HOLLINGSWORTH.

THIS family is of Saxon descent. The estate was purchased A. D., 1022, in N. E. Cheshire, England. The name is derived from the HOLLY TREE and WORTH, (a farm,) location Mottram. The Church of the family and the Hall, both several centuries old, are now standing, the family Arms are on both. The late owner, Capt. Robert Hollingsworth, died in 1865. The building is very much out of repair. It is now owned by a Mr. Taylor of Manchester, and valued at £20,000. (There are 625 acres of land.)

HOLLINGSWORTH,

IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, FROM A. D., 1682 TO 1884.

THIS collection of the families of this name in the United States was commenced by the late Dr. JOHN NEILL of Philadelphia, and a list of the early members was printed in a small pamphlet in 1869. I have collected and added to that list and corrected some errors. I have been largely assisted by the members of many families, and feel very much indebted to them. It would take much time and delay to add more, (some of the branches have reached the tenth generation in the United States.) Members of this family or others, who can obtain lists of any omitted, are requested to send them to Genealogy.

VALENTINE HOLLINGSWORTH, SR.

A member of the Society of Friends, probably born in Cheshire, England, about 1630 to 1640. By tradition he married Catharine, daughter of Henry Cornish, High Sheriff of London, who was executed (unjustly) during the reign of James II, October 23d, 1685.

Valentine H. came to America with William Penn in 1682 with his family. He settled in New Castle County, (now) Delaware, and filled many prominent positions in the colony. He was still living in 1710. No record of his death has been found. His wife Ann died 8th month 17th, 1697, and was buried at New Ark Monthly Meeting. This is probably a wife by a second marriage, her maiden name was Ann Culvert. From his family nearly all of the names in the United States have descended and are very numerous.

Valentine Hollingsworth, Sr., died in 17—. He was buried in the Friends Burying Ground at New Ark Meeting, near his residence, east side of the Brandywine, on the half acre of land given to the New Ark Monthly Meeting in 1687 for a burying place. The Meetings were generally held at his house; from 1686 to 1710, he was the Superintendent of the Monthly Meetings.

He obtained a Patent for 986 acres of land in Brandywine Hundred, New Castle County, Delaware, in 1682. It was surveyed December 27th, 1683, by Thomas Pierson; he gave it the name of New Wark. He disposed of his property before his death, receiving from his sons an annuity until his death. He was a member of the Assembly in 1683, also in 1687 and 1695 from New Castle County, and a Justice of the Peace in 1695 for the same County.

(From Delaware Republican, of May, 1848.)

Died at his residence in Christiana Hundred on the 15th inst., Joel Hollingsworth in the 76th year of his age. The deceased was one of those few individuals whose characteristic trait was a contented disposition, never evincing a desire for more of this world than was sufficient for the maintenance of himself and family, in a plain and comfortable way. He possessed a degree of cheerfulness, calculated to render himself an agreeable and interesting companion to those with whom he associated. His memory was of the most retentive order, and was stored with many novel and interesting traditionary tales and anecdotes, connected with the early settlement of the Brandywine. His conversational powers were great, and he delighted in rendering himself entertaining and interesting to those around him. He retained a few acres of his forefather's estate, which he was enabled to cultivate with his own hands to the last year of his life. He leaves a legacy of good will and friendship to his large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Departed this life the 2nd day of 9th month, 1834, Nathaniel Hollingsworth aged 79 years and 29 days—a highly respected member of the Society of Friends. In recording his death, the writer finds pen and ink inadequate to the task of enumerating the many virtues which adorned his character.

With a temper unruffled by the storms of this life; he passed quietly along through the trials of the world, and has left an example worthy of imitation by all. All his actions were regulated by the precepts of Christianity—he was an affectionate husband and parent, a benevolent and truly valuable neighbor, and a shining ornament to the Society of which he was a member.
