INTRODUCTION.

IN endeavoring to place on record the members of the Griffitts family, from our great grandfather up to the present date, so little interest has been shown in the past by any one, keeping even a simple memorandum that it is with much difficulty the following tables have been arranged. Desiring from early boyhood a complete list of the members of our family, I have been prompted to arrange the following tables. The Thomas Griffitts referred to was, I presume, an uncle of Dr. Samuel P. Griffitts as Thomas' daughter Hannah, who died August 24th, 1817, willed part of her property to her cousin, Dr. Samuel P. Griffitts. I therefore infer that Thomas Griffitts was a brother of William Griffitts, father of Dr. Samuel P. Griffitts. These tables are designed to give the dates as far as could be obtained of the births, marriages and deaths of the children of William and Abigail Powel Griffitts and their descendants, making a complete list of all members of this branch of the Griffitts family from 1752 to May 1887. Also a list of all persons bearing the name of Griffitts, and whom they married. Many others by the name have come under my notice in the course of years in trying to learn more about the first members of our family, but I fail to connect them with the branch of which I give an account, some twelve families of our name reside in East Tennessee; others in East Virginia; Waxahachie, Ellis County, Texas; and Missouri. I have endeavored by correspondence to find what branch they belonged to, but have failed. There are cousins living in Indiana, Ohio, California, Iowa, children of Samuel P. Griffitts, formerly of New Jersey, from whence they moved in June, 1846, they are grand-children of James Griffitts, of which a full record is given. William Griffitts, the progenitor of our family, may have had other brothers besides Thomas, of whom I have spoken, who may have been the heads of some of the families noted, but I have been unable to find any records concerning them. I have made an effort to place on record for our posterity, tables extending back one hundred and thirty-five years, giving a correct statement of all families deriving their lineage from William and Abigail Powel Griffitts down to the great-great-great-great-grandchildren of the present time. I heartily thank all who in any way have given me information in my researches. I notice some of the members write the name Powel with two lls. This seems to be a disputed point, but by the kindness of my brother-in-law, Theodore Herbert, of Philadelphia, the records have been hunted up. In brief of title 1693, also Nov. 13, 1775, Thomas Willing to Samuel Powel, will of Elizabeth Powel, May 22, 1819, Samuel Powel, Jr., July 1, 1885, the name in every case is spelt Powel, as Abigail Powel was born 1735, and the name before and after her was spelt with one L, it must be the correct rendering of the name. It is a point undecided in my mind whether William Griffitts the founder of our family was of Welsh descent or not, we have records of Thomas Griffitts (whom I claim was brother to William) being the son of George and Frances Griffitts, of Cork, Ireland, and they both retain the spelling of the name with two tts. It would be a satisfaction if some of the younger members of our family would take up this matter and trace the family back to Cork, where I have no doubt records of George Griffitts' family could be found, prior to their son Thomas' emigration from Jamaica to Philadelphia in 1717.

In regard to others of our name, Nathaniel Griffitts bought land in old Kensington district, Philadelphia. Martin Griffitts emigrated from East Virginia to East Tennessee in 1844, and in 1876 to Texas, where he now resides. In London County, Tenn., there are twelve or more families by the name of Griffitts, others in Rye Valley, East Virginia.

I here then complete my task of giving a correct list of the descendants of the Philadelphia branch, leaving the tracing of the other branches to those connected with them who may take an interest in such matter.
