PREFACE — FIRST EDITION.

IN Holden, Maine, on Friday, the 24th day of August, 1877, about forty of the grandchildren of Dea. JOHN FARRINGTON, one of the first settlers of the town in 1786, assembled at the home of MRS. NANCY HART, his only surviving child. While together, the subject of a family Reunion was discussed, and an organization effected, one prominent object of which was to collect and preserve records and incidents in the history of the Farrington family. A President, Vice-President, and Secretary were chosen, and it was proposed to hold a Reunion on "Wrentham Hill," Holden, in August, 1878. A Committee of Arrangements was also chosen to designate the day, issue invitations, etc.

The result of the invitations thus extended, was a gathering, August 27th, 1878, of more than eighty of the family, with a few invited friends. After an interchange of greetings, and enjoying a bountiful collation, the Secretary read a brief sketch of the Ancestors for more than two hundred years, together with some genealogical facts of the past and present. Others added reminiscences and anecdotes of the Fathers, interspersed with singing. This Reunion was so much enjoyed that it was voted to make the organization permanent, and to have the meetings continued annually.

The Reunion for 1879, held at the OLIVER FARRINGTON homestead, Brewer, August 28th, was equally well attended and enjoyed. It was voted to have the Family Records collected and printed; and a Committee for this purpose was chosen, consisting of DANIEL FARRINGTON, Holden, Me.

JOHN F. BLAKE, Winterport, Me.

ANNA E. FARRINGTON, Portland, Me.

REV. C. M. BLAKE, San Francisco, Cal.

In fulfilment of this trust, your Committee hope this work may meet the approbation of all. It goes forth with the earnest desire that its circulation among the different families of the name, scattered over our broad land, may stimulate an interest, which shall result, ere long, in a complete work, embracing all of the Farrington name and lineage in the country.

As suggestive of sources of material for such work, we have added an Appendix, containing genealogical sketches, which we hope may prove not only interesting, but in other hands, under favorable conditions, may lead to more thorough and faithful research.

HOLDEN, ME., April, 1880.

PREFACE — REVISED EDITION.

Nearly two years ago, the call for copies of the Memorial became so frequent that the question of revision was agitated. As nearly twenty years had elapsed since the original appeared, and so many of the older cousins were passing away, some of us felt, that, if a complete record was desired, immediate action should be taken.

So, from among those interested and willing to aid in the revision, Mrs. Emma F. Southworth and Albert R. Farrington of Portland, with J. Herbert Bunce of Malden, Mass., were chosen to serve as a committee. Blanks were prepared and sent to the heads of families, with the request that they be filled out and returned at once. Upon their return, commenced the work of classification, which, with the indexing, has been done entirely by Mrs. Southworth, and it is to her faithfulness that we owe the success of this volume.

The committee, believing that the Memorial would be of greater value if it contained pictures of Dea. John Farrington's children and their homes, have had half-tones made of all which could be obtained, together with the house of worship which they attended, and in which our ancestor served as Deacon for many years.

A careful research in the genealogical libraries reveals no direct lineal connection with the Farrington ancestry, beyond John of Dedham and the year 1646. Until, therefore, such connection is traced and authentically established, the large number of "Armorial Bearings," worn by Farringtons in England, prevents a decision by the committee, as to which of the "coats" and "crests" may belong to this branch; and as we believe that the untarnished name of Farrington is able to stand alone before the world, it is thought wise to drop the description of the coat of arms appearing in the former edition.

In order that future records may be made more nearly complete, a blank page has been inserted at the close of each family's record; and the committee would suggest that each one make note of all changes which may come to his knowledge. That any, desiring to become members of the "Sons and Daughters of the American Revolution," may know where to find the necessary credentials, we have inserted the "War Record" of Dea. John Farrington.

APPENDIX.

THE FARRINGTON name dates far back in English history. First called in the old Saxon, Ferndon, signifying Fern hill.* There is an ancient town called Farrington in Berks County, west of London. There is a township named Farrington in Lancaster County; and a parish of the same name in another part of England.

The name is also found among the nobility of the Kingdom. Ffarrington of Warden and Ffarrington of Woodvale were lineal descendants of John de Ffarrington, in the time of Henry III. His will is dated 1549. The motto of his "Armorial Bearings," was "Domat Omnia Virtus."

The name appears subsequently, knighted or ennobled: as Sir Anthony Farrington 1766: Sir Anthony Farrington, son of Charles Farrington was made Baronet 1818: Sir Henry Maturin Farrington, who inherited as third Baronet: Sir Henry Anthony Farrington, of Blackheath, County of Kent, fourth Baronet, Oct. 4, 1834.

In the list of passengers for New England on the ship Hopewell, London, April 1, 1635, is found the name of "Edward Ffarrington, aged 47, and his wife Eliza, 48, with their children, Sarah, 14, Matthew, 12, John, 11, Eliza, 8." These names appear in the Lynn records, "Edmund and Elizabeth." He was one of the projectors of a settlement on Long Island, 1640. And among "L. I. papers," leading the signers of a Declaration, is the name Edward Farrington, with — "his mark." He seems to have returned to Lynn, and d. Jan. 2, 1671.

Matthew<sup>2</sup> went with his father to L. I., — there probably m. and had children, — names and number unknown. Returned to Lynn and had SARAH,<sup>3</sup> b. Feb. 13, 1658; d. Jan. 6, 1659.

WILLIAM,<sup>3</sup> b. May 6, 1660.

SARAH,<sup>3</sup> b. June 15, 1663.

THEOPHILUS,<sup>3</sup> b. Aug. 13, 1666.

* "Each 'wick' or 'ham' or 'stead' or 'tun' took its name from the kinsmen who dwelt together in it; the 'ham' or home of the Billings would be Billingham, and the 'tun' or township of the Harlings would be Harlington."—(J. R. Green's "History of the English People.")

John<sup>2</sup> removed to L. I., 1640 ; m. Eliza, probably had children there. Returned to Lynn, and d. May 2, 1666. He had

EDWARD,<sup>3</sup> b. July 5, 1662.

JOHN,<sup>3</sup> b. March 7, 1664.

JACOB,<sup>3</sup> b. July 22, 1666.

A John Farrington was soldier in brave Capt. Gardiner's company, and was wounded in the great battle of Dec. 19, 1675.

Matthew<sup>3</sup> of Lynn, son of Matthew<sup>2</sup> (?) had:

SARAH,<sup>4</sup> b. Feb. 1, 1676, d. 1677.

SARAH,<sup>4</sup> b. Sept. 20, 1677.

MARTHA,<sup>4</sup> b. May 2, 1679.

SAMUEL,<sup>4</sup> b. Sept. 29, 1681.

This Matthew was freeman, 1691, at the same time with his brothers (?) Theophilus and William.

William,<sup>3</sup> son of Matthew,<sup>2</sup> of Lynn, had a son William,<sup>4</sup> b. May 16, 1674.

Edward<sup>3</sup> of Andover son of John<sup>2</sup> has descendants in Andover, Maine.

Jacob of Andover d. 1667, leaving widow — Eliza, who m. Nov. 14, 1667, Mark Green. (?)

Thomas of L. I. may have been of the Lynn branch.

One William Farrington was in Boston in Revolutionary times, — one of the Boston Tea-party in 1773, — whose ancestor came from London.

— Nathaniel,<sup>2</sup> son of John,<sup>1</sup> has descendants in Dedham, Mass. Lineage runs thus: Jonathan,<sup>3</sup> b. Nov. 5, 1799; Ebenezer,<sup>4</sup> b. May 13, 1734; Reuben,<sup>5</sup> b. Oct. 16, 1764; Charles,<sup>6</sup> b. March 5, 1807; Charles Henry,<sup>7</sup> b. Oct. 18, 1831, who is Town Clerk of Dedham, — lately possessed of land which had descended to him direct from John,<sup>1</sup> 1646. [d. 1882.]

There are many of the name in Warren, Me., descended from Abner Farrington, b. in Dedham, 1752, doubtless grandson of John.<sup>1</sup>

Dr. James Farrington, b. Oct., 1791, at Conway, N. H. Educated at Fryeburg, — the son of Jeremiah who formed, with others, a settlement on the Saco river, at those towns; — grandson of Stephen, one of the first settlers of Concord, — state senator, and member of the 25th Congress.

Henry Farrington, soldier in Louisburg affair in 1746. Sergeant Thomas Farrington in the same expedition.

Amos Farrington of Lynn, m. Sarah Upham of Chelsea, Sept. 26, 1788.

The Vermont branch claim descent from Daniel<sup>2</sup> of Wrentham.

The family is widely scattered. We know of them in Maine, N. H., Vt., Mass., N. Y., Penn., Ohio, Tenn., Missouri, Iowa, Cal., Nevada and Arizona.

CHURCH IN HOLDEN.

INCIDENTS.

Several other settlers came from Wrentham with Dea. John Farrington, or at about the same time; these were, so far as we can learn, Silas Winchester, Ebenezer Fisher, Isaac Clewley, Jacob Hart, David Mann and Samuel Gilmore. These were closely connected, Mrs. Hart and Mrs. Winchester being sisters by the name of King, and Mrs. Clewley and Mrs. Farrington were sisters by the name of Hawes. As there were no roads except for ox-sleds, or for riding on horseback, when they wished to visit each other, a man would fasten a half-hogshead upon his sled, place a chair within it, and his wife and small children would ride in safety. It is told that Mrs. Farrington rode from Brewer, where they left the vessel which brought them from Boston, upon the back of a cow!

They made a straight road directly East from Penobscot river, for nearly eight miles, making their first settlements upon the hill-tops; Mr. Clewley took a farm adjoining Mr. Farrington (which was afterwards occupied by Daniel<sup>5</sup> and Daniel<sup>6</sup>), Mr. Winchester and Mr. Fisher across the road from them, and Mr. Hart on the next hill East, while Mr. Mann and Mr. Gilmore occupied a range running parallel, nearly two miles to the North-east.

The log house which was Mr. Farrington's first home, was situated across the drive-way from the present house, a little further from the road, at the extreme left of our picture. One summer morning, he arose early and went out, leaving the door open, and presently a bear walked in, and after looking around, put his fore-paws upon the bed, where the wife and little children lay, and then peaceably walked out again.

The present house was built in 1796. Meetings were held in the large kitchen, and school in the room at the right, for many years, till the school-house was built in the west corner of Mr. Winchester's farm.

Their oldest son, John, lived in two states, Massachusetts and Maine; two counties, Hancock and Penobscot; and three towns, Orrington, Brewer and Holden; and always upon the same farm.

Daniel Farrington and Jacob Hart (who afterwards married Nancy Farrington), and perhaps others, were engaged in the "War of 1812," and participated in the famous "Battle of Hampden," Sept., 1814.
