PREFACE.

In searching for materials for a genealogy of the Bergen family, much matter was gathered for preservation and future use, relating to the other early settlers of Kings county. In some cases old family records of births, deaths, and marriages, were found to be confined to a single copy contained in an old Dortrecht Bible, which, if lost or destroyed, would have obliterated the dates of the births, etc., of a generation. At the request of members of the Lefferts family, and with their aid; especially with that of Mrs. Gertrude L. Vanderbilt (dau. of John Lefferts deceased); John Lefferts, attorney of Philadelphia;¹ and J. Carson Brevoort; and also of the Rev. Garret C. Schenck of Marlborough, N. J., and Henry Onderdonk, Jr., of Jamaica; additional information has been obtained, with which and from what has been gleaned from other writings, this genealogy has been compiled, which makes no pretensions of perfection, but only presents what has been within the reach of the author and easily attainable ; leaving out many branches which have been lost sight of by those who have remained in the locality selected by their paternal ancestor for his abiding place, in the then wilds of New Netherlands.

Within the recollections of the author, there were three large farms in Bedford, one in Flatbush and two in New Utrecht occupied and cultivated by Lefferts, who were among the wealthy, respected and successful cultivators in Kings county : at present there is but one held by an individual of the name, that of Mr. John Lefferts of Flatbush, a worthy successor of his ancestors, occupying premises held by the family for at least five generations. The males of the family in this vicinity, (although not so in other localities), appear to be decreasing, while those of most of the other European pioneers of this locality continue to multiply and increase, so that there is a probability that the day is not far distant when the family name of Lefferts will disappear from our midst, and will have to be sought for elsewhere in this country. There is another family among us, that of the Martenses, once numerous, whose males have dwindled down to a single household. This disappearing from our midst may in a measure be owing to the spirit of improvement resulting from our proximity to a vast and rapidly growing city ; which levels hills, fills up valleys, sweeps away forests, swallows farms, and forces the descendants of the founders of this portion of New Netherlands who desire to continue and enjoy that independence and contentment which the cultivators of the soil possess in a greater measure than those in the other pursuits of life, to abandon the homes of their fathers and seek other more favorable localities removed from the turmoil of cities, where they can peaceably and quietly continue the occupation of cultivators without fear of disturbance.

GENEALOGY

LEFFERTS FAMILY.

FIRST GENERATION.

I. LEFFERT PIETERSEN van Haughwout, Hauwert, Houwaard, Houvert or Havert, or Leffert son of Peter from Haughwout, emigrated in 1660 from Haughwout or Haughwert, a village one and a half hours north of Hoorn in the province of North Holland, containing a congregation of 200 of the Reformed religion of whom forty were church members, attached to the classis of Hoorn. Their church edifice is a small building with a square tower and octogon spire.¹ He settled in Midwout (Flatbush), on Long Island where he was assessed in 1675,² one poll, two horses, four cows and calves, and seventeen morgens of land ; and in 1676, ¹ one poll, two horses, six cows and calves, and seventeen morgens of land. From the records it also appears that in 1674 he loaned 190 guilders to Bartelt Claessen, one of his neighbors, and that in 1683 ² he was assessed one poll, one horse, two oxen, nineteen cows and calves, and 54 acres of land.

¹ It was customary for the early settlers in this country to name their new homes after those they left in the fatherland. Thus Brooklyn was named after "Breukelin" in Utrecht, New Utrecht after the ancient city of Utrecht in the same province, Amersfoort (now Flatlands) after "Amersfoort" a city on Eem in the same province, and Gravesend after "'s Gravezande" in South Holland. "Midwoud and Oostwoud," the original names of Flatbush and New Lotts were no doubt named after villages of those names in North Holland. Leffert Peterse coming from the village of "Hauwert" on the "Kromme Leek" in the immediate vicinity of "Midwoud and Oostwoud," may have had some hand in perpetuating these names among us. Probably others of the early settlers of Flatbush came from "Midwoud."

Leffert Pieterse's name appears on the patent for the part of Flatbush known as New Lotts, of Gov. Andross of the 28th of March, 1677, of which the following is an abstract :
“Whereas there is a certain parcel of land lying in the “limits of the town of Flatbush,” etc., “the which through “the power of my warrant has been laid out for several “inhabitants in that place (Flatbush), to wit : for Adriaen “Lambertse, Floor Willemse, Minne Johannis and his son
“Albert, Hendrick Strycker, Jan Snedecker, Dirk de Snyder
“(Tailor), Pieter Lott, Gerrit Lubbertse, Jan Roelosse “Suebring, Theodorus Polhemius, Willem Jacobse and “his son Hendrick, Jan Strycker, and his son Gerrit, Jacob “Cornelis Bogart, Rem Remse, the schoolmaster of the “town at the above date, Pieter Guiljamse, Willem Guil-“jamse, Simon Hanse (Van Noortstrand), Cornelis de “Seen, Catharine Hegeman, Aucke Janse (Van Nuyse), “Arian Ryerse, Gerrit Snedecker, Titus Sierx, Dirk Janse, “Aert Janse, Leffert Pieterse, Jan Jansen, Stoffel Probasco, “and Cornelis Berryen ; the arable land lies to the East of “the aforesaid Flatbush, to the South of the hills, and to “the West of the limits of Jamaica, stretching along the “road or highway which goes to Jamaica, $724\frac{3}{4}$ rods, from “thence in a South line in the woods 315 rods, containing “in all 1426 acres and 136 rods, as by the report of the “Surveyor can be seen. Be it known, all and every one,

“that through power by his Majestie’s letters and patents,
“and the commission and the authority to me given through “his Royal Highness, I have given, etc., to the said “Adriaen Lambertse said premises, etc., they yielding and “paying therefor yearly and every year for his Royal “Highness’s use as a pure rent one bushel of good winter “wheat in New York for each lot,” etc. (Original on file in town clerk’s office of Flatbush.)

At the Court of Sessions held in Gravesend on the 21st of Jan., 1682, the inhabitants of Bushwick and Brooklyn made a complaint against “Leffard Peterse” and “Jan Janse ditmas” for cutting wood and timber on their lands, on which the court ordered that Capt. “Richard Stilwell and Capt. Jaques Cortellan doe make division of this land by running a line between them, and to make their Report to the next Sessions, the said line to be run according to their Pattennt.”

This was probably the land referred to in the following survey and deeds, at which period controversies in relation to town boundaries were not uncommon.

From the following translation of a surveyor’s certificate in Dutch, the original of which is in possession of Christopher Lott, late of New Lotts, but without date, it is evident that Leffert Pieterse owned lands in New Lotts: “for Leffert Pieterse measured a parcel of land laying on Long Island in the new lots of ‘Vlackebosch’ (Flatbush), designated No. 41, broad 21 rods, extending in length south and north as shown by a Holland roos compass; as it lays, in size about thirty acres.

JA: CORTELJAU, sworn surveyor.”

Aug. 24, 1685, Leffert Pieterse conveyed the above premises to Adriaen Andriese Onderdonk, in which they are described as lying on the west side of land of Aris Janse Vanderbilt, on the east side of land of Stoffel Probasko, and that Peterse obtained the same by a patent from Gov. Edmond Andross. On the same day Onderdonk conveyed these premises to Stoffel Probasko.

Feb. 26, 1698, Jan Jansen Fyn conveyed to Stoffel Probasko 30 acres patented by Gov. Andross to said Fyn, known as No. 42, adjoining the land of said Probasko, and lying on the west side of Leffert Pieterse's, plot. The deeds for these premises are in the possession of Christopher Lott, not recorded, and the lands covered by them, with other premises, probably constituted the late Christopher Lott farm of New Lotts, said Christopher being a descendant of said Stoffel or Christopher Probasko. From the references to patents from Gov. Andross, it may be inferred that patents were issued to individuals for all the New Lott farms.

From Dominie Van Zuuren's list it is probable that Leffert, and his wife were members of the P. R. Dutch ch. of the village of Flatbush as early as 1677, of which he was chosen deacon in 1680 in place of Deacon Gerardus Beëckman, and was succeeded in Nov. 1682 by Reinier Arentsz.

His name appears among the patentees of Flatbush on Dongon's patent of Nov. 12, 1685.

Feb. 29, 1687-8, Leffert Pieterse bought of Anna Van Borsom, wid. of Egbert Van Borsom of New York, a piece of land and meadows in Flatbush "benort (north) of Cornelis Janse Bogaert, the hypothenise west something southerly, broath (broad) affter to y^e east side ffifty rodds, y^e west side along y^e Path eighty ffour rrods, Length along y^e hills two hundred seventy-eight rodds, along Cornelis Janse Bogaert three hundred rodds, great twenty-nine morgen; one pice in y^e ffirst middow, seigned No. 16, broath (broad) seaven rodds, greath two morgen; on p^s in the last seigned No. 7, broath (broad) twalve rodds, greatly (great) three morgen, streching southerly ffrom the woods to the sea; one pice (piece) ffatland No. 11, broath (broad) fifteen rodds, greath (great) two morgen three hundred rodds." (See lib. 1, p. 37, of con., in off. reg. Kings co.)

The above 29 morgens or 58 acres, has the appearance of being the northerly portion of the farm in Flatbush between the main road in the village and the road leading from Bedford to the Alms House held by Peter Lefferts son of Leffert Pieterse and his descendants down to the present John Lefferts, of Flatbush, who lately disposed of the same.

The following, copied from the road records in the old court book in the county clerk's office, is additional evidence of the correctness of the above view, viz: "one common highway to Gowanus mill, to begin from the north east corner of Leffert Pieterse's fence, and soe along the road westerly."

In 1687, after the final possession of the colony by the British, he took the oath of allegiance, from which it appears that he had been 27 years in the country.

Jan. 1, 1688-9, his name appears on the list of grand jurors in attendance at the Court of Sessions, and April 2, 1689, as serving on the petit jury in the same court.

On the census of 1698, he is entered, 1 man, 1 woman, 9 children and 3 slaves.

May 14th, 1700, for £15 Leffert Pieterse bought of Thomas Lamberse¹, of Bedford, land in Bedford. "Being

¹ By the records of Reformed Dutch church of New York, Thomas Lamberse in Nov. 27, 1654, m. Jannetje Jans wid. and had a dau. Lysbeth bap. April 26, 1656, and a son Lambert, bap. May 26, 1658. In 1664, on the summons by the English in their piratical raid on New Amsterdam, to surrender the city, Thomas Lamberse's name appears among ninety-four others of the residents on a petition to the director general and council in favor of surrendering to their invaders to save the effusion of blood and destruction of property, resistance being unavailable. In 1672, he was constable of Brooklyn, and May 10, 1674, on the reconquest of the colony by the Dutch the governor in consequence of his being greatly annoyed by some inhabitants of Brooklyn, on at the South side of the land formerly belonging to John Lourensen now to the heirs of Jacob Joorissen, and on the West side of the Cartway or highway, containing by estimation 3 acres or thereabouts, as also one other Parcel or lot of land lying on the South part of Bedford aforesaid and on the North side of the aforesaid land and on the West side of the Cartway, containing in length twenty-four rods, and in breadth on the East and West side sixteen rod, as per patent from Gov. Nicolls, to said Thomas Lamberse bearing date the Eighteenth day of February, 1666, may more at length appear." (See vol. II, p. 213 of con. in off. of reg. of Kings co.)

On the division of the estate of Leffert Pietersen, these premises came into the hands of Jacobus Leffertse his son, and were the foundation for the large tracts held by his descendants in that locality.

In 1692 Leffert Pietersen was constable of Flatbush; in account of some arrears of county rates under the late English government, ordered the magistrates of Brooklyn to see that Lamberse was not molested on account of such claims until further orders. After the final surrender to the English, on the 25th of Feb., 1678, a warrant was issued to the constable of Flatbush to levy by execution on the goods and chattels of said Thomas Lamberse, former collector of Brooklyn, the sum of 150 gl. collected by him for the late Rev. Polhemius, and which remained unpaid. In addition to his patent for 3 acres etc., he obtained on the same date, Feb. 18, 1666, a patent for about 40 acres in the same locality, and also May 14, 1670, he together with Michil Hainelle, John Lewis and Peter Parmentier, purchased of Peter, Elmobar, Job, Mukaquiquas, and Sbamose, Indians, late of Staten Island, who claimed the same, the lands about Bedford, for which they paid:— 100 guilders seawant; one-half ton of strong beer; two half tons of good beer; three guns, long barrels with each a pound of powder and lead proportionable, two bars to a gun; and four match coats.

There is some ground to suppose that Bennetie the wife of Hendrick Suydam of Bedford, was a dau. of Thomas Lamberse, and that this is the source from which the name of Lambert in the Suydam family is derived, the first of that name being a son of said Hendrick.

1703 one of the assessors of the town, and in the same year served on the grand jury of the county.

In 1702, William Dockwra, chief secretary of the proprietors of East New Jersey, conveyed to Gerardus Beeckman and "Lafford Peterson" jointly for £396, a tract of 1800 acres on the south side of the Raritan river, which ran two miles up the river, and was bounded north by Raritan river, west by Covert's and Brokaw's, and south-easterly by other lands of Dockwra.¹

May 20, 1703, for a consideration of £20, Leffert Pieterse, assigned a mortgage to Cornelis Vanderhove of Bedford. (See lib. I, p. 272, of con. K. co. reg. off.)

May 24, 1703, Gerardus Beeckman, Leffert Peterse, and Evert Van Wyckelyn, of Kings co., for £200, bought of Thomas Cardell of Jamaica, Queens co., a tract of 450 acres, on the Raritan river in Middlesex co., N. J. (see lib. I, p. 425 of deeds in off. of sec. of state, N. J.).

In consequence of many persons having no family or surname, it was customary among the Netherlands and other northern European nations for a man to add to his Christian or baptized name, that of his father to distinguish him from others, which when continued from generation to generation made it very difficult to trace families. Thus if Jan had a son Jacob he would be called Jacob Janse; if Jacob Janse had a son Pieter, he would write his name Pieter Jacobse; if Pieter Jacobse had a son Leffert, he would write his name Leffert Pieterse; and if Leffert Pieterse had a son Auke, he would be known as Auke Leffertse. This practice continued among the descendants of the Netherlands in this country until the beginning of the 18th century when it was discontinued, and the surname which then happened to be in use was generally retained. Some families added in addition to the name of the father, that of their place of residence, retaining the latter as their surname. When the custom of discontinuing the addition of the name of the father took place, it appears to have been a question among the descendants of Leffert Pietersen whether they should use Hagewoutt, the name of the village or locality from which their father emigrated as their surname, or Leffert, his christian name. This may be inferred from the entries on the roll of the Flatbush militia of 1715, in vol. III, page 183 of the Documentary History of New York, on which three of the sons of Leffert Pietersen are entered as follows: "Pieter hagewoutt," "Jacob Hagewoutt," and "Isaac hagewoutt." Hagewoutt however appears to have been discontinued by the family, and the surname of Lefferts adopted and continued.

Dr. Stiles, in his Brooklyn states, that "Leffert, Laffert, Lefford, signifies loaf or bread giver, which is also the root of the English word Lord."

There was a "Pieter Pieterse Haeghwolt" or Hagewout on Staten Island in 1678, probably a brother of Leffert Pieterse, who with Neeltje his wife were living as late as 1717, and whose descendants under the surname of Hagewout yet reside on the north side of said island.

There was also a Leffert Stephanse Haughwout among the early settlers at Hempstead, who may have been a relative of Leffert Pietersen, some of whose descendants continue to reside in Queens co., bearing the surname of Lefferts.

On the pages of the New York Directories are many Lefferts's who have not been attached to the parent stock or located, some of whom are probably the descendants of Leffert Pieterse, and others of the Hempstead family.

In a work entitled "Armorial Général par J. B. Rietstap, Gouda, 1861," a copy of which is in the Astor Library in the city of New York, there is a coat of arms of the "Laffert" family (Barons), Hanover, Mecklenburg and Hungary, consisting of a shield "party per pale—dexter banded of four pieces argent and sable, each band sable charged with a star argent.

: Sinister azure charged with a deer's head argent, branched of gules.

Casque crowned. Crest—deer's head (proper).

Lambrequin—argent and azure.

Supporters—two deer argent—branched of gules.

Beyond a similarity of names no evidence has been seen of Leffert Pieterse's connection with this Baronial family, which appears to belong to Germany and not to the Netherlands. Even if a connection existed, which in the remote past is possible, in consequence of intercourse with relatives in the fatherland having for so long a period ceased, it would be very difficult, if not impossible, to prove it. A copy of this coat of arms is herein inserted.

Leffert Pieterse married Abigail dau. of Auke Janse Van Nuyse,¹ commonly known as Auke Janse, born about ¹ Auke Janse Van Nuyse emigrated to this country from Amsterdam in 1651, carried on the business of builder or carpenter, resided at first in New Amsterdam where he owned a house and lot on Broadway which he sold in 1653. In 1661 he resided at Brooklyn ferry and in 1665 in Flatbush, where he built the first church which he commenced in 1654 and completed in 1660. He m. 1st, Magdalena Pieterse from Langdendyck; m. 2d, Jan. 2, 1676, Elizabeth Janse wid. of Jan Clasen; m. 3d, Geertie Gysbrechts wid. of Jan. Jacobse. April 15, 1661, he bought and obtained a patent for fifty-nine morgen (118 A.) in Flatbush on which he settled. From 1659 to 1661, he was town clerk of Flatbush; in 1664, sheriff of Kings co., or of the Dutch towns; and auctioneer of the county from 1670 to 1672. His children were: Joseph, m. Cornbury for a grant for a ferry located between the old ferry (now Fulton), and Red Hook, which in consequence of the remonstrance of the authorities of the city of New York was refused. He removed to the vicinity of Middletown, Monmouth co., N. J., and in 1709, his name ("Ouke Leffertsen") appears on the list of members of the Reformed Dutch ch. of Freehold on its organization with that of Catrina Vonk his wife. In 1721, "Ouke Hagewout" was chosen deacon, and in 1726, elder of said church. Rev. T. W. Wells in his Brick Ch. memorial makes "Ouke Hagewout" a deacon in 1719, elder in 1728, and "Ouke Leffertsen" elder of said ch. in 1735. His name and that of his wife, Maria Ten Nyck appear on the list of members of the Middletown R. D. ch. in 1731. April 6, 1737, the name of Catrina Vonk, wife of "Aukke Leffertse," appears on the list of the members of the last named church. He was one of the purchasers of a tract of 15000 acres near Tinton Falls.

In 1737 Pieter Lefferts was appointed county treasurer by the Board of Supervisors, at a salary of 30*sh.* per annum, which office he held until 1772, the salary before the expiration of his service having been increased by an act of the Colonial Assembly. At this period Adrian Hegeman of Flatbush, was clerk of the Board of Supervisors at a salary of £1 5*sh.* per annum.

Oct. 8, 1733, the following advertisement appeared in the New York Gazette: — “Stole at Flatbush on Long Island. One Silver Tankerd, a piece of Money in the Led of King Charles II, and the Led all engraved, a Coat of Arms before (in it Man on a Waggon with two Horses) mark'd on the Handle L P A. One Silver Tankerd plain, with a piece of Money in the Led, mark'd on the Handle A P or A L. One Cup with two twisted ears chas'd with Skutchens mark'd L P A. One Tumbler mark'd L P A. One Dutch Beker weighs about 28 ounces; Engraved all round, mark'd L P A. All the above was made by Mr. Jacob Boele, Stamp'd I B. One large Cup with two cast Ears, with Heads upon them, and a Coat of Arms Engrav'd thereon. One Cup with two Ears, a small Hole in the Bottom. One Pair red Leather Women Gloves. One black Girdle lined with blue Callico. And two Pair Shoe Clasps new cleaned. Whoever can inform Peter Lefferts of Flatbush on Long Island, or Abraham Lefferts in New York, so that it may be had again, shall have Fifteen Pounds Reward and no Questions asked."

 "There is a suspicion of Two young Men taken to be Irish, that have been seen lately near the aforesaid Place, of a middle Stature, brown Hair, the one had a blue Homespun Coat, and a Pair of Wash-leather Breeches; the other a coarse grey Coat and Linnen Trousers."

Oct. 1740. "Peter Leffertse," commenced an action for breach of contract against Adrian Cornel, claiming £40 damages.¹

In 1751, Peter Lefferts was an elder in the Reformed Dutch church of Flatbush, and in 1752, represented said church in the ninth Coetus: he also represented said church in the twelfth Coetus of 1754, and in 1768, was an elder: in 1788, as an elder he was selected as Secundi to the General Synod.

On the census of slaves in 1755, Peter Lefferts of Flatbush is entered as owner of negro slaves named Ben, Dyne and Isabel.

Aug. 24, 1767, Peter Leffertze, of Flatbush for the consideration of £1400, conveyed to his son John Leffertse the dwelling house and land in Flatbush, beginning at the N. W. corner of land of Evert Hegeman, thence N^{ly} to E^{ly} along the road which leads from Flatbush to Bedford till a division line between heirs of Michael Van Der Veer and said Peter Leffertse, thence N^{ly} along said division line to the bounds of Brooklyn, thence E^{ly} along the bounds of Brooklyn, to a wood lot of said Evert Hegeman, thence S^{ly} along the division of said wood lot and land of said Peter Leffertse to the southermost end of said lot to land of said Evert Hegeman, thence W^{ly} along the division between the land of said Evert Hegeman and said Peter Leffertse to beginning. Also wood lot N^{os} 28, 29, and 31 in the third division of Flatbush wood lots. Also one and one-half lot of meadows in the Flatbush meadows. Likewise one half part of all the right of said Peter Leffertse in the Common Brewhouse ¹ with the half of all the utensils thereunto belonging. (See lib. F or N^o 6 p. 337, off. reg. c^o. of K¹).

On the same date he conveyed to his son John all his stock and farming utensils, to take effect on the day of his death. The above premises appear to be the northerly portion of the homestead farm of John son of said Peter Lefferts.

¹ Strong in his history of Flatbush, says, "the public brewery was divided into 14 shares, which were subdivided into halves and perchance quarters," that it was in existence as early as the commencement of the 18th century if not earlier, and that it was located in the southern part of the village, a little north of the dwelling house of the late Jacob Duryee and on the same side of the road.

Aug. 24th, 1767, Pieter Lefferts, in consideration of natural love and affection, in writing, granted to his son Jan all his "Horses, waggons, Plows, and all other my Farmers Tools and Utensils," to have and to hold forever, with a proviso "that Nothing shall pass by this Gift or Grant Until the day of the decease of me the said Peter Lefferts."

The following is an abstract from the New York Mercury, of Aug. 14, 1769, showing the remarkable longevity of the Lefferts family at this period :

"There is now living at Flatbush a Mr. Lefferts, aged 92 years, and his wife aged 81. They have been married upwards of 60 years, and are hearty and well. They are very good, virtuous and pious people, and so are all the persons thereabouts reported to be, who mostly originated from the Low Dutch who first settled there.

Three years ago Mr. Lefferts had five brothers, whose united ages were 436 years. Now there remain — himself 92 ; his next brother 90, and the third 86 years of age — attractive, hearty and well.

One of his brothers, at the age of 100, took a wife, and lived six years after in perfect health till the day of his death. His mother died at the age of 95.

The wife of the aforesaid Lefferts said her maiden name was Lefferts, and that she had six sisters now living who do their daily work, aged 79, 75, 73, 68, 64 and 63 years, respectively. Their parents lived beyond the age of 80 before they died."

This Mr. Lefferts must have been Peter a son of Leffert Pieterse, at this date in his 90th year, who had 5 brothers who lived to arrive at the age of maturity. The specified ages of the members of the family appear to be somewhat exaggerated, and as unreliable as many of the sensational items of modern newspaper reporters ; no member of the family having been found who married at the age of 100 and died at the ripe age of 106.

In 1770, in consequence of inability produced by old age, Peter Lefferts placed the management of his property in the hands of his son Jan as will appear by the following agreement :

Articles of agreement between Peter Lefferts and his son Jan Lefferts, made Dec. 1, 1770, as follows:

I Peter Lefferts in consequence of my great age and unfitness to continue the management of my plantation, have seen fit no longer to meddle with the same and to give the control thereof to my son Jan to cultivate for his benefit, and I also give him all the right I yet have in the cattle on the said plantation, in the grain already gathered, and in the grain in the fields, on the condition and consideration that my son Jan pay for the same the sum of three pounds which I have now received, and my son Jan promises to pay for the same the additional sum of £4 10*sh.* every three months in each year, commencing on this date, amounting to £18 annually, during my life. And further promises my son Jan that he during this agreement myself and his mother will furnish with firewood, flour, milk, butter, eggs, fowls, and whatever else is cultivated on the plantation, in such reasonable quantities as may be necessary for us to use: also promises my son Jan that whenever any of our friends or acquaintances come to visit us, that he will furnish them with victuals and drink, as has heretofore been customary in the family: also that I and his mother shall have free liberty in the garden, orchard and plantation to gather and to be allowed to gather and enjoy; and also as much flax as we may desire to have spun for our use; and farther promises my son Jan that he my old negro Ben and negro wench Isabel will keep during this agreement or during my life ; and further is my son Jan held to allow me the use of horse and chaise and the help of his servants by night and by day, as we may have needful ; and further promises and agrees my son Jan to furnish us with candles to burn, and whenever we desire to cook for us, we having the right to eat at his table of whatever food may be thereon.

In witness whereof we have subscribed this.

PIETER LEFFERTS.

JOHN LEFFERTS.

Pieter Lefferts was at this date 90 years old, and lived 4 years after the date of the agreement, on the back of which are the regular entries of the payments called for, the last being dated March 1, 1774.

On the farm of Pieter Lefferts were erected (as per Strong's Flatbush), at an early period two brick kilns, one on the back of the farm, and another near the large pond, not far from the main road, which pond from this circumstance has obtained the name of Steenbakkerij. An attempt was lately made to drain this pond by means of a large well or pit penetrating through the clay to the underlying sand, in which the water was led to drain off, but failed.

Pieter Lefferts's will is da. Aug. 1, 1755 ; pro. July 25, 1774, on which date letters testamentary were granted to Jacob Leffertse and Jan Leffertse, the surviving executors, by Carey Ludlow Surrogate of the city and county of New York, said will being on file in said Surrogate's office and not recorded. In it he devises to his wife "Eitie" room in his dwelling house, furniture, food, etc., for her maintenance; to his eldest son Leffert for his birthright £10 —, also £100 due by him, and his negro wench Beth now in his possession. To his son Jacob, £100, due by him, one lot of meadow, one-half of his right in the common brew house, and his negro boy Tom. To his son Jan his great Bible and weaver's loom and tools, his negro Henry, two of his best horses, one-half of his right in the brew house, and £100, of the money due by his son Leffert, and all his houses, lands, and meadows not previously disposed of, on condition of his paying for the same to his executors £1400, in four equal annual payments, and maintaining his mother. To his grandson Barent (Janse, s. of his dau. Seytie) £50; to his daughter Adriaentje his negro wench Neny; to his daughter Antie his negro wench Lies; to his dau. Abigael for an outfit as much as his other daughters had when they were married, and to buy a wench for her, or else his negro boy Isaac. The remainder of his estate to be divided equally among his children, Leffert, Jacob, Jan, Adriaentje, Antie, Abigael, Altie, and his grandson Barent; his dau. Altie's part to be placed at interest for her maintenance and after her death to be divided as provided for the remainder of his estate, etc.; appoints his brother Abraham Lefferts, his sons Leffert Leffertse, Jacob Leffertse and Jan Leffertse executors. He signed his name Pieter Leffertze.

¹ Among the emigrants who arrived in the ship Fox on the 2d of Sept., 1662, was a Claes Barentse, who may have been Claes Barentse Blom. Claes Barentse Blom, settled in Flatbush and m. Apl. 26, 1685, Elizabeth Poulis wid. of Michael Vandervoort, and had issue: Jannetje, who m. 1st Jacobus Lefferts; Barent, who m. Femmetie ———; Simon, m. June 3d, 1703, Geertje Janse of Flatbush; and Joris, who m. Jaquemintje ———. In 1698, as per the census of that date, he resided in Brooklyn where he appears to have resided until his death. An Abraham Blom resided in Flatbush in 1734.

28, 1730, for £20, he bought of Willem Hoglandt of Flatbush, John Bennem, Johanis Jansen, and Reynier Folleman of the same place No. 22 in the 3d division. In Vandervoort's and Dorlandt's deeds, his name is written "Jacobus Leffert Hagewout."

In 1723, he probably became the possessor of 40 morgen or 80 acres of land at Bedford, belonging to his father-in-law, for among the papers of Barent his son was found an unexecuted deed from Nicholaas Blom and Elizabeth his wife, of Brooklyn, to "Jacobus Leffertz Hagewout, of the township of Brookland, carpenter," in which in consideration of £800, they convey a tract in Brooklyn "beginning at the southeast corner of the Land of Cornelis Van der hoeve by the Road Leadeth from the ferry to newtown, and from thence Running westerly along the line of the said Cornelis till the rear of his Lott, and from thence along the Land of Johannis Berge, Southerly to the Road aforesaid, thence alonge the road to the place where it first began; bounded West by the land of Johannis Berge, and north by Cornelis Van der hoeve, South and east by the Road aforesaid; and also two lotts of land commonly called of the bedford Lotts of the east side of the Road aforesaid butted and Bounded as followeth, South by the land of Jan dorlant and North by the Land of Jan Van nortstrant, and east by the Land of Jacob Slasson and the heirs of tuenis Rapalje, and West by the Road aforesaid, containing about forty morgens" (80 A.); also $3\frac{1}{2}$ lots of woodland in Brooklyn, each lot containing about 10 A.; parcels of salt meadows, and 250 A. of land in the township of Maidenhead, Burlington Co., N. J.

From 1727 to 1755, inclusive, he was one of the three freeholders appointed by the town of Brooklyn to defend their patent, town rights, etc. (See Teale's Municipal Register of Brooklyn, and Manual of Kings Co., of 1848.)

On the census of 1738, his family is entered as consisting of 2 white males above 10, 1 under 10, 3 white females above 10, 1 black male above 10, 2 under 10, and 1 black female above 10 years of age.

Dec. 6, 1742, for the purchase of a parsonage in Flatbush, for the R. D. churches of the county, he is entered on the list as subscribing 10*sb.*, the sum generally subscribed by his neighbors.

April 4th, 1753, for £760 — he bought of Hendrick Fine, of Bedford, Blacksmith, 20 A. in Bedford, lying on the South side of the old Brooklyn and Jamaica turnpike and the westerly side of the clove road leading from Bedford to Flatbush; 74 A. on the east side of the said clove road; a 10 A. lot of woodland in the Brooklyn woodlands known as No. 23, and 3 lots of salt meadows in the town of Flatbush. Of the 74 A. plot on the east side of the clove road, Hendrick Fine bought 43 A., April 13, 1747, for £183, of Denys Hegeman, of Bedford, and Catryntje, his wife, Baker; and 31 A., April 19, 1743, for £82, of Benjamin and Jacobus Vande Water, both of "Brookland," farmers. The 20 A. plot, Hendrick Fine, Blacksmith of Flatbush, bought April 12, 1736, for £200, of Paulus Van Der Voort, measurer, and Jannetie, his wife, of "Brouckland." (All the above deeds are in possession of Elizabeth D. Brevoort.)

Nov. 14, 1753, Jacobus Lefferts, Peter Vandervoort, Jacob Remsen, Rem Remsen, and Nicholas Veghte were appointed by the people of Brooklyn, trustees, to defend their patent.

In 1755 "Jacobus Lefferts" of Brooklyn, is entered on the slave census as the owner of 1 male and 2 female slaves. In 1760 he was a commissioner of highways in Brooklyn.

July 5, 1763, he had a suit pending against Gysbert Boogart in which he claimed £12 damages.

In the N. Y. Mercury of Sept. 19, 1768, appeared the following obituary :

"On Thursday the 8th instant, departed this Life at Bedford, on Long Island, in the 83d year of his Age Mr. Jacobus Lefferts ; and on the Saturday following was decently interred in the Family Vault : He was remarkable for his Humanity and Goodness of Heart, to all Ranks and Degrees of Men ; his Love of Justice and Equity justly intitled him to the Regard of all that knew him ; and was always esteemed an honest judicious Man.

There are three of Mr. Lefferts Brothers yet living, each of them older than he was."

His will is da. May 11, 1768, pro. Dec. 9, 1768, and rec. in off. sur. N. Y., lib. 26, p. 461, in which he devises to his son Nicholas land in Bushwick, Leffert land in Brooklyn, and Barent the land in Bedford on which he resided (the homestead), his executors being his sons Leffert, Jacobus, Barrent and Nicholas. He signed his name Jacobus Leffertz.

In 1715 his name is entered on the militia roll of Flatbush as "Isaac hagewoutt." In 1726 and 1727, he was Constable of Flatbush.

On the list of April 5, 1734, of the parts of fence which each owner of salt meadows in the Flatbush tract was apportioned to keep, Isaac Lefferts was entered opposite No. 51, for 9 rods, 11 feet, 2 inches.

On the census of 1738, the family of "Isaac Lefferts," of Flatbush is entered, 1 white male above 10; 2 under 10; 2 white females above 10; 2 black males above 10; and 1 black female above 10 years of age.

At the Oct. court in 1746, about the time of his death, he had a suit pending against Thomas Doxse for breach of contract, in which he claimed £19 19*s*. 9*d*. damages.

In 1755, "Harmpe Lefferts" his wid. is entered on the census of slaves as the owner of black slaves "Prins" and "Rachel." At one period she was assessed in Flatbush for 107 A., 3 slaves, 4 horses and 8 cattle. He signed his name Isaac Leffertze.

9. ABRAHAM LEFFERTS, b. Sept. 1, 1692; d. Oct. 1767; m. *Sarah Hoogland*¹ bap. Sept. 28, 1692, in N. Y.

Feb. 24, 1712-3, on certificate he joined the R. D. ch. of New York, and June 2, 1713, Sarah Hoogland his wife united with the same church on certificate from Staten Island.

¹ Sarah Hoogland, was probably a dau. of Dirck Cornelisse, and a grand dau. of Cornelis Janse Hoogland. Cornelis Janse was a brother of Dirk Janse Hoogland of Maerseveen in the province of Utrecht in the Netherlands, who settled in Flatbush. Cornelis Janse probably emigrating from the same place. Cornelis Janse m. Altje Ariens, wid. of Jacob Dircksen Vogel and had issue Dirck Cornelisse and probably other children:

Dirck Cornelisse resided on Staten Island, in 1689, m. Lysabeth or Elizabeth Joris Rapalje and d. prior to 1709, after which his widow, joined the R. D. church, in N. Y. He had issue, Marretje, bap. July 23, 1687 in N. Y.; and (supposed) Sara, bap. Sept. 28, 1692, in N. Y., who m. Abraham Lefferts

He resided in the city of New York, was engaged in mercantile business, and during the negro excitement in April 1741, his negro slave Pompey was among those indicted for conspiracy to murder the inhabitants and burn the city, known as the negro plot.

April 27, 1738, he and Antony Rutgers, as elders of the Protestant Reformed Dutch church of said city, were members of the first Coetus of said church. Nov. 7, 1749, he was a member of the fifth Coetus: Sept. 10, 1761, he was a member of the seventh Coetus; and in 1752 and 1753 he was an elder in said church. In 1750, he and Abraham Van Wyck were church wardens of the city and county of New York.

Dec. 31, 1753, Abraham Lefferts advertised in the N. Y. Gazette, for sale at a reasonable rate, dry goods, hardware, earthen ware, writing paper, small Dutch Bibles, etc., and that he intends to leave off selling dry goods.

In 1752, Abraham Lefferts of the city of N. Y., purchased of Elias Boudinot, and also of John Emott shares in the Cayaderosseras patent.

June 2, 1753, he bought of Christian Hartel, three tracts in Ulster co., one of 150, one of 1322, and one of 1044 acres in the Hardenburg patent.

Oct. 5, 1755, the consistory of the "Protestant Dutch church" of the city of N. Y., advertised in the N. Y. Gazette, 15 farms in Westchester co., to be sold at public auction, "apply to Mr. Abraham Lefferts."

Mar. 13, 1756, he bought of Peter Anderson a house and lot in the city of N. Y., adjoining the commons. The deeds of the above purchases are recorded in the office of the secretary of state, at Albany.

Feb. 12, 1759, he advertised in the N. Y. Mercury, houses to let next to William Walton's.

His will is dated June 4, 1743, proved March 16, 1768, and recorded in lib. 1, p. 232, of wills in off. of sec. of state of New Jersey, and in it he styles himself a merchant of the city of New York. Among other bequests he devises to his son "Derik" two dwelling houses and a store house on a plot in Montgomery ward of said city, the house of Wm. Walton being on the easterly side thereof, and that of Jacobus Rosevelt on the westerly side, bounded northerly by Queen street, and southerly by Water street ; also "all that certain water lot of ground under or to be gained out of the East river fronting Water street and opposite the house and grounds above devised ;" also his share in the large tract of land in the county of Albany, N. Y., commonly known by the name of "Cayadarosseros," and a tract in the township of Goshen known as lot twenty-nine.

He devises to his daughter Elizabeth, wife of Peter Clopper, the house and lot on which he resided, with the storehouse on the same, fronting southeasterly on Queen street, and on the westerly side adjoining Maiden Lane, with another house and lot on Maiden Lane.

The following obituary appeared in the N. Y. Mercury, Oct. 26, 1767 :— "Died at his home in this city in his 75th year, Abraham Lefferts." "He has ever been esteemed a worthy honest Man : and has left behind three Brothers, each of them elder than he was."

¹ Maria Van Mater was a descendant of Jan Gysbertsen Van Mater who emigrated from Bommel in south Holland in the Netherlands, and settled in New Utrecht, as early as 1663. His son Kryn Jansen emigrated with his father, m. Sept. 9, 1683, Neeltje Van Cleef of New Utrecht, where he resided as late as 1709, and then removed to Middletown, Monmouth co., N. J., where he resided in 1715. He had children, Jan, Joseph, Gysbert, Kryn Janse, Benjamin, Eyke, Cyrenius and prob. Jannetje, all of N. J., where they have left numerous descendants. Bommel is a town of 1199 inhabitants in 1841, with a haven and some commerce.

² Antje Vanderbilt was a descendant of Jan Aertsen Vanderbilt who emigrated to this country at an early period and probably came from "De Bilt," a village on the Biltsche Graft (canal) in the province of Utrecht. He resided in New Amsterdam as early as Aug. 18, 1653, from whence he removed to Flatbush,

In 1738 with the Cornells he visited Bucks co., Penn., on a prospecting tour. He returned with Gilliam Cornell,¹ and June 7, 1739, he bought of Isaac Pennington a tract of 400 acres in Northampton township of said county for £492, on which he settled. The tract he bought was part of 651 A. that William Penn granted to Edmund Pennington, the father of Isaac.

About this period a number of the descendants of the early Netherland settlers of Long Island, located in Bucks co., Pennsylvania, among whom were Vandergrifts, Van Dycks, Van Deventers, Van Arsdalens, DeHarts, Cornells, Hogelands, Barkeloots, Vanderveers, Corsons, Fonteyns, Larzeleres, and others. The farming land of Kings co., being all occupied, the fruitful soil, healthy climate and low price of land, drew them to that locality.

His children were: Aris Janse of Flatbush, Jacob Janse of Flatbush, Marretje Janse, and Jan Janse, Jun., who removed to Bergen, N. J.

Aris Janse, m. Oct. 6, 1677, Hildegonde or Hilletje Remsen, dau. of Rem Janse Vanderbeek, b. Sept. 16, 1653, being a resident of New Amsterdam at the date of his marriage, but afterwards of Flatbush. His children were: Jan Aertse, Jannetje or Annetje Aertse, Jannetje Aertse, Femmetje Aertse, Rem Aertse, Aert Aertse, Jeremyas Aertse, Cornelius Aertse, Hendrick Aertse of N. J., (sup.) Jacob Aertse, and (sup.) Catharine Aertse.

Aert Aertse of Flatbush, bap. June 11, 1693; m. Mar. 14, 1717, Seytie Strycker; will da. Dec. 9, 1754, pro. Nov. 27, 1762; had children: Antje who m. Leffert Leffertse, Lammetje, Hilletje, Margrietje, Seytie, Aris, Jannetje and Peter of New Utrecht.

¹ The descendants of Gilliam Cornell are quite numerous in Pennsylvania. The Brooklyn Cornells who owned farms and mills on the shores of the East river opposite Governor's Island, are also his descendants, of whom the present Peter C. Cornell is one. The Penn. branch of the family in pronouncing the name accent the last syllable.

In 1654, Peter Lindstrom, a Swedish engineer and surveyor, who surveyed and mapped the Delaware, in speaking of the productiveness of the land, says: "Maize or Indian corn grows of various colors — white, red, blue, brown, yellow and pied. It is planted in hillocks and squares, as the Swedes do hops. In each hillock they sow six or seven grains of corn, which grows so high as to rise an ell above a man's head. Each stalk has six or seven ears, with long slender and pointed leaves, which are of the same color as the corn. Each ear is one and a half quarter (over 2 ft. 2 in.), but mostly half an ell ($22\frac{1}{2}$ inches) long. In some parts they are as thick as the thickest man's arm, in others smaller. They have 10, 12, nay 14 rows of grains from the bottom to the top, which, with God's blessing, make a thousand fold increase. When they are just ripe, and they are broiled on hot coals, they are delightful to eat. Out of the white and yellow maize they make bread, but the blue, brown, black and pied are brewed into beer, which is very strong but not remarkably clear." (See Davis's Hist. of Bucks Co., Pa., p. 22.) In 1680, Mahlon Stacy in a letter to his brother in England in praise of the country says, "he has seen orchards planted by the Swedes so laden with delicious and lovely fruit as to tear their limbs in pieces; an apple tree from a pippin kernel yield a barrel of curious cider; peaches of the finest flavor strung on the trees like onions tied to ropes; forty bushels of wheat harvested from one sown; plenty of fat beef, pork and mutton; stores of very good wild fruits, as strawberries, cranberries and huckleberries; the Delaware swarming with great plenty of most sorts of fish they have in England, besides others unknown there, as rock, cat fish, shad, sheeps head, and sturgeon; abundance of venison, and plenty of wild fowls as ducks, geese, turkeys, pheasants, partridges and many others." In further proof of the strength of the soil, it is said that 135 years ago, Wm. Rodman of Bensalem stuck his button wood riding switch into the ground by the side of a spring of water near the house, and it has grown into a tree more than 30 feet in circumference, and absorbed the waters of the spring.¹ With such advantages and attractions, the flocking of Long Islanders passing by New Jersey to the shores of the Delaware is not to be wondered at.

"Peter Leffertse" by his will bequeathed to his son Leffert a legacy, making the same a charge upon the real estate he devised to his son John. Leffert probably died before his father, there being an entry in Peter Lefferts's (son of John) books of May 1, 1775, of having paid to his uncle Leffert's children £185 4*sb.* 10*d.* due their deceased father. In this entry there is an item of the date May 1, 1774, of "ten pounds for their father's first born right in the will," Leffert being the oldest son. In addition to the legacy, Leffert also appears to have been entitled to a share of the personal property of his father. Among the papers in possession of the present John Lefferts of Flatbush, a descendant of the above mentioned John, having a reference to the settlement of the estate of the first Peter Lefferts, and the legacy he bequeathed to his son John Lefferts, are a receipt of May 6, 1775, of Leffert Lefferts (son of Leffert) for £26 9*sb.* 7*d.* received from Jacob and John Leffertse executors of his grandfather Peter Lefferts for "his share in full of all the money now due me out of the estate of my grandfather Peter Lefferts." And a receipt of May 30, 1783, of Leffert Lefferts (son of Leffert), to Peter Lefferts for £54, 14*sh.* 4*d.*, in which he sets forth that his grandfather Peter Lefferts, by his last will and testament, did bequeath to his father a legacy in different payments to be paid by his uncle John Lefferts for the consideration of his real estate, which sum is the last payment in full, "I do hereby discharge the said John Lefferts's Heirs and Successors for Ever from the above Mentioned Legacy, and Do hereby Bind Myself, heirs and Successors for Ever to keep Harmless and Clear from any Lawful Claims Either or any of My Brothers or Sisters Could make upon the Heirs of My said Uncle."

May 1, 1760, and May 1, 1761, "Leffert Leffertsen," was chosen elder of the Northampton and Southampton R. D. church, and Aug. 30, 1767, he was chosen to the same office in place of Jacob Bennet, deceased.

His wid. Antie on the registry of slaves in Northampton in 1782, is entered as the owner of 9 slaves.

His will is dated Oct. 6, 1773, and recorded at Doylestown, in which his sons Peter and Arthur are named as executors. By it he appears, in addition to the homestead, to have owned a plantation in Newtown.

Martin Adrianse, son of Adrian Ryerse, d. Oct. 30, 1754, m. Sara b. Dec. 1, 1670, d. April 30, 1723. His children assumed the surname of Martense, and were: Rem Martense of Flatbush, b. Dec. 12, 1695; Garret Martense of Flatbush, b. Oct. 24, 1698, d. 1732, m. Magdalena dau. of Leffert Pietersen; Jannetie Martense, b. July 31, 1702; and Antje Martense, b. Nov. 5, 1705. Garret Martense, son of Martin Adrianse and Sara, had children: Leffert Martense, b. June 4, 1720, d. young; Martin Martense, b. ² Lammetje Vanderbilt was a descendant of Jan Aertsen Vanderbilt or from the Bilt or Bild, and a sister of Antje Vanderbilt who mar. Leffert Leffertse, referred to in a foot note under said Leffert Leffertse (22) hereinbefore contained.

Lott. Oct. 15, 1754, in pursuance of an act of assembly in relation to counterfeit coin, 11*sb.* and 6 coppers in half pence, of counterfeit coin was brought into the Court of Sessions, who ordered the same to be lodged for safety in the hands of John Lefferts, one of the assistant justices. On the 15th of April, 1755, the court ordered the said counterfeit coin to be melted down by assistant justices John Lefferts and Carel Debevoise, and the product to be produced at their next meeting. On the meeting of the court in the following October, Lefferts produced the product of the false half pence and farthings amounting to 7 shillings and 1 penny, which the court ordered "that every one should have his proportion of the same," from which it may be inferred that the object of the law was to gather in and take out of circulation a large amount of counterfeit coin which had been by some means introduced.

After repeated complaints of the sheriff of the insufficiency of the county jail, the Court of Sessions in Oct., 1768, appointed Jeremiah Vanderbilt, Englebert Lott, Philip Nagel and John Lefferts, Esq., "to have the court house and jail of the county put in good repair, and lay the costs before the supervisors of the county."

John Lefferts was town clerk of Flatbush, from 1773 to 1776, and an elder in the Protestant Reformed Dutch church. May 22, 1775, he was elected a delegate from Kings co., to the Provincial Congress of New York. In 1754, the board of supervisors audited a bill of £1 8*sb.* and another of £1 19*sb.* in his favor for prosecuting vagrants. In 1765 a bill of £1 11*sb.* for trying a free negro man and having him whipped.

Jan. 20, 1772, John Lefferts, of Flatbush, advertises "for sale the brick dwelling with barn and bolting house almost opposite John Rapalje's, Brooklyn ferry. Apply to Simon Boerum near by."

48 THIRD GENERATION. DESCENDANTS OF

From an advertisement in the N. Y. Mercury of Dec. 26, 1774, of the sale at vendue on the 12th of the succeeding Jan., at Monmouth Court House, of the Saw Mill and about 1400 A. of land at Toms river, N. J., late of Ab'm Schenck, signed by Folkert Folkersen, Henry Remsen, Ab'm P. Lott, John Lefferts and Peter Schenck, it is evident he was in some way connected with the affairs of said Ab'm Schenck.

For the purpose of showing the value of property at this period, and of the personal estate of one of the wealthiest inhabitants of the county, the following copy of the inventory of his estate is given.

Register of Brooklyn and Manual of Kings Co. of 1848.) During the revolutionary war no regular town records were kept.

Mar. 29, 1761, John Wesbit, had a suit pending against him in which he claimed £19 damages.

From 1761 to 1777 his name generally appears among the assistant justices of the County Courts.

In 1765, 66 and 67, Leffert Lefferts was a commissioner of highways of Brooklyn.

May 2, 1774, Leffert Lefferts bought of Garret Wyckoff, Jacob Bloom, and Barrent Lefferts, executors of the last will and testament of Andries Andriese of Bedford bearing date the 21st of June, 1772, for £429 ten acres on the south side of the Jamaica road, 23A. on the east side of the Clove road, and two lots of salt meadows in Flatbush. (Deed in possession of Elizabeth D. Brevoort.)

Among the cases before the Court of Sessions in April 1775, was an indictment of Leffert Lefferts for an assault on Cors. Vandervoort. At the time Lefferts was one of the justices of the court, and the probability is that in consequence of the military occupation of the island in the stormy days of the Revolution, the case was never tried, the records showing nothing farther in relation thereto.

Leffert Lefferts was town clerk of Brooklyn, acting in that capacity at a meeting on the 22d of May, 1775, to elect deputies to choose members to represent Kings co. in the Provincial Congress. As town clerk he had the custody of the town records which were removed during his absence shortly after the battle of Long Island, by John Rapalje, a former clerk of his, and a prominent citizen, under the pretense of taking the papers to a safe place, and afterwards taken by Rapalje to England, and never recovered by the town.¹ In consequence of Rapalje's being an active tory or supporter of British supremacy, his lands were confiscated and his farm in Brooklyn sold to Joshua and Comfort Sands.

Jan. 6, 1783, in Gaines paper, Leffert Lefferts offers a reward of 2 guineas, and all reasonable charges for 2 colts (branded L L on near side), stolen or strayed off the common about Bedford, last summer.

58 THIRD GENERATION. DESCENDANTS OF

1792 ; m. 1st, Aug. 5, 1756, Mary or Maria Vanderbuyl;¹ m. 2d, April 28, 1772, Lucretia, dau. of Jores Brinckerhoff,² a prominent merchant in New York, who for 10 years was a member of the city council. According to the city directory, Jacobus resided in 1787, 88, 89, 90, 91 and 92, at No. 5 Nassau St.

Maria Vanderhuyl, his wife, joined the R. D. church, of N. Y., Dec. 20, 1759, on confession of faith.

May 16, 1757, a reward of twenty shillings was offered by Jacobus Lefferts of the city of New York, in the N. Y. Mercury, for the return of a "moses built long boat," stolen on the previous Sunday evening from the "Sloop Jenny and Milley, Capt. Ragwell, lying in Rotten-Row."

Feb. 21, 1763, he joined the R. D. church of N. Y., on confession of faith.

His name appears on paper or currency issued by the city of New York, as a specimen of which the following is a copy: "No. 2085. This Note shall entitle the Bearer to the sum of FOUR SHILLINGS current Money of the Colony of New York, payable on Demand, by the MAYOR, ALDERMAN, and COMMONALTY of the City of New York, at the office of Chamberlin of the said City, pursuant to a Vote of the said Mayor, Alderman, and Commonalty of this Date. Dated the Twenty-fifth Day of August, in the Year of our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy four.

By Order of the Corporation :

Jacob^s Lefferts."

¹ Mary or Maria Vanderbuyl, or Vander Heul, was probably a descendant of Abraham Van der Heul, who had a dau. Elizabeth, bap. Aug. 15, 1660, in New Amsterdam.

² Jores or George Brinckerhoff, was a grandson of Joris Dircksen Brinckerhoff, of Drent, or Drenthe, a province in the Netherlands who with his wife Susanna emigrated in 1638 to this country, and settled in Brooklyn. (See Riker's Newtown, p. 290.)

In a scroll at the head of the bill, are the words "New York Water Works." The bills of this corporation were however signed by other parties as well as by Lefferts.

May 1, 1775, the name of Jacobus Lefferts, appears on the list of the General Committee of the city of New York consisting of 100 persons, who favored independence. Among other representatives of the descendants of the settlers of King's co., on this list were, Abraham P. Lott, Henry Remsen, Abraham Duryea, and Jacob Van Voorhies. In 1770 he was assistant alderman of the East Ward, and alderman in 1771, 1772, 1773 and 1774, in which year he resigned, and on the 30th of Sept., David Matthews was elected in his place.

When the city was taken by the British army, he appears to have left. At this time, he and Capt. Kennedy, owned one of the wharves, which was taken possession of by Col. Wm. Butler, assistant deputy commissary gen., for the use of the British forces. Col. Butler by orders of his superiors, took an account of all the property found in the different houses and stores that were abandoned by the owners, and also of vacant dwelling and store houses, and lots of ground and wharves, and reported to Gen. Robertson the commander of the city. Kennedy being within the British lines was allowed a dollar a day by the commissary gen. for his half of the wharf, but Lefferts being without the lines was allowed nothing. After the war, Butler, being one of the few of the officers in the British service, who left any estate in this country, Mr. Lefferts commenced a suit against him in the Mayor's court, for the use and occupation of a dwelling house and dock.

It appears by the N. Y. Mercury of Oct. 27, 1777, that a British expedition swept the Hudson river, from Fort Vaughan to Red Hook, destroying much valuable property, and among other acts of Vandalism burnt the town of

Nov. 27, 1785, he and Lucretia his wife, were witnesses at bap. of Lucretia Lefferts dau. of Abraham Brinckerhoff and Dorothy Remsen.

His will is dated April 21, 1792, pro. July 28, 1792, rec. in lib. 41, p. 48, N. Y. sur. off., in which reference is made to his wife Lucretia, nephew Jacobus Fine, James son of his brother Leffert; Jacobus, son of his brother Barrent; Jacobus, son of his sister Abigail Suydam, and Jacobus, son of his sister Jane Thorne, and in which he appoints his wife Lucretia, nephew Jacobus Fine, and brother-in-law Abraham Brinckerhoff, executors. From his will it may be inferred he left no descendants.

His wife Lucretia's will is dated, May 17, 1800, pro. July 8, 1800, rec. lib. 43, p. 252, N. Y. sur. off., in which she bequeaths legacies to Maria Remsen, George Brinckerhoff, Lucretia Lefferts Brinckerhoff, Jane Brinckerhoff, Peter Brinckerhoff, and James Lefferts Brinckerhoff, children of her brother Abraham Brinckerhoff; to Abraham, grandson of her brother Abraham, to Cor.^s Brinckerhoff late of the city of N. Y., to Caroline Brinckerhoff, dau. of her brother Dirck, to Leffert Lefferts son of Leffert Lefferts of Bedford, to Elsie Fine and Jacob Lefferts Fine, children of Jacobus Fine, to Mary Marius Groen, to Nancy dau. of Wm. Van Deursen, dec., to Peter Francis her servant, to her uncle Wm. Van Deursen, and aunt Hester Van Deursen. She appointed her brother Abraham Brinckerhoff and his son Peter, executors.

He signed his name Jacob^s Lefferts.

In 1748 and 1749, he was constable in Flatbush.

Jan. 27, 1772, he advertised in the N. Y. Gazette and Mercury, for sale, a brick dwelling house and lot at Brooklyn ferry, almost opposite the dwelling house of "John Rapalje Esq.," the lot 28ft. 11in. front, with an average depth of 153 ft., 6 in., containing in addition to a 2½ story house, a bolting house and barn. Feb. 15, 1783, Lefferts and Van Nostrand's house and stable, at Brooklyn, were sold at auction, which may have been the above premises.

During the battle of Long Island in the war of the Revolution, his house with that of Jeremiah Vanderbilt on the west side, and that of Evert Hegeman on the east side of the road in the village, were as per Strong's Flatbush, burned down by the British, to prevent them being used by the American riflemen as a cover to fire from.

dam,¹ of Flatbush, b. May 3, 1753, d. Aug. 5, 1847, owned and occupied the extensive tract in Flatbush lately held by his grandson the present John Lefferts.

March 11, 1776, the name of Lieut. Peter Lefferts of Flatbush, appears on the list of those returned by Col. R. Van Brunt who refused to enter voluntarily in the service of the provincial congress to fight for independence. He however appears soon to have changed his views, for in April of the same year, his name appears as first lieut. of the Flatbush militia company on the list of those who signed the declaration for resistance and had taken their commissions.

Peter Lefferts was elected one of the two delegates from Kings co., to the convention which met at Poughkeepsie, on the 27th of June, 1778, to adopt the constitution of the United States.

¹ Evert Hegeman was a descendant of Adriaen Hegeman referred to in the foot note under Auke Lefferts (3) herein previously inserted.

Adriaen had issue:— Joseph, Hendricus, Jacobus, Abraham, Denyse or Dennis, Isaac, Benjamin, Elizabeth and John.

Joseph settled in New Lotts, m. Oct. 21, 1677, Femmetje, dau. of Rem Jansen Vanderbeek and Jannetje Joris Rapalie of New Albany, b. Aug. 1, 1657. He immigrated with his father from Amsterdam, resided in Flatbush as early as 1658, was at one period member of assembly for Kings co., and d. about 1725. His children were:— Elbert of New Lotts who m. Maritje Rapalie of Brooklyn; Catharine who m. Tunis Bogaert and settled on Staten Island; Jannetje who m. Capt. Cornelis Hoogland; (sup.) Rem of Flatbush, bap. Feb. 8, 1685, d. . . . ; m. May 6, 1715, Paternella dau. of Evert Janse Van Wicklen, of New Lotts. In 1724, he was a freeholder of Brooklyn, and his will is da. May 19, 1759, pro. April 6, 1767 and rec. in N. Y. sur. off. Lib. 25, p. 450. His children were:— Evert; Rem, bap.

Peter Lefferts was one of the first trustees of the Reformed Protestant Dutch church of Flatbush, elected on its incorporation, Jan. 17, 1785, and also one of those who associated together in 1786, for the establishment of an academy, towards which he subscribed £60, and of which on its incorporation under the name of Erasmus Hall, Nov. 20, 1787, he was one of the trustees.

On the landing of the British at Bath on the 22d of Aug., 1776, the American riflemen on the approach of their invaders towards the evening set fire to many stacks of grain in the northern part of Flatbush, and also fired the house of Peter Lefferts as per Strong's Flatbush.

April 18, 1775, Peter Lefferts appears on the slave census as the owner of negro slaves, Ben, Dyna and Isabel. On an assessment roll of Flatbush prior to this date he is entered as the owner of 142 acres, 4 slaves, 4 horses and 15 cattle.

May 8, 1785, Peter Cornell and Nelly his wife, and Gertie Hegeman (said Nelly and Gertie and also Femmetje wife of said Peter Lefferts being the children and heirs of Evert Hegeman deceased) for £1666, 13*sh.* 4*d.*, conveyed to Peter Lefferts, their share in Evert Hegeman's farm in Flatbush of about 100 A., Bounded W^{ly} by the road from Flatbush to Brooklyn; S^{ly} by land of said Peter Lefferts; E^{ly} by woodland of said Peter Lefferts; N^{ly} by land of Ab^m Van Sicklen, land of Leffert Lefferts, land of said Peter Lefferts, and the Brooklyn patent. This appears to be the southerly half of the homestead farm of John son of said Peter Lefferts, the remainder being that late of the heirs of Isaac Corteleyou deceased.

In 1791, according to the N. Y. civil list, Peter Lefferts was a member of the senate for the southern district of New York.

From 1784 to 1792, he was one of the judges of the Court of Sessions and Common Pleas of the county, Johannes E. Lott, in 1784, being first judge.

Peter Lefferts's will is dated Aug. 8, 1791, rec. in lib. 1, p. 91, in King's co., sur. off. The inventory of his personal estate amounted to £2553 6s. 6d., and his executors were his brother-in-law, Peter J. Schenck, and his cousins Rem Van Pelt, and Rem Hegeman; he devises to his wife Femmetje the use of his property during widowhood or life, to his son John the homestead he inherited from his father with woodland, to his dau. Catharine the farm woodland and salt meadows he purchased of John Hegeman and Brooklyn woodland. John to pay a legacy of £1000 to his sister Seytie, and Catharine to pay her £200.

The following obituary is copied from Gaines's N. Y. Mercury of Oct. 12, 1791. "Died Fryday 7th at his seat at Flatbush, after a tedious consumption, Peter Lefferts Esq. He had not attained his 40th year when the grim monster summoned him home. He has held several posts of honor in the State and was Judge of Common Pleas at his death. He was ever esteemed as a staunch friend of the liberties of his country, a benevolent man, tender and affectionate father and husband."

Gaines's Gazette of April 28, 1783, says : " Last Thursday, Catharine, dau. of Leffert Lefferts Esq. in Bedford, a very amiable and accomplished young lady, having observed to her mother that a loaded pistol left by a drover, who had been watching his cattle with it the preceding night, upon a chest of drawers, was rather dangerously placed, and that some of the children might get hurt by it, proceeded to remove and put it in a holster that hung close by ; but in the operation the pistol discharged, the shot went through her body, and she expired immediately.

ELEGY.

What doleful tidings, in my ear they ring,

The maid I love, is she for ever gone ?

Alas, 'tis true ! her funeral dirge they sing :

In rueful notes, her hapless end bemoan.

* * * * *

No consolation can this world now yield,

No pleasing prospect can my cares beguile ;

The bloom of flowers, nor verdure of the fields,

Her presence only, could make all things smile.

Accursed pistol, by some demon primed,

Malignant to the gem the world contained,

Wast thou by dire explosion thus ill timed,

To rob the world of excellence, ordained ?

No more shall Cath'rine rise upon my sight,
 Like eastern Sol, in her own beauty's light ;
 No more the rose of Sharon shall adorn
 Her lovely visage in the welcome morn ;
All this is lost, her cheeks, alas ! are pale,
The Rose is now the Lily of the vale !
 Covered with earth, into the silent grave,
 She lies entombed, deaf to every cry ;
 * * * * *
 Then pray descend, fair Catharina's shade,
 Into my dreams and visions of the night ;
 Put rapturous illusions in my head,
 That sad realities may have respite.
 Too much an angel for a world of woe ;
 Eternal wisdom hath conceived it best,
 On her a crown of glory to bestow,
 Among the saints in her Redeemer's rest.

Sampson Benson, settled in the city of New York, and is supposed to have resided on Pot Bakers hill, near John street, below William and Gould. Riker

On the 5th of April, 1800, he was appointed county clerk, which office he held to Feb. 24, 1816, keeping his office on the upper floor of his own residence in the old house on the S. W. corner of the Bedford cross roads. His successor, Abraham Vanderveer, for several years kept the office in a shed attached to his store, in the village of Flatbush. In 1805 he was appointed a commissioner in chancery, and Feb. 10, 1823, first judge of King's county, his predecessor being Wm. Furman, a layman. He was elected the first president of the Long Island Bank, the first in Brooklyn, which was incorporated in 1824, and held the office until 1846.

In 1813, he was the federal candidate for congress, and defeated by his kinsman John Lefferts of Flatbush, the republican one. In 1815, he was the federal candidate for senator, and defeated by Jacob Barker the republican one. In Sept. 1830, on the formation of the King's county Temperance Society, he was elected its president.

June 26, 1804, d. . . .; m. 2d, Dec. 29, 1823, by the Rev. Jacob Schoonmaker of Jamaica, Maria dau. of Adolphus Brower of Brooklyn. No issue. Resided on the homestead of his father; in his latter days in the fine new mansion he erected in place of the old one.

Rem was eccentric: for a long period it is said he kept in his house a $1000 bill of the Long Island Bank of which his neighbor Judge Lefferts was president, on whom he would call at the bank when he was short of funds for a discount, in preference to parting with the bill, the judge at the time being aware of Rem having the bill in his possession.

He was in the habit of handing this same bill to the tax collectors which in those days of low taxes was a large sum which they were not prepared to change, and thus obtain time and delay. Samuel Doxy on being elected collector, being aware of this, broke up the practice by carrying with him the necessary change for the $1000 bill, to save which Rem soon produced the proper change.

105. JANNETIE LEFFERTS, b. Feb. 13, 1774; d. June 14, 1792, in her 19th year; m. May 5, 1790, Folkert Rapalye of Cripplebush. No issue.

Her grave stone contains the following poetic tribute to her memory :

"Farewell, blest shade, alas! too early fled;
Who knew thee living but lament thee dead.
A soul so calm, so free from every stain,
So tried by torture, yet unmoved by pain;
Without a groan with agonies she strove,
Heaven wondering snatched her to the joys above."

98 FOURTH GENERATION. DESCENDANTS OF

DESCENDANTS OF ISAAC LEFFERTS (41) AND AGNIETJE LOTT.

108. ISAAC LEFFERTS, b. Jan. 17, 1756, and bap. at Jamaica, Harmsie Hegeman, wit. ; d. Jan. 18, 1829, ag. 73 y. and 1 day.

Was a farmer residing at Jamaica, Queens co., and a major of militia.

Will da. Sept. 5, 1828, pro. Jan. 27, 1829, rec. lib. F, p. 217, off. sur. Queens co. Devises use of his estate during life to his sister Harmpie Concklin, and on her death the one-half thereof to Agnes M. wife of Abner Chichester, and the remaining one-half to Isaac E. Concklin, from which the inference is that at the date of his will he had no wife or children living.

The following town offices were held by Isaac Lefferts : 1783, collector of taxes ; 1786, assessor ; 1787, 8, and 9, appraiser of estates of intestates ; 1798, 1802 to 1807, and 1814 to 1816, inclusive, fence viewer ; 1815, one of the committee to ascertain and report what common lands belong to the town; and in 1817, with Nicholas Wyckoff and Daniel Smith, a committee to meet the committee of Flatbush to regulate the bounds between their respective towns.

In 1791, Isaac Lefferts received 345 votes, as one of the three republican (democratic) candidates for members of assembly of Queens co., but was defeated. In 1792, he subscribed £5 towards building an academy in Jamaica of which he was one of the first trustees.

In 1806 and 1808, he was again one of the three defeated republican (democratic) candidates for assembly in Queens co.

May 8, 1819, the house of Isaac Lefferts near Jamaica, was broken open in the night by George Ellis Ryerson and robbed of a small chest containing $1500 in bank bills, $350, in silver, 20 gold eagles, a gold watch, chain, key and seals, and a number of valuable papers; $200 reward offered for the detection of the robber and recovery of the property.

In Oct. 1823, he was a republican delegate from Jamaica to the convention for the nomination of members of assembly.

Eliphalet Weeks and Abner Chichester, the executors of Isaac Lefferts, sold his farm; and in 1851, Whitson Oakley, who was in possession of the homestead, sold the same containing about 62 A., for $8350, to Eldert Bergen, it being located between the Brooklyn and Jamaica turnpike and the Williamsburgh turnpike, and on the north side of the first named turnpike.

132. JAN or JOHN LEFFERTS, b. Nov. 10, and bap. Dec. 9, 1779, in Northampton; d. Jan. 14, 1859; m. Oct. 13, 1808, Susanna, b. April 11, 1784, dau. of Judge Henry Wynkoop¹ and Sarah, who also held the office of colonel. Susanna d. March 2, 1849.

The firing of the British frigate, Leopold, on the Chesapeake in 1807, caused such an outburst of patriotism among the Bucks co. militia as to produce efforts to form voluntary companys. A meeting was held in Northampton township, of which Enoch Addis was chairman and John Lefferts secretary, to raise a volunteer troop of horse. John Lefferts was the chairman of a committee appointed to prepare an address to the soldiers of the 48th regiment of militia, to stimulate them to immediate action.²

He was a farmer, at first settled in Holland about 2½ miles from Newtown, and in April 1828, with his wife and eight children removed to Lodi, Seneca co., N. Y., where they remained until his death.

Issue : —

133. SIMON LEFFERTS, b. Mar. 12, 1786, d. Oct. 1, 1828 ; m. April 6, 1810, Mary or Nancy Fenton,² b. Feb.

¹ The Reeder family came from England and settled at first in Newtown, Queens co., Long Island, where the names of Jacob Reeder, John Reeder, Jeremiah Reeder, and Joseph Reeder appear on Dongan's patent of said town of 1686. From thence they removed to Ewing, N. J., in 1710, where the homestead of one of them has descended from father to son through six generations, and is now in the hands of Alfred Reeder, son of Amos Reeder, who m. a dau. of Isaac and Elizabeth Covert.

² The Fentons, as per Davis's Hist. of Bucks Co., settled in Southampton about 1722, whom he supposes to be of Holland origin, in which he is undoubtedly mistaken. A Joseph Fenton was a deacon of the R. D. church of Northampton and Southampton in 1759, and an elder in 1763. On the records of the R. D. church of N. Y., appears a Joseph Fenton of London, who m. March 18, 1683, Mary Nixon of England. An Eleazor Fenton, a Quaker, m. 1690, Elizabeth Stacy at Burlington (First Settlers in Newton, N. J., p. 389). It is evident the family is of English origin.

to his own financial matters. He indulges in the luxury of chewing tobacco, which he has practiced since he was fourteen or fifteen years of age, has a good head of hair, is slightly grey and is known far and wide as the oldest resident. When about four years old, at his father's homestead where George Lefferts (241) now lives, while workmen engaged in building a new barn were at dinner, he climbed a ladder standing at its end and mounted and sat on the peak of the barn. His father came out and rescued him from his perilous position."

In his younger days the Neshaming (Shammony) or North and Southampton Reformed Dutch congregations generally spoke Low Dutch, the people went to church drawn by ox teams, and the girls without stockings in warm weather. The Rev. Jonathan Dubois the pastor of the congregation who d. in 1772, was to receive £50 a year, a house and seventeen acres in Byberry, and a saddle horse, for his services.

He owned, resided on, and cultivated the homestead of his ancestors, a large tract in Flatbush ; was highly respected, of good judgment, fine ability, and held many important trusts, which gained for him the confidence of the whole community. From Oct. 1811 to Sept. 1813, he was county treasurer, the salary of the office being then only $30 a year, honor and not profit being the object. Was the democratic candidate for congress in 1813 and elected, his opponent being his kinsman, Judge Leffert Lefferts of Bedford. Elected and served as a member of the constitutional convention of the state in 1821, and from 1821 to 1826, was a member of the state senate, and known as Senator John, to distinguish him from others of the same name in the county. While a member of the senate it was proposed at the session of 1824 to take from the legislature the power of electing presidential electors and invest the same in the people, in favor of which change a bill was reported by the committee to whom the subject was referred. The opponents of the measure fearing to vote directly against it in consequence of its popularity with the people, after various ineffectual efforts at amendments, finally dispond of it by postponing its consideration until the first Monday in November, a virtual defeat. The senators who thus defied popular opinion were long known as the immortal 17, they being Bowman, Bowne, Bronson, Dudley, Earll, Greenly, Keyes, Lefferts, Livingston, Mallory, McCall, Redfield, Stranahan, Suydam, Ward, Wooster and Wright, 17: the noes were: Burrows, Burt, Clark, Cramer, Gardiner, Green, Haight, Lynde, McIntire, Morgan, Nelson, Ogden, Thorn and Wheeler, 14.¹

Unswerving honesty, uprightness and strict integrity characterized his public and private life, and by his early death, not only was his immediate family bereaved in the loss of an affectionate husband and father, but the church lost one of its most active members, and the county a noble and public spirited man.

His will is da. Sept. 23, 1827, pro. Dec. 8, 1849, rec. in lib. 3, p. 357 in K. co. sur. off., and in it he devises his

An obituary of Judge Vanderbilt in one of the public prints states that " he was a graduate of Columbia college, and delivered the valedictory of his class. He entered the law office of Judge J. A. Lott and the Hon. H. C. Murphey, was admitted to the bar in 1842, and soon after became the junior member of the firm with which he had studied. In 1844, Gov. Bouck appointed Mr. Vanderbilt first judge of the county, in place of Judge Greenwood who had retired." On the remodeling of the courts under the constitution of 1846, he returned to his duties as an attorney. " In the fall of 1851, Judge Vanderbilt was elected to the state senate, and while in the senate was a member of the committee which examined into the affairs of President Nott of Union college." In 1853, Mr. Vanderbilt was the candidate of the delegations of Kings and several of the western and other counties for the nomination of governor, his successful opponent being Judge Amasa J. Parker of Albany, Mr. Vanderbilt being nominated for lieutenant governor, and thus instead of heading, placed second on the ticket. " The contest was very active ; several tickets were in the field, and the republican one, with John A. King of Queens co. at its head was elected. " After this Judge Vanderbilt retired from active political life. He continued, however, to exert a direct influence upon local politics. His influence was felt in many local improvements. He was a member of the senatorial commission which investigated the encroachments on the harbor of New York by wharf builders" and fixed the bulk head and pier lines for the same.

"As a public man he was noted for his clear views on all subjects relating to the public welfare." A stroke of paralysis with which he was afflicted, compelled him finally to retire from active public life, and confined him to his house for the remaining ten years of his life. His mental faculties however were not obscured, nor his knowledge of the law affected by his physical weakness. His opinions on legal matters continued to be relied on by his friends and neighbors until his death, which was hastened by a second stroke of the disease.

APPENDIX.

NAMES ON ANDROSS'S PATENT OF NEW LOTTS.

The custom among the early settlers of this country of adding to their proper names for surnames, the names of their fathers, thus making all the sons of a Peter, Peterses, and of William, Williamses, and dropping or only occasionally using their proper family or surnames (if they had any), makes it very difficult, and in some cases impossible to determine with certainty to what family an individual belongs. In the account of Gov. Andross's patent of New Lotts on page 8, the proper surnames of several of the patentees are given between brackets. In addition to those thus shown, the surname of William Jacobse and his son Hendrick, was Boerum; that of Cornelis Barentse, was Van Wyck; of Pieter and Willem Guiljamse, was Cornell; of Titus Sierx or Syrachs was Devries, but his descendants now use the surname of Titus or Tetus, and are to be found in Queens county; of Dirk Janse, was Van Vliet; of Aert Janse and Jan Jansen, probably Vanderbilt. The Cornelis (Janse) Bogert's name is generally written Bougart or Boomgart, and is the ancestor of the New Jersey Bogerts, but no connection of Tunis Gysbert Bogert, the ancestor of the Kings co. family. The proper surname of Floor Willemse has not been ascertained, but he is probably the Floris Willemzen who married Helena Ariens and had a son Gysbert bap. May 22d, 1681 in the Dutch church of N. Y., the witnesses being Adriaen Lambertse and Jannetje Cornelis. The family names of Gerrit Lubbertse whose name also appears on Dongan's patent of 1685, has also not been ascertained, but he is probably a brother of Tys Lubbertse and a relative of Jan Cornelise Buys of Midwoud, for which see p. 256 of Calender of N. Y. His Dutch manuscripts. He took the oath of allegiance in Flatbush, in 1687, and is entered as a native of this country.

LAND PURCHASED BY RESIDENTS OF KINGS COUNTY, AND
BY AUKE LEFFERTS (3) AND HIS HEIRS IN MONMOUTH
CO., NEW JERSEY.

May the 16th, 1709, in consideration of £1730, Lewis Morris Esq., of Morrisiana, in the county of Westchester, and state of New York (afterwards governor of New Jersey), conveyed to Ryck Hendrickse (Suydam), Jacob Hendrickse (Suydam), Dominicus Vanderveer, Daniel Polhelmus, Johanus Polhelmus, and Auke Lefferts all of Flatbush, and Steven Coerte (Voorhies) of Gravesend, all of the county of Kings, in said state of New York, a tract of 1572 acres, commonly known as the 1500 acre tract, situated at Middletown in the county of Monmouth and state of New Jersey, "beginning at a white oak standing about 20 rods from the Swimming river, running north north west almost 5 degrees more westerly 105 chains, be it more or less, to a white oak standing on the bank of Hop river; then south west and by west 152 chains, more or less, to upon a stony hill; then south east to a black oak tree standing on the creek of Swimming, and so along to the river banks, along the river to the place where it began," etc., "excepting and reserving also all the Iron mine in the said land with liberty to dig, cart and convey away the same as often as to the said Lewis Morris, his heirs, Exr's, Adm's and assigns shall seem meet." (See lib. G., p. 141 of Con. in Monmouth co. clerk's off.) This tract was surveyed and divided, as appears by subsequent conveyances, by Peter Cortelyou into seven lots, one for each of the grantees, and was located north west of Tinton falls, now known as the Phalanx, some of the Polhemus's yet occupying a part of it, and on his portion Aucke Lefferts probably settled. By another deed of May 11, 1711, relating to the same tract, Aucke Lefferts (3) and Johannes Polhemus are set forth as of Middletown, Monmouth co., from which it is evident that prior to this last date they had removed to their New Jersey lands.

Feb. 18, 1730, Ouke (Auke) Lefferse (3) for £45 bought of Gysbert, Benjamin, Cyrenus, and Joseph Van Mater, 34 acres. (See lib. O., p. 876, of Con. in Monmouth co. clerk's off.)

Feb. 20, 1795, William Grover of Penn., for £306, conveyed to Arthur Lefferson (60) of Upper Freehold 43 $\frac{3}{4}$ A. in said locality. (See lib. M., p. 479 of Con., in Monmouth co. clerk's off.)

April 12, 1800, Thomas Scattergood of Upper Freehold for £1033, conveyed to Arthur Leffersen (60) of the same place a tavern house and lot in Imlay town in Monmouth co. (See lib. M., p. 160 of Con. in Monmouth co., clerk's off.)

May 21, 1800, Wm. Forman, Elisha Walton and Sam'l P. Forman for £2898, conveyed to Oukey Leffersen (63) of Freehold, a farm of 139 A., with buildings etc., also 21 A. of woodland in Freehold. (See lib. M., p. 122, of Con. in Monmouth co. clerk's off.)

LAND OF LEFFERT LEFFERTS (35) IN SUFFOLK COUNTY.

Humphry Avery of Suffolk co., N. Y., by fire and sickness becoming involved in debt, procured the passage of an act by the legislature of the state in 1756, authorizing him to dispose of his lands by lottery, to pay his debts, in which from the following conveyance, Leffert Lefferts (35) of Bedford, appears to have drawn a prize: Humphry Avery of Winthrop's patent in Suffolk co. to "Leofford Leoffords" of Bedford in Kings co., deed dated July 17, 1758, and recorded in lib. B., p. 344 in off. of the clerk of Suffolk co. The conveyance set forth this "Whereas the said Humphry Avery in the year of our Lord 1756, obtained liberty, by Act of Governor and Counsel and General Assembly of said Colony, to make sale of his real estate in the said county of Suffolk aforesaid by way of lottery, for the payment of his debts, and for that end, Managers were appointed and sworn, who on oath have divided the said real estate into thirty-six parts, numbered and appraised the same, published a scheme and put out and disposed of tickets, and in the month of June 1758 in the town of Brookhaven in said county, in the presence of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace with two clerks on oath, did in the usual manner proceed and draw the said lottery, and, Whereas, lot number three, mentioned as a land prize in the scheme of the lottery aforesaid called and known by name of Pochang, being valued at £900, was drawn with the ticket number six thousand and nineteen, whereof the said Leofford Leoffords was the purchaser and possessor; now this indenture witnesseth that the said Humphry Avery in consideration of the money paid him by the said party of the second part," etc., conveys premises "called and known by the name of Pochang Neck, bounded south with the great bay, east by a creek to the head thereof, thence north to the country road, thence westerly by the road to the great Gate, thence westerly half way between the two dwelling hoses (houses), to Pochang Brook, thence southerly by the brook and cove to the bay first mentioned, containing by estimation upwards of three hundred acres of upland and meadow." There is no evidence on the records of Suffolk co., showing what disposition Leffert Lefferts or his heirs made of this property.

Avery's tract, as per H. Onderdonk Jr., was once owned by Gov. Winthrop of Mass., and appraised at £6900. It stretched 4 miles along the south bay, extending 7 miles back in the interior of the island. There were in the lottery 1616 prizes to 6384 blanks, making 8000 tickets sold for 30 shillings each; of these prizes 1580 were cash prizes of £3 each, equal to £4740, and the tract or farm was cut up into 36 parts (each of which was a land prize), of a total valuation of £6,900, with a deduction of three per cent. The tract abounded in pine timber with a fine range for sheep and cattle, was divided by rivulets into 7 necks, having on it four dwelling houses, a grist and saw mill, etc.
