The dates shown for the couples on pages 98 through 149, are not marriage dates, but are a "presumptive" marriage date.

The dates shown on pages 98 through 149 are the birth dates of the oldest child of the couple, as found in the birth and baptism section starting on page 150 of this book.

See the "Foreword" section of this book for additional insights.

FOREWORD

For a great many years it has been the sincere desire of all those interested in the early records of Virginia to make the contents of the celebrated Douglas Register available to the public; but the owners, descendants of the Reverend Mr. Douglas, would not agree to its publication. It has been the good fortune of the writer to have succeeded in obtaining the consent of the present owner, Mr. Hunter Fielding Warner Lewis, to this publication.

In order to make the record more available for ready reference, the entries, under the various headings of Marriages, Births and Deaths, have been arranged alphabetically, after the manner of an index. This has been done without in any case changing the spelling, or phraseology, of the venerable recorder. It will be seen that in many instances the same name has been spelled in different ways, according to the manner of former days. The various forms of the same family name, wherever the editor was certain, have been placed together, regardless of the proper alphabetical place, in order to present the family grouping in a more comprehensive arrangement.

Some of the records of the early French settlers at Manikin Town, and a rough index of the Goochland County wills, inventories, etc., have been added to the publication, that the reader may understand better the origin of many of the family names that occur in the Register. Many marriages, of which there are now no available record, are indicated in the Birth Register, in which Mr. Douglas, very wisely, gives the maiden name of the mother, as well as the name of the father. These presumptive marriages have been set up from the Birth Registry and made into two alphabetical lists, one for the husbands and another for the wives.

The Reverend William Douglas came to St. James Northam Parish, in Goochland County, Virginia, (Dover Church), on the 12th of October, 1750. A memorandum in the Register shows that he had charge of St. James Northam Parish for twenty-seven years; Maniken Town (King William Parish), for nineteen years, and ministered to a charge in Buckingham County for four years.

There had been, according to his statement, no parish register kept up to the time that he took charge. He began, on the 15th of September, 1753, keeping a record of the marriages performed by him. The book in which the Register is kept, was procured by him at the beginning of the year 1756 and was kept from that time until near the time of his death, which occurred on the 7th of February, 1798. But he inserted many of the marriages performed by him before 1756, and in the matter of births the record goes back to 1705—including the names and dates of birth of children given him by their parents, who desired them recorded.

This book is known as "The Douglas Register" for the reason that it not only contains a record of Births, Christenings, Marriages, Deaths and Funerals in St. James Northam Parish and the county of Goochland, but in many instances in adjacent counties and others more remote. The record also is not only for the period he was in charge of St. James Northam Parish, but continues after he left that parish, on the 5th of September, 1777, and went to live in Louisa County. In fact he kept up the entries in the Register until 1797, and thus it covers a period of ninety-two years.

The book is made of the old Government stamped paper and is bound in calf and parchment. It is in a good state of preservation, though in some places the margin is worn or broken, and there are several pages missing.

The writer wishes to acknowledge the very efficient aid of the Hon. Charles M. Wallace in the preparation and editing of the manuscript; the intelligent co-operation of the publishers, Messrs J. W. Fergusson & Sons; and also to express his high appreciation of the endorsement of his effort by the following well-known authorities on Virginia records: Dr. Henry R. McIlwaine, State Librarian of Virginia; Dr. Lyon G. Tyler, historian and author; Dr. Wm. G. Stanard, Secretary of the Virginia Historical Society; Dr. Earl G. Swem, Librarian of William & Mary College; Dr. Joseph D. Eggleston, President of Hampden-Sydney College; and Dr. Robert A. Stewart, editor of the Researcher. He further wishes to acknowledge the generous response of the subscribers, whose names appear elsewhere in these pages.

With the ardent hope that this work will prove of interest and benefit to the public,

W. MAC. JONES.

THIS IS TO CERTIFY that the "Parish Register of Goochland Parish, begun Anno 1756 by WILLIAM DOUGLASS, Minister" and contained in a large manuscript volume, bound in parchment, is my own property, having descended to me from the author, as follows: First: William Douglass' heir was his only child, Peggy Douglass, who married Nicholas Merriwether, by whom there were six children, of whom, Elizabeth Merriwether was the sixth, and my own father's mother. Nicholas Merriwether died Dec. 19th 1772, and his widow married Chiles Tyrril Feb. 20 1783. On Sept. 8 1784 they had a son, born to them, James Hunter Tyrril (or Terrell) who was the 7th child of Peggy Douglass, inherited this manuscript of his grandfather, and left it to his adopted son and heir James Hunter Minor, whose only daughter I married, and whose widow, Mary W. Minor, now of Charlottesville, Virginia, who was also his heir, gave the said manuscript to me, Robert W. Lewis.

The Rev. William Douglass was grandfather to my grandmother, Elizabeth Lewis, of Locust Grove, Charlottesville, Va. I inherited his library of several hundred volumes. Bishop Meade used this manuscript in composing his "Old Churches & Families of Virginia". I also own "The History of the House of Douglas" autograph copy of the Rev. Wm. Douglas, brought over from Scotland in 1750, showing him to be a lineal descendant of the Ducal House of Douglas (769 A. D.—1490 A. D.).

Loose Memo. in Register, made by Mr. Robt. Lewis.

Memorandum furnished me at Farmington, Albemarle Co. Va. by Marcia Louise Margaret Meriwether, wife of Charles James Meriwether, d. of ..... Miller of Goochland & ..... Guerrant.

Grandfather was Heath Jones Miller, Lickinghole Church.

Charles J. Meriwether was son of Capt. Wm. Douglas Meriwether of Cloverfields, Albemarle county, Va., who was son of Nicholas Meriwether & Peggy Douglas; son of David; son of Thomas; son of Nicholas, first of his name in America.

Two brothers Meriwether, buried on a knoll near the eastern end of the Free Bridge over the Rivanna.

Marcia Louise Margaret Meriwether & her husband Chas. J., visited the three great-nieces of Parson Douglas of Virginia, daughters of Sir William Douglas of Castle Douglas, near Firth of Solway, viz: Mrs. Maitland of Castle Douglas; Mrs. Maxwell of Orchardton and Mrs. Robinson, all widows. The address of Mrs. Maitland was c/o Sir William Douglas, Douglas Castle, Castle Douglas, Douglas Arms. (This was probably the nephew taught by Parson Douglas, who returned to Scotland & inherited a title. The ladies acknowledged them as cousins. Reference was made to their ages recorded in Goochland Parish register in possession now of Robert W. Lewis, which record was made by Harriet Douglas in 1824 at Music Hall.

KING WILLIAM PARISH, or "MANAKIN TOWN"

The Huguenot Settlement on the James River

While there had been, almost since the foundation of the Colony, many individual refugees who sought safety in the Colonies, those referred to in these notes were part of a body of some five hundred immigrants who came to Virginia in 1700 under the Marquis de la Muce, and who landed in this country in four successive debarkations. (Beverley's History of Virginia p. 244) (Baird, C.W., II, p. 177.)

"Three ministers of the Gospel and two physicians were among their number. The ministers were Claude Phillipe de Richebourg, Benjamin de Joux and Louis Latane. The physicians were Castaing and La Sosse.

"Among the ministers who served the Parish of King William (Manakin-Town) were the following: Benjamin de Joux until his death in 1704; Claude Phillipe de Richbourge, who removed to South Carolina in 1707; Jean Cairon, who died in 1716; Peter Fontaine 1720-1721; Francis Fontaine 1722-1724; William Finney, 1722 and later; William Murdaugh of St. James Northam, Goochland, and Zachariah Brooke of Hanover in 1727; Mr. Neirn 1727-1728; David Mossom, of St. Peters Parish, New Kent, 1727; Mr. Swift and Danl. Taylor of Blissland Parish, New Kent, 1728-1729; James Marye 1731-1735; Anthony Gavain 1739 and later; Rev. William Douglas from 1750 to 1777 and subsequently Rev. Mr. Hopkins of Goochland."

The above list is given by Dr. R. A. Brock in the introduction to his work on the Huguenot immigration to Virginia, in "Collections of the Virginia Historical Society," vol. V, published in 1886, from which most of these notes have been obtained.

As there were constant inter-marriages between the French Refugees and the colonist already in Virginia, the records as contained in the Douglas Register can be more readily understood when read in connection with the records of King William Parish, and for that reason they are included in this publication.

For a similar reason we are publishing an index which will give ready reference to the wills, inventories, estate divisions, marriage agreements, etc.

These notes are not claimed to be full and complete, but are only given as an aid to the better understanding of the various names which the Rev. William Douglas, like many other of our early scribes, has spelled as the fancy moved him. In some cases he has spelled the same name three or four different ways.

By way of an introduction to the whole subject the following extracts from Bishop William Meade's "Old Churches, Ministers and Families in Virginia", will prove of interest.

"This parish was originally in Henrico county, which extended thus far and beyond it on either side of James River. It is now in Powhatan county, whose name is taken from the ancient name of the river and the old King Powhatan. By Act of Assembly in 1790, it was assigned to the French refugees who were driven from their country by the persecutions of Louis XIV., and sought an asylum in Virginia as hundreds of thousands did in all the various countries of Protestant Christendom."

"As early as the year 1660 some few came over fleeing from the earlier persecutions. They were sufficient in number to induce an Act of Assembly granting them the privilege of citizens. Toward the close of the century some of them settled themselves on the Rappahannock. In the year 1790, so many had settled on the south side of the James River, in Henrico county (which was then on both sides of the river) that the Assembly passed an act giving them a large tract of land along the river as their possession, exempting them from all county and State taxes for seven years, and then extending the privilege indefinitely. They were required to support their own minister in their own way. Accordingly, in dividing the grant into farms, all running down to the river in narrow slips, a portion of the most valuable was set apart for the minister, and continued for a long time to be in the possession and use of the minister, while one was resident in the parish, and after that to be rented out and the proceeds paid for such occasional services as were rendered by neighbouring ministers. At length, as it could not be seized and alienated by the act for selling glebes, it got into private hands, and has thus been held for many years. * * * * * I mention the names of those families still remaining in Virginia who derive their descent from the Huguenots. From information obtained from books and from individuals, they are as follows: Marye, Fontaine, Dupuy, Harris, Sublett, Watkins, Markham, Sully, Chasteen, Duvall, Bondurant, Flournoy, Potter, Michaux, Pemberton, Munford, Agie, Hatcher, Jacqueline, Bernard, Barraud, Latane, Moncure, Amouet, Chadouin, Dibrell, Farrar, Jeter, Jordan, Jouette, LeGrand, Ligon, Maupin, Maxey, Pasteur, Perrou, Thweatt, Maury, Boisseau, Fouche, Lanier, Le Neve. Concerning a few of these it may be questioned whether they be not of Welsh descent, while their are doubtless others who might be added."

"Goochland County was cut from Henrico in 1727. In the year 1744 the parish of St. James Northam, was restricted to the north side of the river, and that on the south side was called St. James Southam, both of them being in Goochland, which still lay on both sides of the river, and extended from Louisa line to Appomattox River. Albemarle county and Parish were also in this year taken from Goochland by a line from Louisa to the Appomattox. * * * * (The Rev. Anthony Gavin preceded Rev. Wm. Douglas as minister.)

"Immediately after his (Mr. Gavin's) death the Rev. Mr. Douglas was chosen. He entered on his duties in 1750. His history and character deserve some notice, and must be acceptable to his numerous and respectable descendants. They are gathered chiefly from a large register of baptisms, funerals, marriages, sermons, &c., interspersed with other notices, throwing some light upon the peculiarities which distinguished him. The Rev. William Douglass was from Scotland. In the year 1735 he married Miss Nicholas Hunter, by whom he had an only child,—a daughter named Margaret. In the year 1748 or 1749 leaving them behind, he came over as teacher in the family of Colonel Monroe of Westmoreland, father of President Monroe, who was one of his pupils, as was also Mr. Jefferson afterward, in Goochland. After some time, returning to England, he was ordained, and brought back his wife and daughter in the year 1750, and in the same year settled himself in Goochland. His daughter Margaret, whom he always called Peggy, married Mr. Nicholas Meriwether of Albemarle, and they were the ancestors of many of that name in Virginia. He brought with him or had sent to him, two nephews from Scotland, whom he adopted, educated, and called his children. He had a brother James, who settled in New York and left a numerous posterity there. Perhaps some of that name who have ministered in our Church may be his descendants. A few years since a Mr. George Douglass and two daughters from this family in New York paid a visit to Albemarle to see their relatives in that county, when a happy family meeting occurred. One of the adopted sons of Mr. Douglass (William) returned to Scotland and inherited a title. The other (James) went to New York and became a successful merchant. One of his daughters married James Monroe (the nephew and adopted son of President Monroe), who some years since represented the city of New York in Congress. After this biographical notice of himself and family, I return to his register, from which we learn some things concerning the early history of this parish nowhere else to be found. He states, as coming to him from good authority, that the church at Dover was undertaken by Mr. Thomas Mann Randolph in 1720; that it was finished in 1724 at a cost of fifty-four thousand nine hundred and ninety pounds of tobacco; that it was fifty by twenty-four feet in size that the Rev. Mr. Finnie was employed during these four years to preach once a month; that the Rev. Mr. Murdaugh was then received as a minister; that he was to preach the last Sunday in every month alternately at the plantation of Mr. Robert Carter, on the south side of James River, and of Major Bolling, on the northside of James River. We learn that in the year 1727 the Rev. Mr. Brooke preached once per month for them; and that in the same year the Rev. Mr. Beckett was received into the parish as a Minister. We learn also, from his diary kept in this register, that ministers were very scarce in the surrounding counties, so that Mr. Douglass had much to perform in the way of funerals, marriages, etc. He records one thousand and three hundred and eighty-three marriages, and four thousand and sixty nine baptisms. His views of doctrine and ministerial character may be seen from the favourable notice taken of Turretine, Doddridge, Walker, Hill and Whitefield, also of Showers Sacramental Discourses. In one of Doddridge's works—his Sermon to Young Men—he has written on a blank leaf these lines to his children:

"This, with all Doddridge's other writings, I leave as my best legacy to my dear children, to supply my deficiencies in your education, which I now sadly remember has been shamefully neglected. Part with none of his works for gold or silver, but let your children enjoy them, if you will not.

I am your loving father,
WILLIAM DOUGLASS."

To this I add an extract from a letter to one of his nephews, just married, not long before his death:—

"Industry, frugality, good contrivance, with the divine blessing, are the only scheme to make us happy for this world and another. That was your father's and grandfather's scheme; and oh, Billy and Martha, make it yours! Set up, by all means, the worship of God in your family; and let others about you do what they will, and heap up riches by every method, but as for you and your family, do you serve God. As for me, I am quite unfit for this world, and am daily waiting till my change come."

As to the time in which the churches were completed, with the exception of that at Dover, it is not easy to determine. The three churches at which Mr. Douglass officiated were Dover, Beaver Dam and Licking Hole. In the year 1777, after a ministry of twenty seven years, he resigned his charge, and settled on a farm in Louisa, where he spent the remainder of his years, which were not many."*

*NOTE: In this last statement the good Bishop was mistaken as he lived until 1798, and entries appear in his hand writing in the Register until 1797, which show that he continued to act as a minister for over forty years from the time he entered the Parish in Goochland, or twenty years after he severed his connection with the vestry of Northam Parish. Furthermore he did not resign from St. James' Northam Parish—but was dismissed by his Vestry—See page 353 supra.
