Introduction

This short and compact outline of the MALE LINES is published and distributed to stimulate interest and enthusiasm in the records of the GAGE FAMILIES. Communicate with the Compiler concerning your particular branch of the family. If you fail to trace your ancestors, do not think it cannot be done, for there are many lines yet to be traced (designated by the letters N. F. D. (no further data) at the end of the line.) Other signs used are: U. N. M., unmarried; N. M., no males; S. P., without male issue; and the dates in italics are only approximate. Whenever information is sent in, answer all or as many of the following questions about EACH GAGE as you can, giving FULL DATES and FULL NAMES whenever possible:

1. What was his (her) full name?
2. What was the full date of his (her) birth?
3. What was the full date of his (her) death?
4. Where were his (her) place of residence?
5. What was the full date of his (her) marriage?
6. What was his (her) wife's (husband's) full name?
7. What was the full date of his (her) wife's (husband's) birth?
8. What was the full date of his (her) wife's (husband's) death?
9. What was his (her) father-in-law's full name?
10. What was his (her) mother-in-law's full MAIDEN name?
11. Give a full list of his (her) children, with full dates of their birth.

Walker Miller Gage, b. Feb. 27, 1879: d. (living) :Johnstown, N. Y.; Chico, Calif., m. June 22, 1905—Carolyn Moore (b. Nov. 13, 1877: d. (living) dau. of John & Henrietta (Moore) Ehle of Johnstown, N. Y.

1. Helen Newcomb Gage, b. May 5, 1906.
2. Walker Miller Gage, b. Sept. 12, 1907.
3. William Francis Gage, b. Mar. 19, 1910.
4. John Frederick Gage, b. June 12, 1918.

There appear to be several branches of Gages, and for convenience are designated as listed on the title page, and are arranged in that order.

The order, as given in the text, is: Generation number; the Christian name of the Gage; the date of his birth; the maiden name of his wife; the place of residence; and numbers to designate his sons.

TO FIND YOUR LINE, recall the oldest GAGE ancestor; the year of his birth; the maiden name of his wife; and the places of residence. Then refer to the respective index (the numbers designating pages,) and having found a particular ancestor you will find numbers at the right and left of the line, and at the top of each column numbers denoting the generations. To trace BACKWARD: find the left hand number (before the name of your known ancestor) and find the same number at the right end of the column of the PREVIOUS GENERATION. To trace FORWARD: take the numbers at the right, and find the same numbers at the left of the NEXT GENERATION.

To illustrate: my ancestor was WILLIAM GAGE, born in 1770; his wife was Ruth Macomber, and they lived at Knox. In the index are many Williams' and several Macombers', but on page 36 they are found together, where William Gage, b. 1770 and his wife was a Macomber, and they lived at Knox, N. Y. To the left of William Gage is No. 33 in the column of the 3rd generation, so by looking at the previous generation, we find No. 27-35 to be the children of JOSEPH GAGE. At the left of Joseph's name is No. 5, and by the same process we find that he was the child of WILLIAM GAGE and Hannah David of Freetown. The same principle applies when tracing forward: No. 33 William Gage had children No. 170-174; No. 170, Wesson Gage and Martha Miller had children, their sons being No. 758-765; No. 758, William M. Gage and Jane Elizabeth Andrews had sons No. 1981-1985 of which, in the 6th generation, No. 1985, William F. Gage, was my father, with three sons, No. 4823-4825.

By mutual cooperation and patient work the record of the GAGE FAMILIES may yet become complete, interesting and inspiring.

"He profits most who serves best."

In that spirit I ask for your assistance.
