FOREWORD

Every one should take an interest in the history of their family. About eight years ago, a friend of mine told me that I should compile a history of the Fruit Family. So many of our past generations were buried here in DeWitt County, Illinois, near where we lived.

The Fruit family came from Wales and settled in Pennsylvania, according to DeWitt County History and Kentucky History. Our ancestor settled in North Carolina on a plantation near Liberty, North Carolina before the Revolutionary War. He was in the Battle of Alamanac Creek, near Hillsboro, as we have these records.

The family came to Kentucky and settled near Hopkinsville in the early 1800's. Here they lived for more than twenty years, where they made their homes by clearing the wilderness.

Then they came to DeWitt County, Illinois to settle on farms. So many of our own family were farmers and stock raisers.

It was surprising to find so many people working on the Fruit history and getting acquainted with many cousins, as we called on them, for their records. The cousins who have helped me so much were Roy Lee Fruit, Luther R. Fruit, Jane Fruit Wisco, Burl E. Fruits and Nellie Donovan. They had done much research for the last twenty years on the Fruit name, so in my research I have found much material on the four Fruit lines.

The John Fruit line (our line) and Robert Fruit line are related as shown by Luther Fruit's chart of the Fruit family. Another chart was made by Jane Fruit Wisco showing that our ancestor, John Fruit, was son of James Fruit, who landed in America about 1735. James died in Hillsboro, North Carolina in 1800, according to his will we found at Hillsboro.

We have never found how the George Fruits line and Christian Fruit line were related to our John Fruit line. Now I hope that in the future, we can prove the relationship of these four Fruit lines.

According to my research, there are many Fruit families living in Indiana. We have found so many "Unclaimed" Fruit families, which I couldn't find their relationship to the four Fruit lines.

Anyway I hope someone will search in foreign countries, tracing our family back to Wales, Ireland, Scotland, and France.

FRUIT

Fruit, in most instances, is in the occupational classification of surnames and, as such, has the same source whether originating in England or France.

The word "fruit" itself is of French origin and was widely introduced in England following the Norman Conquest of 1066, although there is no doubt the word was in use in England even before the Conquest through having been brought there from Normandy or Flanders.

In England, a "fruiter" was a dealer in fruit or one in charge of the fruit crop on a manor. The French equivalent was "fruiterier". It would be impossible to tell today, of course, whether one named Fruit was of English or French ancestry unless genealogical records were available back to at least the late Middle Ages when hereditary surnames were beginning to stick.

G. W. Bardsley in his "A Dictionary of English and Welsh Surnames" (London 1901), lists Fruiter as an occupational name—"a dealer in fruit"—and lists as among the earliest bearers of the name in England a Gilbert le Fruter, a Ralph le Fruter and a Philip le Fruter.

Family names were in a constant state of change before spelling became frozen by the universal use of dictionaries and the spread of education, and the name Fruit would be a natural evolution of the names Fruiter, Fruter, Fruytere, etc.

Other than Bardsley we found only one other authority on surnames who made any mention of Fruiter, from which Fruit undoubtedly evolved, and that was S. Baring-Gould. In his "Family Names and Their Story" (London 1909), he also lists Fruiter as an occupational name denoting a dealer in fruit. He devotes a chapter of his book to the Huguenot immigrants to England and makes mention of Gilbert le Fruyte as being a member of a regiment of Huguenot refugees raised by King William III of England to serve in Ireland. He also mentions a William Fruyter as being one of a group of Huguenot immigrants subscribing to a loyal address in 1744.

The Gilbert le Fruyte mentioned by Baring-Gould could have dropped the "r" from Fruyter, or his name le Fruyte could have denoted "the fruit" to begin with, which would give support to the tradition you mention of the child being hidden in a wine barrel marked "fruit". Many rare names originated as a result of particular actions or circumstances.

In a nearby library, I found a "stray" book from a set of old English records, and found in it where a Thomas Fruter was listed on the Tentrahaden Tax Rolls in England in 1486. I also found where a marriage license was granted by the Bishop of London in 1625 to John Tandy, a mercer, and Sarah Fruytere, widow of Henry Fruytere.

I was struck by the scarcity of the name Fruit when I checked a large number of telephone directories in the library at Texas Tech University. Here are some I found:

William L. Fruit, Hyde Park, Mass.; Edythe Fruit, Boise, Idaho; Francis Fruit, 1677 E. 93rd., Cleveland, Ohio (there were four listings for Fruit in the Cleveland directory); H. W. Fruit, 4622 Sandy Ridge Rd., Columbia, S. C.; L. A. Fruit, 2926 Copper, El Paso, Tex.

These are only a few, which I give as an indication.

There are three Fruitt listings in the Memphis, Tenn., directory, which was the only "double t" spelling I found. The Chicago directory lists a George W. Fruits.

The New York directory lists a Henry Fruitstone who is a lawyer and the El Paso, Tex., directory a Charles M. Fruithandler who is a Certified Public Accountant.

THE HUGUENOT

My song--the Huguenot!
A soul of souls was he,
Opposed to every plot
At war with Liberty.

His courage never failed,
'Gainst sword and flame 'twas steeled,
In conscience armor mailed
He caused their threats to yield.

An exile from his home
Through persecution's rod,
Whene'er compelled to roam,
He ne'er forsook his God.

Wherever he was driven
More sweet the flowers bloomed,
The gentle dew of Heaven
The dreariest waste illumed.

Behold fresh enterprise,
The golden harvest hour,
Toil cheered by fairer skies,
A simpler life, more power.

Each iron code relaxed,
Self-government the rule,
Far less man's earnings taxed,
The Bible in the school.

Within our nation's heart
Lies deep enfolded he
Who caused such fruits to start
On land and on the sea.

Hence ne'er should be forgot
But often brought to view
The sturdy Huguenot,
To home and altar true.

And let "noblesse oblige"
Each thought and action sway,
Whose vantage ground no seige
Could ever drive away.

Exotics widely grow
Our union to enhance,
Most graceful 'mid the glow
The fleur-de-lis of France.

The following Poem was read by the author: Rev. Edward O. Flagg, member of the Huguenot Society.

The Banquet of the Society was given at Delmonico's on April 15th, 1907 where this poem was read.

THE HUGUENOT FOUNDERS OF MANAKIN TOWN

Across the watery waste, God's pilgrims came,
The "Huguenots," the flower of all the earth,
The synonym for character--the name
For principle, integrity, and worth.

What moved the Huguenots to thus embark
On an unknown and uncharted sea?
'Twas God's own Spirit, through the midnight dark
Of persecution, moved to set them free.

The glory-light of heaven moved above
And guided their frail crafts through mists and foam,
Where, thence, they dwelt in unity and love;
In our New World, they found a heaven and home.

'Twas thus that Manakin Town to glory waked.
To glory of the Gospel and its might,
Which erst at Indian tom-toms long had quaked
In decadence, until it saw the Light.

In Manakin Town, blown by the gentle breeze,
Is "Scent of rose and honeysuckle bloom."
There blossoms bright of the "mimosa trees"
Dispel the picture of its early gloom.

In Manakin Town our own brave forbears sleep,
The grasses on their graves, the night dew's quaff.
Centuries over them lone vigils keep
With "Huguenot," immortal epitaph.

Methinks 'twere joy, the sacred walks to tread
Where steps of our ancestors pressed the sod;
'Tis joy to feel that by their precepts led
We walk the self-same spirit-paths to God!

INTRODUCTION

The Fruits were French Protestant Huguenots who fled from the persecution of the Catholics, we believe between 1687 and 1689, as it was found in the "Institute of American Genealogy". It was in 1685 that the "Edict of Nantes" (which gave the Protestants religious freedom) was revoked by King Louis XIV of France and persecution of the Protestants by the Catholics was renewed. Many thousands of French Huguenots fled to other countries in Europe and to the North American colonies.

The spiritual ancestors of the Huguenots were the Vaudois of France, who were early Protestants, believing in the freedom of the soul. From the earliest times the spirit of religious freedom was in the heart and life of the Vaudois. They were heralds of a new day, for they held a torch which the Huguenots, the spiritual descendants, took, and lifted so high that its radiant light penetrated beyond the confines of France into Europe, and eventually across the seas. The spirit of the Huguenots is in itself a great tradition and by the deeds of those who have translated this spirit into action. (The Spirit of Huguenots and maintenance of a Great Tradition was taken from an address made by Reverend James H. Taylor, Washington, D. C., which was found in the Magazine, Huguenot Society. Copyright 1931 - P. 59)

There is an old family tradition handed down by many generations, telling of the Fruit children being hidden in barrels and carried across by crooked French ship line officials to England. One story was told that one barrel was marked "fruit" and contained a child whose name was Fruit, and it was hidden in the barrel to save its life. (Jane Fruit Wisco data).

We are not sure where the Fruit name first started, and it could be possible that it is an assumed name. This could be possible on account of the safety of the child, which means that our surname will never be revealed because there might not be any records on that early date (Nellie Hiday, data)

The earliest record we have found is Jacques Fruiter who was listed as an alien in the Dutch Congregation in London about 1617. Jacques Fruiter dwelled at Van Andwerpen for 11 years, with occupation of tufftafety and vxor (wife) at Colemanstreete, with the said Mary Remy, born in Antewerpe. (Publication of Huguenot Society-Aliens in London, Volume 10, P. 157-158). There is a marriage or birth listed in the Publications of the Huguenot Society of London as the following: Laurens Lenfant, son of the Rolin, native of Chartres at Beaune and Jenne, daughter of the late James Fruit, native of London, April 12, 1626. (Volume 9, P. 24.)

Another record, we have found, is of Hugh and Raoul Le Frueter of London, England in 1273. They were probably the keepers of fruit trees and orchards for the Kings of England. Also another record we have found is of Annis Fruite who married Robert Goore, August 1559 at Suffolk Co., England and Thomas Froote who married Christian Gray, July 1684 at Cromwell Co., England. (Luther Fruit, data)

The various ways of spelling FRUIT - Fruitt, Fruits, Fruite, Froote, Frute, Frucht, Frueter, Truitt, Truet, Trewitt and many other ways. Fruiter is from the French word Fruiterier, meaning a dealer of Fruits. (Luther Fruit, data)

The writer of this history and genealogy found a Coat-of-Arms called Fruiteriers, Co., of (London), Ax.(tree or shrub) on a mount in base vert., the tree of paradise environed with the serpent between Adam and Eve all ppr. Motto- Arbor Vitae Cretus Fructus per fidem gustamus. Translated in English means: "The Tree of Life grows fruit by means of fidelity of taste/" This might be the right Coat-of-Arms for the Fruit family, but we haven't any proof yet. (General Armory by Burke, P. 300-1878)

The Fruits must have gone to Scotland from England where they lived some 40 to 50 years, then to Ireland for a while, then to England and Wales where they set sail to America. They landed in Maryland, Virginia, Pennsylvania and

North Carolina in the early 1700's, as there are records of the Fruits in these different states. (Luther Fruit's Chart and Jane Fruit Wisco's book)

The first record we have found on the Fruit Family is John Fruit, who left France in 1687 or 1689 at time of Huguenot persecution and went to England. This John Fruit went to Scotland and married Hannah (Scotch Covenanter) about 1721 or later. Later he went to Londonderry, Ireland where Robert was born in 1732, and then they came to America about 1735. John Fruit died on voyage in 1735 and also one son. Robert Fruit married Katherine McClure, September 12, 1772 or 1774, in Central Pennsylvania. (Virkus, Compendium of American Genealogy, Volume 5, P. 112) (Central Pennsylvania Marriages, Part VII, Pa. Soldiers of Revolutionary Period, P. 76)

Katherine McClure's father was Richard McClure, who was born in Ireland. Katherine McClure's grandfather was Richard McClure, who was an emigrant from the north of Ireland. He settled, prior to 1730, in Paxtang Township, then Lancaster county, Province of Pennsylvania. The family settled on a tract of land of six hundred acres. Richard, who was Katherine's father, was one of five children born in Ireland. Katherine McClure's brothers and sisters were Alexander, William, Jonathan, Andrew, Roan, Margaret and David. (Notes and Queries. -CLXV- Historical and Genealogical - pages 487-488 Volume 4- 3rd. Series by Engle)

There is a Jacob Fruh listed on Officers and Soldiers Ship Load List of Daniel Rupps, Supplementing German, Swiss, Dutch and French Imigrants into Pa., 1727-1776. (P. 102-36 B. L.) Also a Wilhelm and Conrad, John Frutchie and Christian Frutz listed on this passenger list from 1727-1776. (P. 384-68 B. R.) (385-68 B. B. ) (P. 197-49 M. R. ) (P. 384-68 B. L. )

The first Fruit we have found on record in America is John Fruit who was buried on old Henry Moon Farm Cemetery, which used to belong to William Posey Fruit of Randolph County, North Carolina. This Cemetery is located one and one-half miles North west of Liberty, North Carolina. The inscription is December 5, 1728, which could be a later date as we are not sure. Only these Cemetery Records were found in North Carolina Archives at Raleigh, North Carolina Tombstone Records Volume I, so this John Fruit date could be correct. He is buried along side of our ancestor John Fruit's grave. This might mean that this Sandy Creek John Fruit is grandfather of our ancestor, John Fruit, who was born 1732 or 8 in Wales. We might presume that this Sandy Creek, John Fruit is our Common Ancestor of French Huguenot origin.

There are tombstone inscriptions of Thomas J. Fruit (b. 9-25-1730, d. 11-21-1830) in Sandy Creek Cemetery, which is located 12 miles east of Asheboro, N. C. (Luther Fruit data)

On November 17, 1743, Levie Truhitt was granted 300 Acres in Craven County, N. C., which is in the Colonial Records at North Carolina Archives. (Vol. 4, P. 650)

Then there is a James Fruit who had his will probated in 1800 in Orange County, N. C., which might be our ancestor (John Fruit's) long lost brother of French and Indian War (1754-1760). (Will book D, P. 10, Court House, Hillsboro). During Braducks Defeat, John 's brother disappeared and John went to North Carolina after the War. (W. R. Brinkley & Co., Philadelphia, Pennsylvania - History of DeWitt County, Illinois. 1882, P. 251)

There is a James Fruit and son who is listed in the 1755 tax list of Orange, County, N. C. This James Fruit could be the same James Fruit who died in Orange County, N. C. There is a possibility that this 1800 James Fruit could be the father of our Ancestor, John Fruit, and he could be the old Sandy Creek John Fruit's son. (File No. T. O. 105. I, State Department Archives - Raleigh, N. C. )

On August 17, 1757, Alexander Fruit is found listed as Landsman on Province Ship at Pennsylvania among the List of Officers and Soldiers. (Pa. Archives Volume I, P. 88) - (5th Series)

On July 29, 1759, Martha Fruit's will was probated at Staunton, Augusta

County, Virginia, which show that there were Fruits in Staunton, Virginia at that early date. (Probated Nov. 21, 1759 at Augusta Co., Staunton Court House Will Book No. 2, 1753-1760, Pages 336 and 337)

On February, 1768, James Fruit was given extension of power for Justice of peace at Orange County, North Carolina. (Colonial Records of N. C. , Vol. VII)

On 1770, Robert Fruit was an early settler in Dauphin County, Pennsylvania and his name appears on the tax assessment list there. (Pa. Archives, 3rd Series Vol. XIX)

On March 11, 1771, (as a Regulator) John Fruit was indicted, prior to the Revolutionary War during the Battle at Alamanac Creek, N. C. and pardoned. (Colonial Records - Vol. 8. P. 531)

On 1779, John Fruit was found on the tax list of Randolph County, N. C. (State Department, Joseph Hinds District- Archives Raleigh, N. C. )

On 1785, James and John Fruit were found on the tax list of Randolph County, N. C. (State Department, Archives, Raleigh, N. C.)

On March 4, 1785, Francis Fruit was listed on Warrentees of Land of Washington County, Pa. (1784-1892) owning 400 acres at date of survey. (Pa. Archives, 3rd Series, Vol. XXVII, P. 557)

On 1778 - 1785, Robert Fruit was a private soldier in War of Revolution in Captain William Clark's Company and was a Ranger on the frontier of Northumberland County, Pa. (Pa. Archives, 5th Series Volume IV, p. 365, 679)

On February 28, 1785, George Fruit was listed owning 200 acres of land (Pa. Series 3, Volume XXVI, P. 557) on date of survey at Washington County, Pa.

There is a George Fruit (German George, the Immigrant) who died 1811 in Franklin County, Indiana. (Will Circuit Court Record #1811-1813, P. 22- of Franklin CO., Court House, Indiana). He and his wife, Margaret lived in Baltimore, Maryland prior to Revolutionary War and later moved to Washington County, Pa. While they were living in Baltimore, Maryland, their son, George, was born in 1762 and he lived to be 114 years old. They were both in the Revolutionary War. This would make German George born in the early 1700's. (Obituary from Crawfordsville, Indiana Newspaper, August 7, 1876)

There is, in the Archives in Raleigh, a brief listing of the early Orange County deeds, 1750's and 1760's. Most of the Orange County deeds, 1752-1793, are not on record in Orange County Court House. The original books having been lost. (William Perry Johnson, Professional Genealogist Raleigh, N. C.)

There were several Fruit families residing in Pennsylvania about 1790. George Fruit was listed in 1790 Census of Washington County, Pa. (P. 257). Robert Fruit was listed in 1790 Census of Northumberland County, Pa. (P. 184) The descendants of Robert Fruit have lived in Mercer County, and Northumberland County, Pennsylvania and have moved all over United States since. (Brown & Runk, History of Mercer Co., Pa., P. 925). The descendants of George Fruits lived in Washington County, Pa., and moved to Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana. (Burl Fruit's data)

George Fruits (Soldier) was born near Baltimore, Maryland in 1762 and died near Crawfordsville, Indiana Aug. 6, 1876. He served in the latter part of the Revolutionary War and went to Virginia in 1787. Later he was with Daniel Boone in Kentucky. He served against the Indians in 1791 and also in the War of 1812. Four generations of his descendants followed him to the grave.

There are Fruit families listed in the 1790 census of Randolph, Orange, Craven, Montgomery, and Dobbs Counties of North Carolina. These families are all connected with our line, but there is much research to be done for further proof.

Regarding the name FRUIT, I find it is often given as TRUIT!
Compare the Fruits and Truits in the two 1790 published censuses.

Many Fruits are in the North Carolina tombstone records at the State Department of Archives and History in Raleigh, North Carolina, in Volume I. Most of the Fruit families seem to be buried in Cemeteries on Henry Moon Farm, Sandy Creek Baptist Church and Melancton Lutheran Church, near Liberty, North Carolina. The Fruits settled near Hillsboro and Liberty, North Carolina as the 1755 tax list of Orange County, shows they owned land at that time.

There are land deeds of James and John Fruit at Randolph Co. Court House, Asheboro, North Carolina concerning land on Sandy Creek on the dates of Nov. 28, 1792, Nov. 24, 1792, Mar. 8, 1794, June 25, 1794 and Sept. 13, 1804. The witnesses of these deeds were John Husbands and Sibella (Fruit) Husbands and Thomas Fruit and Elizabeth Fruit. (Book 5, page 101, No. 677) (Book 5, page 113, No. 692) (Book 5, page 148) (Book 8, page 178) (Book 10, page 275, No. 1328) (Book 11, page 381) (The Writer has photostats of the above deeds.)

The writer of this history has a copy of the land grant of James Fruit showing he owned land on Mill Creek in Orange County in 1779.

The writer has a copy of a land grant showing that John Fruit owned land in Randolph Co., N. C., on Sandy Creek in 1779. These land grants are on record at the Department of State in Raleigh, N. C. (No. 220. Land Grant Book No. 40, Page 463, File No. 1146) (No. 698. Land Grant Book No. 79, Page 354, File No. 662) (No. 677. Land Grant Book No. 79, Page 349, File No. 641)

Randolph County was formed in 1779 from Guilford County, Guilford Co., was formed in 1771 from Orange and Rowan Counties. Orange County was formed in 1752 from Granville, Johnson and Bladen Counties, which makes research difficult as records could be at any of these county seats.

The 1815 tax list of Randolph County, helps to bridge the gap between 1810 and 1830, as the 1820 Census of Randolph County is lost. Thomas Fruit and John Fruit are listed on the 1815 tax list of Randolph County owning 186 acres and 206 acres on Hazel and Sandy Creek in Captain Julin's District. Liberty, North Carolina is in this district, so this shows that the Fruits owned land here in 1815. I believe that this land is where they settled when they came from Pennsylvania. (Correction: Hillsboro, North Carolina was where they settled first.)

The will of our ancestor, JOHN FRUIT, is on record at the court house of Asheboro, North Carolina being probated in 1824, August Term. (Will Book 5, Page

COPY OF WILL

In the name of God Amen - I John Fruit being weak of body but of sound mind and memory, and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament in the following (Viz)

First - I give and bequeath my Soul to God that give it, and my body to the dust from whence it was taken, Item, I bequeath that all my just debts be paid and the remainder of my Estate to be divided in the manner following - Item I give and Bequeath to my Son, James the sum of One Dollar. The will of our ancestor, John Fruit, (on pages 11 and 12) names the children as James, Libbilla, Grace, Elizabeth, Pennensiah, Thomas and John (grandson), son of Thomas. James, being the first son of John Fruit, is the direct line of our family descendents, who went to Hopkinsville, Christian County, Kentucky to settle about 1802. Then James and son, Thomas, came on to Illinois where the families settled on farms in Tunbridge County Sections 14 and 26 of DeWitt County.
DeWitt County was in Macon County at that early date and these land records are now in the court house at Decatur, Illinois

There is a will of James Fruit on record at Hillsboro, Orange County, North Carolina which was probated at the November Term of 1800. (Will Book D.

ORANGE COUNTY NOVEMBER TERM 1800:

The execution of the forgoing last Will and Testament of James Fruit was duly proved by the deposition of Moses Crawford and M. Crawford two of the subscribing witnesses thereto taken according to Commission and Ordered to be recorded at the same time Fruit one of the executors therein named qualified accordingly.

Test/s/ J. Taylor, C.C.

The Will of James Fruit names the wife as Giszel and children as : son John, daughter Elinor, daughter Jennett, daughter Hannah, daughter Nancy and daughter Mary. These names don't correspond with names of John's children, as the family names are usually handed down through the generations. Now we must presume that this James was brother or father to our ancestor, John Fruit of 1732 (or 1738). The 1755 tax list of Orange County, North Carolina shows that a James Fruit and son owned land there. So this James Fruit could be the same James of the above Will of 1800. Also this James had a son named John. These two names are used in all the generations coming down our line to the present time.

Much research must be done to prove this relationship of our ancestor, John Fruit. The writer is now trying to find tombstone inscriptions and other records of this James (1800) and family. Also we must find proof of our relationship to old Sandy Creek, John Fruit, who was buried on the old Henry Moon Farm near Liberty, North Carolina about 1728, or later

The writer is now doing research in North Carolina, Pennsylvania and other states hoping to connect these early Fruit and Fruits families to our John Fruit line and descendants. Many people and relatives have been interviewed by the writer to accumulate and compile this history and genealogy of the Fruit and Fruits families. Much research must be done to prove the relationship of the four family lines. There must be records at the Hall of Records of Annapolis, Maryland on the Fruit family, but much work must be done to find these.

There are many Fruit cousins doing research on Fruit history at the time of this writing and the writer has accumulated all this material in a period of eight years. With the help of Roy Lee Fruit (deceased), Jane (Fruit) Wisco, Luther R. Fruit, Burl E. Fruits, and Nellie Donovan, the writer has compiled this history and genealogy of the four Fruit lines. I hope everyone will enjoy this history as much as I have had in compiling it.

FRUIT BROTHERS

The tradition has been narrated and handed down by early generations that there were Fruit brothers, French Protestant Huguenots, who came from France to England during the Edict of Nantes. The Catholic King, Louis XIV, had ascended the throne and revoked the Edict of Nantes, which had given them freedom of worship and protection. The brothers had fled from the persecution of the Catholics, we believe, between 1687-1689.

Memories of those of past generations lead to the story of the two brothers. The stories are hard to fit together, but it does prove that the family was Huguenot and came from France. (Luther R. Fruit data and Jane Fruit Wisco book.)

There are a great number of Fruit families yet in northern France and a few in Northwestern France. (Jane Fruit Wisco's book)

The Fruit brothers must have gone to Scotland, where they lived some 40 to 50 years, then to Ulster, Northern Ireland, for a while, then to England where they set sail to America. While the Fruit brothers were in Scotland, they married Scotch Covenanter girls. Covenanters were people in Scotland who swore an oath or covenant to maintain Presbyterian forms and doctrines. (Luther R. Fruit data and Jane Fruit Wisco's book)

In Virkus Compendium of American Genealogy, in Vol. 5, page 112, it is stated: "John Fruit left France at time of Huguenot persecution and went to Scotland and married Hannah, 1721. John Fruit was born 1695 in France and he died 1735 on the voyage over to America. Hannah was born 1700 in Scotland and died 1735 in Pennsylvania. Later they went to Londonderry, Ireland and came to America 1735. A legend in the Robert Fruit line is that he alone survived the trip over the Atlantic, losing his father and two or three brothers and sisters. (Proceedings of the Huguenot Society of Pa., Vol. XXVIII 1958 page 129"

It must have been Philadelphia, Pennsylvania because this was where the first settlements seem to have been made. (Lucretia C. Fruit letter source of the 5th and 6th paragraph)

Tradition has it that three Fruit men, George, John and James, fought in the French and Indian Wars (generally dated as 1754-1760), but the colonies were subject to Indian attack any time. These three Fruit men appeared in North Carolina in the early 1700's as told by a descendant of one of these brothers. The story is that two of them stayed there and George went back to Pennsylvania. (1790 Census of Penn., Washington County) (Letter of R. D. Fruit of Greensboro, N. C. to Roy Lee Fruit) (Burl E. Fruits data)

Tradition has it that George Fruit, Jr. spoke German until he was 12 years old, while James and John, French-Scotch-Irish lines spoke English. George Fruit, Sr., married Catherine Stonebraker (German) and that could account for the descendants speaking German in their homes. (Jane Fruit Wisco Book and Burl Fruit's data)

The first record that I have found about the brothers is found in the DeWitt County History Book dated 1882 and published by W. R. Brink and Co., Philadelphia, Pennsylvania (Corresponding Office, Edwardsville, Ill., p. 251.)

The Fruit family were among the early settlers and pioneers of DeWitt County, Illinois. On the paternal side, they are of Welsh ancestry, and on the maternal, Scotch-Irish. Two brothers, bearing the name, left Wales, and emigrated to America prior to the old French and Indian War. Both were soldiers in that struggle, and were with Braddock in his disastrous defeat by the French and their Indian allies. In the battle the brothers were separated, and one was never heard of afterward. John Fruit, the survivor, from whom the present family have sprung after the war, settled in the Carolinas. John Fruit, one of these brothers, is our ancestor which this history is concerned about. Many descendants have sprung from this line. You will notice that there are many John and James names which signify that they were the first in the family line. The names were used in all of the generations which sprung from John Fruit line.

A. JOHN FRUIT

John Fruit might be our common ancestor as we found cemetery records at the State Department of Archives and History of Raleigh, North Carolina in Volume I.

Several people have checked his tombstone inscriptions at Old Henry Moon Farm, about 1½ miles north west of Loverty, North Carolina. The stones are hard to read and the date of his death could be 1728, as the records show that same date, although there could be a mistake, as the date could be of a later date. There is another grave next to John Fruit which could be his wife. The inscriptions are E. F., died 1783. This old grave yard is on the Pugh Farm, now known as the Henry Moon Farm. This old cemetery has not been used in over a hundred years, and is on the watershed of Sandy Creek, but not close to the creek. I have been told that this land was once a Fruit plantation of 600 acres and one of the descendants gave land for this cemetery. Since our ancestor, John Fruit, was buried next to his grave, we might presume that this 1st John Fruit was grandfather to our ancestor, John Fruit, who was born about 1732 or 1738 and died May 12, 1824, (age 86 years). Only we have no proof that this relationship could be true.

Reference: North Carolina Tombstone Records - Vol. I., State Department of Archives and History of Raleigh, North Carolina.

Fred Fruits has examined these John Fruit tombstone inscriptions and sent the information to his mother, Mrs. Clarence D. Fruits, who sent this information to the writer of this history. Address: Fred Fruits, Flagler Beach, Florida and Mrs. Clarence D. Fruits, Fruitland Farms, R. R. 2, Plymouth, Indiana.

Calvin Henshaw has examined these John Fruit tombstone inscriptions but thinks that the date 1728 should be 1798. Address: Mr. Calvin Henshaw, Climax, North Carolina.

Luther R. Fruit has examined both John Fruit stones and sent pictures to the writer. He thinks that the 1728 inscription is correct. This old burial ground was found on the grounds of a Nursery, northwest of Liverty. Address: Luther R. Fruit, 4153 - 4th Street, Philview, Borger, Texas 79007.

B. JAMES FRUIT

The records have not been found on this James Fruit, but the writer is still searching and the information might be found in the Colonial Records at the Archives at Raleigh, North Carolina or at the Genealogical Society Salt Lake City, Utah.

The following information has been found in Jane Fruit Wisco's Fruit Chart:

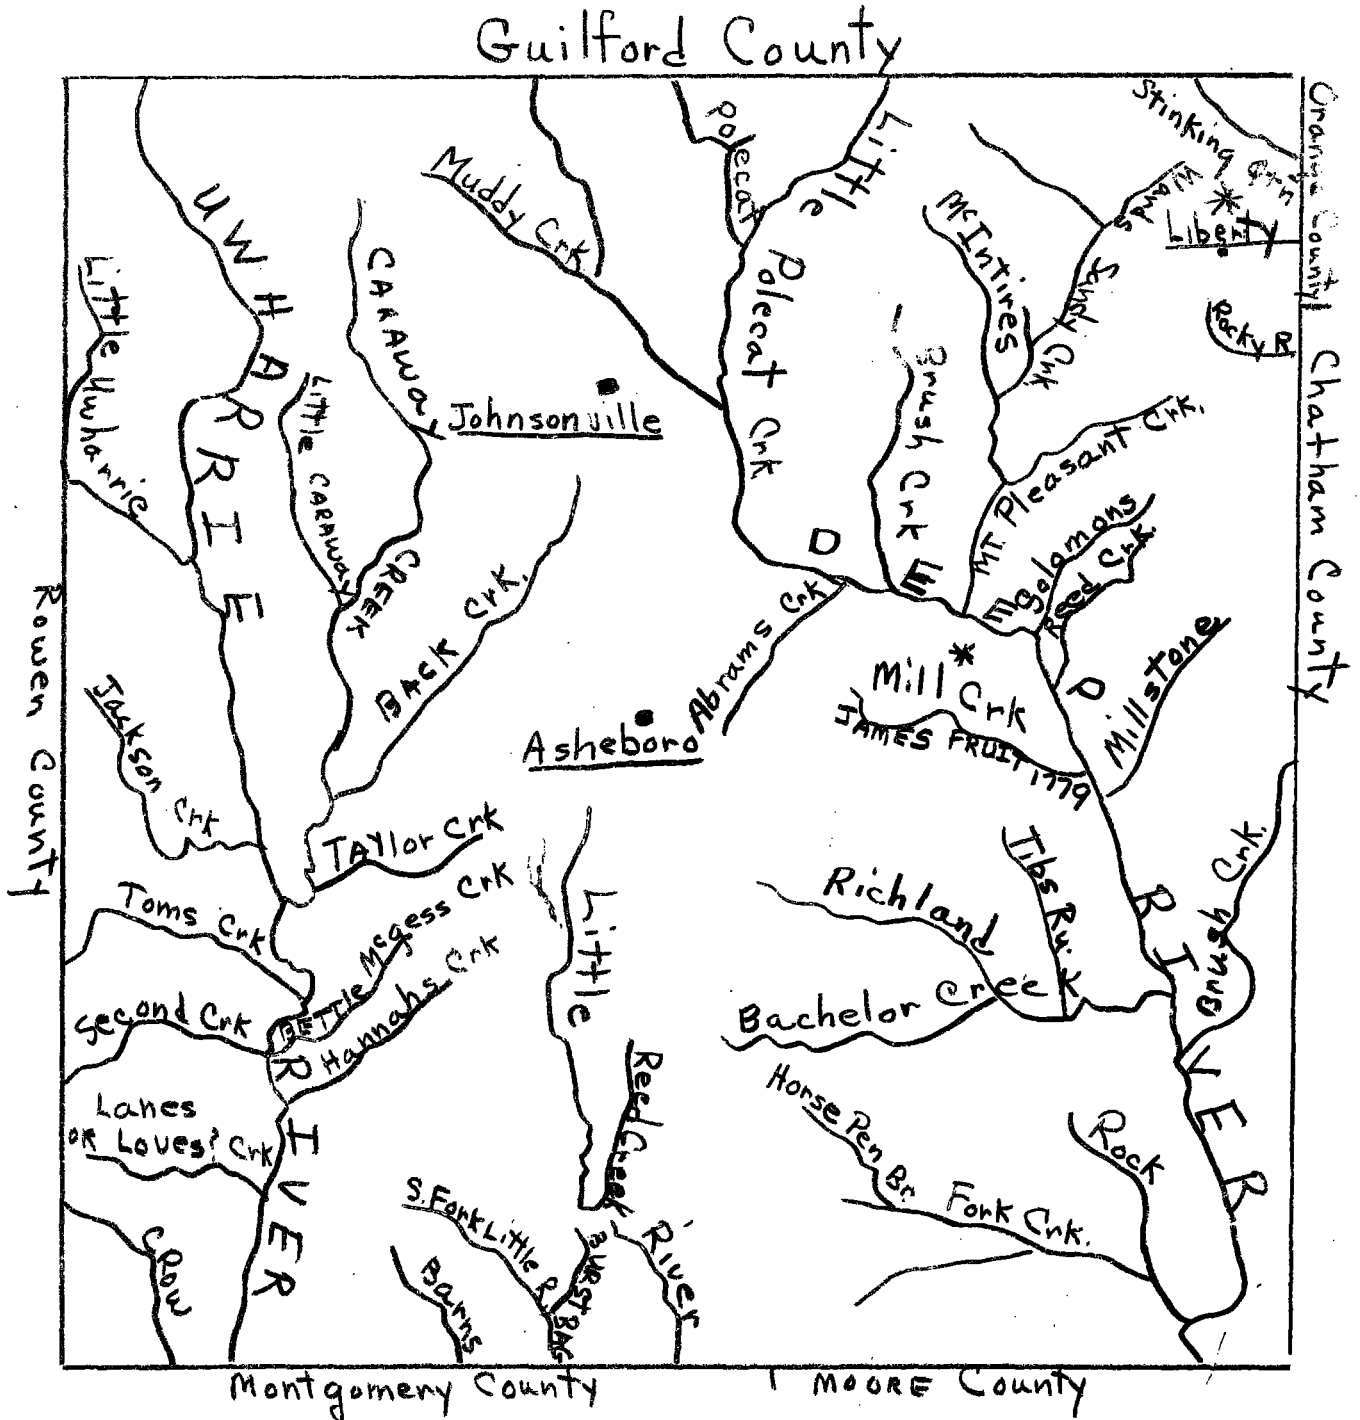

James Fruit, the father of our Ancestor (John Fruit), landed in America about 1735. He is said to have fled to Britian to escape Huguenot persecution in France. James moved to North Carolina about 1755, or before.

Reference: 1755 Tax List of Orange County, North Carolina where James Fruit and son are listed in this Tax List. This information is uncertain but might possibly be true and could be the same James and son, John. This record is found in File No. T. O. 105. I, State Department Archives, Raleigh, N. C.

C. JOHN FRUIT

Family tradition has it that John Fruit and a brother came to America prior to the French and Indian Wars (1748-1763) and were with the French in their defeat of Braddock, and that one brother disappeared. John Fruit, the survivor, who became the progenitor of the family in America, settled in the Carolinas after the war. The paternal side the family comes of Welsh ancestry and on the maternal side of Scotch-Irish lineage. John Fruit, our immigrant ancestor, was born about 1732 or 1738 in Wales and settled in Pennsylvania, as the first settlement seems to be around Philadelphia. The first record that shows John Fruit was in North Carolina was the Colonial record showing him to be a Regulator in the Battle of Alamanac Creek 1771. (DeWitt County History Vol. II, Pioneer Publishing Company 1910, p. 106) (Roy Lee Fruit data) (Luther Fruit data) (Jane (Fruit) Wisco data) (Colonial Record of John Fruit, Vol. 7, p. 875, Vol. 8, p. 531, Vol. 9, p. 93 and 94) (Cruther's Life of Dr. Caldwell) (Annual Report of Amer. History Association of year 1894).

John Fruit must have married Sybil before 1755, after he settled near Hillsboro, where he had a plantation. Some of the children were born before 1771, as the Colonial Records shows that "John Fruit hath a wife and sundry small chaildren." Sybil and James were young children when their father was in prison, after he was arrested for being a Regulator. These men called Regulators were signing petitions and fighting because of the heavy taxes they were forced to pay. The Battle of Alamanac Creek was simply the climax of a revolt of the western people against oppressive laws and corrupt local officials. (Colonial Record of John Fruit, Vol. 7, p. 875, Vol. 8, p. 531, Vol. 9, p. 93 and 94.)

We do not know the religion of the John Fruit family, but there was a Sandy Creek Baptist Church Cemetery, about 2½ miles west of Liberty, N. C. Some of the family were buried in this cemetery, so I persume that they were Baptist and some of them might have been Quakers. Some of the Regulations were hanged, but John was pardoned and we do not know how long he was in prison. The rest of the children were born after 1776 when he was released. John Fruit, our ancestor, died 1824, as his will showed it was probated then. ## C1<sup>2</sup> JAMES SAMUEL FRUIT

Our Ancestor, James Samuel Fruit, was the son of John and Sybil Fruit of North Carolina where he was born on Nov. 13, 1762 in the back country, Orange County, North Carolina. He had one leg amputated below the knee which might have happened during the time he was in the war. The Militia was formed for the protection against the Indians at that time. James' name appears in a list of payments to the Militia in 1778, when he was 16. (Jane(Fruit) Wisco History Book data and Roy Lee Fruit, Fruit History Book data.

James Samuel Fruit married his 1st wife _____ Clark about 1781 after being released from United States Service. (Jane(Fruit) Wisco History Book data) After his family had grown up, they moved to Hopkinsville, Christian County, Kentucky where they bought land on Sept. 10, 1805 on Pond River from William Lindley for $330. (Record at Hopkinsville, Christian County Court House, page 195, book A) James served as Constable for many years and became Justice of Peace of Christian County, Kentucky. He was strictly honest; man of great courage; would fight anything. (Jane (Fruit) Wisco History Book data) We do not know when James' first wife died and we do not know where, either North Carolina or Kentucky.

James Samuel Fruit married his second wife, Mary Reader or Reeder, on November 27, 1813 in Christian County, Kentucky. They were married by Jonathan Clark. (Marriage Book 1A, page 53, Hopkinsville, Christian County, Kentucky, Court House) James remained in Kentucky for nearly 30 years and he became a Justice of the Peace for Christian County and records show he married a good many couples during those years. He followed his son, Thomas, to what is now DeWitt County, Illinois with his second wife Mary (Reader) Fruit, in 1831. He had settled there for three years when the year of the great snow in 1834 caused James to lose his last battle at the age of 73. James Samuel Fruit died October 9, 1834 and he lies in Tunbridge Cemetery, a mile from Kenney, Illinois, where his son, Thomas, and many of his descendants lived for years. We believe Mary Reader, his wife, is buried by his side,

C2<sup>3</sup> THOMAS CLARK FRUIT

Thomas Clark Fruit, the son of James Samuel Fruit and _____ Clark, was born on October 8, 1784 in Randolph County, North Carolina and he passed the first eighteen years of his life in the place of his birth. He emigrated to Christian County, Kentucky in 1802, accompanied by his father and family. Here he bought land of 400 acres on the head of Courtney's Creek on waters of Pond River. (Deed entry Book, No. 2, Page 144, Deed Number 1215—Witnessed by John Clark, Christian County Court House, Hopkinsville, Ky.)

On July 25 or 31, 1806, Thomas Fruit married Elizabeth Thompson, who was a native of North Carolina. She was 16 years old when she went to Kentucky. Mr. and Mrs. Fruit took up their residence on a tract of 600 acres of wild land. Here they erected a log cabin and necessary buildings, which resulted in the development of a good farm.

Their children grew up in Kentucky and married there, as the marriages are on record at Christian County Court House of Hopkinsville.

In 1829, Thomas and Elizabeth went to Illinois and entered land in what is now DeWitt County, then called Macon County. There are records of land entries for land in Macon County listed as:

Elizabeth Fruit entered East half of South East quarter and Thomas Fruit, west Half of South East quarter and East Half of North East quarter of Section 14, on October 15, 1829. The Thomas Fruit family made the third and fourth entries for land in Macon County. (Ref. DeWitt County, Illinois History— page 241 - Printed 1882 of Tunbridge Township.)

Thomas did not come to Illinois to live until 1834, where they settled on Section 14 of Tunbridge Township in DeWitt County. They came by Prairie Schooners with teams and located on a tract of wild prairie where they build a log house of 20 by 20 feet.

Thomas Fruit was on the 1st Grand Jury of Circuit Court of Clinton, Illinois,

October 24, 1839. (Ref. History of DeWitt County, Illinois, page 66, Printed 1882)

Thomas Clark Fruit and Elizabeth (Thompson) Fruit had 11 children, Susannah, James S., Thompson Clark, William Lee, Mary Reader, Sabilla Matilda, Sidney Cornelius, Edmund Webber, Martha Jane, Enoch and John Derryberry. Thompson Clark and James remained in Kentucky where their descendants still live.

Susan Amanda Cox, granddaughter of Thomas Clark Fruit and Elizabeth Thompson) Fruit, made her home with her grandparents until she married Archibald McKinney. Archibald McKinney's parents were Archibald T. McKinney and Polly Givens. Susan Amanda Cox was the daughter of Mary Reader Fruit and George Cox.

Thomas Clark Fruit died in DeWitt County, near Kenney, Illinois on Dec. 15, 1871, and his wife, Elizabeth Thompson, died March 28, 1866. Both were buried in the Tunbridge Cemetery, North East of Kenney. Near by was James Samuel Fruit (his father), and other descendents of the family, who settled here in 1831.

BIOGRAPHY OF ATTORNEY SAMUEL T. FRUIT.

Reference - History of Kentucky, Volume IV, by Judge Charles Kerr(Editor)

Samuel Thomas Fruit is a well known lawyer of Hopkinsville, Kentucky, is present County Attorney of Christian County, and for 20 years has been well known in educational, legal and official affairs. This is one of the oldest families of Christian County. It originated in Wales and the Fruits were Colonial Settlers of North Carolina. The great grandfather of the present County Attorney was Thomas Fruit, who settled in Christian County more than a century ago.

Thompson C. Fruit, grandfather of Samuel T. Fruit, was born in Christian County in 1810, spent his life as a farmer there and died in 1889. He married Elizabeth Underwood, who was born in Christian County in 1822 and died in 1884. Her father, Samuel Underwood, was also born in Christian County, and spent his life in one of the farming communities of the County.

Captain Samuel Thomas Fruit, Sr., father of the County Attorney was born in Christian County in 1838 and spent all his life there. For many years he carried on a large farm, and exhibited all the qualities of a successful and enterprising agriculturist. In 1826 he enlisted in the Union Army joining the 25th Ky., Infantry, which later was consolidated with the 17th Ky. Regiment. He was in Company G of the latter regiment, and fought at the battles of Shiloh, Chickamauga, Lookout Mountain and Missionary Ridge. He was under the Command of General Grant, and for most of the time his division commander was General Thomas. He was a Republican, served as Justice of the Peace, and died in 1905. Captain Fruit married Victoria Clark, who was born in Christian County in 1844 and is still living on the old homestead 7 miles north east of Hopkinsville. She was the mother of 9 children. James, the oldest, was a farmer and died in Christian County in 1908. His twin brother, Albert, lived on the home farm and with his brothers, Joseph and Chester, managed it for their mother. Joseph is the 3rd of the family. Lizzie died unmarried at the old home in 1918, and she had a twin brother who died in infancy. Georgia is unmarried and lives with her mother. The 7th in age is Samuel T. Fruit. Chester is the 8th in the family, while Mary, the youngest, died at the age of 2 years and 7 months.

Samuel T. Fruit was born on the old homestead Feb. 10, 1877, and acquiring a rural school education, supplemented by advantages partly of his own obtaining, which gave him a thoroughly liberal education. He pursued literary studies in the South Kentucky College at Hopkinsville and for 4 years was a student in the Southern Normal School at Bowling Green. In 1900 he began teaching in Christian County, but the following year was appointed and served as Deputy Sheriff. From 1902 to 1905, inclusive, he resumed as work as a teacher and then pursued the Law Course of Cumberland University at Lebanon, Tennessee, graduating with LLB degree in June, 1907. The fall and winter after his graduation he taught school, and in 1908 took up the practice of law at Hopkinsville and has been busily with general civil and criminal practice since that time. From April, 1909, until Jan., 1910, he served as jailer of Christian County. He was selected County Attorney in the fall of 1917 and began his duties in January, 1918, and the first year of 4 year term coincided with the period of the World War, and he was ex-officio identified with many local war activities. He was one of the leading speakers over the county in behalf of various war drives, and also gave much of his time cheerfully and without remuneration to the work of filling out questionnaires for drafted soldiers. He was candidate for Circuit Judge of the 3rd Judicial District in 1916, being nominated on the Republic ticket, but was defeated in this strong democratic district. He is a past grand Green River Lodge Number 54 of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

Mr. Fruit, whose home was at 752 East Ninth St., married at Nashville, Tennessee, July 23, 1912, Mrs. Delia (Meyers) Johnson, She was the widow of W. W. Johnson. Her parents, now deceased, were S. H. and Salina (Cavanah) Myers, her father a well known farmer and stock raiser, Mrs. Fruit has one child by her former marriage, Raymond Johnson, who is a farmer living 6 miles South west of Hopkinsville, Kentucky.

FOUR SCORE AND FOUR YEARS.
( IS THE RIPE AGE AT WHICH THOMAS DAVENPORT IS CALLED TO HIS REWARD)

Last Friday evening as the mellow sephyr's stoke noiselessly through the windows of the residence of "Porty" Davenport in the north part of the city, the occupants of the bed chamber moved to and fro in silence, and their suppressed whispers told too plainly that a weary mortal was slowly, yet surely, succumbing to the strong hand of death, and that but a few short moments would elapse before the spirit of one of the oldest settlers of DeWitt County would take its flight to the realms of peace. A few more moments of silence, a few more whispers and all was over. Death the conqueror of all, had counted another, and Thomas Davenport Sr., was among the departed. Another soldier in the defense of his vountry and in the cause of Christ had heard the best of the last tattoo, and had joined the great army on the other side of Jordan.

Below we give a brief history of his life, the facts being furnished by his son, T. J. Davenport:

Thomas Davenport was born in North Carolina, Aug. 22, 1805, and would have been 84 years old Thursday of this week, at which time arrangements had been made to hold a family reunion in this city. When but a few days old, his mother died, and when two weeks old his father started to Kentucky, making the journey on horse back. The child was fed and cared for by the good people where they lodge of nights. When the journey was completed, his father gave him to his grandmother who kept him until he was 16 years old, when he came to Illinois, in 1820. After two years he returned to Kentucky, where he married Elizabeth French, returning to this state in 1829, he settled in Sangamon County, near Springfield. Here he joined the Christian Church, Uncle Jimmy Scott being the minister, and was soon licensed to preach. He ever afterward lived a Christian life, always searching for the truth.

He was a friend to everyone and was always ready to do a good act, helping the needy with promptness and liberality.

He served as a volunteer in the Black Hawk War, and was in the great battle of Stillman's defeat. He was in Illinois the winter of the deep snow, when the country was full of Indians and the wild beast inhabited the forests. At that time there were no railroads, no mills, no nothing, but hardships. Corn was pounded in what was called a mortar all old settlers knew what that was. The old grates were used until the corn was too hard to grate, then the mortar was used as a mill to make meal.

Thomas Davenport improved more farms and built more houses than any man of early days. He worked hard to raise his family of 9 children, six by his first and three by his second wife. He had 72 grandchildren, 40 of whom are still living, and 23 great grandchildren, 18 of them surviving him. He never craved wealth, but was satisfied with what he had. One circumstance which he often related, shows how the wheel of fortune sometimes turns. He went fishing and caught a string of nice fish which he brought to Clinton and offered to sell them to C. H. Moore, who had a short time before come to Clinton. Mr. Moore said he would like to have the fish, but did not have the money to pay for them. He seemed to enjoy telling this and would say he thought Mr. Moore could buy them now.

We have just given a brief sketch of the life of this old pioneer. In all his ups and downs and struggles in life, he always contended, as he would say, "For the faith once delivered to the saints at Jerusalem." He was always ready to acknowledge his physical weakness; if he got wrong, no person was more anxious than he to get right again.

In his last days he was more zealous in the Christian cause if possible than in any other time of his life. In his death he leaves a host of warm friends and dear relations to mourn their loss, notwithstanding his great age, and may he rest with the redeemed in heaven.

Funeral services were held at his late residence in the north part of the city at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning, conducted by Rev. E. A. Hunter. The remains were taken to the cemetery in Texas township for burial, where a large number had assembled before the arrival of the friends who accompanied the cortege from Clinton. He lived in Texas township for several years, owning land there.

C8<sup>4</sup> EDMUND WEBBER FRUIT

Edmund Webber Fruit, the son of Thomas Clark Fruit and Elizabeth (Boyd) Fruit, was born in Christian County, Kentucky, September 21, 1823. He was the eighth child in order of birth from a family of 11 children. His only education was 3 months a year at log school houses. The family moved to Illinois in 1834 where he helped his father until he was about 20 years old.

He purchased his first tract of land (40 acres) by trading a horse for the land. This was the beginning to great numbers of farms which he now owns. There was no way to fence land at that time so he made rails and fenced his small farm.

He visited in Kentucky in 1844 with an elder brother and was married to Elizabeth Boyd of Christian County, Kentucky on March 5, 1845. Elizabeth Boyd was born June 27, 1827 in Kentucky and died August 27, 1856 near Kenney, Illinois. She was the daughter of Abner Boyd and Annie (Palmer) Boyd of Kentucky. She was buried at Tunbridge Cemetery, Kenney, Illinois, where many of the early Fruits were buried.

After their marriage, they moved back to Illinois in 1846 and built a house (made of logs) and he made his own furniture, which was needed in pioneer days. This cabin he used until 1858, when he built a frame house, in which he resided until 1891. Five children were born of the first marriage namely: Phoebe A., Sidney J., James A., Mary A. and William T.

After his first wife died, he married Sarah Elizabeth Blue on November 5, 1857 and she died April 20, 1873. She was buried at the Baptist Cemetery, Kenney, Illinois where the rest of the family was buried. Sarah Elizabeth Blue's parents were Uriah Blue and Jemina Blue of DeWitt County, Illinois. By this marriage there were three children namely: Arthur, Laura B., and Charles T., who died in infancy.

After his second wife died, he was then married to Susan E. Blue on November 4, 1873 who died January 16, 1880 and is buried at Baptist Cemetery, Kenney, Illinois. There were no children to this marriage. Susan Blue was a cousin of Sarah Elizabeth Blue.

Edmund Webber Fruit married Isabelle Blue on November 4, 1880 near Kenney, Illinois. Isabelle Blue's parents were Garrett Blue and Sarah Ann Blue, who were also buried at Baptist Cemetery, Kenney, Illinois. Isabelle Blue and Susan E. Blue were sisters and natives of Hampshire County, West Virginia.

In 1891 Edmund Webber Fruit and Isabelle Blue moved to a farm (171 Acres in Section 17 of Tunbridge Township, DeWitt County, Illinois) located on edge of the town limit of Kenney, Illinois. Then he lived there until he died August 7, 1907 and he was buried at the Baptist Cemetery, Kenney, Illinois near his three wives who preceded him in death. Isabelle died Sept. 16, 1906, Kenney, Ill.

Edmund Webber Fruit has owned more than 2000 Acres of farmland and he has been a wealthy man since he was a successful farmer and stock raiser.

During the cyclone of 1883 and the Kenney fire of 1889, he gave to ones who were heavy losers. He started the ball rolling and built the first new brick building after the fire, which started others to building. In his religious faith he was a Universalist and attended Church at the Baptist Church, east of Kenney, Illinois. Among his neighbors and friends he was recognized as a man of rare foresight and open-handed charity. His ambition and highest aim in life was to be a successful and independent farmer, and well did he succeed to that position. He was always known to everybody as "Uncle Doe", which was his nickname during his lifetime.

Reference: Letter of family records and sketch of family history sent by Merle L. Walker, Scotia, California, Box 483 -95565 to the writer.

John Walker was listed in DeWitt County history book as an emigrant from Ohio who came in fall of 1829 and settled on Section 13, Tunbridge Township, DeWitt County, Ill. Their children were John and Sidney Walker. There is no proof that this John Walker is the same John Walker who married our Sibyl Fruit in Kentucky, only there might be a relationship.

Sibyl Fruit's marriage bond is recorded as Siballa, which was found in Christian County, Ky. She was named for her grandmother, Saballa, whose name appears as witness to two deeds in Christian County, Ky. She makes her mark, and the name is spelled in each instance "Saballa." Nellie Donovan of Lexington, Kentucky, the writer of a Fruit history, looked up this unusual name and found the following: "Sibyl n. A feminine name. D. Sibylla, F. Sibylle, G. Sibylle. I. Sibylla. Ancient Myth. One of several women that prophesied under the supposed inspiration of some deity, chiefly Apolle, and delivered their oracles in a frenzied state. The Cuman Sibyl was the most famous. She was consulted by Aeneas and sold to the last Tarquin the sibylline books. "The Sibylline books, a collection of oracles consulted by the Roman senate in times of peril." While the grandmother of this name could not write it, she must have come from an educated line of the name.

C93 MARTHA FRUIT

C93 Martha (Pattie) Fruit, b. Jan. 7, 1806, Ky.; d. Sept. 16, 1894, Jackson County, Oregon; m. Col. Giles Wells, Nov. 10, 1829, Clinton Co., Ky.; b. Apr. 15, 1799 or 1798, South Carolina; d. Dec. 15, 1894 near Ashland, Ore.; Both buried in family burial ground on old family farm near Ashland, (Jackson Co.) Oregon.

The Wells made an overland trip by wagon train to Lee County, Iowa after 1833, where the children were born. Then the family went to Jackson County, Oregon in 1853 to settle on 320 Acres (Donation Land Claim 53) close to where Tolman Creek flowed into Neil Creek. The 1st Meeting to establish a school in upper valley was held in the Well's home in 1856. In 1856 Wells built a sawmill and blacksmith shop on Tolman Creek.

Giles became one of the leading factors in helping to clear the valley of Indians. During the Rogue River Wars of 1855 and 1856, he raised a large company of volunteers defeating the Indians. He served one term in the Oregon Legislature representing Jackson County.

According to a Cemetery Report, the Wells family were buried at Mountain View, Ashland and Hargadine Cemeteries near Ashland, Oregon.

Today (1968), the Wells land is a golf course called Oak Knoll Golf Club near Ashland, Oregon. The Crowson Road Oregon 66 goes across the land. The Wells buried their dead on their own land as was the custom. But times have changed, and today it is a golf course. The old weathered house is almost opposite the entrance to the golf course, facing Oregon 66 Road. There must be Wells descendants living in Jackson County, Oregon today and I (the writer) am trying to get in contact with them.

Col. Giles Well's parents were Lewis Elizabeth (Bates) Wells who lived in Greenville, South Carolina. His sisters and brothers were Thomas, Lewis, Elijah, Elizabeth, Susan, Martha, Sarah, Kijiah, Mary and Joseph.
