MESSENGER ANCESTRY.

I. Andrew Messenger was one of the founders and first settlers of Greenwich, Connecticut, in 1640. He sold land there in 1648 to Robert Husted. He was granted a house lot in Jamaica in 1655.

On the eleventh of April, 1662, he and his son (son-in-law?) Richard Darling, entered into a contract with the Town, to erect a "minester's house 26 ffoot long & 17 ffoot wide".

In 1663 he was appointed to buy land "off ye indeans."

In 1661 he was one of ten to agree to inform the Governor and Council against Quakers.

His son Samuel Messenger's name first appears in the Town records of Jamaica in 1670.

16 Nov., 1672, Samuel Messenger "in ye North Rydinge of Yorkshire one Long Island" conveys to "widdow Ludloe" (Elizabeth Ludlam) "howes & half lott" which he bought of Daniel Whitehead.

II. Samuel Messenger m. 20 Apr., 1669, Susanna Mills (?) He died 1685, his will was admitted to probate in that year. His widow survived him for several years. She conveys land to Zachariah Mills in 1686 with the consent of the overseers of Samuel Messenger's estate (2 Jam. Rec., 328).

"A second lot layd out to ye wido Messenger, bounded west by ye little plains east Hempstead line" 19 July, 1708 (2 Jam. Rec., 436, 7).

Will of Samuel Messenger of Jamaica.	D. 20 Dec., 1685 P. 2d Tuesday in March, 1685 R. in Liber A of Convey- ances, Page 30, Queens County.

Gives eldest son Samuel 2 acres of meadows and privileges belonging thereto, also house and homestead.

To my other three sons, Andrew, Samuel and John, each an acre of meadow with privileges and my clothing to be equally divided between these sons.

Gives daughter Alice great chest and lesser chest to daughter Susannah. Other goods, iron, pewter and brasse to be equally divided between two daughters and each of the daughters to have a three year old heifer. Corn and provisions on hand to be used for the support of the family.

If wife Susannah sees fit to marry gives her best cow, feather bed and all furniture thereof beside $\frac{1}{3}$ of estate.

Daughter Alice a yew, daughter Susannah a lamb and 5 acres of land I bought of my brother (bro-in-law) Zachariah Mills.

Appoints his wife executrix, Zachariah Mills, Ben Jones, Jonas Woods overseers.

Jonas Woods and Richard Jones, witnesses.

JOHN MESSENGER	Surrogate
	Liber 25, page 69, N. Y. Co.

In the name of God, Amen. I, JOHN MESSENGER, of Jamaica, in Queens County, Gent., "being far advanced in age, and labouring under many infirmities of a Decaying Body, but Blessed be God, of Sound Mind." I leave to my only son Samuel the dwelling house where I now live in Jamaica, with the orchard adjoining and the use of half of the barn during the term of his natural life. I leave the use of the other half of my barn to my grandson, Samuel Messenger, during the life of his father. After the death of my son Samuel, I leave all the said house, barn, and orchard to my three grandsons, John, Samuel and William, equally. I leave to my son Samuel and my grandson Samuel my lot of salt meadow lying on Long Neck, in Jamaica, and to their heirs and assigns. I leave to my son Samuel $\frac{1}{2}$ of my movable estate, both within doors and without, except as herein disposed; the other half I leave to my grandson Samuel. I leave to my grandson Samuel the west half of a certain tract or lot of woodland and cleared land which I formerly purchased of Jonathan Dean. Also 16 acres lying on the North Hills in Jamaica. Also $\frac{1}{2}$ of my lot of Fresh meadow lying in Hawtree Neck in Jamaica which I lately bought of the Woodwardes. Also all that my certain lot of cleared land of 20 acres lying opposite to the Homestead where I now live on the south side of the main road leading from Jamaica to the Great Plains, "being the lot I purchased of Joseph Smith, commonly called Clerk Smith." I leave to my grandson William the other half of my lot of woodland and cleared land lying on North Hills, in Jamaica, being the east half. Also $\frac{1}{2}$ of the lot of Fresh meadow which I bought of the Woodwardes. Also a lot of 18 acres in Jamaica which I formerly purchased of Joseph Smith and Timothy Roads, both of Jamaica, lately deceased, adjoining the land of Samuel Smith, Esq., and Richard Roads. If any of my grandsons should die, the survivors are to have his part. "I leave to my grandson John one bed and furniture, which he now hath in his possession at New York Ferry," also £10 when of age. And my grandson Samuel is to pay to my daughter Abigail £3, and to my grandson, William Barnet, 5 shillings. I leave to my grandson, William Barnet, the money which he hath lately received of William Weatherbee, being my order for £30,

“also my fine gun or Fuzee, which he has long had in his possession, and which cost me £11.” My grandson Samuel shall pay to his sister, Rachael Messenger, £3 when she is of age. My grandson William shall pay to his sister Rachel £5. “I leave to my granddaughter Rachel one small trunk, one gold ring, and my Turtle Shell Snuff box set in silver.” My son Samuel is to pay all my just debts, and he and my grandson Samuel shall pay all funeral expenses and the proving of this will. “And Samuel shall help his father in bringing up and Schooling my grandchildren William and Rachel.” I make my son Samuel, and my grandsons John and Samuel, and my friend John Roads, of Jamaica, mason, executors.

Witnesses, John Thurston, James Cebra, Benjamin Hinchman.

HENDRICKSON ANCESTRY.

The use of the family name was not generally adopted by the Dutch settlers in the Nieuw Netherland until after the 17th century, and this makes it difficult to follow the lines back to the immigrant. Especially is this the case where a family subsequently adopted as a surname the descriptive title used by the Dutch, designating the son or daughter by the father's name, adding the se or sen as in Hendricksen, that is the son of Hendrick.

An Early Will Illustrates:

Appeared before William Bogardus, Notary, November 8, 1683, GERITT HENDRICKSE, dwelling near Stuyvesants Bowery. He leaves to each of his seven children "begotten on the body of his former wife, Margaret Moll, deceased," viz, Henry, Huybert, Johanes, Abraham, Isaac, Margaret and Maria Gerrits, 350 guilders in wampum. He leaves all the rest to his wife Josyntie Thomas, and she is to pay all debts, and to bring up the children begotten by her, viz., Elizabeth and Peter. If the Bowery or Plantation be sold, his wife shall see that the children are put at trades. He makes Hans Kierstede and John Johnson Longstrate overseers.

Witnesses, John Peterse Herring, John Tiebout, William Bogardus.

Endorsed on the will is the approval of his sons Henry Gerritsen and Abraham Gerritsen, and Lambert Hessen (?) husband of Margaret Gerritsen. (Not recorded.)

The name of Hendrickson is found in the earliest records of the Dutch Church in Nieuw Amsterdam, Breuckelen and Midwoudt.

In 1698 in a census of the Inhabitants of the Towne of Hempstead we find
