❖❖PREFACE❖❖

The following records of the Isbell, Kingman, Latimer, and Livermore families have been compiled for the gratification of my children and other near relatives. An effort has been made to have the Isbell records as full as could readily be gathered. The Kingman Genealogy has been very fully wrought by Bradford Kingman, Esq., of Brookline, Mass., and will soon be published, so that his rights were in the way of making that complete, while the completion of the Latimer and Livermore records involved too much labor.

For this compilation thanks are due to Dr. D. Williams Patterson, of Newark Valley, N. Y., and to Oliver Osborne, Esq., of Lenox, Mass., who has furnished the whole records of Noah Isbell (No. 15) and his descendants from the time of their advent to Lenox.

THE ISBELL FAMILY.

1 ROBERT ISBELL [1] was of New London, Conn., where he had a grant of land from the townsmen, 19 Oct., 1650; and Miss Caulkins in "History of New London," p 67, says that he was from Gloucester, Mass. At a later date he seems to have lived in the north part of the town, in what is now Ledyard. He died about 1655, leaving a widow, Ann Isbell, who married (2d) with William Nicholls. Miss Caulkins thinks he was the same man, who, as Robert Isabell, had land granted to him at Salem, Mass., in 1637. (See "History of New London," p. 272.) Widow Ann Nicholls died at New London, 15 Sept., 1689.

3 II. HANNAH ISBELL [2] married at New London, Conn., 6 Aug., 1668, with Thomas Stedman, of New London, and, after his death, with John Fox, of New London, as his second wife.

10	III. HANNAH ISBELL [4], b. at Killingworth, Conn., 8 Oct., 1703; and was living there 30 Ap., 1728, when she sold her share of her father's estate to her brother, Eleazer Isbell.
11	IV. ELEAZER ISBELL [4], b. at Killingworth, Conn., 31 Aug., 1705. He bought the real estate which his father left, from his brothers and sisters, 30 Ap., 1728, and 5 Feb., 1733-'34, and settled upon it, in Killingworth. He married with Elizabeth French, who died at Killingworth, 16 Feb., 1747-'48. He married (2d) 3 Dec., 1748, with Mary Papper. She died, and he married (3d) 29 Ap., 1754, with Thankful Kelsey.	16
12	V. MARY ISBELL [4], b. at Killingworth, Conn., 19 Ap., 1708; and was living at Guilford, Conn., 30 Ap., 1728, when she sold to her brother, Eleazer Isbell, her share of her father's estate.
13	VI. ISRAEL ISBELL [4], b. at Killingworth, Conn., 15 July, 1710; and was living at Milford, Conn., 5 Feb., 1733-'34, when he sold his heritage in Killingworth for £40, to his brother, Eleazer Isbell.

He married with Jerusha Griswold, who died 21 March, 1745. He married (2d) at Killingworth 28 Dec., 1748, with Jerusha Ward. They settled, about 1770, at Lenox, Mass., where he joined the Church, in 1771, and died 18 Oct., 1801. Did not he marry (3d) 2 Jan., 1775, with Sarah Dudley, who was born at Guilford, Conn., 20 Ap., 1723, widow of Capt. Peleg Redfield, of Guilford, who married 25 Ap., 1744 and died 5 Dec., 1760? (See the Redfield Genealogy, p. 20.) His will, dated 1794, was proved 4 June, 1805. His will of 1794 seems to indicate that he was then a widower, as he gives the "children of his last wife," the household goods which belonged to their mother.	27

He joined the Congregational Church at Lenox, in 1799; was chosen deacon, in 1808; and resigned the office, in 1829. He was a farmer and lumberman, owning and working the homestead of his father, while his mountain land furnished the timber which he worked up in his sawmill on the East Street, a mile north of his farm. He was a tall, energetic, hard-working man, with his face deeply pitted with small-pox, which made a strong impression upon his young hearers when convulsed with emotion, in his religious zeal, as one who well remembers him, describes his appearance, as he stood in the winter noon-time prayer meetings at the "Church on the Hill," with his hands clasped, the tears trickling down his rugged cheeks, and prayed that "strength and will might be given to all to beat down the strongholds of Satan, and to build up the walls of Zion." He was a good man, whose memory is still cherished in Lenox, where he and his wife died; she, 3 March, 1834; he, 7 March, 1839.	80
