JOHANNES KOHLER'S FAMILY

BY

SHELLY L. CAYLOR

DAYTON, OHIO.

1925

This record was compiled by SHELLY L. CAYLOR and was presented by him to the Caylor Family at its Twenty Seventh Annual Reunion, August 23rd., 1925 at McCabe's Park, Dayton, O.

The essential facts and dates given here were secured from or verified by court records and tomb stones. Utmost effort has been made to have everything authentic.

Shelly L. Caylor (usually signed S. L. Caylor) is of the fifth generation of the Caylors of Ohio and is the son of John Caylor (1838-1908), son of Louis Caylor (1812-before 1859) son of Peter Caylor (1779-1859), son of Johannes Kohler (-1822) who settled in Montgomery County, Ohio in the year 1801. Rev. Hamilton Caylor of Columbus, Ohio, third generation, gives this as the date of his coming, though there is no official record of him until 1803.

The writer wishes to take this opportunity to express deepest gratitude to the many persons who most kindly and most generously contributed valuable facts for this record.

Frank Caylor of Noblesville, Ind. loaned the records gathered by him and the late John I Caylor who attended many of our reunions and was much interested in the history of the family. This gave us the account of those sons of Johannes Kohler who, in their youth, went on to Indiana and settled in and near Noblesville.

Often, when discouraged by the tremendous work required and by the great difficulties encountered, we were cheered and encouraged by the interest and enthusiasm of W.H. Caylor (Harve Caylor) now one of the very oldest Caylors living. We feel sure this history would never have been completed had it not been for his great desire to see it worked out. He was never too tired nor too busy to accompany us to cemeteries and court houses far and near in search of a name or a date. Through summer's heat and winter's cold and snow, he was a faithful helper in the search. It was his interest that strengthened and sustained our interest, and now, in the sunset of an earnest and sincere Christian life, may nothing but brightness and happiness be with him unto the end.

Harve's son, Cecil, also contributed materially, both by sympathy and by deed.

And now may those of us who are younger and have many years before us, do honor to the family and to Him who is the Father of us all, by obeying the word found in the Thirty-seventh Psalm in the third, fourth, fifth and sixth verses.

I find it a great task for a person to write the history of any family, especially so when the above named family had its existence here on earth more than one hundred and twenty five years ago. Much easier would have been the work had this been done near the beginning of what is known here at Dayton, Montgomery County, Ohio, as that of the Caylor Reunion which had its first existence in the year of 1899 and has been continuously meeting ever since. Of which the following is the minutes of its first meeting--

"FIRST ANNUAL REUNION of the CAYLOR FAMILY near Dayton, Ohio, at the home of W. Harvey Caylor, June 24, 1899. The Reunion was called to order by S. L. Caylor. Douglas Carbin was elected temporary chairman. J. P. Brown temporary secretary. Motion ~~xx~~ was made to make the organization permanent. Motion carried. The family then proceeded to effect a permanent organization. S. L. Caylor was nominated and elected permanent chairman. H. V. Caylor was nominated and elected permanent secretary. J. P. Brown was nominated and elected permanent treasurer. Chairman appointed for Executive Committee J. P. Brown, Harvey Caylor and Mrs. L. W. Caylor. Motion was made to hold the next Reunion at Lewis Caylor's home on the last Saturday in August 1900. Motion carried. Prof. A. A. Maysilles being present, was requested to make a few remarks to the Caylors which he did to the pleasure and interest of the members of the family and credit to himself. After several other appropriate remarks all were requested to register which they promptly proceeded to do. The result showed seventy two present. A collection was also taken. Five dollars having been collected which was placed in the care of the Treasurer. Request was made by the Chairman to appoint a committee of one to report deaths at the next Reunion. J. P. Brown appointed. The Reunion was then favored with several brilliant declamations by Miss Helen Pierce of Dayton, Ohio, which were highly entertaining. Motion made to extend a vote of thanks to Mr. Harvey Caylor for courtesy extended to the visitors. Motion to adjourn."

You will find a great many surprises as we go along with the history of our work, but kindly retain harsh criticisms because of the fact that most of what is said is written from record and not from memory or common talk. While having the highest regard for the truthfulness of statements made by my blood-kin yet I am obliged to state the record.

No one knows when the original Caylor came to America. By what we do know, we are most certain that his name in English was John Caylor. We find a great many Caylors coming to this Country at different times. As early as 1709. In Rupp's History of Thirty Thousand emigrants, we find on Page 380, Oct. 26, 1767 that the Ship Brittania from Rotterdam, last from ports had on deck three men by the following names. Michael Gohler, Johannes Kohler and Matheus Kohler. I believe the one by the name of Johannes Kohler is the man from most of us here at Dayton, Ohio came. This Johannes Kohler is German in its spelling, but in English it can be John Kayler or John Caylor and Correctly so, There is only one place of record that can be found where this man writes his own name and that is the signature to his own Will. It being written thus-Johannes Kohler. I have not been able to find of record where this Johannes Kohler came from in the east. It is the opinion of most people with whom I have talked that he came from Rockingham County, Virginia, though he could have come from Pennsylvania, Maryland or New Jersey. I wish the following to be printed, though I have never been able to substantiate it by record. It is the prevailing opinion of many who are much older than I, that Johannes Kohler came to America from Leipsig, Germany about the year 1768 or 1770. Emigrated at Frankford, Germany. Came on a sail vessel with two sisters. Landed at Philadelphia where they were sold to pay voyage. Each served four years time. Johannes Kohler served a Mr. Lichty. After serving his four years he married and emigrated to Rockingham County, Virginia. Hence to Dayton, Montgomery County, Ohio.

In 1798 that part of land east of the Indiana boundary line and west of the Great Miami River was made a part of Hamilton County of which the County Seat was Cincinnati. Post Office at Cincinnati. This land was never sold to any large proprietor, but was to be sold directly in small tracts to purchasers. Such lands were called Congress Lands. The survey, which was begun within the territory of Montgomery County in November 1798, was not completed for the territory within the county till December 1801 or shortly thereafter. March 24, 1803 Montgomery County was formed. It at first was much larger than at the present time. Out of it many other counties were formed. Such as Preble, Darke, Miami and other ones. The relation between the people of Montgomery County and the territory and people set off to form these new counties was very close. Even Eaton and New Lexington have their plats recorded in Montgomery Co. Marriages were entered into at an early age, as a rule, males of 18 years and females of 14 years. The original purchasers in Township 1, Range 6, of Harrison Township entered large tracts of land. Robert Patterson and William Lindsay purchased Section 3 to 6 inclusive and 9 and 10 November 4, 1803. George Coons purchased Sections 7 and 8, November 12, 1803. Johannes Kohler or John Caylor purchased Sections 17 and 18, November 19, 1803, which is the first date of record of this John Caylor here at Dayton, Montgomery County, Ohio, These lands lie between Albany St. in Edgemont, (which is one of the industrial centers of Dayton, O.) and the southern limit of Harrison Township. I find that John Caylor on November 10, 1803, bought Section 13 of Jefferson Township this County. The time of entering or purchasing the land from the Government is to be distinguished from the time when patents were received, which was usually five or more years later. The number of acres of land that Johannes Kohler or John Caylor had would be something like thirteen hundred acres.

Deed book 267, Page 361 of the record of Deeds of Montgomery County, Dayton, Ohio, is the following: James Madison, President of the United States of America to all whom these presents shall come; Know ye, that John Kaylor of Montgomery County having deposited in the Treasury a certificate of the Register of the Land Office at Cincinnati whereby it appears that he has made full payment for fractional sections number eighteen and seventeen in township number one, in Range number six, and section number thirteen of Township number three in Range number five of the lands directed to be sold at Cincinnati, by the act of Congress entitled "an act providing for the sale of the lands of the United States, in the territory north west of the Ohio and above the mouth of the Kentucky River" and the acts amendatory of the same, there is granted by the United States, unto the said John Kaylor, the fractions lot or section of land above described; To have and to hold the said fractions lot or section of land, with the appurtenances, unto the said John Kaylor his heirs and assigns forever. In Testimony Whereof I have caused these Letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand at the City of Washington, the third day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ten and of the Independence of the United States of America the Thirty fourth. By the President. Secretary of State (U.S.) (Seal) Recorded in Vol. 8, Page 499, 6-488 Miscellaneous 157566 B. -M.F.H. Department of Interior Grand Land Office, Washington D. C. March 8, 1905. I hereby certify that the annexed copy of patent is a true and literal exemplification from the record in this office. The record of the patent in this case was omitted to be signed, as required by law but Section 2470 Revised Statutes of the United States provides that "Literal exemplification of any records which have been or may be granted shall be deemed of the same validity in all proceedings whether at law or in equity, wherein such exemplifications are adduced in evidence, as if the names of the Officers signing and countersigning the same had been fully inserted in such record". In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the seal of this office to be affixed at the city of Washington, on the day and year above written. (United States General Land Office Seal) Rec'd March 9, 1905 at 4 P. M. Recorded March 18, 1905. C. W. Brush recorder of the General Land Office.

Johannes Kohler signing his name in German and his wife Sarah by ~~mark~~ mark. As I trace the family of this man down through the pages of history I am compelled to insert the following taken from the Albany Times-Union in the year 1921 under the subject, Your 32,500 Grandpas---

"Flowing in your veins is the blood of 65,000 people who were walking the earth when Columbus discovered America in 1492. For instance you have one father and one mother. Each of them had the same, which gives you two grandfathers and two grandmothers. Each of the latter had a father and mother, which gives you four great-grandpas and four great-grandmas. Trace your family tree back through eighteen generations, to about the year 1300, and you have 262,144 grandparents. That is, you're descended from that many. Carry it back 5,000 years and your ancestors would number so many that we couldn't begin to print their names in the issue of the Times-Union you're now reading. Did you ever drive your Ford up to your ancestor's home and have some fellow, so old that no one could raise a question about him, say, "My you're the walking image of your great-grand father." In families that have ancient ancestral portraits, it often happens that a picture hundreds of years old looks like a child of the year 1921. Unquestionably if you had photographs of your ancestors as far back as 1000 years ago, you'd find that they are the exact duplicate of one of them. Are you the reincarnation of that man or woman that looked so much like you far back in the past? A large part of the world's population believes so. Even more wonderful or interesting is to wonder what kind of adventures he had-also the love romance that was responsible for your presence now on earth. What part of your physical make-up, intellect, emotions or character did you inherit from him? What part from his wife? The Mendelian law of heredity, accepted by most scientists, says that all these are inherited from both sides. Another school of scientists believes that your nerves and your skeleton are inherited from your mother's side, and that your father's line of descent furnishes you with your brains, hair, nails, muscles and your outer skin. Material for much argument between ma and pa. Most of us joke tracing family trees, but this would be a kindlier world if we all gave our ancestors more thought. The fact that you are descended from 262,144 people who were living 600 years ago suggests that the brother of man is more fact than imagination or sentiment. Wonder if the people next door are distantly related to you, far back in the mists of time."

Johannes Kohler during his life time was in possession at different times of two women. The first wife was Sarah and his second wife was Salome. Both women appear of record. The following is a part of an article published in the Hutsonville Herald Friday, May 31, 1907. Mr. Jacob Holderman whose mother was Phoebe Caylor Holderman, was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, July 16, 1825 and will be 82 years of age his next birthday. His parents were born in Pennsylvania and his grand parents in Virginia, being of German Descent. The life of his grand-mother on his mother's side, whose name was Kinzie, was as romantic as are some of the characters of Cooper. When she was a girl about six years of age and living in Virginia her father and mother left her and a younger brother and a baby in the house, while they went out a short distance to pull flax. During the parent's absence a party of Indians came to the house after demolishing its contents took the children and started for their camp. The parents and neighbors took the trail and found the baby with its head crushed against a tree. They followed the Indians for sometime but losing the trail were compelled to return home, knowing that their other two children were either captives or had been killed. Ten years passed and some friendly Indians who visited the place told about knowing of a white girl who was with another tribe and the father being hopeful that it was his daughter, offered the peaceful natives a handsome reward if they would secure the girl for home. This they did and a large crowd of citizens were present when the girl was brought into the community, but she immediately knew her father from the others. Nothing was heard of the son and it was supposed he was dead.

Mr. Holderman's mother Pheba Caylor was the first white girl born west of the Miami River in Ohio and his uncle Elias Caylor, the first white boy."

If the article is true, then Kinzie is the last name of one of Johannes Kohler's wives. I am then at a loss to know which one to apply it to. It depends whose child Phoebe Caylor was. These two women of Johannes Kohler have been to me most perplexing. I have spent hours and days in studying the situation as I find it of record. I wish to say that here is one of the most difficult parts of the record. Were I to write what different ones tell me, then it would be comparatively easy but I am unable to find such statements correct in my humble judgment. Therefore it will become necessary for me to give the facts as found of record upon which I pass judgment and those who are interested in this history feel as though I have drawn the correct conclusions from the facts stated, well and good, but to those who think differently let me say you will have an impossible task in explaining the records. There can be no question but that Sarah was Johannes Kohler's first wife. Salome was his second wife. No record here as to when he married either of these women. And I have the marriage record here as early as 1803. No doubt but that the marriage of these two women was performed at some place other than Montgomery County, Ohio. Also he did not marry Salome until after the death of Sarah, I do know that Sarah was living and the wife of Johannes Kohler on Nov. 22, 1814, because it was this day that she and Johannes Kohler, her husband signed a deed to Absalom Westfall for 100 acres of land. Deed Book D, No. 1, Page 323 of the records of this county of Montgomery and State of Ohio. Then it must have been after this date that Johannes Kohler married a woman whose first name was Salome. Again on May 4, 1821, Johannes Kohler makes his will he makes mention of his beloved wife Salome. The last will and Testament of John Caylor, Senior, of the County of Montgomery and State of Ohio:--

In the name of God, Amen, I John Caylor of the County and State aforesaid being weak in body but sound in judgment and memory do ordain this to be my last will and testament in manner and form following:--FIRST; I allow my funeral expenses to be paid and all just debts discharged. Secondly; I leave and bequeath to my beloved wife Salome, the dwelling wherein I now live with all its improvements, rights, and titles to be for her use and benefit for the term of twelve years from this date and she shall raise and school my younger children on the benefits of the same, my older children may have their lodging and home with my wife so long as they lead a right life and are obedient unto her but case of disobedience she may order them to remove, and further at the expiration of said term above, should my wife live so long, she shall then only have one third of my real estate so long as she lives and at her death it shall be divided as shall be hereafter mentioned. She is likewise to have one half of all my personal estate, moveable property etc., to be taken at the appraisement that half she shall judge most useful and the other half shall be sold at public sale. THIRDLY; And whercas my elder children John, Elizabeth, Jacob, Peter, Catharine, Mary, Magalena, Samuel, Daniel, Joseph, David has each of them received from me one hundred dollars which I allow to stand unto them as shares in my estate until my other children, V.Z., Phebe shall receive fifty dollars and Abraham, Eli, Isaac, Henry, Michael each of them shall receive one hundred dollars to be paid unto them out of my estate, the moveable property what is not my wife's share shall be sold and the amount shall be for the use of my younger children as far as it will amount to, receive as they come of age and all money that is lent out must be for the younger children after my wife receive one half and at the expiration of twelve years I do allow my land excepting my wife's third to be sold to the best advantage and after my younger children shall each of them received from my estate both real and personal one hundred dollars each then the remainder shall be equally divided among all my children beginning at the oldest and so on to the youngest that every one from the first to last may have an equal share and at my wife's death her share shall be sold and divided as above mentioned; and I further do appoint my wife Salome, and my son John Caylor the executors of this my last will and testament and like wise Guardians for my younger children, revoking all other wills and testaments made by me. Signed sealed and declared this 4th day of May, One thousand eight hundred and twenty one. Signed (Johannes Kohler.) Signed in German. This is the only place in which I have been able to find that he signed his name in his own hand writing and I have had the pleasure of reading the original will and of which the above is a copy. The original will is found in the Probate's Office in Dayton, Montgomery County, Ohio.

Johannes Kohler or John Caylor in English and the way in which it is spelled in his deed from the Government. I have been and will continue to use the name Johannes Kohler so that one does not become confused with his oldest son by the name of John Caylor. Now if Johannes Kohler had other children he does not name them in his will. The number that he names is seventeen and all were living at the time he made his will. And I am inclined to think that the above named children were born as named for a person in his will generally names his children as to their ages beginning with the oldest first. Johannes Kohler died in the year 1822 and was buried in the old grave yard on his own farm, Jefferson Township, Montgomery County, Ohio.

Sarah his first wife passes from record after Nov. 22, 1814. And on November 21, 1832 Salome Caylor widow of Johannes Kohler for and in consideration of a certain agreement bearing even date herewith made with her by her son-in-law, Jacob Holderman who married Phoebe Caylor by which he agrees to provide a good and sufficient maintenance and support her during her natural life as by the said agreement will more fully appear, hath granted, remised, released and forever quit claimed and by these presents, doth grant, remise, release and forever quit claim unto the said Jacob Holderman his heirs etc. the one third part of which was by his will at the expiration of twelve years from the date thereof, to be held and enjoyed by her during the term of her natural life. Signed Salome Caylor by her mark. She dies in 1833 and is buried in the old grave yard on the original home place of Johannes Kohler in Jefferson Township, Montgomery County, Ohio. (I find in deeds other than the Caylor family and as early as 1851 where Salome was written and known as that of Sarah.)

It will be interesting to many to know how the original farm of Johannes Kohler was disposed of. You will remember by having read the will that the farm was to be held for the term of twelve years by Salome then if she was living she was to have one third of the real estate so long as she lives. The two thirds of his real estate was to be sold and the money divided equally among his children. Also when Salome died her one third was to be sold and the money divided equally among his children. Now let me say that the Caylor family is not different than other families with regards to their real estate. When settlements are made and they feel as though they are not getting what is coming to them, they just take matters to court and that is just what they did in this case. You have seen how Salome disposed of her one third interest in the real estate but the question was with regards to the two thirds interest.

Jacob Holderman married Phebe Caylor who was the daughter of Johannes Kohler and when Salome Caylor (Johannes Kohler's second wife makes a deed to Jacob Holderman for her one third interest in the farm she calls him her son-in-law. There are only two ways in which he could be her son-in-law and one of the ways is that Phoebe Caylor is a daughter of Salome Caylor who as Johannes Kohler's beloved second wife. The other way is that Salome Caylor could have adopted all the minor children of Johannes Kohler when she married him. But no record of any adoption. Therefore one would gather from the deed that Phebe Caylor was a direct child from Johannes Kohler and his second wife, Salome Caylor. But the conflicting part is that Phebe Caylor was born in 1800 and Sarah, Johannes Kohler's first wife signed four deeds in the years 1811 and 1814. Jacob Holderman might have been Salome's step son-in-law. Though she did not call him such.

Now to the Court for the disposition of the original Caylor farm of 243 acres and 50 perches and known as the old home place of Johannes Kohler. In Common Pleas Court Record C in Chancery of the County of Montgomery, Dayton, Ohio, on Page 306 you will find the following suit wherein Jacob Holderman was Petitioner vs John Caylor et al defendants. Be it remembered that heretofore to-wit on the third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three, Jacob Holderman filed in the office of the Clerk of the said Court of Common Pleas, a certain petition in Chancery in the words and figures following to-wit; The case will not be given in full only those parts that will be of interest to us. Jacob Holderman now recites the will of Johannes Kohler deceased, in part or at least that which refers to the disposition of his real estate. The will was made May 4, 1821 and it was approved by the Court and record of same ordered November 23, 1822. Therefore Johannes Kohler must have died between May 4, 1821, and November 1822. I think it was in the year 1822 when he died because of the sale of his personal property just after his death. The said Johannes Kohler left the following children who are entitled to the benefit of the provisions of the will. I might say that all of his seventeen children were living June 3, 1833 with the exception of one. Magadelen is dead.

Those entitled to said benefits are viz; John, Jacob, Peter, Samuel, David, Joseph, Daniel, Abraham, Elias, Isaac, Henry, and Michael Caylor and Mary Westfall, wife of Absolen Westfall, Elizabeth Overholser wife of David Overholser, Catherine Wolf, wife of Peter Wolf, Phebe, wife of your Petitioner and also several grand children, the children and heirs of Magdalen Lesly deceased, daughter of the testator John Caylor and formally the wife of David Lesly viz; Catherine Resor, wife of Henry Resor, Phebe Fogalsong, wife of Christian Fogallsong, Elizabeth Lesly, Joseph Lesly, John Lesly, Christian Lesly and Absolen Lesly, Michael Caylor, one of the children of John Caylor deceased, is a minor, and Jomseph, John, Christian and Absolen Lesly children of Magdalen Lesly deceased, are also minors. Peter Wolf, husband of Catherine Wolf has been absent from his wife and family upwards of six years in parts unknown.

In the Autumn of 1832 your Petitioner agreed with the executors of John Caylor deceased, and with his children and legatees to purchase the whole real estate mentioned and herein after particularly described as well the two thirds directed to be sold at the expiration of twelve years, as the remaining one third part, directed to be sold after the death of Salome Caylor and to be divided among the children of Johannes Kohler deceased, according to the will, at the price of forty two hundred and fifty dollars and on the 17th day of November 1833, Jacob, Peter, John, Samuel, Daniel, David, Joseph, Abraham, Elias, Isaac and Henry Caylor, and David Overholser and Absolen Westfall in pursuance of the said agreement for the purchase of the real estate did by a certain writing convey said land.

Your Petitioner was to pay each $150 on the 1st day of December 1833 and the further sum of $100 each within 6 months from and after the death of Salome Caylor widow of John Caylor, deceased, and this he has done.

The land is situated in Montgomery County, Ohio, in Section No. 13 of Township No. 3, and Range No. 5. Containing 243 acres.

The Court ordered and decree that the Executors should convey the farm to Jacob Holderman. Such was done.

1. JOHN CAYLOR---the oldest child of Johannes Kohler's 17 children, and about whom there has been so much discussion. And the reason of said discussion is the fact that there were two John Caylors that settled in Preble County, Ohio, from the east about the same time.

Christian Holderman, his son Abraham and sons-in-law, Jacob Shewman, and John Kaylor, and their families came out from Botetourt County, Virginia in 1805. Christian Holderman's son John Holderman married Mary Kinsey by whom he had nine children. John Kaylor settled in Section 32, Lanier Township, Preble County, Ohio. This is near a small village by the name of Gratis, Ohio. His wife's name was Susannah Caylor. His last days were spent with his son Christian. This John Kaylor had only two children by the names of Christian Kaylor and Jacob Kaylor.

Now just a word about the other John Kaylor who came to Preble County, Ohio, about the same time as the one above. This John Kaylor is a son of Michael and Elizabeth Kaylor. Was born Feb. 2, 1776. He married Catherine Katy Barbary Hains, a daughter of Peter Hains on Dec. 11, 1800. Owned a farm in Va. sold it, came west in 1815 and landed north of Eaton, Preble County, Ohio. Died September 10, 1856 at the age of 80 years, 7 months and 8 days. His wife Catharine died Mar. 1, 1862 at the age of 79 years, 11 months and 9 days. Both are buried in the Zion Cemetery north of Eaton, Ohio. To them were born three children, John Frederick Kaylor, Benjamin L. Kaylor, and William Kaylor. It is from these three children that the Kaylor's in and around Eaton came from of which I have these all worked out to the fifth generation and can be secured if desired. It has been a great surprise and disappointment to all of us Caylor's here that the records will not connect us to be related to the members of the Caylor family at Eaton, Ohio. For long years John Jacob Kaylor and many others have attended the Caylor Reunion here and have entertained this Reunion a number of times in Eaton, Ohio, all of us thinking that we were all descendants of Johannes Kohler. While we cannot prove by records that we are relatives, yet long associations has made us near and dear friends and we hope that they will continue to attend this Caylor Reunion.

As to the two sons of John Kaylor of Johannes Kohler-- Christian Kaylor was born Dec. 31, 1800 and died August 2, 1869 at the age of 68 years, 7 months and one day. He married Martha M. Hall who was born Aug. 10, 1810 and died March 21, 1866 at the age of 55 years, 7 months and 11 days. Both buried in the north east corner of the old cemetery at Gratis, Ohio. Jacob Kaylor brother of Christian Kaylor was born October 1, 1797 and died April 1, 1860 at the age of 62 years and 6 months. Buried at Gratis, Ohio, and afterwards removed by his grandson, George to Lewisburg, Ohio. He married Harriet Hall, a sister to Christian's wife and also sisters to Chasper Hall's father. This Jacob had only one son whose name was John Caylor who married first a woman whose name was Martha and who died Oct. 10, 1853, at the age of 22 years, 1 month and 22 days. Buried at Gratis, Ohio. John's second wife was Eliza Jennie McGrew who died Dec. 20, 1891 at the age of 55 years, 8 months and 28 days. Buried at Lewisburg, Ohio. John Kaylor's death was due to being struck by a base ball and died July 16, 1867 at the age of 40 years, 5 months, and 7 days. Buried at Lewisburg, Ohio.

2. ELIZABETH CAYLOR, daughter of Johannes Kohler.

Elizabeth Caylor married David Overholser.

I find them of record at the time of disposition of Johannes Kohler's estate and do know that both were living in the year 1833.

They seem to have moved westward but where I have been unable to find out.

4. PETER CAYLOR son of Johannes Kohler.

Peter married Sarah Ritter, May 4th, 1806, and is the first child of Johannes Kohler married here in Montgomery County, Ohio. He was born in 1779 and died May 27, 1859 at the age of 80 years. Buried on the old Caylor home place.

We find where Peter Kayler bought Aug. 11, 1812, from David Lawhead of Greene County, Ohio, which is the next County to the east of here, two hundred acres here in Montgomery County, Ohio, and to the south-west of Dayton, O., at $4 per acre found in Deed Book C, Page. 18. A part of this land 153 acres after his death in 1859 was appraised at $50 per acre and sold at $45 per acre. As the years came on previous to his death he bought additions and sold therefrom. He sold a tract of 60 acres Aug. 5, 1817, to Michael Ritter and signed his name as Peter Kayler. After his death, there was a partition suit brought by three of his sons by the names of Joseph, John and Noah against their mother Sarah. This partition suit is found in Superior Court Record No. 7, Page 613. Peter Kayler had six children and is the one from whom most of us here in Montgomery County come from. The children are as follow:

5. CATHARINE CAYLOR daughter of Jchannes Kohler.

Catharine married a man by the name of Peter Wolf. They had a family of six children. I find in the year of 1833 that Peter Wolf has been absent from his wife and family upwards of six years in parts unknown.

Catharine lived to be an old woman near Frytown, Montgomery County, Ohio. Just a few living yet that remember her kindness.

Remark: Rev. Hamilton Caylor while living was the most interested in the Caylor family and no doubt knew the most about all of us. Many times have I heard him make the plea for a history of the family and had we written it while he was living, how much more easier would have been the task and could have been done more complete. He was born Dec. 28, 1836 and died March, 1923.
