LaMaster Reunion Pamphlet
Columbus, Indiana
August 20, 1961

The compilers feel that this work is quite authentic, but assumes no responsibility for errors in typing or facts submitted by contributors. Corrections welcomed.

This is divided into two parts. Part I is the genealogy of Richard Rankin Lemaster; Part II, III, and IV is Abraham Lemaster. On page 2 the Gladden line is the same for Jane C. Gladden, Mary F. Gladden and Ruth A. Gladden as they were sisters. Ruth A. and Mary F. Gladden married brothers, Richard S. and John A. LaMaster. Their sister, Jane C. Gladden, married Richard R. LaMaster, who was a first cousin of Richard S. and John A. LaMaster. This makes a very close relationship between the Gladdens and LaMasters; 31 - 44 are first cousins to 121 - 159 through the Gladdens and second cousins through the LaMasters.

It has taken Margaret Herberger and Ruth Crim seven years to gather the information for this pamphlet. Ruth Leamasters Taylor contributed much of the data that she has gathered since 1936. The John A., Richard S., and Salina LaMaster data was contributed by Gladys Wessendorf, Speed, Indiana, who is a granddaughter of John A. LaMaster.

If your family is not in this record or not complete, it is because you did not turn in your data; as this is a condensed form of the large book that has been at the reunion the past several years. If you can add to your data, send the information to Margaret Herberger, C.M.R. #158, Peoria, Illinois. (corrections welcomed) Anyone adding to the Abraham LaMaster family send data to Gladys Wessendorf, Speed, Indiana.

In 1961, Howard Lemaster, 412 College Avenue, Carlinville, Illinois, published a 117 page book "Lemaster Family U.S.A. 1960". This contains many lines of Lemasters all over the U.S., including ours. Anyone interested in a copy, may order it from Howard for $5.00.

THE COUNTY'S OLDEST CITIZEN
Is Called to his Final Reward After a Well Spent Life
HE WAS EIGHTY-EIGHT

Ricahrd R. Lamaster, probably the oldest citizen in the county, at least the oldest native-born citizen, passed away on Saturday, Sept. 3, in his eighty-eighth year.

He died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Belle Boyd, at Mineral Springs, Bartholomew County, where he had been for several months. He was born in Lexington Township, where he has practically lived all his life, his parents emigrating to Indiana from Kentucky while the country was an unbroken wilderness. He was a democrat of the Andrew Jackson sort, and in religious belief was a Baptist, holding his membership at Kimberlin Church.

Since becoming aged, he has retired most of the time with his son, John W. Lamaster, in Scottsburg.

His remains were brought to Scottsburg Monday morning, and taken to Kimberlin for interment and the funeral discourse was preached by his old friend and pastor, Rev. Charles H. Bartle.

(These names are not in order, but I don't know which really belongs to Salina.. which, if any to Sarah I. Borden, but I do know Adeline and Mary belong to Mary Harmon Robbins.) (I am sure there were 15 children belonging to Jackson Robbins.)

"Andrew Jackson Robbins was born in Scott Co., Ind. His early life was spent on a farm and in a little village where he learned the trade of blacksmith. He felt the call to preach and served Scaffold Lick, White River, Elizabeth, Zion, Hebron, New Bethel, Kimberlin Creek, Vienna, and Tea Creek, which he organized in 1872 and was its pastor for several years. Brother Robbins was a fine singer, and led his congregation in music. A fluent talker and very successful.

He enlisted in the Union Army and fought for the preservation of the Union that all might have the blessings of liberty. Brother Robbins was married three times and had fifteen children, four of them still living."

"From History of the Coffee Creek Baptist Association."
By J.C. Tibbets to 1882.
