IN MEMORIAM
GREGORY A. WEINGETZ

Less hasty am I than the wind, yet I must go.

I go with the wind, but not down into emptiness; and if this day is not a fulfillment of your needs and my love, then let it be a promise till another day.

The mist that drifts away at dawn, leaving but dew in the fields, shall rise and gather into a cloud and then fall down in rain.

And not unlike the mist have I been. Your heartbeats were in my heart, and your breath was upon my face, and I knew you all. I knew your joy, your pain, and in your sleep your dreams were mine.

You are like the seasons; and though in your winter you deny your spring, yet spring, reposing in you, smiles in her drowsiness and is not offended.

You have given me my deeper thirsting after life.

Surely there is no greater gift to a man than that which turns all his aims into parching lips – and all life into a fountain.

And in this lies my honor and my reward – that whenever I come to the fountain to drink I find the living water itself thirsty; and it drinks me while I drink it.

The wind blows, and restless are the sails; even the rudder begs direction.

And I am ready.

GENEALOGY AND HISTORY OF THE HESS FAMILY

Compiled by Larry M. Hess

August, 1954

JOHNNES HESS, Born in Germany, 1692; died after July 2, 1749, Mohawk Valley.

Johnnes Hess and Nicholas Hess landed at Nutters Island, now Governor's Island, New York City, on June 14th, 1710.

Another brother evidently landed with Johnnes and Nicholas Hess; this brother's life is taken up in the history of the Hess Family. The reason that his name is not given here is that there was a confusion as to how he spelled his name. Earliest records were spelled "Ess" and it was later found to be "Hess." This is fully explained in the History of the Hess Family.

JOHNNES HESS FAMILY & DESCENDANTS: Each year on Saturday of the week of August 18th, the direct descendants of Henry Hess, Sr., descended from Johnnes Hess, first generation, gather for a reunion. At these annual Hess Family reunions, questions always arise as to the generations of descent from Johnnes Hess.

It was approximately 1914 or 1915 that Hubert Hess, son of Joseph Axtell Hess, and brother of Marian Hess Burnside and Pearl Hess Couse, started to make a complete History and Genealogy of the Hess Family. Bert, as we know him, continued this work up to the time of his death, on May 21, 1930. Bert had gathered volumes of material covering not only the Hesses, but other families that were connected with the Hesses by marriage.

In 1941, during the period while I was in Glens Falls, N.Y., as Executive Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Louise Hess, widow of Hubert Hess, and I condensed some of the material for the purpose of outlining the Hess Family History. Many of the Hess families have purchased this mimeographed, 46-page history.

Later, when I had gone to Zanesville, Ohio, I received from Aunt Louise a box containing all the research material that Bert had compiled. This came to me in 1946, as a complete surprise. I believe that Aunt Louise sent this at the time that she moved from Glens Falls to Luzern, N.Y.

As descendants of Henry Hess, Sr., we want to know how we trace our lineage to Johnnes Hess, and the following outline is taken from the research material:

FIRST GENERATION:	Johnnes Hess (1692 - 1749)
SECOND GENERATION	Augustinus Hess (1718 - 1782)
THIRD GENERATION:	Frederick Hess (1749 - 1795)
FOURTH GENERATION:	Henry Hess, Sr. (1782 - 1867)

The following pages will list each family as to generation separately. First Generation, Johnnes Hess and Children; Second Generation, Augustinus Hess and Children; Third Generation, Frederick Hess and Children; Fourth Generation, Henry Hess, Sr., and Children.

Starting with the Fifth Generation, which is composed of the children of Henry Hess, Sr., the outline will include all branches of each generation of the family.

1ST GENERATION

The Rev. Joshua Kocherthal marriage records give the following -
 "August 29, 1711, Johnnes Hess (born 1692 in Germany and died in the Mohawk Valley after July 2, 1749) a blacksmith of Bleichenback in the Duchy of Hanau and Anna Catherine (born 1694 in Germany) daughter of Rudolph Curring of Hellstein Duchy of Isenburg," were married August 29, 1711 at West Camp on the Hudson.
