INTRODUCTION

PURPOSE

For most of my adult life I have lived far from my immediate family and home community. This has helped me to realize the need to keep the bonds of relationship strong. This need increases after one's parents are gone, when there is no longer the normal center of family relatedness they provided. Distance and years also emphasize this. However, this can shift to the relationships within the families of our brothers and sisters and provide a stronger bond of natural involvements. The inroads of more independent living today also call for the careful nurture of these ties.

A DIRECTORY cannot provide much that is needed to keep a family spirit strong, but it can forcibly remind us that God has given us to each other in blood ties. It can help to make us aware that we belong to each other. In working with these materials I have experienced a strong spirit of kinship which is inescapable as one is immersed in the facts about our families. You, too, will surely gain a fresh sense of belonging as you move through these pages.

It should be normal for us to identify with other members of the family in their experiences of joy, of grief, and times of crisis, when the shelter of prayer fellowship draws us into support of one another. Even this is possible only when there is communication among the families.

Our differences are many. We live in widely scattered areas, although the concentration remains in eastern Pennsylvania. Our vocations cover a wide spectrum and offer an intriguing study. We have found our ways into a variety of churches, while a few identify with no church. In the face of these and other differences our capacity to accept, to forgive, and to love will provide the bond which unites us. Perhaps we have neglected each other more than we can justify, and need to invest more effort to strengthen our family spirit and oneness.

Some other ways in which we can be helped in getting "re-acquainted" might include more frequent correspondence with each other, visiting among the families, stronger support of our family reunions, consistent efforts to bring families together even though they are widely separated, and to make more personal contacts in our travel plans. Even the use of our telephones could help maintain many contacts.

This volume may also encourage the keeping of better records hereafter within our individual families.

HOW DID THIS COME TO BE?

This DIRECTORY is an outgrowth of a desire to keep up with our larger family. Births, marriages, funerals, reunions, changes of addresses are important occasions to any family. Because we have lived at great distances from our own families, we have had to miss much of such relatedness.

For many years I have kept some statistics for our own use. A few years ago in bringing these up to date, it seemed well to prepare them for duplication for the immediate family. This idea grew until Father's and Mother's families were included.

A first cousin in each family of my generation was solicited to help secure the information. By now, with multiple checkings of tedious detail, they too know one dare not guess any part of a date, the spelling of a name, nor can one change facts that are the very fabric of our family history.

On July 31, 1967 the twelve remaining brothers and sisters of our family were all together for the first time since our sister Susie's funeral in 1954. Some of us took a drive through the familiar countrysides and called at our paternal and maternal homesteads. In addition, the memory of reverent moments together at the cemetery still linger. At the family dinner pictures were taken, and the DIRECTORY progress was reported. Encouragement was given to add pictures, and additional information was secured.

A few weeks later, when Mennonite General Conference convened at Lansdale, we were back in our home community again. Enroute to the courthouse to check data of grandparents, etc. the Lord led me to contact a cousin I had never met. Willard G. Histan was not due in his office for several hours, but he returned at that "moment." He soon disclosed that he had in his possession prepared information of the immigration of the Histan family to Pennsylvania as well as their descendants until our generation. To find this material and a personal letter within the original envelope addressed to my Father postmarked August 28, 1930, was more than a coincidence. It seemed very clear to me that this material was to be included, even though it meant expanding the original intention. I had no idea such data had been compiled at all.

Evidently Father and his brother had gathered what information they could, and had secured Mr. H. F. Hippenstiel of Bethlehem to verify, supplement and prepare it for the Samuel and Rebecca O. Histan Family Reunion on Labor Day 1930. It must have been their hope to see this completed and made available for future generations. Willard G. Histan gave his permission and encouragement to use the Hippenstiel materials he had received from one of my brothers. They are adapted to fit into the format of the previously gathered information and are included in Section II.

On that same trip, a contact was made in the interest of Mother's Landis ancestors with a cousin, Rev. John L. Ruth, King of Prussia. Family history is a real hobby with him, so he knew just where to direct me. Miss Dorothy K. Landes, now of 218 Sunset Drive, Jensen Beach, Florida 33457 had prepared a "Report of the Thirty-Fifth Reunion of the Landis-Landes Families in 1954" held in Perkasio Park. A copy was secured from the Mennonite Historical Society, 2215 Mill Stream, Lancaster, Pennsylvania 17602. She gave full freedom to quote from this report. This material is included in Section III.

All these foregoing materials were ready for printing late in 1968, but technical delays prevented carrying out the schedule. This additional time led to the conviction that, if at all possible, my grandmothers' families as well as my grandfathers' families should be included. (Both grandmother Histan's and grandmother Landis' maiden names were Overholt.) With the Mennonite Historical Library nearby, this material was available, and the ancestral part of these two family lines was adapted from the works of A. J. Fretz and Elisha S. Loomis.

One of the regrets, which is inevitable in compiling data such as this, is that not every lead for uniform and complete information could be pursued. The time and expense factors removed this from our reach, but it would have been especially desirable for the contemporary generations. Consequently, there are some gaps which could not be filled. Where data was not obtainable, or where contacts were unsuccessful, names were included without dates, since the name is the most basic link in each of the four families.

The FAMILY TREE should offer interest to all of us. Here again, how much our grandparents could have helped to fill in the blanks!

The FAMILY MAP is included to show that our immigrant forefathers lived within a radius of about thirty miles of Doylestown, having landed most likely in Philadelphia. Then as you look more closely, one finds that most of their descendants live within the range of this map.

A real attempt has been made for accuracy. The human factor, however, makes errors inevitable in this kind of compilation. Your help in detecting these is solicited, however trivial they seem to you. These should be reported not only to me, but also to the secretary of your Family Reunion.

I deeply wish that this DIRECTORY will inspire each of us to make a stronger effort to make our F-A-M-I-L-Y a living relationship, in which we become increasingly aware and more supportive of each other.

EXPLANATION OF DIRECTORY FORMAT

Section I is the presentation of my parents' complete family. It is a statistical record, and not a history as such, though it opens with a brief sketch of our home and family life.

A block of material introduces each family, giving abbreviated details in the order indicated by the legend below. Semi-colons are used to separate each type of information. The FAMILY CALENDAR and pictures complete this section.

Section II traces my Father's Histan and Overholt ascendants since their immigration, and also records the descendants of his brother and sisters.

Section III traces my Mother's Landis and Overholt ascendants since their immigration, and records the descendants of her brothers and sisters.

Root family members' names are capitalized throughout. All geographic names are in Pennsylvania unless otherwise indicated.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The cousins upon whom I depended for their own family's data in Father's family were: Viola M. Fischer, Ruth K. Yoder (historian, HISTAND family), Sybilla L. Ely, Anne H. Lewis, and Melvin Gahman. In Mother's family they were: Elizabeth K. Landis, Mary Ann Ruth, Henry L. Bower, Norman R. Landis (historian, LANDIS family), and Esther M. Godshall. Their cooperation was most appreciated.

Joseph E. Alderfer, a nephew, contributed his professional skills in preparing camera-ready art and pictures. A cousin, Mrs. Maurice (Carol Histand) Lehman of Goshen lightened the secretarial load. Not all who assisted can be named here, but I must mention the invaluable counsel of Nelson Springer and Mervin Zook of Goshen College in the technical concerns. My husband John, fully supported me with his counsel and encouragement in the entire task.

My greatest indebtedness is directly to the Lord, Who dramatically guided throughout this undertaking. This included the timing of schedules, of delays, and of many personal contacts and related situations.

A BRIEF SKETCH OF THE SAMUEL S. AND SUSAN (SUSIE) L. HISTAND FAMILY

Our Father was born April 9, 1871, one mile northwest of Doylestown, on his grandfather's farm. At the age of six his parents bought their own farm in Buckingham Township. Mother's parents began their home on the present John Fluck farm, one mile north of Gardenville. Here Mother was born February 27, 1875. She grew up on the farm her parents bought in New Britain Township. Thus our parents' families drove to the Doylestown Mennonite Church from opposite directions in their two-horse carriages.

Father and Mother were married October 26, 1895 at the ages of 24 and 20 years respectively. They went to housekeeping at Hill Crest Farm on Burnt House Hill Road at Fell Road in Buckingham Township. They farmed for Mrs. Wilson Fell, who lived in the other side of the house. This was just one mile east from where Father spent his childhood and youth. Here is where Samuel, Isaac and Abram were born.

On January 1, 1900 the family moved to their own 62-acre farm, one mile north of Doylestown, adjacent to the Mennonite Church. Due to a previous fire, the first task was to rebuild the barn, which corner stone dated it. It was here the rest of us were born. The homestead continues to hold precious memories of family, fun and work.

As the boys grew older, Father added a cement block plant to his farming operations. Many of these slabs he made were laid as pavements in Doylestown. He also laid a side-walk from our house to the church building. We girls, along with the boys, were involved in the crop and chore duties of the farm. We recall our fears when we spotted the first airplane coming toward us while pulling suckers in the corn field. This was during World War I.

Some of us have not forgotten the July 4th spent in harvesting wheat with two wagons while teen-age friends went on an outing. The day following, rains began and few farmers of our community could harvest their grain that year. Father certainly was aware of our complaints to each other, but his patience taught us far more by example that day than anything he could have said to us. (He provided us an alternate day for an outing.)

We well remember the happy trips in a two-horse wagon to visit relatives and friends. When automobiles came along Father chose a three-seated Cadillac for the needs of his family. While we always lived quite frugally, our parents would not hesitate to borrow money to help needy persons or causes. Father was also available when assistance was sought by the church or community. He shared his acetylene plant with the church for lighting purposes.

In early years Father provided hired help for Mother's laundry and seasonal sewing tasks. Even though Mother was devoted to the care of her own family needs, it did not keep her "Good Samaritan" nature (as her friends spoke of her) from taking unfinished garments along home from the Sewing Circle. Her love for and culture of flowers, vegetables and fruit was contagious. Neither of our parents felt gifted as leaders, but were constantly standing by others in supportive roles.

In 1919 Father purchased a store on North Main Street, where Samuel soon was able to take over. Adjacent to it, he built a shop where Daniel and a partner began in a meat business. Later, William used this location where he began his vocation of barbering.

Our home was a place where visitors and strangers were always welcomed. Even the "tramps" seemed to know of our kitchen door where they were denied neither food, nor a place to sleep in the barn. Memories include the happy times we had singing around the family organ with our guests. We never lacked for playmates, and engaged in a wealth of indoor and outdoor games. Father made us a bob-sled which attracted many friends in the fascinating recreation of sledding on the near-by hills.

There were special plans made for us, such as trips to the Atlantic seashore, visits to the Philadelphia Zoo, and to the Planetarium. The boys had their own bicycles and enjoyed swimming, skating, and occasional deep-sea fishing. Some of them did extensive trapping, and raised white rats and mice. Several of them took to mechanics and photography which still continues to fascinate them. We girls were given opportunity for beginning organ lessons. We had lots of opportunity to learn and experience the arts of homemaking.

We were not encouraged to go beyond eighth grade in school. We worked at home, and in other homes or farms, and in clothing factories until the age of nineteen, when we were considered of age. We had access to very few books, but an older brother really favored us when he purchased a victrola. Our parents made commendable adaptations in their generation providing a full high-school education for our youngest brother. This was quite acceptable to the rest of us.

In 1924 Father built a cement block house on the north edge of the farm, and next door to the church. He continued giving frequent assistance at the Philadelphia and Norristown Missions when Abram took over the farm. He also helped in the building of the new churches at Finland, Rocky Ridge and Haycock. Mother took to patchwork, which she had earlier vowed she never would do. This added great satisfaction to her, to her family and friends.

Of the few train trips they made, the one to eastern Virginia led to the discovery of a new venture in family worship. This they maintained consistently. Their wish to visit relatives and friends in the mid and far west by car was finally realized. One winter they went south to Tampa, Florida where Laura was serving among the Spanish population.

Susie returned home to assume responsibilities for our parents in behalf of the rest of us. Both of our parents enjoyed good interests and reasonably good health. Father succumbed in a heart attack on March 21, 1944, while Sara was still in Paraguay. Susie continued with Mother at home for seven more years.

The family installed a speaker for Mother's convenience, which was connected to the public address system of the church next door. On April 12, 1951 Mother too went to "Christ's Other Side."

A circle letter has been making its rounds in our family for many years. This keeps a rather consistent schedule of each two months, and is the kind of contact we all appreciate and need. There are also other contacts meanwhile. More recently, a "round robin" tape has been circulated among those who have tape recorders.

We are the children of parents who desired above all else, that we live with the integrity of life in Christ. Perhaps not so much in what they said in words, but by their own examples, they led us. Our best life investments can be made only as each of us honors and rejoices in the Lord they loved.

ASCENDANTS OF SAMUEL HIESTAND

BACKGROUND

It is difficult to trace our Hiestand ancestry in Europe because of the scarcity of records. During the religious war that raged in Germany from 1616-1648 records of all kinds were destroyed. Neither can we be sure that the emigrants from Switzerland had any interest to keep records. Consequently, this is a limited account of our family ancestors who immigrated to the United States.

The Hiestand family was known for many years in the district around Zurich, Switzerland. But whether they originated in that Canton, or emigrated from Germany is uncertain. However, when many of them were exiled from Switzerland on account of their faith, we find Hiestands in the Palatinate.

The earliest Hiestandt immigrants of which we have record arrived in Philadelphia.

"Oct. 16, 1727. Forty-six Palatines with their families, about two hundred persons, imported in the ship Friendship of Bristol, John Davies, Master from Rotterdam, last from Cowes, whence the ship sailed June 20th . . ." ¹

The Master's or Captain's lists contain the names of all male passengers above the age of sixteen, and on some of them the names of all the passengers. If any died or were sick on arrival of the ship, they were marked accordingly. The males above the age of sixteen were made to repeat and subscribe to the Declaration of Allegiance with their own hands, if they could write. If they could not write, the name was written by a clerk, and the qualified person made his mark.

On the October 16, 1727 list these names were included: Jacob Hiestandt, Johannes Heistandt, and Jacob Hiestandt. It has long been assumed that one of these Jacobs and Johannes were brothers. Rather recently the discovery was made that this Jacob is the forefather of the Simon Hiestand family living at Salunga, Pennsylvania. (Simon Herr Hiestand was born June 22, 1873 and is still living at the age of ninety-five years. His youngest son, Henry H. Hiestand lives at 72 Main Street, Salunga 17538.) Their family history dates back to the same date and ship arrival.

On September 21, 1731 Johan Heistand was listed on the ship Britania with two hundred and sixty-nine passengers. Then on November 23, 1770 Johannes Hiestand was listed among sixty passengers on the ship Crawford including "Newlanders." These were persons who had returned to Europe on errands, and again arrived in Pennsylvania. The misspelling of names was very common, so that the two names above are likely the same man. The first might have been written by a clerk and the second written by himself as an autograph. (One of the Jacobs was on the sick list when they first arrived.)

We find a footnote of great interest here, which cites the plight of these exiled Palatines situated temporarily in Holland enroute to America. "While the Synod of South Holland was in session in Dort, 1731, eight hundred exiled Palatines passed through the place to take ship at Rotterdam for America. They were visited by the whole Synod in a body, and were furnished by them with provisions and medicines. After Christian exhortation, prayer and singing, they were dismissed with the assurance that they might rely upon the Church of Holland for support in their new abode. Ger. Ref. Almanac, pg. 22 for 1865."²

A list of "Four hundred and sixty-five names of German, Dutch and French inhabitants of Philadelphia County who owned land, and paid quit-rents prior to 1734" appears in our reference. "Quit-rent is a reserved rent in the grant of land by the Proprietary, by the payment of which the landholder was to be freed from other taxes. Quit-rents were not uniform; they varied from one shilling sterling per hundred acres to six shillings per annum, and in other instances more."³ Jacob Hiestandt is listed with 150 acres in Hanover township.

In the year 1716 there was a deacon, Hans Jacob Hiestand in the Friesenheim congregation at Eppstein. The name of a minister, Hans Jacob Hiestand appears as a signatory of a letter addressed to Amsterdam May 20, 1727. He appealed on behalf of a number of prospective emigrants to Pennsylvania. Again a minister's name, Hans Jacob Hiestand appears in 1732 as a member of the Ibersheim congregation, which was about eight miles southwest of Worms and northwest of Mannheim. A Mennonite by the name of Hans Jacob Hiestand died in 1769 on his farm, close to the former Goshenhoppen Church north of Schwencksville, Pennsylvania. It would be interesting if we could verify whether these were the same or different persons.

We are assuming that Johannes Hiestandt is our forefather, and are using freely the Hippenstiel materials.⁴

4. These records were prepared by Mr. Harold F. Hippenstiel, Bethlehem, Pennsylvania for the HISTAND Family Reunion on Labor Day, 1930. These papers, including a personal letter to my Father, will be filed with the Bucks County Historical Society, Doylestown, Pennsylvania.

No attempt is made to trace all the descendants of our immigrant ancestors. The children of each family in the direct line from JOHN HIESTANDT to SAMUEL HIESTAND are listed in sequence by generation. The names of all persons in direct line are capitalized. A major regret I have is that it was impossible to include uniform and complete information for all the contemporary families.

THIRD GENERATION

JACOB HIESTAND b. 12-22-1791, d. 3-27-1877, bur. Doylestown; m. Barbara Swartz b. 1-13-1794, d. 4-17-1866; Mennonite; grew up near Spring City.

When he became of age, he went to Northampton County, near Mount Bethel, as a farm laborer. Here he met Barbara. They began their own home and farmed his cousin's farm. John Hiestand, a bachelor, boarded with them. Uncle Jacob had a farm near Seemsville settlement. His brother Abraham later lived with Uncle Jacob and inherited the farm, since Jacob had no children.

Later Jacob bought a farm nearby. Ten years later he purchased another near Rosedale, Bucks County. After another ten years he sold and found a farm one mile northwest of Doylestown on Shady Retreat Road upon which he built a grist mill. He knew nothing about milling and making flour. At the age of fifty-one he found an old miller in the Bucks County Home who gave instructions for several months. In this way he learned the trade and became a noted flour maker. For some years he went to the Philadelphia market, twenty-five miles by wagon, with a load of flour every week.

He was a good mechanic and did much of his own repair work, such as blacksmithing, carpentering, and wheelwrighting. He invented a rope and cord machine to make his bag strings. He also made tongs to kill potato bugs on the vine. He was educated in the German language and kept his books in German. While he spoke a broken English well enough to converse in those days, he could read English very well. He was nearly forty years old when he was ordained to the ministry in the Doylestown Mennonite Church, which he served faithfully until his death. He was stricken by a stroke the day after he had dressed the mill stone and succumbed a few hours later on March 27, 1877. He lived in a part of his farmhouse near the mill. (All trace of these buildings is gone today.)

ASCENDANTS OF REBECCA GROSS OVERHOLT

BACKGROUND

It is difficult to establish the identity of the Oberholtzer (Overholt) pioneer of my Grandmother Histan's family. Two studies arrive at different conclusions. Elisha Loomis seeks to establish that the Oberholtzer pioneer was Jacob, who emigrated from Switzerland or the Palatinate, Germany at least by 1719. His wife, Deborah Krey, was believed to be of Dutch descent. The fact that their daughter Barbara was married about 1729, would likely place their marriage at least as early as 1710. They lived on their farm in Lower Salford Township, Montgomery County, and are buried in the Franconia Mennonite Cemetery. A son, Jacob Jr., married Deborah Halteman. Their birth dates are unknown, but his death occurred in the spring or summer of 1759. Their son Abraham married Magdalena (Kolb) Detweiler, while another son Christian, was believed to have married Magdalena's sister, Sarah.¹

A. J. Fretz, on the other hand, identifies the pioneer as Jacob Oberholtzer, arriving from Germany early in the 18th century. He lived in Bedminster and Plumstead Townships. His son Abraham married a Magdalena Detweiler. These, Fretz claims, are the parents of Abraham Overholt, who married Margaret Wismer. At Jacob's death, the 185 acres were deeded (March 4, 1763) to his son Abraham. Later the land was equally divided between his grandsons, Abraham D. and Isaac. The holdings of Abraham D. were secured by his son Abraham W., at whose death the property was purchased by Amos Fretz. Isaac's part of the original acreage was obtained by his son, Abraham S. Overholt.²

It is at this point that the Loomis and Fretz findings agree. We are therefore, for the purpose of this DIRECTORY, counting Abraham and Magdalena Detweiler Overholt as generation one (1) of our Overholt forebears. It was in this generation that the family name was changed to OVERHOLT.

 2. Fretz, A. J., A GENEALOGICAL RECORD OF THE DESCENDANTS OF MARTIN OBERHOLTZER, The Evergreen News, Milton, N. J., 1903, pp. 199-201, 207

No attempt is made to trace all the descendants of our immigrant ancestors. The children of each family in the direct line from ABRAHAM OVERHOLT to REBECCA G. OVERHOLT are listed in sequence by generation. The names of all persons in direct line are capitalized. A major regret I have is that it was impossible to include uniform and complete information for all the contemporary families.

ABRAHAM WISMER OVERHOLT b. 2-8-1804, d. 8-14-1899, bur. Deep Run; m. Magdalena Gross 4-7-1831, b. 2-27-1810, d. 12-18-1907; Mennonite; farmer; lived N of Junc. SR 611 on Keller's Church Rd. near Plumsteadville Creamery (now the Walter E. Rice farm)

At about the age of forty-five years Magdalena became blind. In 1892 a widowed daughter, Rebecca and grandchild, Maggie came to share life with her parents and unmarried sister Susanna. This family worshipped at the Deep Run Mennonite Church. Abraham died in 1899.

After the farm was sold, Susanna bought a house in Plumsteadville on Stump Road east, where she and her Mother lived next door to Christ and Annie (Histand) Moyer. Some of the family recall the quaint old lady with dark glasses, sitting in a rocker, smoking a long pipe. She died at the age of ninety-eight years.

After her daughter Maggie married, Rebecca lived alternately with each of her children for two months. In 1909 she and Susanna travelled by train to visit their sister Mary, Mrs. Daniel Royer (second marriage) in Clay City, Indiana. Two years later Mary brought her daughter, Lizzie Markley with her to visit among relatives in Bucks County.

DESCENDANTS OF SAMUEL AND REBECCA O. HISTAND

FOURTH GENERATION

SAMUEL HIESTAND b. 12-20-1828 near Mt. Bethel, Northampton County, d. 8-29-1892, bur. Doylestown; m. Annie Lapp 1862, b. 1844, d. 5-19-1862; m. Rebecca Overholt (Moyer) 1862, b. 8-18-1836, d. 1-20-1914; Mennonite; farmer
Grandfather remarried after an early bereavement. Grandmother also had been married to Joseph Moyer. The family first lived on great grandfather's farm with a mill on Shady Retreat Road, north of Lenape High School grounds, Doylestown. When our father was six years old, they moved to their own farm on Church School Road about a mile south of Cold Spring Creamery Road in Buckingham Township. It is now owned by Lawrence Swartley, whose grandfather purchased it from the Samuel and Rebecca O. Hestand estate in 1893. (The deed bears the signatures of all the surviving children.)

At grandfather's death our father was twenty years of age, and he did not marry till four years later. Grandmother took Maggie with her to her own home near Plumsteadville, on Keller's Church Road. Lydia and Lizzie worked in homes of the community. Ten years later, when Maggie married, grandmother chose to live with her children, alternating each two months till her death.

In this generation the family name was first spelled HISTAND.

HISTAND FAMILY REUNION

On Labor Day 1920, Christian K. and Annie L. Moyer invited the descendants of Samuel and Rebecca O. Histan to their home for the first Family Reunion. The next year it was held at the home of A. O. and Emma W. Histan. Leidy and Lydia Loux opened their home for this occasion in 1922. For some reason this was discontinued, but in 1926 the reunions were resumed. No records were kept until 1946 when the Histan Family met at the home of Wilmer and Martha H. Althouse. The 1947 reunion was held in Lenape Park, Perkasio.

In recent years the Telford Picnic Grove has been the meeting place, and the fourth Sunday in July has been the date. In 1967 the group decided to plan for a celebration of the 50th HISTAND reunion in 1970. A committee will be appointed.

Last year on July 28, the 48th HISTAND Family Reunion met at Telford where each family brought a loaded basket with lunch. A program followed the business session.

The officers for the 1969 Reunion are: Willis Hunsberger, chairman; Timothy Histan, treasurer; Mrs. Ray (Pauline Yoder) Bergey, R. 1, Green Lane, Pa. 18054 is the secretary.

The HISTAND Family Reunion, 1941

*“The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance . . .
The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places;
yea, I have a goodly heritage.
I will bless the Lord who hath given me counsel.”*

ASCENDANTS OF ISAAC MOYER LANDIS

BACKGROUND

The identity of our Swiss forebears has not yet been ascertained. It is clear that they shared in the severe religious persecutions of the seventeenth century in which many suffered injustice, imprisonment, and death. Some escaped to America as they sought new opportunity for freedom of faith in their God.

It is also impossible to identify the first of our ancestors who came to this country. We can, however, confirm the relationship to one of four Landeses (Jacob, George, Henry, Michael) who were born in the latter half of the eighteenth century. Miss Dorothy K. Landis traces the three generations following these men, but finds it impossible to prove a relationship between them.¹

The first of these, Jacob, is the direct ancestor of my Mother, Susan Landis Histand. The basic data of his descendants to Isaac M. Landis are drawn from Miss Dorothy K. Landis' work with her permission.² A visit to the Springfield and Saucon churches and cemeteries in 1968 was a strong reminder of our indebtedness to these earlier generations for our heritage which they have given to us.

KEY TO GENERATIONS

First generation	Jacob Landes	(1)
Second generation	John Landes	(2)
Third generation	Jacob S. Landes	(3)
Fourth generation	Isaac M. Landis	(4)
Fifth generation	Susan O. Landis	I II III
Sixth generation	Samuel L. Histand, Jr.	A B C D
Seventh generation	Samuel L. Histand III	1 2 3 4
Eighth generation	Clifford A. Histand	a b c d

No attempt is made to trace all the descendants of our immigrant ancestors. The children of each family in the direct line from JACOB LANDES to ISAAC M. LANDIS are listed in sequence by generation. The names of all persons in direct line are capitalized. A major regret I have is that it was impossible to include uniform and complete information for all the contemporary families.

Jacob lived and died in Spring Valley, Lower Saucon Twp., Lehigh Co. His grave still bears a marker of the Revolutionary War. He is listed in the 1790 census here. His will is recorded in Allentown in Vol. 2, p. 346, Docket 2029. It also reveals that two sons are by a former marriage. He gives his son Jacob Landes $234 and son Samuel $12; John's share shall be put on interest; no reasons were given. He names his wife Barbara and his lawful heirs "gotten by her my last wife."

ASCENDANTS OF ELIZABETH DRISSEL OVERHOLT

BACKGROUND

It is not certain from which part of Germany or Switzerland, or even when, our Oberholtzer (Overholt) ancestors came to America. However, their motivation was certainly common with many other Protestants who sought freedom in their Christian faith after many years of severe persecution. There were new fears to face as they went overland to the coast and took ship for the long sea voyage. There was fresh challenge in taking up life in the vast wilderness of eastern Pennsylvania. The rigors and privations of the pioneer were endured with fortitude, and without doubt served to deepen the family ties and the bonds with other families with whom their common future was faced.

KEY TO GENERATIONS

First generation	--- Oberholtzer
Second generation	Martin Overholt
Third generation	Abraham Overholt
Fourth generation	John Overholt
Fifth generation	Elizabeth D. Overholt

No attempt is made to trace all the descendants of our immigrant ancestors. The children of each family in the direct line from MARTIN OVERHOLT to ELIZABETH D. OVERHOLT are listed in sequence by generation. The names of all persons in direct line are capitalized. A major regret I have is that it was impossible to include uniform and complete information for all the contemporary families. In tabulating the OVERHOLT ancestors of my Mother, I was greatly dependent upon the work of A. J. Fretz.¹

FIRST GENERATION

--- OBERHOLTZER emigrated to America before the Revolution, maybe as early as 1700. So far we can only know that Martin was his son. Judging from the next pages, he surely must have had more children.

SECOND GENERATION

MARTIN OVERHOLT b. about 1745, d. after 1815; m. Elizabeth Nash, b. 8-3-1751 Bedminster Twp., Bucks Co.; Mennonite; farmer; Plumstead Twp.,

Bucks Co.; Elizabeth, dau. William Nash (b. 11-24-1696, d. 1760), by third wife, Agnes (widow of a pioneer, Martin Overholt); William immigrated to America early 18th century; settled in Bedminster Twp., Bucks Co; may be of English or German descent; Elizabeth had 3 brothers: Joseph Nash, Mennonite deacon many years; farmer, weaver, Tinicum Twp.; Benjamin Nash b. 1755, d. age 3; Abraham Nash 1757-1821, is said to have supplied the British army with forage, or to have been a teamster.

Grandmother must have been lonely in her married life. After the death of her mother, in the same year of her marriage, her father and the three youngest children moved to Daviess County, Indiana. In 1918, Grandfather took her and her sister, Mrs. John M. (SARA) Swartz by train from Doylestown to Canton, Ohio. They visited with two other sisters, Mrs. George H. (ANNA) Plank, Kalona, Iowa and Mrs. Jacob (HANNAH) Grabill, Montgomery, Indiana in the home of the latter's son, J. HENRY Grabill, Hartville, Ohio.

In this generation LANDES became LANDIS.

LANDIS FAMILY REUNION

The first reunion of the descendants of Isaac M. and Elizabeth O. Landis was held on July 4, 1927, at the home of Samuel S. and Susie L. Histan. Mother Histan kept records of each of these gatherings from the beginning. Our sister Susie continued this task in her behalf until Mother's death in 1951. Since then Norman R. Landis has been the historian and secretary-treasurer for the family.

It is to be noted that during the years 1943 and 1944, there were no reunions held, but in 1945 they were resumed. After meeting in homes for some years, a more spacious place was sought. Hallman's Grove near Skippack was the chosen spot. However, in 1968, the invitation to meet on the Rufus and NORA SWARTZ Hager farm was accepted. On June the 23rd this proved to be a very happy experience, for they agreed to meet there in 1969 also.

The officers for the 1969 Reunion are: Daniel L. Histan, chairman and Norman R. Landis, secretary-treasurer. These, with William L. Histan, and Henry L. Ruth make up the Planning Committee. The secretary's address is: 134 Adams Av., Souderton, Pa. 18964.

The LANDIS Family Reunion, 1950

“Thou has given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.”

Psalm 61:5

EPILOGUE

This effort has had various exciting effects for me. I have renewed acquaintance with many cousins whom I had not seen for many years. I have met or directly contacted many others for the first time.

Although most of our forebears were agriculturalists, we can be certain they would have developed numerous skills if opportunity and training would have been open to them.

The past and present involvements of our families in Christian churches is basis for real joy and concern. This is particularly true as we recall the situations of religious persecution our ancestors endured in Europe. Our children should not be allowed to forget this costly past.

A great amount of important and interesting information dies with each generation. No one took the time to record it; or, if it was recorded, it may have been disposed of with little thought of its value.

In the past, the Family Bible was a standard book of record for the vital statistics of the household. Where this tradition is no longer followed other means of preserving data must be found which will serve a similar purpose in each family.

If this task had been undertaken while my parents' generation was still with us, it would have simplified much of the work. Our own present generation is beginning to thin out, and it is imperative that we guarantee to the future generation what they ought to know about our past and present. Any documents or records which relate to our immediate or related families should be preserved with specific instructions for their disposition. Some materials would merit placement with the Bucks County Historical Society, Doylestown. Or, photostatic copies could be made by them for their archives.

In a message to the Landis-Landes Family Reunion, Perkasio on September 8, 1934 Henry W. Scarborough said: "It is the duty of this generation to preserve the history and genealogy which is known to it. How much we now desire to know what our ancestors knew; and how much our ancestors knew but which died with them; and how much our descendants will desire to know such facts now known to us, but will die with us unless we take steps to preserve them."

A final acknowledgement must be made to the Christian roots from which we have come. No family deserves to survive if it denies the best in its heritage. Our obligation, therefore, is tremendous. A token salute to the "good past" is not enough. Our commitment to preserve and enrich the best that has come to us is also essential. We alone can make certain that our generation leaves its mark in the family story, and more important still is, that the mark left there is fully Christian.

*“Follow our footsteps, men of coming years!
Where we have failed to do
Aright, or wisely live,
Be warned by us, the better way pursue,
And, knowing we were human, even as you,
Pity us and forgive!
Farewell, Posterity!
. . . Farewell!”*

—John Greenleaf Whittier
