His sons, Elijah and Elias, were executors of his estate and May 15, 1804, were summoned to settle their accounts.

Samuel Morse built a burial vault for his family. After his decease, his remains were placed in this vault, also his daughter Eunice and grandson Rufus were buried there. Nearly a century afterwards, the vault falling into decay, the remains were taken out of the vault and buried near the vault.

That would make the date of the marriage 1796 and of her death 1816.

We are living in the house Elijah Curtis prepared for his bride a hundred years ago, though it has been thoroughly repaired and somewhat remodeled. It was said that being an only daughter, her father gave her the finest house keeping outfit of any bride in this section and several pieces of furniture have survived the century. We have the nicest chest of drawers I ever saw, a table, a mirror and some chairs said to have belonged to the outfit.

"Elias Morse emigrated to the Western Reserve, Ohio, on horseback in 1809, to select land for his future home. He was the founder of Methodism in that part of the Reserve. He was converted at a Methodist camp-meeting before coming to Ohio, formed a number of classes in the West, one in Crawford Co., Pa., and two in Trumbull Co., Ohio. These classes were formed before there was any Ecclesiastical body established.

On arriving in Ohio with his family in 1811, he commenced preaching in his own and neighbors' houses and barns as opportunity occurred. "About this time a mail-road was established on the state road and J. W. Brown was appointed in his stead, his commission bearing date of 1812. He served as postmaster about 30 years, his family being the first pioneer settlers in Williamsfield, Ohio.

He was chosen Elder of the M. E. Church on the 13th day of August, 1826, by Abijah Hedding, Bishop, and the Elders present, at camp-meeting, Mercer Circuit."—Family Records.

He came to Wisconsin in 1847. He lived five years on a farm in Mt. Pleasant, then moved to the home in Caledonia where he afterward resided. He outlived seven brothers and sisters and was one of the last of the old settlers of his neighborhood. When nineteen years of age Mr. Morse professed religion and always lived a consistent, active Christian life. Many have spoken of his vigor of mind and strong will power which made him unwilling to be idle; also of his great sweetness of spirit and genial manners.

He was alive to the interests of the day. He was a strong abolitionist in the early days of that party.

While in his 93d year he rode four miles to vote for McKinley.

He was connected with many enterprises which helped to build up the country.

He helped to get out the timbers for the First Congregational church of Racine where he was long a communicant.

He was firm in his principles. Even the taint of dishonesty was abhorrent to him.

He truly lived a long and useful life. He died surrounded by all of his living children and one grandchild who administered to his every want.

The funeral was conducted at his late home by Rev. Wallace Short of Evansville, Wis., a grandson by marriage.

Mrs. Harriet Morse Weeks,

Dear Cousin:—

In reply to your request in regard to the names of Samuel Morse, his children and grandchildren, as far as I can:

I enlisted in the war of the Rebellion, '61-'65, when quite young, and until the last twelve years, have not spent much of my time in Williamsfield, so can not give a very definite history of the Morse family. Marvin Morse, my father, was sick a number of years of a cancer and was blind four years before he died. He spent all his property in being doctored. He was a good man. There was a large family of us and we had a hard time, father being sick so much.

I would like to hear of the Morse Society. Please let me know if in need of any more information.

Yours truly,

MARVIN S. MORSE.

Jefferson, Ohio, Oct. 18, 1899.

Dear Cousin :

At the time I received your first postal, I was with my brother, Frank Morse in Williamsfield, I could not then give you the correct dates of my family. I came home the last of August. I had been at home just one week when my son was brought from Conneaut, sick with typhoid fever. He was quite sick for three weeks then began to gain slowly. He has now gone back to Conneaut. That is why I did not write sooner.

I was married to James P. Moran, Aug. 24, 1863. He enlisted as Hospital Steward in the 116th Regt. O. V. I., Oct. 28, 1862, and served three years, or during the war. At the close of the war, he received an honorable discharge. Then we moved to Monroe, where he practiced medicine until his death which occurred July 11, 1882. These are the dates of the birth of my children: Grant Keyes was b. Williamsfield, May 24, 1864. He is an electrician and resides in Sacramento, Cal.; Lena Sabra, b. July 19, 1867, was m. to Miles L. Law, Dec. 24, 1890 and resides in Youngstown. They have three children, Gertrude Electa, b. April 24, 1869, d. Monroe, Oct. 20, 1870. Arthur Egan, b. March 22, 1873, is at work in the R. R. employ at Conneaut; Grant and Arthur are both single men, or boys, I call them. Grace Belona, b. Nov. 13, 1876, m. Dec. 24, 1895, Arthur Black, a book-keeper in the Bingham Hardware House of Cleveland; Abbie Jane, b. Nov. 24, 1881, is attending the Jefferson Educational Institute.

One request I ask of you is to come and make me a visit if you ever come to this country. I used to see you when quite young and would like so much to see you again in my latter days. With much love to you and family, I am,

Your Cousin,
BELONA BEEBE MORSE.

Letter from Mrs. John H. Hobart, Cleveland, Ohio, June 14, 1900:

My Dear Cousin:—

Your very interesting letter came some time ago and I have made several attempts to answer, but never succeeded in getting a letter all written, there have been so many interruptions.

I was glad to hear from you and of my father's relatives. I have known and seen very little of them since mother's death. I lived with my mother's people and only very seldom saw some of Uncle Alonzo's family.

I was very much pleased and interested in all you wrote. Now I will tell you all I can about the dates you ask for.

My husband was born Rapids, N. Y. We were married Dec. 15, 1881, at Ashford, N. Y., the home of my uncle, William R. King. My husband is a carpenter.

My father died in Williamsfield and my mother died in West Springfield, Pa.

I remember Uncle Samuel and Uncle Royal, who live in Racine. They must be very old now if living. We would very much like to get one of the books when they are completed, for I would be glad to know of all my relatives. With much love,

Your cousin,

EMMA HOBART.

Wooster, Mich. His mother writes: My dear husband died seven years ago. He was a devoted Christian. His last words were (as he pressed my hand to emphasize his words), "O! I see over on the other side." and he passed beyond the river without so much as a tremor to indicate the moment the joyous soul departed. I gave my heart to Jesus at the age of 14 and he has been to me the blessed comfort I needed all the way along. Arthur gave his heart to Jesus at the age of 14 and Ray at 12 years of age. They are dear, precious boys, working for their master and Christian in deed as well as name.
They are so good to me and their little sister. Arthur is in Muskegon, Mich., learning to be a machinist, is doing well and is taking a course in the International Correspondence School.
Ray is with me on the farm.

JUNE, 1865.

My dear Grandaughter Harriet:—

I take my pen in my hand to write you a few lines. We have received a number of comforting letters from you which gave much consolation. We wish you to write often, if convenient for you to visit us, it would give much pleasure to all your relations and acquaintances in these sections of our country. Many have gone to the bourne from which no traveler returns, since you left this place. We are in our little family as comfortable as we could expect to be—have much reason to be thankful for the blessings we partake of in this life. O to grace how great a debtor daily I am constrained to be, let thy goodness like a fetter bind my wandering heart to thee. I want to see you very much and desire your prayers that I may feel as humble as I am dependent on the goodness of Almighty God. May we strive to keep his commandments that we may have right to the tree of life and may enter in through the gates into the city.

ABIAH MORSE.

WILLIAMSFIELD, MARCH 21, 1863.

My dear Grandaughter Harriet:—

We have just received a comforting letter from you which much enlivened our drowsy powers. We thank you much for the kind feelings you have for us and hope we may have the privilege of seeing and conversing with you in Williamsfield, Ohio, once more in time.

Your friends at this time are usually well. Frances made us a visit a short time since. She has been called to part with her little daughter, a very promising child. Young children too must die.

I am able to wait upon myself and in the mercies of God I shall never be forsaken. I am striving to enter in the straight gate. I shall close my letter hoping the choicest of blessings are yours.

ABIAH MORSE.

WILLIAMSFIELD, NOV. 22, 1864.

My dear Harriet:—

I sit down to write you a few lines in my feeble way. We have received your kind letter which gave me much comfort. You wished the ages of your Grand Parents. Your Grandfather's age was eighty-one lacking three months when he died. I am in my ninetieth year of my age. We were married in 1803. We have seen many changes in this life.

There on those high and dowery plains
Our spirits ne'er shall tire
But in perpetual, joyful strains
Redeeming love admire.

I hope you will pray without ceasing for all your relations in Ohio and all in the reach of mercy.

ABIAH MORSE.
