TRADITIONS CONCERNING THE ORIGIN OF THE HUMPHREYS FAMILY

All branches of the family believe that they are WELSH.

Tradition recorded by Rebecca (Humphreys) Parker, born 23 July 1853, Anderson Co., S. C.

"Col. Humphreys was an officer who was with William the Conqueror in all his wars in England. For his service William gave him a large land grant in Sussex. From this man all Humphreys in America are descended. Following our branch, Daniel Humphreys, a Presbyterian preacher came over and settled at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He raised six children—David, Solomon, Elijah, Benjamin, Katie and Polly. David was our great grandfather. He came to North Carolina and there married Martha Word. Solomon and Elijah never married. They moved to Tennessee where Solomon was a physician of great fame. Benjamin married and moved to Tennessee and was lost sight of all the others. Katie married Drury McGee and Polly married a Halbert."

Tradition recorded by Sally (Humphreys) Boyett, born 5 Feb. 1844, Pickens County, S. C.

"The Humphreys family came to America from Wales ten years before the Revolutionary War. Coming over were David, Daniel, and Benjamin, and they were the only Humphreys in America at that time. David settled in North Carolina, Daniel in Virginia, and Benjamin in Baltimore, Maryland. They were pure Welsh."

Tradition printed in MEMORIAL AND GENEALOGICAL RECORD OF SOUTHWEST TEXAS, Goodspeed, 1894. Taken from biography of Benjamin Wayne Humphreys, born 27 Nov. 1816, Williamson Co., Tennessee.

"The Humphreys family was founded in this country by Humphrey Jones (with a handle to it), who left Wales on account of some political trouble in the time of Cromwell and the Charleses. For some reason he had his name reversed. The Southern branch has added the letter "s."

P R E F A C E

In 1883 Frederick Humphreys, M.D., published THE HUMPHREYS FAMILY IN AMERICA. This large excellent volume covered thoroughly those branches of the HUMPHREYS family living in the Northern States. It also gave a good summary of the HUMPHREYS who were Quakers and lived in the Welsh Tract in Pennsylvania. In addition there were many helpful records concerning scattered HUMPHREYS families in the Southern States.

In preparing the material included in this book, use has been made of data and suggestions given in THE HUMPHREYS FAMILY IN AMERICA as it relates to families in the Southern States. This data has been verified and extended. Research has disclosed many additional families of HUMPHREYS in the Southern States who are not included in THE HUMPHREYS FAMILY IN AMERICA and who have no verified connection with the family covered in this book.

The family we shall attempt to trace descends from John Humphreys who died in Pennsylvania in 1723. It has been found to include, from THE HUMPHREYS FAMILY IN AMERICA, the Tennessee and Kentucky families listed on pages 1048-1052 and the Chester County, Pennsylvania, and Virginia families listed on pages 1012-1013.

In THE HUMPHREYS FAMILY IN AMERICA the suggestion was made that the HUMPHREYS family of Chester County was a part of the HUMPHREYS family of the Welsh Tract. There are many reasons for thinking that the two families may be connected but the independent research of Mr. Cass K. Shelby, Hollidaysburg, Pennsylvania, Dr. Arthur E. James, West Chester, Pennsylvania, and the author of this book has failed to show any connection since the two families came to America.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

About 1905 Mrs. Martha (Humphreys) Maltby began collecting records of her ancestors and relatives. In 1919 the author of this book became interested in family history and started the exchange of family records with Mrs. Maltby. It was her intention to publish a book that would include all her early ancestors but she passed away in 1939 without having completed her work. This book makes no attempt to cover records of all the early families with which the HUMPHREYS intermarried. Rather it is an attempt to record all branches of the family that descend from John Humphreys who died in Pennsylvania in 1723. Records of descendants are usually carried but one generation after the name has changed from HUMPHREYS, because they are then included under other family names.

While credit is given throughout the book to the person who submitted the records for each individual family, special thanks are due to certain individuals for extensive and continued interest in many different ways. Mr. Cass K. Shelby, Mrs. Margaret Shepard, Miss Grace Humphreys, Mrs. Louise (Maltby) McNellis, Mrs. Dorothy (Carter) Broughton, Mrs. Claire (Humphreys) Sutton, Mrs. Mary (Humphreys) James, Mr. Thomas H. Humphreys, Miss Lois Humphreys, Mr. Walter S. Humphreys, Mr. Allison Battle Humphreys, Mrs. R. H. Boyett, Mrs. Ruby (Humphreys) Foster, Mrs. Charles J. Humphreys, Mrs. J. E. Woods, Mr. Cary N. Weisiger, Mrs. Hattie Celestia (Humphreys) Parker, Miss Mary Lee Humphreys, Mrs. Queenie Humphreys (Morton) Stout, all are connected with the family under consideration. Dr. Arthur E. Jones, Dr. Millard K. Bushong, Mrs. Thomas J. Pearson, Miss Sarah B. Crown, Mrs. R. Y. Jones, Mrs. Sarah H. J. Adams, Mr. Alfred W. Humphreys, Mr. Robert M. Humphreys, Mrs. M. E. Thrower, Mr. Edwin Humphrey, and Mrs. Grace Lodder have all assisted in many ways.

The author has on file an extensive collection of records for families of Humphrey, Humphries, and Humphreys, that have not been included in this book because no connection has been established as yet.

Whatever corrections and additions any reader may be able to make will be greatly appreciated.

HUMPHREYS GENEALOGY

JOHN<sup>1</sup> HUMPHREYS, the earliest known of this line, was of Welsh blood, as is attested by family tradition and by his surname. His birth date and marriage date are unknown. He died 18 December 1723, in Charlestown township, Chester Co., Pa. His wife was Catherine and she was still living in June 1726 when her son David made final settlement of his father's estate.

The earliest authentic record of John Humphreys is in the office of the Recorder of Deeds in Philadelphia, Pa. Here we learn that he purchased from Joseph Richards of that city, on 24 Nov. 1716, three hundred and forty acres of land in Charlestown township, Chester Co., Pa. This parcel was a part of the large tract called "Pickering Mines," formerly owned by Charles Pickering, one of the party that had come over with William Penn in 1682.

In the deed covering the transfer, John Humphreys was designated as "of Philadelphia County, yoeman," which raises the question as to whether he had been living in America for some time, or was a Welsh farmer recently arrived and looking for a place on which to settle. Just when the family moved to this land is uncertain.

The Humphreys tract was rectangular in shape, extending lengthwise for about a mile and a quarter along the northwest side of the road to the present Charlestown village and for nearly half a mile in width along the Pot House Road. Schuylkill township was taken off of the northwest end of Charlestown township in 1826 and the boundary between them now divides the original Humphreys tract crossways and nearly in the middle. Most of the tract can be seen from the observatory tower on Mount Joy at Valley Forge Camp site five miles to the east.

The names of John's children are shown in the settlement of his estate, but other than that David was the eldest, the order of births is unknown.

Children of John and Catherine, surname HUMPHREYS:

2. i. David, b. 1694
3. ii. Morgan
iii. Ann
iv. Elizabeth. Believed to be Elizabeth, widow of Jacob Wayne, who was granted letters of administration 15 Sept. 1736 in Philadelphia. Wayne was used in later years as a middle name in two widely separated branches of the Humphreys family and in both branches the tradition persists that they were related to General Anthony Wayne, a nephew of Jacob Wayne above. (Wayne Family of Pennsylvania, by Edwin J. Sellers, p. 27)
4. v. Thomas
vi. Catherine, married 8 June 1744, in First Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, to Gunnar Swanson. (Penn. Archives. 2nd Ser. Vol. IX, p. 35 and 68)
5. vii. Daniel, b. ca. 1714
6. viii. John
ix. Esther

1. From "Phoenixville and Its Vicinity" by Samuel Whitaker Pennypacker, (later governor of Pennsylvania), Philadelphia: 1872, pgs. 13-17, 180, we learn that Charles Pickering was from Asmore, county Chester, England. He made an exploring trip up the Schuylkill River and on reaching the site of Phoenixville discovered in the nearby hills of the west side evidence of silver and lead ore. He formed a partnership or company with sixteen prominent men of Philadelphia to exploit the territory, among whom were Edward Shippen, Joseph Richards, Samuel Carpenter, and Griffith Jones, and they obtained a patent for 5368 acres on which mining operations were begun. This grant was known as "Pickering Mines." It was practically square in outline except for an extension running over the bank of the river. Pickering creek flows in an irregular line diagonally across the square, Pot House Road bounding it on its northeast side. The line dividing the present townships of Schuylkill and Charlestown runs parallel to and approximately half a mile from this side. The ancient Manor of Bilton skirted it to the southeast. Charlestown township, which at first covered the entire area, was named in Pickering's honor. Its southerly edge is the outer boundary of the "Great Welsh Tract."

Not enough ore was found to make the operations pay and they were finally abandoned. After Pickering's death by drowning at sea, the tract was divided up among the partners into sixteen separate but equal parts. Joseph Richards got Lot No. 9 which was the northeast corner. This is the one he sold later to John Humphreys. The next lot to the south, No. 8, fell to Samuel Carpenter, who later transferred it to John Varley.

The first settlers of Charlestown township were almost all Welsh. Those living along the river were largely of the Society of Friends, or "Quakers," while farther inland lived members of other religious denominations. Later on a large influx of Germans and some Swedes took place. During the encampment of the Continental Army a short distance to the south at Valley Forge in the winter of 1777-8 many of the farm houses of Schuylkill township were used by the officers of that body as headquarters. John Varley's house was turned into a hospital and a larger building devoted to that purpose was put up on the Yost Smith portion of the older Humphreys tract. A number of the inmates of this hospital died of small pox and camp fever and were buried in Smith's meadow a hundred yards or so east of the barn.

Charlestown road is an extension of Bridge Street, Phoenixville, which city is three quarters of a mile from the settlement of Wilmer. Pot House Road was so called because of an old pottery that once stood beside it.

2. Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, Land Records, Book G-1, pages 58-59. Nov. 24, 1716. Joseph Richards of the city of Philadelphia, merchant, and Gartry, his wife, sell to John Humphrey of the County of Philadelphia, yeoman. Whereas the sd. Joseph Richards is seized in the full equal sixteenth part of a certain tract of land situate, lying and being in the county of Chester in the said province, containing 5358 acres called by the name of Pickering's Mines, which by virtue of a certain writ of partition was lately divided, whereupon a certain parcel thereof containing 340 acres was allotted to the said Joseph Richards, 28th August, 1705. Now the sd. Joseph Richards and Gartry his wife in consideration of L 30 sells to sd. John Humphreys all the above land in the county of Chester adjoining the land of William Saunders and Joseph Wilcox, beginning, etc. etc.—Witnesses: Samuel Carpenter, Senr., Catherine Holt, Thomas Mitchell. Ack. Oct. 14, 1739 by Richards and wife before Caleb Cowpland, J.P. Recorded March 14, 1739/40.

3. From "History of Chester County, Pennsylvania" by Futhey and Cope, p. 170 Pickering Lotts, were included in the non-residential land of Whiteland and it was not until 1722 that we get the names of actual settlers in the Charlestown Rate. Of these were—Daniel Jones, Manuel Jones, Thomas Jones, James Jones, Philip Jones, and John Humphreys.

4. The original papers in the settlement of the estate of John Humphreys, are filed under No. 74, Register of Wills Office, Philadelphia County section of City Hall. The following are abstracts:

(2) DAVID<sup>2</sup> HUMPHREYS, (John,<sup>1</sup>) was born 1694, possibly in Wales, died 27 August 1774 and was buried in the Charlestown cemetery. He married about 1730 to Catherine Lewis, the daughter of Evan and Magdalen Lewis, of Whiteland township, Chester County, Pennsylvania. The Lewis family was also of Welsh origin.

In 1729, half of the Humphreys tract was sold to James Davis, and the other heirs then transferred their interest in the remaining half to David. Later David sold fifty-eight acres to Yost Smith and then lived on the remaining 112 acres until he transferred it to his son, John, in 1772.

About 1728, David built a tannery on the farm. This was maintained by his son John in later years.

David Humphreys was a Presbyterian and attended the Great Valley Church of that denomination in Tredyffrin township. Rev. John Rowland was the pastor. This congregation did not escape the storm raging in the Presbytery of Philadelphia over the practices advocated by the Rev. Gilbert Tennant. Mr. Rowland was a follower of Tennant and thus incurred strong opposition, which culminated in 1741 by his being debarred by the conservatives, who were in the majority in the congregation. After his separation from this church he preached for a while to his adherents in temporary quarters. The foundation of the Charlestown Presbyterian Church was laid in 1743. David Humphreys was a prominent member of this group and worshipped with it until his death and is buried just across the road from the old church long since unused.

No complete list of David's children has been located. The 1734 will of his sister in law, Mary Lewis, names two. The 1744 will of his mother-in-law Magdalen Lewis, names seven. There is rather definite evidence for including a still younger daughter, Priscilla. There may have been still other younger children.

David Humphreys is carried on the Charlestown township tax list from 1724 until 1771.

(4) THOMAS<sup>2</sup> HUMPHREYS, (John,<sup>1</sup>) was born about 1700 to 1710. When and where he died is unknown. His name does not appear on the tax lists of Charlestown township. He was living 1729 when the younger children of John sold their interest to David. In the settlement of the estate of his brother, Morgan, he is mentioned in a bill of 1741. It is quite possible that he left Pennsylvania and went to Virginia or Caroline. (See Appendix)

(5) DANIEL<sup>2</sup> HUMPHREYS, (John,<sup>1</sup>), was born about 1714, as he comes on the tax lists in Charlestown township in 1735 as a single freeman for one year only. It is believed that he left for Virginia shortly thereafter. He died 1788 or 1789 in Surry County, N. C. When and to whom he married is unknown. It seems probable that he married and lived in Virginia until his children were grown. Then he moved on into Surry County, N. C.

He purchased 400 acres of land in Surry Co., N. C. in 1782, paying for it with 1200 pounds of Virginia Currency. This land was near the present town of Mt. Airy, just over the Virginia line.

GENEALOGY

Daniel was a man of prominence being Captain of a tax district in Surry County. He listed 500 acres, five white polls and one negro poll in 1784. A year later he had 800 acres but only four white polls as David seems to have established his own farm at that time. In 1789 Benjamin listed the land that had belonged to Daniel so he must have died shortly before.

Daniel had sold some of his land to Richard Laurence and some to his son, David. After his death, Benjamin bought the interest of the other heirs in his home place.

No complete list of his children has been located and the order of their births is uncertain.

(6) JOHN<sup>2</sup> HUMPHREYS, (John,<sup>1</sup>), was born about 1715-1720. He was living in 1729 when his father's home place was sold to his brother David. But he never appears on the tax records of Charlestown township, Chester Co., Pa.

(See Appendix)

(7) JONATHAN<sup>2</sup> HUMPHREYS, (David,<sup>2</sup> John,<sup>1</sup>), was born about 1733 on the old Humphreys farm in Charlestown township, Chester Co., Pa. He died Sept. or Oct. 1813 in Fayette Co., Ky. He married about 1785 to Elizabeth Crawford, daughter of Alexander and Mary (McPheters) Crawford, and granddaughter of William and Rebecca (Thompson) McPheters. Elizabeth Crawford was the sister of Rev. James Crawford, a noted pioneer Presbyterian minister in Kentucky. She was evidently dead before Jonathan dated his will on 7 Sept. 1813.

Jonathan first comes on the tax list of Charlestown township, Chester Co., Pa. in 1756, as a single freeman. He last appears on that list in 1771. For the years 1764 to 1766 he is listed with 100 acres of land.

Like many of his relatives, Jonathan left Pennsylvania and went to Virginia. In Augusta Co. on 21 Nov. 1780, he was sworn in as Lieutenant. (Va. Militia in Rev. War, by J. C. McAllister, Sec. 235)

In 1781, a company commanded by William Kincade, Jacob Warwick and Jonathan Humphreys, served in lower Virginia under Col. Sampson Mathews, of Augusta Co. (Old King William Homes and Families, p. 73)

His service seems to have been of short duration for on 8 Oct. 1782, Captain Charles Hamilton records that "Wm. Slavens was chosen Ensign in my company of Augusta Militia in the room of Jonathan Humphries who hath resigned his commission, and is recommended to court of county for commission." (Va. Soldiers of 1776 by Burgess, Vol. 1, p. 277)

He seems to have moved from Augusta Co., Va., with his family, in 1797 along with his wife's people and settled in Fayette Co., Ky. It is interesting that his younger brother, Joshua, was also leaving Virginia for Fayette Co., Ky. at about this same time. The death dates for these two brothers are recorded side by side in the Bible of Charles Humphreys, a son of Joshua.

Jonathan is listed as bondsman for his two daughters when they married in Fayette Co. He may have obtained some land earlier but a deed made 27 Oct. 1809 in Fayette Co., by George Winn and Milly, his wife, transfers 26 acres, part of Lewis Military survey, to Jonathan Humphries.

His will, recorded on p. 14, Book "B," in Fayette Co., Ky., was dated 7 Sept. 1813 and probated Oct. 1813. It mentions no wife. Daughters were Catherine and Martha and a grandson, James Banford. Executors were: Henry McDonald and Thomas Ferguson. Witnesses were: James Whalen, Robert Marshall and George C. Muir.

Children of Jonathan and Elizabeth, surname HUMPHREYS:

- i. Catherine, died unmarried in 1851. In her father's will she was left 27 acres on the "creek" and also the tan yard. Her own will, probated 10 March 1851, mentions her nephew, James Banford and her sister, Martha Ferguson. (Fayette Co., Ky. Will Book T, p. 17)
- ii. Martha, was married 14 July 1806, Fayette Co., Ky. to Thomas Ferguson.
- iii. Mary (Polly), was married 5 April 1804 in Fayette Co., Ky., to William Banford. Their children, surname BANFORD:
  - a. James Crawford, married Fanny Lawson Evans.
  - b. William H., married Laura Bowman Latham, whose father, Dr. Latham, was a first cousin of Gov. Charles Morehead, of Ky.
  - c. Sallie Preston, married Dr. Sidney Buford Phillips.

(8) SAMUEL<sup>2</sup> HUMPHREYS, (David,<sup>2</sup> John,<sup>1</sup>), was born about 1735, Charlestown township, Chester Co., Pa. He died before February 1801, in Surry Co., N. C. He married his cousin, Rachel, (daughter of Daniel Humphreys). She was still living in Williamson County, Tennessee, when the 1830 census was taken and was between 80 and 90 years of age at that time. It is probable that she was buried in the family graveyard on the farm of her brother Benjamin Humphreys.

Samuel does not appear on the tax lists in Charlestown township, Chester Co., Pa. It is believed that he left Pennsylvania as a young man and joined his uncle, Daniel, in Virginia. He acted as attorney for Daniel in the purchase of Daniel's farm in Surry County, N. C.

Samuel took up land grants and bought and sold land in Surry County, N. C. (See records under Daniel—5)

The 1790 census for Surry Co., lists Samuel Humphries with 1 male over 16; 2 males under sixteen and two females. The 1800 census shows 1 male 45 or over, 1 female 45 or over, 2 males 16-26 and 1 female 16-26. The 1810 census shows none of this family in Surry County.

This family disposed of its property in Surry Co., in 1805 and joined the family of Benjamin Humphreys and moved to Williamson County, Tennessee.

In 1816, Elijah Humphreys, of Sumner County, Tenn., willed his sister Rachel a bed stand and furniture.

Children of Samuel and Rachel, surname HUMPHREYS:

17. i. David
18. ii. Charles Lewis
- iii. Catherine. She was over sixteen when the 1800 census was taken in Surry Co., N. C. She and her daughter, Sally, received bequests in the will of her uncle, Elijah, which was dated August 1816 in Sumner Co., Tenn.

GENEALOGY

In 1772 John and Ann Humphreys purchased from David and Catherine Humphreys, the homestead of 112 and 1/2 acres. John continued the operation of the tannery which his father had started many years before.

HUMPHREYS HOUSE built 1778 by John and Ann Humphreys on a portion of the original tract bought by his grandfather, John, in 1716. This stone house, considerably remodeled, is still in use (1952) by present owners.

The key stone bearing the date 1778 indicates the year that John and Ann built their commodious stone house on this farm. Although much remodeled, this house is still in use (1952) by the family that has owned it for more than thirty years.

As most of the Humphreys and some of the Norths had already gone to Virginia, John and Ann sold their home to Ezekiel Howell in 1790. Their names are not found in the 1790 census. Several of the North families were living in Cumberland county at that time so it is possible that John and Ann were visiting there on their way to Virginia.

While a relatively young man, John did not enter into farming or business after reaching Virginia. He may have been in ill health following his service in the Revolutionary War for he lived but a few years after reaching Virginia.

John and Ann were assessed in Charles Town for the years 1793-1796.

Ann died in Virginia. George North, of Virginia was twice married and a son of the second wife (Nathaniel Green North) says that his mother's name was Keyes and her mother's name was Hall, of Halltown."

9 Jan. 1905. "According to the NORTH family tree, Ann North and John Humphreys had: David, George, Roger, John, Ann, and Abby. The children of David were: John, David, Thomas, George, Sarah, and Susan. The children of Roger were: Robert, John, George, Ann, Maria, and Emily. The children of Ann (Humphreys) Kearsley were: Ann, George, Samuel, and John. The children of Abby (Humphreys) Tate were: Mary, Magnus, Willimina, George, and John. 11. "Phoenixville and its Vicinity" Pennypacker, p. 115. "When Washington's Army was encamped at Valley Forge, which is only a few miles distant from the old Humphreys Place, many of the farm houses in this vicinity were selected by the officers for their quarters, and others were pressed into service as hospitals. The Humphrey House as well as the Yost Smith and John Varley Houses situated immediately adjoining the Humphrey Place were all used as Hospitals. In addition a large hospital was erected on the farm of Yost Smith, which was part of the original 340 acres and had been formerly owned by John Humphreys. The soldiers placed there had the small pox and camp fever. About forty-five of them died and were buried beneath some cherry trees a hundred yards eastward from the barn."

Present day visitors in this community will find that the original Humphreys land has again been selected for an Army Hospital. VALLEY FORGE GENERAL HOSPITAL has been constructed on this land, and extends to within a very short distance from the stone house built by Lieut. John Humphreys of the Revolutionary War. The owners kept possession of the old home.

Mr. David Humphreys

Dear Cousin:

With pleasure and interest I have tried to gather some information for your North Genealogy. But for our delayed equinoctial storm on Monday, which seems to have visited you more seriously, I would have sent this off sooner. Just before receiving Mary's letter, I took the enclosed clipping from a Baltimore paper for further inquiry. This Col. George Humphreys North is the eldest son of Mr. Geo. N., of Philadelphia, who married Miss Clemson, a sister of Mrs. Washington whom you remember as visiting his relatives here. He came here with U. S. or Federal army, the same one who captured the Sword from his kinsman, Mr. Greene North. The history of this Sword you will find on page 174 of the Book we send you. Mr. K. borrowed from Mag. Keyes. In it mention is made of your North ancestors in connection with the Keyes Family more satisfactory than I could write. Mr. Geo. North and wife are dead, his second son Walter is a minister in Buffalo, three or four younger are living in Philadelphia. John Washington says he will write his brother in Philadelphia for the address of one of these cousins for me to send you. The only daughter, Bessie, is unmarried, is very wealthy from legacies of old Uncles and Aunts of the Norths. One was named Caleb, living in Penn. Mr. North, her father was poor, I always heard. Mr. Green N. and son Robert died in Miss. Mrs. Sarah Hawks has kept up with the widow of R. She (Mrs. H.) saw the Sword taken at her Fathers. Annie Campbell had an old letter written to Wm. Darke North of Bunker Hill, Va., from Joshua N., in Tompkins Co., N. Y., 1854. He had receipt for payment of 38 guineas to Caleb North, Cork, Ireland, and family, eleven in number, dated May 1st 1729, to go to America, arriving in Philadelphia, July 20th. The eldest son Roger married a Swede Ann Rambo, the letter says (the Book says Lydia) had eight sons and five daughters, one of them Ann married Humphreys. Annie C. thinks his name was David, he came from Penn. to the Old Furnace in Iron Business, died there. Col. George H., when young was with him. The widow moved to Martinsburg but died at Belvidere. They were the grandparents of my husband and your Father. Capt. Geo. N. was her brother, married Eliza Keyes, the parents of Wm. D. and of N. G. North. Annie C. says she was with her in her last illness at Mr. Worthington's. Your grandmother Keyes was Sarah Hall. The family gave Halltown its name. I hope I have been explicit without wearying you and that you and better half are in improved health, you, looking as well as when I left you. After two weeks Mr. K has his hand on a board in a sling but comfortable—cough is better, the changes in weather give one cold which I try to walk off when weather admits, over these rough storms. My hand is unsteady in writing, from age I suppose but I scarcely recognize it. Annie C. says your Sister's Portrait is at her house when you wish it.

Affectionately,

Your Cousin R

(10) JOSHUA<sup>3</sup> HUMPHREYS, (David,<sup>2</sup> John,<sup>1</sup>), was born 1743, in Charlestown (now Schuylkill) township, Chester Co., Pa. He died 1 April 1810 in Lexington, Ky. He married 24 Nov. 1768, in Philadelphia, to Ann Katherine Jones. Her parents are not verified. Cope Collection, Vol. 46, p. 133 says that Anne Jones was daughter of Malachi and Mary (Parry) Jones and grand daughter of the Rev. Malachi Jones, of Abington, Pa.

Joshua first appears on the tax list of Charlestown township in 1764. Beginning in 1769 he is in the neighboring township of Tredyffrin, where he is designated as "clockmaker" and holder of eight acres of land. In 1771 he was in East Whiteland township where he had forty acres and was still classed as "clockmaker." An interesting account of Joshua and his clocks will be found in a well illustrated book, "Chester County Clocks and their Makers" by Dr. Arthur E. James, of West Chester, Pa. One of Joshua's clocks is in the Chester County Historical Society Museum.

Joshua and Ann migrated to Staunton, Augusta County, Virginia, where he bought land in 1775 and continued as clockmaker. While in Staunton, Joshua served as vestryman and warden of the parish for 1778-9. He served on the commission of the peace of the shire and later was chosen as one of the judges of the county. In 1779 he was appointed to take tithables for Captain Smith's company.

In 1781 Joshua and Ann left Augusta County and went to Richmond, Virginia, doubtless because his occupation favored living in a city. The 1782 census lists the entire family in Richmond.

But finally Joshua decided to go to Kentucky, possibly because his older brother, Jonathan, was also going there, so he sold his Richmond, Virginia, property in October 1789 and in November he was passing through Augusta County on his way to Kentucky.

He seems to have had several land grants in Fayette and Bourbon Counties but because of his skill as a clockmaker, made his home in Lexington.

In the family Bible of his son, Charles, we find his death date and age. Also death date of his elder brother, Jonathan.

He has often been confused with his contemporary—Joshua Humphreys of Delaware County, Pennsylvania, distinguished builder of ships for the U. S. Navy.

The family left Pennsylvania about 1790 and went to Warm Springs in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia and then moved on to Lexington, Kentucky, as Joshua held a 400 acre land grant in Fayette County, Ky. He had served as a private in Captain Robert Cochran's Company of Chester County (Pa.) Militia.

From Kentucky, the family moved on into Ohio in 1798. All of the children were born in Chester County, Pennsylvania.

"The speaker for the occasion was Col. R. T. Jaynes, who gave a most interesting and entertaining historical sketch, closing by calling attention to the Masonic apron which he wore and which was once the property of Captain David Humphreys and had been worn on many state occasions. It is very old and fragile but with care will last for many generations to come, the dainty embroidery still being bright enough to show how beautiful it once was.

The grave had been marked for years with a massive boulder of native stone but without any name upon it. The tablet read as follows:

County of Floyd )

On this 18th day of February 1834 personally appeared in open court before the Justices of the Floyd County Court now sitting, John Moore, a resident of Kentucky in the County of Floyd aged seventy-five years, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. That he entered the service of the United States under the following named officers and served as herein stated. He first entered the service on or about the 15th day of May in the year 1781 as a volunteer in the militia of North Carolina, in a company commanded by Captain DAVID UMPHREYS. BENJAMIN UMPHREYS was Lieutenant, SOLOMON UMPHREYS was Ensign and ..... Hawk, Sergeant of the Company. He then resided in the County of Surry and State of North Carolina. He met his company on or about the day above stated at a small town in Surry County, N. C., called Richmond. After lying at Richmond 2 or 3 weeks Major White and Phillips and Col. James Martin, Colonel of the regiment to which his company belonged arrived and we then marched on to a place called Moravian Town where we were joined by another company of militia. We then marched to headquarters in the woods not far distant from Salisbury when we joined General Rutherford, the commander-in-chief of the militia. The day that his company joined the troops at headquarters several other companies of militia arrived and the next day we marched on towards South Carolina line in different directions chiefly (as he then understood) for the purpose of keeping the Tories down, not stopping at any one place more than two days at a time passing in our march what was then called Cross Creek Settlement and Cape Fear Settlement besides other places not now recollected, till we came near Wilmington in the State of North Carolina; when we advanced within about half a mile of the town and fired several rounds towards the town and then marched into the town. There were about fifty prisoners found in the town in prison left there by the British and Tories when they evacuated it, some of whom he saw after their liberation in a very wretched condition almost destitute of clothing and much emaciated. - - -"

9. LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT of DAVID HUMPHREYS—Recorded 20 March 1839 in Will Book No. 1, pages 59, 60, 61. Picken's District, South Carolina.

I, David Humphreys of Picken's District in the State aforesaid, for the disposition of such property as it has pleased God to bless me in this world, do make and ordain this my last will and testament.

FIRST: I desire that all my just debts and my funeral expenses be paid by my executor, for which purpose they will appropriate any money I may die possessed of which, collect any debts which may be due to me or if need be, sell any property which may be best spared.

SECOND: I give and bequeath to my wife Martha Humphreys, during her natural life, the following property—viz: one third part of my land to be ascertained as hereinafter directed only requiring that her part shall include the house wherein I now live—also two negro men, Ben and Charles, and a negro woman, Tanas and all her children now born or which hereafter may be born, also such portion of my stock of all descriptions—household furniture and plantation implements of every kind, as my executors may deem amply sufficient for her comfort and convenience, together with such parts of the crop on hand and provision in store for house and farm, as may in their judgement and discretion, be necessary—and at her death such of the above as remains to be disposed of as will be found hereinafter more fully directed.

THIRD: I give and bequeath to my son John T. Humphreys all the property hereto put in his possession confirming his title or the title of those to whom he may convey the same.

FOURTH: I direct that the land whereon I now live be divided by my executors or by fit and proper person to be chosen by them, into three parts or parcels as nearly equal as may be. One part of which, including the house be for my wife as aforesaid, one other part of the said land I give and bequeath to my son David Humphreys, his heirs and assigns forever. I also give to my son David all property heretofore put in his possession, confirming his title to the same or the titles of those to whom he may have sold.

FIFTH: Having given my bond for title for the land intended for Charles, he having received the proceeds, the same is regarded as his part of the land. I also give and bequeath to him all other property of which he has been heretofore put in possession, confirming his title or the title of those to whom he may have sold.

SIXTH: I give and bequeath to my son Thomas J. Humphreys, the remaining third part of my lands to be ascertained as before directed and to be located between the lot assigned to his brother David and his mother, and also that part given to his mother during her life, after her death to the said Thomas J. Humphreys his heirs and assigns forever. I also give to my son Thomas J., a negro boy Bill or William. In consideration of the foregoing bequest to my son Thomas J., I charge him with the care of his aged mother and the negroes and other property whilst the same are kept together in pursuance of this will. I also give him my old negro fellow Will for the purpose of having him taken care of for the balance of his life.

SEVENTH: I give and bequeath to my daughters Sarah Towers, Martha Elston, and Keturah Harriett Lee respectively, all the property heretofore put into their possession.

EIGHTH: All the residue of my estate except the negroes, I desire to be sold and the proceeds, together with the negroes, I desire to be divided between all of my children, share and share alike—the negroes instead of being sold to be appraised singly or in lots under the direction of my executor, and by them assigned to such of my children as may agree to take them, they making up to the others any deficiency in their lot, or paying in money such sum or sums as shall render all equal. If more than one should claim a lot the preference to be decided by lot. In this division I desire and direct that the children of any deceased child shall be represented by such father or mother and after the death of my wife I desire and direct that the personal estate given to her during her natural life shall be divided in the same manner as the residue of my estate as above, that is the negroes by appraisement and assignment—the rest by sale and distribution among all my children equally except that my daughters Sarah Towers and Keturah Harriett Lee if then alive shall each receive one hundred and twenty one dollars to make them equal with their other sister Martha Elston first and then the balance to be distributed as aforesaid, the children of any deceased child representing its parents.

NINTH: I authorize and direct my executor, in the event of my death before I shall have the opportunity to do so myself, to make good and sufficient warranty titles to the lands sold by Charles, the title being still in myself though intended for him.

TENTH: I nominate and appoint my sons John T., and David Humphreys and my friend Joseph N. Whitner executors of this my last will and testament and now that I have, under great solicitude, made to my judgement the best disposition of my worldly estate for the benefit of my children I exhort them to a continuance of their affection for each other and all proper allowances for the supposed inferiorities of a father who desires to leave this record of the great satisfaction they have given him heretofore in life. Let them therefore acquiesce in their dispositions and never disgrace themselves or the family by a litigation in court but if they cannot agree, appoint their own friends to determine for them.

Witness my hand and seal this fifteenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and thirty six and sixty first year of American Independence.

(13) BENJAMIN<sup>3</sup> HUMPHREYS, (Daniel,<sup>2</sup> John,<sup>1</sup>), was born about 1755-1760, probably in Virginia. Family records say he died 27 July 1814, in Williamson Co., Tenn. (Court records indicate the year was 1815.) His wife was Jane Lawrence, (daughter of Richard and Isabelle Lawrence, of Surry Co., N. C.). She died 27 July 1808. Doubtless they are both buried in the family graveyard on what was Benjamin's farm in Williamson Co., Tenn.

Benjamin served as a witness when his father purchased his farm in Surry Co., N. C. He had a land grant for fifty acres and also bought and sold other tracts in Surry Co. He first appears on the Surry Co. tax lists in 1789 when he lists 785 acres and three white polls. This was evidently his father's land and the polls were for his brothers. He purchased the interest of his brothers in the land left by their father, Daniel. Two years later he gave a small tract of this land to Casandra and John Humphreys, and then in 1804, sold the remaining land before leaving for Tennessee.

It is probable that as he went to Tennessee he was accompanied by his brothers, Dr. Solomon, and Elijah, by his sister Rachel and her three children, and possibly by some members of the Lawrence and Orton families.

In 1805, Benjamin purchased a farm of 153 acres in Williamson Co., Tennessee, and on it the family lived, died, and were buried until it was sold in 1822. One acre was reserved at that time for the grave yard.

In 1809, about a year after his wife died, Benjamin carefully drew up his will. It provided that nothing be disposed of until 1822, so that all his young children could be kept together at the family home until they were grown. His directions were carefully carried out by the elder son.

Family tradition states that Benjamin was seriously ill at Valley Forge while serving in the Revolutionary War. It is probable that he visited the family of his cousin, John Humphreys, at the old family home. Later Benjamin served in the militia in North Carolina.

His descendants carry the tradition that he was related to General Anthony Wayne. This has been accounted for earlier in this book.

His will carries a list of the names of his children then living but the order of their births is not definitely known.

7. Revolutionary War Record of Benjamin Humphreys From the War Department,
Adjutant General's Office May 5, 1931

The records of this office show that Benjamin Humphreys served in the Revolutionary War as a private in Captain Jason Riddick's Company of the 4th Virginia Regiment, commanded by Major Isaac Beall. He was drafted February tenth, 1778, for one year. In June, 1778 he was transferred to Captain George Walls' Company in the 4th, 8th and 12th Virginia Regiment, commanded by Colonel James Wood, and was reported sick at Valley Forge. In October, 1778 he was transferred to Captain John Steed's Company of the 4th Virginia Regiment, commanded by Colonel John Nevill and he was discharged February 16, 1779.

The name Benjamin Humphreys has not been found on the records on file in this office of soldiers in the Revolutionary War from North Carolina.

The collection of Revolutionary War Records in this office is far from complete, and it is suggested as a possibility that additional information may be obtained from the Librarian, Virginia State Library, Richmond, or from the Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C., or from the North Carolina Historical Society, Raleigh.

8. BENJAMIN HUMPHREYS, deceased, Will, October Session, 1815. From the records of Williamson County, Tennessee, certified by Mr. D. L. Jones, County Court Clerk.

In the name of God, Amen:—I, Benjamin Humphreys of the County of Williamson and State of Tennessee, being of sound and perfect mind and memory, blessed be God, do this tenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and nine, make and publish this my last will and testament in maner and form following (viz).

First I recommend my soul to God who gave it, and my body to the grave in hopes and full assurance of the resurrection at the last day, and as to my worldly things with which the Lord has blessed me, my will and desire is that they be divided in maner following. Item, that all my just debts be paid by my executors hereafter named. Item, my will and desire is that my family, viz, my children and slaves that I have now in possession with all that may appertain to me, with all my stock of every kind, household furniture and plantation tools of every kind may with my children remain where I now live until the year One thousand eight hundred and twenty-two, at which time I wish all my estate moveable and immovable, equally divided amongst the heirs of the body of Jincy Orton, Daniel Jones Humphreys, Polly Humphreys, Willie Jones Humphreys, Elijah Humphreys, Sally Humphreys, Anna Humphreys, Harriet Humphreys, and Hesther Humphreys, to be done in the following maner, viz. For the children to choose three, five or seven good honest men of the neighborhood to apportion the whole of my estate at that time in nine allotments and the children draw for choice according to seniority, beginning at the eldest and in rotation down to the youngest, and should any of the above named legatees die in their nonage the division at the time above mentioned be made equally amongst the living children.

Item, at the division in the year above mentioned, if my son Daniel Jones, Willy Jones, or Elijah all wish to have a part of my tract of land, I wish it equally divided amongst them, according to quantity and quality and be reckoned in their parts in the division, but if any of them should not wish to take a part in it, then I wish the one or two who want it, to have it if they can pay up the other legatees, and further my desire that if any of my sons should take the plantation where I now live, that it should be a home for my younger children until they marry or are otherwise provided for. Furthermore, my will and desire is that my executors shall let my children have such things as may suit them and be best spared as they come to need them, and a just account to be kept against each child by my executors to enable the children to make settlement with each other at the time above mentioned, and I do appoint, constitute and ordain my true and trusty friend Robert Hudspeth and my son Daniel Jones (when he comes to be of age) executors of this my last will and testament, hereby making null and void all and every will and wills heretofore made by me, ratifying and confirming this. In writing whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the day and date above written.

Benj. Humphreys (SEAL)

Signed, sealed and delivered in presence of Henry Lawrence, John P. Irion.

(14) SOLOMON<sup>3</sup> HUMPHREYS, (Daniel,<sup>2</sup> John,<sup>1</sup>) was doubtless born in Virginia about 1750-60. He died in June or July 1817, in Williamson Co., Tenn., and is probably buried in the graveyard on the farm formerly owned by his brother, Benjamin. Family tradition and all other evidence indicates that he was unmarried.

It is probable that he came into North Carolina along with his father and brothers, from Virginia. North Carolina Land Grants (Book 77, p. 41) indicate that he was issued 300 acres on 10 Dec. 1790 but had entered the land 26 May 1780, so he must have been a grown man at that time. This land grant he sold in 1793 to Drury McGee, his brother in law.

Solomon is not listed in the 1790 census for Surry Co., N. C. but was probably included as one of the "males over 16" under the name of Benjamin.

On 20 May 1794 he bought 260 acres of land (in Grainger Co., Tenn.) from Joseph Beard, the consideration being 100 pounds.

(Deed Book A, p. 192. Grainger Co., Tenn.) Witnesses were John Bowman and his two brothers Elijah and David. It is doubtful that he ever lived on this property.

In 1795 he joined his brothers in selling to Benjamin, his father's farm. It seems probable that he joined Benjamin in the move to Williamson Co., Tenn., in 1805.

Whether or not he had served previously is not known but he was Ensign in the company which his brother David served as Captain. This company was part of the N. C. militia. The record is found under his brother, David (12).

He is first mentioned in Williamson Co., Tenn., in 1813. Doubtless he had been there with Benjamin all along but having purchased no land, there was no record of his presence. In 1816 Elijah Humphreys, of Sumner Co., Tennessee, bequeathed to his brother, Dr. Solomon Humphreys, "the whole of my clothes and wearing apparel except one black coat."

Williamson Co., Tenn. Wills and Inventories Book B, p. 312 indicates that at the July session, 1817, Solomon was deceased and an inventory was filed by D'l (Daniel) Humphreys. This shows such items as—a sorrel horse, a saddle bridle and whip, a silver watch, saddle bags, a Morocco pocket book, a case of medicines, a set of medical books "Hughes Lectures," and a case of razors. Most of these items were purchased before the October term of court by Daniel Humphreys, his nephew; David Humphreys, son of his cousin Samuel; and David Orton.

Family tradition says that he was "a doctor of great renown." Doubtless he was an important person in that newly settled country.

A record of his military service will be found under his brother David—(12).

On 13 Aug. 1795 he joined his brothers in selling to their brother Benjamin, the land formerly owned by their father. His seal and signature occur on the deed and the recital indicates that the one hundred pounds of Virginia Currency was paid in hand to Elijah Humphreys.

On 13 May 1794, Elijah was one of the witnesses when Joseph Beard sold 250 acres of land in Hawkins (now Grainger) Co., Tenn., to Solomon Humphreys. The above transaction was registered 5 March 1801 in Deed Book A, p. 192, Grainger Co., Tenn., and there appears this statement: "Be it remembered that on the twenty-fifth day of October one thousand eight hundred, before me Archibald Roan, one of the judges of the Superior Courts of law and equity for the State, personally appeared Elijah Humphries, a subscribing witness to the within indenture, and made oath that he saw Joseph Beard the grantor therein named, sign, seal, and deliver the same as his act and deed. Let it be registered. Arch'd Roane."

Humphreys two hundred and twenty acres of land out of the three hundred and twenty acres that is coming to me from Thomas Masy for a six hundred and forty acre land warrant which I let the said Masy have. Weathered his security, entered into and acknowledged their bond to the Governor in the penalty of five hundred dollars conditioned as the law directs.

(16) JOHN<sup>3</sup> HUMPHREYS, (Daniel<sup>2</sup> John,<sup>1</sup>). Probably born in Virginia and came into Surry Co., N. C., along with the other members of the family. He may have been the youngest son. He died Oct. or Nov. 1832 in Surry Co., N. C. He was unmarried.

He had no land grants and bought no land in Surry Co. When he joined his brothers in disposing of their father's land to Benjamin, they signed their names to the deed while he made his mark.

(17) DAVID<sup>1</sup> HUMPHREYS, (Samuel,<sup>3</sup> David,<sup>2</sup> John,<sup>1</sup>), was born about 1780-1783 in Virginia or soon after the family reached Surry County, N. C. When and where he died is unknown. Nothing has been found to indicate that he was ever married.

He had a few land transactions in Surry Co., N. C. Then after the death of his father, he and his mother, sister and brother seem to have joined his Uncle Benjamin in their move to Williamson County, Tennessee.

There is no record of his having bought land in Williamson County. He did take up land grants in Western Tennessee but it is doubtful that he ever lived on them.

Census records seem to indicate that he cared for his widowed mother, who was over eighty years of age when the 1830 census was taken in Williamson County.

Before 1816 his uncle, Elijah, had assigned to him a land warrant (location unknown) for 140 acres of land. Elijah also willed to David, his silver watch.

In 1816 he served as executor of the estate of his uncle, Elijah Humphreys, of Sumner Co., Tenn. From this estate he inherited 220 acres of land, a bay horse, a shot gun, shoe making tools, farming tools, kitchen furniture, and all money and accounts of his uncle.

He is not listed in the 1830 census record for Williamson Co., Tenn., and seems to have owned no land in that county.

In 1822 he took a land grant in Madison Co., Tenn., and in 1824 he joined with his brother David in another land grant in Madison Co. As the jointly held land grant was sold in 1829 for David Humphreys, no mention being made of Charles, it is possible that Charles was dead at that time.

No list of his children has been located and only one child has been identified.

- i. David W.      b. 1825; date of death is unknown; married before 1850 to Frances H. Baugh, (daughter of Daniel Baugh, of Williamson Co., Tenn.) b. 1828; living 1854.

Dear Son
 Enclosed I have returned the deed agreeably to your request of June 24. I have kept a copy and I am at a loss what more to say about it, as probably I do not understand it therefore it will probably be best for me to be further advised for if I do understand it a single clause in it makes it something or nothing no I suppose for the purpose intended, for judgments causes all hereditary rights after judgment to the person to be obtained. I mean other judgments should be made only that which is provided for in the mortgage clause, upon the whole I consider it a mere subterfuge I shall do every thing that is right and just. I did not think of receiving more at least say the amount received. I am sorry to hear that you are to be imprisoned, to be sure it was of record but it is a long time since the property is worth or will bring at a forced sale. I have frequently denied themselves by such contracts and do not wish to be taken in by them in making them believe there is something where there is nothing. I should like to know how Mr. S. can dispose of or remove this property. I am not kind of an instrument of writing. I must make a deed you will say to a third person with I mean no responsibility there. When you have become say to me whether it is a bona fide transaction in your opinion or not. I will do all I can honestly and honorably when I am so sure what I am about and I must understand it before I act.
 Now my dear son give my best love to Sarah Ann & Susan should you like to be with you with my best wishes for yourself and their little ones I remain affectionately
 David Humphreys

Extracts—"An expedition appeared at the mouth of the Patuxent River, in Maryland, on August 22, 1814. Captain Henry St. George Tucker—sent an urgent appeal for aid—When news of the country's dilemma reached Charles Town—in less than two hours over fifty men had enrolled.—The company left Charles Town the next morning for Harpers Ferry. On Wednesday, August 24, the men embarked on two flour boats. After an hour's voyage the company landed and elected officers—George W. Humphreys being captain.—After travelling down the Potomac quite a distance members heard the sound of firing at Bladensburg, a few miles out of Washington.—The Jefferson volunteers were too late for the fighting. When they reached the mouth of Seneca Creek, they saw the capital in flames.—Captain Humphreys then decided to report to General Winder at Rockville. When Humphreys arrived there his company was mustered into service on Aug. 26 for thirty days. The company pitched camp near the later site of the Naval Observatory and after a few monotonous days marched to a place known as the White House, several miles below Mt. Vernon on the Potomac. There on Sept. 2 the company joined Commodore David Porter. He had placed three six-pounders on a bluff and was waiting to harass two British ships. The vessels had captured Alexandria and were expected to pass by on the return trip. As the channel at this point was near the Virginia shore, they would be forced within easy rifle shot. Captain Humphreys' men were posted in the woods.—When the warships appeared on September 5, they had little difficulty running the gauntlet. The three small cannon inflicted small damage but the riflemen were able to cause casualties. They were so eager to get good aim that they threw caution to the winds and went down to the river shore in full view of the British.—From the heavy grape shot of the British vessels the volunteers suffered most, David Harris was killed by grape-shot; David Humphreys (elder brother of the Captain of the company) had his right hand and arm shattered, which rendered amputation necessary.—the volunteers returned home and on September 24 were mustered out of service."

David Humphreys neither asked for nor received pension for injury, claiming that "all who could do so should serve their country without remuneration, and leave thus the more for those not so fortunate."

Further comment concerning this injury will be found in a letter written by his grandson, David Humphreys (No. 62).

It is interesting to note the signature of David Humphreys before and after the loss of his right arm. Photostats of signed documents are shown.

Charlestown, September 21st 1841

Dear Daughter:

I received yours dated the 24th Aug. and must say as Solomon says, the one blessing on this earth is to receive good intelligence from our relations in a far country. I had heard of your having another son. Your father wrote to the Doctor but your letter was more pleasing because then I knew you were able to write and to hear more fully from Thomas and the children. I was sorry I could not go this spring. I wonder you did not hear it before. I wrote to Thomas as soon as I had given it out. I found I could not leave your Pa all alone and I do not think he has his health as good as he used to have it, and he has no one in the store at this time and I have to help him. He sometimes has John's son, John Thomas. Joseph goes to school at a place called Wickcliff a short distance from home, the others go but nearer, I believe only one mile. Your Pa says I must not tell he has no one in the store. He intends to get a little boy this fall. The large ones take more to keep then they can make at these times so much oposition in store keeping and he goes on in a small way just for something to do as he cannot be entirely without doing a little. Tell Ellwood I wish he was large enough to come see me, but I have still a hope that some day that kind providence may grant me that earthly blessing that of seeing my children and grandchildren, but to the great supreme I submit. John would like very much to visit you again but he has a large family, three just grown and you may be sure it gives him head work as well as hands to do to keep all straight. The girls are very industrious, make all their own dresses. Mary is as fat as she can be. She has had but one since you left, that a fine boy named George, born on his Uncle George's birthday. Since your Pa soled the tanyard he hires the black boys out. Ben does for our house boy. I have a pretty good woman but she has four children. Our relations are all well except Willelma Asqueth with a pain in her side quite bad. She boards at Mr. Carter's. Ann Carter's well and has a house full of children. All your old acquaintances still multiply to fulfill the great command. Mrs. Sappington has none that the only one. Mary Polk was married to John Brown, your groomsman. He became so disapated his Uncle took him to llenois there he practiced law and reformed. He has been away about three or four years, returned about two months ago and married and she has gone with him. Thomas remembers John Crane, he has been living in the south for some time, a merchant in Arkansas, come in to see his Mother about three months ago. Last week he was married to L. Sadler's daughter. Next month she will start with him. Goes by where Susan lives. I would like to send some little things I have made for the children but I am not acquainted enough with them. I have made aprons for your little ones too and for all my grandchildren, that is the girls, the boys I have to send unmade as I can make none to fit. Nightcaps and aprons is all I can make at so great a distance. I am glad you will have a church so near. I hope you may get a minister that will have an interest for the flock but—to see there so many for the ..... They have raised our pues five dollars more besides collections every month. If it gets much larger it will be like the tithes of England not the apostiles who worked with their own hands. Paul gloried because he was not chargeable to no man. Mr. Hill kept school and preached a better sermon than many that does nothing but write one all week, though I know all have not the same gift but if the heart is right God giveth the utterance. I have but little news as I go out but seldom. John Kearsley manages his father's farm, looks very well. Christeen and children well. The Doctor talks of going out to see all of you next spring. You please give my love to your parents and little ones, receive my best wishes and kind love both you and Thomas.

Your ever thoughtful Mother, C. H.
(Catherine (Keyes) Humphreys)

I have just now met the Doctor in the store. He says you must not call your son Levy for he when grown will not thank you for it. Falval he says is a handsome name.

(Letter addressed to: Mrs. Helen A. Humphreys, Manchester, St. Louis County, Mo.)

NOTE: The Doctor was Dr. Levi O'Conner Cordell, brother of Helen (Cordell) Humphreys.

Be it known that the estate of William Tate deceased owed to the executor Geo. W. Humphreys for the 4th day of September in the year 1836 for the hire of his (the executor's) negroes, and interest on the same to that date, and for cash advanced for the payment of debts of said estate, and interest on it also to that date, the sum of five thousand seven hundred and eighty three dollars and forty eight cents (over in the account) on the 1st of Christmas day last, the said executor on that day owe him the said Geo. W. Humphreys five thousand and eighty three dollars and forty eight cents (over in the account) in interest on the said sum, and that for services of his (the executor's) and Frederick since the said 1st day of September in the year 1836. For the aforesaid sum of $5883.48 which the said Geo. W. Humphreys owes on both was paid due to him on Christmas day last, he swears he has received in full, either before or since from the income of the farm or in any other manner except his board for about eight years, which said defendant had supposed would not be more than a reasonable compensation for his poor services, he never having charged any commissions. It must be understood that the sum before mentioned as being due to said executor on Christmas day last was for money advanced to pay debts of the estate and the hire of negroes and interest on both, and does not include between him and said executor, much less in a day, and for other expenses of said Ann's education at Southwestern, nor disbursements any money advanced by said Geo. W. Humphreys to her, nor in which they have agreed to be accountable. The aforesaid sum of $5883.48 in a full and honest demand on the estate of William Tate deceased, has been cancelled, and a receipt made of it to the heirs of said William Tate deceased, which the said defendant had supposed would be considered as a liberal and honest settlement with in a similar case, and perhaps may not frequently occur hereafter. "After a long illness with heart trouble, Mr. Robert R. Smith—citizen of Berryville, died at his home on upper Church Street last Sunday at 1 o'clock.

For over sixty years Mr. S. had been a familiar figure in Berryville. He was born in Berryville Sept. 18, 1829. He was the eldest son of the late Treadwell Smith and his second wife, Ann Humphreys.

His family—prominently identified with this Section for a century and a quarter. His grandfather, Jonathan Smith, was a pioneer citizen of Battletown, Berryville's colonial appellation, given it by Gen. Daniel Morgan. Upon Jonathan Smith's emigration to Ky., about the year 1800, Treadwell Smith, the youngest son, and father of Mr. Roger Smith, remained in Berryville, and during the eighty odd years he spent in this community he accumulated a considerable fortune.

The ancestors of Mr. Smith enjoyed long lives. His grandfather lived to be 95 years old, and when he was in his seventies he was accustomed to ride horseback from Bowling Green, Ky., to Berryville to visit his son. Mr. Treadwell Smith lived to be 81 years old and many of his children, with the exception of Jonathan Smith, II, the father of Capt. J. Rice Smith, of Richmond and Mrs. Sarah J. Crown of Berryville, lived far past the three score years of allotted time.

Mr. Smith married his cousin, Elizabeth Rice, of Jefferson Co., Va. (now W. Va.). Two children, who died in infancy, were born to them.

HUMPHREYS

Before the Civil War, Mr. Roger Smith resided on the old Smith farm just east of Berryville, which is now owned by his nephew, Mr. Blackburn Smith, a well known lawyer of this place. After the war he opened a mercantile business here, and in the eighties he retired from business and has led a retired life since.

Mr. Smith was leading member and vestryman of Grace Episcopal Church. Treas. of the church for 30 years, and for a score of years treas. of Berryville.

—Smith family furnished soldiers—In Rev. War—Jonathan Smith—Treadwell Smith fought in War of 1812 and in the Mexican War. Charles H. Smith, brother of Roger R. Smith, who died about 4 years ago, and Capt. J. Rice Smith fought under the Stars and Bars of the Confederacy. Mr. Blackburn Smith, son of the late Charles H. Smith, was a member of Gen. Fitzhugh Lee's staff in the Spanish Am. War.

Mr. Smith is survived by one sister—Miss Annie M. Smith, who has made her home with her brother since his wife's death in 1894, and a number of nieces and nephews among whom are:

Capt. J. Rice Smith of Richmond.

Mrs. Sarah J. Crown, widow of the late John O. Crown.

Hon. Blackburn Smith, of Berryville.

Miss Emily Smith.

Mrs. Eustace Williams, Louisville, Ky.

He was buried in Green Hill Cemetery.

(23) JOHN<sup>1</sup> HUMPHREYS, (John,<sup>3</sup> David,<sup>2</sup> John,<sup>1</sup>), was born in Charlestown township, Chester Co., Pa., but the date is uncertain. The date of his death is unknown. He was living in 1813 but is said to have died as a young man and without issue. He married 17 Jan. 1811, in Philadelphia, Pa., to Susan (Susannah) Allibone, (daughter of Thomas Allibone, deceased). After the death of John Humphreys, his widow Susan is said to have married Professor Morehead, of Cincinnati, and removed to Ireland, where he had inherited an estate.

1. THE HUMPHREYS FAMILY IN AMERICA suggests that John was the eldest child, but other evidence indicates that he may have been born between 1781 and 1784, there being a gap of five years between the known birth dates for Roger and Anna.

See under John—(9) in the 9 Jan. 1905 letter of Mrs. Calvin B. North. Other than that Hannah was omitted from the list, this is exactly the order of birth for the other children.

It was also a fairly common custom in the Humphreys family in the early days to name the first son in honor of the grandfather rather than the father. See under (46), the 6 May 1897 letter of Saidee Llewellyn.

2. In 1811, John Humphreys bought a lot in Charles Town. This lot, he and Susan sold, 3 Dec. 1813 to John Anderson.

3. During 1812, he was a member of the firm of Humphreys and Keyes operating a general store in Charles Town.

4. Letter from Caleb North to his brother George North.

Philadelphia, Jan. 18, 1811

Dear Brother:

Last evening I was present at the uniting of our mutual friend and relative, Mr. John Humphreys, and Miss Susan Allibone, in the bonds of matrimony. She is the daughter of my particular friend Thomas Allibone, deceased. I recommend her to your notice as a lady of good sense, handsome accomplishments, candid and amiable disposition and will shortly possess not less than ten thousand dollars in property. My prayer is that they may be successful and happy.

I have yielded to their entreaties by letting my daughter Ann accompany them to your village and staying with them (and relatives) until spring. As she goes off in a hurry she will want several articles of clothing, and I would thank you to pay into the hands of Mr. J. H. the amount of the moiety that I paid for you to Johnson, the book seller, say $17.34 principal part. I have directed him to apply to the use above and the remainder to forward to me. His receipt shall be a discharge in full.

On the 14th inst. Mrs. North was safely delivered of a son; both mother and child promise to do well. I have now four sons and four daughters living. You will readily agree with me that the old war-worn soldier will be kept pretty busy to provide for them as long as he is able to make account, as on business I principally depend. Last winter I had the pleasure of the company of Mr. and Mrs. Mark. I am much pleased with them both, and from what I have since learned they will not lament the journey to Philadelphia as I understand the child is quite well.

Your old friends in our city are in good health; but we have lost, about six years ago Joseph North, Jr., in September Uncle Joseph; this winter Mrs. North, the widow of Joseph North, Jr., leaving eight children, all females, and I fear but a slender support, but it is consolation that Cousin Jane and Lydia can and will help them out. Wishing you and your family a full share of the comforts of life and a blissful eternity,

I subscribe myself your affectionate brother,

Caleb North

2. "I Anna Kearsley, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do publish and declare this as my last will and testament.

It is my will and desire, and I do give to my children, including the children of my daughter Ann M. Carter, who are to have the portion my said daughter would have had if living, all my property after payment of and deducting the legacies hereby given.

That portion of the above bequest which would go to my grand-daughter Sarah, I give to my son Geo. W. T. Kearsley, as trustee—for her sole and separate use for her life, and after her death to her children or their descendants living at her death, and if there be none such at her death, then to her brothers and sisters or next of blood kin.

Out of the portion above given to my son John it is my will that my grandson Jonathan B. Kearsley shall have five hundred dollars for the purpose of finishing his education, and if I furnish my said grandson money, or otherwise be at expense for him, I wish that to be deducted from the principal and what may be left to be paid to him when he is twenty-one years of age.

I give my gold watch to my grand daughter Ann H. Carter, and also a little black child—Ellen Ann—which I wish to remain with her mother until Ann can have her properly cared for.

I have given Mary Ann to my grandson Kearsley Carter and I now confirm the gift and request that he will have her taken care of and give her such religious instruction as the law will allow of. She is the daughter of Ellen.

I give to my grandson Thomas L. Carter, my boy Albert, believing he will have him well taken care of, he was a favorite of my dear Husband

I give to my son Geo. W. T. Kearsley, I give William and his wife Jane and infant child and hope they will not give him trouble, but will be good obedient servants and teach their children to be so, and if so that my son will give them Ten Dollars a year at the end of each year as a reward for good behavior, and I give to my son Geo. W. T. Kearsley the house and lot in Charlestown where Jane now lives.

I give to my son John my gold spectacles which I wish him to receive as an expression of affection.

I give to my sister in law Eleanor Cramer, one hundred dollars as an expression of gratitude and affection and in case of her decease before mine, I give one hundred dollars to be equally divided between her daughters, Nancy and Eleanor.

To my namesake, Anna Kearsley, daughter of Geo. W. T., I give Three hundred dollars to be put out at interest for her benefit, until she is eighteen years of age.

I give to my son Sam<sup>1</sup> C. Kearsley, Jane's Rutherford, and hope that he and his brother George W. T. Kearsley can make it so he can remain with his mother until he is older and as Sam<sup>1</sup> C. Kearsley owns his brother, that they may be so placed that they may cultivate a brotherly love and affection and see their mother occasionally.

I have thus made disposition of what little of this worlds goods I have, and hope that my children will be satisfied. It has given me much anxiety, and I have done in a conscientious way what I thought best and right, and my sincere desire and prayer is that they may be heirs to a richer inheritance beyond the grave.

My son Geo. W. T. Kearsley has been very kind in attending to my business for me without charge and I appoint him my executor and to be paid liberally. No doubt his brothers will consult with him should there be any difficulty about the Servants or otherwise, and I desire that security may not be required of my executor when he qualifies at Court.

Published as my last will and testament this 7th day of February 1857.

David was a watch maker and engraver as was his father.

The Lexington Ky., Library has a "Map of the Seat of War, 1812-1815," presented by William A. Leavy. This map was prepared by David Humphreys.

He also executed the plates showing surveys used by James Hughes in his "Hughes Reports," the first publication of the various decisions by Kentucky's Supreme Court.

He designed and made for the Commonwealth of Kentucky, a Seal and Press. For this work he received twelve pounds.

In the fall of 1800, a militia company was organized in Lexington and one of the privates was David Humphreys.

Child of David and Elizabeth, surname HUMPHREYS:

- i. James H., b. ca. 1790-1795; d. 21 Sept. 1826; m. 6 Dec. 1821 in Lexington, Ky., to Joanna Hickey, (daughter of Simon Hickey). James was student at Transylvania University 1808-1810. He was a physician and served as bondsman for several of his friends. No known issue.

(27) ELIJAH<sup>1</sup> HUMPHREYS, (Joshua,<sup>2</sup> David,<sup>2</sup> John,<sup>1</sup>), was born 1771-1772, probably in Chester Co., Pa. He died 1801 in Fayette Co., Ky. He married about 1796, Mary McConnell, (daughter of James and Mary (Elliott) McConnell who had come to Fayette Co., Ky., from the Cumberland Valley of Pennsylvania, about 1780). She was probably still living in 1817 and the "Polly" who signed, with Charles Humphreys, as bondsman for the marriage of "Nancy" and P. R. Pleasants. She held a warrant for 2,974 acres of land on the East Fork of Eagle Creek in 1798.

Children of Elijah and Mary, surname HUMPHREYS:

i. Ann Katherine (Nancy), b. 10 March 1797, near Lexington, Ky. She died 18 April 1864, Louisville, Ky., and was buried in Cave Hill Cemetery. She married (1) 14 Oct. 1817 in Fayette Co., Ky. to Peyton R. Pleasants, (son of Matthew and Ann (Bailey) Pleasants, of Versailles, Ky.). He died in January 1818. She married (2) on 10 March 1820 in Lexington, Ky., to Dr. Joseph Winlock Knight, (son of Dr. John and Mary (Stephenson) Knight, of Shelby Co., Ky.). Dr. Knight was a member of the Kentucky Legislature and Ann met him in Frankfort while visiting there during a session of that body. Later they moved to Louisville where he took up his practice as a physician. Here he died in 1871. Children, surname KNIGHT:

"I remember my grandmother Shelby in early years talking to me about her great grandfather Joshua Humphreys and repeating the then accepted notion that he was the builder of the famous war vessels of 1812, the Constitution, the Constellation, etc. As a boy I readily accepted the story, but on reaching the thinking age I began to wonder how a clockmaker, who was said with equal emphasis to have come there from Virginia, could build and launch frigates in the blue grass region of inland Kentucky. Now, I never completely ignore traditions, in spite of their usual unreliability, and so, in later years I began hunting around Philadelphia where Joshua was alleged to have lived. I soon found out that he was not the younger Joshua Humphreys (Benjamin's son) who was the actual shipbuilder, but after a long time I accidently discovered the real connection with that territory, and tradition was in part confirmed."

HUMPHREYS

Pennsylvania. He died 23 Nov. 1823 in Fayette Co., Ky. He married Mary T. or J. After his death she married on 14 Nov. 1827, at the home of James Haggin (her late husband's brother-in-law) to Isham R. Trotter, of Franklin, Williamson Co., Tenn.

Before his marriage, Joshua seems to have lived for a time with or near his brother, Parry Wayne Humphreys, on Yellow Creek, Montgomery Co., Tenn. This was in 1813 when he was appointed as a road overseer there.

He returned to Kentucky where we find him in 1816 acting as bondsman in the marriage of Samuel Haggin and Jane Patterson, of Fayette Co., Ky.

Joshua had two claims for land on Otter Creek. One was for 1441 acres and the other was for 1707 acres.

He dated his will on 4 Nov. 1823 and it was probated in Dec. 1823. His brother Charles and his wife Mary were executors of the will. He mentions, besides his wife, his nephew James H. Humphreys, of Harrodsburg, Ky., and his two children. Witnesses were: E. M. Patterson, T. W. Combs, and Notty Conn.

Children of Joshua and Mary, surname HUMPHREYS:

- i. Parry T. or G. Nothing definite is known concerning this child but it is barely possible that he went to Williamson Co., after his mother's second marriage and from there, went to Hernando, Miss., where lived his uncle—Parry Wayne Humphreys. If so, he died in Hernando on 6 July 1846 at the age of 24 years.
- ii. Hetty W. (probably Henrietta)

John,<sup>1</sup>), born 1774-1775; died in Fayette Co., Ky.; married in Fayette Co., Ky. to James Hughes.

He was a distinguished lawyer and the author of Hughes' Reports, the first reports of the Kentucky Court of Appeals. He was an Englishman of distinguished family. Indicative of the high regard in which he was held is the fact that through him, many Humphreys men in later generations became lawyers and the name James Hughes was used frequently in naming their sons. He practiced from 1793 to about 1806-7.

Children of James and Mary, surname HUGHES:

- i. Elizabeth, married Matthew Jenkins.
- ii. James, Jr., unmarried.
- iii. Anna Catherine, married Harry Cowan.
- iv. Sarah
- iv. Patsy. These two youngest daughters were unmarried and are said to have had the Hughes and Humphreys family records which were lost in the burning of their residence in 1860.

"Charles Humphreys, Esqr., son of one of our early residents, Joshua Humphreys, Senr., whom I remember pleasantly from seeing in my counting room in the year 1803 and some of his remarks to me as a young scholar at College, and a brother of David Humphreys, watchmaker and engraver, who made a Map of the Seat of War 1812-1815, a copy of which I presented within the last year to the Lexington Library, also a brother of Joshua Humphreys, Jr., a much esteemed citizen for some years.

Charles Humphreys, a member of the Lexington Bar for a great many years was much less distinguished from others by superior talents though of good parts than for his unremitting industry and close attention to business and I may add, as a model gentleman, which more than made up for want of superiority of talent. Though he possessed a good intellect and was exceedingly well informed and a good writer. He published a stout octavo volume, a Compendium of Common Law which sold at $3.00 also a volume of Miscellaneous Essays. He was a valuable member of Society and earnest in promoting the best interests of Lexington. He was a good lawyer for collecting debts and often employed by my father who held him in very high esteem. He was first a merchant and engaged at different times in other business though as a lawyer he had always a respectable practice. His family was an interesting and amiable one. His first wife was a Miss Cowan and several children were lost, after grown, by consumption. His second wife was a Miss Riggs, who after his death became the wife of Daniel Mayes, Esqr., attorney at law and judge. Mr. Humphreys hospitable residence, which he built, was on south side of High Street beyond Spring, set some distance back from the street. He died 1830."

He was a member of the Superior Court of Law and Equity 1801-1807 and was elected representative in the XIII Congress, 1813-1815. He served as one of the commissioners for the settlement of the boundary between Tennessee and Kentucky and was appointed by the legislature to be Judge of the Fourth Judicial Circuit, which position he held for fifteen years.

Humphreys County, Tennessee, was named in his honor. As a judge, "he is remembered for his courtesy, urbanity, and incorruptible integrity."

6. Marshall County Republican of Holly Springs, Miss. Issue of Feb. 19, 1839. Death of Judge Humphrey. "We have just received the sad intelligence of the death of that sterling republican, able jurist, upright, honest and noble hearted citizen—Hon. Parry W. Humphreys, formerly Member of Congress from Tennessee, Judge of the Supreme Court, and at one time a conspicuous candidate for the Governorship of that great State. He departed this life at Hernando, De Soto Co., on Saturday last—We know not a public man in the country who deserves to be more deeply lamented at his death.

7. Memphis Enquirer, Friday, Feb. 22, 1839. pa. 1, col. 6.

"Died—on Saturday last, 16th inst., at Hernando, Miss., the Honorable Parry W. Humphreys—. The deceased, when in Tennessee—filled several stations of honor with credit to himself and satisfaction to the community, and at the moment of his death was the President of the Bank at Hernando. But it was chiefly around the fireside and in the domestic circle that this good man was esteemed and beloved. And here may be added the testimony of one who had been favored and honored with his acquaintance for three years previous to his death, that this good man was most beloved where he was best known. In his death the State of Mississippi has unwillingly released one of its most valuable spirits; his immediate community, its best citizen; society, its richest ornament; friendship, its truest disciple; all his relations, a Father; and the religion of Jesus, its best pattern and brightest jewel." (32) HENRIETTA<sup>1</sup> HUMPHREYS, (Joshua,<sup>2</sup> David,<sup>3</sup> John,<sup>1</sup>), was born after 1782 and probably in Richmond, Va. When and where she died is unknown. She married 26 May 1803 in Fayette Co., Ky., to James Haggin, Esqr., (son of Captain John Haggin, of Mercer Co., Ky.) Joshua Humphreys was bondsman at the wedding.

James Haggin was one of the foremost lawyers in Lexington and Kentucky.

He built a residence in Lexington in 1814-1815. Later he bought a large farm in Woodford County, fourteen miles from Lexington, on the Frankfort Road, and sold his Lexington home. Later he sold this Woodford County farm to David C. Humphreys, Esqr. (This David was not at all related to the family of Henrietta.)

Into his law partnership, Haggin took Thomas M. Hickey, son of Simon Hickey.

Various records refer to Henrietta as Hetty, Hatty, and Esther.

James and Henrietta had several daughters but their names are unknown.

Martha (called Pattie) married James Buchanan and raised a family near Pontotoc, Miss. Elizabeth (called Bettie) married Benj. Hawes and to them were born two girls, Adelia and Callie. David Todd, a Presbyterian, no children. Susan married Stephen Smith and had David and Janie. Three sons of this family never married. One, George, died at the age of sixteen years. Verner was killed in the Civil War and ranked as Major. Charlie was also killed in battle.—The old Humphreys home is in a beautiful level place surrounded by a large grove of very large oaks and it was here on this lawn on the 10th of June 1864 that Gen. N. B. Forrest drew up his first line in the battle of Brice's Cross Roads. Quite a number of Confederate soldiers were killed in the yard and out buildings, but the yankies fell back to the Cross Roads and there the heaviest fighting was done. It was with difficulty that Mrs. Humphreys could be persuaded to vacate her home during this battle, but finally was induced to go about a mile to the rear of the Confederate lines."

Baltimore in 1869. Nine ministers of the gospel came from the churches he served.

The following epitaph was placed on his grave by the congregation of Roberts Church. "Having won the rare distinction of great fidelity to truth and great popularity among men, the man of God sleeps, rests. A natural man in whom the love of truth and the love of mankind were twin passions. Piety sat Empress and Philanthropy stood by her side. A prince among his brethren, he was courteous without pomp, amiable without weakness, engaging without effort. Decided yet gentle, tender yet firm, proud yet considerate, always true, earnest, generous, strong. His history is engraved, not here, but in the hearts of his generation."

There is also a marble tablet in the church in his memory. The congregation had his biography prepared in booklet form so that all might have a copy. His son, Rev. David Humphreys, delivered his 50th anniversary sermon, composed by him a few days before his death. Throughout Anderson County, he was lovingly called, "Father Humphreys."

The 1860 census for Anderson County, lists him as "farmer" with real and personal property valued at $40,000.

"Dear Thomas,

I have been expecting to hear from you as to what you thought of Williams wounds. I have seen a number of returned Volunteers wounded most of them, who have seen William, think he is improving. Should he recover it will be a hair-breadth escape from death. It would be a hard trial ..... up a son under ..... but if I had evidence you are all prepared for the spirit land it would greatly lessen the anguish. There must be perpetual danger—all the time. The great business of life should be to become reconciled to God and ready to go at his command. We are all pretty well. Corn crops well now needing rain. Portion of bottom very young. We have to plough over the late corn again. The lightest wheat crop we have had for years. We get letters from David occasionally. He is well pleased with his young Bride so far, says he wished to come in to see us this summer but times are so troublesome will have to delay. I suppose you know more of the others than we do. Every thing is selling very high. wheat Baken beef horses mules milk cows salt shugar coffee. We are trying to economize in every thing. Wearing our old cloths and doing without luxuries. Our summer meetings are approaching but the public mind is so absorbed in the war, I fear it will be difficult to arrest or interest it on more important matters. A number of our Congregations have been killed or wounded and great trouble overspreads the community. The Lord has a controversy with us and we are smarting for our sins. If we would repent and forsake our sins the dark clouds would pass away and brighter days would follow. Brothers John, Charles, and Thomas have sons in the war. David Lee (?) near Corinth was on a skirmish and the Yankees and them got near together and he saw a Yankee raise his gun to fire upon a messmate Wilson of one of the Abbeville ? papers ? and he raised his quick and fired first floored the Yankey and saved Wilsons life. "Dear Thomas,

We had a letter from you some time since. We are pretty well. I got wet lately my back is the worse for it. The rest well. We still hear favourable accounts from William. Sloan came home Monday says he is still improving. It is a narrow escape if it be an escape. He must have been very much sunk and exhausted by his exposure in an open Waggon and a scorching sun but I hope he may recover. No very late letter from David. He was quite well when he wrote. Wished to come in with his bride but thought the times too unsettled. We have a drought now that is injuring our crops. Some in the bottom planted late that will not probably make anything. Wheat greatly injured. Oats cut off. If rains come soon the corn would yet do tolerably well. Samuel went on to see William but did not stay long he William was well cared for. He was here yesterday all pretty well. Elizabeth pretty well. Quite a number—wounded soldiers are getting home again some almost every day. We hear frequently from William by them. Our family are pretty well. Our ? conscripts ? are going to Columbia for drill. The public mind is very much absorbed by the war while I fear the one thing needful is neglected. Our summer meetings are approaching I hope the Lord will be with us. Quite a number of our neighbors have been killed or wounded and no appearance of the war closing. Write soon. Your affectionate Father

(36) CHARLES W. HUMPHREYS, (David,<sup>2</sup> Daniel,<sup>3</sup> John,<sup>1</sup>), was born 8 Feb. 1800, Pickens Co., S. C. He died 1860-1870 in Tippah Co., Miss. He married in South Carolina to Elizabeth A. Towers, born ca. 1802 in N. C., and still living, 1870, in Tippah Co., Miss.

They must have gone to Mississippi between 1834 and 1838. The will of David Humphreys, dated 15 Sept. 1836, indicates that he had given his son, Charles, money and was therefore not leaving him any portion of his real estate in South Carolina.

HUMPHREYS

Thomas was willed one-third of the lands of his father and in addition, a negro boy. He was charged with the care of his mother. She died in 1843.

The 1840 census for Pickens Co., S. C. shows his family group to consist of 1 male and 2 females under five, 1 male 15 to 20; one male 30-40; one female 20-30; and one female 70-80, doubtless his mother.

Thomas bought from his brother David, an undivided third part of his father's estate, and about four years later, in 1848, sold all his land to brother-in-law, Leonard Towers. The census record for 1850 shows the family in Choctaw County, Mississippi. The family moved to Florida in 1855 but after Thomas was killed there in a storm, his widow brought the family back to the old home in Choctaw County, Miss.

In 1857 she joined the Old School Presbyterian Church at Poplar Creek, Mississippi. She and her children were faithful members of this church.

Their portion of Choctaw County became Montgomery County in 1871 and in 1882 she and her remaining children moved to Texas and settled near Center Mills, Hood County. A year later she broke up housekeeping and went to her daughter's home where she lived until her death.

"Now for the powder horn, your great-great-grandfather had it made so it would hold one pound of powder and he carried it through the Revolutionary War. After he died, then my father got it. Mother wanted your Uncle Tom to have it because she named Tom for him. I am glad that your Aunt Ada (who was Tom's widow) was kind enough to turn it back to the family as she had no one to leave it with. It was your great great grandfather David Humphreys' powder horn. Cousin David (Note) asked mother for the horn but he died before mother did. Your Aunt Bell (Isabelle) was going to write Ada for it. She wanted John (Sweatt) to have it. I am glad it is where it is. You take good care of it. You are just as much HUMPHREYS as John Sweatt."

Dear Sir:

I take the liberty of addressing you for the purpose of gaining some information as regards widows of Revolutionary Soldiers, to ascertain whether or not my Mother will be entitled to half or any part of the Pension that was allowed my Father in his lifetime. My father died 25th February 1839. Genl W. Thompson was of the opinion that if the proof of their marriage could be made that she would be entitled. I have procured that proof and I address you for the purpose of ascertaining the fact and in compliance of this request you will confer a particular favour on your friend.

I have the pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of several valuable publick Documents forwarded by you to me; and would thankfully receive others.

Please direct your to: Davis Ferry Post Office, Pickens District.

Yours with due Respect

8. A newspaper memorial to Mrs. Isabelle R. Humphrey.

"Mrs. Isabelle R. Humphrey died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Abbott, on Sanches Creek, near Weatherford, (Texas) January 28, 1907, at the age of 91 years, three months and one day. She was born in South Carolina, October 27, 1815, and was the daughter of John and Rebecca Towers. In 1836 she was married to Thomas J. Humphrey at Bachelors Retreat, S. C. They were the parents of ten children. Two died in early life—five reached the years of maturity. Two sons and one daughter lie buried at Poplar Creek, Miss. Two sons and one daughter lie in the cemetery at Granbury, one son in Coryell county at Copperas Cove. All have gone before leaving only three daughters, Mrs. G. W. Abbott, Mrs. Sallie Boyett of Brazos, Mrs. R. H. Ferry of Weatherford.

In 1855, she with her husband moved to Florida. In 1855 her husband was killed in a storm, leaving her with eight children to raise and educate. The same year she moved back to her old home in Choctaw, now Montgomery county, Miss.

In 1857 she joined the Old School Presbyterian Church South at Poplar Creek, Miss. Her delight was trying to train her children in the "way they should go," always going with them to church and Sunday School, of which she was a dear lover, but owing to her afflictions the last six years of her life was spent at home, which for a while worried her. During the war she lost her oldest son, which was a great trial to her. She was sorely tried in the loss of husband and five grown children but she felt that God doeth all things well.

In 1882 she moved from Mississippi to Texas; settled in Hood county near Center Mills; lived there until 1883; broke up housekeeping and came to live with her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Abbott, where she lived until death released her from her sufferings. She was never heard to murmur. Thank God her sufferings are over, for today she is with her husband and children vieing with Angels around the great white throne.

"Hark! the golden harps are ringing;

Sounds unearthly fill her ears;
 Millions now in heaven are singing,
 Greets her joyful entrance there!"

By one who loved her."

1. Family tradition states that Daniel Jones Humphreys went through the Creek and Florida Wars with General Andrew Jackson, and was an Ensign. Later he served as sheriff of Williamson Co. and was tobacco inspector for the district. He moved to Madison Co. near Jackson, in 1825.

His son, Benjamin Wayne Humphreys was administrator of his estate. The estate was declared insolvent in June 1839 and the Court appointed Samuel Lancaster, Martin Cartmell, and William Calloway as commissioners to make a pro rata division of the deceased's property among creditors.

After setting aside the widow's support, the personal property was sold. Some of the items were: 4 lots of books—3 bought by B F Collensworth and 1 by J. B. Williams; 1 book case; 1 large Bible sold to the widow for $2. 1 falling leaf table sold to the widow for $5.50. The widow bought about half of the 130 items sold. William Green Humphreys bought a razor and strop. son Co., Tenn. to Samuel Berry Orton. He died 10 November 1875, in Lamar County, Texas.

They moved from Tennessee to Texas in 1838 and settled at Honey Grove in Bonham County, Texas.

Some extracts from the sketch of Benjamin Murray Orton in "Biographical Souvenir of the State of Texas" published by F. A. Battey & Co., Chicago, in 1889.

"Samuel Berry Orton was born in Franklin Co., Tenn. (Probably meant to read, Franklin, Williamson Co., Tenn.) and was there married to Harriett Humphreys. They came to Texas in 1838, crossing the Red River on Jan. 8 of that year, and being one of the three families that first settled on the present site of Clarksville. Two years later he moved to the southwest part of Lamar County and bought a tract of 320 acres and died 10 Nov. 1875. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and assisted in organizing the first church in Southwestern Lamar County. Mrs. Harriett Orton was a daughter of Benjamin Humphreys, of North Carolina, a distinguished soldier of the Rev. War. Mr. Humphreys settled in Williamson Co., Tenn., and died there. His daughter Harriett was born in that county (?) and was a woman of superior intelligence and great goodness of heart. Coming to Texas at the date she did, her children were deprived of the advantages of school training and also largely of church privileges; but she made up for these disadvantages by her own personal efforts, teaching them around the fireside and by her own example of industry and piety, inculcating lessons which were of the greatest use to them and which they have remembered through all the years that have since intervened. —She died in Nov. 1879 having passed the 75th year of her age."

He bought and sold a number of tracts of land in Jefferson Co. One of the best known was the "Flowing Springs Farm" of 125 acres which he purchased 22 May 1824 from his father in law. (Jefferson Co., W. Va. Deed Book 12, p. 506.) That same year, "Walnut Hill" was inherited by his wife.

He is mentioned in many old family letters and legal transactions as he remained in Jefferson County long after many of his relatives had moved away.

He served as the administrator for the estate of his father. He was a farmer and a member of the Presbyterian Church.

She attended school in Bethlehem Pa., 1822-23. She was a woman of strong christian character and a devout member of the Presbyterian Church.

From Charles Town in Dec. 1836, she writes to her husband in Missouri. "I am willing and anxious to do whatever may be most to the interest of ourselves and family and am content to go where you think best, if there are only three houses in the town.

Pa has lately purchased four barrels of flour at $11.00 a barrel, and the very last to be had at that, made of old wheat, it is selling for $12.00 But one good thing, there is plenty of corn and buck wheat.

George and William Turner are going to the South this winter and intend taking their colored people to try if they can succeed better in raising cotton than wheat.

I have been very busily engaged in preparing for my trip, have purchased some wool, had it picked and carded, and am now spinning to make some linsey for the servants and flannel and stockings for the children."

July 2nd 1836

Dear Mother:—

It is a source of great pleasure to write a letter to you, knowing that you can appreciate my little improvements so well, having a turn for it. We received your letter in part with Sarah Ann and Susan this day having sent Presly Cordell, Jr. on our mare to Manchester for a milk strainer. You would be pleased to see my spring house that I have just built. It is made with a square place paved and walled up similar to the place you keep milk in your cellar only with the difference that two springs rise up in it sufficiently high to surround the milk pans and then run off. I built, executed all the work myself only Asa B. Cordell came and assisted me in raising the logs. Floretta milks. We have one cow, very fine one, if we can only keep her home. I am sorry to hear of the wheat turning out so bad but all is for the best. We had a great deal of rain during the time of corn planting but the whole month of June, with the exception of one or two sprinkles, has been very dry time. My corn looks fine. The few wheat fields that are in this country bid fair to turn out well. I have been complimented very highly here as being a successful farmer, having as they called it here poor land or that which has been cultivated too hard. This land has been cleared forty years, tended with corn and rested with oats ever since, which would kill down Virginia soil in five years. I wrote a letter to brother John and one by Mr. Claggett to Father. I am sorry to hear of sister Mary's illness but I hope she may recover. You write that Enos expects to try the West. I have been trying to get the time to write to Enos but my own affairs require so much writing about that it has been out of my power. You can say to Sarah Ann that the objection which she states to this country we have not as yet heard of, that of the disease called the cold plague; and water in this neighborhood flows in great abundance but it was that objection that prohibited me from going on those immensely rich prairie lands as they want for water so much. And as for St. Louis, there can no place in the Union be found to exceed it in business according to its population. As to its health we cannot judge as we have been out no season. If she ever comes out I would advise her to bring Maria as girls are scarce in this country. I had to give $2.00 for a young woman to come during Helen's confinement for one week only and she a very poor get along at that. I procured a small girl from Mr. Seewright for her victuals and clothes. I have great prospect for potatoes and pumpkins but our garden spot was a soddy piece of land and my peas and C did not thrive. It will be in fine order by another season. I shall try to give you a sketch of my house and C. in this letter if I have the room. Great cucumber patch, plenty of corn, beans growing, should I be able to have me some rails mauled this coming winter I shall be fixed. I intend putting a porch to my house on one side and board up the other as the rain beats in when it comes driving hard. I have just finished making a good road from the house to the main road to St. Louis and shall hang a gate to the yard shortly. We have some apples and the greatest quantity of peaches. Our society here is fine. We have a temperance society. At the last meeting it subscribed for twenty numbers of a St. Louis Temperance paper. We shall have Camp Meeting to commence next Friday in this neighborhood.

July 15, 1836

Helen and I have been to Mr. Hamilton's, her father and Asa B. Cordell's. We received the letter from Father, Susan and yourself and was glad to hear the news. Tell Father that I feel grateful for his assistance to me in that which he has done and still is doing. It seems as Helen says to spur me up when I receive a letter stating about funds to diminish my debts. It is true I never was in debt before, it lies heavy on my mind. I like Father's plan of sending money by the Union Bank. While I think of it, tell Father that I shall send my certificate of this land claim by the first opportunity. I am afraid to send it by mail. Mr. Garrett has declined going until this fall. (I do not understand Father's letter when he says that in case the certificate of deposit does not reach me that it is payable to my order on the return of the certificate). Helen has just read the letter and fully satisfied me that you are to send the certificate by Enos and I am to procure any sum for it over $600 that I can in St. Louis and place it in the hands of the purchaser with my name on the back of it.

July 22nd 1836.

I write by degrees as my work takes up a great deal of time. We finished cutting and hauling our oats. I cut it all myself. We have erected a gate to the yard of this appearance (PICTURE) For want of plank, I cannot make many improvements about the house although it wants it badly. We have just had a rain and it will beat in from the sides but the porch I intend building and some weatherboarding will prevent that. I attended a public dinner held at Manchester and given by the candidates for the several offices of State and county. There was forty of them in number. Large concourse of people; many speeches, one good address was delivered by Col. Strother for the House of Congress. Excellent dinner equal to Virginia. We have been this day at Camp Meeting at the church near Mr. Hiram Cordell's, no linen tents, all made of clapboards and will answer as well as houses. We heard a colored man deliver a sermon, the best preacher we have heard in this state. He is thought so (Here is but a poor sketch of my domicile, the fence is the way I intend to place it, the hill from the house to the spring is covered with percomon and peach trees. (PICTURE)) much of that he preaches regularly among the white congregations. Mr. Cordell received a letter from Dr. Cordell. Tell John I am looking for a long letter from him. Mr. Cordell's family is well. Helen and the children are very well. Ellwood has just climbed on the table and pesters me so much that I can hardly write. I took him to the congregation during preaching yesterday and he would sing when he heard the rest at the same. He behaved uncommonly well in every other respect. Our love to all. I remain your affect. son,

Thomas K. Humphreys

July 28 1836. For want of opportunity I have not sent this letter to Manchester but send it tomorrow by Jim as he has to take the hide of an ox which I shot for breaking in to my cornfield. I have just finished making a high fence around our yard and brought home my cow again. She has been away for several weeks. We expect to have preaching at our house on Sunday by a Baptist minister—the funeral sermon of the lady who formerly owned this place. I expect to visit St. Louis on Monday next for the purpose of selling my carriage at auction as I am in want of some little necessities for the family. Give my love to all. Helen is writing to Susan. T.K.H.

Saturday September 1st.
(Probably 1838 or 1839)

Dear, Susan:

As Mr. Claggett was going to Virginia I could not let so good an opportunity pass without a line or two although Thomas and myself had written a partnership letter a week or two ago to Pa and Ma so shall be somewhat at a loss. Now you all in the East can always find some news to write about if none about yourselves. I am acquainted with all your neighbors and feel interested in hearing from them but in that respect I labour under a great disadvantage in writing letters so must excuse me if this should contain but little news. The wedding we wrote about is over and we had a pleasant wedding, the most plentiful and Virginia like of any that have taken place since we came to Missouri. The gentleman was a Virginian and wanted it conducted in Virginia style. Richard returned from a tour through some of the upper counties yesterday. He purchased a farm adjoining Brother George in Saline county. He says he introduced him to some of the young ladies. I have not seen him since his return so could not give the particulars. He has been living with Mr. Potterfield and Henry was staying in his place during his absence so he hurried on to Manchester as soon as he got back. He brought a letter to me from Sarah Ann. They are all well. She calls her daughter Luella. It is a very pretty name. I give you the credit of being the authoress of the name as it seems to be derived from the word Llewellyn. We all keep well yet. I am still getting along pretty well with my poultry. It is a source of great amusement to me, I can assure you, and of help to us too both our table and will be at market this winter as that is the best time to sell poultry. If nothing should occur I shall be able to sell ..... I am in hopes. I am rather afraid we shall be dissatisfied in sending this by Mr. Claggett as I have no opportunity of sending this to him as he has gone to town but Thomas is going in the morning so am in hopes he will meet him in town. Give my love to brother John and Family, Brother Levi and Family. Tell Christine it was Mother's wish to have written to her by Mr. C. but it was not in my power to go down to write for her and she so seldom uses her pen now-a-days that she thinks it too great a task to write a letter herself so she must excuse her this time. I have been expecting a letter from Christine myself.

Yours affectionately,

Helen.

HUMPHREYS

Dear Sister:

Helen has requested me to add a few lines to this letter. I shall do so. I often think of a Sabbath morning when at home with the children (for Helen and myself take it in turns for going to preaching) what Father's family can be doing. I fancy I can see them all brushing and getting ready for Church. I sometimes allow myself to think or wish I was in Charlestown, but only for a moment. Sarah Ann sent us a letter by Richard Cordell. She seems to be much pleased with her situation and adds that there is but one thing wanting to make up her happiness for this world and that is her Mother and Father near on in the States. But it is far from me to desire Father and Mother to leave comforts they now possess and move to the Western Wilds and still be separated from more or less of the children. Now could we be situated in or near the same county it would be some inducement; but as it is, John in Virginia, poor David in Ohio, you in Arkansas, and the balance in Missouri more than one hundred miles apart, what satisfaction? We well know that Father and Mother are of too settled a disposition to move about much. No, I should say never move from Virginia merely to satisfy the wishes of their children, without they have accompanying desires so to do. Now no one wishes to see their parents more than I. It will always give me the greatest earthly pleasure to see Father and Mother. When I started to this country, among the first of our family who did so, little thought I that all but one in so short a time would follow. .... without the expectation of ever returning ..... seeing my friends again and when I had that ..... of sickness it often brought tears to my eyes when thinking of you all. You must let us know directly after you reach your home how you are pleased ..... Mr. Llewellyn I would be glad to receive ..... from him. I wish to know where ..... and in what county, what the ..... on the land and the quality of the same. I do assure you Susan that I have a great desire to see you. We were living together the last of the family and I had not weaned myself from you as from Sarah Ann. However I would like to see all. I hope your little boy may recover although afflicted as he is, it calls for more feeling and attachment from parents and sympathy from friends. I wish you to say to Mother that I would like her to send me the ..... I will pay the postage here. We received one by the last mail and we had not seen one for so long that it was full of news. All the advertisements were news to us. I see Brother John has published his farm for sale. What is that for? Remember me to all our friends. My love to Mother, Father, and yourself.

I remain your affect. brother

Thos. K. Humphreys.

Camp Meeting will take place in this neighborhood next week. I hope some good may be done. Oh Susan, what a comfort it is in all our afflictions, we may ..... this troublesome world that if we persevere in well doing and a full reliance on the Redeemer we shall be crowned with life eternal. T.K.H.

Tell Ma, Mr. Clagett says it would give him pleasure to escort her out to Missouri. You can not tell how delighted we would be to see her. My little Kate is as brisk and chattering a little toad as you ever saw. Talks or rather mimics talking like Annette used to. She can say Pa and Ma. In your last letter you state that our old Sabbath School had nearly broke up but that our old superintendent was in attendance. Oh do remember me to him (Mr. Liken's) and tell him that if I could only see the same privileges I was there blessed with, I hope he would see a more diligent assistant than I was. Tell him to persevere and if any of the old scholars remain to remember me to them. We have no Presbyterian Church here now. No liklyhood of one. (Note: This letter addressed to:) Mrs. Susan Llewellyn, Charlestown, Jefferson Co., Va.

5. Jefferson City, December 26th 1849

My Dear Husband:

It was my intention to have spent Christmas Day in writing to you, but really the bustle was too great. The children were nearly all beside themselves, their Christmas gifts being of a very noisy nature (that is the boys I mean). Hervy gave Erny a bugle and sword, Tom a sword, Lovel a small horn, and Dick a small eolian harp. They were parading all day throughout the house, as it was too cold to go out. Virginia and her family spent the day and night with us and are still here. I expect she will break up housekeeping as Enos thinks it would be to her advantage. Harriett is so unruly without a master, he advises her to sell her and purchase a younger girl to nurse. Mr. Bay's friends wish her to come on next spring and spend the summer with them and leave her two oldest children there to be educated, but I do not think she will be willing to do that. We have had a picture here representing "Christ Healing the Sick." It remained two nights and was shown in the Presbyterian Church. I went on Christmas night with Henry to see it. Mr. Capers was to have preached that night at the Methodist Church but postponed on account of the picture. He preached last Sunday and Mr. Fenton at night. I did not go as it was quite muddy. Mr. Fenton preached two or three nights last week in this place. They talk something of trying to get him here. He went from here last Monday (24th) and took a package for you to be left in Manchester. He said if he did not meet with what he should consider a good chance, he would keep it until the second week in January, at which time he will go to St. Louis to attend Presbytery and will leave it in care of Mr. Enoch Berry to whom it is directed. I have spent my time very agreeably since I came up except that I am very lonesome sometimes, particularly on Sundays as the weather and walking have prevented my attending church every Sabbath. If I suffer myself to think much about home, I think it is impossible for me to stay until March. I strive to keep as busy as I can but on Sundays, I find it almost impossible to keep from getting the blues. I went visiting today for the first time (that is—strangers). I have been to Henry's and Virginia's a good many times. I called to see Mrs. Hough and Mrs. Davisson today but I find it is not good for dyspeptic affections to go visiting during the holidays as you must participate in good mugs or else they feel slighted. We have had some very nice Christmas doings here, all kinds of cake, turkies, venison etc. and the nicest venison I ever tasted. Old Santa too was quite liberal this year as he brought Catty and Lu green vails and a good bunch of candy; Dicky got a nice primer and plenty of candy; Lizzy or Miss Netty had a very pretty little doll baby and some nice candy. Uncle Harvey gave Catty a gourd and a gold heart for a Christmas gift (and Lu one also) and Liss a little candy dog. Catty says you must tell Janet she was at a candy pulling at Aunt Ginnies last week and she expects if nothing happens, to attend a little girls party at a Mr. Millers tomorrow evening in company with Llewella and Sara Bay. If the package I sent should arrive safely, be so good as to write and let me know as I shall feel anxious to hear. I did not send a very large one as I had so little expectation of an opportunity, I hardly thought it worth while to prepare for it, as I found plenty to keep me busy. I wrote a letter to you in the package and I believe I have given so much of the news that I have hard work to find much to tell you that will interest you, unless I fill it too much with I's, but probably that important subject may be one that may cause a very deep interest in your feelings at this time. I think my health is a great deal better at least I have not been obliged to lie in bed a day since I came up. The first week I felt very badly. I think I took cold during that damp time we had on the boat as they kept the ladies cabin so warm. I was threatened with the dysentery, but I took the chalk mixture and it relieved me. I frequently have a very uneasy sensation in the stomach and abdomen but I abstain from whatever I think it likely has caused it. I eat almost everything now but endeavor to take it moderately. Richard has been troubled with worms. I gave him vermifuge last week and he passed 105 worms at one operation. I believe they would have killed him if I had not given him the worm medicine as his clothes were so tight he could scarcely get any of them to fasten. Miss Notty is as hearty as a buck and Catty is in very good health but I believe she is more homesick than I am. Both the little ones often talk about home. If we ask Liss "Where's Pa?," she will shake her head and say n-o-w. Dick saw a little girl in the street about Janet's size and he howled out "Oh Jen" and wanted to run after her. I asked him what I must tell Henry for him and he said "Tell him I want a pepel" (meaning pencil). I believe I have given you all the news. The children all had a great deal of fun with some masks from the store, one had spectacles on and looked like an old woman. Virginia and I put on a double calico wrapper night cap and we caused them a good deal of fun, the other had a very red face and whiskers. Dixon put on a large pair of pantaloons and stuffed them full and the last mentioned mask acted as a gallant to the old lady. We were very particular with the little ones to show them the masks before they were put on the face. When you write give me the news of the whole neighborhood as you did before. I have been anxiously looking for another letter. Remember me to all inquiring friends and relations. Catty says you must tell Pink she will write to her after the holidays are over and give her an account of all the doings up here in the great city of Jefferson. We had Henry's and Virginia's families to dine with us today and participate with us of a turkey. I forgot to tell you I have had the pleasure of partaking an oyster supper with Enos and Virginia. Dixon received a letter from Ell a week or two ago and he sends one by this mail to Ell. I was glad to see Ell did get a letter off at last. I hope he will continue to write as it will improve him in writing. I look every mail for letters but have only received two since I came up. You must give me all the news as anything will interest me that comes from home, however trifling it may be. Tell me how you do, how you sleep, where you sit, and how do you get along in the eating department. Don't let my ducks get frozen. I forgot before I left to tell you I wished you to send old Mrs Stephens a pair of ducks. You will have to send her two females as I have but one drake. They were so kind as to let me have ice when I so much needed it. Good bye. My love to all the children. Your attached,

Helen.

My dear Brother:

As you may suppose I was perfectly taken by surprise when I received your epistle: as you no doubt will be at the reception of this having been so long delayed. Now I never make apologies, it is just out of my line, I am too straightforward, as so the reason is just this, that at times I could not get it to the office, at others out of paper, and at others, children or self sick, so this is just matter of fact—it is not apologizing. I hope you are not left entirely destitute of a certain part of dress quite indispensable to man, I have had yours done some time but unfortunately when Thomas went down last he started in rather a hurry and I forgot to send them. He will go again shortly and I think it better to send by him or else I could meet frequently with an opportunity. He is waiting to hear of Enos' arrival in St. Louis. I suppose he has started by this time. I was quite amused at your letter and have had some hearty laughs over it, by this I presume navigation has entirely closed. Did you ever know such a backward spring? We are the only ones in these parts who are so fortunate to to have peas up—ours are stuck. Have you heard from our new young nephew since he reached home with his bride? How strange that Enos should agree to such an unequal match. We received a letter from John T. Humphreys who I suppose has reached home by this time. Does Virginia still talk of going East? I have not heard anything said about it lately. How are the little folks? I have been helping them lately have chills. You must excuse this miserable letter as I am writing in a great hurry so I can take advantage of an opportunity to the office. Our folks have had a May party on the 1st at the Lake. I call it "Winter Pic Nic" as there was not a leaf on the trees and so cold they had to wear shawls but they thought it would not be romantic enough unless they had it in the woods although they had the full advantage of the sun to warm them through the leafless boughs. It was Mr. Conway's arrangement if it had been warm it would have been a beautiful place although it came off pretty well I believe. Thomas Presley has recovered from his mysterious indisposition but the cause remains to be explained. Opinions of the neighbors are various but I believe the general conclusion is that he must have attempted suicide and love is assigned as the cause or rather fear of a certain rival living in Jefferson. Now do not speak of this publicly as the first is thought seriously true and the last is rumored and believed by some. At all events it has cooled his melancholy and he now appears quite cheerful and was chief beau at the Pic Nic alongside of Miss Nannie. I could fill this with one line of nonsense or another but shall have to stop for press of time. Tell Callie received hers lately and shall answer it shortly. Do you write as soon as you receive the shirts. I have made them by the best pattern on one that I thought looked nearest to the one you desired. They are miserably done up so you must form your opinion of them until after they are done up by Rachel. My love to Dixon. Tell him I will write soon. Cam is well and is a very good boy, he has been ploughing and is a great assistance to his uncle. I think he grows very fast. Remember me affectionately to Virginia and family, also Henry and family and Enos' family. All are well except chills occasionally nothing more.

Your attached sister,

Helen.

7. Extracts from letters written by Janet (Humphreys) King 1918-1920. She was born 5 Aug. 1839; d. 4 Jan. 1929.

"I have always been interested in Catherine Keyes Humphreys—our grandmother. She was all ready to visit Missouri when she was taken sick. I remember a large box of presents for us all was sent after her death. Many of the things she made herself."

"My great grandmother must have been Catherine Bayse, grandfather Pressly Cordell's mother. She was buried in Cousin Hiram Cordell's home burying ground. My first brother Henry was buried there. It became a part of Dr. Stevens farm later on as he married Missouri Cordell, Cousin Hiram's only daughter. This Hiram Cordell was grandfather Pressly's first cousin. Mrs. Payne's father, Steptoe Cordell, was his brother."

"My visit to Charles Town was just after the close of the War—about 1868. Arthur and his brother John were all the children Cousin David had when I was there: I spent some time with them. Uncle Llewellyn came home as I did—to take his boys, Dick and Newton, home from school. I visited father's cousin George Tate. Maria Louisa Humphreys, an old maid, kept house for him. Mary Daugherty, her niece, lived with them. Their home was near town—a lovely place named Belvidere—all spoiled during the Civil War.—I was invited to a social at the home of father's cousin—Humphrey Keyes. I met Roger Humphreys, Jr (Note—error for Robert) a brother of Maria Louisa and a bachelor."

"There are various Humphreys in Arkansas.—Uncle John's son—John Thomas left a family there. Cousin Kate Drennen left a son Charles. I do not know Cousin Bettie's name—have forgotten. Edwill Llewellyn lives in Chicot County bordering on Louisiana and right on the Mississippi River."

"There never has been a likeness of my father, T. K. Humphreys. He used to say he was too ugly to have a likeness taken. My father was a perfect gentleman but not handsome and one of the most industrious and pious of men. He was a great Christian worker—always Sunday school superintendent of the Presbyterian, or Baptist, or Methodist church wherever he was needed."

Dear Janet

I hope I have written a correct and intelligent letter of the dates and all as it should be but with my little ones talking around me I fear I have not done justice to the subject most interesting to me. I do hope you will send me a copy of your work—and with much affection, I am your cousin,

Parry and Maria (Clubb) Humphreys

Through the influence of Henry Clay, a friend of his father, Parry Wayne obtained an appointment as Midshipman in the U. S. Navy at the age of eighteen and was assigned to the Frigate "Consolation." After serving for seven years, he resigned to accept a commission in the Navy of the Republic of Texas, with the rank of Lieutenant Commander, aboard the Schooner "Invincible" under Captain Brown. He was detailed from sea service to act as secretary of the Navy, Republic of Texas, under Rhodes Fisher and President Houston. When Texas was annexed to the United States, the Navy was discharged.

He joined Taylor's Army of invasion into Mexico as Quartermaster under Major Cross. When the army was discharged at Veracruz, he returned to Lexington Kentucky and married Jane Rigg, to whom he had been engaged since he was 18 years of age.

He then returned to Austin, Texas and was sheriff of Travis County for a time, then served in the Land Office as clerk. In 1862 he joined the service of the Confederacy and was quartermaster clerk under Ben McCullor. After four years of service and the close of the war, he taught school in Lampassas County at McAnelly's Bend and at Lampassas. He then went to Indianola, Texas, where he met Dr. Crearz, Collector of Customs at that point and with whom he had served in the U. S. Navy. The Doctor was a ships surgeon and secured the appointment of Parry Wayne as Keeper of the Light House at Aransas Pass, Texas.

When the Texas Navy was discharged, the U. S. Government allowed all the officers five years pay in consideration of being discharged. Parry Wayne's claim of $9,000 was allowed and paid so he resigned at the Light House and went into the hardware business in Corpus Christi. Unsuccessful in business, he was re-appointed as Keeper of the Light House where he remained until age caused him to resign. He then went to the ranch of his only son in Uvalde County.

He was a Chapter Mason and belonged to the first lodge established in Texas.

As the family home was in Lexington, Ky., he was doubtless educated there. His father and several uncles being lawyers, it is not strange that he followed that profession.

He settled in Somerville, Tennessee and began the practice of law in 1837. He was County Judge for Fayette Co., Tenn., 1850-1862. After the Civil War he was tendered, but declined, a seat on the Supreme Bench. He refused to take the oath of allegiance.

In February 1842 he bought two town lots and another parcel of more than three acres in Somerville, where he made his home. In later years he had many additional land transactions there.

His will, dated 12 Aug. 1868 and probated Oct. 1868, mentions wife and children but does not list them by name. It mentions 111 acres of land and U. S. Bonds to the amount of $20,000. It provides that each child should receive $2,000 at 21 or marriage and states that certain advances in money had already been made to his eldest daughter, Grace. His wife was appointed executrix and Joel L. Pulliam was directed to advise and assist. Witnesses were: J. A. Hill and W. C. Trent.

John Cowan Humphreys is listed among the men of prominence in West Tennessee.

West Hughes was sent back to Transylvania University for his education. Due to poor health his formal education was interrupted and later he studied law in his father's office. Again he returned to Lexington for a course of lectures in law, at Transylvania, by his uncle, Charles Humphreys, and then returned to Tennessee, where he obtained his license in 1828.

He lived for a short time in Clarksville, Montgomery County, then took up residence in Somerville, Fayette County, where his cousin, John Cowan was also a lawyer. In 1834 he was elected as a delegate to the convention to revise and amend the constitution of the State. Later he was a member of the State Legislature, and an unsuccessful candidate for Governor in 1835.

After his marriage he was elected by the legislature to the newly created position of Attorney General of the State. He was re-elected in 1844 and in Dec. 1851, he retired from office.

Appointed U. S. District Judge in 1853 by President Pierce, he held office until 1861 and then accepted the commission as Judge under the Confederate Government. He was impeached for high treason by the thirty-seventh congress on the charge of having advocated secession in a public speech at Nashville, Tenn., Dec. 29, 1860, for giving aid to armed rebellion, for conspiracy with Jefferson Davis, and for imprisoning W. G. Brownlow.

He was editor of an eleven volume report on cases of the supreme court of Tennessee. He was portly and handsome and advocated the abolition of the liquor traffic.

His family Bible, published by J. B. Lippincott & Co., Philadelphia, MDCCCXLIV is in possession (1951) of his grand daughter, Mrs. S. H. Stout, of Memphis, Tenn.

Melrose, 22 Feb. 1862

Dear Daughters:

I am about to leave you and know not whether I shall ever see you again. I feel it my duty to say something to you by way of advice. I say to you first, stay together and love one another. Be always together and never separated one hour if you can help it. In these dangerous times, stay in the house, or about it. Take all the exercise you can by walking in the passages, jumping the rope or otherwise. Sleep as much as you can and be prudent in eating. Adhere to your habit of not eating supper. These few habits will keep you healthy. In regard to your conduct and conversation, keep out of company as much as you can, talk as little as you can and listen to others respectfully. Say all that you can, with truth, in praise of others, and nothing in censure or ridicule. Quarrel with nobody, under any circumstances; have no secrets or secret keepers and say nothing that you would not be willing that all persons should hear. In regard to expenses, buy nothing that you can do without, and buy for comfort, not show. Recollect that all are respected most in the end for good qualities of head and heart, than for their appearance; but neatness and cleanliness are indispensable to obtain your own respect or that of others. Seek entertainment more in books and in employment that is useful than in running after miscellaneous company. Pray God to keep your hearts pure and conduct right.

Farewell my dear daughters and may God have you in his holy keeping.

Like his father and his brothers, Charles Jones Humphreys was educated as a lawyer. Together with his brother-in-law, Rev. William H. Bayless, he served as administrator for the estate of his father, at Hernando, Mississippi, in 1839 and the years following.

HUMPHREYS

Between 1844 and 1846, he and Rev. Bayless took their families and moved to Dallas County, Arkansas. The 1850 census for Dallas County lists him as a farmer. Apparently the family moved to Mt. Lebanon, Louisiana and were there in 1858 and for several years following. Then they moved on to Texas to escape the Civil War and he died in Texas. The widow brought her seven living children back to Arkansas in 1868.

Arkadelphia, May 10, 1932

Dear Miss Mary:

Through the suggestion of Judge T. H. Humphreys, I am writing to you. I am trying to trace the Genealogy of the Humphreys relatives. My father was Charles Jones Humphreys, son of Parry Wayne Humphreys. I would not be so at a loss for information but my house with all the family records burned three and one-half years ago. I feel sure you have heard about the William and Pelham (Bros.) Humphreys who went to Texas. I recd. a letter from Washington, D. C., last Saturday wanting all the information I could give as to relationship as these brothers had died and left a $43,000,000 estate. This party who wrote to me is trying to get enough relatives together to investigate the claim. My Mother's family were here from Virginia, also my Father's but my Father's father had gone to Tennessee before he was born and so he was a Tennessean by birth. Did you know William and Pelham and how were they related to you or me, and are we related? Perhaps you have your Family Tree. Judge Humphreys says he has not kept up with his, so told me to write to you and you would give me all the information I wanted, which I do hope you can.

I was Bessie Humphreys till I married Mr. Nash Flanagan who is dead now and I am a widow. These Humphreys boys were unmarried and of course their estate would have to go to cousins.

My father and mother had nine children but they have all passed on. My sister passed away a year ago last December, leaving me the only one living. Of course if you and I are related the property would be help to you as well as me if I am related to them near enough and I am so anxious to find out.

Will you write to me and tell me if we are related and how, and all you know of the boys. My oldest brother, Parry Wayne Humphreys, died in Virginia in year 1861 or 1862 in Army. Hope I can hear as this party is anxious to investigate everything for me and the heirs.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Bessie Humphreys Flanagan

Arkadelphia, May 19, 1932

Dear Mrs. Maltby:

I am just in receipt of a letter from Miss Mary Humphreys, of Norfolk, Virginia, who tells me that you might be able to trace my Genealogy. She said she did not know your price but I would like to hear from you. I was an Humphreys before I married. I am a niece of Judge West H. Humphreys, of Nashville, Tennessee. He has been dead a number of years. I want the Humphreys Genealogy for my children as I am the last one of the children of Charles J. and Ann Humphreys. I also would like to know if I am related to William and Pelham Humphreys, of Texas, who died several years ago.

My parents moved from Tennessee to Mississippi, then to Arkansas, after going to Texas during the War between the States. My father died in Texas in 1866, then my Mother with seven children came to Arkansas in 1868.

Let me hear from you. I am very anxious to trace my genealogy. I am a widow, my husband died in 1907.

I have a "family tree" of my Mother's side. Her Mother was a Miss Hawes. Hawesville, Kentucky, was named for her mother's father.

Let me hear from you please.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Bessie Humphreys Flanagan

Arkadelphia, May 28, 1932

Dear Mrs. Maltby:

You will think I am interested. I am. I recd. your letter this A.M. and I certainly do appreciate all the information you sent me. Did you want me to correct these papers and send them to you or did you say correct them and keep them? Now one correction is, my Mother was Ann Hawes Coleman, her mother was a Miss Ann Hawes.

I am enclosing a letter I recd. from a Mr. Van Bibber. I wish you would return these letters please as I have not written to any of them except Mrs. Callie Van Bibber, who was a Humphreys.

Mr nephew, Dr. Lincoln Humphreys, who is a physician in the Army, is stationed in Washington, D. C. He had a patient who had married an Humphreys and she is the one that is on the committee to investigate. I am sending you the whole information I received from Mr. J. K. Van Bibber, 311 11th Street S.W., Washington, D. C. Please return it to me as I want to keep it. Again thanking you and I do hope we can trace their lines.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Bessie H. Flanagan

Dear Mrs. Maltby:

I am sending some names of the Committee who are to investigate the claim of big estate. Mr. W. M. Humphreys, Etowah, Tenn. Mrs. Earnest Tallant, Tellico Plains, Tenn. Write to me again, please. Sincerely, girl, Mary Elizabeth Steel. They (my children) are so anxious for the Humphreys genealogy. They have a family tree of my mothers family of Hawes, dating back from my great great Uncle Samuel Hawes, of Rev. days—1637 I think. But we had absolutely nothing on the Humphreys side only who was my grandfather and father. My sisters and brothers all left families and I'll be glad to give you their ages, marriages, or any thing I know—so glad to do it. Is Judge Thadden H. Humphreys (sic) related to me? He told one of my brothers sons he felt that we were related. I married the youngest son of ex-Gov. Harris Flanagin. He was war governor of Arkansas. I'll be so glad if there are any questions that I know to tell you if you will only tell me. Have you heard anything of the vast estate left to the Humphreys heirs by William and Pelham?

"My Dear Brother,

It has been a long time since I have heard from you. I cant imagine why you keep such a protracted silence unless it be a press of business. If I had have known where you were, I would have written more frequently than I have done. I am still, as you see by the caption of my letter, a citizen of Mississippi, and I have taken for a wife one of her fair daughters and I expect my bones will rest under her green sod unless some Yankee send me to my long home in some distant State I have not yet volunteered or done anything for my country in the way of fighting for her. My churches, up to this time, have vetoed my entering the service, but I suppose now by a late act of the General Assembly, I will come under the conscription law. I am not of a very bellicose nature and would greatly have preferred to remain at home and attending to my peaceful avocation, but

GENEALOGY

I suppose they need me hence I must obey "the powers that be" You doubtless have heard long since that I am a married man. I wrote you to that effect some time ago. I married a Miss Williamson of Panola county, a member of one of the best families in this county. She is one of the greatest women in the State, not strikingly beautiful but good enough looking, devotedly pious and with some property. I married in May. Sallie is not very stout looks much stouter than she really is. She was taken with the measels soon after we were married had a pretty rough time of it. An ugly cough followed the measels which she has yet and I fear will hold on to her for some time to come. Instead of getting better it grows worse daily and I fear it will settle on her lungs. We intended starting on a visit to Carolina but for one or two reasons we will be under the necessity of postponing it for the present. Our special reason is that Sallie is not well enough to go. She is looking over my shoulder and she tells me to tell you that "I am getting fat on the strength of a married life but she cant say so much for herself" It is true I am getting fatter every day and have been doing so ever since I was married. I received a letter from home a few days ago. All well. William was improving. What a miraculous interposition of Divine Providence. Father thinks with care he will recover. The Yankess have made several raids upon our county. They are in force at Memphis and they annoy our citizens a good deal. They have no principle of honour or justice about them, they commit all kinds of barbarous atrocities upon our citizens, steal negroes, burn dwelling houses, destroy crops and insult ladies. We had a considerable force at Senatoba, a depot above this, which held them in check but they are gone now and we may expect more visits from them. They are certainly the most inhuman wretches I ever saw, they exceed the savage Indians in their relentless cruelty. But I hope the day of retribution is speedily coming. I want to go down to see Aunt Lucinda in a week or two but for the present I am so tied down I can not get about at all. We are staying with the wife of Sallie's brother who is out on a Guerilla party. I do not know how long he will be gone. We have some three or four Guerilla companies now in service scouring the Miss. Bottoms and the country between this and Memphis. I must close. Please write soon and give me all the news. I will always write regularly when I can keep up with you. I have not heard from Alice in a long time. Sallie joins me in love to you. Your affectionate Brother, D W Humphreys—Direct your letter to Sardis in the care of James Williamson.

Benjamin Wayne Humphreys was born near Nashville, Tenn., in 1816. His parents moved to Madison County in 1825, near Jackson. His health and activity are perfect. Although his eyesight is impaired, he refuses surgical assistance. His father, Daniel Jones Humphreys, was born in North Carolina, as was his father, Capt. Benjamin Humphreys, who led his company through the Revolutionary War, and was in many battles with General Wayne's Division. He had camp fever at Valley Forge, which left his hearing badly damaged. His mother was born near Nashville, and was educated there. Her name was Margaret E. Seat. The Humphreys family was founded in this country by Humphrey Jones (with a handle to it), who left Wales on account of some political trouble in the time of Cromwell and the Charleses. For some reason he had his name reversed. The Southern branch has added the letter "s." His father, at seventeen years of age, went with his neighbor, Gen. Andrew Jackson, through the Creek and Florida wars. He was given the office of Ensign, and planted the flag on many Indian fortifications. He served as Sheriff of Williamson County, and Tobacco Inspector in his district. B. W. Humphreys got a fair education in English, but higher schools were out of his reach. He studied on without a teacher, and in 1840 entered the State University, junior class. He graduated 1842, A. B. The Master of Arts degree was tendered him by the faculty in 1845. He studied medicine with Dr. Thos. Newbern, took a course of lectures in Louisville in 1846, and entered practice with Dr. Newbern. In 1847 he entered Jefferson College and graduated next year. Four years practice on big plantations broke his health, and in 1853 he came to Texas and settled on a nice farm on the San Marcos. He was soon in a large practice. In 1869 he moved to Seguin for schools and succeeded well.

9. The Humphrey House.

The pioneer building in Guadalupe County has been touched on in several previous articles; but certainly it ought to be recorded that during the Builders' Survey of ante-bellum houses in Texas, two designs of such houses in Seguin were selected as worthy of preserving in the Library of Congress. One of these is Sebastapol which is known to the present generation as the Zorn home. The other home is the Humphrey House, often called Erskine Number One.

Just after the War Between the States, Dr. Benjamin Wayne Humphrey moved his homestead from Prairie Lea, Texas to Seguin. This house of Colonial Design was cut in three sections, and each section hauled on a set of wooden wheels drawn by oxen the entire distance of almost thirty miles from Prairie Lea to Seguin.

The house was placed on its present location and attached to a concrete house of four rooms which had been built there by Captain Seay in 1855. Three of these concrete rooms are still a part of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hollamon, and are used now as a dining room, a kitchen and a general work room, called in the early days a scullery. All three of these rooms have been restored and refinished. One better thinks though as he steps from one of these rooms to the other, as all three of the floor levels vary. Equally unique in this concrete section is the attic or loft above one of the rooms, for there a hundred years of history is stored in trunks. It is here that the concrete of the Park's type has withstood the ravages of time. A part of one of the walls has been torn down because its weight seemed a threat to the contractor when the house was restored.

To the west of the concrete section are two bedrooms built recently. There is a long porch ending in a square area that is used as an outdoor sitting room. That in turn, connects with the main section brought over from Prairie Lea. One is on his own to remember to step up to the level of the main section.

There are nine fireplaces in the rooms of this house. In fact only one room has no fireplace. Two large living rooms form the first floor of the Colonial Section, and above are two identical rooms. The huge timbers of the foundation were so well preserved that when the house was "shored up" by the present owners, very few of these had to be replaced. Once there was an outside kitchen some distance away from the main section, because of the fire hazard. This kitchen has long ago fallen into ruins.

The flooring of the upper porch has been replaced as has the tread of the stairway worn thin by the feet of four generations. The stairway is an outside one leading from the lower porch to the upper porch. The rafters of the upper porch are the original walnut timber.

The two upper bedrooms are furnished in handmade walnut furniture. That in the east bedroom has "come down" to the Hollamons from the Humphrey family. Some of this is believed to have been the property of the Merriweather family. Mrs. Benjamin Wayne Humphrey having been a Miss Merryweather before here marriage to Dr. Humphrey. It may have a history beyond that, as Mrs. Humphrey's mother and grandmother (a Mrs. William) both lived and died in this house.

In the other upper bedroom is walnut furniture inherited from the Hollamon family. There is a huge, square four-poster walnut bed which is known as the "Sam Houston Bed." Sam Houston liked it so well when he was a guest of Col. Hollamon in 1859 during his political campaign for Governor of Texas, that he ordered one exactly like it for the governor's mansion in Austin. It is not known who made either of these beds, other than a cabinet maker in Seguin made them. Anton Tschoepe and a Mr. Berger were two cabinet makers in Guadalupe County in the fifties. The dresser matching this Sam Houston Bed as well as the bed have been restored to its former beauty. They stand on opposite sides of the bedroom. The perfect proportions in the cathedral panels and the flow of line is the work of an artist. Both of walnut beds have testers after the very best Colonial form.

The two lower living rooms are filled with museum pieces inherited from all the families of which the Hollamons are descendants. The Hollamon Love Seat is an exquisite walnut piece. The sandstone vases on the mantel are gems. Once they were called goose neck because this perfect pair have handles of this design. The front of these vases have an apple blossom pattern in pastel shade and gold.

The brass bell is the same one that was on the door when the house was moved from Prairie Lea. A flower and wreath pattern so intricate that it must have been engraved by an artist, decorates this door bell. It resembles those seen on the doors in Natchez as do other furnishings in the Humphreys House.

In the dining room are walnut chairs, walnut table, and walnut cabinet and a wall rail for cups from Grandmother Erskine. The decanter is of Natchez type. The bisque candleholders of a rose design, and the lovely silver are from the Humphrey Line. The pink fluted demitasse cup along with the rest of the collection of demitasse of Haviland and Dresden were once Grandmother Erskine's collection. All the paintings in the Humphrey House are the work of the late Miss Agnes Erskine.

The Humphrey House is so well restored by its present owners that reality is not: and the past is—when one walks through the Humphrey House.

Dear Madam:

It becomes my painful duty to inform that your husband, John Drennen, died last night at the American Hotel in Indianapolis, Ind., after 10 days sickness—supposed to be yellow fever. Every attention was shown him, having had the attention of three of our best physicians. His body is in a metallic coffin and placed in a vault in order to remove his remains to Arkansas should you desire it. Have the goodness to let me hear from you at your earliest convenience. Very truly your obedient servant,

The proprietor of the hotel failed to add the information which was later obtained, that because John Drennen was a fellow Mason, he had emptied his hotel of guests, and cared for the sick man himself under quarantine. It was a Samaritan act that

Norfolk, Va. June 8, 1897

Dear Cousin Helen:

Your welcome letter of the 3rd came to me only yesterday and as evidence of its appreciation, I am answering it today without typewriter or amanuensis. I rarely do this as I am so crippled up with wounds and rheumatic gout that I have most of my letters written for me, which is never satisfactory to the writer as it is difficult to convey to another, one's exact meaning in just the way one would express one's self. But it is better for the reader when typewriting is used by me.

Yours gives me much information that I highly appreciate and of which I was ignorant. You speak of Annette—well do I remember one occasion when Aunt Sarah was dining at my home at "Sylvan Retreat," and our mothers made us lock arms and walk under the dining table which we did without thumping our heads, so you see we were small. I remember Earnest had an appointment to Annapolis as a cadet but for some reason he did not stay there but went home. My father took him to N and was much chagrined that he did not stay. Amelia was rather erratic and one could never count upon her and the Catholic Church suits her well no doubt. I remember Uncle Enos, having seen him once after he went West to live but can't remember Aunt Sarah nor do I remember either your father or mother and seldom heard from any of you. My father told me that your place was about 4 miles (I think) out of St. Louis and would become very valuable if the city grew that way. He also told me that your father had built a church mainly by himself. The grandfather, Thomas Keyes, after whom he was named was a deeply religious man, never permitted any work to be done on Saturday Eve after 3 o'clock P.M., and himself held religious services. He was a great Methodist I think. Grandmother Catherine Keyes Humphreys was a very pious woman, spent hours every day in the study of her Bible and wrote not only all over the margins of its pages but interlaid sheets of paper between its pages, all of which were closely written in fine hand. She was a prayerful as well as vigorous christian and one of the best housekeepers that ever lived. While she was also a disciplinarian ruling her family by the strictest rules. You see that the family have in all generations been noted for their religious as well as for their patriotic character. Aunt Sue and her family I knew more of than I did of any other of my Aunts or Uncles for the reason that I spent parts of two winters in Chicot Co. (Ark.) and had some of them at my own house in Charles Town at several times. I would like to see all my cousins but hardly think that possible as I am old (66) and they are widely scattered.

Through a friend in Charles Town I obtained the following copy of the inscriptions on the slabs over the graves in the Humphreys lot.

"David Humphreys, died April 24, 1950 aged 76 years."

"Catherine Humphreys, wife of David Humphreys, died May 2, 1844 aged 66 yrs." These were our Grandfather and Grandmother.

"David Humphreys, son of David Humphreys, Senior, died Aug. 2, 1859 aged 64." This was our Uncle David who was all his life a drunkard but died a Christian.

"Mary Ann, consort of John Humphreys, daughter of Doctor Joseph W. Davis died June 19, 1857 aged 56 yrs 4 mo 7 days"

"John Humphreys, died Oct. 19, 1880 aged 80 yrs" These were my Mother and Father.

"Janet L. Humphreys, wife of George Humphreys born July 30, 1809, died Aug. 8, 1836." This was Janet Henderson, the grandmother of our cousin Janet Batterton, who thinks that I am wrong in holding that our Grand Uncle Roger was her Great grandfather and not the one armed David. I may possibly be wrong but hardly think I can be in this case as I make from all I remember or ever heard that she descended from Roger.

I am having a search made of an old graveyard at "Old Belvidere," the old home of Col. Geo. W. Humphreys and later of Aunt Abigail Tate, for copies of the inscriptions there and think the search may throw some light upon these doubtful questions.

Cousin Maria Louisa Humphreys, who lived at Belvidere, was the sister of George Humphreys, of Iowa, and David, the son of George and Janet, was the father of our Cousin Janet Batterton.

ton. I met this George at one time at Belvidere on a visit to Maria Louisa. She died only about 10 years ago and we often talked of our western relations. She had a fine mind and memory, indeed was a remarkable woman and I hardly think she could have been wrong in speaking of her own brother George and her nephew David.

Our grandfather David lost his right arm in defense of Washington City against the British Fleet in the War of 1812-14 and only recently I have found out that the ball, as big as a walnut without the hull, had been taken by my father to the home of my only brother in Arkansas and left there. I am trying now to recover it if it can be found, as my Grandfather gave it to me because I was named after him and nursed him so long before he died.

You asked about my own family. I married Mary Ellen Cameron, of Charles Town and should like to have you know her and know you would like her. We have four children. The eldest, Arthur Cameron is 31, is my partner in business, unmarried, and a very capable man. The next is John Douglass, he lives in Lincoln, Neb. He is about 29, married Minnie Keifer. They have one child, a bright little girl. The other two are girls—the oldest Mary Curran and he youngest Grace Atkinson.

Of my brothers and sisters I have to say that you know of the brother Joseph W. Davis Humphreys who was a doctor and died in Sacramento, California. The other John Thomas returned from California and lived for some years in Arkansas, where he married Miss Belle Aldrich. They have six children. He went back to San Francisco Cal., and lives there away from his family. He was quite an eminent lawyer but has been nearly blind for some years, is a spiritualist and an unhappy man. One of his sons is a physician in New York, another is a prominent lawyer in Fayetteville, Arkansas. The youngest boy John, is at Van Buren, Ark., as are the sisters. I have never seen them but know they are nice children.

Now I come to my sisters, Catherine Keyes and Elizabeth Rutherford. They were remarkable women. One a perfect blonde, the other a brunette, one with deep blue eyes and flaxen hair, with clear white skin; the other with black eyes that could flash long lashes and the blackest shiny long curls I ever saw anyone have. They were equally attractive and popular. Both earnest bright christian women who adorned their home and profession. Kate, as we called her, married a planter at the home of Col. Llewellyn, in Arkansas, Col. John Drennen, the founder of Van Buren. He died of yellow fever in 1855. She died in 1857 of pneumonia leaving three sons and quite a large fortune. They are dead and the fortune gone. My younger sister Bettie, known as "Betty the beautiful," married a merchant, William Bruce Sutton, of Fort Smith, Ark. I crossed the plains with him in 1854. She died in Sept. 1854 leaving a fine boy, just as fine looking as a boy could be. He died in Texas just as he reached manly estate.

Now my dear cousin you have been passing through deep waters. "Think it not strange concerning the fiery trials that shall try you." Death is not extinction, it is but the messenger sent from our Father to bring us to himself and there to meet all our loved ones, not lost ones. 'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends to call us to his arms." I have been 41 years an elder in the Presbyterian Church and have faced death in an hundred battles and always sung to myself of Heaven in the thickest fight.

My family unite with me in love to you and yours. Write whenever you can. If I go West next month will try to see you but as I can't dress or undress without help, travel means trouble. God bless and keep you all and that we all meet under the shade of the trees, is the prayer of your affectionate cousin.

GENEALOGY

"Sarah Ann Humphreys married Enos B. Cordell, a merchant, and moved to Jefferson City, Missouri. Her oldest daughter married Col. Thomas Newton, of Arkansas, who was for a long time a member of Congress from that State."

"The youngest daughter of David Humphreys and Katherine Keyes was Susan who married Col. Richard Llewellyn whose childrens names are as follows: Sadie, Eugene, Ellen, Adele, and two younger children—a boy and a girl. They live in Chicot Co., Ark., on the Mississippi River. I spent two winters with the Llewellyns prior to 1850.—I come now to Roger Humphreys, the brother of the one-armed David Humphreys. His children were George; Emily, who married Wm. R. Seevers, who lived and died in Baltimore Md. Her four daughters still survive. The second daughter of Roger was Maria Louisa Humphreys who lived with her Aunt, Mrs. Abigail Tate and her cousin George Tate, at Belvidere, one half mile from Charles Town. Cousin Maria Louisa died about ten years ago in Charles Town. The youngest child of Roger was Robert Humphreys who always made his home with his sister, Mrs. Seevers, and died about ten years ago.—Mrs. Jonathan Kearsley, of whom you ask, lived in Jefferson Co., W. Va. Her oldest son Jonathan was married twice—the last time to a Miss Sappington, of Charles Town. He died in Fairmont, W. Va. Her next son, George W., major in the Confederate Army, still lives in Radford, Va. and in Knoxville, Tenn., and Charles Town. He has a large family of children and grandchildren. One of Mrs. Kearsley's daughters married a Mr. Carter, of Charles Town. Her children were: Thomas L., Kearsley, Anna, Sarah, Ellen, and Molly. Mrs. Kearsley's younger son is named Cramer. He married a Miss Leslie Thomson of Fredericksburg, Va. She survives him.—My grand Aunt Tate had several children. The oldest George is the one you saw. He died about ten years ago in Charles Town. The next named Magnus, a doctor, died in W. Va. The next John, a doctor, lived and died in Cincinnati. A daughter Anna married a lawyer who lived near Charles Town.—I have one brother living in San Francisco, Cal. He is quite old now (?) and nearly blind but has been a very prominent lawyer there. My oldest brother, Dr. Joseph Humphreys, with the one above named, crossed the plains to California in 1849. Joseph died there. John returned from California, subsequently married in Arkansas. My eldest sister, ate, married Col. Drennen, an Arkansas planter. She died in Van Buren, Ark., leaving three sons, all of whom are dead. My next sister, Bettie R., married a Mr. Sutton, of Fort Smith, Ark. She died in Charles Town, W. Va., while her husband and I were on the plains on our way to California. We stayed about a year and then returned to Virginia.—Upon referring to your letter of March 26th, I find that this Cousin Helen is the daughter of Uncle Thomas K. Who constitutes the family of Uncle Thomas who still lives near Saint Louis? Your mention of her being the first word I have heard of them in nearly fifty years. My grandfather told me all about them when he returned from Missouri with his servant William, of whom you spoke.—Can you tell me anything of Llewellyn Humphreys whose name we saw as that of one of the graduates in a Kentucky College and being from Bellefontaine, Missouri?

"I never saw George Humphres but once when he was on a visit from Iowa to his sister Maria Louisa Humphreys who lived at Belvidere.—I often heard Cousin Maria Louisa talk of her brother George.—I was in St. Louis in 1855—with my sister Kate on our way across to Arkansas.—I am an Elder in the Presbyterian Church and have been for forty years. Am a Prohibitionist of Democratic Family and was a member of the Stonewall Brigade, and on the great monetary question of the day I hold for free silver 16-1, and never fear to show my colors as I freely accord to all the same right of opinion that I claim for myself."

Dear Mrs. Jones:

About this time last year I spent quite a bit of time trying to prove our relationship to the William Humphreys who at one time owned what is now valuable property in Texas. It seems however that the lands were disposed of before his death which occurred a long time ago. There is no record of his death with local registrar even. I tried every way to get necessary information but failed. I hate to discourage you but fear you will have my luck.

This William Humphreys moved to Texas from Tennessee. My relatives all went to Tennessee too but the folks there are trying to get money for themselves and I've gotten no help from any one. I do know we are in direct line of descent. I don't know any of the people you mention. I had a great uncle, Tom Humphreys, who lived in Georgia.

The Humphreys from whom we are descended came to Philadelphia, Pa., from England. He was named Daniel. His sons were David, Solomon, Elijah, Benjamin, Daniel moved to N. C. and his son David is the one from whom I am directly descended. The other moved to Tennessee. Solomon was a physician of great fame. This William Humphreys must be a son of one of those three. I believe Benjamin's son William Humphreys never married. This is a family name. I had a great uncle William and an uncle William. There is a man in Georgia who claims direct descent but he didn't even reply to my letter and I've forgotten his name.

The Texas authorities wrote me it was just a case for lawyers to quarrel over and discouraged me. I wish tho you could have luck and if so write me please.

Lucile Humphreys

GEORGE HUMPHREYS,<sup>1</sup> was born ca. 1764; died 10 April 1840 and he is buried in a cemetery near Penn-ington, Edwards County, Illinois. He was first married to Frances Garrard (Girard, Gerrard), believed to have been the daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth Garrard of Ruddell's Mills, Kentucky, who died ca. June, 1836, in Gibson County, Indiana. She is believed to have been buried in the old Humphreys Cemetery located on the original Humphreys homestead in White River Town-ship, near Princeton, Gibson County, Indiana.

George Humphreys later married, 25 February 1838, in Clay County, Illinois, Miss Mary Rose, b. ca. 1806, d. ca. 1884, in Tulare County, California. Her grave in the Deep Creek Cemetery has been marked by the Alta Mira Chapter, D.A.R., of Lindsay, California, because of George Humphreys' service in the Revolutionary War.

During the Revolutionary War, George Humphreys enlisted in the fall of 1781, at or near Williamsburg, Virginia, serving until the termination of the war, at which time he was a Dragoon in Captain Hughes' Troop of Light Dragoons, in the First Regiment commanded by Colonel White.

For his military service, George Humphreys received two land grants located in Muhlenberg County, Ken-tucky, and many years later was issued two bounty land warrants.

Since three of their daughters were married in Muh-lenberg County, Kentucky, and since George and Frances Humphreys disposed of several properties there, includ-ing some lots in the town of West Port, it is assumed that they lived for some time in Muhlenberg County, Kentucky. They moved to what is now Gibson County, Indiana, prior to 1812, probably about 1807; some of the sons served in the War of 1812 from that county. They acquired a large acreage of land in the White River Township, Gibson County, Indiana, through participation in "The Donation Lanus," which were sold at Vincennes.

On May 13, 1817, George Humphreys was appointed Agent for Gibson County, a position which he resigned the following year.

George and Frances (Garrard) Humphreys were members of the Presbyterian Church in Princeton, In-diana.
