

GENEALOGICAL RECORD

OF THE

Descendents (as far as known) of William
Guy, who emigrated to America from England Jan. 2, 1634, to which is added an Appendix,

BY Rev. ALBERT GUY,

... OF ...

Hartford, Conn.

JANUARY, 1898

Yours respectfully, ALBERT GUY.

PREFACE.

FOR several years the matter has been in mind of preparing a Genealogical Record of the branch of the Guy family to which I belong, and others have urged the same. As opportunity afforded in circulating among relatives, I obtained some names and statistics which prepared the way, in some degree, to enter upon the work. With some reluctance and much diffidence it was undertaken, designing only to prepare a written manuscript for private use, but others desired copies, and such was the labor of transcribing, it was thought all would prefer to meet the expense of printing and publishing in pamphlet form so as to afford as many copies as desired and be permanently preserved.

A great amount of correspondence has been necessary, and while there have been agreeable features in the work, there have been also many perplexities arising from not obtaining, in the proper time, the statistics sought. And while mistakes may be discovered, the aim has been to follow exactly the instruction obtained. It is sent forth with the prayer of the writer that every name here recorded may be found written in the Lamb's book of life.

ALBERT GUY.

In the Contest of Crown Point, N. Y. in 1775, in the French and English war, Timothy Guy, took part in Capt. William Bapin's company.

The following are extracts from the History of Dover, Mass., just published, pages 82 and 83.

Residents of Dover, Mass., attended that great meeting of seven thousand persons which was held in Faneuil Hall, Boston, Dec. 16, 1774, and a Journal to the Old South Meetinghouse for more room. At the close of the memorable meeting, Timothy Guy was one of those who gave the war whoop and then proceeded to Griffin's Wharf where they took possession of the three Ten Ships and emptied their entire cargo into the sea. He came to this country from Bristol, England.
