Jonathan Gillet being the first generation in the Colony is designated thus-Jonathan 1 , his children are of the second generation and so Cornelius 2 , etc., down to the present generation.

Special thanks is due Mrs. Dewey, Curator of The Salmon Brook Historical Society of Granby, Conn., for all the assistance given me on the Gillet/Gillett/Gillette families from that area. Also, to my husband and sons who have contributed many, many hours of help and encouragement on this project the past ten years.

INTRODUCTION

The study of history has always fascinated me. No doubt it was inspired by the many interesting stories related to me, as a child, by my Quaker grandmother, Arletta (Rockhill) Gillet. She told of her early life in Ohio with her family, their journey from Ohio to Kansas in the early 1870's in an ox-drawn covered wagon, also about the Gillet family in Ohio and their pioneer life in Kansas in the early 1850's.

In recent years, while living near excellent genealogy libraries, I began in earnest the research on my paternal side of the family. The task has been time consuming but a pleasant one. Many, many hours were spent collecting data and other pertinent material. It has involved trips to different areas of the country to search church records, court records, manuscripts, vital statistics, military records, family Bibles and also headstones in cemeteries. Countless letters were written to collect data on families, but all of this has been most rewarding.

No doubt some errors will escape detection in this publication even though every endeavor has been made to be accurate. Dates are always subject to errors as vital statistic dates and dates on headstones do not always agree with family Bible records. To find an error is good but to correct it is better still.

Always I have been interested in who my ancestors were, and where they came from. Perhaps this material will be of help to future generations who also might be inquisitive as to their progenitors. To all who have aided me in this endeavor, I feel a lasting obligation and by their assistance have been able to prepare a more detailed genealogy on our line of this French Huguenot family.

The de Gylet/Jillit/Gillet/Gillett/Gillette family has been in America since 1630, ten years after the landing of the Mayflower at Plymouth. The Huguenot Emigration to America says William Gyllett, an ancestor of the Gillett family in America, is believed to have come from the town of Bergerac, Guyenne Province, France. In consequence of his continuing to preach the gospel he was banished, his property confiscated and his life put in eminent danger. The Gilletts fled from France to Scotland during the reign of King Henry II. It is believed that they remained in Scotland almost thirty years before some of the family removed to England.

A Jacques de Gylet was at the massacre of the French Protestants on St. Bartholowmew's Day, 24 August 1572. He fled to Scotland with his family and resided there. Later some of the Gillet family are found in England, so it is believed the Rev. Jacques de Gylet was the father of the Rev. William Gyllett, the Rector of Chaffcombe Parish, Somersetshire, England, in 1610. A Captain William Gillett was born February 1632, and married on 16 August 1678, to Katherine Morgan, the daughter of Capt. James Morgan, of Garth, Wales. Captain Gillett served in the Irish Wars of 1690-91, and was killed in the battle of Aughium on 12 July 1691, probably Also, there is a in charge of the French Huguenot Cavalry. record in the French Church, Spital Fields, London, England, of the marriage of Jacques de Gylet, a Bergerac Minister, to Jeanne Mestre, dated 11 October 1610. So it seems the Gylet/ Gylletts of Scotland and England must have been related.

After the Rev. William Gyllett arrived in England he was instituted to Rector of Chaffcombe, County Somerset, on the 4th of February 1609-10. He died early in 1641, as his will was proved on the 16th of April of that year. (16) The New York Genealogical and Biographical Record of October 1910, pp. 282-283, gives clues from English Archives contributing to American Genealogy and it lists "Will of William Gyllett of Chaffcombe, Co. Somerset, dated 1641.* (*op. cit. XVII, No.I) my daughters Hebiah and Mary. Land which my son Nathan made over to me by letter of Attorney. My son, William, the next reversioner of said land, shall surrender his estate (therein) unto Thomas when requested thereunto. I give and bequeath unto my son Jeremiah my chattel (lease) of court To all my children in England I give two silver spoons apiece. I give and bequeath unto my son William and his heirs my land called Bomers lease, on condition that he do pay out of the same one annuity of twelve pounds, vitz., to my daughter Hebiah 4 pounds, to my daughter Mary 4 pounds, and to my son Jeremiah 40 shillings. To Thomas, Jeremiah, Mary and Hebiah each of them one chayre and one frame stool. The rest of my goods I give to my son William, whom I make my executor, Mr. Joseph Greenfield, Mr. Luffe, my brother Richard, and my kinsman Henry Hutchins overseers, signed (William Gyllett). Witnesses none. Proved 16 April 1641, by (Taunton Wills, 1641, file 13)." An inventory was taken by Thomas Palmer and Lawrence Seley, two of William Gyllett's parishioners, and lists the value of the estate as 259 pounds, 14 shillings, 8 six-pence, which included 13 pounds of silver plate and an equal sum for books. It is thought by many genealogists that this phrase "to all my children in England," probably meant William had other children, unmentioned, who were not in England in 1641, and to whom he had presumably given their portion when they left home for the Colony. English Records show that the Rector of Chaffcombe had a son named Elias, who was not mentioned in the will, even though he was an Oxford graduate and presumably a credit to the family. This record is from the Alumni Oxonienses 1500-1714, by Joseph Foster, Oxford 1891, Vol. 2, pp 568: "Gillet, Elias, s. of William of Chaffcombe, Somerset, sacerd. (Clergyman). New Inn Hall, matriculated 7 May 1632, age 20; B.A. 7 June 1632; M.A. 23 April 1635." Elias Gillet was probably the father of another Rev. Elias Gillet, of Christ Church College, Oxford, ordained deacon 19 Sept. 1675, and priest 20 December 1679, and instituted to Rector Misterton, County Somerset, on 15 Feb. 1680-81. The second Rev. Elias Gillet died in 1703 and was the father of another clergyman, William Gillett, who matriculated at Wadham College, Oxford, 7 March 1703-04, age 18; B.A. 1707. (16)

Charles Banks, Topographical Dictionary of 2885 English Emigrants to New England, 1620-1650, lists pp 139, "Jonathan and Nathaniel Gillet, Chafcombe Parish, Somersetshire, England on the ship 'Mary and John' in 1630, to Dorchester, Massachusetts." It is thought another brother, Jeremiah, came to the Colony also. So three of William Gillett's sons had left England for the New World, however, Jonathan and Jeremiah made a return trip back to England.

No doubt Jonathan, Nathan and Jeremiah Gillet left England for the Colony because Charles I ruled as an absolute and irresponsible monarch in England, and Puritans and dissenters were crushed with despotic cruelty. Civil and religious liberty could not be had in England, but it might be found in the Colony. That was the spur that drove thousands across the seas. About three hundred of the best Puritan families in the Kingdom came to the New World. They were not adventurers or vagabonds, but brave, virtuous, courageous, well-educated men and women, who for conscience's sake left comfortable homes with no expectation of ever returning.

Among those who took the hazardous voyage in 1630 was a band of Puritans, one hundred and forty from Devonshire and adjoining counties in Southern England. Jonathan and Nathan Gillet were among this group who assembled at the "New Hospital," in Plymouth, England, on 30 Jan. 1630. The Rev. John Warham of Exeter formed the church group and Rev. John Maverick was the teacher. They sailed on the ship "Mary and John" and arrived at Nantasket (now Hull), Massachusetts on the Lord's Day, 30 May 1630, after several weeks voyage. (17)

After landing, the Puritans were obliged to shift for themselves as best they could. Food was scarce but there was plenty of fish, muscles and clams from the streams. The Puritans traded with the Indians who came with baskets of corn and consequently had a variety of food.

Jonathan Gillet came to the Colony a bachelor in 1630, by 1633, he had returned to England, and during this time he married. In the Parish Register of St. Andrew's Church at Colyton, Devonshire, England, appears this marriage record: "1634 Jonathan Gillett and Mary Dolbiar, 29 March." (16)

Mary Dolbiar/Dolbere was baptized at Colyton on 7 June 1607, the daughter of Rochy/Rochee and Mary/Marie (Mytchell) Dolbiar, yeoman, Chadhayne Parish, Colyton, England. Mary/Marie Mytchell was the daughter of John of Barretshayes. (16)

Perhaps Jonathan Gillet and Mary Dolbiar were betrothed before Jonathan's first trip to the Colony in 1630, or the marriage might have been arranged after he returned to England. By 1634, the bride and groom were back in the Colony. Henry Stiles', History of Ancient Windsor, Connecticut gives an account of the Gillet family and he says there is in the possession of a Windsor family a copy of the Geneva Edition of the Bible, dated 1599, and was brought to New England by Jonathan Gillet, Sr., and contains the following record: "my father Gille(tt) came into new-inglan the secon time in June in the yeare 1634, and Jonathan his sonne was born about half a year aftur he cam to land." (57)

Jonathan Gillet must have come to New England on his first trip in 1630, to 'spy out the land' and having found the land good returned to England to acquire a wife and together they returned to the Colony in the spring of 1634.

Jonathan Gillet was made a freeman of the Massachusetts Bay on 6 May 1635. His brother, Nathan, became a freeman on 14 May 1634.

This notice appeared in the Dorchester town record on 17 April 1635, "it is graunted to Jonathan Gillett to fence in halfe an acre of ground about his house, leaving sufficient highway and four more acres over against Fox Point,....."

Of the forty heads of families of the Dorchester Company who came on the "Mary and John" thirteen remained permanently in Dorchester, twenty-three removed to the site of Windsor, Connecticut, with Rev. Warham in the migration of 1635-36, and four settled elsewhere in Massachusetts.

In the fall of 1635-36, sixty men, women and children from the Puritan settlements of Dorchester and Watertown traveled through the forests to join the Colony planted by Captain William Holmes at what is now Windsor, Connecticut. During previous summers a few pioneers had explored the beautiful valley and their report stimulated migration.

The exodus from Massachusetts Bay began late in October when frost and snow-flurries forcast an early winter. With oxen for tillage and beasts of burden, and cows for production of food these emigrants made their way on foot through pathless woods a hundred miles or more. Wading miry swamps, climbing rugged hills, fording swift streams, and carrying the smaller children over the rugged terrain, the settlers reached their destination at the Connecticut Valley, then blanketed with snow. (42)

At Windsor these emigrants built log huts in the snow, and here they passed a dreary, bitter, cold winter in great privation. Snow fell to great depths, many cattle suffered and perished for want of food. The settlers were threatened with the horror of a famine. In the face of this impending peril many of them made their way to the mouth of the river in vain expectation of finding their food-bearing vessel, which had been beaten to pieces on the rocks. While almost despairing, another vessel appeared in which they sailed to Boston. The settlers whom they left behind existed much of the time on acrons, indian corn and malt until spring opened and supplies were sent to them from Massachusetts.

From the birth records of Jonathan Gillet's children, we find this family made the trip to Connecticut during the summer of 1639. His daughter Anna was born at Windsor on 29 December 1639, and was specificially called in the Windsor Church Records, "Jonathan Gillet's first-born at Windsor." This group of Puritans, a hundred or more men, women and children walked through the wilderness. They lived on milk furnished by the cattle they drove with them and were fourteen days making the journey. They reached their destination on the banks of the Tunxis (now Farmington) and Connecticut Rivers in the latter part of June at what is now Windsor. (17)

Jonathan and Mary (Dolbiar) Gillet were included in Matthew Grant's Church List (Congregational) made thirty-seven years after settlement of "the twenty-one members who were so in Dorchester and came up with the Rev. Warham and are still of us." Jonathan and Mary Gillet were members number 16 from Dorchester. Jonathan paid 6 shillings to sit in the long pews and he gave 4 shillings to the Fund in Aid of suffering by the Indian War at Simsbury and Springfield, and was one of the Committee of distribution. (57)

In 1639, Jonathan Gillet was granted a lot at Windsor, Connecticut containing over 4 acres of land. Nathan Gillet's lot was on the West side and paralleled Jonathan's. Nathan joined the Church at Windsor 29 August 1641. He was granted 50 acres of land near Simsbury on 12 October 1671, for his services in the Pequot War. Nathan Gillet married Elizabeth ____, she died at Simsbury, Conn., 21 Feb. 1670, and he died between 1688-92, at Simsbury. Their known children were:

- 1. Elizabeth born 6 Oct. 1639, married Nathan Goddard.
- 2. Abiah born 22 Aug. 1641, m Isiah Bartlett, 3 Dec. 1663.
- 3. Rebecca born 14 June 1646, died 13 July 1655.
- 4. Elias bapt. 1 July 1649, m Sarah Griffin, 29 Oct. 1676,(2) Rebecca Kelsey, dau of Mark.

- 8. Rebecca born 8 December 1657.

Jeremiah Gillet received a grant of 50 acres of land at Simsbury, Conn., in May 1674 (1678?). He was in England at the time of his father's death in 1641, it is not known when or if he returned to the Colonies. A Sgt. Jeremiah Gillet born ca 1650, died 24 March 1707-08, at Simsbury, Conn., is believed to be a son of this earlier Jeremiah Gillet. (2)

Jonathan Gillet was chosen Constable of the Settlement at Windsor on 16 February 1665. He also served on the County Court Jury at Windsor for seventeen years beginning ca 1660. Jonathan Gillet was born either in Scotland or in England ca 1600, and died at Windsor on 29 August 1677. His will was dated on 8 August 1677, and proved on 6 September 1677. His widow Mary Gillet died at Windsor, Connecticut, on 5 January 1685-86. Some records give Mary's death as 14 May 1681.

An inventory of Jonathan Gillet's estate was taken by Matthew Grant, John Loomis and John Moore on 31 August 1677, and lists the estate worth 273 pounds plus. The will dated 8 August 1677, mentions that Jonathan's son, Josiah, was to care for his mother's estate while she was living and after her death it should be his, except 4 acres which was to go to son, Jeremiah, plus 6 acres in "ye second meadow." If Jonathan and Mary should die within four (4) years after the date of the will, son, Josiah, was to pay the following legacies to his brothers and sisters - to Jonathan Jr., 4 lbs.; to Peter Brown's wife, 2 lbs.; and to Samuel Fyll's (Filley) wife, 2 lbs.; and to the two children of son, Joseph, decs., the little grandson, Jonathan, was to have 5 lbs., and "ye garle 5 1bs." To son, John, 3 acres of one plot of land, and 6 acres of another parcel without bounds. Son, Jonathan was to have 20 acres of woodland joining the 20 acres next to Thomas Barbour, 10 acres which Jonathan Jr. had bought. Jonathan and Cornelius, sons, were to have 11 acres without West bounds of Windsor. Wife, Mary, was the executrix. The will was signed by - Jonathan Gillet. The witnesses---Matthew Grant and Nathaniel Chauncey. No mention was made of Jonathan's deceased son Samuel. (45)

The descendants of these three Gillet brothers, Nathan, Jonathan and Jeremiah, remained in and around Windsor, Simsbury and Wethersfield, Connecticut, for the first four or five generations, after which time some started to move to the West - New York, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Maryland, Ohio, Indiana, Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and California.

The children of Jonathan and Mary (Dolbiar) Gillet were: (16)

- married (2)	14 Dec 1676	MIRIAM DIBBLE

Jonathan Gillet was admitted a member of the Windsor Church on 6 April 1662. Mary Kelsey was the daughter of William of Hartford, Connecticut, and was born ca 1634, she died on 18 April 1676. Miriam Dibble, the second wife, was the daughter of Thomas Dibble of Windsor. She was born 19 February 1644-45, and survived Jonathan. (45)

Jonathan Gillet's will dated August 1694, Windsor, Conn. gave to son, William, all his housings and lands within the township of Simsbury, except 5 acres of marsh within the township of Windsor. Also 100 acres of woodland which Jonathan's father gave him that abuts south of the land of Thomas Barbour. He gave to his wife, Miriam the benefit of all his housings and lands in Windsor, except what he had given to son William, until son Jonathan was To his daughter, Mary, 10 shillings; 21 years of age. to daughters Hannah and Miriam, 1/2 part of his moveable estate. His wife, Miriam, was to be the sole executrix. Witnesses were, Henry Wolcott, Sr. and Nathaniel Gillet. The will was proved 5 April 1698. (45) Another account gives the ages of the children at the time Jonathan made his will - William, age 20; Mary Bissel, age 31; Hannah, age 16; Jonathan, age 13; and Miriam, age 10. (45)

"What it meant to Jonathan and Mary (Dolbiar) Gillet and their seven sons and three daughters to live in New England rather than Old England? One thing surely, and for the heaviest part of the price, was that not quite two years before Jonathan died they lost their third son, Joseph age 34, at Deerfield, Massachusetts Bloody Brook Indian Massacre, and eight months and a day later, lost their fourth son, Samuel age 33, at Turner Falls, Massachusetts, battle with the Indians. Both young men had paid with their lives for going to New Settlements along the Connecticut River above the Colony of Connecticut."

Moses Austin⁴, son of Elias³ (Richard², Anthony¹) born 1761, died 1821, obtained a grant from the Spanish Governor to establish an Anglo-American colony in Texas. He died before moving to Texas, so his son, Stephen Fuller Austin, (1793-1836), carried on his father's venture and started the Texas colony. He was prominent in the development of Texas, its seperation from Mexico and the formation of the Republic of Texas. He was the first Secretary of State in 1836, but died shortly thereafter. (3)

ELIZABETH GILLET ⁵	(Joseph	⁴ , Benja	min ³ , John ² , Jonathan ¹) Simsbury, Conn. (13)
- born	14 Oc	t 1743	Simsbury, Conn. (13)
- married	ca	1761	EZEKIEL HOLCOMB
- died	ca	176-	Simsbury, Conn.

Elizabeth (Hayes) Gillet's will #1127, dated 1805, Granby, Connecticut, requested $1.00 be paid her grandson, Ezekiel Holcomb, Jr., at her death. This was the only grandchild mentioned in Elizabeth's will. One Holcomb record mentions Ezekiel Holcomb, Sr., according to one source, was married first to Elizabeth Gillet and the will of Elizabeth (Hayes) Gillet would verify this data.

Ezekiel Holcomb, Sr. and his wife were members of The First Congregational Church, Simsbury, Connecticut, in 1765. After Elizabeth (Gillet) Holcomb's death Ezekiel Sr. married (2) Jemima Griffin, widow of James Adlerman.

Ezekiel Holcomb, Sr. and Junior served in the Revolutionary War, pension file #W21358. In 1777, Ezekiel Jr. was a substitute for his father. He served in the Militia with Capt. Adonijah Burr's Co., Col. Chandler's Regt. at West Point, New York, and six months in the Light Infantry under Captain Henry Ten Eycks Co., Col. Smith's, Regt. Ezekiel Holcomb, Sr. was the son of David and Mehitable (Buttolph) Holcomb, and was born ca 1738, at Salmon Brook, Simsbury, Connecticut, and died in 1805, at Granby, Connecticut.

Child of Elizabeth (Gillet) and Ezekiel Holcomb, Sr.:

Found among the papers of Benoni Gillet of Granby. Connecticut, pensioner of the Revolutionary War.

"whereas great pains have been taken to impress the public mind with the idea that a war in which we are engaged with Great Britain, is extensively unpopular, and that it will not be supported by the people of New England, the undersigned think proper to declare, that while they lament the necessity of a war, they are fixed in the determination to support it, till the attainment of an honorable peace.

JOSEPH GILLET⁵ (Joseph⁴, Benjamin³, John², Jonathan¹)

- born 4 Jun 1753 Simsbury, Conn. (11)

- married (1) ca 1782 MERCY/MARY ROWE

- married (2) 29 Nov 1807 PERSIS ANDRUS (30)

- died 7 May 1836 Norton, Ohio (53)

- buried Wyatt Cemetery, Waldo, Marion County, Ohio
- Revolutionary War 18th Regt. Connecticut Militia

Joseph Gillet was member #218 of The First Congregational Church, Simsbury, Connecticut in February 1785. He married (1) Mary Rowe, daughter of Abijah (Samuel 3, Peter 2, Hugh 1) and Deborah (Forward) Rowe of Simsbury, Conn. Date of their marriage is not known. Mary (Rowe) Gillet was born 26 July 1762, and died 11 January 1806, at Granby, Connecticut. (30) Joseph Gillet served in the Revolutionary War with the 18th Regt. Connecticut Militia with Captain Samuel Hayes' Co. Colonel Pettibone's Regt. (Rev. War Pension File #W7524) One wonders if Joseph Gillet and his family left Conn. because of Joseph's ex-communication from the Church 30 October 1812, for failure to attend services. In any event, about 1817, Joseph Gillet bought land in Delaware County, Ohio, and moved to the frontier with his sons and daughters and their families, settling at Norton, Delaware County, Ohio. (Deed book E, Delaware Co., Ohio - to Joseph Gillet, 650 acres of U.S. Military Lands, dated 1 September 1817).

The marriage of Joseph and Mary (Rowe) Gillet was proven by the settlement of the estate of Abijah Rowe, Probate Record Volume 1, Granby, Connecticut, dated November 1813. No record has been found of Joseph and Mary (Rowe) Gillet's family, most of the data is from census records and Rev. War Pension File #W7524.

Joseph Gillet, Jr. and his family left Connecticut about 1817, emigrating to Pennsylvania before moving on to Ohio, two of his sons were born in Pennsylvania. On 1 September 1817, Joseph Gillet, Jr. bought 243 acres of U.S. Military Lands at Delaware County, Ohio, for $2010.00. (Deed Book 4, pp 85, Delaware County, Ohio). He and his sons built a log cabin and began the task of clearing the land. In 1826, he owned 3 cows and his land was valued at $167.00, for tax purposes. No record has been found when Lucinda (Chapman Gillet died, or where. Laura (Vining) Gillet died 21 April 1855, age 52 years, and is buried in the Lutheran Cemetery at Waldo, Marion County, Ohio.

From Charles Gillet's Civil War Pension File was obtained the maiden name of his mother - Laura Vining. Nancy Gillet is mentioned in Joseph Gillet, Jr. estate papers and she is believed to be a daughter. (Case #733) Also an Adolphus A. Gillet is mentioned who is either a twin to Andrew A. or this could be the same person.

HARVEY HARRY GILLET (Joseph 6, Joseph 5, Joseph 4, Benjamin 3, John 2, Jonathan 1)

- born	11 Jan 1818	, Pa.
- married	15 Nov 1845	ELIZABETH BAKER (25)
- died	8 Apr 1890	Marion Co., Ohio

Harvey Gillet, one of Marlborough township's most prominent citizens, was reared in a log cabin home and what few educational advantages he had in his boyhood were obtained in the local schools. He was member and trustee of the school board and superintendant of the Methodist Episcopal Church Sunday School at Norton for a long period of time. He was a very kind and generous man. Harvey Gillet owned over 1000 acres of land, when he died it took the sale of 500 acres of his property to pay the notes he had signed for those less fortunate. Elizabeth (Baker) Gillet was born 11 January 1818 and died 9 April 1905. She is buried in the Wyatt Cemetery, Waldo, Marion County, Ohio. Credit to Mrs. Cloice Allen Gillett of Delaware, Ohio.

AMASA GILLET ⁶	(Joseph ⁵ , Joseph ⁴ , Benjamin ³ , John Jonathan ¹)
- born	ca	1789-90	Granby, Connecticut
- married	16 Mar	1813	SUSANNAH BURR (30)
- died	16 Dec	1843	Norton, Ohio (23)

Amasa Gillet and Susannah Burr were married in the First Congregational Church, Granby, Connecticut. Amasa and his brother, Joseph Jr., sold 60 acres of land in the First Society, Granby, Connecticut on 1 February 1817, that their honored father, Joseph Gillet, had granted to them. (Granby, Connecticut Land Record 2C, Volume II, pp 423). Amasa Gillet then bought 202 acres of U S Military Lands (Range 19, twp. 2, sec. 2, lot 2) at Delaware County, Ohio 1 September 1817, for the sum of $1010.00, from Thomas Case, Calvin Barber and Benjamin Ely of Simsbury, Connecticut. (Deed book 4, pp 84, Delaware County, Ohio). In 1826, Amasa Gillet owned a horse and three cows and his land was valued for taxes at $138.00. A Chancery Record 11-152, dated 1851, Delaware County, Ohio names the following heirs of Amasa Gillet - Homer; Emeline Warren, wife of Lyman; Elvira; and Julius, a minor; Susannah Edgerton, wife of Jefferson, late Susannah, widow of Amasa Gillet. Susannah (Burr) Gillet is thought to be the daughter of Zebina and Rosannah (Dibble) Burr of Granby, Connecticut and a descendant of Rene Cossitt of Granby. HOMER GILLET 7	(Amasa ⁶ , Joseph John ² , Jonatha	n ⁵ , Joseph ⁴ , Benjamin ³ ,
- born	18 Nov 1824	Delaware Co., Ohio
- married	31 Dec 1845	ELIZABETH THOMAS (25)
- died	18 Dec 1904	Gridley, Kansas ⁽¹⁵⁾

- buried - Teachout Cemetery, Gridley, Coffey Co. Kans.

Elizabeth Thomas was born 8 September 1824, Ohio - probably Butler County - and died 8 June 1901 at Gridley, Kansas. It is thought Elizabeth was the daughter of Morgan (War 1812) and Mary A. Thomas of Norton, Delaware Co., Ohio-listed in the 1840 census. Her parents, according to the 1880 census, were both born in Pennsylvania. Family tradition is Elizabeth had Welsh, French and Indian ancestors. She was a petite woman, with black sparkling eyes and jet black hair, a very beautiful lady.

Elizabeth and Homer Gillet and their children left Ohio ca 1855, moving to some place in The Missouri Territory or in what is now Nebraska. After a short time they moved on because of malaria, and settled at Gridley, Kansas as a deed was recorded at Burlington, Coffey County, Kansas on 26 January 1860, for 120 acres of land (range 14, twp. 22, sec. 8, Deed Book Volume G, 29), this land they bought from Mr. Henry Moore. Elizabeth and Homer gave a parcel of land for the school and this was known as the Gillet School or District #25. Homer Gillet was a small, slender, mild mannered man, and in his later years wore his white hair in a long All his friends called him "The Connecticut Yankee." Elizabeth and Homer Gillet and their sons, Wilson and Benjamin, are buried in the Teachout Cemetery which is located on the high Prairie of Kansas which they helped open to civilization.

Wilson P. Gillet and his two brothers, Freeman and Francis, attended the Gillet (district #25) school. It was here they met the Rockhill girls, Arletta C. and Ladema A., daus. of Adonijah Peacock and Susannah (Parker) Rockhill. Arletta Catherine Rockhill was born 16 October 1854, near Rockport, Allen County, Ohio. With her father, step-mother and family she made the trip from Ohio to Kansas in a covered wagon ca 1872. Arletta (Rockhill) Gillet married (2) 2 June 1893, James M. Shankland, widower, Civil War Confederate Soldier. She died 26 December 1931, at Burlington, Ks. and is buried in the Big Creek Presbyterian Cemetery near Crotty, Kansas. Homer Gillet father of Wilson, had a contract with the government to carry mail via "Pony Express" from Hampden (now Burlington), Kansas to Eldorado, Kansas. His three sons, Freeman, Wilson and Francis, took turns riding their pony on this route. On the way they crossed three rivers, the Verdigris, Fall and Walnut. This was many years before there were roads or bridges across the streams. Traveling at night they might see the flickering light of one or two farm homes. Wilson Gillet was choir leader and superintendent of the locah Church and was active in politics. He and his brother-in-law, Leslie Rockhill, built his home northwest of Gridley about 1888, and it is still being used as a home today, (1970).

HOMER PEACOCK GILLET (Wilson, Homer, Amasa, Joseph, Joseph, Ben., John, Jonathan)

- born 18 Nov 1882 Gridley, Kansas

- married 3 Apr 1911 MABEL ELIZ. CHRISTY

- died 7 Jan 1968 Burlington, Kansas

- buried-Big Creek Presbyterian Cemetery, Crotty, Kansas

Homer Gillet and his brothers had the responsibility of the farm after the loss of their father. During this time, Homer took a correspondence course, studying nights, trying to finish his elementary education. About 1904, Homer and his cousin Edward Gillet, son of Freeman; Charley Carter and his two sons; and John Mitchell left Gridley, Kansas, by train for the Northwest. Their one-way fare was $22.00, each. In 1906-07, Homer returned to Kansas and worked at the Crotty Ranch until his marriage. About 1911, he bought a farm in Neosho township, Coffey County, Kansas and it was here he spent the rest of his life. In addition to farming he also spent several years as Depot Agent for the Missouri Pacific Railroad Company at Crotty.

Mabel (Christy) Gillet is the daughter of William (J.) and Jane (Allen) Christy, early settlers to Coffey County, Kans. from Lehigh County, Pennsylvania. The Christy's and Allen's spent several years in Pennsylvania after coming to America from Londonderry, Ireland. Mabel (Christy) Gillet was born 14 February 1887, near Crotty, Kansas. For several years before her marriage she taught school at Valley District; Big Creek, District #10; Harris District; and Victory, District #92, her home school, all in Coffey County, Kansas.
