The compiler is a Minister who has lost many valuable books and papers in moving from one pastorate to another. The time has come for him to assume new duties in another state. To prevent the possibility of loss of this valuable material, this preliminary report has been prepared. It is NOT the final report, promised to relatives who have cooperated in its compilation. Therefore, relatives and genealogists are requested to withhold judgment on the work until it is finished in proper form. The compiler has much fragmentary information on hand that does not appear in this work; - material requiring further research for verification.

Genealogists may rely upon the statements of fact recited herein. Each statement has been verified by certified photostat copies, affidavits, correspondence, and by personal inspection of source material. The few errors made in cutting stencils will be corrected by hand before a copy is mailed to any library or person. In other words, WHAT IS HERE IS THOROUGHLY RELIABLE INFORMATION.

The eldest living descendants of Snow and Ann Jones agree that Ann's maiden name was Langrell. A letter in the possession of the compiler indicates (but does not prove) that her father's name was Nehemiah Langrell. SO: - here is a project that may be undertaken by members of the family who live close to Georgetown, Del. - -

Check the Register of Wills and Orphans' Court Records following July 6, 1825 to try to ascertain the names of the heirs and next of kin of NEHEMIAH LINGRELL who died in Sussex County, Del. on that date. The compiler has a record of the marriage of one Nehemiah Lingrell and Rosanna Paul, in Dorchester Co., Md., March 23, 1789. This MAY (or may NOT) be the person for whom we're searching; but it is worth a try! References to his military service in the Revolution appear in Vol. II, pp. 728 and 732; and in Vol. III, pp. 1219, 1221, 1225, 1229.

There are many Langrells in Delaware, today. In a hasty search thru the 1850 Census, two Langrells (both slightly younger than Ann) were found:

Sir, I am requested to say for Snow Jones That he was mistaken in regard to his Captain, in part, he and Mr. W. Paisley, and I think the husband of Sarah Cahoon. They were first mustered into service under John Booth and marched to Lewistown (LEWES)* Delaware, and that company was disbanded there and by the order of the Col. They were placed in Capt. Stephen Redden Company and Served until they were discharged. George D. Fisher, Esq., has a copy of the return which I have seen, and I think SNOW JONES and William Pasley names are there. They will comply with the order of the Department as soon as possible. Their information from you did not come to their hands before this day.

Most respectfully yours,
William Porter

N.B.

The parties above named are persons of good standing in our vicinity, and no doubt they rendered service to their country.
