, which was proved at Exeter, March 9, 1649.

The will of Sir Simon Baskerville, Doctor of Physic of the Parish of St. Dunstan, in West London, resided in Fleet St., and in his will of April 20, 1641, proved July 7, 1641, he bequeaths his nephew Ignatius Jourdain all his books on Divinity.

2. WILLIAM HILL, son of William and Sarah (Jourdain) Hill, was born in Exeter, England, and died in Fairfield, Ct., Dec. 19, 1684, in which place he owned land between that of his father and Paul Neck. He married Elizabeth, daughter of Rev. John Jones and became one of the most influential and useful citizens of the town, being its Recorder in 1650 and other years, and to him Roger Ludlow delivered the town papers when he left Fairfield in 1654.

3. WILLIAM HILL, son of William and Elizabeth (Jones) Hill, was born about 1670, and was married by Mr. John Burr, Oct. 7, 1691, to Abigail, daughter of David Osborn. Their dates of death have not been found, but she was living in 1717.

4. JOSEPH HILL, son of William and Abigail (Osborn) Hill, was born April 1, 1699, and died March 6, 1797. He married March 30, 1731, Abigail Dimond, born Aug. 17, 1707, died April 25, 1774. He was known as Deacon Hill.

5. EBENEZER HILL, son of Joseph and Abigail (Dimond) Hill, was born Feb. 26, 1742, and died March 27, 1789. He married at Greenfield Hill, Ct., Jan. 17, 1765, Mabel Sherwood, born Jan. 6, 1745-6, baptized Jan. 12, 1745, died Oct. 20, 1820, in Fairfield, Ct. He served as Captain in the Revolutionary War, of 1st Company in 7th Regiment, Col. Charles Webb commanding; commissioned July 6, 1775, discharged Dec. 27, 1775. Residence, Greenfield. Commissioned as 1st Lieutenant, Jan. 1, 1777; Captain, Nov. 1, 1777; transferred to Invalid Corps, Sept.

13, 1780. Also served as Captain of a Company in Col. Whiting's Regiment (4th Mil.) at Peekskill; marched Oct. 5, 1777, discharged Oct. 31, 1777, allowed twenty miles travel per day to return home after being discharged. (Ancestors and Descendants of Calvert Crary and his wife Eliza Hill, p. 98, for this Revolutionary Service.)

6. JOSEPH HILL, son of Ebenezer and Mabel (Sherwood) Hill, was born May 3, 1774, and baptized Greenfield Hill, Ct., July 10, 1774, and died April 19, 1816. He married during 1799, Sarah Banks, born Weston, Ct., April 8, 1776, died Liberty, N. Y., Sept. 8, 1868. He purchased a large tract of land, about 1500 acres, on Chestnut Ridge, in Liberty, Sullivan Co., N. Y., and before 1808 he removed there with his family and died there. He was a Captain in the New York State Militia in the War of 1812.

His widow left the sole support of nine children, one being born after her husband's death, married in 1826 Ebenezer Carrier, and in 1845 was again a widow.

7. ELIZA HILL, daughter of Joseph and Sarah (Banks) Hill, was born in Greenfield Hill, Ct., Dec. 1, 1803, and died at Liberty, N. Y., Oct. 25, 1897, as the widow of Calvert Crary, whom she married March 12, 1823.

1. GEORGE ALLEN, aged 24 years, with wife Catharine, aged 30 years and their children, George, William and Matthew sailed for New England, March 20, 1635, from Weymouth, England, coming with the party led by Rev. Joseph Hull. He was probably a yeoman farmer, living near Bridgewater in County Somerset. The compiler of the George-Ralph Allen book claims the above age of George Allen taken from the custom house records is an error.

George Allen was at Lynn, Mass., in 1636, but soon became a resident of Sandwich, Mass., where he died in April, 1648.

In 1639 he was elected Constable, in 1640 surveyor of highways and in 1641 one of five persons to divide the meadows. In 1641 he was Deputy to the General Court at Plymouth and served also in 1642, 1643, 1644. His house built in 1646 about one quarter of a mile from the Sandwich Meeting House, on the main road to the cape, stood until 1882. In 1651 he and his wife were presented to court for not frequenting public worship. They later became connected with the Society of Friends and the family were repeatedly fined for attending their meetings and their financial standing became impaired.

After the death of George Allen his widow Catharine married John Collins and removed to Boston.

2. GIDEON ALLEN was son of George and Katharine Allen, according to the compiler of the above mentioned book. His dates of birth and marriage have not been found, but as he had a son born in Swansea in 1673, it seems doubtful about the above parentage, as the compiler gives 1568 as the birth of his father George. Continued research has not solved the supposed problem.

Certain it is that in 1669 Gideon Allen was one of the first signers in the town of Swansea—and in 1673 he and wife Sarah were the parents of a son John born there. During King Philip's War in 1675 in which he served, they removed to Boston and later he was of Milford, Ct., where he died early in 1693. The maiden name of his wife has not been found nor the date of her death.

3. GIDEON ALLEN, son of Gideon and Sarah Allen, married Jan. 2, 1696, Ann Burr, born 1675. In the Probate Records at Fairfield, Ct., he is styled "Ensign" and is frequently appointed to inventory estates. His wife died March 14, 1747-8, aged 72 years.

4. SARAH ALLEN, daughter of Gideon and Anna (Burr) Allen, was born April 1, 1697, and married Dec. 7, 1721, Thomas Couch, born June 9, 1695.

1. FRANCIS ANDREWS was of Hartford, Ct., in 1639 and before 1640 purchased the north part of Richard Butler's lot on the corner of the present Elm and Trinity Streets. He married in Hartford, Anne, daughter of Giles Smith, and in 1648 or shortly after, he removed to Fairfield, Ct., where he became one of the Bankside Farmers, owning a home-lot of ten acres west of Daniel Frost. He made his will June 6, 1662, which was proven March 5, 1662-3, wherein he named his wife Anne Smith and his children. The date of her death is not known.

2. MARY ANDREWS, daughter of Francis and Anne (Smith) Andrews, died in 1691, as the wife of Simon Couch, who died in 1689.

1. JOHN BANKS was town clerk of Wethersfield, Ct., in 1643. He was an Oxford man, scientist, versed in books and "Counselor of Governors and men high in authority." He removed to Fairfield, Ct., which place he represented 1651, 1661, 1663, 1666, 1671, 1673. He also represented Rye. He became one of the largest land holders in Fairfield. In his will of Dec. 12, 1684, he bequeathed his grandson, son of John, his silver tankard.

He married a daughter of Charles Taintor, whose name has not been found. At her death he married Mary Fitch, widow of Thomas Sherwood. She died in 1693-4.

2. BENJAMIN BANKS, son of John and — (Taintor) Banks, married Jan. 27, 1679, Elizabeth, daughter of Richard Lyon, and died in 1692.

3. BENJAMIN BANKS, son of Benjamin and Elizabeth (Lyon) Banks, was born in Nov., 1681, baptized in Greenfield Hill, Ct., Oct. 30, 1682, married Ruth, born May 18, 1683, daughter of Thomas and Mary (St. John) Hyatt. After her death, date not known, he married Sarah Hull, and died Dec. 12, 1759.

4. BENJAMIN BANKS, son of Benjamin and Ruth (Hyatt) Banks, was born according to the Greenfield Hill, Ct., Church Records, Aug. 8, 1706. He married first, Mary Treadwell, and second, before 1745, Eleanor Bradley, born Oct. 7, 1725, daughter of Francis and Mary (Sturges) Bradley.

5. HEZEKIAH BANKS, son of Benjamin and Eleanor (Bradley) Banks, was born in Greenfield Hill, Ct., 1748-9, and died March 31, 1812 in Easton, Ct. He married Oct. 14, 1772, Sarah, born March 30, 1754, died Feb. 24, 1815, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Jessup) Couch. During the Revolutionary War he served as a private in Capt. Jabez Wheeler's Company, Col. Whiting's Regiment (4th Mil.) marched Oct. 5, 1777; no date of discharge. Residence not stated. This regiment served at Peekskill in Oct., 1777. (Adjutant General's Office, Hartford, Ct., Nov. 13, 1915.)

6. SARAH BANKS, daughter of Hezekiah and Sarah (Couch) Banks, was born April 8, 1776, and died Sept. 8, 1868.

She married in 1799 Joseph Hill who died April 19, 1816, leaving her with nine children, one born after his death. In 1826 she married Ebenezer Carrier and in 1845 was again a widow. She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Sarah Morton, and was buried by her husband in Liberty Cemetery. The house in which she was born was sufficiently well preserved in 1915 to be occupied by a family.

1. RICHARD BLACKLEACH was in Stratford, Ct., in 1678, and it is claimed he came there from Guilford, Ct. He established himself as a merchant about 1686, and so continued for about thirty years. He was the first to build a box pew in the Episcopal Church of which he was an ardent member. Previous to 1719 he had conducted the ferry for some years, and a town committee was appointed to lease it to him for twenty-one years longer. He married Dec. 8, 1680, Abigail, daughter of John Hudson of New Haven, and died Nov. 4, 1731, aged 78 years. That he was closely related to John of Hartford is without doubt, but just how, has not clearly been established. He was Deputy from Stratford, 1695, 1696, 1698, 1699, and Commissary at Albany 1690.

2. RICHARD BLACKLEACH, son of Richard and Abigail (Hudson) Blackleach, was born in 1682 or 1683 and must have married first when 18 years of age, but to whom has not been found. He married second, Feb. 2, 1715-16, Mehitable Laboree, widow, of Guilford, Ct., who could not have been the mother of his daughter Sarah, born in 1699 or 1700. His will was proved in Fairfield, Ct., Oct. 2, 1750, in which he mentions Sarah, wife of Edward Jessup and her children. There is in this family a genealogical problem still unsolved.

3. SARAH BLACKLEACH, supposed daughter of Richard Blackleach, Jr., and a first wife, died Nov. 18, 1783, in her 84th year, as the widow of Edward Jessup, whom she married Dec. 7, 1724.

1. FRANCIS BRADLEY was probably born about 1625, and it is conjectured with very good reasons that he was the son of Francis Bradley, born in 1595, who was son of Francis and Francisca (Watkins) Bradley, and grandson of William and Agnes (Margate) Bradley of Coventry, County Warwick, England.

Francis Bradley is mentioned as of Branford, Ct., in 1657 and resided in Fairfield, Ct., in 1660. In 1650 he is supposed to have been a member of Governor Eaton's family in New Haven. Soon after his arrival in Fairfield, he married Ruth, daughter of John Barlow, and in 1664 was made freeman of the Colony of Connecticut. The inventory of his estate was taken Oct. 22, 1689, and in his will dated Jan. 22, 1689, he mentions among his other children, his son Francis, and his own wife Ruth, which shows that she survived him.

Sometimes after the death of Francis Bradley, a letter came for him from his brother John, dated London, Eng., Jan. 24, 1695-6, in which he states that he is in his 74th year and has no children and he desires one of Francis's sons sent to him. This letter is recorded in full in the town records of Fairfield, probably for preserving evidence of relationship in case of establishing rights to property left in England.

2. FRANCIS BRADLEY, son of Francis and Ruth (Barlow) Bradley, was born in 1670 and died in 1716 intestate. As late as 1721 the estate of his father had not been distributed and the court after appointing guardians of his younger children, ordered the distribution of both estates. He married Sarah, daughter of Joseph Jackson, about 1698, and she survived him. She is mentioned in the church records of Greenfield Hill as a member Dec. 3, 1699. She married second, John Bartram, by whom she had one child in 1719.

3. FRANCIS BRADLEY, son of Francis and Sarah (Jackson) Bradley, was born May 29, 1699, and baptized in the church at Greenfield Hill, Dec. 3, 1699. He married, 1719, Mary, daughter of John Sturges, born Aug. 8, 1699, and they joined the church in Greenfield Hill, May 22, 1720.

3. ELEANOR BRADLEY, daughter of Francis and Sarah (Jackson) Bradley, was baptized in Greenfield Hill, Ct., Feb. 22, 1707-8, and married there Feb. 9, 1724, Benjamin Sherwood, who died Jan. 19, 1763.

4. ELEANOR BRADLEY, daughter of Francis and Mary (Sturges) Bradley, was born in Greenfield Hill, Ct., Oct. 7, 1725, and died May 29, 1812, as the widow of Benjamin Banks, whom she married in 1745, as his second wife.

1. JEHUE BURR was born in England 1600, and arrived in New England with Winthrop's fleet early in 1630, and settled in Roxbury, Mass., where he was admitted freeman in 1632, and where he and his wife both appear as members of the church in 1635. During that year he and John Johnson were appointed a Committee for Roxbury, with a like number of men from Boston, to make a cart-bridge over Muddy River and Stony River. No later mention is made of him in the Roxbury records.

In 1636 he, with others, with their families and effects started on their journey for the Colony of Connecticut. They followed a blazed path through the woods until they reached the banks of the Connecticut River. Here they built their village, calling it Agawam, now Springfield, Mass., where he, Wm. Pynchon and Henry Smith are named in the Indian Deed of June 15, 1636, which was signed by thirteen Indians.

In 1637 he was a leading spirit in the settlement and was probably the first tax gatherer in the Connecticut Valley. He remained there about eight years, removing to Fairfield, Ct., where he took high rank from the first, and represented that place in the General Court during 1645 and 1646, and for several succeeding sessions prior to the union of the Hartford and New Haven Colonies. In 1660 he was appointed Commissioner for Fairfield and re-appointed in 1664, 1668 and 1671.

He died during 1672 but his place of burial is not definitely known, but he probably lies in the old Fairfield burial ground where field stones were used as markers for the graves of the early settlers and bore only their initials and they are to-day not decipherable.

2. NATHANIEL BURR, son of Jehue Burr, was probably born in Springfield, Mass., about 1640, and was freeman of Fairfield, Ct., in 1664, and Constable there in 1669. He represented that place in the General Court in October, 1692, 1693, February, 1694, and October, 1695. He married Sarah, daughter of Andrew Ward.

3. ANN (ANNA) BURR, daughter of Nathaniel and Sarah (Ward) Burr, was born in 1675 and died March 14, 1747-8. She married Ensign Gideon Allen.

1. SIMON COUCH was made a freeman of Fairfield, Ct., Oct. 13, 1664, and died there in 1689. He married Mary, daughter of Francis and Anne (Smith) Andrews, who died in 1691. In 1663 he purchased the interest of his mother-in-law in the housing and lands of her deceased husband. He became a large landholder in Greens Farms and for several years with John Andrews he carried on a law-suit against the town of Fairfield to recover lands, claimed by purchase from the Indians, before Bankside was made a part of the town of Fairfield. He was buried in land belonging to him at Frost Point, long known as Couch Burial Hill.

2. SIMON COUCH, son of Simon and Mary (Andrews) Couch, married Abigail, daughter of John Sturges. He was a prominent man in Greens Farms and continued the claim of his father, which Fairfield allowed, when in 1666 they consented to become part of the township. His will was dated March 2, 1712-13, and probated the following April.

3. THOMAS COUCH, son of Simon and Abigail (Sturges)

Couch, was born June 9, 1695, and married Dec. 7, 1721, Sarah, born April 1, 1697, daughter of Gideon and Ann (Burr) Allen.

4. THOMAS COUCH, son of Thomas and Sarah (Allen) Couch, was born Nov. 28, 1725, died Dec. 4, 1764. He married Feb. 26, 1749-50, Elizabeth, born Feb. 13, 1728, died Nov. 25, 1815, daughter of Edward and Sarah (Blackleach) Jessup.

5. SARAH COUCH, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Jessup) Couch, was born March 30, 1754, died Feb. 24, 1815, as the widow of Hezekiah Banks, whom she married Oct. 14, 1772.

1. THOMAS DIMOND was the head of a family in Fairfield, Ct., between 1639 and 1650. In 1658 he was the owner of a bark of twelve tons, which was destroyed by fire. His estate was inventoried Oct. 19, 1658. No trace has been found of his wife.

2. MOSES DIMOND, son of Thomas Dimond, married May 2, 1670, Abigail, daughter of Andrew Ward. That same year he purchased the Purdy homestead on Frost Square in Fairfield, Ct., which remained in the family until shortly after 1852. He made his will March 21, 1683, which was proven April 17, 1684, in which he bequeathed his son Moses his house and lands in Fairfield "to enjoy two-thirds of it until twenty-one years of age." In 1685, his widow Abigail, married Edward Howard of Roxbury, Mass.

3. MOSES DIMOND, son of Moses and Abigail (Ward) Dimond, was born in Fairfield, Ct., Oct. 7, 1672, and died there Aug. 7, 1748. He married Jane, daughter of Philip Pinckney of Eastchester, N. Y., born 1675. The date of her death has not been found, but it was after 1707. He married twice after her death. In 1709 Moses Dimond was a Lieutenant and in 1712 a Captain of Militia and in 1733 he was a Deacon in the Fairfield Church.

4. ABIGAIL DIMOND, daughter of Moses and Jane (Pinckney) Dimond, was born in Fairfield, Ct., Aug. 17, 1707, and died in Greenfield, April 25, 1774, as the wife of Joseph, son of William Hill of Greenfield, Ct., whom she married March 30, 1731.

1. GEORGE GODWIN is first found in Fairfield, Ct., in 1651, and in 1658 his will was filed there wherein he mentions his wife Elling, eldest son Samuel, daughter Mary and son John. In 1675 the son John, as a soldier, made his will wherein he mentions his sister Mary Jackson, his uncle John Smith and his brother Samuel.

George Godwin married Elling or Elain, daughter of Giles Smith, and as she is not mentioned in the will of her son John, she probably died before its making.

Godwin and Goodwin are interchangeable, but in the Fairfield Records the first spelling is quite universally used. The son John died unmarried and the son Samuel was living in Eastchester, N. Y., in 1682.

2. MARY GODWIN, daughter of George and Elling (Smith) Godwin, married Joseph, son of Henry Jackson. He died in 1681 and before 1686 she married Joseph Seeley. The probate records of Fairfield, Ct., clearly established this fact, and give proof that she was not the Mary who married John Sturges.

1. RICHARD HARVEY, tailor, sailed from London in the ship Planter in 1635, aged 22 years, bringing with him wife Ann, aged also 22 years. He located first in Concord, Mass., where his wife died in 1639. He removed to Stratford, Ct., where he was known as Sargeant Harvey. The name of his second wife has not been found, but she was the mother of his daughter Elizabeth. The inventory of his estate was taken Nov. 4, 1689.

2. ELIZABETH HARVEY, daughter of Richard Harvey and his second wife, was born in Stratford, Ct., July 25, 1644, and died in June, 1701, as the wife of John Hide.

1. JOHN HOYT born and died in England, married Ruth of whom nothing is known.

2. SIMON HOYT, son of John and Ruth Hoyt, was born in Dorchester, England, Jan. 20, 1590, and married in the parish church of Upway, Dorsetshire, Dec. 2, 1612, Deborah, daughter of Walter Stowers, born Dorchester May 1 and baptized Upway, June 5, 1593. In 1628 or 1629 Simon, accompanied by his family and brother-in-law Nicholas Stowers, arrived at Salem, Mass. In 1639 he was of Dorchester, Mass., in 1649 he was of Windsor, Ct., and sometime between 1649 and 1657 he removed to Stanford, Ct., where he died Sept. 1, 1657, leaving a widow Susanna, who later married a Bates. The death of Deborah has not been found.

3. THOMAS HYATT, son of Simon and Deborah (Stowers) Hoyt, was born in Upway, Dorsetshire, England, Sept. 20, 1618, and died in Stamford, Ct., Sept. 9, 1656. That he married Elizabeth Russell is quite certain as one John Russell, merchant, died at Dorchester, Mass., Aug. 26, 1633, evidently not married, and left half of his estate to the church and the other half to his brothers, Henry Russell and Thomas Hyatt. Stamford Registrar shows that Elizabeth, widow of Thomas Hyatt, married 6 of 8 m 1657 Cornelius Jones.

4. THOMAS HYATT, son of Thomas and Elizabeth (Russell) Hyatt, was born in Stamford, Ct., 1641, and died intestate in Norwalk, Ct., before March 29, 1698. He served in King Philip's War of 1675-6. He married Nov. 10, 1677, Mary St. John, who survived him, and in the settlement of his estate, his daughter Ruth is mentioned, who would be "14 next May."

5. RUTH HYATT, daughter of Thomas and Mary (St. John) Hyatt, was born in Norwalk, Ct., May 18, 1683-4, and married Benjamin Banks, baptized Oct. 30, 1682, according to the Greenfield Hill Church Records.

1. JOHN HUDSON is first mentioned in New Haven, Ct., when he married there, Sept. 2, 1651, Abigail, daughter of Capt. Nathaniel Turner. He is frequently listed as Hodson and Savage, the best authority, so calls him. He was a merchant and was honored by the prefix "Mr." to his name. He died in New Haven during Oct., 1690. His home was on the corner of Water and State Streets, which he purchased in 1656. He served the town as Auditor in 1665, as Constable in 1670, and was its Treasurer in 1681, 1682 and 1683. In his will he provided for a son at college.

2. ABIGAIL HUDSON, daughter of John and Abigail (Turner) Hudson, was baptized in New Haven, Ct., March 25, 1654, and died in Stratford, Ct., in 1712, aged 60 years, as the wife of Richard Blackleach.

1. HENRY JACKSON came to America in the ship Elizabeth and Ann, in 1635, aged 29 years. He took the oath of allegiance and supremacy to the Crown and brought a certificate from the minister and Justice of the Peace in the place where he resided in England (not named) of his conformity to the Church of England and that he was no subsidy man. In 1637 he was of Watertown, Mass., as one of the lessees of the fishing grounds at that place.

He was in Fairfield, Ct., as early as Feb. 2, 1648, when he was given liberty to erect a grist mill on Uncoway Creek. In 1656 he was a party to the Indian Deed of Stratfield and Fairfield.

His vocation must have been that of a surveyor as he was constantly being called upon to lay out land granted by the town to new settlers and in 1664 he was requested to lay out the town bounds between Stratford and Norwalk.

He made his will Nov. 11, 1682, and it was proven Sept. 22, 1686, in which he provided for his wife, but did not name her, but she was not living at the final distribution of his estate in 1720. He was an extensive land owner and his estate was constantly sharing in the divisions of land. Among other heirs mentioned in his will he states that his son Joseph is deceased, and bequeaths property to his widow, her children and her father George Godwin.

2. JOSEPH JACKSON, son of Henry Jackson, died before his father made his will in Nov., 1682, leaving his widow Mary, the daughter of George Godwin, and five children. She married second, before 1686, Joseph Seeley, son of Nathaniel, who assumed charge of the estate left by Joseph Jackson, whose inventory is dated Oct. 31, 1681.

3. SARAH JACKSON, daughter of Joseph and Mary (Godwin) Jackson, married Francis Bradley, who died in 1716.

1. EDWARD JESSUP, the immigrant ancestor, was an Englishman, who came to New England prior to 1649, at which time he owned land in Stamford, Ct., then under the jurisdiction of the New Haven Colony. He did not remain long in that community for in 1652 he became one of the pioneers of Newtown, L. I., his home being located on the site occupied in 1887 by John Jacob Moore.

In 1659, 1660, 1661 and 1662 he served as Magistrate in that town and there are many entries in his handwriting, in the records of the town court.

Trouble arising between the English and the Dutch, both claiming jurisdiction over Long Island, Newtown sought advice and assistance from Boston and appointed Edward Jessup with others, to proceed to that place and present their case to the Commissioners of the New England Colonies, but no definite result was reached.

In a lawsuit of 1657 is mentioned the fact that Edward Jessup and his mother, the widow Whitmore, had left Stamford, Ct., but she cannot now be definitely placed.

Shortly after 1662 he removed to Westchester, in Westchester Co., N. Y., where in 1663 and 1664 he served as Magistrate. With John Richardson he purchased a tract of land now called West Farms and in 1664 the Patent was confirmed.

He died between August 6 and November 14, 1666, the dates of the making and the proving of his will, which is one of the earliest recorded in New York City. He made his wife Elizabeth sole executrix and states that John Burroughs is his brother-in-law, thus establishing a foundation to show that his wife was Elizabeth Burroughs, but he may have had an earlier wife. She married second in 1668, Robert Beacham and was living as late as 1690.

2. EDWARD JESSUP, son of Edward and Elizabeth (Burroughs) Jessup, was born in 1663, but whether in Newtown or West Farms is not known. When his mother re-married he removed to Fairfield, Ct., with her. In 1691 he sold all his property in West Farms to his brother-in-law Thomas Hunt, Jr. About 1720 he removed to Stamford, Ct., where he died Dec. 28, 1732, in his 70th year.

He married in 1693 Elizabeth Hide, born Aug. 23, 1669, died Oct. 2, 1747, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Harvey) Hide. Both were buried in Stamford near Cove Pond and Noroton River and in 1887 their grave stones were standing and readable.

3. EDWARD JESSUP, son of Edward and Elizabeth (Hide) Jessup, was baptized at Fairfield, Ct., March 7, 1697, and married there Dec. 7, 1724, Sarah, daughter of Richard Blackleach of Stratford. He held the position of Captain in the Colonial Militia, but his business interest was in the West India trade. He died Sept. 30, 1750, in his 54th year, and his wife died Nov. 18, 1783, in her 84th year, and they are buried in the "Old Burial Ground" in Greens Farms, Ct., and their grave stones were standing in 1887.

4. ELIZABETH JESSUP, daughter of Edward and Sarah (Blackleach) Jessup, was born at Greens Farms, Ct., Feb. 13, 1728, and died Nov. 25, 1815, as the widow of Thomas Couch.

1. REV. JOHN JONES, according to some students was the son of Rev. William Jones of Abergavenny, Wales, and entered Jesus College, Oxford, 1624, aged 17 years. Others state that he was born in 1593. He married in England, and had several children born there, and was ordained in the Church of England. He and his family came to New England in the ship Defence, which arrived at Boston, Oct. 3, 1635, and the passenger list stated that Sarah his wife (maiden name not known), was 34 years of age, and the children as follows: Sarah 15, John 11, Ruth 7, Theophilus 3, Rebecca 2 years and Elizabeth 6 months. He settled at Concord, Mass., and on April 6, 1637, was ordained pastor of the Congregational Church, being called upon to renounce his Episcopal vows. He removed to Fairfield, Ct., and became the first minister in that town, serving from 1644 until his death in January, 1665. In his will he mentions wife Susanna, showing that his first wife must have died. He bequeaths Susanna his silver cup and some property, which at her death was to be divided among his children, naming daughter, Elizabeth Hill. In his library were the works of Augustine and Chrysostom.

2. ELIZABETH JONES, daughter of Rev. John and Sarah Jones, was born in England, April, 1635, and married William Hill, son of William and Sarah (Jourdain) Hill.

1. RICHARD OSBORN sailed from London, England, for the Barbadoes, Feb. 17, 1634. In 1635 he was one of the company of men who met Rev. Peter Hobart, and drew a home lot in Hingham, Mass. In 1639 he was among the free planters in New Haven, Ct., and signed the Fundamental Agreement. He removed to Fairfield between 1650 and 1653, and purchased land there from Thomas Pell. For his services in the Pequot War of 1637, the General Court of Connecticut granted him eighty acres of land, and this acreage was set off to his sons in 1707. He removed to Westchester, N. Y., and in 1682 he deeded his property in Fairfield, Ct., to his son John, provided John paid other heirs certain sums. His wife is nowhere mentioned and probably pre-deceased him. The Colonial War Book of 1922 states he was born in 1612 and died in 1686, and that he was Capt. Osborn.

2. DAVID OSBORN, son of Capt. Richard Osborn, was one of Dr. Thomas Pell's Company from Fairfield, who settled Eastchester, N. Y., in 1664. He married Abigail Pinckney and died before Nov. 10, 1679.

3. ABIGAIL OSBORN, daughter of David and Abigail (Pinckney) Osborn, married Oct. 7, 1691, William, son of William and Elizabeth (Jones) Hill. She was living in 1717.

1. MATTHIAS ST. JOHN, first of his name in New England, was of Dorchester, Mass., 1631-2, and freeman in 1634, owning twenty acres of land between Roxbury and Dorchester. He removed to Windsor, Ct., in 1640, being given a lot in the Palisades and this plot of ground was occupied in 1890 by Mrs. Anson Loomis. His name appears on a list of householders there in 1645, but in 1654 he was of Norwalk, Ct., and became one of the Selectmen there in 1660. His will was dated Oct. 19, 1669, and he died during that year. In it he mentions his wife, but does not name her.

2. MATTHIAS ST. JOHN, son of Matthias St. John, was born in 1630 and died in Norwalk, Ct., during Dec., 1728-9. In the work he was called upon to do for the community he was styled a soldier, but the service has not been found. He married Elizabeth, of whom nothing is known.

3. MARY ST. JOHN, daughter of Matthias and Elizabeth

1. THOMAS SHERWOOD was born in England 1585-6. In the ship Frances he sailed for New England from Ipswich, England, during April, 1634, with his wife Alice and four children. The following year he had located in Wethersfield, Ct., but in 1648 was settled in Fairfield, where he made his will and died in 1655. When and where his wife Alice, daughter of Robert Seabrook died, is not known, but he married soon after locating in Fairfield, Mary, daughter of Thomas Fitch, who at his death, married John Banks.

2. THOMAS SHERWOOD, son of Thomas and Alice (Seabrook) Sherwood, was born in 1624 in England, and admitted freeman at Hartford, Oct. 13, 1664. He was the first miller at Mill River in Fairfield. He married four times, but our interest lies only in his second wife who was Ann, daughter of Benjamin Turney. His estate was inventoried March 12, 1698, and his sons Benjamin and Samuel were appointed his administrators.

3. BENJAMIN SHERWOOD, son of Thomas and Ann (Turney) Sherwood, married Sarah, whose maiden name has not been found. He died in Greenfield Hill, 1742, aged 67 or 68 years.

4. BENJAMIN SHERWOOD, son of Benjamin and Sarah Sherwood, was born in Fairfield, Ct., March 1, 1701, and baptized March 30th of that year, and married Feb. 9, 1724, Eleanor Bradley, baptized Feb. 22, 1707-8. He died Jan. 19, 1763, at Greenfield Hill, Ct.

5. MABEL SHERWOOD, daughter of Benjamin and Eleanor (Bradley) Sherwood, was born at Greenfield Hill, Ct., according to the church records, Jan. 6, 1745-6, and was baptized there Jan. 12, 1745-6, and married there Jan. 17, 1765, Ebenezer Hill, born 1742. She died Oct. 20, 1820, in Fairfield, Ct.

1. GILES SMITH, known in some records as Professor, but the reason therefore not found, was an inhabitant of Hartford, Ct., in 1639, receiving land there that year by "the courtesie of the town," his lot being on Main St. corner of what is now Charter Oak St. He also had a small lot set off from the square occupied by George Wyllis.

In 1647 he was of New London, but in 1651 removed to Fairfield, Ct., and died there, his will being proven Sept. 10, 1669, wherein he mentions his wife Eunice (she was not the mother of his children), daughters, Anne, Ellan, and son John. Who his first wife was is not known but he did not marry Eunice, widow of Jonathan Porter of Huntington, L. I., until after 1660.

2. ANNE SMITH, daughter of Giles Smith, married Francis Andrews, who died in 1662-3.

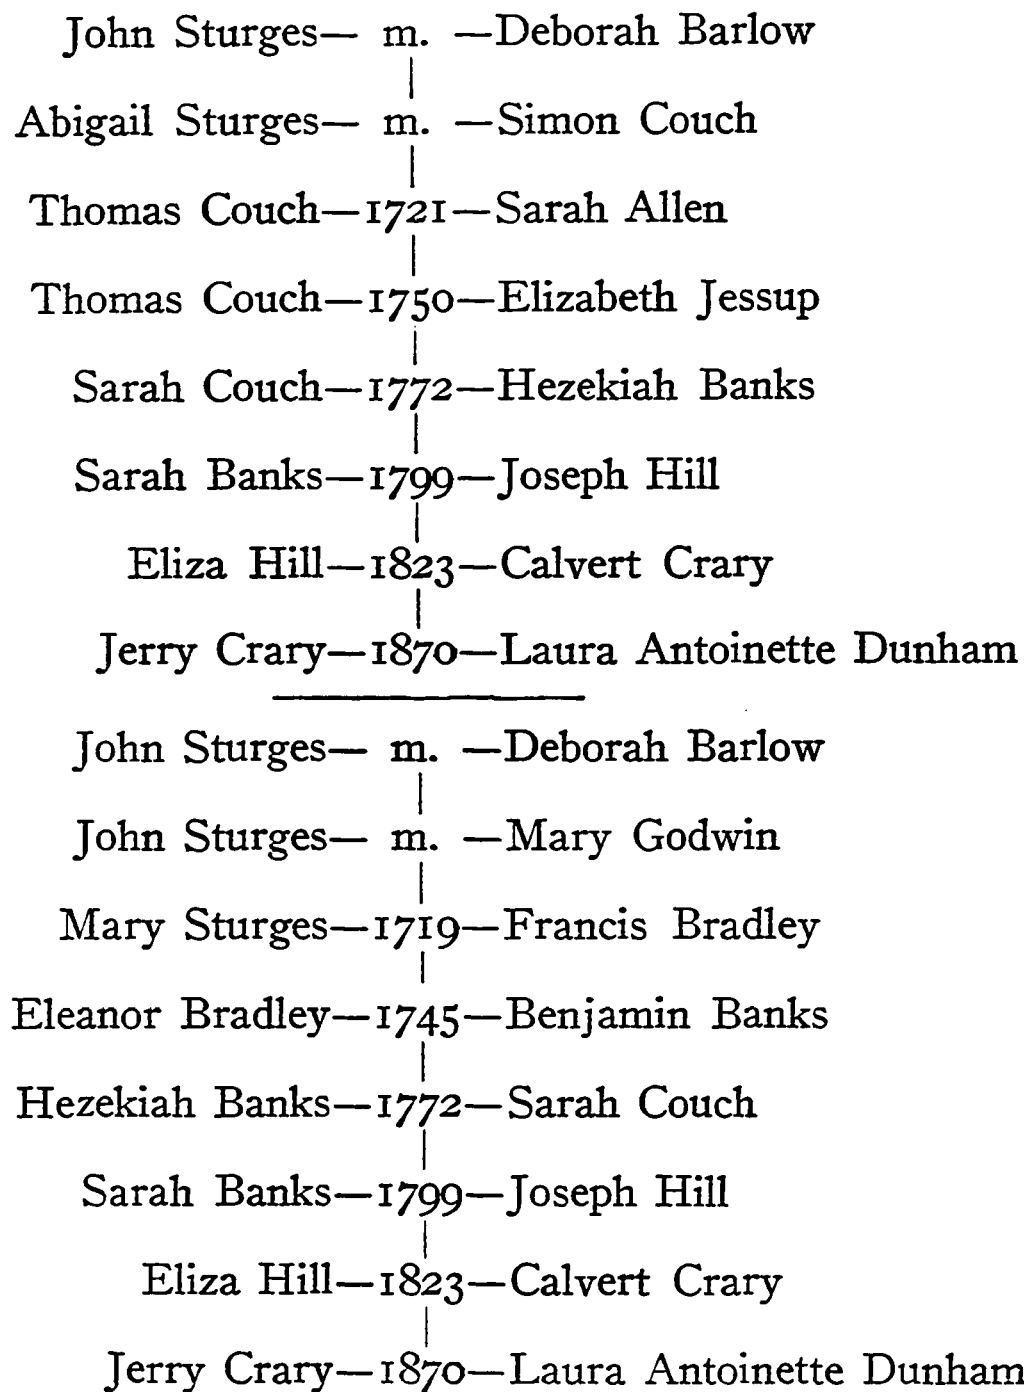

See ANDREWS

2. ELLING or ELLAN SMITH, daughter of Giles Smith, married George Godwin, who died in 1658.

STURGES

1. JOHN STURGES, born about 1624, settled in Fairfield, Ct., 1660. He is supposed to have been the son of Edward of Yarmouth, but that fact is yet to be established. He was one of the Selectmen of Fairfield in 1669, and made his will there March 4, 1697-8, in which he mentions his children, among them being his son John and his daughter Abigail, wife of Simon Couch. He married Deborah, daughter of John and Ann Barlow, who probably predeceased him, as she is not mentioned in his will. He died in 1700.

2. ABIGAIL STURGES, daughter of John and Deborah (Barlow) Sturges, married Simon Couch, who died in 1713.

See COUCH

2. JOHN STURGES, son of John and Deborah (Barlow) Sturges, was without doubt, born before his father came to Fairfield, Ct. Authorities differ as to the name of his wife, the compiler of the Sturges Genealogy stating that his wife was Mary Gardiner and others stating she was Mary Goodwin, but the History of Fairfield, Ct., Vol. 1, p. 413, states that he married Mary, daughter of George Goodwin, and that he was living in 1729, and gave his son-in-law Francis Bradley, property left him by his father-in-law George Goodwin. There was a George Godwin who died in Fairfield, 1658, leaving a family, and it is fair to assume that Mary was the daughter of his possible grandson George Godwin, although no positive evidence has been found to sustain it. Certain it is Mary was not the daughter of George Godwin, who died in 1658.

3. MARY STURGES, daughter of John and Mary (Godwin) Sturges, was born in Fairfield, Ct., Aug. 8, 1699, and married in 1719, Francis Bradley, born May 29, 1699.

1. NATHANIEL TURNER came to New England with Winthrop, and was of Lynn, Mass., in 1630. In 1632 he was made Constable and in 1634 represented the town at the first Court. He served as Deputy in 1635 and 1636 and saw service in the Pequot War of 1637. He was always known as Captain. In 1638 he removed to New Haven, Ct., and was Assistant to the Governor in 1639, being also the first Magistrate of the town. In 1640 he was one of the purchasers of Stamford. He sailed for London in Jan., 1646, in the ill-fated bark Phantom, which was lost at sea and never heard from again.

His house in New Haven was located on the northeast corner of Church and Wall Streets.

The name of his wife is not known, but after his death she married Samuel Goodenhouse, and the Town Records of New Haven show that they resided on Nathaniel Turner's property. In 1661 portions of the estate were still due his children.

2. ABIGAIL TURNER, daughter of Nathaniel Turner, was married by the Governor, Sept. 2, 1651, to John Hudson, at New Haven, Ct.

1. ANDREW WARD is first recorded in New England at Watertown, Mass., where he was admitted freeman May 14, 1634, and where he owned ten acres of land. The minutes of the Bay Colony at its session held May 3, 1635-6, show that "A Commission graunted to severall persons to governe the People att Conecticut for the space of a yeare, now nexte comeing, That some present governm't may be observed, thinke meet, & soe order, that Roger Ludlowe, Esqr. Willm Pynchon Esqr. John Steele, Wm. Swaine, Henry Smith, Willm Phelps, Willm Westwood & Andrew Warde or the greater p'te of them shall have full power and auctharite to hear and determine in a judicall way by witnesses upon oathe, examined within the said plantacon, all those differences w'ch may arise between partie & partie," &c.

Andrew Ward settled in Wethersfield, Ct., in the spring of 1635, being one of the first five dismissed from the church in Watertown, Mass., to form a new church in Watertown, Ct., as Wethersfield was then called. He was a member of the first court in the Colony of Connecticut, April, 1636, and helped to make the first laws of the new Colony. He was a member of the Court seven sessions in 1636 and five in 1637; was also a member of the Upper House when in 1637 war was declared against the Pequots; acted as Deputy four sessions after the confederation of the three River Towns, with the Connecticut Colony, in 1639. In 1640 he with others, purchased land comprising the present town of Stamford, Ct., and in the spring of 1641 he removed to that neighborhood, which place he represented in the New Haven Colony Court, 1644 and 1646, and from which place he removed to Hempstead, L. I., but in about 1650 he returned and finally settled in Fairfield, Ct., where he was a man of consequence and which place he represented in 1653.

He married Hester Sherman, born in England, April 1, 1606, and who made her will in Fairfield, Ct., Dec. 27, 1665, in which she mentions among others, her daughter Sarah Burr and granddaughter Ann Burr. The will of Andrew Ward is dated June 8, 1659, and was proven at Fairfield, Oct. 20th of that year.

2. SARAH WARD, daughter of Andrew and Hester (Sherman) Ward, died before 1698, as the wife of Nathaniel Burr, who died Feb. 26, 1712.

ANCESTORS OF LAURA ANTOINETTE DUNHAM

DUNHAM AND ALLEN

DUNHAM

Thomas Dunham—1791—Ann Carrell
Richard Dunham—1826—Laura Allen
Laura Antoinette Dunham—1870—Jerry Crary

1. THOMAS DUNHAM was born in England in 1766 and emigrated to America about 1788, landing at Perth Amboy, N. J. He located for a while near New Brunswick, N. J. In 1791 he married Ann Carrell and in 1801 removed to Ovid, Seneca Co., N. Y., and in 1811 or 1812 to Hector, N. Y., and later to Howard Township, Steuben Co., N. Y., where he died in 1845. His wife died in 1843. They were buried in a small cemetery near Buena Vista, Howard Township, Steuben Co., N. Y.

2. RICHARD DUNHAM, son of Thomas Dunham and Ann Carrell, was born in 1802 in Lodi, a part of Ovid Township, Seneca Co., N. Y. He was educated in Ithaca, N. Y., and afterwards taught school and operated a farm. In 1826 he was married to Laura Allen, daughter of Enos Allen. In 1833 they moved to Cherry Grove Township, Warren Co., Pa., and engaged in lumbering. He soon removed to Sheffield, Pa., where he operated a farm, also continuing extensively in the lumbering business. He was active in the affairs of the township and county and was Justice of the Peace for twenty years. He assisted in organizing the Methodist Episcopal Church in Sheffield. In 1869 he moved to Warren where he died Jan. 30, 1870.

Laura Allen, his wife, was born July 29, 1805, probably in Salisbury, Vt. She was the daughter of Enos Allen and Ann Elizabeth Murray. She died in Warren, Pa., July 29, 1891.

3. LAURA ANTOINETTE DUNHAM, daughter of Richard Dunham and Laura Allen, was born April 22, 1846 in Sheffield, Pa. She married, Sept. 13, 1870, Jerry Crary, son of Calvert Crary and Eliza Hill. They lived in Sheffield until 1902 when they moved to Warren, Pa., where they now reside.

 Laura Allen—1826—Richard Dunham
 Laura Antoinette Dunham—1870—Jerry Crary

1. SAMUEL ALLEN probably came to this country in 1630 and settled at Dorchester. He was granted land in Windsor, Conn., in 1640. It is recorded that he served as a juryman March 8, 1644. He was a farmer and a man of public spirit. He was buried in Windsor, April 28, 1648. His property inventoried Sept. 8, 1648 at 76 pounds, 18 shillings, 8 pence. The maiden name of his wife Ann is not known. After his death she married William Hurlbut and removed to Northampton, Mass., in 1657 with the Allen children. She died Nov. 13, 1687.

2. NEHEMIAH ALLEN, son of Samuel and Ann Allen, married Sarah Woodford, daughter of Thomas Woodford and Mary Blott, Sept. 21, 1664. She was born in Hartford, Sept. 2, 1649. He was sometime of Salisbury, Conn., but returned to Northampton, where he died June 27, 1684. He was a Constable in Northampton in 1672. His estate inventoried July 23, 1684, at 420 pounds, 8 shillings. His widow married second Richard Burke, and third Judah Wright. She died March 31, 1713.

3. SAMUEL ALLEN, son of Nehemiah Allen and Sarah Woodford, was born Jan. 3, 1665. He married Mercy Wright, daughter of Judah and Mercy Wright of Northampton. She was born March 14, 1669. Samuel Allen was first of Northampton. He removed to Deerfield where on Dec. 8, 1705, he bought land of Samuel Carter. About 1713 he moved to Coventry, Conn., where he died Oct. 14, 1718. His widow removed to Litchfield, Conn., in 1720 and died there Feb. 9, 1728. Her will was probated in Litchfield, April 24, 1728.

4. DANIEL ALLEN, son of Samuel Allen and Mercy Wright, was born Nov 1, 1701, in Northampton, Mass. He married April 28, 1737, Mary Grant, of Litchfield, Conn., daughter of Josiah Grant and Sarah Cooke. He was the executor of his mother's estate in 1728. On July 28, 1742, he sold all his lands in Litchfield amounting to 259 acres for 800 pounds and moved to Cornwall, Conn.

He died at Cornwall and his will was probated Oct. 29, 1747.

General Ethan Allen was a nephew of Daniel Allen. General Allen's father was Joseph, a brother of Daniel. Joseph Allen married Mary Baker, and their son Ethan was born Jan. 10, 1737-8. Ethan Allen was the gallant leader of the Green Mountain Boys in the Revolutionary War and his romantic capture of Ticonderoga takes a prominent place in history.

5. ELIHU ALLEN, son of Daniel Allen and Mary Grant, was born in Litchfield, Conn., May 4, 1739. He married Abigail Dean, daughter of John Dean and Anne Bishop. She was born at Stamford, Conn., July 27, 1736. They were married at Cornwall, Conn., Jan. 4, 1759, and in 1776 moved to Williston, Vt., from which place they were driven by the invasion of the British to Salisbury, Vt., returning to Williston after the war. He afterwards lived in Wallingford, Vt., and in New York State. He died at the home of his son in Dunham, Quebec, Feb. 27, 1820, and is buried in Trinity Cemetery, St. Armond, Quebec. He served at seven different times as a soldier in the Revolutionary War. This service appears to have been done in the State of Vermont, as a private in various companies, in the defence of the northern frontier and in various campaigns. The Vermont Revolutionary Records show his services in the following documents: Doc. 146, p. 18; Doc. 114, p. 59; Doc. 284, p. 128; Doc. 135, p. 189; Doc. 198, p. 250; Doc. 373, p. 395; Doc. 43, p. 564.

6. ENOS ALLEN, son of Elihu Allen and Abigail Dean, was born at Cornwall, Conn., June 23, 1774. He taught school in Westfield, Vt., in Dec., 1800. The contract with the school trustees shows that he was to receive $7.00 per month for a three months term. The trustees agreed to furnish him decent boarding and to arrange for his washing as well as to have the fires made in the school house by nine o'clock each morning. He married Mrs. Ann Elizabeth Murray French, a widow, about 1802. She was the daughter of William Murray and — Crawley, and was born Aug. 4, 1776. No record has been found of Mr. French, her first husband. Enos Allen and his family moved to New York State prior to 1812 and in 1814 lived at what is now Rock Stream, Yates County. He was commissioned a Lieutenant of a Montgomery County regiment in Feb., 1812, and it would therefore seem that he saw service in the War of 1812. He died Sept. 19, 1858. His wife died in May, 1850. They are buried in the cemetery at Rock Stream.

7. LAURA ALLEN, daughter of Enos Allen and Ann Murray was born July 29, 1805, and married Richard Dunham, son of Thomas Dunham and Ann Carrell, in 1826.

1. REV. JOHN BISHOP was of Taunton, Mass., 1640, and of Boston in 1644. During the latter year, Lt. Francis Bell and George Slason were sent on foot by the church at Stamford, Ct., to Boston, Mass., to see if they could find John Bishop and prevail upon him to become their pastor. He returned with them and served the church as its minister for fifty years. His will dated Sept. 16, 1694, probated in March, 1695, mentions two wives, Rebecka and Joanna, both deceased. The maiden name of Rebecka is not known, but as William Potter in 1684, of Stamford, Ct., left the sons of Rev. John Bishop considerable property, leads to the suggestion that she may have been the sister of William Potter, but no authority has been found to sustain it. His second wife was Joanna, daughter of Capt. Thomas Willet and widow of Rev. Peter Prudden.

2. EBENEZER BISHOP, son of Rev. John and Rebecka Bishop, was born in Stamford, Ct., in 1666, and died there March 12, 1710. He married Oct. 2, 1700, Sarah, daughter of John Slason.

3. ANNE BISHOP, daughter of Ebenezer and Sarah (Slason), son) Bishop, was born in Stamford, Ct., Sept. 19, 1702, and married Jan. 20, 1723-4, John Dean, who died March 28, 1740.

1. HENRY BURT was born in England, 1615, and was in Roxbury, Mass., in 1638. In 1639 it is recorded that his home was destroyed by fire in that place and in 1640 he appears on the town records of Springfield, Mass., where he had many grants of land. He was a member of the first body of Selectmen, 1644-1655, excepting the year 1652. In 1657 he was Clerk of the First Military Co. in the town. He died April 30, 1662, holding the position of "Clarke of ye Writts" at that time.

He married Eulaliah, maiden name not known, whose will was proven Sept. 30, 1690, in which she mentions her daughter Mercy, leaving her "one half of that Cloth that is sent to the Weavers, and the Serdge her husband sent me for a Wastecoate, one pair of Sheetes, one Pillow-beer, one shift, one coate."

2. MERCY BURT, daughter of Henry and Eulaliah Burt, was born in Springfield, Mass., Sept. 27, 1647, and died in Northampton, Mass., in 1705, as the wife of Judah Wright.

1. SAMUEL DEAN was born before 1630. He was an early settler in Stamford, Conn., and had land assigned him there in 1650. He deeded land that same year. "Goodman Dean requested land set to him near Toilsome Cold Spring in 1677." Was one of the Selectmen of Stamford in 1680. Was on a committee to lay out land in 1682 and was appointed surveyor of the upper part of the town in 1688. Sometime before 1659 he married Ann Holmes, daughter of Francis and Ann Holmes. She was born about 1634. He died in Stamford Dec. 27, 1703.

2. JOHN DEAN, son of Samuel Dean and Ann Holmes, was born Dec. 10, 1659, and died in Stamford, Conn., March 28, 1740. John Dean buys the "Dismal Swamp on ye east side ye path" Jan. 24, 1689. His wife Abigail —— died March 11, 1739-40.

3. JOHN DEAN, son of John and Abigail Dean, was born about 1700. He married Anne Bishop, daughter of Ebenezer Bishop and Sarah Slason, Jan. 20, 1723-4. She was born Sept. 19, 1702. John Dean enlisted March 5, 1757 (having enlisted before), under Capt. David Waterbury, 3rd, of Stamford for the French and Indian War.

4. ABIGAIL DEAN, daughter of John Dean and Anne Bishop, was born at Stamford, Conn., July 17, 1736. She married in Cornwall, Conn., Jan. 4th, 1759, Elihu Allen.

1. LORD SYMOND FISKE, grandson of Daniel, was Lord of the Manor of Stadhaugh, Parish of Laxfield, County Suffolk, England, and lived in the reigns of Henry IV, and V (1399-1422). He married Susannah Smyth. His will dated Dec. 22, 1463, was proved at Norwich, Feb. 26, 1463-4.

2. WILLIAM FISKE, son of Symond and Susannah

(Smyth) Fiske, was born in Stadhaugh, Eng., and died there about 1504. He married Joan Lynne of Norfolk, whose will was proven Feb. 28, 1505.

3. SIMON FISKE, son of William and Joan (Lynne) Fiske, was born in Laxfield, Eng., where his will was proven July 13, 1538, wherein he requested burial in the chancel end of the Church of All Saints in Laxfield, next to his wife and his father. He married Elizabeth, maiden name not known, who died in Halesworth.

4. SIMON FISKE, son of Simon and Elizabeth Fiske, was born in Laxfield, Eng., and died there. Dates not known nor has the name of his wife been preserved.

5. ROBERT FISKE, son of Simon Fiske, was born at Stadhaugh, Eng., about 1525, and married Sybil (Gould) Barber. She was in great danger at the time of the religious persecution 1553-1558, as was her sister Isabella Gould, who was confined in the castle of Norwich. Robert fled for religion's sake in the days of Queen Mary, to Geneva, but returned and died at St. James. His will was proven July 28, 1600.

6. WILLIAM FISKE, son of Robert and Sybil (Gould-Barber) Fiske, was born at Laxfield, Eng., 1566, and married Anne, daughter of Walter Anstye of Tibbenham, Long Row in Norfolk. His will was proven May 17, 1623, in which he mentioned his son John, leaving him lands in St. James, South Elmham.

7. JOHN FISKE, son of William and Anne (Anstye) Fiske, married Anne, daughter of Robert Lantersee, and died on board ship in 1637 bound for New England.

8. WILLIAM FISKE, son of John and Anne (Lantersee) Fiske, was born in England about 1613, and married at Salem, Mass., 1643, Bridgett Muskett of Pelham, Eng. He was a member of the Salem Church in 1641, but removed to Wenham, where he was the first Town Clerk, serving from 1643 to 1660.

He was elected representative to the General Court in 1647 and continued in that office until 1652. He died suddenly and intestate in 1654.

After his death, his widow married in 1661, Dr. Thomas Rix of Salem.

9. WILLIAM FISKE, son of William and Bridgett (Muskett) Fiske, was baptized in Wenham, Mass., June 4, 1643, and married there Jan. 15, 1662, Sarah Kilham, born 1649, died Jan. 26, 1737, daughter of Austin and Alice Kilham. The will of Austin Kilham was proven Sept. 24, 1667.

William Fiske was a weaver by trade. He represented Wenham in 1701, 1704, 1711, 1713 and 1714. He is styled Lieutenant in the records, having served as Ensign in the Militia and later in 1686 being made a Lieutenant. He was elected Deacon in the Congregational Church in 1679 and died in Wenham, Feb. 5, 1728.

10. SARAH FISKE, daughter of William and Sarah (Kilham) Fiske, was born in Wenham, Mass., Feb. 5, 1664, and married Sept. 14, 1688, John Cooke.

1. MATTHEW GRANT was born in England, Oct. 27, 1601, and died in Windsor, Ct., Dec. 16, 1681, at the home of his son John, with whom he had lived four years. He married first, Nov. 16, 1625, Priscilla, maiden name not known, who died in Windsor, Ct., April 27, 1644, aged 43 years and 2 months. He married second, May 29, 1645, Susanna, widow of William Rockwell.

On March 20, 1630, he embarked with his family on the ship Mary and John, at Plymouth, Eng., and reached Boston, Mass., May 30, 1630. He located first at Dorchester, but in 1635 removed to Windsor, Ct., where he was Deacon of the first church, recorder (town clerk) from 1652 until 1677, Selectman many years. Dr. Stiles says of him "Few men, indeed, filled so large a place in the early history of Windsor, or filled it so well, as honest Matthew Grant; his name figures in almost every place of trust and the early records show that his duties were always conscientiously performed." He was the compiler of the "Old Church Record" the basis of most of the families of ancient Windsor.

2. JOHN GRANT, son of Matthew and Priscilla Grant, was born in Windsor, Ct., Sept. 30, 1642, and died there July 22, 1684. He married there, Aug. 2, 1666, Mary Hull, daughter of Josiah Hull. He resided in his father's old home, which he enlarged. He served the town as fence viewer, lister and constable. In King Philip's War he was ordered Sept. 6, 1676 to take twenty men and march to the relief of Westfield and Springfield.

3. JOSIAH GRANT, son of John and Mary (Hull) Grant, was born in Windsor, Ct., Jan. 28, 1682, and died in Litchfield, Ct., Feb. 26, 1762. He married in Windsor, March 30, 1710, Sarah, daughter of John Cooke, and at her death he married Sarah, daughter of Nathaniel Cooke. His first wife, Sarah, died July 30, 1713. While in Windsor he served as surveyor, fence viewer and tythingman. After his removal to Litchfield, about 1726, he served as one of the Selectmen and is called Sergeant in most of the records.

4. MARY GRANT, daughter of Josiah and Sarah (Cooke) Grant, was born in Windsor, Ct., July 20, 1713, and was living in 1763 as the widow of Daniel Allen, whom she married April 28, 1737.

1. GEORGE HULL, son of Thomas and Joane (Peson) Hull of Crewkerne, Somersetshire, England, was born in that place in 1590 and was married there Aug. 17, 1614, to Thamsen Michell, daughter of Robert Michell, a well-to-do yeoman of Stockland in the adjoining shire of Dorset. On March 30, 1629-30 George Hull sailed from Plymouth, England, for New England. After spending a short time in Boston, he settled in Dorchester where he was a member of its first board of Selectmen, and its representative in the first General Court of Mass. Bay Colony, held May 14, 1634. In 1636 he removed to Windsor, Ct., and was one of the first Deputies from that place, serving 1637-46 and acted frequently as a Magistrate. He removed to Fairfield, Ct., before 1649, following his personal friend and political adherent, Governor Roger Ludlow. In 1651, 1653 and 1654 he was appointed by the Governor as associate magistrate for the towns by the seaside.

When his wife Thamsen died is not known, but in 1655 he was already married to Sarah, widow of David Phipin of Boston, who survived him only a few days, as their inventories were filed together Aug. 25, 1659.

2. JOSIAH HULL, son of George and Thamsen (Michell) Hull, was baptized at Crewkerne, Eng., Nov. 10, 1616, and came to New England with his father. He married at Windsor, Ct., May 20, 1640, Elizabeth, daughter of Joseph Loomis, and in 1643-4 he removed to Killingworth, Ct., where he was chosen the first Town Recorder, Oct. 2, 1665, and Lieutenant of the Train Band in 1666. He was Deputy to the General Court in 1659, 1660, 1662, 1667, 1674 and died at Killingworth, Nov. 16, 1675.

3. MARY HULL, daughter of Josiah and Elizabeth (Loomis) Hull, was baptized Oct. 8, 1648, and died June 29, 1720, as the widow of John Grant, whom she married Aug. 2, 1666.

1. JOSEPH LOOMIS, son of John and Agnes Loomis, was born in England before 1590 and when his father-in-law Robert White made his will he stated he was of Braintree, England.

As per the parish register at Shalford, County Essex, he married there June 30, 1614, Mary White, daughter of Robert and Bridget (Allgar) White. He was also baptized there in the above parish church, Aug. 24, 1590. Her father and mother were married in the same parish June 24, 1585. In the will of Robert White, 1617, he bequeaths his daughter the wife of Joseph "Lummis" one pewter platter and makes Joseph one of the supervisors of his will, which was proved in June, 1617. Bridget the wife of Robert White was the daughter of William Allgar of Shalford and was baptized there March 11, 1562. Her father was buried there Aug. 2, 1575.

Joseph Loomis was a woolen draper and he with his family sailed from London, April 11, 1638, in the ship Susan and Ellen for New England, arriving in Boston in July. After tarrying at Dorchester about a year, they removed to Windsor, Ct., where he was granted 21 acres of land adjoining the Farmington River, which included the site of the first English settlement in Connecticut. He died there Nov. 25, 1658, and she died Aug. 23, 1652. He was Deputy from Windsor, 1643, 1644.

2. ELIZABETH LOOMIS, daughter of Joseph and Mary (White) Loomis, was born about 1619, and married May 20, 1641, Josiah, son of George Hull.

1. ROBERT MURRAY emigrated from England early in the 18th Century and was undoubtedly Scotch. The name of his wife is not recorded.

2. WILLIAM MURRAY, son of Robert Murray, married — Crawley.

William Murray served as Corporal in Captain Joshua Babcock's Company in the battalion commanded by Ebenezer Walbridge, Esq., Lt. Col. Commanding, in the service of Vermont 1781. Commencing of service May 1, 1781, ending Nov. 14, 1781. For 173 days and 70 miles travel he was paid 14 pounds, 16 shillings, 9 pence. (Vermont Revolutionary Records, p. 580, Document No. 167.)

Whether this William Murray was the son of Robert Murray and father of Ann Elizabeth, it is difficult to confirm.

3. ANN ELIZABETH MURRAY, daughter of William and (— Crawley) Murray, was born Aug. 4, 1776. She married first, — French and second, in 1802 Enos Allen.

I. WILLIAM TUTTLE arrived in New England from England in July, 1635, bringing with him his wife Elizabeth (maiden name not known), and children. They were in Boston as late as April, 1639, but in June of that year he signed the Fundamental Agreement of New Haven, Ct., and continued to reside there until his death, which took place about 1673. His wife died Dec. 30, 1684, aged 72 years. At her death, her sons sold the old home to Hester Coster, widow, who died in 1691, leaving the property to the First Church of Christ in New Haven. They sold it in 1717 to the trustees of the collegiate school, who immediately commenced the erection of the first college building. In 1718 it received the name of Yale College. This building stood about 64 years. In 1883 the Athenaeum and the South Middle College stood on this plot. The Tuttle homestead was the only land owned by the College for nearly 30 years. On this spot William Tuttle lived and died and his great-grandson Jonathan Edwards studied and taught. In March, 1666-7, he was made a Constable, an office of importance in those early days. They were both buried under the sod of the old green. In 1821 her grave stone was still standing and was removed to the Grove St. Cemetery, and in 1883 was one of a row along the north wall of that enclosure, part of the inscription being still visible.

2. SARAH TUTTLE, daughter of William and Elizabeth Tuttle, was baptized in New Haven, Ct., April, 1642, and married there Nov. 19, 1663, John, son of George Slason. She died Nov. 17 1676.

1. JOHN WRIGHT of Kelvedon, County Essex, England, died there Oct. 5, 1551. The Manor of Kelvedon was acquired by purchase by him in 1538 and the present Kelvedon Hall was erected in 1742. The arms and crest were first registered June 20, 1590, to John Wright, his son. He married Olive, maiden name not known.

2. JOHN WRIGHT, son of John and Olive Wright, was of Wrightsbridge, Co. Essex, England. He married Avis, daughter and sole heir of Robert Rooke of Havering, County Essex.

3. JOHN WRIGHT, son of John and Avis (Rooke) Wright, was of Wrightsbridge, County Essex, Eng., and married second, Bennett, daughter of Lawrence Greene of London.

4. SAMUEL WRIGHT, son of John and Bennett (Greene) Wright, known in New England as Deacon Samuel Wright, first appears in the town records of Springfield, Mass., in 1639. He was a Deacon of the first church there and "used to exhort the people and conduct the meetings on the sabbaths when there was no minister." He removed to Northampton, Mass., in 1655, and died there Oct. 17, 1665, "while sleeping in his chair." He married Margaret, maiden name not known, who died in 1681. Their homestead remained in the family until 1799.

5. JUDAH WRIGHT, son of Samuel and Margaret Wright, was born in Springfield, Mass., May 10, 1642, and died in Northampton, Mass., in 1725. He married Jan. 8, 1666, for his first wife, Mercy, who died in 1705, daughter of Henry Burt, and they were admitted to full communion in the church at Northampton in 1675.

His home in that town was situated on Bridge St. and continued in his line for five successive generations. He married second, as her third husband, Sarah Woodford, first wife of Nehemiah Allen.

6. MERCY WRIGHT, daughter of Judah and Mercy (Burt) Wright, was born in Northampton, Mass., March 14, 1668-9, and died in Litchfield, Ct., Feb. 9, 1728, as the widow of Samuel Allen, whom she married Dec. 15, 1692.
