A HELP TO A FAMILY HISTORY.

BY AUGUSTINE CALDWELL. IPSWICH, MASS.

*Nathaniel and Rachel (Bradford) Jones,
Ipswich, Mass., and some of their Descendants.*

Nathaniel Jones was in Ipswich in 1704. That year he married Rachel Bradford. Nothing more is known of him, save the statement made by his grandchildren, that he emigrated from Wales. Two of his children became gentlemen of estate and position in their day: William, of Ipswich, and Dr. Benjamin of Beverly. Among his descendants of later generations may be mentioned Dr. Benjamin Jones, Lyndeboro, N. H., Rev. William Thurston, Manchester, Mass, Rev. James Boutwell, Dunkirk, N. Y., Rev. Wm. Thurston Boutwell, Missionary among the Ojibwa Indians, Wis., Dr. Joseph Jones, Wenham, and Rev. Jas. Thurston, West Newton.

Of Rachel Bradford Jones nothing is known—not even the place and time of her birth, or the date of her death. We think she was connected with the Bradfords of Beverly.
