INTRODUCTION

In this our Bicentennial year as we pause to reflect upon our nation's history, it seems appropriate to remember those who made our country great - the people - families like ours. With this idea in mind, this book was written.

Shortly after the Battle of Hastings in 1066, when William of Normandy, known as William the Conqueror, defeated King Harold of England, many of the people of Normandy crossed over into conquered England. Among those was one Edward De Gresse and his son Edward. Edward, the elder, was with William at the Battle of Hastings.

After the De Gresse's became citizens of England, the French prefix "De" was dropped and to distinguish them as land owners, the "ham" was added. Under this modified name, a Coat of Arms, which distinguished and dignified the family for many generations, was conferred upon them.

The Coat of Arms consisted of a grasshopper on a green sword, "Gres" meaning green and the hopper indicating the activity of the family in their devotion to the King. Its use, as shown by records, is the evidence that the Greshams are the descendants of the De Gresse's. A golden grasshopper can be found atop the Royal Exchange in London, in memory and honor of its founder, Sir Thomas Gresham.

During the twelfth century, Edward Gresham, presumably a descendant of the De Gresse's, founded the town of Gresham in Norfolk Co, England. From this Edward, the Gresham family is traced to Surrey Co, to London and thence to America.

It is the aim of this book to present, in as clear a manner as possible, the record of the Gresham family in England and the New World and their pioneer spirit as they moved westward through the new land. Because of the passing of time and the ravages of wars, these records must, of necessity, be incomplete. This volume will record only one branch of this large and interesting family. Others, Mrs. W. H. Bagwell, Alexander Taylor Strange and Thomas Gresham, have published books on other branches.

It is hoped that this book gives much pleasure and enjoyment to those who read and study it. As in most works of this nature, many facts have been omitted, but we believe that the facts as presented are authentic. Any errors that appear are purely errors on the part of the author and we are truly sorry for them.

To everyone who assisted in the task of compiling this family history, we extend a grateful "Thank You."

We want to especially thank the following for their many contributions; W. R. Akers, George Gresham family; Mary Rice Clingan, the Rice family; Larry E. Gresham, Thomas Gresham family; Mrs. Marvin S. Gresham, William H. Gresham family; Mrs. Jaunita Halford, John R. Gresham family; Mrs. Ella Isbell, the Edward D. Gresham family; Bruce and Maudie Killen, the Killen family; Mance W. and Thomas A. This cemetery is located on a hill just above Mackey Creek and just north of Bay Springs (Gresham Mills) Site, in Tishomingo Co, Miss, near where Highway 104 cross the creek. George Gresham (58) and Margaret Files (his wife) are bur here along with many descendants.

CANAAN METHODIST CHURCH AND CEMETERY

It is located on Smithsonia-Rhodes road about 15 miles west of Florence, Ala. It was built prior to 1840. During the Civil War, a skirmish took place here between Federal and Confederate troops on the church grounds. Bullet holes can still be seen in the belfry and front pews. During the winter of 1865, Federal troops were billeted in the church. The church and cemetery are located on the Winston P Rice (197) lands.

DID YOU KNOW THAT -

- One of the first to "fall" in World War I was a Gresham? He was Corporal James B Gresham of Evansville, Ind. He was killed at Luniville, France, Nov 2, 1917, while the First Division was supposedly in a "safe and quiet" area.

- in the first census of the U S in 1790, there were 22 heads of families named Gresham, with a total of 106 Greshams?

- thirteen Greshams from Virginia served in the Revolutionary War among them Thomas (48) and John (47) of our line?

- A Gresham was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor? John Chowning Gresham (a descendant of the emigrant Edward Gresham (36) and a distant cousin to Thomas (36) was appointed the Medal of Honor "for distinguished gallantry" in volunteer leading a party to dislodge Indians at Wounded Knee Creek, S Dak, July 30, 1862.

- A Gresham was Postmaster General of U S and Secretary of Treasury of U S? Walter Quinton Gresham (a descendant of Lawrence Gresham who came to America from England in 1753) was appointed in April 1883 as Postmaster General and in Sept 1883 was appointed Secretary of Treasury. He was from Indiana.

- the first Gresham in America came as early as 1635? Edward Gresham, son of Sir Edward Gresham came to Virginia on the "William and John Rowland Longram" in 1635. He was soon followed by his brother John who came on the "Thomas Henry Travener" in 1639. John settled in Maryland and Edward in New Kent Co, Va.

- the name Gresham has several spellings; Gresham, Grisham, Grissam and Grissom. I believe they all originated as Gresham in England.

- a Gresham was an ambassador to the Netherlands? Sir Thomas Gresham son of John (7) Gresham was appointed by Queen Elizabeth I of England to serve as the ambassador to Netherlands. Sir Thomas was knighted in 1559 and was founder of "Greshams Law" which deals with "good and bad" money. He was also the founder of the Royal Exchange of London.

THE LARIMORE HOME

This home located on Mars Hill Road in Florence, Ala is a popular landmark in the Muscle Shoals area of Northern Alabama. It was built in 1870 by Theophilus Brown Larimore, on twenty-seven acres of land inherited by his bride of two years, Julia Esther Gresham (109).

The Larimore's selected the site for the spacious 12 room home and framed it of virgin oak, elm, beech and hickory. They insisted that the "sills should be very heavy, of the very best material, and securely fastened together, so as to successfully resist time, as well as tornadoes, should tornadoes ever pass this way."

The restoration of this stately home was completed in 1971 and serves as a useful facility for worthy purposes.

On June 29, 1975, the portrait unveiling of the pictures of Theophilus Brown Larimore and Esther Gresham Larimore took place in this fine home. Artist - Dorothy McDonald
