EDWARD HENRY MERRILL.

SARAH WILSON STRONG-MERRILL.

THE MERRILL FAMILY

John and Nathaniel Merrill, brothers, came from England to America in 1633 and landed at Ipswich, Mass., and in 1635 were of original settlers and proprietors of Newbury, Mass., where they built themselves homes and resided till they died.

It is said that their ancestors were Huguenots, and bore the patrimonial title de Merle. Certain members of the family de Merle fled from their estates near Puy-de-Dome in the province of Auvergne, France, to England, shortly after the massacre of St. Bartholomew's eve on August 23d, 1572.

John married Elizabeth —, he died September 12th, 1673, and she July 14th, 1682. They had one child, Hannah, who married May 24th, 1647, Steven Swett. She died April 4th, 1662.

Nathaniel's wife was known as Susannah, but her family name is not recorded. It has been given by some early genealogists as Jordan, but this was the name of her second husband, as the land and probate records of Essex County show. It is possible that her maiden name was Wilterton.

Nathaniel was the father of six children: Nathaniel, John, Abraham, Susannah, Daniel and Abel, he died March 16th, 1655. His will filed at Salem, Essex County, definitely mentions John, the emigrant, as his brother, and Nathaniel, as his oldest son.

John settled in Hartford, Ct., where in 1657 he was the owner of a lot on Elm St.; in 1658 was made a freeman of the place; there in July, 1658, he married Sarah Watson, the eldest daughter of John Watson, a prominent settler.

John Seymour, an ancestor of Governor Horatio Seymour of New York State, married her only sister, Mary.

Deacon John Merrill died in 1712. His son John, known for many years as Lieutenant John Merrill, married September 29th, 1694, Sarah, daughter of John and Sarah Lyman Marsh.

Aaron, their fourth son, married in West Hartford on April 9th, 1740, Esther, daughter of Samuel Richards, and their second son, Ebenezer, became on October 6th, 1766, the husband of Sarah, the third daughter of James and Thankful North Hart of Northington.

Her father was a descendant of Deacon Stephen Hart, an ancestor of Mrs. Emma (Hart) Willard, the foundress of the Troy Seminary.

Corel, son of Ebenezer and Sarah Hart Merrill, born December 14th, 1766, died August 26th, 1849.

Married 1st wife, Huldah Valance, who died December 23rd, 1797.

Second wife, Nancy Jones, born December 27th, 1784; married February 18th, 1806; died February, 1828.

Edward Henry Merrill, son of Corel Merrill and Nancy Jones; born October 9th, 1808; died August 13th, 1897; married September 15th, 1840, Sarah Wilson Strong (daughter of Cyrus Strong and Phebe Watson), who was born October 15th, 1816; died October 7th, 1892.

They had three children :

Henry Edward Merrill,
Cyrus Strong Merrill, M. D.,
Mary Agnes Merrill.
