INTRODUCTION.

This pamphlet is not a family history, it is simply a list of Ogden and Preston descendants, and is published for the purpose of keeping a record of this branch of the two families. We understand that more comprehensive histories of both families have been commenced, and trust that this list will be of some value in their compilation.

In order to keep the price within the means of all, we have not given dates of birth and death except in the case of those who are of Odgen-Preston birth. With that exception, we have given all the information we were able to obtain by correspondence. Unless stated to the contrary, all those named in the list of descendants are living at the date of publication, so far as we have been informed. By request, we have omitted the record of several first marriages, where there were no children. We believe the system of numbering is so simple as to require no explanation.

We will cheerfully furnish street addresses or any other information we may have, to those desiring it. All communications should be addressed to Mrs. M. E. Stone, St. Peter, Minnesota.

Following this introduction will be found a brief sketch of the Ogden and Preston lines, beginning with the first ancestors who came to the American colonies; after the sketch will be found a list of six generations of descendants, complete up to date, so far as we know.

We wish to express our gratitude to all who have assisted us in the preparation of this list, and especially to H. P. Gerald, Washington, D. C., (a descendant of Ruth Ogden, sister of Benjamin Stratton Ogden), who has furnished a great deal of information on the Ogden family, and whose unfailing courtesy and helpfulness have been the greatest possible encouragement to us.

OGDEN.

FIRST GENERATION.

This branch of the Ogden family has been traced back to the year 1453 in England. The first one of our line to come to America was Richard Ogden, who came from Bradley Plain, Southampton, England; he was born July 1, 1610; married Mary Hall, August 21, 1631; he is said to have married a second wife, also named Mary, from whom our line descends. He came to Southampton, Long Island, in 1640, with his brother John (called "John Ogden the Pilgrim"), who married Jane Bond and became the ancestor of the Elizabethtown branch of the family. These brothers were the builders of Gov. Kieft's stone church at New Amsterdam, N. Y., about 1642-1648. Later, Richard Ogden settled at Fairfield, Conn., where he died in 1687. His children were:

Richard, who m. Sarah Staple.
David, who m. Abigail Sherwood.
John, afterwards of New Jersey (our ancestor).
Hannah, wife of Sergeant Samuel Ward.
Thankful, wife of Daniel Silliman.
Elizabeth, wife of Daniel Meeker.
Daughter, name unknown, wife of John Pine.

SECOND GENERATION.

John Ogden (son of Richard<sup>1</sup>), was born at Fairfield, Conn., in 1671; married first Mary Dimon, second Sarah———, the latter is supposed to be our ancestress. He moved to New Jersey, with about twenty-six other immigrants, about 1696; they settled in what is now Fairfield Township, Cumberland County, New Jersey. John Ogden was one of the leading men in this little Puritan settlement; he was an Elder in the old Presbyterian church, Justice of the Peace, tax assessor, Freeholder, farmer, miller, an extensive land owner, and a Lieutenant in the Colonial Militia. He was the ancestor of the "South Jersey Ogdens." He died Dec. 22, 1745, "in the 75th year of his age," according to his tombstone, which is still standing in the old Cohansey Cross-Roads Graveyard, near Fairton. His children were:

John, who m. 1st Mary Brooks, 2nd Bertha Reed.
Daniel, of Deerfield, who m. Rachael Moore.

OGDEN-PRESTON GENEALOGY.

David, who m. 1st Hannah Dayton, 2nd Mary Bateman.
Thomas, of Fairfield, N. J.
Joseph, who m. Abigail Pierson.
Samuel.
Jonathan, who m. Hannah, dau. of William Dare.
Sarah.
Priscilla.
Bathsheba.

THIRD GENERATION.

Thomas Ogden (son of John<sup>2</sup>, Richard<sup>1</sup>), was born in 1720; married first Sarah Harris, daughter of Thomas Harris; second, Violetta Harris, daughter of Nathan Lawrence and widow of Thomas Harris; third, Mrs. Sarah Westcott; fourth, Mrs. Sarah (Austin) Stratton. There is good evidence that the third and fourth wives were the same woman, born Sarah Austin, daughter of Cornelius Austin and Martha (Soulard) Austin. Sarah Austin married first Benjamin Stratton, second Henry ( ? ) Westcott, third Thomas Ogden. She was born July 26, 1730. A Stratton genealogy says: "She is remembered as a person in Quaker dress, of Puritan principles."

Thomas Ogden lived all his life in Fairfield Township, N. J. He owned the mills there after the death of his father, John Ogden. The grist mill and saw mill were known as "Ogden's mills" for a century. Thomas was an Elder in the Old Stone Church near Fairton, N. J., and he is buried there in its cemetery, beside his last wife, Sarah Austin. His first two wives were buried in the "old Cohansey Cross-Roads Graveyard." His tombstone reads: "In Memory of Thomas Ogden, who departed this life the 23rd Day of December, 1785, Aged 65 Years." The epitaph on Sarah Austin Ogden's tombstone is: "In Memory of Sarah Ogden, widow of Thomas Ogden, who Died November 1, 1804, Aged 74 years. 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord.' "

Thomas Ogden and his family were of unfailing loyalty to the cause of the Colonies, and while he was too old for active military service in the Revolutionary War, he held a Civil office during that period. He was one of the "Chosen Freeholders" for Fairfield Township, Cumberland County, N. J., in 1775, 1776, 1778, 1779 and 1780, and as such officer was required to take the oath of Allegiance. His children by his first wife, Sarah Harris, were:

Thomas, who m. Abigail Dare.
Sarah, who m. her cousin, Samuel Ogden.

Children by last wife, Sarah Austin:

Violetta, Martha and Joseph, supposed to have died young.
Benjamin Stratton, who m. Nancy Preston.
Thomas, who m. Ruth Newcomb.
Ruth, who m. James Ogden.

FOURTH GENERATION.

Benjamin Stratton Ogden (son of Thomas<sup>3</sup>, John<sup>2</sup>, Richard<sup>1</sup>), was born Aug. 8, 1767; m. in 1786 Nancy, the daughter of Levi and Dedemiah Preston. He was Captain of Artillery, U. S. A., War of 1812, and Asst. Deputy Quartermaster in 1814-1815. About 1816 he and his family left New Jersey and settled near Cleves, Hamilton County, Ohio. Nancy Preston Ogden died May 27, 1847. Benjamin Stratton Ogden died Feb. 5, 1849. They were both buried in Berea Cemetery, near Cleves, where their tombstones are still to be seen. The names of their children, as well as six generations of their descendants, will be found further on in this pamphlet.

In regard to the origin of the name, and the coat-of-arms of the Ogden family, we quote, by permission, from the preface to "The Ogden Family in America, Elizabethtown Branch," by Wm. Ogden Wheeler:

"The name Ogden comes from Saxon ock, oak-tree, and den, a local termination -----synonymous with dean, a wooded valley.-----The name is thus freely rendered, 'the oak valley,' 'oak dale,' 'vale of oaks,' 'oak vale,' etc. The name has been variously spelled de Oketon, Oketone, Ocktone, Okedone, Okedon, Okeden, Oakden, Okden, and finally, Ogden. The earliest date of the present spelling is about 1500 A. D., while Okeden is found as late as 1738.

"On all escutcheons of the arms-bearing Ogden families of England, the oak branch or oak leaves and acorns, are always found, and usually in the crest. For 'Okeden of Ellingham in Hampshire,' the arms consist of 'Sable, on a fesse argent, between three acorns gold, as many oak leaves vert,' the same display as the Hants family of Ogdens in this book."*

* Those wishing copies of the coat-of-arms, ready for framing, should communicate with L. VanAlstyne, Sharon, Conn.

PRESTON.

FIRST GENERATION.

Our first Preston ancestor in America was Roger Preston. He was a tanner, born in England in 1614. He came from London in 1635, on the ship Elizabeth & Ann, and settled at Ipswich, Mass. His wife was Martha, family name unknown. They moved to Salem, Mass., in 1657, and he died there Jan. 20, 1666. After his death she married Nicholas Holt of Andover. The children of Roger and Martha Preston were:

Thomas, who m. Rebecca Nurse.
 Mary, who m. Nathaniel Ingersoll.
 Elizabeth, who m. William Henfield.
 Samuel, who m. Susanna Gutterson.
 Jacob, unmarried, lost at sea.
 John, who m. Mrs. Sarah (Geary) Holt.
 Levi, who m. Abigail Brooks.

SECOND GENERATION.

Levi Preston, (son of Roger<sup>1</sup>), was born at Salem, Mass., July 16, 1662; married at Swansea, Mass., Oct. 16, 1695, Abigail Brooks, daughter of Timothy and Mary (Russell) Brooks. (Mary Russell was daughter of John Russell). Levi Preston was one of a colony of Baptists who went from Swansea to "West Jersey" about 1709. They settled in Salem County, New Jersey. Their children were:

Levi, who m. Mary———; had three daughters.
 Martha, who m. Samuel Bennett.
 John, m. ———, had son John.
 Mary, who m. ———Bishop.
 Abigail, who m. Benjamin Stratton.
 Isaac, who m. Elizabeth Dare.
 Freeloove, who m. William Dare.

THIRD GENERATION.

Isaac Preston, (son of Levi<sup>2</sup>, Roger<sup>1</sup>), was born Sept. 10, 1707; married Elizabeth Dare, daughter of William Dare. Their children were:

Levi, who m. Dedemiah———.
 Isaac, who m. Hannah Bower; was Col. in Revolutionary War.
 Elizabeth, who m. Charles DuBois.
 William.
 John.
 Joseph.

FOURTH GENERATION.

Levi Preston, (son of Isaac<sup>3</sup>, Levi<sup>2</sup>, Roger<sup>1</sup>), was born 1732. He married Dedemiah (or Dedamia), whose family name is still unknown to us. Levi Preston was Lieut. and later Captain in the New Jersey Militia, Revolutionary War. He died in 1790, and his estate was administered by his son-in-law, Capt. Benjamin Stratton Ogden. We have been able to learn of but one child of Levi and Dedemiah Preston, their daughter Nancy.

FIFTH GENERATION.

Nancy Preston, (daughter of Levi<sup>4</sup>, Isaac<sup>3</sup>, Levi<sup>2</sup>, Roger<sup>1</sup>), was born Oct. 18, 1768; married Benjamin Stratton Ogden in 1786; died 1847.
