TO THE SECOND EDITION OF THE HISTORY OF THE HIXSON FAMILY

The history of the Hixson family in Tennessee has been prepared with the assistance of many members of the family who copied records and supplied family lore. The first edition, published in 1940, was the inspiration of William Anderson Burnett, of Hartford, Michigan, who aided in the work. Judge Will Cummings, Walter Cummings and Mrs. Robert A. Dykes, of Chattanooga gave valuable assistance. Mrs. Anderson Cheek Grayson, of Whitwell, Tennessee, contributed family Bible records and recalled much information of older generations, having known many of her husband's family including his mother, who was Nancy Hixson, born in 1799 in Greene County, Tennessee, daughter of William Hixson. Judge Will Cummings contributed the sworn statement that his grandmother, Engie Hixson, born in Greene County, Tennessee, in 1798, often told him that her father, William Hixson, served in the Revolution.

Greene County records were searched and supplied by the late Charles E. Coile, of Greenville. County and State records of states other than Tennessee have been given by county court clerks and secretaries of state.

The name Hixson is spelled in many ways and researchers for family history find entries under Hixon, Hixson, and Hickson. It is believed that a generic relation exists among them all, since all are found in the British Isles.

This second edition of the family history is the result of a demand for copies of the publication and the inclusion of data not available for the earlier edition. It contains much of the information published in the first edition and also lists hundreds of families not listed before, now living in Tennessee and those who have gone out to live in other states.

In this edition is listed for the first time the "Hixon" branch of the family which originally came to Tennessee from Virginia about 1833. The Rev. Luther Hixon of St. Elmo, Tennessee, gave the historical background and other valuable information.

From both branches of the family in Tennessee have come many city and county officials, lawyers, ministers, teachers, businessmen, justices of the peace as well as many prominent in other walks of life.

To all who have contributed information for the compilation of this history, we desire to express our grateful appreciation for their help and encouragement.

HIXSON - HIXON OF TENNESSEE

The family originated in Great Britain. The earliest records are found in Burk's Encyclopaedia of Heraldry when a member of the family was knighted by King James I, of England, in 1617. The location of this family was Greenwich, County Kent. At a later date Robert Conway Hixon was knighted in County Kerry, Ireland. Albert Hixon who came from Derby, England is recorded in this volume. P. H. Hickson, an attorney in Lynchburg, Va., traces his family from Aberdeen, Scotland to County Kerry in Ireland and to America through Canada.

The first Hixsons who came to America landed at Perth Amboy, New Jersey and settled in Monmouth and Middlesex Counties. Later the family is found in Prince William and Loudoun Counties in Virginia. The name is spelled Hixson, Hixon and Hickson. It appears that when someone else wrote the name it was spelled Hickson. But when the persons wrote the name themselves it was spelled Hixson or Hixon.

Miss Emily Johnson, of Manassas, Va., writes that Benjamin Hixon, Jr., moved to Virginia from New Jersey prior to the Revolutionary War, about 1770. He married Sarah Hutchinson. Their children were: Lydia Hixon married Rutt Johnson; James Hixon (born June 10, 1763; died Sept. 5, 1833) was a soldier in the Revolutionary War. He married Isabelle Lee; William Hixon married Elizabeth Johnson; Ann (Nancy) Hixon married Samuel Caywood and moved to Kentucky; Mary Hixon married John Dye, son of Amos Dye, and had John Hixon Dye I, who was a soldier in the Revolutionary War and died in 1826. He married Ann (Nancy) Johnson and had Henry Clay Dye (1815-1875) who married Emily ..... and moved to Arkansas. After the death of his first wife Henry Clay Dye married Dianna Matthews and had Dr. John Hixon Dye, a prominent Methodist minister, who married Katherine Sinclair. He died in 1930. His daughter, Amanda Hixon Dye lives in Searcy, Ark., and gave us the information about her family.

Dr. Fred W. Hixson, whose forebears came from Virginia was reared in Dover Hills, Ind., his father James Hixson having moved from Steubenville, Ohio. Dr. Hixson came to Chattanooga from Crawfordsville, Ind., and was president of the University of Chattanooga 1914-1920. He was an able administrator and while president several new buildings were erected on the campus. He resigned July 2, 1920 to accept the presidency of Alleghany College, Meadville, Pa. He married Laura E. Canady in 1899 and had two sons: Dr. Jerome C. Hixson, Dean of Chapels, DePauw University, Greencastle, Ind., and Robert J. Hixson, Chief Pilot for the Ford Motor Co., of Detroit, Mich.

Among the Hixons from other states now living in Tennessee is Langdon R. Hixon, of Knoxville who came from Alabama. His great great grandparents were John Hixon and Abigail Hixon who lived in Kershaw County South Carolina. His great grandparents, Samuel Hixon and Catherine Graham Hixon moved from South Carolina in 1835 and settled in Perote, Ala. His cousin, Cornelia Hixon, daughter of William Allen Hixon, who lived in Monroe county, Ala., married Judge John Duffie, Congressman from Alabama. His grandparents were Daniel Alexander Hixon and Juliet Evelina Hixon. His parents were Samuel Walter Hixon and Charlie Rumph Hixon. He married Frances Hammond and had Susan Bailey and Nancy Hixon. This information was furnished by his Aunt, Mrs. Bessie Hixon Rumph, Perote, Ala.

Another member of the family is Lisle Clay Hixson, who came from Iowa and lives in Memphis. He is the Chief of the Domestic Traffic Section of the U. S. Army Transportation for twelve Southern and Southwestern States. His great grandparents moved from Virginia to Burlington, Iowa in 1812. His grandparents were LeRoy Burnett Hixson born 1830, and Elizabeth Lloyd Hixson born 1831. They had eight children, one of whom was William Wade Hixson, born 1868 and died in Mills County, Iowa, 1897. He married ..... and had six children. Only two of the children are living, Mrs. Nell Hixson Roberts, of Nebraska City, Nebraska and Lisle Clay Hixson, who married Nell Pearl Wilson, of Burlington, Iowa, 1918. They have a daughter, Wilma, who married Sgt. Theodore Skinner who is with the U. S. Army and stationed at Aberdeen, Maryland. Their children are: Theodore E. Skinner and Kathleen Nell Skinner.

We are indebted to Mrs. Robert A. Ryland, of Arlington, Va., a descendant of James Hixson and Isabella Lee Hixson. She writes: "After his services in the Revolutionary War, James Hixon and his father Benjamin Hixon moved to Lownes County, Virginia where his home is still standing and is called 'Dover.'" She also writes of Timothy Hixson: "I recently saw an old record of the Ketockin Baptist Church in Loudoun County, Virginia. The first date which appears on the record is May 4, 1782. We found a list of the members among which was the name of Timothy Hickson."

In the will of Capt. Timothy Hixson, which was published in the first edition of this history, he bequeathed to Benjamin Hixson, his son, 1,000 acres of land in Flemming County, Kentucky. Benjamin Hixson moved to Kentucky and reared a family of six boys and six girls. Several of his descendants are living in Lexington, Ky., among whom is Sterling D. Hixson.

The Hixson family in Tennessee begins with Joseph Hixson and his wife Susannah Hixson, who came from Virginia about 1780. It is believed that Joseph Hixson and Capt. Timothy Hixson were closely related. We know they were contemporaries. Joseph's will was probated in 1804 and Timothy's will was probated in 1812. They both used the "s" in their names.

Joseph Hixson settled on the Nolichucky River in what is now known as Greene County. Greene county has been a part of several governments, namely: North Carolina; the State of Franklin; North Carolina again; and the Territory of the United States South of the Ohio River. It later became a part of Tennessee which was admitted to the Union in 1796.

An old record book in the office of the County Court Clerk contains a copy of Joseph Hixson's will, dated Nov. 26, 1803 and probated January 23, 1804. The will was witnessed by Thomas Prather and Alexander Prather and reads as follows:

Greene County, Tennessee
November 26, 1803.

"I have given to my beloved wife Susannah all my lands, negroes, and stocks of all kinds of household furniture with full possession of all improvements to the plantation that I now live on with full possession of all property real and personal during her widowhood and if she marries then all of the property that I will to my wife is to be divided equally amongst all my children which is Andrew, William, Timothy, Joseph, Ephraim, John, Susannah Davis, Benjamin and James and my wife and not to be sold except seventy acres of land I gave to my sons Joseph and Ephraim, a part of the said land I now live on agreeable to the lines that was run for my son Andrew, for which my son Andrew received fifty pounds of my sons Joseph and Ephraim, and there shall be fifty pounds deducted out of my son Andrew's part or share of my estate and fifty acres of land I gave to my son Ephraim a new survey that he now lives on and at my wife's death all the above mentioned estate that I will to her shall be equally divided except two above mentioned tracts of land and two negroes.

I nominate my wife, Susannah, my sons Joseph and Ephraim my soul Executors of this my last will and testament."

(signed) Joseph Hixson.

(Printed exactly as it appears in the County Record.)

During the changes of governments the records of the County were kept by one man, Daniel Kennedy, County Court Clerk, a proof of the confidence of the people in him in a somewhat turbulent time.

Several of the children of Joseph and Susannah Hixson moved to the section which became Bledsoe County, Tennessee. By family records they moved in 1805, but this precedes the establishment of Bledsoe County by two years. The actual migration, therefore, was to Roane County Tennessee, although they later lived in Bledsoe County without change of location. It is believed by the family that five brothers—Andrew, William, Timothy, Joseph and Ephraim—and a sister Susannah (Susie) Hixson Davis moved to Bledsoe County.

The children of Joseph and Susannah Hixson were:

WILLIAM HIXSON

SON OF JOSEPH AND SUSANNAH HIXSON.

William Hixson was the second child named in the will of Joseph Hixson of Green County, Tennessee. He was born about 1770. He married Ingola Hughes, Sept. 6, 1795 as shown by the county records. Bondsmen for the marriage license were Andrew Hixson, probably his brother and Sparling Bowman. William Hixson moved with his family to Bledsoe County, Tennessee, where William Hixson died. His will was probated in Bledsoe County Aug. 4, 1827. His wife, Ingola survived him. She was named as executrix with William, Jr., Joseph Hughes Hixson and John Hixson. The three are no doubt sons of William and Ingola Hixson.

The children of William Hixson and Ingola Hughes Hixson were:

1. Ingola Hixson born 1798.
2. Nancy Hixson born 1799.
3. Joseph Hughes Hixson born 1801.
4. William Hixson, Jr.
5. John Hixson.

The service of William Hixson in the Revolution is established by sworn statement of Judge Will Cummings that his grandmother told him many times that her father, William Hixson, served in the Revolution. As the residence of the Hixsons was on the Nolichucky River, near the Seviars, and as the young men in the families were relatively the same ages it is reasonable to suppose that the young Hixsons as well as the young Seviars followed John Sevier in the volunteer service of the period. Frequently the names of Volunteers were not listed because of the short service and hasty organization.

Ingola Hixson, daughter of William and Ingola Hughes Hixson was born in Greene County, Tennessee in 1798. She had the unusual experience of living in three centuries as she died at the age of 104 in 1902, in Hamilton County, Tennessee. After the custom of the period her name was changed to Engie. She married Jeremiah Fryar. Her daughter, Rebecca, married John W. Cummings and had three children: William Cummings, Hamilton County Judge for many years who married Lillian Coggins; John Walter Cummings, who married Katherine Newman; Mary Elizabeth Cummings married Calvin Grant.

Nancy Hixson, daughter of William and Ingola Hughes Hixson, was born in Greene County, Tennessee, July 22, 1799. She died Nov. 10, 1881, at the home of her son, Anderson Cheek Grayson, in Whitwell, Tenn. She married in Bledsoe County, Henry Grayson, son of Joseph and Patsy Brazeale Grayson. Patsy Grayson was the daughter of Willis Grayson of South Carolina, who is listed as a soldier of the Revolution.

The nine children of Henry and Nancy Hixson Grayson were: Pleasant C. Grayson, born 1821; Louisa Grayson, born 1823; (who married Josiah Burnett and had a son, Elijah Anderson Burnett, who married Mrs. Mary Jane White Hudson and had a son, William Anderson Burnett, of Hartford, Michigan). William Hixson Grayson, born 1826; Patrick H. Grayson, born 1828; James M. Grayson, born 1831; Sarah C. Grayson, born 1834; Hudson Grayson, born 1837; Joseph A. Grayson, born 1839; Anderson Grayson, born 1841, who served in the Confederate army and married Josephine Barber and had among other children, Mrs. Robert A. Dykes of Chattanooga.

Ephraim Hixson, Jr., was the second child of Ephraim Hixson and ..... Hixson. He was born in Greene County, Tennessee, October 14, 1797; died in Hamilton County Dec. 25, 1855. His father was Ephraim Hixson, the fifth child of Joseph and Susannah Hixson and moved to Bledsoe County when Ephraim, Jr., was a small boy.

Ephraim Hixson, Jr., married his cousin Margaret Hixson, daughter of Timothy Stringfield Hixson in Bledsoe County 1817. She was born in Greene County June 19, 1799; died October 9, 1888.

When their oldest son, Wilson, was twelve years of age, about 1830, Ephraim Hixson, Jr., moved to Hamilton County. The site of their home subsequently became the town of Hixson and is still so called; the railroad station being two hundred yards from the home. The original building was destroyed by fire and has been replaced by a modern home. It is now occupied by their grandson, William Arnett, Jr.

When the Cincinnati Southern (C.S.) Railway was built in 1876 the station was named Lookout, but since there was another Lookout on the line, the railroad company named the station Hixson after 'Squire E. F. Hixson, who was station agent and postmaster. He was the grandson of the pioneers. The postoffice was called Lakeside at first but later changed to Hixson.

Ephraim Hixson, Jr., cleared the bottom lands of North Chickamauga Creek with the help of his slaves and soon established a successful farm. In the year 1833 he was elected Justice of the Peace and held that office for many years. In 1840 he was granted an entry of 240 acres by the State of Tennessee and in 1842 he received a grant of 480 acres on Walden's Ridge at the headwaters of North Chickamauga Creek. When he died in 1855 he owned several thousand acres of land and eleven slaves.

The children of Ephraim Hixson, Jr., and Margaret Hixson were:
