INTRODUCTION.

Hidden from us all, is the future. It is mysterious, uncertain, unreal; except that we sometimes, by the aid of the imagination, project ourselves into it, and so fill our lives with the promise of good or with the threat of evil.

The past is not so. The past is real. For the past lives in us; in it we were born; from it we have been formed, and out of it we have grown. Hence to know ourselves and to know others, we must know the past. But how easily we do forget! And how narrow, in its experience, is each individual life! If we could but broaden and deepen our acquaintance, so as to include every man, woman and child now living, how much fuller of interest would our lives be! And then if we could extend our knowledge so as to comprehend all the past, we should indeed be like gods!

Although we can not possibly know all the past, yet happily we may know much of it. And the more we know of it, the better will we understand the present, and perchance will appreciate one another the more. To this end the human heart has devised many ways, in the hope, that thus also, we might not forget the debt of gratitude we owe to those who lived before us. Thus in the Old Family Bible was written the name of each member of the family, as also the dates of birth, marriages, and death. So also, upon the gravestone do we chisel the names of our loved ones, that all who pass may know. But the most precious of all records is the family album, in which is preserved their very form and visage, whether of innocent childhood, of vigorous maturity, or of helpless old age. How much better and happier are all our homes, because in these records we are constantly reminded of those who lived and toiled and loved that our lot might be better than theirs!

While our own homes and households thus become the centre of kinship, faith and love, ye tilfe may have, and indeed should have a much wider sphere of interest and influence than this.

And, without doubt, an all-wise Creator intended that all should know that "Of one blood were made all races of men;" and that through the workings of His Providence, there might come to us all the vision of Divine interest in our highest good and mutual well-being; and that through the home tie and through family kinship, we should come into the circle, and into the experience of that larger life and that larger family which includes every name and every human interest.

Fortunate are they who can claim kinship to the truly great of former times; and doubly fortunate are they who can prove that claim from the records! The writers of sacred story constantly remind us of this. They found both delight and honor in tracing out, and placing upon record the kinship that existed between the Lord Jesus and David, the shepherd King of Israel; although they were separated from each other by many generations of people, and many centuries of time. So the writers of story in every age, loved to trace the kinship of their heroes and heroines; and sought to leave to future ages the record of their names, their virtues and their achievements.

The author of this volume is, then, amply justified by Holy precedent, and by the universal instincts of the human heart, in undertaking the laborious task of bringing together and cementing firmly, through the tie of kinship, many families unknown to one another and for long years separated the one from the other. To this end, and to the praise of His name may this volume go forth on its mission.

ELDER P. H. BEERY.

Covington, Ohio.

This work contains the Hufford family tree. The writer had many experiences in securing the information contained in these pages, some of them inspiring and helpful, but many of them calculated to cultivate Christian character when viewed in the light of the statement that "tribulation worketh patience." Divine guidance has been asked and no amount of labor and care has been spared to make this work not only interesting and useful, as such a work must necessarily be, but also truthful. The author acknowledges a debt of gratitude to the photographers, the engravers and the printers who put heart and brain into their several departments of the work, as well as to the members of this widely scattered family who so kindly co-operated with the author in his efforts.

The reader will notice that the family name is spelled several ways by different branches of the family. The original German was "Hoffart." This being translated into English has been rendered variously, as follows:

1. Kasper Hoffart, Hoffort, Hoffert, Huffert, Hufford (five spellings).
2. Christian Hufford (one spelling).
3. Phillip Hufford (one spelling).
4. George Hufford (one spelling).
5. Jacob Hufford (one spelling).
6. William D. Hufford and Hufford (two spellings).

The author found a period of time, from 1729 to 1762, in which he could not trace the genealogical tree, but he is confident that the very large number of descendants of the family named herein, as well as others whose names and family records he was unable to secure, can properly claim their ancestry from Christian Hoffart, who came to this country from Schwartzenau, Germany, in 1729.

Members of this family now reside in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Kentucky, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Minnesota, North and South Dakota, Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas, California, Utah, Washington, Montana, Idaho, Oregon and Florida.

This work is biographical and photographic in its nature. The aim of the author has been not to eulogize the members of his family tree, but to bear record of the truth. A great many of the founders of the family can not be represented by their portraits, for the reason that in their pioneer days likenesses were not easily obtained. Besides this, numbers of them did not believe it was right to have pictures at all.

The author desires all the descendants of the family to assist in the distribution of this work, and he humbly prays that his labors will not have been in vain, but will tend to bring the living members of the family into a closer relationship with each other, and will foster in their breasts a desire to emulate the good qualities of the staunch old Christian patriarchs who, by their thrift, integrity and kindness made the Hufford name an honored one throughout the length and breadth of our land.

Mr. Hoffert lays no claim to college training, having simply received a good common school education. He is a simple, unassuming farmer, who, like Cincinnatus of old, felt himself called to a special work, and did the best he could.

DAVID H. SMITH.

AUTHOR'S PREFACE.

This work was begun in 1900 by consent of author's first cousin, Rev. Isaac Hufford, who undertook to write up the Hufford history and said it could not be done. By his consent it was taken up, and the information he had gave the inspiration to undertake the task. In the year 1907, one David Andrew Hufford, printer, was also writing up the Hufford history, but, by his consent, all was surrendered, which gave more inspiration in the work. On the originality of the Hufford name, it had its birth from the following tradition: "A man was driving a four-horse team in a barnyard when two gentlemen were looking on. One made the remark in the German language: 'Hoft-forte.' (In English drove in yard.) Translated, Hoffert.

Mistakes will be found in this work, no doubt, but the author has labored hard to make as few of them as possible. He trusts the reader will pardon those which crept in, knowing they are of the head, not of the heart.

SOLOMON HOFFERT'S DEED.

James Madison, President of the United States of America.
To all to whom these presents shall come. Greeting:

Know Ye. That Solomon Huffert, of Fairfield county, having deposited in the treasury a certificate of the register of the land office at Chillicothe, whereby it appears that he has made full payment for the northwest quarter of lot or section number thirty-four of township number sixteen, in range seventeen, of the lands directed to be sold at Chillicothe by the act of Congress entitled, "An act providing for the sale of the lands of the United States in the territory northwest of the Ohio and above the mouth of Kentucky river, and of the acts amendatory of the same." There is granted by the United States unto the said Solomon Huffert, the quarter lot or section of land above described, to have and to hold the said quarter lot or section of land with the appurtenances unto the said Solomon Huffert, his....., heirs and assigns, forever.

In testimony whereof, I have caused these letters to be made patent, and the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand at the city of Washington, the twenty-fifth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eleven, and of the Independence of the United States of America the thirty-sixth.

By the President.

JAMES MADISON.

JAMES MONROE, Secretary of State.

Note.—Solomon Hoffert at one time owned over 900 acres of land in Fairfield and Hocking counties, Ohio.

The old residence on the right was the house in which grandfather, his wife and his mother, died. The date of the erection of the original is not known. The main house was rebuilt in 1869 by Philemon Hoffert, the work being done by Isaac Blosser and David Brown.

All of Solomon Hoffert's children were born in this historic house. Philemon, father of the author, lived here all his life, never having had a residence in any other house. His children were born here, and his daughter, Chloe Wolf, has lived here continuously since her birth, her children having been born here. This makes four generations of Hofferts and their descendants who have lived in the house, it never having been occupied by any others since the United States granted Solomon Hoffert a patent to the land. Isaac Wolf sold the farm at one time, but it was only out of his name about a year when he repurchased it, and has been its owner ever since. At that time he did not move out of the house.

Solomon Hoffert's residence.

SOLOMON HOFFERT.

The first born of Casper Hoffert. Our subject, who was a native of Rockingham County, Va., came to the Territory of Ohio, 1801 (not known if he came with his parents). Purchased quarter section of land two miles south of Bremen, Ohio (see full copy of deed in this work), when bears, wolves, wild hogs and turkey were plentiful and the meat in those days. He had eventful experiences with the bears. They would come around his house after night and growl. His boys were afraid to venture out. His cows came home one time unusually fast. He suspicioned that some enemy was after them, so with gun in hand sought a convenient place, ready for the enemy. Soon a bear came in plain view. He clapped his hands. Bear stopped and sat up. Just then he got the contents of the flint lock gun, and he was no more. It was very difficult in those days to raise hogs. The bear would steal away the young ones by tearing down the heavily built pens. On another occasion he was taking grubs out and had no weapon except the grubbing hoe, when he heard a bear coming. He heard and saw him, then scolded him; in the German, "Du hunt fot der;" in the English, "you dog, away with you," and he took for the woods.

Historic chestnut tree.

The large tree shown here, a chestnut, has been the wonder and delight of Hoffert children for more than half a century, because grandfather killed a bear in its branches. It is still standing, but Mr. Bear has not tempted the rifle of a Hoffert in these parts for many years.

Another time, contemplating a journey to Zanesville, Ohio, 30 miles distant through forest, he secured two hogs in pen and put heavy logs on top so Bruno could not enter. His wife went to her folks while he was gone. When he returned the pen was down and hogs gone. Another time while seeking his cows, which had bells on in those times, Bruno was close after him. He clapped his hands together, which notified Bruno, and he stopped and sat up. Just then he gave Bruno the contents of the gun and he fell. Another incident is the shooting of a bear from a chestnut tree (he told the author about it). The tree is still standing. Another time he went to Logan, Ohio, then in the "Brush," and passed through and made the inquiry "Where is Logan?" Another, he had a horse that would balk, and he tied a heavy chain around his neck, fastened it to a tree and said, "Now pull till you get enough."

Grandfather was a very hospitable man, and when one day, just after the dinner hour, he saw a man come limping around the side of a hill near the house, his heart was moved with pity. The man asked for something to eat, and grandfather asked his good wife to supply the stranger's needs. She soon busied herself in setting a good, substantial meal before him, but the man did not seem to like it because she did not give him hot coffee and pie, so he left the meal untouched and started down the road, holding his leg and limping. Grandfather watched him after he thought he was out of sight around the bend of the road, when he straightened up and walked off as brisk as anybody.

Of him who oft for you did pray
That you might walk the narrow way.

Philemon, the son of Solomon, Sr., was born in Fairfield county, Ohio, March 9, 1829. Lived there all his life. Was married to Catharine Seitz, daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth (Hite) Seitz. He and his brother, Solomon, purchased the first harvesting machine in their vicinity, known as the Curby, which caused many guests to see work. This was in the sixties; hand rake platform style. Our subject was called to the service of his country in 1865. Went from Bremen, O., to Zanesville, O., where word was received that the victory was won. His father gave him 80 acres of the old homestead and reserved 40 acres and a dowery with the proviso he pay $1,000 to the heirs, which was done. They were laid to rest in Hoffert cemetery, Hocking county, Ohio. Also an infant son.

Lived there until 1873, then went to Cerro Gordo, Ill., in company with Phillip Hufford, his first cousin. They parted at LaFayette, Ind., and Phillip says he has not seen him since, a period of 35 years. He lived there one year as a farm employe. Joined the German-Baptist church and was baptized by Rev. John Metzger, pioneer preacher. In 1874, in company with Aaron Hufford, his first cousin, of Cerro Gordo, Ill., they emigrated to South Platte Valley, Colo., near Sterling, where he homesteaded. After two and one-half years he had to leave on account of the Indians making war on the settlers. While there he had some great hunting adventures with buffaloes. Located in Thayer county, Neb. He had the misfortune of being bitten by a poisonous snake while harvesting grain; also being cut in back with mowing sythe while on a wagon, the sythe being upside down, he having fell upon it. The author of this work well remembers the accident, which kept him from doing heavy work for several years, during which time he was engaged in the photograph business with M. K. Sipe, by whom we have the photo of his grandfather, Solomon Hoffert. Solomon did not believe in photos but, through the influence of his brother Levi, Sander was enabled to secure one.

THE HUFFORD FAMILY HISTORY

No. 2. ABRAHAM HUFFORD, SR.

Abraham Hufford, Sr., was born March 6, 1788, Rockingham county, Va. Enlisted in the Revolutionary war of 1812. In the fall of 1833, moved with his family of eleven children to Carroll county, Ind., from Fairfield county, Ohio. At that time the land in this section was in heavy timber. (See deed.) Erected log house and covered it with bark. Put out several acres of corn. Split timber (called puncheon in those days), for flooring in log house. Later erected water power saw mill on his own farm and constructed mill race in order to operate the mill. Here lumber was sawed with which the house and barn were built. Both are in fair condition this date, November 2, 1908.

Crawfordsville, Ind., was his postoffice and trading point. He had to go to Michigan City for salt. Lafayette, Ind., was the nearest market for lumber, a distance of sixteen miles.

He owned 1,900 acres of land and gave to each of his children, at the age of twenty-one years, 160 acres, and had 170 acres left. All land was in timber, located in Carroll and Clinton counties, Indiana.

Elizabeth Kuns.

No. 7. JONAH HENRICKS.

Jonah Henricks, the seventh child of Jacob and Elizabeth (Hufford) was born in Perry county, Ohio, December 9, 1824. When but six years of age, he, with his parents, moved to Sandusky county, Ohio, in the winter of 1830, and settled on a quarter section of land in Washington township, then an unbroken forest, where the family soon made progress in clearing ground for spring crops.

About a year later the father erected one of those primitive saw mills which could only be operated whenever there was a freshet.

A genius and a natural mechanic, he early engaged in building and contracting, of which there are a number of fine buildings still standing as a monument of his handiwork.

Was married to Elizabeth Kuns, August 20, 1848. About this time he built a log house on 40 acres, given to him by his father, and commenced making a home for himself and family, which work was done mostly of morning and evenings, or at times when not working at his trade.

In 1860 he retired from the trade and gave his undivided attention to farming until 1873, when he disposed of his farm in Sandusky county (then containing 158 acres), and moved his family to Henry county, Ohio, where he again engaged in farming until his death. He was raised in the German-Baptist faith, not joining any church until they came to Henry county, when he and his wife (who was a member of the German-Lutheran church), connected themselves with the Church of God, in which faith they died.

Jonah died October 29, 1894; Elizabeth, August 5, 1894. Interment, side by side in Young's cemetery, Liberty Center, Ohio.

A. Hufford, President of Hufford Reunion at Rossville, Ind., August 25 and 26, 1909.

The subject of this sketch was born in Perry county, Ohio, September 29, 1836, and was reared as a farmer boy and received his education in a log school house eight miles north of Logan, Ohio. He remained on the farm until twenty-one years of age, after which he took up teaching, which he followed for two and a half years. On April 7, 1859, he was united in marriage with Sarah Kishler. In September, 1860, he and his wife moved to Tama county, Iowa, on a farm located two miles north of Toledo, Iowa, where he underwent part of the hardships of a pioneer life, hauling the lumber for his first house for fifty-five miles. In 1902 he left the farm, locating in North Toledo, living, to a great extent, a retired farmer's life.

In the year 1897, at a picnic held by the Huffords of Tama county, Iowa, it was agreed to hold the first reunion of the Hufford families, in general, on the twenty-second day of September, 1898. The subject of this sketch was elected its first president and Mrs. E. C. Foster, secretary. The burden of the work fell upon the president in getting the addresses and notifying all the Huffords located in thirteen different states.

OBITUARY.

HUFFORD.—At his home one and a half miles east of Perrysburg, at 8 o'clock P. M., May 9, 1884, JACOB HUFFORD, in the 89th year of his age.

Although not unexpected, as he had become quite deaf and infirm from age and an active business life for some years past, a large circle of friends were pained to learn of the demise of "Daddy" Hufford, as he was familiarly known throughout this section.

The deceased was born in Virginia, June 3, 1798. From that State he removed with his parents to Fairfield county, Ohio, in 1818, where, in 1824 he was united in marriage with Miss Elizabeth Lennard. In 1831 he removed with his young wife and little family to the site of his present home, where he purchased 166 acres of land, erected a little cabin without doors or windows, only a hole in one side for ingress and egress which was stopped at night by piling up logs on the inside to keep out the bears and wolves which were then his nearest neighbors. In this cabin he lived for several years while clearing up his fertile and now well improved farm.

As the fruits of the first marriage, nine children were born to them when, at the age of 38 years, death robbed him of the companion of his labors and hardships in the then wilderness in the Black Swamp.

In 1841 he again united in marriage with Mrs. Catharine Asmath, who survives him. As the fruits of this marriage seven children were born to them, making in all sixteen children, sixty-seven grandchildren, and sixteen great grandchildren, while two children and eleven grandchildren have preceded him to the spirit world.

For many years he was a member of the Evangelical church and was the main stay in the erection of the frame church now belonging to that organization on Second street. Later he joined the Dunkard church and remained a member up to the date of his death.

In many respects Mr. Hufford was a remarkable man. He was fond of company and his home was a home for everyone who came. In pleasant seasons of the year for visiting it was not an uncommon thing for 40 or 50 neighbors and relatives to visit him on Sunday and take dinner, and this occurred almost every Sunday. Thirty-five years ago he cut a walnut tree and had it made into lumber, a portion of which he placed in the loft of a new barn built that year, which he designed for and kept for the construction of his coffin when the reaper Death called on him to surrender the tenement of clay for final rest. At his own request his son-in-law, Mr. John Lininger, constructed his burial case from this lumber. Also, at his own request his remains were conveyed to the family burying ground by the 27 year old pony that he had been in the habit of driving for the past 24 years, and on each side of the aged animal leading him by the bits, were two aged gentlemen whose locks were whitened by four-score years, and who belonged to the Dunkard denomination. Six old men acted as pall-bearers. The deceased left his property equitably divided among his children, the widow retaining her third, and those of the children who had received money the amount was deducted from their share.

Rev. Mr. Fitterer preached the funeral sermon, and the number in attendance was estimated at over 800 persons, at least one half of whom were relatives. The remains were laid to rest beside his first wife in the family burying ground just below the homestead.

Aaron Hufford was born in Crawford county, Ohio, June 22, 1846, and reared on a farm. After leaving home he was employed on a railroad for two years, then accepted a clerkship and finally went on the road as a traveling salesman. Was married March 17, 1868, to Miss Elizabeth Meeter, at Centerville, Mich. Went into the grocery business there and in 1870 sold out and moved to Grand Rapids, Mich., and followed railroading for several years, and then entered the grocery business. After two years he sold out and commenced traveling for G. A. Wresley & Co., selling soap. In 1902 he went to Europe and spent one year there traveling through the Old World. Came home and traveled two years for Seeley Mfg. Co., of Detroit, Mich., selling perfumes and toilet goods in the New England States and New York. He then resigned his position and opened up a shoe store in Bowling Green, Ohio, where he remained in business for five years, then went to Tennessee and incorporated a lumber and shingle company. After a year he came north and commenced traveling on the road selling shoes, in 1898. After two years on the road in this capacity he opened up a new shoe store in Flushing, Mich. Was married the second time there to Luella M. Watrous, of Seneca Falls, N. Y., in 1904. Sold out there in 1906 and went to Indian Territory. Traveled for six months and came back to Michigan and has been traveling ever since. Now lives in Ann Arbor, Mich.

To this union one son, Elijah, was born. Soon after the father died. They lived on her father's farm. He was buried four or five miles north of Rockbridge, Ohio, in the Hamilton cemetery. She was soon afterward married to Henry Swartz, a widower and miller by profession, and a brother to David, who owned the Swartz Grist Mill. The author of this history often went to this mill, located on Rush Creek north of Sugar Grove, Fairfield county, Ohio.

The author once went with his grandfather to the grist mill, known as Swartz Mill, in his one-horse wagon. The roads were very narrow along several places, but passing points were at different places. He would send me ahead to see if any one was coming as he waited at a passing point. We met Mr. Smith (a very old man) at the next passing point. I hailed him to stop while grandfather passed, and when he came up it was very difficult to pass and Smith began to cry (and no wonder), it was along a hillside and Smith was on the lower side, which was a tree-top high from Rush Creek.

CHRISTIAN HUFFORD.

Wife, MARY MAGDELENA RENNER.

Our subject was born August 21, 1780, and died August 31, 1827. He was united in marriage with Mary Magdelana Renner (no marriage date given), who came from Washington county, Pa., to Fairfield county, Ohio, in 1813. First located on banks of Little Rush Creek, east of Bremen, O., then all in the brush and under water. Soon after located southeast of Bremen on quarter section of land adjoining Solomon Hoffert on the north, where he lived, died and was buried on same. Whey they came from Pennsylvania their family consisted of only four of the first born. (See families.) They traveled on horseback, with their goods sacked, which was carried on their horses. Wife remained his widow for forty-one years. Wife died and was buried by the side of her husband. The wife endured many hardships in order to pay for the farm which she finally accomplished. She was a very devoted christian. Both were communicants of the German-Baptist or Dunkard church. Their family are all married except the youngest son, who cut his knee on a mowing scythe and died of typhoid fever at the age of 18 years. His oldest brother, Noah, died with typhoid fever within four weeks. Both are buried in same cemetery. Their graves are well fenced with iron.

Samuel Gillis was a physician and school teacher, the author of this work being one of his pupils and well recalls how he disciplined the scholars by the use of the rod. Frequently the larger boys would have the job of cutting the rods. They would notch them in different places so when put in service they would easily break, but the party doing so would get a severe punishment. He went to Cincinnati, O., and never returned. This was the report of his son, Joseph M. Gillis, who saw his grave. His widow moved to Iowa. Later she moved to Missouri and was again married to a Mr. Smith. No family by last husband.

John H. Palmer, D. D., son of Augustine and Barbra Palmer, was born in Hocking county, Ohio, November 4, 1865. His early life was spent on the farm. Like other young men of his neighborhood he attended the District school in the winter and worked on the farm in the summer. At the early age of 18 years he was elected to the ministry. This turn in life came unexpected, but he believed the Lord had a hand in the work, and set about at once to prepare himself for the ministry. He spent several years in university work, graduating with honors. In 1907 Taylor University honored him with the Doctor of Divinity degree. He was married in the fall of '86. After a few months in the pastorate in Ohio he transferred to Indiana. Here has been the sphere of his work except when doing evangelistic work. More than two thousand have been added to the church under his ministry. He has held several important stations. His wife is a daughter of Samuel School, who resides at Bremen, Ohio. He is a great grandson of ———— Hoffet. His address at the time of this writing is East Chicago, Ind., where he is pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church.

Mr. F. P. Hoffert, Indianapolis, Ind.:

Dear Sir—Your letter to John Hufford was handed me by his son Frank, to answer. I am sorry to inform you that both John and G. J. Hufford have passed to their reward within the past week, making three of the family to pass away in two weeks. Rebecca, a sister died January 14, aged 94. John died January 23, aged 82 years, and G. J. died January 28, aged 92 years.

G. J. Hufford was my grandfather.
He was the son of John and Elizabeth Hufford, and was born near Creagerstown, Md., January 23, 1817.
His father was born in Maryland, September 30, 1787. The family came to Ohio in 1838, and located in Green county six miles southeast of Dayton.
In 1853 they moved to Miami county, Ohio, where they resided until called from earth. The family consisted of ten children, eight of whom lived to reach the 80th year in life. My great-grandfather lived to be nearly 98.
My grandfather was a remarkable character. He didn't look to be more than 80. He was well preserved, had a wonderful memory and his mind was clear until the last. Years ago he laid aside his glasses. He was a good reader, keeping in touch with the current events of the day. He never ceased management of his farm, and during the fall husked at least a dozen shocks of corn. During all the years that he was a voter he never missed but one election. G. J.'s grandfather was Philip Hufford, and all the Huffords I ever knew in vicinity were members of the English Lutheran church. My grandmother, Anna Hale Hufford, passed away September 7, 1897, aged 81 years. She was also a native of Maryland. There are two of the Hufford family still living Sevilla, aged 82, and Samuel, aged 80.

I suggest that you write to Mrs. Sevilla Davidson, Pemberton, Ohio, care T. J. Davidson, for any information you might wish. She has a splendid memory. Or write to George Hufford, Altoona, Pa., 2402 Fourth avenue, care Mrs. Mary C. Plummer. He was my grandfather's cousin, and a son of Solomon Hufford. Four miles southeast of us resides Joseph Hufford, R.
F. D. No. 1, Casstown. No connection to us that we know of. He has a brother, Casper. We were very glad indeed, to have the pleasure of reading your letter, and to know that the Huffords hold a "national reunion."
We never heard of it before. It would have been a great pleasure to grandfather had he lived to read your letter, and I know he could have given you some valuable information in regards to the Hufford family in this part of Ohio.

Inclosed you will find a clipping from the "Dayton Daily News," with an account of grandfather's death and a short sketch of his life. The picture is a very good one of him, but not very plain. It was taken when he was 89.

Hoping to hear from you some time, and that this letter may be of some benefit to you, I beg to remain,

Very truly,

A. H. HARBAUGH.

Daniel Mathias Hufford, son of John and Elizabeth (nee Houx) Hufford, was born in Frederick county, Maryland, June 3, 1824, and lived in said state until he was a young man. He, with his parents, emigrated to the then west and settled near Shakers-town, Montgomery county, Ohio, and lived there and in the near vicinity until 1853. He then took heed of the advice given in the Bible, which says: "It is not well for man to live alone," and took unto himself a wife and helpmate, in the person of Lois Shepard and with her were united in marriage September 11, 1853, at Dayton, Ohio, by Rev. David Winterz, of the German Reform Church. He is the father of eleven children, five sons and six daughters, who have all lived to grow to manhood and to womanhood and he lived to see his children reach this period in life. He went to housekeeping in Casstown, Miami county, Ohio, and took up the occupation of a farmer and lived the greater part of his life in Miami county, Ohio.

He, with his wife, united with the Lutheran church, at Casstown, Ohio, January, 1857, under the ministry of the Rev. Helwig.

He was a good, kind husband, a loving father and an obliging neighbor, and his death was keenly felt by all who came in contact with him. He departed this life January 19, 1904, at the ripe old age of seventy-nine years, seven months and sixteen days. He was buried in Casstown cemetery. His widow survives him and her son, Theodore (single), lives with her.

BIOGRAPHY OF LOT A. HUFFORD.

L. A. Hufford was educated in the common schools of Rush county and at the age of 17 he began teaching in his native county and has taught continuously ever since. He secured a State license before the State Board of Education some years ago, and at a recent meeting of the State Board, they declared that with a record such as Mr. Hufford had made as an educator, his work was entitled to recognition and as an earnest of this fact, the Board commissioned the High School at Westville, Ind., of which he is superintendent, which shows that merit will win when diligently applied, despite handicaps that have to be overcome.
