Introduction

The writer has been gathering Ensminger data for many years. In 1945, 1958 and 1959 he published Ensminger booklets. This revision is a summary of those with some new data added. The early Ensmingers were all related. They migrated to Maryland, Virginia, Ohio and other states. Many persons have helped gather these data. Church, court and census records have been used mostly.

The families that came to Pennsylvania all signed their names "Ensminger." This is the spelling in the records in Alsace and Pennsylvania. The Virginia branch added a "t" - Entsminger; those in South Carolina wrote Entzminger. All spellings are pronounced the same. Research in early records is difficult because of the countless misspellings.

Alsace

Baron von Frank, the eminent Austrian genealogist, is the person who located the likely home of the family in Europe - the villages of Domfessel and Diemeringen in present-day Alsace (Bas-Rhin). This is the only place in German-speaking regions where a family of this name is found. It appears first in 1605 and is still found today. Hans Ensminger settled in Diemeringen in 1605. He had a wife, Christine, and a son, John Adam.

About 1848 Christian and Peter Ensminger migrated from Waldhambach, near Diemeringen, to Rensselaerville, New York. They had a brother, Philip, in Alsace and possibly a brother Adam.

The Ensmingers were Lutheran - there are still Lutheran churches in these villages. The records begin in 1789. The Philipps, who intermarried with the Ensmingers and who came to America with some of them, were from Volksberg, four miles east of Diemeringen, according to the records of the Salem Lutheran Church, Lebanon, Pennsylvania. The Philipps who were originally Swiss, settled in the Volksberg region about 1650.

Diemeringen is one mile south of Domfessel, four miles east of Sarre-Union (Saarbuchenheim), ten miles south of the present French-German border. This territory was a battlefield in a number of wars. The first Ensmingers came to America in 1733.

Migrations

The trip to America took several months and was made in the summer. The ship lists show the following landing dates:

Aug 17-1733 Peter Ensminger age 39
 Catharine 33
 Henry 10, Catharine 8, Philip 6, Nicholas 1

Oct 28-1738 Nicholas Ensminger 39
 Margaret 35
 Christina 13, Catharine 10, Ludwig 7, Mary 3
 Nov 20-1741 Henry Ensminger 40 (on the same ship as the Eisenhauers)
 Aug 28-1750 *David Ensminger (on same ship as the Philipps) Sep 16-1751 *Frederick Entzminger (he could not write, someone else wrote his name)
 Sep 14-1753 *John Ensminger
 Sep 30-1754 *Nicholas Ensminger
 * head of family only listed

Peter, Nicholas, and Henry all proceeded to Cocalico Twp, Lancaster Co, Pa. David settled in York Co, near Henry, son of Peter. Frederick may be the one listed in Lancaster Co 1779; his sons may have gone to S.C. John may be the one listed in Philadelphia in 1779. The 1754 Nicholas may have been the oldest son of Nicholas (landed 1738).

It is not known why the Ensmingers went to Cocalico. They likely found relatives or friends. Peter Ensminger was early associated with Rev. John Casper Stoever, who married many of the Ensmingers. Peter and Stoever were granted citizenship Mar 29-1735 by an act of assembly along with seven others from Lancaster Co.

Cocalico

The Muddy Creek Lutheran Church records at Swartzville, Pa record the baptism of these children of Peter:

1735 Michael; 1739 Margaret and these children of Nicholas:

1742 Elizabeth; 1745 Henry; 1747 Margaret
 Stoever married Henry to Mary Barbara Crautzdorf in 1744 and Catharine, Peter's widow, to Jacob Schmidt in 1748.

It is likely that Peter, Nicholas and Henry were brothers. David and Frederick may have been nephews. Peter was a blacksmith, as were his brother, Henry, and sons, Henry and Nicholas, as well as other members of the family.

The first one to leave Cocalico was Henry (b 1701) who was in York Co 1747; although Peter's name is in the 1741 Hanover, Pa records. Henry (b 1723) went to York Co 1751. Maryland called Philip between 1757 and 1760; Nicholas and the sons of Ludwig after 1778. Henry (b 1701) was in Virginia in 1768, as was Philip in 1780. The first record of Ensmingers in S C is in 1767.

Others went west and south and carried the Ensminger name to all parts of the country. Some were in Ohio and Indiana at an early date. Several Ensminger families came to America in the 1800s.

Peter Ensminger

On Oct 10-1738 Peter Ensminger applied for 200 acres along Muddy Creek. He died about a year later, for papers were issued in his estate to his widow in November 1739. The inventory of his estate is on file at Lancaster, Pa. It lists three horses, a colt, four cows, three calves, six sheep, a set of blacksmith tools, farming tools, a Bible, two guns, pewter ware, kitchen utensils, clothing, and miscellaneous items. The total value was £74-10-0. In 1748 his widow sold the "plantation of her late husband" for £300. Six children are mentioned, but not named. Peter, who sought a new home in America, died at 45 in the prime of his life. His death occurred just a year after his brother, Nicholas, came to America.

Peter's two older children were married in 1742. In 1752 Henry, son of Peter, bought land in Newberry Twp, York Co, Pa; about forty miles west of Cocalico. His stone house, built 1764, still stands near Lewisberry. In this same region lived David Ensminger, who came to America in 1750. Philip, son of Peter, moved southwest to the Sugar Loaf region of Frederick Co, Md before 1760. In 1780 he was in Augusta Co, Va. He died in 1807 in Monroe Co, W Va. Nicholas, third son of Peter, moved about 1770 a few miles north and in 1773 took up a farm near Lebanon, Pa. He is buried at Hill Church. Michael, the youngest son was in Lebanon Twp as early as 1773 and as late as 1782, but in 1790 he was back in Lancaster Co. He is buried at Manheim. The Henry, who was in Lebanon in 1782, may have been a son of Michael.

Nicholas Ensminger

The will of Nicholas was filed at Lancaster in October 1786. He died at the age of 87. He was likely a farmer. He acquired land in Cocalico in 1753. His will written in 1785 names his wife, Margaret; oldest son, Nicholas; son, Ludwig, deceased; deceased daughters, Christina, Elizabeth; daughters, Catharine, Mary, Margaret. His son, Henry, is not mentioned and must have died without heirs.

Nicholas Jr is not listed in the 1738 ship list, although he was at least 15 then. He may not have come over until 1754. In 1753 the Heidelberg tax list shows Hans Nickle Ensminger, Sr and Jr. This may have meant Nicholas Sr and Ludwig, who was married in 1752. Nicholas Jr was a baptism sponsor in 1757. His children were baptized at Schaefferstown 1762 1764 1775 1777. If he married in 1761, he was 38; but his uncle, Henry, was married at 43. Nicholas married Catharine Crow, whose father, Leonard Crow, died in Hellam Twp, York Co 1785. Leonard had sons, Michael and Alexander.

Nicholas Jr moved to the Pa-Md border about 1779. In 1778 he was an associator in Heidelberg, now Lebanon Co and in 1781 he belonged to the Antrim Twp, now Franklin Co, Pa militia. Antrim Twp is a few miles north of Hagerstown, Md. Nicholas' son John was baptized at Hagerstown in 1780. On Jan 1-1799 Nicholas Ensminger sold his stock and household belongings (see record at Hagerstown). It is likely that he moved with his son Jacob to Springhill Twp, Fayette Co, Pa for in 1800 Jacob Ensminger is listed in Springhill with four males (two over 45) and six females. Jacob was gone in 1810; he likely went to Ohio.

One of the early settlers in Springhill Twp was Michael Crow, uncle or cousin of Jacob. Michael had sons or grandsons, Jacob and Alexander. Michael Crow had gone to Fayette Co from Williamsport, Md, where Christian Ensminger lived. Christian was a nephew of Nicholas Jr. Nicholas Jr's son Henry died at 6; there is no record of any others besides Jacob, unless John b 1780 is the John in Belmont Co, Ohio.

Ludwig Ensminger was a baptism sponsor in 1749; he was married in 1752. There is record of a son; Ludwig Jr, born 1753. He likely had another son, Christian; for Ludwig married a Philippi and Christian is a Philippi name. Christian's oldest son was Ludwig. Ludwig Sr may have had a third son, Henry. Ludwig Sr must have died about 1761 for his name disappears. In 1777 Ludwig Jr is listed in Heidelberg Twp. He and Christian must have gone to Washington Co, Md 1778 or 79 - about the same time as their uncle, Nicholas. Only Christian is listed in the 1790 census, but there were omissions and some families lived together.

Henry, son of Nicholas Sr, was born in 1745. He may be the Henry, who with wife Susanna, sponsored a baptism in 1762. He died before 1785. No attempt has been made to trace the daughters of Peter and Nicholas Sr.

It should be pointed out that the early Germans used the second name as the call name. John Peter was called Peter; Mary Catherine was called Catherine. English clerks did not always understand this.

Henry Ensminger

Henry Ensminger added a "t" to his name in Virginia. He came to Cocalico in 1741 and was married in 1744. He was granted land in Lancaster Co 1750. He was in York Co, Pa 1747 and evidently went to Virginia soon after his child was baptized at Lancaster in 1760. In 1768 he was a blacksmith in Cowpasture, Botetourt Co, Va. He likely died before 1782.

David Ensminger

David Ensminger came to America in 1750. A child was baptized in York, Co, Pa in 1753. He was taxed in 1768 and must have died soon after. David Jr appears in the records of York Co 1777-82.

The Revolution

Militia rolls show that these Ensmingers served in Penna - Lancaster Co: Peter, Daniel, Jacob, Christian, Michael, Henry - York Co: Conrad, George, David, Henry.

Virginia service is shown for: John, son of Henry; and Joshua, son of Philip. Philip belonged to the Frederick Co, Md militia in 1775.

John Henry Ensminger was a member of the Invalid Regiment, according to Lancaster Co court records. He served in the Third Pa Regiment and was wounded at the battle of Monmouth. He received a state pension of $10 monthly beginning in 1779. He is likely the same as Henry Ensminger, living in Donegal Twp 1810, who received a federal pension beginning in 1820. In 1820 he was living in Cumberland Co at the age of 66. His wife was Eve age 60 and apparently there were no children. Henry died in 1833. His pension application says that in addition to being wounded and held prisoner at Monmouth, he served against the Indians at Tioga Point and was at the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown. He was discharged in 1783 at Trenton, N J. It is not clear who he was - possibly son of Michael -- age incorrectly stated.

The South Carolina Entzmingers

The name is Ensminger in the early records. Tradition says the family came from Virginia. There are three in the records:

1. Peter Ensminger born about 1742 100 acres Oct 14-1767 Berkley Co.
died 1789 Richland Co Frederick Entzminger, administrator
no record of any issue
2. Christian Ensminger born about 1746 300 a Mar 8-1770 Orangeburg Co

If Peter, Christian and Frederick were brothers, as is likely, they may have been sons of Frederick Ensminger who came to Pa Sep 16-1751 from Germany. His name is Entzminger in the ship lists. He settled in Lancaster Co, Pa where Peter Ensminger settled 1733, Nicholas 1738, Henry 1741. A Frederick was living in Brecknock, adjoining Cocalico, in Lancaster Co 1779. He may have been born about 1715 or 20. It is possible that Frederick was the father of the three South Carolina Entzmingers.

Henry Ensminger left Pa and was in Va by 1768. Philip, son of Peter was in Md 1760, Va 1780. Peter, Christian and Frederick may have gone from Pa to Va to S C. There was a large migration from Va to S C beginning in 1765.

Philippi

The Philipppis, of Swiss origin, settled in the region of Volksberg, Alsace about 1650. In 1750 John Philippi, wife Christina and children, John Jr, Andrew, Christian, Jacob (?), Christina, Elizabeth and others landed in Pa, and went to Cocalico.

On Dec 12-1752 Christian and Christina Philippi married Mary and Ludwig Ensminger. (Brother and sister married sister and brother.) Two years later Elizabeth Philippi married Nicholas Ensminger, a cousin of Mary and Ludwig.

Christian and Jacob Philippi were in Lancaster Co in the 1770s. Ludwig Ensminger and Nicholas Ensminger both had sons named Christian Ensminger - this name coming from the Philipppis.
