PERRY FAMILY HISTORY.

MY DEAR KINSFOLK:

H. P. PERRY, of WESTFIELD MASS., U. S. A., is collecting facts for a History of the Perry Family and its connections and EARNESTLY REQUESTS that the enclosed question will be answered and RETURNED, with all the information you may have concerning your Perry ancestors, viz: Names, Dates, and Places of Births, Marriages, Residences and Death; whom married, account of children, etc., being careful to give the month, day of month and year in the dates, full names, etc., addresses of relatives and other Perrys known to you.

If you should be unable to answer all that is requested, please do not neglect to send what you can.

Trusting that you will not pass over this important subject, I am, Respectfully yours,

H. P. PERRY, WESTFIELD, MASS.

The purpose of this work is, principally, to register in a convenient and simple form the pedigree of any Perry, and thus record for all time many important facts in the history of the family which would otherwise be lost. Another primary object is to publish here the ancestry of a person as complete as it is known, as a means of obtaining additional information regarding it. It is also designed to be a convenient work of reference, to show the origin of the various Perry families. However indifferent some may affect to be regarding this question of ancestry, those who have a good pedigree will usually have a natural pride for it. Many lineages must of necessity contain nothing but simple records of uneventful generations, but they will preserve facts of great interest to descendants which would otherwise in many cases be lost in the history of a family. It is not necessary that a lineage should be traced to the first settler in America. If traced to 1776 is sufficient, although it is better, if possible, to trace the line further back. The plan of the work is somewhat similar in idea to the well-known English works, but altered to suit the conditions of American society, and in detail is as follows:

DIRECTIONS FOR PREPARING A LINEAGE.

The surname or family name is given first, with the given name, residence, birthplace, and date of birth. This is followed by remarks of a brief biographical character, giving the principal events in the individual's life, such as occupation, college degrees, if any, authorship, public service, experiences, and if married, date, wife's name and parentage, with remarks relating to her ancestry. If the individual whose lineage is given had brothers the same facts may be stated respecting each of them, in order of their birth, commencing with the eldest. This completes the first generation in tracing back the lineage. Next is given the father's name, followed by same class of facts, and so continue back in male line as far as can be traced.

No charge is made for inserting a lineage. If a copy of the volume is desired, price $5.00, payable one-half in advance and the other half at delivery. If you wish to have your photograph published with your lineage, enclose a photograph and $2.00 with your lineage.
