It must not be supposed that the following pages are the result of my unaided efforts. It was long the wish of my father, Lloyd B. Dennis, to know more of his ancestors, and he carefully set down some of the records of his immediate family which have been of great assistance. It was he who insisted that I make a copy of the Family Bible pages which were later destroyed. Unfortunately, it was not until after his death that I began the now finished task.

My first collaborator was Colonel Edward B. Dennis of Pomfret, Connecticut, to whom I was introduced by his brother, Robert B. Dennis, of Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Robert Dennis kindly opened to me their family records, including their cherished Family Bible which was buried during the Revolution. Colonel Dennis had done considerable research, and generously handed over to me his entire family line from Robert (1) through Joseph (6) and Robert (21) which is here included.

Later, through the kindness of Mrs. F. H. Briggs of Greenwich, New York, I was put in touch with two other descendants in my own branch of the family: Mrs. Watie Dennis Petteys of Greenwich, and Mrs. Myrtle Dennis Lundberg of De Kalb, Illinois. All three have patiently made search and sent me the result. Mrs. Lundberg, with the greatest generosity, has turned over to me the fruit of twenty years of research: her entire line from William (53) through George Washington (146), and as many of the descendants of Shadrach (31) as she has been able to find.

While there is some shadow of doubt concerning the exact parentage of the three sons here assigned to William (53), no actual records having been found, they were certainly grandsons of Thomas (28) for they were given bequests in his will. Two of them, Dorastus (144) and Marvin (145) lived and died in the vicinity of Easton, to which Thomas and his family and three of his brothers came about the time of the Revolution.

If records of service in that war are few, it is to be remembered that the Dennis family were all, in the beginning, members of the Society of Friends, which frowns upon any form of conflict. Anyone taking part in the fighting was read out of Meeting. The struggle to decide between church and country must have been severe.

Finally, let me say if it had not been for the loyal and sustained interest, help, and cooperation of Mrs. Helen Townend of Ithaca, New York, and Mrs. Edith Rathbun of the Ohio State Library, these pages would never have seen the light of day. But here they are — the concise story of a sturdy, self-reliant, deeply religious, wholly American family. May worthy descendants find pride in their ancestry.

Some Descendants of Robert Dennis of Portsmouth, Rhode Island

"There were three brothers, sons of a merchant living in London, who came here in their own ships and settled in Rhode Island." So runs the old tale. As in many such traditions handed down for generations, there would seem to be a foundation of fact. We find two of the name arriving within a few years of one another in the Plymouth Colony in the first half of the seventeenth century.

Thomas came with Winthrop, and the birth of his son, John, on the ship "Jewell" is recorded. He was an early settler of Cape Cod, later going to New Jersey where he was a Proprietor of Woodbridge and its representative in 1668. John had three sons, Samuel, Robert, and John, all distinguished in New Jersey history, and founders of the New Jersey Dennis family.

Because of the similarity of names, dates and places of residence, Robert Dennis of Woodbridge, New Jersey, and Robert Dennis of Portsmouth, Rhode Island, are frequently confused by genealogists; but there is no doubt that they were two different men, as their death records show. That there was kinship is indicated by the interests and activities of Robert of Portsmouth, with whom we are concerned.

It might be possible to ascertain who was the owner of the ship "Truelove," which with "Robert Dennis, Mr.," sailed from the Port of London, June 10th, 1635, and is said to have landed twenty people on Cape Cod and also to have touched at Portsmouth, Rhode Island, at this time. This was not "Mr." Robert Dennis's first voyage to the New World, as he had sailed the "Phillip" of London "for the Somer Islands" on July 20th, 1634.

On September 19th, 1635, we find the "Truelove" with "Mr. Jo. Gibbs." Had Robert, then, remained at Yarmouth, where we soon find him active in the affairs of the Colony? One authority states that he did, in fact, land his family in Rhode Island, but this seems doubtful for two reasons: first, the names of his family are not recorded on the passenger list of the "Truelove"; and second, we do not find Robert at Portsmouth until some years later.

We shall probably never know the truth of this, as we shall probably never know when and where died Mary, the mother of the baby who died at birth in 1649; that Mary who was, doubtless, the wife who, with Robert in 1656, signed the deed to Andrew Hallet of a house and land in Yarmouth. Early Yarmouth records were destroyed by fire so we shall probably never know whether, as suggested by Savage, Robert of Portsmouth was the son of Robert of Yarmouth. It seems most unlikely. Charles C. Stickney, genealogist of the New Jersey Dennis family, says: "Robert 2nd was born at Portsmouth in 1645, purchased land there August 26th, 1656, was made a freeman in 1671, etc." Does it seem likely that an eleven-year-old boy would be buying land? One genealogy of the New Jersey family flatly states that Robert of Portsmouth was an early proprietor of Woodbridge and emigrant ancestor of the New Jersey branch. Records show that Robert of Portsmouth did purchase New Jersey land in 1666, and again in 1691 only a few days before his death, which occurred in Portsmouth, where he is buried. Robert, of the New Jersey family, was the grandson of Thomas, who came with Winthrop and settled there. It is difficult to see how professional genealogists could be so mistaken, but perhaps they did not have access to material which is now available.

Our first mention, in Yarmouth, of Robert Dennis is found in Plymouth Colony records when, in 1640, he prefers charges against Ed Morrell for stealing. He is included in the list of those able to bear arms in 1643 when military companies were authorized and organized in Yarmouth, and he was also on a committee for the laying out of lands in that year. He appears as a member of the Committee for Yarmouth in 1648, and received a grant of land in Rabbits' Ravine in the same year. In 1658 he was serving on committees to settle land disputes under the direction of Captain Miles Standish and Mr. John Alden as recorded at length in "Freeman's History of Cape Cod." He was propounded a Freeman, June 4th, 1650. In 1656 he deeded a house and land to Andrew Hallet, and on August 25th of that year he purchased from Job Hawkins and his mother of Boston, twenty acres of land in Portsmouth, Rhode Island. He continues to appear in Plymouth Colony records until 1667.

In the "New England Genealogical and Historical Register" we find: "On the 21st of May, 1666, Governor Carteret, John Ogden, and Luke Watson entered into an agreement with Daniel Pierce and his associates for settling two townships and on the 11th December 1666 in consideration of £80 sterling they transferred to (them?) for that purpose one-half the tract known as the Arthur Cull, or Amboyle, originally owned by Governor Nicholls." On the back of the deed Pierce endorsed the names of his associates. This list includes Robert Dennis of Yarmouth.

Aside from the fact that Thomas Dennis may have been Robert's brother, we find a reason for Robert's interest in New Jersey in his relationship to Jedidiah Allen who was associated on the Bench with Samuel, son of John Dennis. They were brothers-in-law. It was from Allen that the Monmouth land was purchased just prior to the death of Robert.

In the "Early Records of the Town of Portsmouth," published at Providence, 1901, we find this entry:

"Town Meeting, June 16th, 1651:

"Robert Dennis is received inhabitant amongst us and hath giuen his ingagement."

This would certainly tend to show that Robert of Portsmouth was not born there in 1645. Although it was five years later that the land was purchased of Job Hawkins, and twenty before he became active in affairs at Portsmouth, continuing meanwhile as a citizen of Yarmouth, the records would seem to follow the life of one man. During the years between 1640 and 1669 when Robert Dennis was busily engaged in Yarmouth, he does not appear in Portsmouth except for the entry above. Then, in 1671, he is made a Freeman there, and for the next twenty years is as active as he had been at Yarmouth.

November 19th, 1672, he married Sarah Howland of Duxbury, Mass., "att the house of Joshua Coggshall of Portsmouth, before the people of God." Sarah was the daughter of Henry and Mary Newland Howland. "Mayflower Planters," by Leon Clark Wills, says that Mary Newland was the sister of William, who came from Lynn in 1637 and settled in Sandwich. She and her brother were Quakers. "American Ancestry" gives Henry Howland as one of the Proprietors of Duxbury, and a brother of John, who came in the "Mayflower." In the "History of Duxbury," by Justin Winsor, we find:

"Henry Howland, Duxbury, 1633, lived by the bayside, close to Love Brewster. One of the substantial landholders and freemen, Proprietor of Bridgewater, 1645."

It was also in 1672 that Robert Dennis deeded to Matthew and John Borden, William Woodall, and Gideon Freeborn, four rods square of land for a Quaker burying place, "for the love I bear to the truth, and to the people of God who in scorn are called Quakers." Here he and his wife were later buried. Recently, bodies here interred were removed to the main cemetery.

From 1673 to 1684 Robert Dennis served as Deputy to the General Assembly of Rhode Island. In 1676 he and three others were appointed as keepers of a group of Indians "that they should be so secured that they may be hindered from doing damage to the inhabitants at this juncture of time."

June 5th, 1691, he died. His will, dated May 11, of that year, was proved on July 2. This will, written on silk, is still preserved and may be seen at Portsmouth. Sarah Howland Dennis died at Portsmouth, Rhode Island, Oct. 2, 1712. She was born in 1645. Her genealogy is given in the Appendix.

This is the record of a long, constructive and fruitful life. It certainly appears to be the life of one man, not two. The Dennis family all down the years have been characterized by vitality and longevity. Boys were men early then, and Robert may well have been master of a vessel at twenty-one, especially if it belonged to his father. The marriage with Sarah Howland was probably a second one late in life. Sarah was twenty-seven at the time. The gift of the burial ground and his wife's Quaker family suggest a religious motive for the decision finally to remove to Portsmouth, though the early land purchase and the fact of the "giuen ingagement" would seem to indicate that the change was long meditated. Whatever the facts, there is no question of the descent of the New York-Ohio branch of the Dennis family from

MARY, married George, son of John and Mary Boomer Lawton. She is mentioned in her father's will which orders her younger brother, Joseph, to pay her, within three years' time, ten pounds, apparently a share or rental for the family home which Joseph receives. She is also bequeathed her father's long loom.

Children:

RUTH — (b) Sept. 20, 1690.
JOHN.
TWO DAUGHTERS — No names or dates.

3.

ROBERT. He seems also to have been a man of substance in the Colony, for we find his name occurring in Rhode Island records after his father's death. He left what was, for the period, a considerable fortune amounting to nearly three thousand pounds, not including the New Jersey lands which he received from his father and which are mentioned in his will, but not in the inventory. With Joseph Church officiating, he married, at Little Compton, Rhode Island, January 22, 1700, Susanna Briggs of Tiverton. She was the daughter of William and Elizabeth Cook Briggs. She was born in 1681 and died in 1744. Her genealogy is included in the Appendix. The will of Robert (3) was dated December 29, 1729, and was proved February 17, 1730. He died January 5, 1730.

4.

SARAH — (m) Thomas Fish.
No children.

JOHN — He married Ann, daughter of Stephen and Ann Tallman Brayton. He was Freeman in 1709 and in 1718 served as a Deputy. From John and Ann Brayton Dennis comes the Newport family which I have not been able to trace as so much data is lacking. It is disappointing, for to this branch probably belongs the legendary family pirate: "the brave Captain John Dennis of the Brigantine "Defiance." one of the Privateers of Newport.

One authority conjectures that Captain John was the grandson of JOHN (5). JOHN (18) son of JOHN (5) died and was buried in Portsmouth. For him we find only one child, a daughter. But Newport statistics show the name of Abraham, who was probably also a son of JOHN (5) and our Captain John may have been his son. As authentic information is not to be found, this line is not followed.

John Dennis died at Easton Farm, Newport, August 4, 1732.

Ann Brayton Dennis, who was born July 6, 1683, died August 28, 1747. She is buried at Portsmouth in the graveyard given by Robert Dennis.

His will is dated June (or January, 1759) and was proved December 10, 1759. Sarah Durfee Dennis died April 21, 1759.

8.

ANNA — Married at Tiverton, May 16, 1738, Peleg Sanford. He seems to have been Captain of a troop of horsemen since reference to it has been found.

Children:

She was the daughter of Samuel and Mary Potter Wilbor. Her genealogy will be found in the Appendix. John seems to have married as a second wife Susannah Pears of Little Compton on August 31, 1761, with Restcome Sanford, justice officiating. There is no record of the death of John or his wives. Susannah had no children.

35. LUCY — (b) 1753.

36. HANNAH — (b) Dec. 1, 1754.

12.

Tiverton Quaker records assign a son, Obadiah, to Tabitha, but do not name the father. Since this son appears later in Tiverton Dennis records with a large family and since both he and his son, Thomas, were Revolutionary soldiers, he is here included as being of the Dennis name.

37. OBADIAH — (b) Dec. 7, 1731.

SARAH married Cornelius Soule of Tiverton, May 1, 1735, with Richard Billings, justice, officiating.

JOHN. (b) ? Married January 4, 1743, Lydia, daughter of John and Abigail Lawton of Portsmouth. They were buried in the burial ground of Robert Dennis in Portsmouth. Lydia Lawton Dennis died at Portsmouth "at the old stone house on Spring Street" May 1, 1816, aged 93 years.

Children:

38. SARAH — (b) May 7, 1750.

21.

ROBERT — He married Hannah, the daughter of Thomas and Mercy Freeborn Coggsball of Middletown, July 21, 1750. He and at least two of his sons were sailors. An old record says, "They followed the sea." He was the Town Clerk of Portsmouth for many years, Justice of the Peace in 1751. They were farmers and Friends, members of the Quaker Hill Meeting where George Fox preached in 1671. The House is little changed and is said to be the most interesting historically of any house of worship in America. Six of the children, including Joseph, with the parents were "admitted under the care of Friends the 26 of 3 month, 1776."

Robert Dennis died December 4, 1811.

Hannah Coggshall Dennis was born March 20, 1731, and died March 22, 1811. They are buried in the family burying ground at Portsmouth.

JOSEPH — He married December 14, 1752, Mercy Coggshall, daughter of Thomas and Mercy Freeborn Coggshall of Middleton. We find no record of children born to them. He died September 28, 1758, and his widow married July 20, 1769, Samuel Allen.

ROBERT — He married, January 2, 1755, Jemima or Joanna Hillard. The marriage record says Jemima, but we find five children accredited to Robert and Joanna, one of whom has the middle name of Hillard; so it is reasonable to suppose an error in the record of the wife's first name.

Children:

49. JOHN — (b) Jan. 7, 1756.
50. HANNAH — (b) July 9, 1757.
51. OLIVER HILLIARD — (b) Feb. 29, 1760.

THOMAS — He was born in Little Compton, Rhode Island, November 9, 1734. He married, January 22, 1756, Hannah Wilcox, daughter of William and Dorothy Allen Wilcox, with Nathaniel Soule, justice, officiating. The marriage record calls both "of North Dartmouth." This was a part of what later became New Bedford. Eight children were born to them there, the last in 1771 which helps to fix the date of their removal to Washington County, New York, where they settled in the town of Easton. Five more children were born to them there. They were Friends, and prominent citizens. Thomas served as associate County Judge and was appointed a Justice of the Peace in 1792, reappointed 1795-98-1807-8-11.

Thomas Dennis died October 12, 1813. Hannah Wilcox Dennis was born in North Dartmouth, Massachusetts, August 17, 1735, and died in Easton, Washington County, New York in May, 1824. She is said to have had Mayflower ancestry. Her genealogy will be found in the Appendix. Both are buried in a small private cemetery on the Zephaniah Eddy farm, one mile south west of Barker's Grove. This may well have been their home farm as others of the family are also buried there.

In March, 1785, he, with Abraham Hoxie, William Coffin, Joseph Mosher, and Daniel Folger, went to Saratoga to consider the erection of a new Meeting House. Evidently, this project was carried out, as we find mention in 1802 of a Saratoga Monthly Meeting. His will names ten children and two grandchildren. She was born in Worthington, Massachusetts, March 22, 1805. In July, 1844, they went by covered wagon out to Illinois where they settled at Sycamore. With them went their children and Phoebe's father and mother. George was a skilled carpenter and joiner. This he followed until his later years when he gave all his time to his large farm. He was a man of ability and at one time taught school.

UCAL — Born, according to the History of Onondaga County, in Rensselaer County, but the date given is not the same as that in the family Bible. Judging from the date of his marriage, the latter is correct. March 26, 1812, he married Rachel Loomis, whose genealogy is included with that of other Dennis wives. He settled with his father and brothers near Cicero, Onondaga County. His home was "across the pond" (i. e. Van de Camp) from the farm and lumber mill of his brother, Eben. He is said to have had eleven sons, but no positive information concerning them has been found.

Rachel Loomis Dennis died at Cicero, 1832.

Her father and grandfather Caldwell served in the War of the Revolution, the latter with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. Eben and Amanda Caldwell Dennis lived on the tract of land near Bernhard's Bay, still known as Van de Camp, where he owned and operated a lumber mill. At some time in the 1820's they went to Ohio, where her brother, Samuel Caldwell, had settled at Sandusky. Two daughters were born there at that time. One died and was buried in the old cemetery at Oxford. They returned to Constantia, Oswego County, N. Y., and remained there until about 1852 when they again removed to Ohio where they spent the rest of their lives.

In June, 1813, Eben Dennis enlisted in Colonel Thaddeus M. Wood's regiment of the Onondaga Brigade of New York, commanded by General Ellis. He was a second sergeant in Captain John Chapin's Company. He served until August, 1815, and took part in action at Sackett's Harbor. Later enlistments were April 24, 1817, as Ensign in a company of the 176th Regiment of Infantry, State of New York; April 30, 1821, Lieutenant; April 10, 1822, Captain.

He died at Sandusky, Ohio, September 11, 1886.

In some instances it has not been possible to establish definite connections with the families included in the main portion of this history. Every effort has been made to find printed proof or private family records of all facts as given. In a few instances the words, "possibly" or "probably," have been used, but only when the assumption seemed fully warranted. Accordingly, it has been thought better to add the following information separately. Some one else may have better success than the present writer in establishing these lines.

Taken from "Representative Men and Families of Rhode Island," J. H. Beers and Co., Chicago, 1908, is the following biography of John R. Dennis of Central Falls, R. I.:

"John R. Dennis was for years a Republican leader in the State. He was the son of Isaac and Jane Tare Dennis. John Dennis of Newport married Lydia Lawton. Birth of only one child is of public record, Sarah, born in Newport, May 7, 1750. He is thought to have been the famous privateer, 1741-56. Arnold says he was.

"William, son of John, married Elizabeth Chase and they lived at Providence. He died July 8th, 1862. Elizabeth died April 24, 1869. Their children were: Isaac, (b) 1-7-1806; Bowers, (b) 10-17-1807, (d) died at sea, 1833; Ann Perry, (b) 2-15-1809; (d) 11-17-1838; Elizabeth, (b) 10-2-1811; (m) Darius Lawton, 10-17-1814; (d) 7-9-1884; William Robinson, (b) 12-22-1822.

"ISAAC died 7-5-1854 at Central Falls. He married Jane Tare, (b) April, 1807, at Newport, died at Central Falls, 10-19-1863. Their children were William T., (m) Harriet Wilde, (d) at Central Falls; Eliza Ann, (m) Edwin Platt Clark, both died at Pawtucket; Mary J., (d) in infancy; Mary J. 2 is unmarried, living in Central Falls in 1908; George B. is a spinner at the thread factory of J. P. Coats, Ltd., in Central Falls, married Sarah N. Brown, died 3-25-1905; John R., (m) 12-31-1856, Elizabeth Payne; Sarah P. is widow of George Irwin of Pawtucket; Harriet died single; Abby Frances married Charles L. Spencer; Benjamin A. (m) Abbey Frances White; Charles Clark (m) Susan Manchester of Briston, R. I."

Note: There are two major errors in this account. 1—John Dennis, who married Lydia Lawton is buried in Portsmouth. John Dennis, the Privateer in 1756, sailed on a voyage from which he never returned. 2—If William Dennis died in 1862 he could not have been the son of either of the foregoing since he would necessarily, have been born in 1756 or earlier.

Onondaga County, New York, records furnish names doubtless belonging in the family for Britton (60) settled there with four sons. Of these only the descendants of Eben have been traced. "Uncle Ucal" (113) who married Rachel Loomis was, according to word-of-mouth tradition, the father of eleven sons, but efforts to locate them have been unseccussful—John A., another of the brothers must have had children for his monument in the cemetery at Cicero is marked, "Father." His wife's name was Sally.

Following are records found in the Public Library at Syracuse, New York. They may be of assistance to someone having data not found by the writer.

DENNIS — Eliza A. 1818-1862 Onondaga Hills Cemetery; Enchil, (d) Aug. 1870, aged 79 of Cicero; Thomas Z., (m) Harriet Phillips, son, Richard A., (b) Cicero, 1868.

1855 CENSUS, MANLIUS:

Christopher Dennis, age 38, (b) Onondaga Co., 1817.

Jane, wife, 25 (b) Onondaga Co.

Adaline, daughter, 12 (b) Onondaga Co.

Merit, son, 8 (b) Onondaga Co.

Tiny, daughter 6, (b) Onondaga Co.

1855 CENSUS, CLAY:

Henry Dennis, 35, (b) Onondaga Co., 1820.

William, Father 65, (b) Columbia Co.

Martha, sister, 25 (b) Onondaga Co.

Sarah, sister, 18 (b) Onondaga Co.

CIVIL WAR RECORDS:

Dennis, John — (m) Elizabeth Van Scoik, son, John (b) April, 1844, Onondaga Co., son, Caleb, (b) September 15, 1849, Onondaga Co. Dennis, William (m) Sophia Keeney, son, Thomas (b) Onondaga Co., Nov. 17, 1838.

From Mr. Irving B. Dennis of Ithaca, N. Y., comes the following information:

BENJAMIN: Children—Aaron, Charles, George, Norman, Amanda. Norman, (b) June, 1824, (m) Maria E. Hitchcock (b) Nov. 9, 1827, Union, Wisconsin, Sept. 5, 1848. Children—Charles W. (b) Aug. 13, 1849; Esther L., (b) March 15, 1852; Dewitt, (b) Nov. 24, 1855; Abel H., (b) Dec. 29, 1860; Julia M., (b) July 10, 1864; Ira B., (b) April 10, 1870.

It appears probable that Benjamin, above, may have been the son of Arad (73) whose son, Benjamin F., (174) was (b) 1806-7. There is also a possibility that he could have been a son of Arad's brother, Elias A. (74) who removed to Adrian, Michigan in 1827. Because of lack of definite information this line could not be included in the main portion of this record.

We find in Tiverton birth records "Major, of Susanna," (b) Feb. 18, 1778. No father is given, so Susannah is doubtless a Dennis wife, and Major possibly a posthumous child. Later we find "Eliza, of Major and Eunice, (b) October 4, 1801.

The "Old Cemetery," at Ithaca, New York, has the following tombstone inscriptions:

Humphrey Dennis, (d) July 22, 1832, aged 60 years, 2 months, 10 days.

Mary, his wife, (d) Nov. 10, 1815, aged 42 years.

Robert, his son, (d) March 9, 1837, aged 35 years, 2 months, 4 days.

Oliver, his son, (d) Jan., 1834, aged 18 years, 18 months.

Susannah Jones, daughter of James and Hannah Dennis, (d) April 28, 1836, aged 25 years, 6 months, 10 days.

Mary, daughter of James and Hannah, (d) Oct. 21, 1836, aged 24 years.

Esquire B. Dennis, son of Humphrey and Elizabeth, (d) Aug. 6, 1840, aged 22 years, 5 months, 3 days.

Mary P., daughter of Esquire B. Dennis, Aug. 4, 1849, aged 19 years, 6 months and 2 days.

Elihu Dennis, (d) Sept. 7, 1873, aged 35 years, 6 months, 12 days.

Charles, son of Elihu and Mary (d) Feb. 15, 1847, aged 10 months, 15 days.

Extract from Friends Record (Newport, R. I., Historical Society): "At a monthly meeting held at Newport by adjournment the 29 Day, 1 Month, 1777. Whereas Joseph Dennis, son of John Dennis hath enlisted as a soldier and John Sherman, Jr., hath been on a cruise in a vessel of war which being directly contrary to the peaceable principles we possess—

We do for the clearing of our Christian Testimony Disown them to be members of our Religious Society and order a copy of this minute to be read publickly at the close of a First Day meeting at Portsmouth.

“Jacob Mott, Jr., Clerk.”

From Friends Record held at Portsmouth, R. I., 27 day, 2 month, 1771. “This meeting having had information from the monthly meeting at Nantucket that Robert Dennis had entered on board a private vessel of war and that they have proceeded to disown him to longer be a member of our Society till he make suitable satisfaction with which this meeting concurs and orders that a copy of this minute be read at the close of First Day meeting at Newport between this and our next monthly meeting; and the clerk is desired to take care it be done accordingly.

“Clark Rodman, Clerk.”

DENNIS WIVES

SARAH HOWLAND — Wife of Robert Dennis of Portsmouth, was the daughter of Henry Howland, yeoman, of Duxbury, Massachusetts. Henry was a brother of John who came in the Mayflower—lived for awhile in Plymouth, but became an early resident of Duxbury. He was taxed there in 1632, Freeman, 1633, able to bear arms 1643. He was a surveyor of highways. With twenty-six others he bought of the Indians what is now Freetown, April 2, 1659. In 1644 he purchased a large portion of land in Swansea. The history of Bridgewater says that he was one of the substantial landholders and that he “lived by the bay side close to Love Brewster.”

His wife, Mary Newland, was a sister of William Newland, who came from Lynn in 1637 and settled in Sandwich. She and her brother were Quakers. She was a sister-in-law of Jedidiah Allen who was closely associated with the New Jersey Dennis family. Henry Howland was born in England and died in Duxbury in 1670. Mary Newland Howland died June 16, 1674.

SUSANNA BRIGGS—Wife of Robert Dennis (2) was the daughter of William and Elizabeth Cook Briggs. William Briggs was the son of John Briggs of Portsmouth and Tiverton, Rhode Island. He was born in 1650. In 1680 he married Elizabeth Cook, daughter of John and Mary Borden Cook. She was born in 1653.

August 10, 1667, William Briggs was a member of Peleg Sanford's horse troop. April 30, 1672, Freeman. He died May 12, 1716. Elizabeth Cook Briggs was born in 1653 and died in 1716. Their children were:

SUSANNA — (b) April 9, 1861.

JOHN — (b) Nov. 13, 1685.

WILLIAM — (b) Jan. 11, 1688.

ELIZABETH — (b) Dec. 27, 1689.

THOMAS — (b) Sept. 5, 1693.

DEBORAH — (b) Sept. 6, 1693.

JOB — (b) Aug. 3, 1696.

JOHN BRIGGS was born in 1609, doubtless in England. The Briggs Arms are given as Gules, 2 bars voided or, a canton ermine. In 1638 he was admitted as one of the inhabitants of the island of Aquidneck. April 30, 1639, he and 28 others signed the following compact: "We, whose names are underwritten, do acknowledge ourselves the legal subjects of His Majesty, King Charles, and in his name, do hereby bind ourselves into a civil body politicke unto his laws according to matters of justice." John and William Briggs are both buried in the church yard of the United Congregational Church in Little Compton, Rhode Island.

ELIZABETH COOK — Wife of William Briggs was the daughter of John and Mary Borden Cook. Her father, John Cook, of Warwicke was Water Bailie in 1647; Freeman, 1655; and 1653, Commissioner for Warwicke. He was the son of Thomas Cook, inhabitant, 1643.

MARY BORDEN — Wife of John Cook was the daughter of Richard Borden, born 1601, died May 25, 1671, and his wife, Joan —, was born in 1604 and died July 15, 1688. She married John Cook, 1631, died, 1691. He is said to have been "one of the first planters" and is buried in the ground given by Robert Dennis to the Friends in Portsmouth. His son, Matthew, is said to have been the first English child born on Rhode Island, RICHARD BORDEN was admitted inhabitant of the Island of Aquidneck in 1638. May 30, 1638, he was allotted five acres. January 2, 1639, appointed one of four of a surveying party, 1640 appointed with others to lay out lands in Portsmouth, 1653, on committee for Long Island (7) affairs. 1653-4 Assistant (General Treasurer?) 1654-5 General Treasurer. 1654-55-56 Commissioner, 1667, one of the original purchasers of lands in New Jersey from certain Indians.

HANNAH WILBOR—Wife of John Dennis was the daughter of Samuel and Mary Potter Wilbor. Samuel was born at Little Compton in 1664 and died in 1740. He was the son of William, who died in 1710. A Samuel Wilbor is given as one of the original twenty who signed the Aquidneck compact in 1638. The dates are right for him to be father of William and grandfather of Samuel of Little Compton, but no proof is at hand. Mary Potter was the daughter of Nathaniel, who was born in 1639 and his wife, Elizabeth Stokes.

HANNAH WILCOX — According to Dartmouth records she was the daughter of William and Dorothy Palmer Wilcox, tracing descent from Edward, older brother of that Daniel Wilcox who married Elizabeth Cooke, daughter of John and Sarah Warren Cooke of the Mayflower—But Austin's "Genealogy Dictionary of Rhode Island" does not name either Hannah or her brother, Daniel, among Edward's children, the last of whom was born in 1716, nineteen years before the birth of Hannah—Daniel (2) who died in 1736 and whose wife's name was Hannah, leaves in his will "to granddaughter Hannah, daughter of son Daniel, lately deceased, a white chest." May not this have been our Hannah, born in 1735? In any case it makes little difference since the birth of Daniel (2) is in dispute. It is argued from recently discovered evidence that he was the son of an earlier wife, not of Elizabeth, daughter of John Cooke and Sarah Warren of the Mayflower.

COGGESHALL

HANNAH, wife of Robert (21), was the daughter of Thomas and Mercy (Mary) Freeborn Coggeshall. Thomas, son of Joshua, of Newport, married Mercy Freeborn, daughter of Gideon of Portsmouth, March 11, 1707-8. Joshua, (b) 1623, (d) May 1, 1688, (m) Joan West, (b) 1631, (d) April 24, 1676. Joshua was son of John Coggeshall, (b) Nov. 27, 1647, (m) Mary —, (b) 1604, (d) Nov. 8, 1684. He was a silk merchant in London and came to Boston in the "Lyon," Captain Pierce, September 16, 1632. Later he brought his wife and children, John, Joshua and Ann. He helped to lay out Newport. In 1647 he was President of the Colony. He was buried on his own land.

"First Settlers of Rhode Island, New England Genealogy and Historical Record" names John Coggeshall, Samuel Wilbore, William Freeborn and Phillip Sherman.

LOOMIS

RACHEL LOOMIS, wife of Ucal Dennis, born in Cicero, N. Y., was the daughter of Elijah, (b) in Connecticut, July 17, 1761, married in 1784 Rachel Chapman who died March 1st, 1854. He served in the Revolution from 1775 to 1781, was wounded at the battle of Monmouth and was pensioned for life. About 1800 he removed to New York State where he died at Cicero, Dec. 29, 1848. He was the son of Elijah, born Oct. 16, 1730. His second wife was Rachel, daughter of Thomas and Catherine Loomis Woolcott, who was born April 4, 1737, died March 31, 1836. Elijah was the son of Charles, born February 20, 1696-7, married Sarah —, died October 18, 1778.

Charles was the son of Ensign Nathaniel, born July 8, 1663, married November 28, 1689, Ruth, daughter of John and Mary Stanley Porter who was born August 7, 1671, died Feb. 16, 1753. At the death of his father he acquired land in East Winsor. Subsequently, he removed to Colchester where, in 1716, he bought 150 acres of land. He was Deputy to the General Court, 1708-10. His will, dated January 6, 1672, exhibited March 6, 1732-3, is preserved at Hartford. He died June 25, 1732, at Bolton.

Nathaniel was the son of Joseph who was one of the first settlers of Windor, Conn., coming from Braintree, Essex County, England in 1678. "The Loomis Family in America" gives two coats of arms.

YALE

CELESTINA YALE, wife of Lloyd Bernard (260) was the daughter of Moses and Anna Rowland Yale. She was born February 22, 1843, died April 20, 1916. She was a descendant of Thomas Yale, stepson of Governor Eaton of the New Haven Colony with whom, his mother, and brother, he came to America in 16—. He married Mary Turner, daughter of Captain Nathaniel Turner, twelfth signer of the original roster of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston. Elihu Yale, founder of Yale College was cousin of Thomas. She was also descended from Thomas Rowland who, with his brother Daniel came from Scotland in the latter part of the 17th century through Hezekiah Rowland, a soldier of the Revolution, and Levi Rowland, who fought in the war of 1812; from John Benham who, with his wife and sons came from Berkshire, England, in 1630; Thomas Crosby, who came from Yorkshire in the Susan and Ellen, arriving in July, 1635, graduated from Harvard in 1653 and from Stephen and Giles Hopkins of the Mayflower.
