THE LINES FAMILY

BY DONALD LINES JACOBUS OF
NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT

NOTE

I have endeavored to give below a fairly complete genealogy of the Lines Family of New Haven through the first five generations, and on a few lines of descent to the present day, hoping that these notes may be made the foundation of a more complete genealogy of the family. I shall be glad to receive any additions or corrections. I take this opportunity to express my indebtedness to all who have aided me in my researches, but more particularly to Mrs. Betsey Morgan of Woodbridge, Conn.; Mr. Calvin C. Lines of Peoria, Ill., and Mr. H. Wales Lines of Meriden, Conn.

Henry and Ralph Lines, usually supposed to be brothers, settled in New Haven about 1642. Henry states in the birth-record of his son, Samuel, that he is "second sonne of John Line (as he saith) of Badby two miles from Dantry [Daventry] in Northamptonshire." I have obtained the will of a John Lyne of Badby, who died in 1620. This John was probably father of John and grandfather of Henry, the emigrant. Further search might prove the connection of Henry and Ralph with this John Lyne.

1. John Lyne of Badby, Northamptonshire, England, was left the estate of his mother, Elizabeth Lyne in 1600. He married Agnes. In his will he names his sons John and Henry, daughter Elizabeth, and son Joseph. "I give unto my wife Agnis X pound of currant monye." The will was proved February 27, 1620.

Children:

2. i. John.
- ii. Henry, executor of his father's will in 1620. He was, therefore, born before 1600, and was too old to be Henry of New Haven.

iii. Elizabeth.

iv. Joseph.

2. John Lyne, Jr., was probably the man called father by Henry Lines. He had, then, for his second son:

3. i. Henry¹, settled in New Haven.

3. Henry¹ Lines (John) settled in New Haven, Conn., and died January 13-14, 1663. "An inventory of the estate of Henry Lines late of Newhaven deceased taken & appraised May 30, 1663." Elizabeth Lines, doubtless his widow, married, second, November 6, 1663, Thomas Lampson; married, third, March 29, 1666, Mr. John Morris.

Children:

- i. John², b. Aug. 7, 1656, d. Dec. 14, 1656.
- ii. Joanna, b. Oct. 20, bapt. 24, 1658.
- iii. Samuel, b. Jan. 16, bapt. Mar. 24, d. Apr., 1660.
- iv. Hopestill, b. Nov. 6, bapt. 9, 1661.

4. Ralph¹ Lines, Sr., probably brother of Henry, lived in that part of New Haven later designated the parish of Amity, and now the town of Woodbridge. He died September 7, 1689, and his estate showed an inventory of over £242. In his will, dated December 4, 1687, he mentions sons Samuel, Ralph, Joseph and Benjamin, wife "Alis," and daughter Hannah. A codicil, dated February 1, 1689, says that as his life has been prolonged, and his daughter Hannah since died, he leaves her portion to his wife, Alice. An additional codicil, made during his last sickness, states as his son Benjamin has since died, but his widow being with child, to that child, if it lives, he bequeaths its father's portion. He also speaks of his deceased daughter Merriman. The will was proved November 13, 1689 (New Haven Probate, Vol. II, p. 17).

Children:

5. i. Samuel², b. Apr., 1649.
6. ii. Ralph, b. July 18, 1652.
- iii. John, b. Nov., 1655, probably died young.
7. iv. Joseph, b. Jan., 1658.
8. v. Benjamin, b. Dec., 1659.

5. Samuel² Lines (Ralph¹) married, November, 1674, Mary, daughter of John and Ellen (Harrison) Thompson, who was born April 24, 1652. Samuel's inventory, taken June 8, 1692, shows estate of £400 (New Haven Probate, Vol. II, p. 115). His widow re-married, second, John Hitchcock of Wallingford; and third, Samuel Clark. In Wallingford land-deeds, her sons, John and Daniel Lines, call John Hitchcock their father-in-law [step-father], and John Hitchcock had a second wife, Mary (see "Hitchcock Genealogy"). Samuel Lines was baptized, when an adult, August 28, 1687, and his children, John, Samuel, Mary, Ebenezer and Daniel Lines were baptized September 25, 1687.

He was baptized May 27, 1694, with his children, Hannah, Joseph, Phebe and Benjamin. In his will of January 9, 1712, proved February 5, 1712, Ralph names his wife, Abia, sons Joseph, and Benjamin, and several daughters, including Hannah and Phebe. His estate was inventoried at over £364. "Abia Lines of New Haven, widdow, is allowed guardian to Benjamin, Abia, and Rebeckah Lines and appointed guardian to Alis Lines, being four minor children of Ralph Lines, late of New Haven, dec'd." (New Haven Probate, Vol. III, pp. 347-8, 356; Vol. IV, pp. 26, 106). "Abiah and Joseph Lines, Adm^{rs} of the estate of Ralph Lines produced in court an amo^t charged upon Nathan Clark in way of portion in right of his wife Phebe."
