1. I. JOHN MAGOUN, b. probably about 1625; came to Massachusetts from Scotland in 1655, with Robert Dunbar and Francis McFarland; settled in Hingham, where he m. 7th Nov. 1662, Rebecka ———; about 1665 removed to what has since been known as the "two mile district" in Pembroke. At that time this district was a part of Scituate, but subsequently was set off to Pembroke. Here he was a farmer; became a free holder in 1666; his will, dated 20th May, 1697, mentions himself as "aged;" will proved 27th June, 1709; he made a deed to his son, Elias, 25th March, 1708-9; his wife was living at date of his will; she d. ——. No inventory of his estate has been found, but from the amount of property with which his name is connected it is inferred that he was a man of "considerable means."
