Dedication

WE DEDICATE THIS BOOK TO:-

Our noble ancestors whose heritage we cherish.

Our contemporaries who are striving to carry on the faith and life for our succeeding generations.

Our posterity who will cherish this heritage granted them by their forbearers.

INTRODUCTION

GIBBEL, GIBBLE, GIPPLE GENEALOGY

Great interest has developed among the Pennsylvania Germans in family history and genealogy during the first half of the present century. This is evident from the practice of holding meetings of large family groups, and from the appearance of numerous written genealogies.

For five generations, more or less, the average Pennsylvania German was so absorbed with matters pertaining to the fundamental necessities of life that he had little time to inquire about his ancestry or to project thought and activity into the wider areas of life. It is a well-known fact that until a comparatively few short years ago, the majority of the Gibbels were farmers, or engaged in those pursuits immediately connected with farm life. None felt that they could take time out during week-days to attend reunions, nor would they do so on Sundays because of religious scruples.

With the introduction of labor and time saving machinery on the farm, more time has been released for other activities. The automobile has provided means of travel, in a very short time, to any point of interest. Thus we see that a way was opened for the rise and development of new and larger social contacts. The family reunion is but one of many heretofore unknown social gatherings. It is a great means and stimulus to family consciousness and family solidarity.

One outgrowth of such meetings has been the desire to learn something of the ancestry of people thus assembled. The Gibbel family shares this experience with many other families of Pennsylvania and of other States of the Union. It so happened that Henry M. Gipple and wife, Mary E. Pfautz Gibbel, then residing on a farm near Elstonville, Penn Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, held an anniversary upon the eighteenth birthday of their twin children, Rolandus and Maybelle, on September 3, 1915, to which had been invited the members of their immediate family and a few other near kin.

On that occasion an organization was formed and the decision made to hold reunions annually and that a general invitation would be extended to all members of the Gipple "Freindschaft" to be present. Consequently the first general Gipple Family reunion was held at the Lititz Springs Park, Saturday, June 4, 1916, with an attendance of three-hundred and seventy-six persons.

The writer has before him a book in which the minutes of the reunion meetings, covering the years 1915-1952, are recorded. A summary of the programs and events would make interesting reading. Inasmuch as our objective is to write a genealogy of the family, we must refrain from the diversion of writing an account of the reunions. However, a perusal of its pages shows that from the beginning, interest developed in compiling a volume on information, dealing with the Gibbel-Gipple Family. At the very first general reunion, an Historical Committee was appointed, consisting of Henry R. Gibbel an insurance man of Lititz; and Samuel S. Gipple, merchant and manufacturer of Lancaster. The former set himself to the task of searching records at the Lancaster County Court House, and the latter to gathering names, dates, and other data.

At the third reunion, action was taken to appoint a committee "to write a book on the Gibble Freindschaft." Samuel Gibble continued interest in his project until his death. Upon his demise his children graciously gave to the author of this volume all the data and materials he had collected. He had given days upon days of his time to make personal visits, to conduct correspondence, and to research of varied sources.

Among the papers in the Samuel S. Gibble collection were two from the hand of Elder Samuel R. Zug, Church of the Brethren, who was born in the 1832, just one year before the last of the second generation of Gibbles in Pennsylvania died. He therefore had direct knowledge of, and personal acquaintance with, many of the third, fourth, and fifth generation of Gibbles; and due to his great span of life knew some down to the seventh and eighth generations. These two documents were written at the request of Mr. Gibble. They are without doubt, one of the most valuable sources of information. Though not a member of the Gibble Clan, Rev. Samuel R. Zug, because of his extended knowledge of the family, served for a brief period as a member of the Historical Committee. During much of his life he lived near Mastersonville, Rapho Township, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, in the heart of the country where the Gibbel ancestor settled and lived, and he passed on to his eternal reward at Palmyra, Pennsylvania, November 22, 1926 at the age of ninety-three years, eight months, and twenty-three days.

Variations in Spelling Family Name

Before proceeding further in writing the account of the family, for the sake of clarity, it becomes necessary to point out usages in spelling of the family name. In this volume we use most frequently, "Gibble," for the reason that the great majority of the clan so spell it. In instances where it is known that members of the family use "Gibbel," we so record it. Also in writing of the early generations, we use "Gibbel," because the name was then so spelled most frequently. Where persons write "Gipple," we follow that practice. Of one thing we are certain, namely, that the family of which we are writing, all came from a common immigrant ancestor, and variations in spelling have no essential distinctive significance.

The tax assessment lists as appearing in the "Pennsylvania Archives," have the following variations: Gapfill, Gebfall, Gibfel, Gibbel, Gibble, Gipel, Gipfel, Giple, and Gipple. In an old tax list, year 1759 it appears as "Bibssell." On tombstones, in two instances at least, the name of the one parent appears as "Gibble," the other as "Gibbel." On a tombstone in Dauphin County, Pa., we find "Kipple." This last spelling is also found in Dauphin County civil records.

Most likely its German original was "Gipfel." One recalls the lines in the poem, "Die Lorelie":

"Der Gipfel den Berge funckled Im Aben sonnenschein."

Literally, the meaning of the German word; is top, summit, pinnacle. If the members of the family want to live true to their name, they will be top-people.

Henry Gibbel, Ancestor (1)

Henry Gibbel, whose posterity we trace, lived on a tract of land located about a half mile south of the Borough of Manheim, Pennsylvania. The present Kreider's Brethren Church stands on the western limits of the tract, and its eastern boundary is east of the Kauffman Park area. The exact year of his arrival has not been determined. While the names of many Pennsylvania German immigrants are listed by Rupp,¹ the name of Henry Gibbel does not appear among them. Nor do we know of any other source to which we might turn in order to ascertain his coming to America.

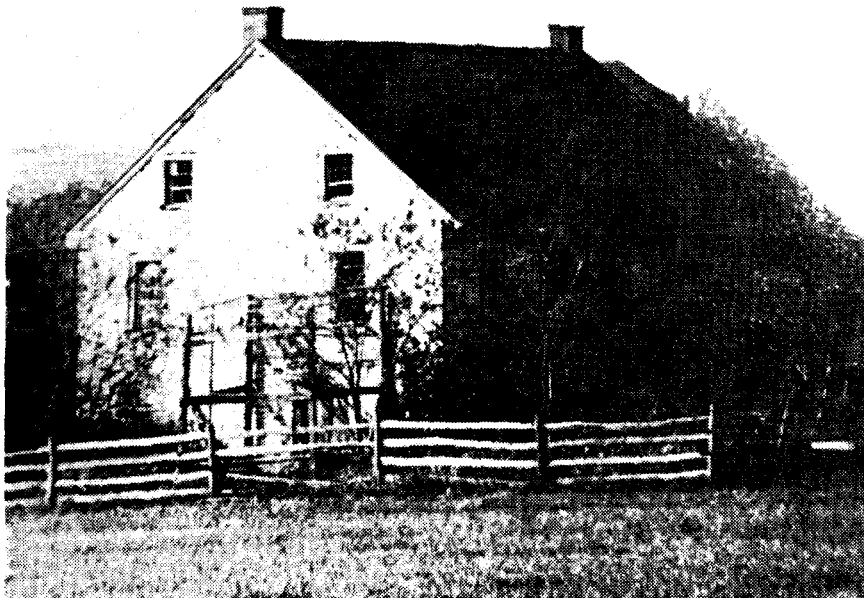

The very earliest appearance of his name is on a roll of baptisms by Elder Michael Pfautz of the Brethren Church, for the year 1748. Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh gave this roll to the public in 1899, in his book: "A History of the German Baptist Brethren in Europe and America," as found on page 310. We quote the paragraph where this item occurs:

"In 1748 the church was wonderfully blessed. Eight time the congregation stood at the baptismal stream and sang the triumph of redeeming love as fifty-three precious souls were buried with Christ in Holy Baptism—March 6, (1748): Ulrich Scheibly and wife, Henry Giebel (who lived seventy-two years) and wife Christina, Hans Wendel Renner, Hans Leonhardt Renner and Maria Renner."

(1) I. Daniel Rupp, in the year 1875 published a volume entitled, "Thirty Thousand Names of Immigrants," in which he lists German, Swiss, Dutch, French, and other immigrants to the number, approximately, as indicated in the title. These original shiplists were again thoroughly investigated and their contents printed in three volumes, in 1934, under the title: "Pennsylvania German Pioneers."

Assumed to be the wall around the spring where the First Henry Gibbel located sometime before 1847.

Assumed to be the first house of our first ancestor, Henry Gibbel.

This reference to Henry Gibbel is of inestimable value to the historian. It establishes beyond the shadow of a doubt that Henry Gibbel was in America by the year 1748, that the first name of his wife was Christina, that they were members of the Brethren Church; that he lived in the White Oak District;² and that he lived to the age of seventy-two years. The next recorded fact concernig him appears in the tax assessment list of Warwick Township, year 1759. In that year he resided as a tenant on a farm of 140 acres of a certain John Bender. The Bender farm was located in the vicinity of Lime Rock, about midway between Manheim and Lititz.

How long he lived on the Bender farm is not known. We do know, however, that sometime within the next thirteen years he located on land, near to and directly south of Manheim. From a deed of transfer (GG-101, April 8, 1787), on record in the Recorder of Deeds Office, Lancaster, we learn the particulars concerning Henry Gibbel's land. A tract of 208 A. and 125 P. had been granted by Patent to a man by the name of George Deyer, (also spelled Theiner and Dyer). Hannes Deyer, son of George, inherited this tract, and he in turn sold it to Henry Gibbel. Unfortunately for us, no deed is on record for this transfer from Hannes Deyer. The deed of 1787, however, recites the several transactions. In it, it is stated that Henry Gibbel, Sr. and wife, Christina, sold 158 A. and 104 P. of the

(2) The place-name, "White Oak," is retained to the present, and specifically is given to a hamlet of a few houses, mill, and railroad station, located on the Little Chiques Creek, in Penn Township, Lancaster County, three miles north of Manheim. The White Oak District of the Brethren Church also remains to this day. Originally it included all the congregations of Northwestern Lancaster County, beginning on the southeast at Lititz.

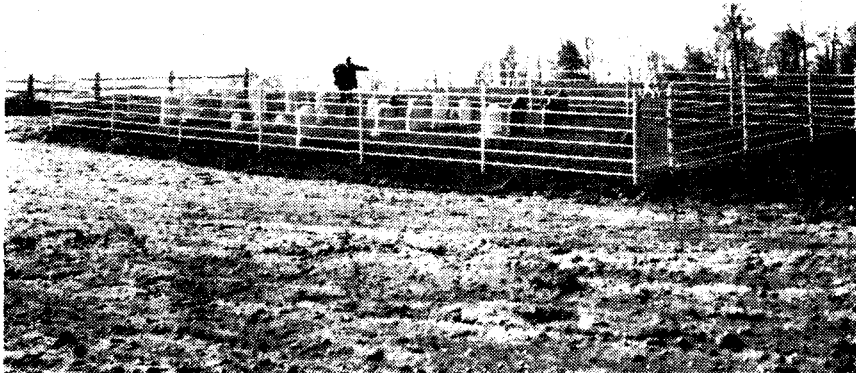

Deyer tract to his son John Gibbel, July 29, 1774. Henry Gibbel, Sr. at that time retained about fifty acres of his purchase from Deyer for his own use. These acres covered the area of the present Kauffman Park, extending beyond it by short distances on all sides.

Burial spot on a 50-acre tract owned by Henry Gibbel, which became the family burial plot.

Family grave-yard south of Manheim, Pa. Person on cemetery, Rev. Phares B. Gibbel.

Gibbel Family Cemetery one mile west of Mastersonville, Lancaster County, Pa.

To the best of our knowledge all of Henry Gibbel's sons were born on the Bender farm, but they grew to maturity while he lived on the former Deyer tract. When he died, his body was laid to rest in what became the family burial plot located in the extreme northeastern corner of the fifty acre tract he retained. A field stone with the meager inscription "H. G. 1789," marks the place of his earthly repose. By the side of this stone is another field stone with the carving, "C. G. 1804." The initials, "H. G." stand for Henry Gibbel, and the date, "1789" for the year of his death. The initials, "C. G." stand for Christina Gibbel, and the date "1804" for the year of her death.

According to the notation following his name in the baptismal record, Henry Gibbel lived to be seventy-two years of age. Consequently, if he died in the year 1789, he was born in the year 1717, and he was baptized and became a member of the Brethren Church at the age of thirty-one.

We have no means of knowing, absolutely, from what family, Christina, wife of Henry Gibbel came. It might be conjectured that her parents were John and Christina Deyer, inasmuch as he bought his farm from them, and that Mrs. Deyer's name was Christina.

It would be a great satisfaction to know the lives, more intimately and personally, of these our worthy ancestral parents. Though there is lacking a more detailed account of facts concernig them, yet we can be assured they were God-fearing, honest, and industrious people. They definitely were members of the Christian Church, and of that branch of it which has had, and continues to have in increasing measure, the respect and esteem of all good people here in America and in other Christian communities around the world. Their Godly lives had a great influence upon their children, an influence which is the glorious heritage of all their descendants, as the story concerning them, as follows, will show.

Children of Henry and Christina Gibbel The Second Generation in America

A search of all available records show there were six Gibbel men, who had reached their majority, in Lancaster County, during the period, 1748 to 1790. Their names were: Henry Sr., Christian,³ Jacob, John, Abraham, and Henry, Jr. The records we have in mind are: Tax Assessment Lists, 1771-1782; Return of Militia, 1778-1783; the National Census of 1790; and land transfers. Of the names above given, Henry, Sr. is the father; Christopher, Jacob, John, Abraham, and Henry, Jr. are his sons. In the absence of any family records, (such as a Bible record of names, births, marriages, deaths), or other sources of a personal nature, no names of daughters have come to us. Persons who attended family reunions may recall that Samuel S. Gible reported there was a daughter, by name Regina. He had found the name Regina Gibel, on a tombstone. But Regina Gibbel was the wife of a John Gibbel—her name before marriage was Regina Eby.⁴

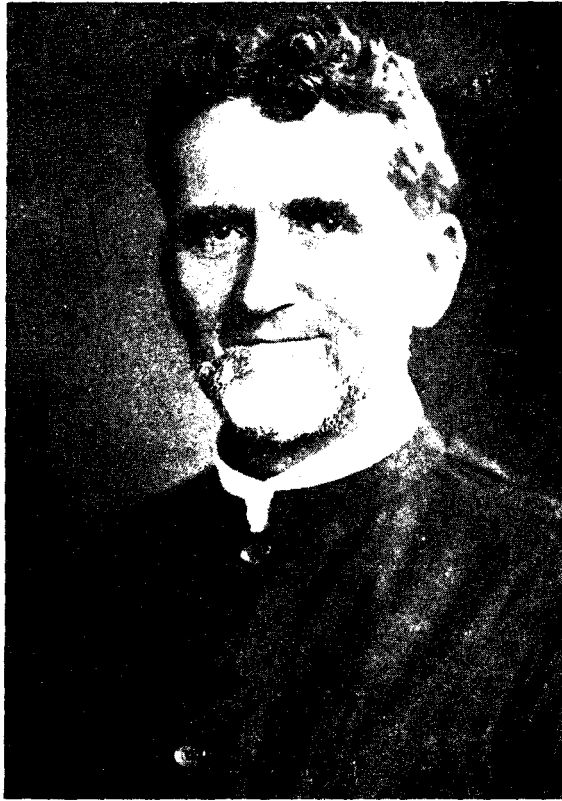

A brief statement must now be made concerning the geographical locations covered by the above records. The localities concerned are: Warwick Township, Rapho Township, and Manheim town or borough. Warwick Township was established in 1729, when Lancaster County was created. Rapho Township, in part was taken from Donegal and in part from Warwick townships in the year 1741. The area included in Manheim town was laid out in 1762—the land covered by it lay in Rapho Township. The Little Chiques Creek flows along the eastern and southern boundaries of the town, and this creek also was the dividing line between Rapho Township on its west and Warwick Township on its east. The Gibbel farms of this early period were in Warwick Township. The 1790 census gives widow Gibbel (Henry Sr.'s widow), and son Abraham as living in Manheim town, and later he was a resident of Rapho Township. The eastern part of Warwick was organized into a new township in 1846, and called Penn. To get the matter clearly before us, it can now be understood when we say that Henry Gibbel's farm was located in that section of Warwick which is now Penn Township.

(3) In records from which we have taken these names, that of Christian, appears as "Stoffel" and "Christopher." We shall use the spelling "Christopher."

(4) More detailed information on this couple will appear on a later page.

(5) We continue to use Manheim town to distinguish it from Manheim Township. One might expect that Manheim town is in Manheim Township, but such is not the case. Manheim Township lies two and one-half miles southeast of Manheim town, or Borough.

HISTORIANS

Samuel S. Gibbel—First person to being recording history of the Gibbel's.

Samuel S. Gibbel for many years was the historian of the Gibbel family. He gathered much information which he had scattered through small notebooks and which he later wrote on oilcloth, about 40 ft. long and 3 ft. wide. He rolled it up like a window shade, then passed it on to the next historian, Phares B. Gibble, the present historian, along with many pages on letter and in notebook form. It was from this roll and these pages of material that the present historian assembled much of the material now appearing in this book. He was a tireless worker on the history of the Gibbel clan, visiting people and cemeteries and making an inspiring report at each annual reunion. The writer first knew him as a clerk in the general store at Mastersonville. Earlier he lived in Leb. Co. near Fontana, Penna. He worked in a store in Fontana. Later in life he moved to Lancaster, Penna. There he was engaged in various activities, among them that of the insurance business. He had many and varied interests. He had one of the finest collections of "Grandfathers' clocks" anywhere to be seen. If it were not for S. S. Gibbel, we would not be able to publish a history of the Gibbel family such as now appears in print.

Rev. Jacob H. Longenecker assisted Samuel S. Gibble and Phares B. Gibble with much information for the historical record.

Mrs. Jacob H. Longenecker (nee Mary Ann Gibble), born Nov. 16, 1850, passed away January 20, 1926.

Rev. Phares B. Gibble wrote much of present history.

Biographical Data on the Life and Career of Phares Brubaker Gible

II-1. Christopher Gipple (2)

Christopher Gipple, eldest son of the immigrant, Henry Gibbel, was born about the year 1745 in Warrick (now Penn) Township, Lancaster County. His wife's first name was Catharine, her family appears nowhere on record. With Christopher, after he moved to Dauphin County, the spelling, "Gipple," came into use. This couple began housekeeping in Penn Township, Lancaster County. They were owners, in 1771, of two tracts of land; one of forty-five and one-half acres, the other of eight acres. This land located on a branch of the Big Chiques Creek, a mile east of the present village of Elstonville. They sold this property in the year 1785. They moved to a fulling mill property southeast of Campellstown, the property was later known as Felty's Mill. All the children were born in Lancaster County.

After a short residence on the mill property they moved to Dauphin County, probably first to Middle Paxtang Township, Fishing Creek Valley. Later they moved and settled in Halifax Township, Powell's Valley, about three miles northeast of the present village of Matamoras. Christopher passed on first, in the late fall of 1819, the mother than making her home with her son Tobias. (See account of 111-5 Tobias Gipple.) The stones, having on them their initials only, are in the Keefer Cemetery, placed in a row with others which may indicate that their bodies were moved from another burial plot.

April 23, 1822, he was married to Anna Maria Stroh by Rev. John George Lochman, pastor of the Zion Lutheran Church, Harrisburg. Obit. notice of their youngest daughter gives some interesting information concerning Anna Maria (Anna Mary) Stroh. She was baptized in 1802 by Jacob Albright, founder of the Evangelical Association. In her girlhood Anna Maria walked forty miles from her home in Dauphin to Kleinfeltersville where camp meeting was held. From a booklet, "One Hundred Years With Evangelical in Iowa" published in 1941, p. 16, we have additional information: "In 1831 the George Gipple family removed ten miles north to Peter's Mountain, where they opened their house as preaching place. A class was formed of which George Gipple became the leader, which position he held until 1852 when the family with several others removed to Grand View, Iowa. Here he was instrumental in organizing a class—the first Evangelical Church was built by this class. He was elected the first class leader and remained in that office until he died in 1856.

Obituary of Julia Ann Gipple Egge (Mrs. C. H.)

Julia Ann Gipple, wife of Rev. Charles H. Egge, was born Mar. 9, 1845, in Middle Paxtang Twp., Dauphin Co., Penna. The light of the eternal presence of the Master dawned upon her soul during the night of Jan. 2, 1921. Her pilgrimage on earth lasted 75 years, 9 months, and 23 days. Her parents were George and Anna Maria Stroh Gipple. They moved to Iowa in the year 1852 when Julia Ann was in her seventh year. Feb. 24, 1868 Julia Ann was united in marriage with Rev. Charles H. Egge. Six children were born to this union, two dying in infancy. In 1875 Rev. Egge took up work in the East Penna. Conference.

Besides her husband, two sons survive and two daughters: William J. of Allentown, and Rev. Walter H., pastor of the First Church, Lebanon. Mrs. Ella Luckenbill of Peraskie, and Mrs. Annabelle Graffin of Catasqua. The Funeral services were held in her late home in Perkaskie, with burial in Allentown.

Mrs. Egge was a sister of the late J. A. Gipple and aunt of C. O. and William Gipple of this vicinity, B. J. Gipple of Adair, Cap Gipple of Bridgewater, Mrs. Eva Clayton of Albin, Wyoming, and Mrs. Alpha Roberts of Fayette, Idaho. Family Bible give Julianna, dau. of George and Anna Maria Stroh Gibbel. Anna Maria's death gives Anna Mary Gipple.

That is he received his father's homestead and was to make a home for his mother Catharine Gipple. O. C. 4-538—shows Tobias died Oct. 7, 1884. Levi Bowerman was Administrator. No heirs given. We conclude he had not married or if so no children. Permission given to sell 70A farm in Halifax Twp., Dauphin Co. O. C. W-538 Feb. 9, 1886, said tract sold to Katie B. Shamo, for $740.

O. C. Record, Dauphin Co. W-450; W—538; X-100

Tobias Gipple

W-450

W-538 Dec. 1, 1885—Pet. of Levi Bowerman, Adm. of Tobias Gipple, dec'd., late of Halifax Twp. dec'd. 1884. Order to sell farm of 70 A. (his only possession) adjoined by lands: by Abraham Fetterhoff on the north; Daniel Simmitt on the east; and - - - Smith on the south, and Rebecca Geiger and Samuel Humphrey on the west. Said land in Halifax Twp.

X-103. Said tract sold for $740.00 to Katie B. Shamo, Feb. 4, 1886.

(The 1875 atlas shows the location of "T. Kipple's" land; about a mile north of the road from Matamoras to Enterline, and about a mile, just west of the Halifax and Jefferson Twps. boundary.) (Summet in 1875 was still adjoining on the north.)

This tract therefore shows:

1. The land of Christopher II Gipple, which he ordered to be given to his son Tobias according to Dauph. Deed (agreement) C-2-141.
2. That widow Catherine was still living and was living on Tobias' place.

II-2. JACOB GIBBLE

1747 - 1833

II-2. Jacob Gible, b. 1747, d. 1833, m. Elizabeth, d. 1830, tombstones reads: J. G.—1833, E. G.—1830.

Jacob Gible, 2nd son of Henry Gible and his wife Christina, was born about 1747. He married a certain Elizabeth, whose family name is unknown. They both lived to be above 80 years of age. They were laid to rest in the Old Gible family burial plot a short distance east of the present Kauffman Park, Manheim, Penna., a field stone marking the burial place of each. He died about the month of July 1833 and she late in the year 1830. A year and three months before his father's death, he made his last Will and Testament, by which he bequeathed his estate in six equal parts; one-sixth to the sons, Jacob, Abraham, Joseph; one-sixth to the children of his deceased dau. Maria who had been married to Jacob Haller; one-sixth part to the descendants of his deceased son Henry, who were a grandson Jacob, and a great grandson Emanuel Lenhart. The son Jacob was to have the father's farm, and was ordered to pay bonds covering payments on the same to the other heirs as they became due.

Jacob Gible and his wife were baptized by the Brethren Church, November 1, 1777. Their farm was located in Penn Twp., on the outskirts of Manheim. For a period of nine years, 1774-83, he was also the owner of a farm of 102 A., which was located between Manheim and Penryn. It is not known if they ever lived there. Deed V-410, May 16, 1783.

III-1. Jacob, 2. Abraham, 3. Henry, 4. Joseph, 5. Elizabeth, 6. Maria, Will 2-1-432, Apr. 19, 1832, pro. Jan. 22, 1833, also shows one-sixth to dau. Elizabeth married to Jacob Eby.

III-1. Jacob Gible, (14) b. Dec. 26, 1772, d. Feb. 25, 1855, m. Barbara Eby, b. Jan. 28, 1779, d. May 28, 1837, res. farm in Penn Twp., east and north of the Fruitville Pike, nr the bridge over the Big Chiques Creek as one leaves Manheim.

Will—gave farm to sons Peter and John, val. $3,400, for which they were to make payment in 17 annual installments. The daus. Veronica, Elizabeth and Catharine to remain in and have the use of the SE portion of the farm house. The son Peter was to have $300 extra for remaining with his father.

Buried in the old cemetery on top of the hill south of the brick farm house. Jacob Gible and wife Barbara, son Peter and his first wife; the three daus.; John's first wife.

II-3 JOHN GIBBEL

1751 - 1818

The Family of John Gibbel, Third Son of Henry Gibbel and Wife Christina

John Gibbel, third son of the immigrant ancestor Henry, in early manhood lived south of Manheim. He had come into possession of 150 acres and 104 perches of his father's land. John sold this farm to his brother Henry by deed dated April 7, 1787. On the same date, he received title to a 150 acre farm in the White Oak region of Penn Township. From this limited information it cannot be said with certainty in what years John Gibbel located on these tracts—all we can say is that in his earlier years he lived near Manheim and in later years he lived in the White Oak Region.

The location of John Gibbel's farm in the White Oak Region is well known. The grove now owned and used by the Ruhl's Evangelical United Brethren congregation for religious and social purposes was once a part of the farm. The drive by the western boundary of the grove was once the drive used to get to the "Gibbel Cemetery" which is about four-tenths of a mile northwardly.

A building known as the "Gibbel Meeting House" also stood on the farm. It stood along the east and west road, and just west of the grove.

Inasmuch as the family of John Gibbel was and is more numerous by far than that of any other progeniture, we give some additional general information for the benefit of his numerous descendants.

This John Gibbel married first, Maria Longenecker. To this union too sons were born—Christian and John. The mother died when she was quite young. He then married Elizabeth Hummer, and they had a family of four daughters and six sons. Information about them will be given under each. The Longenecker and Hummer families lived in Rapho Township and it may be said that they were neighbors to the Gibbels.

John Gibbel and wife Elizabeth came into the fellowship of the Brethren Church by baptism, September 24, 1777. He was a deacon of the church. No doubt the congregations both at Manheim and at White Oak met for worship in the Gibbel home. The family burial ground, mentioned above, is in the northwestern limits of the farm. There the parents of this family and a goodly number of their offspring are buried. Some of the stones found there today as well as the bodies for which they were placed have been brought from a Gibbel burial plot which was located on a farm of one of his sons and which stood about two miles northeast.

 the Royer's Bre. Cem. north of Kleinfeltersville, Pa., in 1878;
 he lived in W. Cocalico Twp.
 III-2. John Gibbel, born about 1774, died about 1800, m. Regina
 Eby, b. Jan. 28, 1779, d. Jan. 1, 1831. They were married
 Mar. 25, 1797, according to the record of Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster, Pa. They had one child, Susannah. His uncle, Henry Gibbel, Jr., in his will, made several bequests affecting the daughter, Susannah. Item 2, states: "To Regina, widow of my nephew John Gibbel, dec'd is to dwell with my wife Elizabeth. If Regina marries, the furniture shall go to Susannah, the only daughter of my nephew, now intermarried with Andrew Hoerner." Item 4. "To Andrew Hoerner all my plantation whereon I now reside, in Warwick (now Penn) township, containing about 180 acres." Regina Eby was a descendant of Theodorus Eby, immigrant from the Canton of Zurich, Switzerland in 1715. She was of the 5th generation, a daughter of John and Regina Heistant Eby.

IV-1. Susannah Gibbel, b. Feb. 14, 1799, d. Sept. 17, 1834, m. Andrew Hoerner, b. Jan. 16, 1792, d. Feb. 15, 1847. He was of the 3rd generation of Hoerners in America: his grandfather came to America in 1760, and in 1779 settled on a farm north of Hummelstown, Pa. Andrew, husband of Susannah Gibbel, when a young man went to Ephrata, Pa., and learned the tanning trade with a Mr. Koenichmacher. Later he came to Manheim. Susannah met the redhead, fell in love with him and married him. After Susannah's death, he married Mary Eby, sister to Susannah's mother. He was a deacon of the Brethren Church, of the congregation that met for worship in his house. Their children were:

V-1. Lydia, 2. Barbara, 3. Mary, 4. John, 5. Anna, 6. Susannah

V-1. Lydia G. Hoerner, b. Mar. 9, 1821, d. Oct. 1, 1896, m. Cornelius Kreider, b. Apr. 26, 1813, d. Jan. 1, 1875. Mr. Kreider, an immigrant from Wurtemberg Germany, came to the vicinity of Manheim looking for employment. Since the Hoerner family had come from the same German province, Mr. Kreider had no difficulty gaining employment with Andrew Hoerner and family, who took him into their home. One Sunday morning when there were no services at the Hoerner house, Mr. Kreider asked for the use of a horse to go riding. That privilege being granted, he said he needed another horse. When asked "Why two horses?" he replied that he was taking Lydia with him. On their return, Lydia's twin sisters, Barbara and Mary were not well pleased with her. They felt that she had "beat them to it," as the saying goes.

Mr. Kreider had connection with the Roman Catholic Church in the old country, but on making his home with the Andrew Hoerner family, he became a devout disciple of the Brethren. Evidence of this is in that he gave land for the erection of the Kreider's Brethren meeting house, and was instrumental in seeing to it that the building project was launched and brought to culmination.

These parents had six children:

Myers of Manheim gave an excellent word picture of the old stone house, if it were not for this photo, we would be at a loss to know what the house actually looked like. All descendants of the first Gibbels at Manheim are therefore deeply indebted to her. She also gave much verbal information on matters dealing with the offspring of John Gibbel and Regina Eby Gibbel through their daughter Susannah Hoerner.

It would be interesting to know where Christina Gible and Joseph Keefer first met, since her parents lived nr. Elstonville, Penn township, Lancaster County, and Mr. Keefer's folks lived in Dauphin County, probably in East Hanover of Lower Paxtang township. At any rate it is a matter of historic record that this couple resided in Lower Paxtang township. Their children are said to have been born in this township. In the year 1830 they removed from there to the Lykens Valley, in Upper Paxtang township, on land by the main branch of Wisonisco Creek, four miles east of Millersburg, along the road to Elizabethville.

Joseph Keefer was the minister of the Brethren in Christ Church, whose congregation in the Lykens Valley met in the Keefer home. He was overseer, or Bishop of the congregation from 1831 onward to the time of his death. The congregation purchased a plot of ground for a burial lot and a schoolhouse. In 1888 a church building was erected along the road. The burial ground is some rods north of the road. Here are buried Joseph Keefer and wife Christina and some of their descendants. Also here lies the great-grandmother of President Dwight David Eisenhower. Her name before marriage to Frederick Eisenhower (1794-1884) was Barbara Miller, born March 27, 1787, died January 1, 1862. Other Eisenhowers are buried in the same cemetery.

The name of the earliest Keefer, that of Joseph, buried there, is spelled "Kiefer," succeeding generations spell it "Keefer."

Abraham Gible, the tenth son of John Gible and the eighth child by his second marriage to Elizabeth Hummer, married Barbara Wenger and settled on land which was in possession of Barbara Wenger's father, Isaac Wenger (1757-1831) and his wife Anne Shelly (1758-1831). On this land where he lived during the remainder of his life he raised a large family. They were farmers and members of the Church of the Brethren in which he served as a minister. This farm was located to the northeast of the Chicques meeting house. The farm was later in the possession of John Ruhl. There is a private, well-kept burial ground on the eastern boundary of the farm where Isaac Wenger and wife and Abraham Gible and wife and a number of his descendants are buried.

Zug's Letters, 1917

"Abraham Gibbel was married to a Miss Gingrich, and had one son, John G., a tailor and worked many years nr Mastersonville, then went west. Kate, a dau, became the second wife of Elias Shreiner of Halfville. His brother Samuel I think never married and lived nr Manheim."

"Since I know of the first Henry's son Abraham, I am convinced that Emanuel, the horse dealer; Abraham married Miss Gingrich; and a Mrs. Lenker who lived all in the White Oak reg., and Samuel, unmarried, in Manheim, were children of the first Abraham."

We come to the conclusion that Abraham Gibbel and his wife had a considerable family, according to the Cenus of 1800. Margaret in Rapho Twp. in 1810 may have been a daughter and perhaps had two of the younger children with her.

The birthdates of the children were as follows.

- II-1. Dau, 1776, 2. Margaret, b. 1778, 3. Dau, 1780, 4. John, 1783, 5. Dau. (Lenker) 1785, 6. Abraham, 1792, 7. Son, 8. Samuel, 1799.

Zug says he married a Miss Gingrich. 1850 Cenus has them in Rapho Twp., gives both according to the ages above (Abraham and Mary), and a son John, b. 1824. The reply from S. S. from Bunker Hill, Ind. says John G. Gible came from Lexington, (the son). He made a Will, giving res. as Warwick Twp., names his child. Will—A-2-604.

GEORGE GIBBEL

The Gibble families as well as other families thought of God and the Book of Books, the Holy Bible as an appropriate and permanent place to record the names of their immediate family. For example George Gibbel who left Pennsylvania to seek a home in the Middle-west recorded in his German Bible the names of his family as evidenced by the following photo-static copy:

II. THE REUNION

A LARGE PARTY HELD FRIDAY

Gibble Clan Gathers at Elstonville, Lancaster County

Elstonville, Pa., Sept. 16—(Special)—A large gathering assembled on the farm of Henry M. Gibble, at Elstonville, Lancaster county, Pa., Friday, August 3rd, in commemoration of the 18th birthday of Maybelle P. and Rolandie P. Gibble, the twin daughter and son of Henry M. Gibble.

The day for the celebration was an ideal one and was greatly enjoyed by all present. Early in the morning guests began arriving from Lebanon and Lancaster counties. The son Jacob and his wife, as well as the daughter, Mrs. Wayne C. Harnley and her husband, all of New Jersey had also expected to be present, but at a late date they made known that it was impossible for them to be present. They, however, mailed some very interesting letters which were read at the gathering.

The forenoon of the day was spent in relating experiences and reminiscences which were all exceptionally interesting. After a dinner "fit for a king" the table loaded to its fullest capacity with the best there was to be had the afternoon program was begun.

It was opened by instrumental music and the entire program was interspersed by the very best of vocal and instrumental music. The first talk was given by Henry M. Gibble. He spoke concerning the object of the gathering which was to be not only a birthday celebration but also the beginning of a Gibble family reunion. Other addresses were made as follows:

When are the best days of boys? by Harry Royer; Is it a pleasure to raise a family? by Mrs. Harry Royer; Is it beneficial for a young man to travel west? by Elias P. Gibble; General talk, by Mrs. Elias P. Gibble; general talk, by Mrs. B. W. Martin; When are the girls' happiest days? by Dr. D. W. Martin; How to make parents most happy, by Mrs. Chas. Wm. Keath; Education, by Chas. Wm. Keath.

Next in order was the reading of letters and suggestions from those who could not be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob P. Gibble and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne G. Harnley, of New Jersey, had been appointed to write out plans and suggestions for the purpose of forming a Gibble family reunion. They mailed a complete report which was read and commented upon.

It was decided to hold the 1916 meeting at Lititz Springs, Lititz, at such date as shall later be decided on.

A very good program shall be rendered at the 1916 meeting. Good vocal music, but no instrumental shall be furnished. Amongst the speakers to address the gathering are two very able men, namely Rev. Henry Gibble, Lititz and Rev. Phares Gibble, Annville.

Before the close of the celebration the following officers were elected for one year:

Pres., Jacob P. Gibble; Vice Pres., Henry M. Gibble; Treas., Harry Royer; Sec'y. Mrs. D. W. Martin; Ass't. Sec'y, Dr. D. W. Martin; musical director, Chas. Wm. Keath; reading clerk, Mrs. Chas. Wm. Keath; solicitors, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne G. Harnley; managers, Elias P. Gibble, David P. Gibble, Rolandie P. Gibble.

The president has appointed a committee consisting of Dr. D. W. Martin, Harry Royer and Chas. Wm. Keath to draw up a constitution and by-laws for this reunion.

The Lititz Express

LITITZ, PA., FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 9, 1916

FIRST ANNUAL REUNION OF THE GIBBEL FAMILY

HELD AT THE SPRINGS ON SATURDAY

Two Hundred and Fifty Persons, Attend—Interesting Program Rendered—Unique Will Read
Officers Elected

Two hundred and fifty persons were in attendance at the first annual reunion of the Gibbel family which was held in Lititz Springs Park on Saturday. A few members started the movement some months ago and their efforts were crowned with success. It was one of the largest gatherings in the history of the Lititz Springs, especially for the first family reunion.

The Gibbel "freundschaft," the membership of which is mostly composed of Lancaster countians, represents a great portion of the wealth of the Garden Spot of the World, but as yet the family organization is not well financed, as they are only in their infancy. This family, however, is among the oldest in the county, its origin dating as far back as 1818 to the family of John Gibbel.

There was singing in the morning, but the main program was carried out in the afternoon. Mr. Jacob P. Gibbel, of Marlboro, N. J., presided, and the Rev. Harvey Eberly, of Lititz, had charge of the singing.

After three hymns had been sung the Rev. Jacob Longenecker, of Palmyra, led in prayer.

The president stated that this was really the second reunion of the Gibbel family, the first having been held Sept. 3, 1915, as a purely family gathering at the home of Mr. Henry Gibbel at Elstonville.

A letter was read from the vice president, Henry M. Gibbel, in which it was stated that the idea of a family reunion was first suggested by Joseph, Isaac and Michael Gibbel, of Chickies, two of whom are now dead.

After several more hymns the Rev. Henry R. Gibbel, of Lititz, delivered a very interesting address. Reunions, he said, were primarily held in order to trace the family genealogy. He who possesses a genealogy knows certainly what he represents.

The first Gibbel he was able to trace was John Gibbel, living near Gibbel's meeting house in Penn township, born 1751 and died 1818. He bought a farm of 20 acres, which he left to his son Joseph. He had 12 sons and daughters. He had a will which Rev. Gibbel found in the register's office at Lancaster and which he read. It was dated Feb. 17, 1815, and his sons, Christian and Abraham, were the executors.

John Gibbel, at the writing of the will, was a farm owner and resident of what was then known as Warwick township but what has since been changed to Penn township. He resided on the farm now owned by Frank Ruhl, near Gibbel's meeting house in Penn township. John Gibbel was born in 1751 and died in 1818, two years after the will was made. In his address following the reading of the will, he stated that practically every person in attendance at the reunion was able to trace the family through one or the other of the twelve sons and daughters of John Gibbel, but so far as he was able to trace, there was little definite matter regarding the course of the family, further than that John Gibbel bought his farm of 150 acres in Warwick township from Martin Behler on April 7, 1781, for 1200 pounds ($6,000) and that he willed it to his son, Joseph.

The Will

The first clause of the will ordered that all his debts and funeral expenses be duly paid as soon as convenient to his executors. In the second clause, the "plantation," as it was termed in the will, or tract of land on which he lived was bequeathed to his son, Joseph Gibbel. This son was also to have charge of the distribution of the 1,200 pounds ($6,000), the old gentleman's appraisal of the property, to the other children which included Christian, Elizabeth, Samuel, Henry, Salome, Daniel, Christiana, Mary, Abraham, Joseph and Catherine. Each child was bequeathed a goodly portion. Susanna, a daughter of John Gibbel's son, John, was also bequeathed the sum of five pounds ($25).

Besides a gift of fifty pounds ($250) to his wife, Elizabeth, he also made the following provisions for her: "Two beds and bedsteads, one tin-plated stove, one clothespress, a house clock, one milk cow and all his linen."

He also ordered that his son, Joseph, "shall yearly and every year give and deliver to his wife, Elizabeth, throughout her natural life, or as long as she remained the widow of John Gibbel, the following articles: Ten bushels of good wheat, five bushels of good rye, ten pounds of hackled flax or hemp, three pounds of wool, one fat hog of one hundred weight, fifty pounds of good beef, sufficient firewood hauled to the door and ready to cut for the stove, apples and such fruit and cider as much as she may want for her own use, if the season yields abundantly, one-half acre of land to plant potatoes, one-third part of the garden, one-third of the eggs, and a horse creature to ride whenever she has need for the same, and also the new house erected on my said plantation for her dwelling and part of the cellar."

Here it was explained that this was the then prevailing plan for caring for the widow. Mr. Gibbel stated, he looked up the will of his great grandfather, a son of John Gibbel, and found that he took care of his widow in the exact words of his father, except as to the means of transportation. He willed her his family carriage with the express understanding that his son, Jess, was to hitch up a horse in that carriage and take her whenever and wherever she wished to go.

In another clause of the will it was made plain that in the event of his wife, Elizabeth, again intermarrying, all the gifts and bequests given to her shall become absolutely null and void, excepting the sum of fifty pounds ($250) which shall be paid her and considered by her as her full dowry or demands out of my estate, both real and personal.

The last clause of the testament appointed Christian and Abraham Gibbel, two of his sons, executors of the will. The will bears the signature of John Gibbel and also John Eberle and Daniel Behm, the latter, two neighbors who were witnesses to the will. This will was drawn up on February 17, 1815, and it was later discovered that one son, Abraham, was overlooked in the apportioning of the estate. It was then necessary for John Gibbel to declare a codicil to be annexed to his will and this was done on May 8, 1818, and witnessed by the same persons.

One Way to Spell Gibbel

Mr. Gibbel also told in his address that in all the records he has seen, there is but one way of spelling the name and that is "Gibbel." "Some one has said that the change in spelling was brought about by those families who became better educated and saw the error of their forefathers. But as for me and my house," he continued, "we have been old-fashioned enough and true to the tradition of the fathers too, at least, retain the original spelling of the name."

Tradition says the name "Gibbel" was derived from the home of the first Gibbel, who lived on a hill, Gibbel, or Gipfel, being the German of "hilltop."

The name Gibbel occurs oftener in the history of the Church of the Brethren in Eastern Pennsylvania than any other name.

As to temperament the Gibbels are noted for quick tempers, but intemperance is unknown among them. As to politics, when they voted at all, it was the Republican ticket, but held no office higher than that of school director. There are a few soldiers. Most of them are farmers and lovers of nature. Witness the site of the graveyard selected by John Gibbel, on the top of a hill and the edge of a wood, with the graves facing the east.

After another hymn, the Rev. Ira Gibbel, of Myerstown, spoke in German. He said he was told that the original Gibbels that came from across the sea were four in number. He was unable, however, to go back any farther than his great grandfather, Samuel Gibbel, who had ten children, was 66 years old and died in 1845. Three of his sons lived to be over 80. His own father was the oldest man present on Saturday, being 85 years old. The speaker had made considerable efforts to trace the family history and communicated what he had been able to find out.

After the singing of a German hymn the Rev. Jacob Longenecker made a brief address.

It was decided to leave it to the Committee of Arrangements to select the place for the next meeting.

The following officers were elected: President, Jacob P. Gibbel, Marlboro, N. J.; Vice President, Rev. H. R. Gibbel, Lititz; Secretary, Rev. Ira D. Gibbel, Myerstown; Treasurer, H. R. Royer, Lititz. Committee of Arrangements, H. M. Gibbel, Manheim; Hiram V. Gibbel, Elizabethtown; Amos Longenecker, Palmyra; Harvey Gibbel, Ephrata. Committee of Historians, Rev. H. R. Gibbel, Lititz; S. S. Gibbel, Lancaster.

Those present at the reunion were:

III. ELIZABETHTOWN COLLEGE

THE GIBBLE MEMORIAL SCIENCE BUILDING

The construction of the Gible Memorial Building on the campus of Elizabethtown College was established by the efforts and interest of a people who envisioned the birth of new eras in a world of sciences. These same folks believed that instruction in the sciences in a church-related institution of Christian Higher Education without the inculcation of basic ethical concepts could have an impersonalizing and mechanistic effect on the student body.

Jacob Gible Meyer, Ph.D.
President of Elizabethtown College
1921 - 1924

The awareness of need for the educating of young minds to compete objectively new worlds was brought to the attention of the Gible family by members of its own clan. Professor Jacob Gible Meyer, an instructor in chemistry and physics from 1911 to 1916 at Elizabethtown College, was appointed by President H. K. Ober of the College to serve as chairman of a Committee on College Affairs during his absence from the College in the fall of 1918. Two additional members appointed by the College Trustee Board were J. W. G. Hershey and S. H. Hertzler, Chairman of the Trustee Board.

On August 22, 1920 the Trustees elected Jacob Gibble Meyer as second Vice-president of Elizabethtown College. On March 22, 1921 the trustees unanimously elected Jacob Gibble Meyer as president of Elizabethtown College. President Meyer after careful consideration decided he needed his Ph.D. degree. Therefore on June 19, 1924 he presented his resignation as president of Elizabethtown College to the Board of Trustees who accepted his resignation with the provision that he serve until his successor be appointed.

The Committee on College Affairs, as it was known at that time, was assigned to study and plan for new buildings. With slightly less than two decades of service, student enrollment was increasing. The need in a corresponding manner for diversified curricula became more apparent, and as a result of the Committee's study, proposals were made for the construction of new buildings in the following order: a science building, auditorium, heating plant, Carnegie library, and a women's dormitory. At this time, according to the minutes of the College Trustee Board, Alpha Hall and Rider Memorial Hall were the only two buildings facilitating space for instruction, worship, food services, and residence.

Interest for new campus buildings was mounting. Someone suggested that a science building, large enough to include a lecture hall where the Gibble Family Clan would meet annually, ought to be entered on the business agenda at the forthcoming 1919 Gibble Reunion. In the District Meeting Minutes of 1919, delegates representing Elizabethtown College and the Church, consisting of J. H. Kline, H. H. Nye, and Jacob Gibble Meyer, stressed directly to the District Conference, an urgent need for a science building. The proposed need for a science building was received by the Gibble Family and District Meeting Conference with favorable disposition, but not without some mixed feelings.

An article from the campus newspaper, "Our College Times," dated October 1919, points out that during the summer of 1919, Jacob Gibble Meyer was engaged in the solicitation of financial gifts for the erection of a new science building. During the same year, when the Gibble Family Reunion was held, not only those who were present but those absent were urged to give liberally for the new construction. Again in the summer of 1920, Mrs. George Fraser (formerly Bernice Gibble, S. S. Gibble's daughter), S. S. Gibble, and Jacob Gibble Meyer solicited members of the Gibble Clan who were living in Ohio and Illinois.

During the administration of President H. K. Ober from 1918 to 1921, Elizabethtown College was confronted with the problem of standardization. To develop the necessary facilities for extended curricula, a campaign to raise $400,000 was initiated by the Trustees and Administration of the College. R. W. Schlosser, who was serving as dean at the time, was selected as Endowment Campaign Manager. A successful three-year campaign ended in January of 1921. At this time a report from the Campaign Committee including R. W. Schlosser, Elder I. W. Taylor, and Elder G. N. Falkenstein, indicated that a grand total of $425,000 was given and pledged for the proportional expansion of new accommodations for a growing student body, which at that time numbered 260 in the academy and 55 in the college.

It was during the Administration of Jacob Gibble Meyer, who served as president from 1921 to 1924, that the greatest administrative and academic event in the history of the College occurred. The total curriculum was revised and standardized. This transition included the approval of five standardized courses with each course leading to the granting of the Baccalaureate degree. Attendant to the accumulation of funds when standardization was being effected, representatives from the College and the Gibble Family were meeting with the architect to formulate "working drawings" as a memorial to the Gibble Family Association. Records disclose that a steady flow of allocated financial gifts were being received by College officials from members of the Gibble Clan.

After being out of office for several years as president of the College, Dr. H. K. Ober returned as head of the institution for the second term. A new building committee was formed. Serving on this committee were John M. Gibble on his way to the Gibble Science Building Committee Meeting, 1927.

John H. Gingrich, John M. Gibble, A. C. Baugher, and Dr. H. K. Ober, Chairman. The architect's plans were approved and finalized by the Trustees of the College. In the month of July 1927, ground-breaking ceremonies were conducted with President H. K. Ober officiating. Construction work began soon after the groundbreaking event. Dedication services were conducted on May 26, 1928. The new structure was named the Gibble Science Building. It consisted of a large brick two story rectangular shaped building, 45 feet by 90 feet, costing approximately $35,000. The first floor contained two large laboratories, one large lecture room, a classroom, and other offices. The second floor provided space for the departments of Biology and Chemistry, with two chemistry and three physics laboratories, stock rooms and offices. In addition to these rooms, there was a large lecture room on the second floor. All the laboratories were equipped with adequate furnishings and fixtures. The building did not provide a large enough lecture hall for an increasing family group, but did satisfy a long-time needed facility.

With a rising tide of demand, the enrollment of students, at Elizabethtown College continued to surge far beyond the expectations of the college administrators. Changing cultural and economic patterns in American life within a period of the past thirty years, "far exceeded the changes which occurred during the past several thousand years." This interpretation was given by scientists who study and analyze the nature and conditions inherent in change. Again, the role of the Liberal Arts, independent church-related College, comes into strong focus as its relevance is defined in the meeting of human needs. The history of the College since its inception is one of consistent growth and strength. As more students matriculate in colleges, the need for additional faculty personnel and facilities increase in proportion. With an increase in student matriculation at Elizabethtown College of nearly 200% during the decade years from 1945 to 1955, the College again was confronted with the need to evaluate its sources of potential help from a growing and diversified constituency, especially those who were interested in the support and promotion of the independent institution of Christian Higher Education.

After a careful survey of the needs and future of the College by the Trustee Board and Administration, action was taken to embark on a ten-year development program, beginning in 1954 to raise $1,000,000. One phase of this program included the extension of the Gibble Science Building. Following the formation of a Master Campus Plan by Dr. A. C. Baugher, president of the College, he appointed a Committee consisting of members of the instructional staff to define the needs for space and equipment essential for instruction in the physical sciences. The services of J. Alfred Hamme, Architect from York, Pennsylvania, were engaged. Specifications for a west wing annex to be added to the original Gibble Science Building were approved. A Committee known as the Gibble Planning and Building Committee was formed to serve as liaison for the Gibble Family Association and the College. Serving on this Committee were Rufus K. Eby, Chairman, Christian W. Gibble, Vice Chairman, Harry L. Gibble, S. Clyde Weaver, Dr. A. C. Baugher, President of Elizabethtown College, and Robert S. Young, secretary. The latter two members of the Committee were members also, of the College Administration. The architect's plans were presented to the Gibble Reunion in August of 1956. In a majority vote the members of the clan who were in attendance approved the giving of financial resources to the extent of $70,000 towards the extension of the Gibble Science Building Annex. As the result of a solicitation of the Gibble Clan, and friends, they contributed slightly more than $72,000. Construction work on the extension of the building started June 6, 1957, with a contract that was let to the firm of Ray Klump, Inc., Lancaster, Pennsylvania, costing a total of $201,954.84. This new annex is a red brick structure, 55 feet by 88 feet, buttressed by structural steel, which doubles the space for instruction, laboratories, and visiting lecturers.

Committee responsible for the Annex to the Gibble Science Building: r-l. Rufus K. Eby, Dr. A. C. Baugher, College President, Christ W. Gibble, Robert S. Young, College Secretary, S. Clyde Weaver, Harry L. Gibble, K. Ezra Bucher, College Treasurer.

A dedication service for the new Gibble Science Building Annex was held September 24, 1958, on the campus of Elizabethtown College. The scripture lesson for the service of dedication was Job 28. Dr. E. Fay Campbell presented the dedication address, "The Role of the Church—related College Today." The following excerpt is taken from the program folder as a monument to the devotion of a people: "We dedicate this New Annex to all who seek Thy Truth, O God, and gladly acknowledge the generosity of many friends who made this building possible: to the Gibbles, the Brinsers, the Withers and a host of; others who through the years have manifested an interest in the youth and learning. We dedicate this building to their memory."

Gibble Family to Launch $70,000 Campaign For Adding West Wing to Science Building

Campus representatives of the Gibble family discuss the proposed addition to the science building. Seated: Robert S. Young, administrative assistant, and Bonnie Gibble, sophomore. Standing: Jay Gibble, senior, and John Hollinger, sophomore.

Latest Project In College Program

THE SOON-TO-BE-LAUNCHED Gibble fund-raising campaign for $70,000 to add a west wing to the science building is the newest aspect of the Ten-year Development Program.

The decision to undertake this campaign was reached at the recent meeting of the Gibble Study and Planning Committee. Members of the committee are: the Rev. Christ W. Gibble, chairman, Manheim; the Rev. S. Clyde Weaver, Lancaster R. D. 3; Rufus K. Eby, Palmyra; Harry L. Gibble, Harrisburg R. D. 8; Henry Gibble, Lititz, and Robert S. Young, secretary, Hershey R. D. 2.

Building Inadequate

The Gibble Science building, erected in 1927, was constructed with provisions for expansion.

With the present student body double that for which the building was originally erected, the addition of a new wing becomes imperative. The Gible "Freundschaft" (family) is undertaking the campaign for funds for this phase of the development program. Blueprints of the west wing have been drawn by an architect and are awaiting the approval of the board of trustees.

Another Bronze Tablet

Meanwhile, the over-all Development Program has received subscriptions totaling $331,000 treasurer K. Ezra Bucher reports.

For the remainder of the calendar year, he states, "the activity of the development office will be to re-contact those people who requested that they be called upon at a later date." A bronze tablet, introducing the Gible Science building phase of the Development Program, is being prepared.

Enthusiasm Shown

The development office reports that payments on subscriptions designated to be met periodically are being sent to the office promptly and that new subscriptions are being received indicating an active interest in the expansion program of Elizabeth-town college.

BIRTHS

1. The first step in the process of the scientific method is to make an observation or ask a question.

2. Next, a hypothesis is made, which is an educated guess or prediction about what you expect to happen.

3. Then, you design an experiment to test your hypothesis. This involves identifying the variables and controlling for other factors.

4. After conducting the experiment, you collect data and analyze the results to see if they support or refute your hypothesis.

5. Finally, you draw a conclusion based on your findings and communicate your results to others.

6. The scientific method is a systematic approach to investigating natural phenomena and is used by scientists in all fields of study.

7. It is important to note that the scientific method is not a linear process and often involves multiple iterations and refinements.

8. The goal of the scientific method is to gain a better understanding of the natural world and to develop theories that can explain and predict natural phenomena.

9. The scientific method is a cornerstone of modern science and is essential for the advancement of knowledge in all fields of study.

10. By following the scientific method, scientists can ensure that their findings are based on objective evidence and are not influenced by personal biases or preconceptions.
