INTRODUCTION

WHEN the compiler of this account was preparing his genealogy of the Peverly family, which was published in 1927, he was told by Mr. John Eames, then living at Northumberland, N. H., and nearly one hundred years of age, that two of the daughters of Joseph⁵ Peverly (No. 13 of the Peverly genealogy), in his time the leading man in Northumberland, married two young pioneers living in the neighboring town of Percy, now Stark.* The only further information that Mr. Eames could give was that one of these young men was afterwards known as Deacon Cole. Inquiries of old men at Stark for Deacon Cole and his descendants were fruitless, and there was nothing in print about them. The writer had therefore to explore the Cole family of Stark in order to complete his account of the Peverly family.

Besides descendants of Jonathan³ Cole (vide infra, No. 3) other Coles are found at Percy in the early days; but no one of them, so far as the writer has been able to ascertain, has now any descendant there. These sporadic Coles were:

1. ANSON, whose son Avery was born at Percy 20 Dec. 1805 (town records).

2. AVERY, tavern keeper, 1804, perhaps a brother of Anson, who married 30 Jan. 1804 (ib.) Polly Blair, and had Suil [? Sewall] Cole, born at Percy 27 Nov. 1804.

3. ZIBA, who, with his wife Rebecca, conveyed in 1852 to Irene, Caroline, and Clarissa Smith, children of Alfred and Irene (Jackson) Smith and grandchildren of Aaron and Hannah (Smith) Jackson (vide infra, 3, ix, 2), 100 acres in Northumberland and 30 acres in Stark (Coos Deeds, B. R., vol. 28, p. 280). There is no evidence that either of the grantors was related in any way to the grantees. Ziba Cole, of Percy in 1803, married, 14 Nov. 1830, Rebecca Ford, born in 1810. They had a son Cyril, born in Vermont in 1833 (United States Census of 1850).

Several of the descendants of Jonathan³ Cole took an intelligent and active interest in the inquiries of the writer; but none of them showed greater interest than Miss Persis Jane Roberts (vide infra, No. 4, ix, 1) of Stark, born in 1851, great-grandaughter of Jonathan³ Cole, to whom the writer is indebted for much detailed information about the early Coles at Percy. Speaking generally, those members of the family who had had the advantages of a superior education or had been successful in their vocations responded promptly to these inquiries. It was the unintelligent and unsuccessful who failed to do so. This is the common experience of persons engaged in genealogical research.

*The name of the town of Percy was changed to Stark 28 Dec. 1832. At the present time there is in Stark a village named Percy, with a post office and railroad station.

All the Coos County probate records and about two-thirds of the deeds were destroyed by fire in 1886. Thus the usual sources of information for families in that county do not exist. The tombstones of married women at Stark and in the neighboring towns generally give their maiden names and are thus of exceptional value in genealogical work.

The founder in America of the Cole family which forms the subject of this genealogy was Solomon Cole, mariner, who appears at Beverly, Essex Co., Mass., in 1678. Many of his descendants lived in Essex County; and in this account births, baptisms, marriages, deaths, and burials at Beverly, Essex, Gloucester, Hamilton, Ipswich, Salem, and Wenham have been taken from the printed vital records of those towns, unless the contrary is indicated. All places mentioned in the following account, except large and well-known cities, are situated within the present limits of the State of New Hampshire, unless another State or region is indicated in the text or may be easily inferred from the context.

The account of this family, first printed in the Register of the New England Historic Genealogical Society, volume 86 (1932), is now, with its co-operation, reprinted with corrections, additions and indexes. A type-written supplement containing for the most part an account of further descendants in female lines will be filed with the New Hampshire Historical Society and the New England Historic Genealogical Society.

The compiler will be grateful for notice of omissions or errors.

COLE FAMILY OF STARK

COLE FAMILY OF STARK

1. SOLOMON¹ COLE, of Beverly, Mass., mariner, born as early as 1660, died before 11 Jan. 1714/15. He married MARY ———, perhaps the Mary² Weeden who was born in Boston about 1660, daughter of Edward¹ and Elizabeth (Cole) Weeden (vide infra).

The only information that the writer has found about the parentage of Solomon Cole is a statement of the late editor of the Essex Antiquarian (in vol. 3, p. 144, of that publication) that Solomon Cole's mother was Mary Cook. No Solomon Cole is given in Savage's "Genealogical Dictionary." The first mention in the town records of Beverly of any Cole is in the account of the town meeting of 5 Nov. 1678, according to which "Solomon Cole sued to the town for halfe an acre of land . . . at Snake Hill and it was granted by the town" (Beverly City Documents, 1896, p. 361). This was doubtless the Solomon¹ Cole of this genealogy, then about to set up his own household. By 3 Dec. 1677 he had taken the oath of fidelity at Beverly (Records of the Quarterly Courts of Essex County, vol. 6, p. 401).

The recurrence of the uncommon Christian name Weeden among the descendants of Solomon¹ Cole suggested an inquiry as to the possible relationship between them and Edward¹ Weeden of Boston, who came to New England in the Susan & Ellen in 1635, then twenty-two years of age (Register, vol. 14, p. 309; Savage, vol. 4, p. 452), or with Samuel¹ Cole, "comfit maker," first innkeeper in Boston, town officer, member of the committee to receive contributions for Harvard College, benefactor by his will of Harvard College (Winsor's Memorial History of Boston, vol. 1, pp. 493, 566; Register, vol. 15, p. 249), whose daughter, Elizabeth Cole, married Edward¹ Weeden. Samuel¹ Cole's children, as mentioned in his nuncupative will of 21 Dec. 1666 (Register, vol. 15, p. 249), were Elizabeth (who married Edward Weeden), Mary (who married Edward Jackson), and John (Frank T. Cole's Cole Family, p. 24). There is no Solomon Cole in the list of John Cole's children. Among the children of Edward and Elizabeth (Cole) Weeden was Elizabeth, who married Sampson Cole (Savage, vol. 4, p. 452) of Rumney Marsh (now included in Chelsea, Winthrop, and Revere), Mass. Their children were: 1. Elizabeth, born 7 June 1674. 2. Elizabeth, born 19 Nov. 1679. 3. David, born 31 Dec. 1683. 4. Jonathan, born 3 Sept. 1686. (Ib., vol. 1, p. 429.) It will be noted that Solomon¹ Cole must have been born as early as 1660, for his son Solomon² Cole was born 12 Aug.

1681; and therefore Solomon¹ Cole could not have been a child of Sampson and Elizabeth (Weeden) Cole.

But Edward¹ and Elizabeth (Cole) Weeden had a daughter Mary, the date of whose birth is unknown and whose marriage record has not been found by the writer. She was baptized 17, 4 mo., 1667 (South Church records), the third of their five children then baptized and therefore not newly born. She was not yet married in 1672 (Chamberlain's History of Chelsea, vol. 1, p. 24). The only thing known about the wife of Solomon¹ Cole is that her Christian name was Mary, as is shown by a deed of 2 Apr. 1694, signed by her and her husband (Essex Deeds, vol. 14, p. 163), and by the record of the births of her children. If she was Mary Weeden and therefore the mother of Jonathan² Cole, who was born in 1699, her son had good reason for naming one of his sons Weeden Cole (vide infra, 2, vi), and the persistence of the name Weeden among the descendants of Solomon¹ Cole is amply accounted for.

Children, born at Beverly:

This grant of administration indicates that his father was then dead, and that Solomon Cole, Jr., left surviving no widow and no adult child. There were no guardianship proceedings.

vii. ANNA, b. 4 Apr. 1738; m. 28 Dec. 1756 ROBERT PATCH of Beverly, bapt. at Beverly 11 Feb. 1732/3, son of Robert and Charity (Taylor) Patch.

In November 1738 Richard Patch of Beverly was appointed guardian of Robert Patch, upwards of 14 years of age, son of Robert Patch of Beverly, deceased (Essex Probate Files, 20731). Administration on the estate of Robert Patch of Beverly, deceased, had been granted 27 July 1735 to his widow Charity (ib., 20730).

Children (surname Patch), b. at Beverly:

1. Anna, b. 12 Aug. 1758; m. 6 Apr. 1780 Edward Foster of Beverly, mariner, b. at Beverly 15 Aug. 1755, d. before 16 Oct. 1807, son of Moses and Hannah Foster. Administration on his estate was granted 16 Oct. 1807 to his widow, Anna Foster (Essex Probate Files, 9844).

In his will, dated 14 Jan. 1835 and proved 1 Apr. 1835, Nathaniel Roberts names his wife Molly Roberts as executrix (Essex Probate Files, 23,838).

3. JONATHAN³ COLE (Jonathan,² *Solomon*¹), of Beverly, Mass., Uxbridge, Mass., in 1759, Sutton, Mass., in 1760, Northumberland, N. H., in 1790, and Percy (now Stark), N. H., in 1791, tailor, weaver, born at Beverly 11 Feb. 1724/5, died after 1803 and probably before 1809, for he is not among the Coles who were taxed at Percy in the latter year. He married first, at Ipswich, Mass., 21 May 1747, LUCIA EMERSON, born at Ipswich 15 May 1729, daughter of Thomas⁴ and Sarah (Martin) Emerson (The Ipswich Emersons, p. 109); and secondly, at Uxbridge, 12 Sept. 1759, ELISABETH CROWNINSHIELD (town records).

He bought lands at Sutton 3 July 1760 (Worcester Deeds, vol. 43, p. 435), and sold them 20 Aug. 1763 (ib., vol. 48, p. 295). In May 1762 Jonathan Cole, formerly of Uxbridge, with his wife Elizabeth and the first six children, as given below, except No. iii, was warned out of Sutton (Worcester County Warnings, p. 70). In January 1785 Jonathan Cole of Sutton and his wife Eliza [sic] quitclaimed for 10 guineas his interest in land in Sutton, "by virtue of my labor that I have done on it," and the deed was witnessed by Elizabeth Cole (Worcester Deeds, vol. 94, p. 534). In February 1798 Jonathan Cole of Percy conveyed one-half of his settler's lot, No. 20, bounded north by the river, to his son Clifford Cole of Percy (Coos Deeds, vol. G. 6, p. 262). He is found at Percy in 1800 (United States Census), and was taxed there in 1802.

Children by first wife, born at Beverly:

- i. JONATHAN,⁴ of Sutton, soldier from Sutton in the Revolution, b. 24 Feb. 1748/9 and bapt. at Ipswich 14 Aug. 1748 [sic]. He is said to have gone to England after the Revolution and to have married there (statement, in 1925, of Miss Persis Jane Roberts (vide infra, 4, ix, 1) of Stark).
- ii. LUCIA,* b. 14 Feb. 1749/50; m. at Sutton, 5 Dec. 1770 (town records), JONAS JACKSON of Northbridge, Mass., soldier in the Revolution, b. at Newton, Mass., 24 Jan. 1751, son of Jonas⁵ (Edward,⁴ Edward,³ Sebas,² Edward¹) and Martha (Hyde) Jackson (Jackson's History of Newton, pp. 321, 342; Jonathan Jackson-Hannah Tracy, p. 25; Edward Jackson Family, pp. 1-42). In the United States Census of 1790 Jonas Jackson is found at Northbridge, with one male under 16 years and three females in his family.
- iii. THOMAS EMERSON, of Ipswich, soldier from Ipswich in the Revolution, b. 11 Feb. 1751/2 [1752]; d. 4 Jan. 1776; m. at Ipswich, 25 Mar. 1774, SARAH ANDREWS, bapt. at Ipswich 25 Aug. 1751, daughter of Dea. John⁴ and Mary (Emerson) Andrews (Essex Antiquarian, vol. 3, p. 99). She m. (2) at Ipswich, 22 Mar. 1781, Aaron Low.
- iv. JOHN, of Percy in 1784 (Merrill's History of Coos County, p. 90), soldier in the Revolution, b. 5 June 1754; d., probably s. p. v., before 1791, bur. in the Percy cemetery, across the river from the present village of Percy;† m. HANNAH ———, who survived him and was living at Northumberland in 1790, where her husband's father was then living, with no one in her family (United States Census). She was taxed at Percy in 1803.
On 12 Nov. 1793 Hannah Cole of Percy conveyed to Edmund Cole 50 acres of upland and 5 acres of intervale at Percy, with a warranty against John Cole (Coos Deeds, vol. G. 2, p. 270), and to Barnard Cole of Percy, "gent.," 10 acres of intervale and part of Lot No. 1 (ib., p. 269). These lands had been allotted to John Cole 13 July 1787 for having continued at Percy "these last three years" (Proprietors' Records), and had been confirmed to Hannah Cole 21 Apr. 1791. "Aunt Hannah Cole's claim on Beech Hill, where she toiled to make a home after the early death of her husband, is valueless and abandoned now" (Merrill's History of Coos County, p. 570).
- v. LIEUT. GALE, of Stratford, N. H., in 1779, of Attleborough, Mass., in 1790 (United States Census), and of Monmouth, Me., in 1791, farmer, soldier in the Revolution from Ipswich in 1775, from Barre, Mass., and from Cornish, N. H. *"Ruth" Cole, daughter of Jonathan and Lucia, was baptized at Ipswich 4 Mar. 1749/50. This is doubtless an error for "Lucia." The birth records of Lucia and Thomas Emerson Cole state that they were children of Jonathan, Jr., and Lucia Cole.

†Miss Persis Jane Roberts (4, ix, 1) stated to the compiler that her mother had pointed out to her the grave, unmarked by any stone.

‡The author of this book, in the account of this marriage on pp. 328 and 330, substitutes "Thomas" for "Gale" Cole. Mary Blodgett married (2) after 1792 Ephraim Howe Burnham (Merrill's History of Coos County, p. 756).

Cynthia (Fisher) (Cole) Dennett became a Revolutionary pensioner in 1843, as widow of Gale Cole. The application of Thomas Cole, 7 June 1848, only surviving child of Gale Cole by his wife Mary Blodgett, was rejected for lack of "official proof" of his parents' marriage.†

Children by first wife, b. at Stratford (pension application of the son Thomas):

1. Thomas,⁵ of Stratford, Charlotte, Vt., in 1806, Starksboro, Vt., in 1821, and Monkton, Vt., in 1837, farmer, b. 11 Aug. 1781; living 7 June 1848, when he was the only surviving child by the first wife; m. Margery Rich (Thompson's History of Stratford, p. 330).
2. Deborah, b. 28 Dec. 1784; d. 15 Feb. 1841; m. Samuel Johnson of Stratford, farmer, b. at Percy 19 Aug. 1780, d. 13 Mar. 1843, son of Isaac and Phebe (Grant) Johnson (ib., p. 398).

He, or his son Stephen, was of Sutton in 1825, when he, or his son Stephen, acquired lands there, on the west side of the road to Uxbridge, from William Hewitt and Patience, his wife (Worcester Deeds, vol. 265, p. 99). A Stephen Cole of Sutton mortgaged, in 1837, three acres there to Jonathan Cole of Smithfield, R. I. (ib., vol. 327, p. 650).

Children, b. at Sutton (town records):

1. Samuel,⁵ b. 6 Sept. 1786.
2. Jonathan, of Smithfield, R. I., in 1819 (Worcester Deeds, vol. 242, p. 258) and in 1837, b. 12 June 1788; m. Lucina ———, living in 1819 (ib.).

In 1795, at the first town meeting at Percy, he was chosen

*The marriage of Gale Cole and Cynthia Fisher was clearly illegal, as Gale Cole's wife, Mary (Blodgett) Cole, was living at the time of the second marriage ceremony. The names of eight children of Gale Cole by Cynthia Fisher are given in Cochrane's History of Monmouth and Wales [Me.], vol. 2, Genealogical Appendix, pp. 43-45.

†The proof consisted of (a) the testimony of an eyewitness, Thirzah (French) Day of Stratford, (b) an admission made by Gale Cole to his brother Clark [? Clifford] of Stark, proved by Clark, (c) the testimony of the son, Thomas Cole, and of Henry Blodgett, brother of Mary (Blodgett) Cole, and (d) common repute at Fort Holbrook, proved by Ephraim Howe Burnham, who lived there, beginning in 1788, had known Gale Cole since 1777 or 1778, and had married, as her second husband, Mary (Blodgett) Cole, and by Richard Holbrook of Stratford, who was born in 1768 and was brought to Stratford to live in 1777. All this proof was competent and uncontradicted, and, doubtless, would have been satisfactory to the Pension Office, had it not already recognized the second marriage as valid by granting a pension to the second wife. To reject it as not "official" was absurd. It appears from the pension record of Hepsibah Holbrook that no town records of Stratford earlier than 1800 were then in existence.

‡Much information about these children has been obtained from a statement, in 1925, of Miss Persis Jane Roberts (4, ix, 1) of Stark, based on a report of her mother, Mrs. Sarah (Cole) Roberts.

He is called "Gent." in his deed of 9 July 1796, to Benjamin Smith of Percy, of half his settler's right (Coos Deeds, vol. G. S., p. 334). He was a soldier in the Revolution (Fullonton's History of Raymond, p. 134). A Caleb Smith, son of Jonathan and Bridget (Kenniston) Smith, was born at Exeter 4 Mar. 1736/7. There is no birth of any other Caleb Smith in the New Hampshire vital records prior to 1800.

†In 1857 Caleb Smith and Olive, his wife, conveyed lands in Percy to Aaron Jackson Smith (Coos Deeds, B. R., vol. 3, p. 129).

‡In the family of Aaron Jackson, according to the Census of 1850, was Hannah Smith, aged 86, and therefore born about 1764. The death record of Hannah (Smith) Jackson states that her father, Isaac Smith, was born at Raymond, and her mother, Hannah Critchett, at Candia.

Edmund's grandson, Lester M.⁶ Cole (16, ii) of Stark, states that Edmund's father was Jonathan Cole, that Clifford, Edmund, Emerson, and Andrew Cole were brothers, and that Miriam was their sister. Miss Persis Jane Roberts (4, ix, 1) adds that Barnard Cole was another brother and moved to Bath (or Belfast), Me., that Sarah was another sister, and that Jonathan, Thomas Emerson, John, and Gale Cole were their half brothers.

‡Daniel⁶ Rowell was the first town clerk of Percy, in 1795. For earlier generations of the family see Hoyt's Old Families of Salisbury and Amesbury. George P. Rowell, Esq., of Stamford, Conn., has in hand an account of the Rowell family.

*There is no Waid found at Percy in the United States Census of 1790; but there was a John Waid there in 1794. He and a James Waid were taxed there in 1803 and 1809. John Waid had Lot 26 and James Waid Lot 14. According to the Census of 1800 John Waid then had in his family two males under 10 years of age and one between 10 and 16 years, and James Waid had two males and two females under 10 years. John and James Waid and their wives were then between 26 and 45 years of age. This indicates that John and James Waid, if related, were brothers, of whom John was the elder.

John Waid is said to have had twenty-one children, of whom fifteen died in infancy. It is said that the others, besides Ruth (see under No. 10) and Lucy M. (see under No. 12), were John, born 1 Dec. 1798 (tombstone) (who married Lorana Potter), Caleb, and Horace. Perhaps the Huldah Waid who married Abner Keith (5, vii) was another child of John Waid. He removed to Oberlin, Ohio.

The death record of Lucy M. (Waid) Cole (see under No. 12) states, erroneously in part, that her father was born on Long Island, N. Y., and her mother, Ruth Robinson [sic], at Hartford, Conn.

The United States Census of 1860 states that John Waid, then of Stark, who was born 1 Dec. 1798 and married Lorana Potter, was born in Canada East. If this is not an error of the census taker, John Waid was perhaps a son of the James Waid mentioned above.

One James Waid was of Granby, Vt., in 1816 (Childs's Gazetteer of Essex County, p. 476).
