COAT OF ARMS.

JOHNSON.

In the "Early Settlers of America" pp. 293, the Johnson Arms are given as follows: Gu, on a chevron, between 3 fleur-de-lis, arg. 3 escollops of the field. Crest. An arm, couped at the elbow, erect, holding an arrow; proper. Motto. Deo regique debet.

Salisbury Genealogy, vol. 3, pp. 305, gives the following: "In the line of Rev. Stephen Johnson of Lyme, Conn., there has come down a coat of arms supposed to have been copied from an older painting in the family. Az., a chevron. Or, in chief 2 eagles volant, in base a sun, of the second." This I have chosen as correct for the Jeremiah Johnson family as the Rev. Stephen Johnson of Lyme was a great-grandson of Thomas Johnson of New Haven, Conn., and Newark, N. J., and the latter was a brother of Jeremiah Johnson.

JEREMIAH JOHNSON FAMILY.

Three brothers from Yorkshire, England, John, Robert and Thomas, came to New Haven, Ct., in 1639.

Thomas, with Thomas Ashley was drowned in New Haven harbor in 1640, leaving two sons, Thomas, who was one of the founders of Newark, N. J., and Jeremiah of Derby, Ct. (New Eng. Historical and Biographical Register, vol 66, p. 15); (New Haven Colony Records, vol. 1).

In Colonial Records of Conn., vol. 1, p. 49, is an inventory of the goods of Thomas Johnson dec'd turned in to the Court. 11 £. 5s. 10d. May 7-1640. (pp. 55.) Andrew Bacon and John Barnard are appointed to sell the goods of the Cobbler Thomas Johnson, dec'd formerly taken by Invent. July 2-1640. (pp. 453.) Invent. of Thomas Johnson. Jeremiah Johnson came from New Haven March 2-1672 and occupied land granted to him on Sentinel Hill.

Derby Published Land Rec. pp. 78. "At a meeting of ye Inhabitants of pagassett Mar. 2-1672, the inhabitants have granted to Jeremiah Johnson a tract of land on Sentinel Hill, 30 acres more or less, bounded west by land of Sergt. In 1681 Jeremiah Johnson's estate is listed as "2 persons 36 £., 1 ox, 1 cow, 2- 4 yr olds, 1-3 yr old, 1 two yr old, 2 yearlings, 1 horse, 1-3 yr old, 4 swine, Land 80 £. 10s."

Hist. of Derby, pp. 83. In 1681 Jeremiah Johnson's land consisted of 3½ acres Home lot, 4 acres on Sentinel Hill, 3 acres of meadow at Rimmon, 5 acres of plow land.

In the Hist. of Derby is the following, Mar. 15- 1670. The inhabitants of Pagaset are as foloweth: Ed. woster: frances French: Joseph hawkins: Samuel Riges: Ephraim Smith: Abell Gun: Stephen person: Jerymiah Johnson. (probably 1670).

"Dec. 30- 1678: The Town have granted to Jer: Johnson Twenty acres of land at the loer end of the plaine against Rock Rimmon."

Jeremiah Johnson was a very influential man in Derby and held many of the Town's offices. In 1680 he was appointed Constable, which appointment he also held in 1683, in 1685 he was appointed Townsman, on Dec. 3-1692 Jeremiah Johnson Sen. "one of a Comitty to secure a minister also appointed Cunstable."

"July 27: 1693 at a lawful town meting agreed to send to Mr. James to com and give us a vizet and let us assist in his labor. Jeremiah Johnson senneor to go to him."

"November 13: 1693 at a lawful town meting at derby the town have hirered the north end of the hous that was Doctor guns, lower

"March 8-1695 at a lawful town meeting at derby the town hired the house and the South end of the barn that was Doctor guns of Jeremiah Johnson Sener and they are to give him on pound ten shiling a year for them, only Jeremiah Johnson Juner is to remouv out of the hous with his family by the first of may next. further at the sam time the town have chosen Jeremiah Johnson Juner to looke out and get too thousand foot bords for the ministers hous."

Dec. 11: 1702. Jeremiah Johnson Seneor was appointed one of the collectors of the ministers salary, which was after the ministers house was built (now standing on Elm St. Ansonia, the home also of Rev. Daniel Humphreys) and Mr. James was settled in it as their minister.

As a specimen of their devotion to their church, the following story is told in Orcutt's Hist. of Derby. During the early days of the settlement before they had the services of a minister, it was customary for the few families then living in Derby to go to Milford to meeting. The father of a family named Johnson (and there was but one here then), consisting of the parents and several small children, went on Sunday morning to Milford for the two services. After his departure as his wife was sitting by the open door dressing the children, she heard a sound outside and thought it was a hog, but somehow it seemed different so she reached and closed the door which fastened with a latch and then rising made it more secure with a bar and went upstairs and looked out of the window, when lo! a full grown bear was seen; she took the gun always ready in those days of Indian alarms and fired killing the animal, although she did not know that for certain until her husband returned at close of day. The hours went slowly there alone in the midst of the wilderness until he came, when he called a council of the neighbors with him to decide whether it would be lawful to eat the meat of an animal killed on Sunday. It was finally decided to be "Christianly consistent to eat the meat as it was killed in self defence."

I am sure this was Jeremiah Johnson's family as he came first from New Haven to settle in 1670 with a family of young children, the oldest being six yrs old, one four yrs old, and a baby.

Col. Ebenezer Johnson came in 1671, a single man, marrying in the Fall of that same year, his first child was not born until 1672, in which year or 1673 Rev. John Bowers came to Derby to preach.

Jeremiah Johnson sr. married in New Haven Sarah Hotchkiss sister of Joshua Hotchkiss, the latter quite a famous man in his day, he settled for a time near his sister and her husband on Sentinel Hill.

Their children, those of Jeremiah and Sarah were:

Jeremiah Jr. born Apr. 25-1664. William born Sept. 15-1665. John born July 30-1666 married Mary Washburn. Samuel born Mar. 8-1670. Moses born Apr. 10-1674 married Sarah Adam removed to Newtown. Ebenezer born Sept. 12-1699 married Hannah

. . . Elizabeth born May 2-1684. There seems to be a difference of opinion regarding the birth dates of the later children. Seymour Past and Present and the Hist. of Derby differ.

"Dec. 12: 1692 ey Jeremiah Johnson Sen of derby in new england do give to my oldest son thes pasuld of land as foloweth, i say I do freely, volentaryly give to Jeremiah gunier my oldest son namely half of my hom lot containing 2 acres be it more or less, further I the said Jeremiah John seneor do give to the aboue said gunier foure acres of my paster."

Jeremiah Johnson Sr. died in 1703-4 and was buried in the old Colonial Burying Ground, Derby Ct.

In New Haven Probate Records, vol. 3, pp. 35, is given amongst the estate of Jeremiah Johnson of Derby, June 3-1704. "gun, sword and ammunition." After all which upon the mother's decease the remainder to be divided between Moses and Ebenezer." Signed Jeremiah, John, Moses, Ebenezer and Elizabeth and before the children's signatures that of the mother, Sarah Johnson.

Jeremiah Johnson Jr. son of Jeremiah and Sarah (Hotchkiss) Johnson married Elizabeth daughter of Col. Ebenezer Johnson and Elizabeth Wooster in 1692.

He was as prominent a man in church and town matters as his father. In 1684 the town granted him a home lot of 4 acres in Scraping Hole Plain.

In Dec: 1702 he is appointed fence viewer for Centinel Hill field. Dec. 9: 1707 the town appoints Jeremiah Johnson to audit the accounts with the town treasurers for the last year.

He was as public-spirited as his for-bears and in 1769 we find record of Joseph Johnson Jr. giving land for a school in what is now Seymour. Also in 1783 when the Falls Bridge was built, the money raised by the sale of Lottery tickets, as was the custom of the time, Joseph Johnson Jr. and his son Hezekiah held shares. 88 tickets were sold amongst 33 persons.

Newell Johnson's father Hezekiah, lived in the house now occupied by Jeremiah Durand." (1879.)

The following extracts from the History of Seymour show the active part Newell took in all pertaining to the good of the town. Albert Lanfair son of Edward A. and Harriet Almira (Lanfair) Johnson was born in Ansonia, Conn. Mar. 8-1866.

Richard Miles Johnson was as active in the development of the then small village of Ansonia, as his ancestors were in the upbuilding of the mother town of Derby during the preceding hundred and ninety years, being associated with Almon and Franklyn Farrel in the manufacturing business. He was a machinist in the days when men knew their business thoroughly and from every angle. There are many of his drawings and inventions extant today. It is unusual to find a family of ten generations, all of them pioneers in their various localities, serving in the wars of their country, men of prominence and remaining within a radius of twenty-five miles from the first settler.

PETER JOHNSON FAMILY.

Peter Johnson born in England about 1608, was in Boston in 1638, removing to Fairfield, Conn., from Concord, Mass., with the Rev. Mr. Jones and a number of others. In 1638, Peter Johnson of Boston is called a Dutchman when Richard Rawlings was allowed to purchase his house. He was of Fairfield, Conn., about 1649, afterwards going to Pequonnock, near Golden Hill, Bridgeport. In 1651 he died leaving two sons, John and Ebenezer, and a baby born the same year of his death. (It is conjectured it was posthumous.)

In Conn. Colonial Records, pp. 226. "Mr. Andrew Ward and John Banks are desired to gather up and make sale of any estate of that which was sometimes Peter Johnson's of Fairfield, Conn. and that they shall therewith satisfie the charges of the nursing of the child of Goody Johnson. Oct. 6-1651."

The children of Peter Johnson as given in Seymour Past and Present pp. 489 were: Moses born 1643 located in Woodbury, Conn. Ebenezer born 1645 located in Derby. Abigail born 1648, John born 1650, Mercy or Mary born 1651 married Joseph Hawkins. Eunice born 1656, which is an error as the father died in 1651.

Ebenezer son of Peter settled in Stratford, Conn. removed to Derby about 1668 and married in 1671 Elizabeth daughter of Edward Wooster, one of the first settlers of Derby, and grandfather of Gen. David Wooster.

Derby Published Records, pp. 22. "Mar. 26-1672. Upon a Lafoll meeting of the Inhabetants of Pagaset thay have granted to Ebenezer Johnson a hom lott containing 4 akers lying at the South eand of Sentynall hill."

Apr. 3-1672. "thatt land which is fitt to make meadow on the west side of two mile brooks mouth at the great rivar side."

pp. 24. At a town meeting regarding the purchase of the minister's lot. Apr. 11-1672, it mentions "the last Commares (comers) to the place as, Ebenezer Johnson, Moses Johnson, John Tibbals, Stephen peirson and Joshua Hodgkis."

In 1678 Ebenezer Johnson is appointed constable, townsman and to keep ordinary (the first in town). In 1685 he was appointed Lieut. of the 1st regular military company organized in the town. During the same year he and Jeremiah Johnson built upon the land they owned in vicinity of Rock Rimmon.

In 1681 Sergt. Ebenezer Johnson's estate (personal) 2 persons. 36 £., 3 horses, 3 oxen, 3 cows, 1- 3 yr old, 1- 3yr old horse, 1- 2yr old horse, 6 swine, 1- 2 yr old, Land, £.104, 16S.

In 1689 he was commissioned by the General Court to the office of Capt. in a volunteer company raised to aid England against the French in the twenty-four years war that followed. In this war he went on two expeditions to Albany and one to New York besides others against the Indians of his own state, and to protect the sea-coast. He was also appointed as one of the commissioners, or governor's council for several years during the war and as such seems to have been depended upon as much as any one in the state.

He was justice of the peace from 1698 to 1716, and representative from 1685 to 1723, a term of thirty-eight years, the equal of which is seldom known in any state. For his public services the town gave him 175 acres of land at "Quaker's Farm", he also received of the state, by vote of the General Assembly, in 1700 three hundred acres of land as a recognition of his public services during the French and Indian War.

He was appointed seargeant-major of the New Haven county militia in 1704 and upon the Colonial Records for 1709 is the following: "Upon consideration of the age and long service of Maj. Ebenezer Johnson, major of the regt of militia in the county of New Haven this assembly have thought meet to excuse and do now hereby excuse and release him from further labour in that post", but the French war continuing he was commissioned Colonel of the expedition organized to go to Port Royal in 1710.

“Nov. 10-1710 Ordered paid unto Col. Johson 46s. for 8 gals of rum, which he bought at sea for the soldiers on board the brigantine instead of beer on the expedition against Port Royal.”

After this expedition he was more respected and honored than before, although in 1701 the town clerk writes “The worshipful Major Johnson” denoting the highest honor.

Derby Published Records pp. 245. Dec. 1707. “Voted yt Maj. Johnson shall according to his desire set at the end of the pulpit in a short seat alone and yt the town be at suteable charge to make it hansome and convenient to entertain the said Major honorably: At the same time Voted yt Mrs. Bowers, Mrs. Johnson, and Mrs. Moss shall sit in said seat on the women’s side next the pulpit which is made with banister like a pew.”

Col. Johnson was participant in many stirring events, one of particular interest is spoken of in the Colonial Records of Conn. as follows, “Cyprian Nichols and Ebenezer Johnson were members of the Assembly in June 1687 when sundry of the Court at Hartford desired that the patent or charter might be brought into the court, which the record leaves in the box on the table at the adjournment and with the key in the box, at which time perhaps the original charter was taken by Messrs Stanley and Talcott and concealed, it may be by Mr. Leete. Messrs. Nichols and Johnson were also members and present on the 31st of Oct. when Sir. Edmund Andros assumed the government and demanded the charter whereupon the incident of extinguishing the lights occurred and the duplicate charter was secured by Capt. Wadsworth. The Assembly met and sat late at night, the charter was ordered placed on the table, when suddenly all the candles were snuffed out at once and when re-lighted the charters were gone.

A story was told by Capt. David Treat Johnson of Oxford, Conn. concerning one of the women of this family showing they were as courageous as the men. One of his great grandmother’s was seated in her kitchen one day when she heard a noise near her and saw an Indian’s head protrude through a hole which he had made in the log wall; making no noise she seized an axe near by and bringing it down with all her might severed the head from the body, pulling the latter into the room; another head appearing she repeated the performance until six decapitated Indians were within, if any others were outside they did not try to follow their companions." In those days of isolation and Indian alarms the women needed all their nerve for emergencies.

Col. Ebenezer Johnson married 1st Elizabeth daughter of Edward and Elizabeth (French) Wooster, on Nov. 23-1671. She died in 1672 leaving a baby daughter born Dec. 20-1672, who married Jeremiah Johnson Jr.

Col. Ebenezer Johnson married 2nd. Hannah daughter of Jonas and Hannah Tomlinson on Nov. 23-1676. He died Sept. 18-1726.

On New Haven Probate Records, vol. 5, pp. 317, Col. Ebenezer Johnson's will is given. To wife Hannah he gives maid servant Dinah and west side of his Mansion House, moveable goods, cattle etc. To son Peter, land in Camp's Mortgage, To son Ebenezer land above Bladen's Brook, also land in the "Quaker's Farm" Purchase. He divided his land at Seymour between his sons Timothy and Charles, one taking the east side of the River, and the other the west. His homestead on the southern side of New Haven Sentinel Hill he gave to his son Ebenezer Jr. and to Peter one hundred acres adjoining to Pootatuck River and another piece of fifty acres adjoining Two-mile Brook. He also mentions Grandson Return Strong. To daughter Elizabeth £70, also daughter Eunice Strong and Hannah Curtis. To Rev. Joseph Moss £5. Will probated Sept. 30-1726.

Col. Ebenezer Johnson's children by his 2nd wife were: Eunice born Aug. 22-1678, Hannah born Dec. 6-1680, Peter born Oct. 9-1684, Ebenezer born Feb. 22-1686, Israel born Apr. 13-1689 died Jan. 31-1712, Timothy born Dec. 23, 1693, Charles born Dec. 29-1696.

Col. Ebenezer Johnson was a man of most remarkable character and business ability, in 1706 he is said to have virtually transacted all the business of the town. He had great ability in all dealings with the Indians, they having the greatest respect and consideration for him, and in all difficulties with them was always chosen to treat with them and pacify them; he and Henry Wooster were the two men skilled in all diplomatic dealings with the red men. Col. Johnson was a man of unquestioned courage and prominent in all the wars of his time from King Philip's down. It was during his fight with the Pequots that he is said to have found on the battlefield the next morning, "Tobie" then a small child, and taken him home as part of the spoils of war and brought him up to manhood when he gave him his freedom.

Col. Johnson's homestead was a little off the New Haven Road, and the remains of the cellar are still to be seen (1926). The house directly on the road he is said to have built and given to his son Ebenezer Jr. the ell on the rear is said to have been moved from the older house and may have been the slave quarters that housed the slaves of which he was possessed. The house is very interesting with two large chimneys, fine carved moldings and panelled doors. It is in very good condition.

Col. Johnson received all the honors the town and colony could give him and died at a ripe old age respected and beloved by all.

HARGER.

Jabez Harger, a Huguenot was in Stratford, Conn. before 1662. He married Margaret daughter of Henry and Alice Tomlinson of Stratford Nov. 5-1662. He was given a home lot which was recorded June 3-1669. He purchased land in Derby, Conn. where he settled a few years later, being one of the first settlers at the "North End." His first residence, according to Hist. of Derby, was located east of Edward Rigg's on Sentinel Hill. Jabez Harger died in 1678 his wife Margaret Mar. 17-1698. Their eldest son Samuel was born Sept. 29-1663 and married Hannah Stiles May 9-1693, of Stratford, and died about 1699. His widow (Samuel's) married John Tibbals, Mar. 28-1700.

DURAND.

Dr. John Durand, a French Huguenot, was Derby's first real physician, and was in practice from about 1685 until his death forty years later. He married in Stratford, Elizabeth daughter of Richard Bryan and grand daughter of Alexander Bryan the great Milford merchant and was a wealthy man as figured in the early colonial days. He came to Derby about 1685 (according to Hist. of Derby) his residence being near Edward Wooster's at Derby Village. He possessed considerable property, and his wife inherited quite an estate from her father and grandfather. After the death of Edward Wooster, he purchased his farm and was engaged in considerable litigation with the town over their efforts to build a bridge and highway through it, finally moving to "Brownie Castle" situated on Academy Hill.

Dr. Durand served in the French and Indian Wars (Conn. Colonial Records, pp. 99, 1709.) "This assembly do nominate and appoint Dr. Jacob Read of Simsbury, Mr. Duran of Derby and Mr. Wheelar of Stratfield, to be chirurgeons and physitians to go with the army in the expedition against Canada."

In "Flower Fables and Fancies" by N. Hudson Moore, it says, "There is a tradition that the lilac was first brought to America by Dr. John Durand, a Huguenot who came to America in 1690 (date incorrect) from La Rochelle, France. With others of his faith he settled first in New Rochelle, N. J. named after his beloved home in France. Afterwards he removed with his family to Derby, Conn. Even in that time of perilous and uncertain traveling, room was found for such small shrubs and plants as they had managed to bring."

The Huguenots were famous gardeners and made the wilderness of this country veritably "blossom as the rose."

It is of interest to note how every Durand Homestead in Derby was famed for the beauty of its lilacs and other flowers and shrubs.

Seymour Past and Present gives the children of Dr. John and Elizabeth (Bryan) Durand as:

John born Nov. 10-1700, married 1st Sarah Lum. 2nd Sarah Chatfield.

(Stiles' Hist. of the Judges.)

He (Thomas Tuttle) lived and died on what is a part of College Square. The property was held by Tuttle's for 133 years. "Mrs. Constable 1639 to 1652. Thomas Wheeler 1652-1657. In 1852 a monument was erected in Milford, Conn. to the memory of 46 American soldiers who with their companions were set ashore there to the number of about 200 by an English ship. Forty-six died of small pox and were buried in one common grave. Dr. Carrington and Capt. Stowe volunteered to accompany the sick soldiers to a temporary hospital that was erected for them and helped tend them. (Recollections of Milford, pp. 12.)

The following account is given in New Haven Historical Papers, pp. 202: "In Dec. 1776 shortly before night there appeared off the harbor of Milford a British vessel, carrying at her "fore" a flag of truce: darkness increasing she was soon lost sight of. Near to the beach was the house of Capt. Isaac Miles an earnest patriot, who with his sons was sitting before his fire, hearing unusual sounds outside he opened the door and found the yard filled with a large number of wild, forlorn looking creatures in a most deplorable condition, suffering for want of food and clothing. On that bitter winter night they had been turned ashore from that ship and left on the beach to shift for themselves. The Miles family and neighbors sheltered these released American prisoners, and in a day or two they were removed to the Town Hall which was prepared for them and in this building these men were stricken with fever (46) and died, as well as Stephen Stowe who contracted it while in attendance upon them."

LANCRAFT.

Dodd's Hist. East Haven. pp. 83. The "Stone Church" of East Haven, a wonderful specimen of architecture, was built entirely under the guidance and dictation of George Lancraft, the first. He was born in 1724, a native of Holland and at the time of the building in the prime of life. He was the only skilled workman, employing the men and farmers of the town to assist him, both in gathering the material and in its fashioning into a church, and that he was a perfect master of his business the structure bears witness. There is a tradition that every stone was measured by his rule and placed by his level. It is one of the oldest meeting houses in the state and the oldest stone meeting house standing in all New England. It was commenced in 1772 and completed in 1796 and the whole cost was $12,000.00.

Revolutionary service. D. A. R. Lineage Book, vol. 16, pp. 170. George Lancraft 1st. served in the defence of East Haven in the Tryon Invasion 1779. NOTE: According to record on New Haven Vitals of child born to John R. and Abby Lanfair, in Aug. 1853, when John was 40 yrs.
old and his wife Abby 44, would make his birth date 1813 and hers 1808 or 9. This would make his inscription on tombstone inaccurate.
