FOREWORD

Jonathan, Nathan and Jeremiah Gillet, early settlers of Windsor, Connecticut, were the progenitors of the Gillet family in America. On March 20, 1630, in company with one hundred and forty (140) Puritans from the Counties of Devonshire, Dorsetshire and Somersetshire, England, Jonathan and Nathan sailed with Rev. John Warham and Rev. John Maverick as pastors, in the ship "Mary and John" arriving off Nantasket, Mass. on May 30, 1630. They first settled at Dorchester, Massachusetts, but removed to Windsor, Connecticut in 1636.

The ancestors of Jonathan, Nathan and Jeremiah Gillet were French Huguenots living in Guyenne, Bergerac Province, France. They fled from France about the time of the massacre of the French Protestants beginning on St. Bartholomew's Day, August 24, 1572, during the reign of King Henry II, and went to Scotland. They remained in Scotland about thirty years, and then moved to Devonshire, England.

The descendants of these three brothers remained in Windsor, Connecticut for the first four or five generations, after which time some moved westward, and today the name of Gillette is known all over the United States. The name is spelled Gillett or Gillette, but the original spellings were Gylet or Gillet.

He who careth not wither he goeth
Careth not whence he came

It is indeed desirable to be well descended, but the glory belongs to our ancestors.

The Huguenots were a select class of people, manufacturers and merchants perhaps, the most intelligent and enterprising of Frenchmen in the 17th century. Probably no stock ever came to America so gifted and prepotent as the French Huguenots. Though only a few thousand all told, their descendents furnished 589 of the 14,000 deemed worthy of a place in Appleton's Encyclopedia of American Biography, or eight times their due quota. They had the same affinity for ideals and the same tenacity of character as the founders of New England, but in their French blood they brought sensibility and fervor, and an artistic endowment of their own.

REV. JACQUES de GILLET

Probable ancestor of the Gillettes in America. Fled from France to Scotland at the time of the massacre of the French Huguenots in 1572. Believed to be either the father or grandfather of the Rev. William Gillet (Gylet.)

REV. WILLIAM GILLET

Father of Jonathan and Nathan Gillet. Rector of Chaffcombe, County Somerset, England. Instituted to that benefice on February 4, 1609. Died early in 1641.

Rev. William Gillet's will was proved April 16, 1641. It mentions his daughters Abiah and Mary, and his sons, Nathan, William, Thomas and Jeremiah. It does not mention his son Jonathan, who probably received his bequest before leaving for America in 1630 or at the time of his marriage in England in 1634. His will makes bequests to his "children in England" indicating there were other children in New England.

NOTES ON JONATHAN GILLET (1).

Register of St. Andrew's Church at Colyton, County Devonshire, England, contains the following marriage record:

"29 March 1634 Jonathan Gillet, sonne of Rev. William Gillet, and Mary Dolbere of Colyton, County Devonshire, England."

Jonathan returned to England several years after his first arrival in Massachusetts in 1630 to marry Miss Mary Dolbere, and returned to Dorchester, Massachusetts with her in 1634.

Notation in Bible printed in 1599 "My grandfather Jonathan Gillet came into New England the second time in June in the yeare 1634, and Jonathan, his sonne, was born about half a yeare after he came to land."

Jonathan was made a freeman on May 6, 1635 at Dorchester, Mass.

With the Dorchester Church and Rev. John Warham, Jonathan and his family and his brother Nathan removed about 1636 to Windsor, Connecticut where Jonathan was granted a lot seventeen rods wide near the Rev. Warham's land and across the Poquonnoc Road from Alexander Alvord, also a member of the Dorchester Church group. Later Alexander Alvord's descendent in the 6th generation, Henry Alvord of Bolton, Conn. married Mary W. Gillet of Colchester, Conn. who was of the 6th generation from Jonathan.

Jonathan and his wife Mary were included in Matthew Grant's church list made thirty-seven (37) years after the settlement of twenty-one (21) members "who were so in Dorchester and came up with Rev. 1. JAMES TITUS GILLETT

James Titus Gillett had three brothers, William, Jerome and Charles. His father was a French Presbyterian minister, and his mother a German woman. They were quite aristocratic and well-to-do.

2. RODNEY STEPHEN GILLETT

Rodney Stephen Gillett was born in Albany, New York on Jan. 5, 1833, the fifth child of Lucy(Devereaux) and James Titus Gillett. While still an infant, his parents moved to West Springfield, Penna. and it was there he spent his boyhood days. In the late 1840's the family again moved westward, this time to McHenry County in northern Illinois. Rodney, however, came to northeastern Wisconsin and went to work in the logging industry on the Oconto River.

In 1858 he married Mary Roblee of Clayton, Wisconsin and brought his young bride to a completely furnished log house in what was then the Town of Stiles. In 1868 when the Town of Stiles was divided, the western half was named for Mr. Gillett, since he was a large land holder and an active participant in all affairs of the community. Whether to celebrate the occasion or not, it was that same year that Mr. Gillett built the first frame home in the town named for him. For many years he remained the chairman of the Board of Supervisors. When the village was incorporated in the late 1890's the name was retained, and the man for whom the village was named became its first Mayor.

Mr. Gillett was engaged in farming and lumbering during his entire life. Always a Christian and a public-spirited citizen, he donated land for the first permanent church built in the town. This was the Methodist Episcopal Church of which he was for many years a member, built in 1874. Later he donated land for both the Lutheran and Catholic churches.

One might expect with the opportunity before him, Mr. Gillett might have acquired a fortune, but it offered him no more than a comfortable living. He had a generous spirit with a feeling of responsibility for his fellowman. Always charitably inclined, did ever a person in the community need aid, an appeal to Mr. Gillett brought food and a job, even though the job must be created especially for him. His greatest monument is in the grateful hearts of the many he has befriended.
