PREFACE.

A small book was written of the descendents of Samuel Hess, who emigrated in 1712 from Switzerland, Europe, to this country, down to 1880. But as it was not fully satisfactory to the descendents of the Hess' daughters, so by request of some of the friends of his (Samuel's) descendents the original has been revised and enlarged with the help of the good Lord and the aid of friends. Care was taken to gather reliable information and any of a doubtful nature was excluded. Errors will no doubt be found, which we trust will be excused. They are due chiefly to incorrect information sent in to the author.

Hoping all honor will be given to the Lord the genealogy is now respectfully submitted to the public.

JOHN H. HESS.

Lititz, Lancaster County, Pa., 1896.

Everything has its time. One generation passeth away and another generation cometh.

The days of our years are three score years and ten ; and if by reason of strength they be four score, yet is their strength labor and sorrow, for it is soon cut off and we fly away.—Ps. 90:10.

As for man, his days are as grass : as a flower of the field so he flourisheth. For the wind passeth over it and it is gone ; and the place thereof shall know it no more. But the mercy of the Lord is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear Him, and His righteousness unto children's children ; to such as keep His covenant and to those that remember His commandments to do them.—Ps. 103:15-18.

GENEALOGY.

In the year 1712 a Swiss colony came to America and among them was SAMUEL HESS. The same settled at Pequea, Pa., and had a large family. He was the first Hess of our generation in America. In 1734 one of his sons, namely, Jacob, of the second generation, took up a tract of 200 acres of land, one mile east of Lititz, now called Warwick Township, Lancaster County, Pa. One part of it is now occupied by Rev. JONAS H. HESS. The same JACOB HESS had a son by the name of JOHN of the third generation ; he lived on the old home place with his father Jacob. He died in 1778 and was interred in the graveyard, situated on the old home. He had two sons and eight daughters. The sons were named CHRISTIAN and JOHN ; the following sisters comprise the fourth generation :

One daughter was married to John Brubaker. They moved to Juniata County, Pa., where they resided with their family.

Another was married to Daniel Brubaker and resided in the vicinity now called Schoeneck Pa.

The third was married to Rev. Peter Eby. They resided at Pequea, Pa., near Hess' Mill.

The fourth was married to Jacob Metzler. They lived near what we call Metzler's Meeting House in Earl Township.

The fifth was married to Daniel Burkholder. They lived near Lititz on a part of the two hundred acres now being occupied by Andrew Bruckart.

The sixth was married to David Martin, who moved to Cumberland County, Pa., where they lived with their family.

The seventh was married to Henry Hess and resided in the vicinity of Lancaster, Pa., where she died at an early age.

The eighth was married to a Huber whose first name was Abraham to the best of my knowledge. They lived north of Lititz where he died. He was the father of Jacob Huber who lived south of Lancaster and grandfather of Ephraim Hoover, near Lancaster.

They had, with few exceptions, large families. We will now speak of their sons and their generations.

Here ends the record of the generation of Rev. John and Elizabeth (Hess) Risser.

SAMUEL HESS, the first emigrant, came from Switzerland in 1712. We have information from the Patent Deed of only one of his sons, named JACOB, who settled near Lititz, Pa. He had the second family, and is the second generation.

From the third generation we have only explanations from JOHN. He numbers one family.

The fourth descendants were the Pequea CHRISTIAN and REV. JOHN, numbering two families bearing the name HESS.

Said Pequea CHRISTIAN had three sons, numbering three families bearing the name HESS.

Now we take only REV. JOHN and his descendants. The first of his sons was CHRISTIAN. He was born in 1789, and he had five sons, having families; they were the fifth generation. He also had six daughters, all having families.

CHRISTIAN HESS, the first son of Rev. John, of the fifth generation, married in 1811 Barbara Huber, and their offspring bearing the name

Hess during 85 years was 27 families, of whom are 21 having both progenitors living, and five of whom one of the parents is dead.

JOHN HESS, the second son of Rev. John, of the fifth generation, married in 1813 Elizabeth Risser. Their offspring bearing the name Hess in the course of 83 years was 17 families, 14 of whom the parents are both living and 3 that the father or mother is dead.

HENRY HESS, third son of Rev. John, and the fifth generation, married in 1814 Catharine Huber. Their offspring bearing the name Hess during a period of 82 years was 22 families, 18 of whom both of the parents are alive and 4 that one or both are dead.

The offspring of CHRISTIAN, JOHN and HENRY, the three sons of the fifth generation bearing the name Hess, amounted in 85 years to 66 families, 54 of whom both parents are alive and 12 that one of the parents is dead.

And the offspring of these three families not bearing the name Hess is 181 families, 155 of whom both parents are living and 26 that one of the parents is dead or both.

Now we take the offspring of the daughters of CHRISTIAN and BARBARA HESS, of the fifth generation, who were married in 1811. During 85 years they increased to 78 families, 66 of whom have both parents living, and 8 that one or both are dead.

JOHN and ELIZABETH HESS, of the fifth generation, married in 1813. The offspring from their daughters in a period of 83 years was 49 families, of whom 43 families have both parents living, and six that one or both are dead.

HENRY and CATHARINE HESS, of the fifth generation, married in 1814. The offspring of their daughters, not bearing the name HESS, in a period of 82 years, were 54 families, 46 of whom have both parents living, and eight of whom one or both are dead.

From SAMUEL HESS, who emigrated from Switzerland in 1712, to the first REV. JOHN, of the fourth generation, there were eight families.

The offspring of Christian and Barbara Hess, of the fifth generation, who were married in 1811, are 27 families bearing the name of Hess, and the offspring not bearing the name Hess are 78 families in a period of 85 years.

The offspring of John and Elizabeth Hess, of the fifth generation, who married in 1813, are 17 families bearing the name Hess, and the offspring not bearing the name Hess are 49 families, during a term of 83 years.

The offspring of Henry and Catharine Hess, of the fifth generation, who married in 1814, are 22 families bearing the name Hess, and the offspring not bearing the name Hess are 54 families, during 82 years.

The offspring of Susanna Hess, of the fifth generation, who married in 1818 Joseph Eberly, numbers 40 families, in a period of 78 years.

The offspring of Anna Hess, of the fifth generation, who married in 1819 Christian Oberholtzer, numbers 13 families, in the course of 77 years.

The offspring of Martha Hess, of the fifth generation, who married in 1824 Samuel Oberholtzer, numbers 38 families, during a period of 72 years.

The offspring of Elizabeth Hess, of the fifth generation, who married John Risser in 1826, numbers 24 families, during 70 years, as near as can be ascertained.

This makes a total of 371 families.

We find in the beginning of our Genealogy that Samuel Hess the first settler of our descendants came from Zurich, Switzerland, and is supposed through information of history that this same Samuel was an offspring of Hans Jacob Hess, who endured persecution in Zurich, Switzerland, in the year 1639. We find in the English martyr's book on page 1056, Hans Jacob Hess with his wife, A. D. 1639, among those who suffered persecution in Switzerland, there was Hans Jacob Hess, a chosen and confirmed minister of the Christian church. He being imprisoned twice before, the first time being in the year 1637. Some say he was imprisoned in the Convent Othenbach; others in the dungeons; and still others in the prison, etc., but it evidently was at Othenbach, a famous prison in Zurich. But the Lord beyond all expectations had remarkably delivered him through the aid of those that were imprisoned with him as also out of the third imprisonment. The first lasted nineteen days; the second eight weeks; the third eighty-three weeks or more than a year and a half.

But in the mean time his wife was made very bitter and vexatious for he was striped and together were put in iron bonds sixteen weeks, which he nevertheless patiently bore with a steadfast mind until his deliverance.

While this was taking place, namely in the same year, his wife was also apprehended who was first imprisoned in the Council House, and then in Othenbach, where through bad treatment and unfit food and drink for sixty-three weeks, she was so impaired in her constitution and weakened that she was seized with consumption, and after suffering much misery died in prison.

The property of said H. J. Hess was seized by the authorities who realized from the sale of it 4000 guilders without restoring anything of it to those who remained. A great injustice. How will they be able to account for this before the righteous judgment seat of Jesus Christ?

JOHN HESS, who resided many years ago in Conestoga and Pequea townships, was also one of the descendents of the first Samuel Hess who came from Switzerland in 1712. Said John and his wife Elizabeth, were the grand parents of Samuel Hess now residing at Landisville, Lancaster County, Pa.
