THE GRIGGS COAT OF ARMS

PREFACE

THE earliest colonial ancestors bearing the name of Griggs, settled in Massachusetts, Virginia and North Carolina. The New England families descended from George and Thomas who arrived from England about the year 1635. The Virginia emigrants were transported by different individuals and each Griggs settled in a different county. From Virginia the descendants of the colonists moved to Putnam County, Georgia, and from thence scattered through the Southern states and later to the West and Southwest.

The original settlers in Massachusetts found their offspring moving to Connecticut, or New Hampshire, and then to New York, and later to Michigan, Ohio and the West and Northwest. The extensive New Jersey family originally came from Long Island and Westchester counties, New York. Many of the Ohio families descended from the New Jersey pioneers. The North Carolina family descended from Robert who came with his wife Alice from England in 1678. A later North Carolina family was that of Samuel who immigrated from Kings County, New York, and who died in Craven County in 1750.

The military and civil records of the country bear witness to the prominence of men and women bearing the honored name of Griggs. In six wars have the soldiers of this family found distinction and in civil and political life the name is found pre-eminent in every state and territory.

I.

GRIGGS OF ENGLAND

THE first legal record of the Griggs name in England is found in Muskett's Suffolk Memorial Families, in which data is given of John Griggs¹ who died in Suffolk County, 27 April, 1497. His son, William Griggs,² yeoman, of Stansfield, married Catherine Browne. He died in April, 1515, and his wife died 15 June, 1520. He left three sons, Robert, William and Edmund. The male line of the family descends as follows:

ROBERT GRIGGS³ of Brockley, son of William, married Joane, daughter of John Davey. Robert died 27 September, 1562, and had

1. ROBERT.

2. HENRY, who died 29 October, 1574. His son

THOMAS GRIGGS,⁴ died 7 July, 1600, leaving wife Anne, and a son

HENRY GRIGGS,⁵ who married Susan Stebon. His will was proven 15 June, 1570. His son

JAMES GRIGGS⁶ died before 1677. He married Frances Hammond.

About 1700, some of the Suffolk County family settled in Cornwall, and several members of the same line removed to New England and Virginia. Other Griggs are found in Gloucestershire, Essex and Devonshire.

The arms of Griggs according to Burke's General Armory are thus described:

ARMS: Gules upon two feathers argent; two feathers of the field; upon the escutcheon is a hemlet with mantling gules and argent.

CREST: A wreath of the colors, in front of two feathers crossed satterwise gules, a sword in pale unfilled with a leopard's face proper. Motto: "Secundo curo."

A list of early emigrants from England to America follows:

GRIGGS OF VIRGINIA

MEMBERS of the Griggs family in Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia and other southern states, are the descendants of three early settlers in Virginia who arrived from England before the year 1640.

These three were Thomas, John and Michael. The exact date of John's arrival has not been ascertained but in February, 1645, he was given a house and land in York County. His widow Marjorie remarried as early as September 20, 1655, when she was united to Captain William Hay, sheriff of the county. Their marriage contract mentions two Griggs children John and Marjorie. The younger John Griggs died in 1676, when it is stated that ("six gallons of cider and six gallons of rum were used at the funeral, the expense of which was equal to 1,750 lbs. of tobacco.") Another John in York County, evidently John the third, married in 1680, Elizabeth, widow of Dr. Peter Clovier.

Michael Griggs, of Lancaster County, is styled a gentleman in his will dated April 17, 1687. He mentions his father-in-law and his wife, Ann Griggs.

Thomas Griggs, who arrived in Elizabeth City County from England in 1673, had been transported to the colony at the age of sixteen. The evidence is manifest that nearly all the Griggs of the southeastern portion of Virginia descended from this Thomas.

The record of Elizabeth City County for 1704 show that Arthur Griggs, Anthony Griggs and William Griggs were farmers in that vicinity. The first census taken by the United States in 1785, gives the following heads of families of the name Griggs.

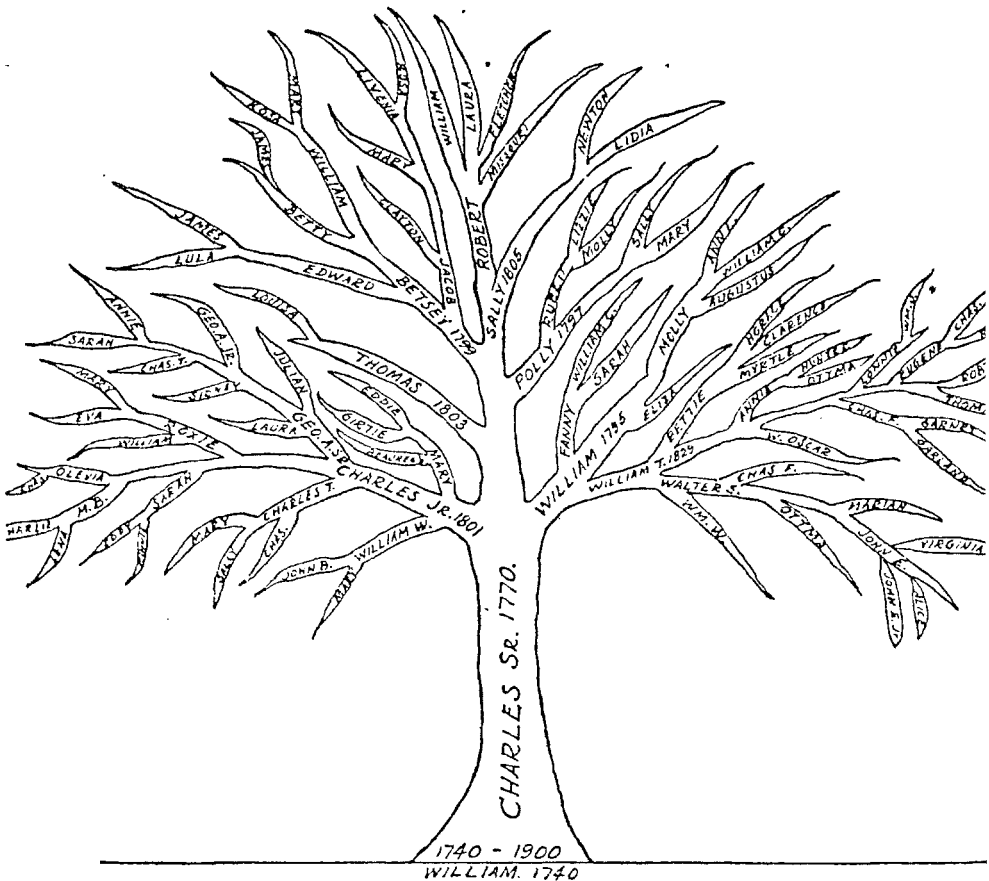

Princess Anne County
