DRAPER FAMILY

I. 1. JOHN DRAPER may have been born in Bolton parish, Lancashire, England, or he may have been born in Croston parish of that county as the Croston Parish Register, published by the Lancashire Parish Register Society, mentions a number of Draper deaths, 1542-1558, and baptisms from 1543. As John Draper's birth was prior to the baptisms given in the Croston register it has not been determined whether he was born in Croston or Bolton parish. The Croston register, page 118, mentions the following marriage:

John Draper and Jenett Bowker, 12 February, 1540/1.

As no baptisms of children of John Draper are mentioned in the Croston register and as neither the death of John Draper nor that of Jennet his wife are mentioned it is probable that John Draper was either born in Croston parish, married there and removed with his wife to Bolton parish, or he may have been born in Bolton parish and have married Jennet Bowker in Croston parish and have continued his residence in Bolton parish.

The Croston Register mentions a number of Bowker deaths from 1539 but the register does not begin sufficiently early to have mentioned the baptism of Jennet Bowker.

The Bolton Register, published also by the Lancashire Parish Register Society, dates from 1573. This register, page 312, mentions:

John Draper of Bolton buried in the Church 27 March, 1588.

John Draper and his wife, presumably Jennet Bowker, had:

2. JOHN.

3. WILLIAM.

4. JAMES. Jacobus Draper obiit 17 December, 1573 (Bolton Reg., p. 310).

II. 2. JOHN DRAPER, presumably the eldest son of John Draper and his wife Jennet (née Bowker), was born about the latter part of 1541. He is mentioned in baptism of his son John. He had, presumably:

5. JAMES.
6. JOHN. Baptized Jhon Draper filius Jhones 27 August, 1573 (Bolton Reg., p. 2).
7. WILLIAM.
8. LAWRENCE. Buried Uxor of Lawrenc Draper, 6 March, 1597/8 (Bolton Reg., p. 325). Buried Lawrence Draper of Boulton 20 June, 1623 (Bolton Reg., p. 384).

III. 5. JAMES DRAPER, presumably eldest son of John Draper (2), was born about 1566, in view of the date of his marriage. Married James Draper and Anne Sharples 5 September, 1591 (Bolton Reg., p. 242). Buried Anne Draper of Bolton late wife of James intra ecclesiam 9 December, 1601 (Bolton Reg., p. 330). Buried James Draper of Bolton intra ecclesiam 12 February, 1602/3 (Bolton Reg., p. 333).

Anne Sharples' mother may have been the sister of John Hilton, of Bold, Lancashire, as appears by the following:

Will of John Hiltonn of Bold, Lancashire, Yeoman, dated 4 Feb., 1603 (date of probate not mentioned).

To be buried in the Chapel of Farnworth near where my wife was buried.

Executors cousin John Hiltonn and Henry Taylor of Bold. Overseers The Right Worshipful and loving Mr. Thomas Bold, Esq., and Robert Hitchmough, Schoolmaster.

24 Nov., 1604, Inventory filed by John Orme, Futchur Bold and Mathewe Harrisone. (Chester probates.)

Farnworth, a chapelry, is in the parish of Dean, hundred of Salford, Lancashire, 2¼ miles S. S. E. from Great Bolton (Lewis' Top. Dict.).

James Draper and his wife Anne (née Sharples) had:

IV. 10. JOHN DRAPER, presumably the son of James Draper (5) and his wife Anne Sharples, was born about 1595. His baptism is not in the Bolton Register. Married John Draper and Alis Hylton bothe of this pishe 2 February, 1620/1 (Bolton Reg., p. 270). It is uncertain whether John Draper was killed in the battle of Bolton 28 May, 1644, as the following is entered in the Bolton Register, p. 464: Buried 28 May, 1644, John Draper (and 77 others whose names are given) of Boltonn, slayne on the 28 of May, 1644. It is more probable that John Draper, husband of Alice Hilton, is referred to in the following: Buried John Draper de Bolton inter ecclesiam 30 May, 1645 (Bolton Reg., p. 468). Presumably his widow is referred to: Buried Wid: Draper de ead intra ecclesiam 11 January, 1648/9 (Bolton Reg., p. 477). They had:

V. 21. ALEXANDER DRAPER, son of John Draper (10) and his wife Alice Hilton, was born at Bolton. Baptized Alexander Draper of Bolton son of John 14 February, 1629/30 (Bolton Reg., p. 118). Catherine (surname unknown) his first wife, whom he married before coming to Maryland, was born 1636, as January 14, 1673, she deposed that she was about thirty-seven years of age. Bolton was divided into Great and Little Bolton and the latter name was given by Alexander Draper to two tracts of land, one in Maryland and the other in Delaware.

Francis Roberts, of same co. Whereas, by grant of Aug. 30, 1668, from Cecilius, Lord Baltimore, to David Williamson, of same co., planter, a parcel of land called "David's Destiny" lying upon the east side of Chesapeake Bay upon an island called "Dame Quarter" containing 350 acres, the said land since said grant having been alienated unto Thomas Kendall late of said county the 14 Jan., 1671, as appears Liber S. C., fol. 28, and the said Thomas Kendall after the 14 Jan., 1671, to wit, the 12 Mch., 1671, conveyed the same unto the afsd. As Katherine, the first wife of Alexander Draper, joined in the conveyance of April 18, 1676, to Miles Gray and did not in the last conveyance of the same date to Francis Roberts, it would seem that she died on that date after executing the former deed.

Alexander Draper had removed to Sussex County, Delaware, by 1677, as the "York Records" at Dover, folio 134, record a patent from Governor Andros to him and Jacob Cheltman for 996 acres on the west side of Delaware Bay and south side of Cedar Creek called Little Bolton, the date of which is in blank but which appears to have been in 1677.

At a Court held Jan. 14, 1678/9 the following was entered:

Alexander Draper, by producing a patent for a parcel of land belonging by that patent unto Randall Revell and one Henry Bowman, hath caused some certain clearing and buildings, as is supposed, upon the said land, therefore, the said Draper hath forewarned in open Court that the said Bowman or his order shall cease from proceeding any further work or settlement for the future. (Deeds recorded at Georgetown, Sussex Co., Delaware, Liber A, fol. 103).

Some Records of Sussex County, Delaware, by Rev. C. H. B. Turner, Lewes, Delaware, 1909, p. 112:

Feb. 11, 1684, Commission from William Penn was read appointing John Kipshaven and Alexander Draper Justices who with Hercules Shephard took oath.

March 1, 1684, Alexander Draper was commissioned a Justice (Scharp's His. of Del., p. 1211). The old Court Docket of Sussex County, in possession of the Pennsylvania Historical Society, contains the proceedings of the Court during Alexander Draper's tenure.

Nov. 20, 1686, conveyance by Alexander Draper, of Sussex County, Planter, and Rebecca his wife, to John Edmundson, of Maryland, Merchant, of "Drapersberry" in Kent Co., N. side of the S. W. Branch of Murder Creek (Deeds, Dover, Del. Kent Co., Liber I, fol. 18).

At a Court for Sussex County, held at Lewes 4-6 of 8 mo. 1687, Alexander Draper acknowledged the sale of 300 acres to John Symons and William Lowen, which was surveyed and patented originally for George Young and called "Young's Hope," the deed being dated 14th 9 ber, 1682, and delivered there in Court with the patent dated Jan. 15, 1675 (Deeds, Georgetown, Del. Liber A, fol. 67).

Alexander Draper's second wife was Rebecca Milner, widow of Robert Milner (her maiden name could not be found), whom he married, it is assumed, in 1679, in view of the date of birth of his eldest son Alexander who was born 22, 9th mo. (Dec.), 1680.

Robert Milner does not seem to have been a resident of Sussex County, Delaware, as no references could be found in the records of that county concerning him. On the contrary, he seems to have been a non-resident as an attachment was issued against his property in that county. An attachment is referred to as pending, issued by Alexander Draper vs. Robert Millener [sic] in 1681, which was, apparently, abandoned in consequence of the defendant's death and the marriage of the plaintiff with defendant's widow (Some Records of Sussex County, by Rev. C. H. B. Turner, Phila., 1909, p. 56).

At a Court held at Lewes 6, 7, 8, of 10 mo., 1687, Rebecca Draper, wife of Alexander Draper, petitioned for the custody of her son John Millner in custody of George Young, who married Mary Southern, which petition was granted (Court Docket of Sussex Co., in poss. of Pa. His. Soc.). Letters of admn. to Mary Southrin upon the est. of Edward Southrin her husband (1684) (Dr. Turner's book, p. 135).

Georg Young, a single man, and Mary Southrin, widow, married on the 24th of June 1685 at the Towne of Lewes.

Alexander Draper, Administrator of the estate of Jno. Pearce, 31 Oct., 1687 (Dr. Turner's book, p. 138).

Verbal will of James Saykes 8 Dec., 1687. Affidavit of Alexander Draper that decedent had a daughter and son in this country and two children in England (Dr. Turner's book, p. 138).

25th 2nd mo., 1688, Letter of Attorney to Alexander Draper of Sussex Co., Del., from Richard Stevens, of Somerset Co., Md., to acknowledge unto Wm. Emmott a deed of gift for 500 acres on the N. side of the South Indian River, called "Hopewell" (Deeds, Georgetown, Del. Liber A, fol. 120).

31, 8, 1691, Assignment by Wm. Emmott of warrant and grant for 500 acres to Rebecca Draper, Administratrix of Alexander Draper, deceased (Liber A, fol. 135).

Alexander Draper died during the interim of the last and preceding reference.

Dec. 1, 1691, Rebecca Draper, Admx. of Alexander Draper, dec'd., conveys 300 acres (Liber A, fol. 135).

Copie of Rebecka Draper etc. and Henry Moliston Letter of Administracon on Alex. Draper's estate.

The three and Twentieth day of the first Moneth called March Anno Dm. 1691. Then came Rebecka Draper and Henry Moulston [Molleston] before me William Clark Deputy Register etc. And brought the last will and testament of Alexander Draper, late of the aforesaid County of Sussex deceased, and before me made proof of the same. I due therefore grant letters of administration unto the said Rebecka Draper and Henry Moulson of all the estate. In witness whereof—at Lewes—the day and year first above written.

Test. Wm. Clark, Dept. Register (Dr. Turner's Some Rec. of Sus. Co., p. 147. The copy of the will has not been preserved in the records. "Registry of Wills, Letters of Administration, Marriages, etc. Christopher Taylor, Register General of the Counties of Kent and Sussex on Delaware. William Clark, Deputy. 1683 to 1695," in possession of the Penna. His. Soc., p. 133.) The latter book, p. 75, gives the following account of Alexander Draper's and his wife Rebecca's children:

William the son of Robt. and Rebecka Millner born the 12th day of April, 1676.

Mercy the daughter of Robt. and Rebecka Millner borne the 15th 12th month, 1678. Married Thomas Willson and Mercy Milliner Feb. 10, 1694/5 with John Milliner and Rebeckah Draper, and others, as witnesses (Dr. Turner's book, p. 150).

37. ALEXANDER the son of Alexander and Rebecka Draper born the 22 of ye 9th month (Dec.), 1680, Sussex Co.

38. REBECKA the daughter of Alexander and Rebecka Draper of Sussex County borne the 4th day of the second month (Apl.) 1683.

39. HENRY the sonn of Alexander and Rebecka Draper borne the 9th day of the first Month called March 1685/6 of Sussex Co.

(Dr. Turner's book also contains the foregoing entries.)

John Milner, whom Rebecca Draper his mother petitioned for in 1687, is omitted in the foregoing entries.

In the account of the Draper Family given in Allied Families of Delaware, by Edwin Jaquett Sellers, Philadelphia, 1901, p. 117, it is incorrectly stated that Alexander Draper's children were by his first wife Katherine, at which time the foregoing entries had not been found. The dates (which had been merely approximated) of his children's births were also incorrectly given.

VI. 37. ALEXANDER DRAPER, elder son of Alexander Draper and Rebecca his wife, was born December 22, 1680, as mentioned. "Quit Rent Rolls of Delaware, 1705" (Logan papers in possession of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania):

Al. Draper. In Slaughter. 400 acres. Part of a tract of 1000 acres granted by patent from Wm. J. Goods, dat. 22 5 mo. '89, Surv. by Corn. Verhoof by order of Survey Court. Rent at ye town of Sussex 1 bush. S. C. Al. Draper sold 300 acres of this 10, 12, '87 to James Sykes of Phila., and 300 to Wm. Emmott this foregoing year, as is said, is now held by Jno. Bennet. Al. Draper had this from his father, Al. Draper, by will.

Alexander Draper married Ann, daughter of John Walton and Percey his wife, of Sussex County. John Walton's will, recorded at Georgetown in Liber A, fol. 233, is dated Nov. 19, 1706. He mentions his children John, George, William, Mary, Alice and Ann wife of Alexander Draper; his ancient mother-in-law; his granddaughter Elizabeth, daughter of Ann Draper; appoints his son-in-law Alexander Draper and friend Nicholas Granger Trustees, and his wife Percey sole executrix. Witnesses: Jos. Hickman, Thos. Manley and Mark Manley. The date of probate is torn.
