DICKEY GENEALOGY.

The following short history of the Dickey family was written by the Rev. James Henry Dickey. "Of my ancestors I know but little. My Grandfather John Dickey married Martha McNeely, the daughter of George McNeely, of whom all I know is that he was called "Honest George" the North Countryman". The newly married couple removed from the North of Ireland to the colony of Virginia and settled in Albemarle County, on Mechanics River, opposite the Rockfish Gap in the South Mountain. There they reared a large family. Not long before the Revolutionary War the family removed to South Carolina, and settled in York County, leaving Eleanor, who married John Tisdale, in Virginia. In Carolina, on March 24, 1772, Robert married Margaret Hillhouse, daughter of Wm. Hillhouse, also from the North of Ireland. She lived with him until Aug. 30, 1778, when she died, leaving behind her two sons and a daughter, John, William, and Martha. In the month of January, 1780, Robert Dickey married Mary Henry, the daughter of James Henry and Agnes Mitchell, and she became my mother on the 24th of October following. So far back as my knowledge of my forefathers extends, they were a religious people."

"My boast is not that I deduce my birth
From thrones enthroned and rulers of the earth,
But higher far my proud pretensions rise,
The son of parents passed into the skies". (Cowper.)
